

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PRES. TO DELEGATES OF CONGRESS, 1783.

March 19, 1783.

Gentlemen,

The Council having observed that by the fourth of the provisional articles agreed upon by the Commissioners of the United States and of his Britannic Majesty, it is declared "that Creditors on either side shall meet with no lawful Impediment to the Recovery of the full Value in Sterling Money, of all bona fide debts heretofore contracted," are unanimously of opinion that these Expressions have an Extent & force, that unless properly regulated, may be attended by Consequences inconsistent with Justice, Humanity or Equity.

There may be no particular Hardship in calling upon British Debtors for payment, that Kingdom not having been the seat of War. The Case is totally different with Respect to Citizens of these states who are Debtors. It is needless to repeat to Gentlemen of your Information the various and severe Calamities with which this Country has been overwhelmed in the Course of the unprovoked War. You are sensible not only how general and grievous these afflictions have been, but that the Effects must continue in very considerable operation for some time.

We therefore desire that You will use your best Exertions in Congress to have Instructions immediately sent to our Commissioners, requiring them to take Care that in the definitive Treaty of Peace, or by some Convention with Great Britain, citizens of the United States may be allowed a reasonable Time for the payment of their Debts to British Creditors.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your very humble servt.,

JOHN DICKINSON.

The Delegates of Pennsylvania, in Congress.

RESOLUTION OF ASSEMBLY. BOUNDARY LINE, 1783.

State of Pennsylvania, In General Assembly,

Saturday, March 22, 1783, A. M.

The Report of the Committee on the Message from the Supreme Executive Council, relative to the line run between this Commonwealth and the State of Virginia, read March 5, was read the second time, and adopted, as follows, (viz.)

Your committee who were directed to confer with the Supreme Executive Council on the report of the Commissioners for running the line between this State and that of Virginia, having performed that duty, beg leave to report,

That taking into consideration the resolve of this House, dated March 2, 1782, It appears to have been the opinion of the General Assembly of this State that a temporary line, which might be run at a moderate expence, would answer the present purposes, and serve as a boundary to the end of the War, or until the States might be in more tranquillity, and better able to encounter the expence that would attend the final settlement thereof. And we find that the General Assembly of the State of Virginia, by their resolve, dated the first day of June last, have agreed thereto.

We also find that in pursuance of said resolves, and in conjunction with the State of Virginia, Council have caused the said line to be run and marked agreeably to the plan laid before the House.

Resolved, that this House do approve the said report, and confirm the said line run by Messieurs Nevil and McClean, as the boundary line between this State and that of Virginia, until the final settlement thereof be obtained.

That the Supreme Executive Council of this State communicate the resolution of this House to the Legislature of Virginia, as soon as conveniently may be, and in the mean time issue their proclamation signifying the same; and requiring the inhabitants included within said boundary to pay due obedience unto the Laws of this State.

Extract from the Minutes.

PETER Z. LLOYD,

Clerk of the General Assembly.

REPORT OF A COMMITTEE OF ASSEMBLY, 1783.

Your Committee appointed on the Message of the Supreme executive Council, with the report of the proceedings of the Comptroller General, concerning the settlement of the Accounts of Timothy Matlack, Esq<sup>r</sup>, Secretary to said Council, Beg leave to report That they have taken into consideration the proceedings of the Comptroller General, by which it appears the said Secretary has charged the State with a very considerable sum, and which the said Comptroller declares is altogether inadmissable and prays to be instructed by the Honorable the Council or Assembly, it is therefore the opinion of your Committee that the most eligible mode of bringing this business to a final settlement, is for the Comptroller General to prosecute the said Timothy Matlack, Esq<sup>r</sup>, in the Supreme Court, in Order to try the contested points by a Jury, & therefore recommend the following resolution:

Resolved, that the Comptroller General of this State proceed to the tryal of the contested points, in the Accounts of Timothy Matlack, Esq<sup>r</sup>, Secretary to the Supreme executive Council, by a Jury in the Supreme Court, and that he be hereby authorized to employ Counsel for that purpose.

Indorsed,

Office for foreign affairs, Philadelphia,
24th March, 1783.

Sir,

I have the honor to enclose an abstract of the preliminary Articles for a general peace, Signed the 20th of January, 1783. They were brought by a vessel that arrived last night from Cadiz, dispatched by Count d'Estaing to recall the cruizers and privateers of his most Christian Majesty and his Subjects. Tho' not official, they leave no room to doubt this happy event on which I sincerely congratulate Your Excellency. When the wisdom of the United States shall have re-established their credit & strengthened their bond of Union, which will doubtless be the first work of peace, we shall have every reason to hope that this will be a happy & a flourishing Country.

I have the honor to be, Sir, With great respect,

Your Excellency's Most obedient & most humble servant,

PRELIMINARIES OF PEACE, 1783.

Philadelphia, March 24th, 1783.

His Most Christian Majesty's Cutter the Triumph, commanded by the Chevalier DUQUESNE, arrived this Morning, in 36 days from Cadiz. By her we have the following very agreeable and important Intelligence.

The Principal Articles of the Preliminaries of the Peace of the 20th of January, 1783.

France to retain Tobago and Senegal.

France to restore to Great Britain Grenada, St. Vincents, Dominique and St. Christophers.

St. Eustatia, Demerara, Berbice, and Issequibo shall be restored to the Dutch.

Great Britain to restore to France, Goree, St. Lucia, St. Pierre, and Miquelon.

The fishery of France and England on the coast of Newfoundland to remain on the same footing on which they were left by the treaty of 1763, except that part of the coast from Cape Bonavista to Cape St. John's, which shall belong to the English.

France to be re-established in the East Indies, as well in Bengal as on the east and west coast of the Peninsula, as regulated by the treaty of 1763.

The articles of the preceding treaties, concerning the demolition of Dunkirk, to be suppressed.

Spain to retain Minorca and west Florida.

Great Britain cedes East Florida to Spain.

An agreement is to be entered into between Spain and Great Britain, about the cutting of wood in the bay of Honduras.

Great Britain to retain the Dutch settlement of Negapatam in the East Indies.

Great Britain to restore Trincomalee to the Dutch, if not re-taken.

St. Eustatia, Demerara and Issequibo, to be restored by the French to the united provinces.

Great Britain acknowledges the sovereignty and independence of the thirteen united states of America.

The limits of the united states to be as agreed upon in the provisional articles between them and Great Britain, except that they shall not extend further down the river Mississippi than the 32d degree of north latitude, from whence a line is to be drawn to the head of the river St. Mary, and along the middle of that river to its mouth.

Copy of the heads of the preliminaries of peace, signed the 20th of January, and transmitted by express on the 22d by the marquis de Caffries. (Signed,) Cadix, February 11, 1783.

ESTAING.

We Caesar Anne de la Luzerne, Chevalier of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, Marechal des Camps and Armies of the King, Minister Plenipotentiary of His Most Christian Majesty to the United States of North America, &c.

Make known to all those whom it may concern, that the Chevalier Duquesne, lieutenant commanding his Majesty's cutter the Triumph, who arrived this day at this port, has communicated to us Orders, in form of a Passport, which he received from Count d'Estaing, Vice-Admiral of France; of which the following is a Copy.

"CHARLES HENRY COUNT D'ESTAING, Vice Admiral of France, Lieutenant-General of his Majesty's Forces, Knight of his Orders, &c.

It is ordered, that monsieur the chevalier Duquesne, lieutenant commanding his majesty's cutter, Triumph, do sail as soon as possible from the bay of Cadix, and inform all vessels that he may meet of the happy re-union of the belligerent powers. It is ordered, in the name of his majesty, and by me, to all ships of the line, frigates, and other vessels belonging to his majesty, that he may meet, that they abstain from all hostilities against the ships of war and merchant vessels of his Britannic majesty, but, on the contrary, that they give them all necessary aid and succour, and every testimony of a union re-established under the most happy auspices, by the preliminaries which were signed the 20th of this month, of Jan. in the present year, it is ordered also, in his majesty's name, that all vessels armed for war and on a cruise, do return into port. After having given them a copy of this order, he shall take their names, likewise the date of the day that he shall have furnished it, and shall notify to them that they shall answer personally for every deed which they may commit contrary thereto.

Monsieur the chevalier Duquesne, in virtue of the present order, which serves him for a passport, shall carry a flag of truce, he shall particularly cruise in those latitudes where he presumes he may meet the greatest number of French privateers, and shall endeavour to overtake them. If the events of the sea shall conduct him to any of the French colonies, or upon the coasts of the united states of America, he shall communicate the present orders, to the governor of the place, and to the armed vessels of the different nations that may be then there, he will likewise shew the present passport to all vessels of war belonging to his Britannic majesty with whom he shall speak, and give them a copy signed by him, if they should desire it. He shall likewise pay them every respect, which the first moments of a re-union demands; the object of his mission, (for the good of humanity, and as much as is in my power) being to hasten its happy effects.

Cadix, the 10th February, 1783.

Signed,

D'ESTAING.

By Order, MARTIN."

And desiring to give all necessary Authenticity and Notoriety to these orders, We certify by these Presents, that the above is a true Copy.

We likewise certify, that M. le Chevalier DuQuesne has informed us, that M. le Comte d'Estaing directed him to desire all vessels that he should find ready to sail in the different ports where he should have occasion to go, to delay their departure from said ports, until the arrival of official accounts of the signing the Preliminaries, the news of which cannot fail to arrive soon on this continent.

Given at Philadelphia, in our Hotel, this 24th of March, 1783.

LE CHEVALIER DE LA LUZERNE.*

CAPT. WM. ARMSTRONG TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

Sir,

Inclosed I send you a List of the Waggoners' Names who were stopped in Chester County, when on their way with British Cloathing from Wilmington to Lancaster.

As Sheriff Gardner says Four of the Waggoners were not stopped along with the other thirty-four, he will now be able to ascertain their names; But as it certainly was owing to the others being stopped that they did not proceed to Lancaster, I must expect that he will find them out, & see that they do proceed accordingly, where a receipt will be given for every article delivered, & the amount deducted from the return of Deficiencies that I gave in on the 19th Instant; But as there is now a prospect that our Prisoners will soon be sent to New York, it will be necessary to Limit the time of Delivery to a short period.

As I have Business of Consequence which obliges me to return to New York & prevents my being able to wait for the Completion of this Business, I am to request your Excellency's Answer to my requisitions of the 19th Instant, in order that I may lay it before His Excellency Sr Guy Carleton. If thought necessary, I don't suppose there will be any Objections made to my returning here some time hence to finish it.

SIR GUY CARLETON TO R. R. LIVINGSTON, Esq., 1783.

New York, March 26th, 1783.

Sir,

I have rec'd your letter of the 24th Inst. enclosing a resolution of Congress of y<sup>e</sup> same date taken in consequence of the arrival of the Cutter Triumphe, commanded by Lieut. Du Quesne, with orders of the 10th of Feb'y last, given at Cadiz, by Vice Admiral D'Estaing for him to put to sea & cruise on such stations as he shall judge most likely to meet with ships of his nation, & inform them of the happy reconciliation of the belligerent powers, & to order all their ships of war to cease hostilities against those of Great Britain, the preliminary articles of a general peace being signed the 20th of Jan'y, you thereupon are pleased to express your expectation that I would think the information thus conveyed "sufficiently authentic" to justify my taking immediate measures to stop the further effusion of blood."

For my own part I have hitherto abstained from all hostilities, & this conduct I mean to continue, so far as our own security would permit, but how great soever my desire is to put an entire stop to the calamities of war & whatever respect this information may deserve, yet I do not find myself thereby justified in recommending measures which might give facility to the fleets & armies menacing any part of the King's possessions, to carry their hostilities into execution.

To adopt a measure of this importance it is necessary I should receive orders from home, which I may reasonably expect every hour, as a cruiser sent out on other purposes is already arrived at Philadelphia, & I assure Sir, I only wait the official certainty of this great Event, to assume the language and the spirit too, of the most perfect conciliation & peace.

I perceive Sir, by the resolution enclosed in your letter, that Congress has thought fit to consider this information as authentic & thereupon has taken one considerable Step towards carrying the terms of peace into immediate execution. Another not less important I presume has been taken, or is taking. With the cessation of hostilities I perceive, is connected in the 7th Article of the provisional treaty an engagement that "All prisoners on both sides shall be set at liberty," of this event therefore I hope likewise speedily to receive the very necessary & welcome notice, as I shall find the highest satisfaction in seeing released on all sides, men, upon whom the evils & calamities of war, have more peculiarly fallen.

I am Sir

your most obt. & most hum. servant,

GUY CARLETON.

Sir,

Your Excellencies Orders, and Instructions to me of the fourth Instant I Received on 13th But Such was the State of the Weather, the Roads and the Freshes in the Creeks and Rivers as Rendred it Impracticable for me to march before the 19th and on the 23d I Arrived here, with much difficulty, (where I met Captain Philip Shrawder,) I Imediatly Took posession of the garrison with Every thing belonging thereunto. I Also met at the same place Capt. Peter Summers, Late of the 4 Pennsa. Regt., who had been sent here to Collect and Carry away the Remainder of the (Continental) Military and other stores from this post. As I Had Carried no military stores to this post I therefore Judged it Improper to Let the garrison be Intirely destitute of Amunition, I therefore retained some part of the Military stores (for which I gave Captain Summers a Receipt,) and herein Inclose your Excellencie a Return of the same.

Previous to my arrival here the Indians had Either Killed or Captured two men at some Distance from this place, I Have also received Authentick Intelligence of one man being Captured in Buffalo and of parties being about That neighbourhood, and Muncy. I also beg leave to assure your Excellencie that a strict Attention and Regard shall be paid to every part of your Instructions to me.

ANSWERS OF HON. GEO. BRYAN, 1783.

The answer of George Bryan, fourth Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, to certain questions proposed by his Excellency the president & the honorable the Council. March, 1783.

First,

Whether Commissions of oyer & terminer, as they have been usually issued in this State since the revolution, in general; and particularly whether a Commission of oyer & terminer lately issued for Westmoreland & Washington Counties, are agreeable to the Constitution & laws of this State.

Answer,

The Act of Assembly of 1722, for establishing Courts of Justice, appoints, that the Justices of the Supreme Court, who then held at the pleasure of the governor, should be justices of oyer & terminer. This Law especially, if taken into consideration with the Act of 1718, for the advancement of Justice, doth not make the Judges the only Commissioners of Oyer & Terminer in capital cases. And if such construction might have been taken on the passing, yet long contrary usage & acting seems to have decided the point. The standing Judges at Westminster are not the only Commissioners of oyer & terminer in England, & even since the act of William the 3<sup>d</sup>, by which independent Commissions & salaries were established for them, no such idea has been entertained. Nothing has passed in Pennsylvania, as I know of, at or since the American revolution to introduce any alteration upon this point. It may, perhaps be suggested, that this authority in the Council, may be abused, as it enables that board to select Judges in a particular case, to hear & try with design to prevent a fair & equal hearing. But such doings ought not to be presumed. They would be too odious. I am of opinion, that there may be cases of atrocious offence in which such Commissions would not only be legal, but proper. As to the Commission issued lately to Westmoreland and Washington Counties, with Blanks in it for the names of the accused; I should think it void for that circumstance. But the uncertain description of these persons leaves the matter without all doubt. Such a writing could give no authority whatever to the Commissioners. The whole proceedings under it must be null, in my opinion.

Second,

Whether the modes directed by the Acts of Assembly for the appointment of the Justices of the peace by the Council, without Elections by the people, are warranted by the Constitution.

Answer,

By the 30th section of the Constitution, if the freeholders of any district, incline to have a justice of the peace appointed in such district in a manner different from the mode therein directed, the Legislature may gratify them; but that the Assembly upon the neglect or refusal of the freeholders to choose, may authorize the executive branch to appoint is not clear to me. Perhaps the Council upon such neglect might Commission Justices of the peace, till the proper Electors resume their rights under the general power given in the 20 Section to supply all vacancies. However, this is not a case like that of vacancies in the places of Sheriffs & Coroners, officers, essentially necessary to the compleat organization of justice & which Council must immediately fill; whereas the neglect of two or three districts in a County to exercise their priviledge of electing Justices of the peace, would not be attended with any great inconvenience.

Upon starting this question another idea has arisen. It has been asked whether the authority by the ninth Section given to the legislature, to incorporate Towns, Burroughs, Cities & Counties, includes, not that of constituting Mayors, Aldermen & Burgesses of a different appointment from the Constitution, with the powers & jurisdiction of a justice of the peace?—I think not, unless the major number of the freeholders be desirous of it; and this be properly manifested to the Legislature. For such communities were at common Law long before the institution of Justice of the peace, who came in by statute. Many corporations of this kind subsist in England, which have no such Magistracy in them, under their Charters. The City of Westminster* for instance, is governed by a high Steward & Burgesses, who nominate a bailliff, which acts as a Sheriff. The justices for the Liberty of Westminster, who are specially commissioned by the Crown, have the care of the peace, & hold a quarterly sessions to hear and try offenders. Yet the Corporation of this City holds Courts of common pleas and a court similar to the Courts Leet, which determines upon nuisances & other offences. "By Holt chief justice, tho' a man be a mayor, it doth not follow, that he is a justice of the peace; for that must be a special grant in the Charter." Raymond 1830. The Legislature may therefore erect Corporations of Towns, without thereby constituting Justices of the peace within such Communities, & the Constitution upon both these heads is very consistent, especially, as the very mode of the 30 Section may be established in such Towns. But if any variation be designed, it should seem, that the freeholders be called together, & that they request it in a special manner pointing out the permanency & manner of choice.

If the authority to incorporate Cities, Towns & Counties could be supposed necessarily to include a right to give the jurisdiction of a Justice of the peace to a Mayor, Alderman or Burgess, the 30th Section of the Constitution might be easily evaded, altogether by incorporating every County for certain purposes. Nay! the priviledge of electing the Sherriff by the freemen might be wrested out of their hands by a like artifice. For a Bailliff might be constituted to do the duties of the Sherriff within such County, Town or City. And the argument would be strengthened by this circumstance, that Bayliffs of Corporations are as early as the introduction of municipal governments borrowed from France & Italy soon after the Conquest. The Communities of Cities were an assuagement to the rigor of the feudal Government, whereby the inhabitants of Towns were protected & supported in their independency of the neighbouring Lords, & therefore such privileges were once of great consequence to the traders and artisans. Hence they were eagerly sought for in England. It is remarkable that the old burroughs are all within the Lands of royal demesne, & therefore it must be inferred that the King alone favoured these franchises. The great freeholders without doubt, were anxious to hold the people down under the servile condition of Villeinage; a species of Slavery, which yet obtains in Russia, Poland & divers other Countries.

How far the authority of the Assembly, in constituting Magistrates, with jurisdiction equal to Justices of the peace, has been exercised constitutionally in reviving the Charters of Chester and Lancaster, or in framing a municipal police for the Town of Carlisle, I am not fully informed. But if the consent of the major part of the freeholders in these Burroughs, has not been expressed so as to justify the innovations made by giving power to the freemen annually to choose justices of the peace; I can hardly think the Burgeesses under these incorporating Acts, however, improved the manner of doing the business may be, possess any more jurisdiction than that of conservators of the peace. These Magistrates will do well to enquire into this.

There was an Act of Assembly passed in 1777, authorising the Council to appoint Judges of the City Court. As these magistrates exercise power to hear & determine concerning the peace the Council has heretofore carefully Commissioned Justices of the peace to sit there.

But as to the Law of 31st August, 1778, whereby the Council was directed to appoint justices of the peace upon the neglect of the freeholders to elect, I do not think it will warrant the Council to proceed accordingly. The Acts of Assembly passed in 1777, I shall give like answer to. These last I always considered as temporary. No unconstitutional use, as I remember, was made of them.

ANSWERS OF C. J. MCKEAN, 1783.

Queries proposed to Honourable the Judges of the Supreme Court and to which, Council request that they will be pleased to give answers.

1. Whether Commissions of Oyer and Terminer, as they have been usually issued in this State since the Revolution, in general, and particularly whether a Commission of Oyer and Terminer lately issued for Westmoreland and Washington Counties, and the proceedings thereon, are agreeable to the Constitution and Laws of this State?

* See Col. Rec., Vol. XIII., p. 548.

2. Whether the modes directed by Acts of Assembly for the appointment of Justices of the peace by the Council, without Elections of the People, are warranted by the Constitution?

Council Chamber,

Philadelphia, March 20th, 1783.

Answers.

1. It rather appears to us, that Commissions of Oyer & Terminer as they have been usually issued in this State since the Revolution, if they are all conformable to the precedent shown to us are warranted by the Constitution and Laws of this State. These commissions are by the common law, and are not restrained by any Statute, Act of Assembly or the Constitution, and have the sanction of long and constant usage prior to the Revolution. But we humbly conceive, they should be granted with great caution, and only upon very urgent occasions, when the offences are of a very heinous nature and require immediate punishment; and after they are executed, they, together with the proceedings thereon, ought to be returned into the Supreme Court. Special commissions, granted on the complaint of particular persons, are prohibited by divers statutes and void.

The commission lately issued for Westmoreland and Washington Counties and sent to us, in which the names of the persons to be tried were not inserted by the Council, but by another hand after it had passed the seal, &c., and after it arrived in those counties, and in which one of the offences is insufficiently described, is in our opinion bad. A Warrant for felony, signed and sealed by a Justice of the peace, having a blank for the names of the party to be arrested and afterwards filled up by another person, has been adjudged void in law.

2. We are of Opinion, that no appointment of a Justice of the peace for any city or county can be valid, unless he has been previously elected by a majority of the freeholders of some ward, township or district, or unless this mode is desired by a majority of the freeholders to be altered, before an Act of Assembly is made for the purpose.

Sir,

I have received your letter enclosing me the resolve of Congress with a copy of a letter to his Excellency Sir Guy Carleton, but as I have as yet received no Official accounts from England, I must wait till you on your side relieve our Prisoners before I give that general relief to yours I so much wish.

There can be no reason for detaining our prisoners one moment, as Congress must suppose the peace signed—I shall take every precaution in my power consistent with my duty to stop any further mischief upon the Seas, But should recommend the preventing any Vessels sailing as I have not yet received sufficient authority to enable me to withdraw my Cruizers.

Sir,

I had the honour of receiving your Excellency's Instructions of the 11th of December last in pursuance of which I inclose a Return of the state of the Company for this Present Month. I have not had it in my Power to send any Earlier. I could wish to have had your Excellency's Instructions in what manner to have made these Reports, as I may perhaps be deficient in matter of form. That part of the Company which is now present were on furlow the Months of January and February last on account of the scarcity of Provisions, &c. The Savages had already began their cruel Incursions on the Frontiers; last Week they killed two and took two prisoners about ten Miles from this Place near Brushy Run. I could not learn what number there was of the Enemy. I only hear of four that were discovered. They were so bold as to Endeavour to break open the House, but were bravely repulsed by one Man and one Woman who were within, but without any arms or weapons of Defence. One of the Indians attempted to push his Gun in at the Door, which those on the inside of the Room seized and broke, upon which the Indians left them. The Inhabitants of the Frontiers seem more discouraged this Spring than they have been, having flattered themselves with the most sanguine hopes of peace, which hopes they now think are Frustrated.

CAPT. PHILIP SHRAWDER TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

Wyoming, March 29, 1783.

Sir,

In Obedience to your Excellency's Orders I took Possession of this Fort the 21st inst. and Captn. Robinson arrived the 24th. From Captn. Summers who had been sent here by Mr. Hodgden for the military stores belonging to the United States we received some necessary Ammunition for the Artillery at this Post hoping to meet with your Excellency's Approbation as the Ordnance otherwise would have been entirely useless. Powder, Lead and Flints for Rifles and Muskets we stand very much in Need, neither is there any at Northumberland. The Conduct and Behaviour of the Inhabitants resembles that of a conquered Nation very much. They had several Meetings concerning their public affairs this Week, Keeping the Result thereof a secret. Yesterday Morning they sent one Mr. Harvey to Connecticut to a Recording Office for Copies of the Names of the first settlers on Susquahannah and when they took Possession of the Land. By another Gentleman I was informed they had wrote to the state of Connecticut to bring on another Trial. Last Tuesday they held Court but adjourned again the same Day. As the Law of Pennsylvania is not established yet and that of Connecticut abolished, the Body of the People a Concourse from different states among whom there is a Number of the bad Kind, who by taking advantage of the Times, would be willing to defraud the better sort; I would therefore entreat your Excellency and the Hon'ble Council for Instructions how to conduct in Case People come of their own accord or are brought before. I would further beg your Excellency's Orders, what to do when some of the Pennsylvania Claimants should come up to plant a little summer Grain as those new acquired People say, they will not suffer the Penns'a Landholders to plant any Thing, neither will they permit some of those Connecticut Pennsylvanians to raise any Grain on the Ground, who had done so last year under Connecticut Claim. Mr. Gore of this Place, who had been sent some time ago to the Assembly of the state of New York with a Petition for a Grant of Land thirty Miles Square at Aghquague on this Side of the Lake near the Head of the River Susquahannah, returned last Night and brought the News that the Petition of the Wyoming Settlers had been granted and that he was to go up & chuse the Place.

CAP. SHRAWDER TO JOHN VAN CAMPEN, 1783.

Wyoming, 30 March, 1783.

Dear Sir,

(Copy.)

At and since my arrival at this Place the Inhabitants are exceeding reserved and to judge by appearances the generality of them does not like the Pennsylvanians to an Excess—last Monday they had a Town meeting to sound their Purses whether they can muster as much as would pay for a Tryal, but not coming to a determination they adjourned till Wednesday for it seems some is for Pennsylvania & others not—on Tuesday they had Court, as far as I could hear nothing was done at that so they adjourned again for the Defendants will call their authority in Question, and the Court cannot support their authority by force. Mr. Justice from below the mountain near Delaware (whom you know & I not) continues to issue warrants, or precepts, but Mr. Yarrington the Constable swears he'll not serve any more warrants, as the Justices can do nothing after a man is taken. On Monday Col. Butler arrived here, and the day following he and several of the principal Inhabitants was over the River to Shaweney, but whether on private (as they wou'd fain make me believe) or on Public I cannot tell. On Thursday they had a Town meeting here, when they agreed according to Capt Spaldings Information to me, to send Mr. Harvey to a certain Place in Connecticut for a Copy of Records to see what time the first Settlers came here and who were they; accordingly Mr. Harvey set off yesterday morning. But by the way of another information I heard they had wrote to the Governor and assembly of Connecticut about having another Tryal for the soil, if not for Jurisdiction; for the People are divided, some for one some for the other, and some for both. They have also appointed a Committee last Thursday to confer with the Committee appointed by the House of Assembly. Cap<sup>t</sup> Spalding is one of those for Wyoming, he is the truest of any which I have seen yet, his Interest doth not lay here at all, he claiming only a certain place near the Standing Stone, on which he formerly lived. Other Gentn. pretend ignorance of Court and Town Meetings to me, although I am very certain of the contrary & it is very likely they are absent in Person but present by Proxy at those Meetings, for some particular reasons give me leave to tell you my opinion in the matter; notwithstanding the Assurances you have had, the Conduct & deportment of the People indicates a great dissatisfaction for the State of Pennsylvania. Before I could be up, I had wrote a Letter to Col. Dennison & Cap<sup>t</sup> Shott, setting forth the sentiments of both Branches of the Government concerning the dispute, but during the whole time of my presence here, I have not seen Mr. Dennison yet. Cap<sup>t</sup> Robinson who came up on Monday last and went off again on Tuesday last, informed me there was no Knapsacks at all at North- I herewith send you a Letter which I had wrote some time ago, but for want of an Opportunity could not forward it, inclosing both pay and muster Roll, if you have not receiv'd any Money for me on that account please to send them down. The other Clothing is exceedingly necessary—To have provisions transported up here, I made application for Waggon, but could not get on the States Account—I was therefore under the disagreeable necessity to engage them myself, but when Logan and Myself came within about 15 miles of Wyoming, we met 8 Men, who, when they met the Waggoners, told them that Logan had desired them to order the Waggon back to Zawitz's and there to unload. As this was entirely against my Orders & knowledge & encreasing the Expenses, (besides the Detention of Provisions which might have occasioned my leaving the ground again) for the cost Days, which Vandermark insists to draw pay for, I would therefore request the favor of you to settle this matter with Logan, for Vandermark says it is his real opinion that Logan desired these Travellers to order the Waggon to the above mentioned place.

I have the Honor to be

With due Respect, Dear Sir,

CORRESPONDENCE RELATIVE TO WYOMING, 1783.

Wyoming, 17th April, 1783.

Gentlemen,

The Committee appointed to Represent the Claimants under the State of Pennsylvania, beg leave to address you and bid you welcome to Wyoming, as the Representatives of the Honorably Assembly of this State. Your appointment and appearance here will we hope answer the good Purposes intended in the attainment whereof we assure that every proper Indeaavour shall be on our part so far as our Interest or personal influence extends, we wish as much as Possible to bury in Oblivion, the Treatment our Associates and fellow Citizens have received on those Lands, on which we first entered peaceably and quietly under the Lawful Authority of this Government. But cannot help Observing that some of the fairest Characters and most worthy Citizens have lost their lives, by men who forced us and others from our Possessions, even without the pretention of authority from any Government Whatever. And for years have bid defiance to the laws & Powers of Pennsylvania, we find by the list of injured Purchasers, that we are Called to Represent the Widows and Orphans of Many brave men who have fallen in the Common cause of their Country as well as ourselves and others, Who have impowered us to Appear for them. Our Grait and only aim is to set forth facts that are incontestably, True. To Wit, that we were in quiet and Peacable Possession of those Lands before the intruders from Connecticut came here; that they took Possession by force, Plundered us of our property and Effects, and Compelled us to abandon our Settlement fairly Purchased from the lawful owners.

But we trust the day is now Come or near at hand, when civil Government will be restored and the laws Executed, so as to protect us and our Associates from any further insults; That the State of which we deem it an Honour to be called Citizens, will extend its Wholesome Laws to this quarter, and that in future we shall enjoy the Blessings of Civil Government, and Re-possess the Property Wrested from us by lawless Force.

The unanimous and impartial decision of the Court which lately decided upon the Jurisdiction and Preemption of this Country Opens the way for a fair and full enquiry into the Justice of our Claims as individuals, the foundation of which will doubtless be laid before you by the Proper Officers. We have only to assure you that we shall patiently wate your deliberations, and pursue the steps that your prudence shall point out for Recovering of our Rights, as we deem it our duty to be directed by your Opinions, and to Recommend them as a present Law here. We must beg your Honours will be Patient in hearing the Complaints of our Constituents, which we shall lay before you from time to time. By this mode we shall fully inform you of the Situation of the Sufferers, and your Wisdom will lead to the most Effectual Measures of Certain Redress.

We are in behalf of the Claimants under Pennsylvania, now Assembled at Wyoming, and by order of the Committee.

ALEXR. PATTERSON,
Chairman.

ANSWER OF THE COMMISSIONERS.

Sir,

The Commissioners appointed by the Honble the General Assem- of the State of Pennsylvania to endeavour to Compromise the dispute subsisting between the Citizens of said State and those formerly of the State of Connecticut, and Report a mode of introducing Civil Government into this part of the state, beg leave to Return you their sincere thanks, for the Polite Welcome you give them, as the Representatives of this State, to Wyoming.

The Sentiments you express of using your endeavours and Personal Influence to promote the ends of our Mission in this County, Viz., the Peace and Happiness of its Inhabitants by burying in Oblivion the former ill Treatment you, your Associates or fellow Citizens might have received are perfectly Agreeable to us.

Allow us to assure you that as our duty dictates, so our inclination will prompt us to hear with Patience & pleasure what you may think proper to offer on this subject, and afterwards to determine with Candour and Impartiality on such Measures as may have a tendency to Establish Justice, Peace, and the Regular exercise of Good Government in this part of Pennsylvania.

With Sentiments of Respect for the Gentlemen who you Represent, we are

Sir, your most Obt. and Very humble Ser<sup>ts</sup>,

JOS. MONTGOMERY.

Chairm<sup>n</sup>.

No. 3.

A. PATTERSON (Chairman) TO THE COMMISSIONERS.

The Committee are honoured by your answer to their address, the Assurance you are pleased to give them of attention to the rights of the Citizens of this State, calls for their Grateful Acknowledgements and so perfectly harmonizes with the Sentiments of the Committee That we are instructed to Commit ourselves wholly to your Direction in future, and in doing this are Confident, that our rights are in the Hands of those who will have a watchful eye over them. We are Sorry to Observe so much of the Old leaven Remaining in the Sentiments of the People of Connecticut & Expressed in their last Conference with your Honours, their Humanity would it seems permit us and our Associates to Go any where over the wide world, no matter where, Provided they may enjoy our Lands, they Cannot Conveniently spare us one foot for the Support of our Families, We think this an ungrateful return to the good People of this State, and so far short of the Expectations of the Legislature whose Humanity and Pity Consigned to Oblivion all Past Offences by a Law for the Purpose; And whose wisdom pointed out the only way of information to the House of Assembly of the Real dispositions of the Contending Parties. We beg leave only to Suggest to your honours that we have reason to think the Obedience to the laws of this state by many of those people, will not be durable—Unless such Pledges are taken by your Honours as cannot admit of any evasion or denial hereafter, if that Assurance be once given, and the Pretended Claim under Connecticut Relinquished in writing Publickly, Plainly and unequivocally, we wish them Afterwards every Indulgence that your Honours may Judge Generous in us, and worthy of the Approbation of the Assembly of Pennsylvania, and all the World.

We propose to give them leave with Covenants of Warrant for holding their Possessions one year from the first day of March next, at the end of which they shall deliver up full Possession of the whole; They shall occupy half the Lands, Mow half the Meadows, Dwell in the Houses they now Possess, and Cultivate their present Gardens, and if they have any opportunity of disposing of their Huts, Barns or other Buildings, they shall to do it and to remove them off at any time between the present day, and the first of May, 1784. The other Moiety or half of the Cleared Lands and Meadows to be possessed by us and our Associates and no Impediment be thrown in our way to enjoy. The Rev<sup>d</sup> Mr. Johnson to have the full use of all the grounds he Tilled for two years, ending the first of May, 1785. The Widows of all those whose Husbands were killed by the Savages to have a further indulgence of one year, after 1st May, 1784, for half their possessions & a square in the Town to be set apart for their use, to which they may remove their Houses, and at the End of the term sell them to the best advantage for their own use; We think a Refusal of those terms hardly Possible, but if Stubbornness and disaffection to the laws of this State are yet to Continue, We Trust your honours will be Convinced that on our parts, we have not had in View merely our own Private Interest, but that our offer will appear Just and Charitable before God and man.

With every Sentiment of Respect, we are Gentlemen, your most obedient, in behalf of the Committee & by order,

A. PATTERSON, Chairman.

Directed, To Honble Jos. Montgomery, Esq<sup>r</sup>, Chairman of the Commissioners.

JOHN JENKINS TO THE COMMISSIONERS.

Gentlemen,

We duly Rec<sup>d</sup> yours of the 22nd Ins<sup>t</sup>, inclosing the address and Proposals of the Landholders of this State by their Committee, and altho we must Confess that their Elegant manner of Address is far beyond us, yet we hope our Plain Country way of Communicating our Ideas will be forgiven, but we cannot help taking Notice, that in their Address they Complain of a proposal that was made by us before your Honors being Very ungrateful, which to the best of our Remembrance was, that it had been intimated by some, that it was Probable this State would out of Courtesy bestow some thing, in the land way on the Settlers and Claimers of the Lands here under Connecticut, they were only Ask'd that if that was Granted out of Courtesy, whether they would not Exchange and Suffer us to enjoy our Peaceable Possession here by way of Compromise; their answer was that they were able to Apply for Lands as well as we. We are Extremely sorry to entertain the Idea that in a Compromise we or they should instead of looking at the designed and desired Object, be forming Mountains out of Mole Hills, we do not think in the lawful defence of what we Esteem to be Our own can with any Justice be Termed a disaffection to Government, we would add the Petition we laid in before the Legislative body of this State, we was in hopes would be Considered of as we find it is, and if that is Granted, or any other Satisfactory Measure Can be come into by way of Compromise, as we would first take all Lenitive Measures, and if nothing is Effected by this Method of Treating. We must have recourse to the Ninth Article of confederation, as that is the only way Pointed out for the Tryal of those Lands Claimed under different States, and altho we mean to pay due Obedience to the Constitutional laws of Pennsylv<sup>a</sup>, yet we do not mean to become Abject Slaves as the Committee of Landholders Suggest in their Address to your Honors.

The proposals made by the landholders under Pennsylv<sup>a</sup> by their Committee, through you as Mediators between us seem to Appear to our View to be far from even retaining their own Ideas or rather Contracted from those presented before your Honors, and on no other Conditions than a total disclaim and Immediate Surrender of all Claims will Satisfy them; what their Claims are we know not, only they say they are under Pennsylvania; we Expect they are made Acquainted with ours, and from that Possibly would wish to have it given up, for fear it should Overballance theirs. But we cannot as we are Joint tenants with a much Greater body of Joint Proprietors than is here, without their Joint Consent give up our Claims to those Lands in dispute, nor yet do we think that the proposals by them made would tend to peace, and as they are so far from what we should Call Reasonable, that in short we Cannot Comply with any part of their Proposals—without doing the Greatest Injustice to our Joint Claimants, ourselves the Widows and Orphans, and as we seem to be verry far devided in our Ideas, are sorry to say we have no Expectation of Coming to any Amicable Compromise, yet we would wish for their Patience. to see if the Legislative body of this State cannot devise some Measures in their Wisdom, for the Mutual Benefit of the Whole, if they shall not be able we would on our part wish that a Happy End might be put to the dispute by a Speedy Tryal Agreeable to the Ninth Article of Confederation which will fully Satisfy us, and we will fully Comply with.

With Esteem & Respect, we are your Honors most Obed<sup>t</sup> Humble
 JOHN JENKINS.

JACOB JOHNSON To the Com<sup>te</sup> of the Pennsylvania Landholders, &c.
 Gentlemen,

I thank you for your distinguished Favor shewed to me the widows, &c., in a proposal of Indulgence, Permitting us to reside in our present Possessions and Improvements for the present & succeeding Year. Altho I cannot Consistly accept the offer, having Chosen a Com<sup>te</sup> for that purpose, who are not disposed to accept of or Comply with your proposals. However, I will for myself (as an Individual) make you a proposal agreeable to that Royal President, Sam<sup>l</sup> 9th, 16th, & 19th Chapter, if that dont suit you and no Compromise can be made, or Tryal be had, according to the law of the States, I will say as Mepheboseth, Jonathau's son (who was lame on both his feet) said to King David, Sam<sup>l</sup> 19, 30, yea let him take all. So I say to you Gentlemen if there be no resource, Neither by our Petition to the Assembly of the State of Pennsylvania or otherwise, Let the Landholders take all. I have only this to add for my Consolation and you Gentlemen's serious Consideration, Viz: that however the Cause may be determined for or against me (in this present uncertain State of things,) there is an Inheritance in the Heavens, sure & Certain that fadeth not a way reserved for me, and all that love the Saviour Jesus Christ's appearing.

I am Gentlemen, with all due

Respect, & good Will your

To the Gentlemen Com<sup>rs</sup>, &c.

N.B. it is my Serious Opinion if we proceed to a Compromise according to the Will of heaven that the lands (as to the Right of soil) be equally divided between the two Parties Claiming, and I am fully Satisfied this Opinion of mine may be proved even to a demonstration out of the Sacred Oracles. I would wish you Gentlemen would turn your thoughts and enquiries to those 3 Chapters above referred to and see if my Opinion is not well Grounded & if so, I doubt not but we Can Compromise in love and Peace—and save the Cost and Trouble of a Tryal at Law.

No. 6.

ALEX. PATTERSON (Chairman) TO COMMISSIONERS.

Gentlemen,

By the Reply of the Committe of Connecticut to our Proposals (a Copy of which we were favoured with by you,) we find those Gentlemen have thrown off the Mask at last, and in their own Plain Country way tell you they are Sorry to say they have no Expectation of Coming to any Amicable Compromise; they might have added with equal Truth that they never Intended to do any thing, but what dire Necessity obliged them, the forming mountains out of Mole Hills never Originated in the mind of the Peaceable Citizens of Pennsylvania, unhappy for our quiet, that it entered into the Restless imagination of the Susquehannah Adventurers, their designed & desired Object is to hold by force the Lands which we have fairly purchased and possessed in quiet, under the lawful Authority of this State; It Cannot be Possible that Ideas of holding our Property otherways than by force, could enter the minds of even the least informed of them, petitions may be wrote and Committees Appointed to talk with you and us, to Lull the State, but actions speak louder than words and proofs as Clear as demonstrations is in our power to Shew their insults to this State and Contempt of its Laws

—they try to pervert the meaning of words, and to offer generous to an Extreme, they Reply that they mean not to become Abject Slaves as the Committee of Landholders Suggest in their address to your Honours—to Refute this we only have to appeal to you for the Rectitude of our measures and endeavours to do good. That we required a full explisite and unequivocal disclaim of their Right to our Lands is True, for we can rely no longer on Promises made only to amuse us, fatal Experience has Convined us that we have been too Credulous, whether they know our Claim or not is of little Avail, your Honors know them well, they have been laid before you, we are not acquainted with theirs and the Judgement of the Greatest Court in the United States assures us that their rights are not to be understood any more than the Application of the Ninth Article of the Consideration in the Case between them and us.

We leave the Explanation of Joint Tenants and Joint Proprietors to those Gentlemen learned in the Law Jointly and Severally to form their Ideas from, and Parcell it out amongst the Joint Claimants in Grants of six miles Square to the South seas, we shall, however, follow the advice of those Gentlemen in every Prudent Act and patiently wait for the decision of our Assembly, and have to lament that the Generosity of this State, and your Zealous Endeavours to Accomplish the laudable ends of your Mission have been fruitless in this Instance. Be Assured Gentlemen that our Constituents and ourselves are Impressed with the Highest sense of your good intentions to Promote Peace, Order and good Government in this Country, and we flatter ourselves through your means & Just representations of our Situations, we shall obtain such Speedy Redress as the Wisdom of the Legislature shall think adequate to our wants, and the laws of the State be extended and Supported so as to Protect the innocent and Punish the Transgressor of every Denomination in the Ready Execution, of which we beg your honors will assure the Legislature that we shall behave like faithful Citizens.

Please to accept our warmest Wishes for a Safe Journey home to each of you, & believe us to be with Sentiments of the Highest Esteem and Regard, your most Obedt and Very huml Serv<sup>ts</sup>.

PRES. DICKINSON TO DELEGATES IN CONGRESS, 1783.

Gentlemen,

By a Law of this state the Introduction of British goods is forbid during the war. Many respectable Merchants of this City have applied to Council desiring to be informed,* if British vessels may in the present situation of affairs be admitted to Entry. We therefore earnestly wish to know the sense of Congress on this point, whether the United States are now at Peace with Great Britain. The Decision of this Question belongs to the national Council, & will when made clearly produce uniformity of proceedings throughout the States: But without it, there may be contradictory sentiments & measures among them.

I am gentlemen with great Esteem your very h<sup>ble</sup> servt.,

JOHN DICKINSON.

No. 1—CORRESPONDENCE OF REV. JAMES FINLEY, 1783.

Cecil County, Maryland, April 28, 1783.

As y<sup>e</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> Council over which your Excellency presides was pleased to appoint me to fulfil y<sup>e</sup> Intentions of y<sup>e</sup> Legislature by endeavouring to bring those deluded Citizens in y<sup>e</sup> western counties to a proper Sense of their duty, who seemed disposed to separate from y<sup>e</sup> Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, & erect a New & Independent state & left it with me to act as prudence might direct, &c. And, as I undertook this business, they doubtless had a right to demand, & therefore may justly expect me to give an account of my conduct herein; which, may it please your Excellency, was as follows:

Immediately upon y<sup>e</sup> receipt of y<sup>e</sup> appointment, & your Excellency's Instructions, which were of singular use to me, I set off; & endeavoured to gain all y<sup>e</sup> knowledge I could of y<sup>e</sup> sentiments & conduct of y<sup>e</sup> people in y<sup>e</sup> different parts of those Settlements. And, as I found y<sup>e</sup> y<sup>e</sup> Inhabitants on y<sup>e</sup> east side of y<sup>e</sup> River Youghioganni were mostly opposite to a New State, I passed them by. A considerable number of those between s<sup>d</sup> River & y<sup>e</sup> Monongehela, as well as a great part of Washington County, I found to be fond of it; being misled by a few aspiring, & I suspect ill designing men, or by men who had not thorowly considered y<sup>e</sup> whole matter; which later was y<sup>e</sup> case of some of y<sup>e</sup> Clergy. I also found y<sup>e</sup> y<sup>e</sup> Act to prevent y<sup>e</sup> erecting any New & Independent States, &c.; & likewise y<sup>e</sup> Act for y<sup>e</sup> sale of certain lands therein mentioned, &c., of y<sup>e</sup> 3d of December last, quite intimidated & discouraged y<sup>e</sup> populace, who had been buoyed up with y<sup>e</sup> hopes of easily obtaining, & prospects of great advantage by a New State; & y<sup>e</sup> even y<sup>e</sup> Ringleaders were for eating in their words & putting a new face upon their conduct; so y<sup>e</sup> y<sup>e</sup> design of y<sup>e</sup> Legislature was partly effected, yet y<sup>e</sup> people seemed rather hushed than convinced: Therefore I called upon a number of y<sup>e</sup> Ministers & other Gentlemen, conversed with some & wrote to others, as well as cautioned y<sup>e</sup> people after Sermon against having any hand in such Schemes.

The Substance of my conversation, cautions, & letters is to be found in y<sup>e</sup> copy of a letter I herewith send your Excellency; & which is nearly y<sup>e</sup> same with many I wrote on y<sup>e</sup> occasion; & which, in a leisure hour your Excellency may give a glance to, if it may be thought worth while.

I carefully concealed my appointment from every one; nor did any appear to suspect it. But while some approved of my conduct, others, viz, y<sup>e</sup> New Statesmen alledged I was too officious: yet I suspect appearing in a public Character in y<sup>e</sup> affair would not have answered any better end. I concluded however that having y<sup>e</sup> letters in their hands & reading them one to another, as I found was the case, they would be obliged to attend to y<sup>e</sup> arguments. I hope some good is done; & cannot but believe y<sup>e</sup> y<sup>e</sup> New State affair is over at present. I was six weeks in y<sup>e</sup> country; & would have tarried longer had it appeared requisite for y<sup>e</sup> good of y<sup>e</sup> State, But, I must tell your Excellency y<sup>t</sup> I fear much opposition will be made, especially by those disappointed in their expectations about a New State, & artifices used to evade a tax, I was greatly opposed in this; & could not answer y<sup>e</sup> objections against a tax in cash, otherwise than by alledging y<sup>t</sup> y<sup>e</sup> Assembly would surely adopt some easy measure which y<sup>e</sup> people could comply with; & I hope this will be done, as those Settlements are nearly destitute of cash.

If a Campaign should be carried on to y<sup>e</sup> westward this summer or fall in order to check y<sup>e</sup> insolence of y<sup>e</sup> savages, who have already killed & captivated many; y<sup>e</sup> people, I doubt not, will readily contribute in grain or wheat, each man his share of y<sup>e</sup> tax; & by this means will be brought into y<sup>e</sup> custom without either force or disputation. And if it should seem good to y<sup>e</sup> legislature until money shall circulate more extensively, to appoint active & honest men to receive y<sup>e</sup> publick dues in flour & convey it to New Orleans to market, y<sup>e</sup> people would this way not only pay y<sup>e</sup> public tax, but also take out patents for their lands, So that in a short time many thousands would come into y<sup>e</sup> treasury, which otherwise need not be expected. With an ardent wish for y<sup>e</sup> peace & prosperity of your Government this comes from your Excellency's most obedient & humble Servant,

JAMES FINLEY.

Directed,

To His Excellency, John Dickinson, President of the Supream Executive Council of Pennsylvania.

No. 2—CORRESPONDENCE OF REV. JAMES FINLEY, 1783.

I have long had a desire of settling in this country, but have been discouraged by y<sup>e</sup> Spirit of opposition to Government y<sup>t</sup> appeared among many, And their late motion for a New State seems to me even more unreasonable & dangerous than any former attempt especially y<sup>t</sup> of erecting themselves; which it is said has been proposed by some.

That this motion for a New State is not only premature, & unjust, but also dangerous to y<sup>e</sup> Settlement, will appear by a few consideration.—If you consider y<sup>e</sup> Burthens would necessarily ensue you cannot think y<sup>t</sup> for years to come you would be equal to them. You would be obliged to support a Convention in framing a Constitution : & afterwards a greater number of Counselors & Assemblymen than you now have : Also a President, Judges of y<sup>e</sup> Supream Court, with Delegates in Congress. You would likewise have to contribute for supporting Ambassadors abroad & an Army at home, which, more or less, must still be kept up ; & also for discharging y<sup>e</sup> national debt contracted in y<sup>e</sup> present war. Paper money you know, would not do ; Gold & silver would be required for all these purposes.—But could they be expected from a people always & justly pleading their want of such cash ? I fear they would find y<sup>e</sup> New State's little finger thicker than y<sup>e</sup> Old State's loyns ; & y<sup>t</sup> they would soon complain, as y<sup>e</sup> members of some weak States begin to do that, "The support of Government is too heavy for them." Whereas continuing as you now are much of y<sup>e</sup> above expences would be cut off.

I must also tell you y<sup>t</sup> y<sup>e</sup> motion for a New State seems unjust : For, consider y<sup>t</sup>, Pennsylvania has as good a title to all y<sup>e</sup> lands within her lines as any State in y<sup>e</sup> Confederacy ; or, as any of you have for your plantations : And, I may say, guaranteed to her by y<sup>e</sup> other States. The lands in this settlement y<sup>t</sup> were claimed by Virginia are now acknowledged by y<sup>t</sup> state to be y<sup>e</sup> right of Pennsylvania ; & y<sup>e</sup> lands claimed by Connecticut on y<sup>e</sup> other side are now by a Decree of Congress confirmed to Pennsylvania also ; to which y<sup>e</sup> Inhabitants of said lands have submitted.—Consider likewise that there has been a great expenditure of both blood & treasure in part for your defence ; & a large sum (I am told an hundred & ten thousand pounds sterling) promised to y<sup>e</sup> late Proprietor to enable him to discharge debts probably contracted with a dependence on his claim to Pennsylvania. This heavy debt to him had been contracted in order to have you as well as others exempted from future proprietary demands. You know S<sup>r</sup>, y<sup>t</sup> part of y<sup>e</sup> unlocated lands has been allotted to y<sup>e</sup> officers & soldiers in y<sup>e</sup> Pennsylvania line for their encouragement in y<sup>e</sup> defence of your civil & religious rights ; & y<sup>t</sup> y<sup>e</sup> remainder is considered as a fund for discharging y<sup>e</sup> aforesaid debts.

These things considered, can your people think it just to attempt being erected into a New State within y<sup>e</sup> claim of Pennsylvania without her consent, & without having made any proper compensation to her ? Would they desire to defraud y<sup>e</sup> men who fought for them out of their lands ? Or can they think those brave men would not resent y<sup>e</sup> ungrateful treatment, & defend their property sword in hand ? Or can your people desire to shift paying y<sup>e</sup> debts which honour & confidence both urge to see discharged ? Can they attempt to lay y<sup>e</sup> foundation of a State in iniquity & deceit, & yet expect y<sup>e</sup> blessing of y<sup>e</sup> righteous Governour of y<sup>e</sup> World ? Have y<sup>e</sup> subjects of any nation attempted, especially by violence, to dis-member y<sup>e</sup> State, unless on account of intolerable tyranny practised against them? But, I suppose, y<sup>e</sup> warmest contenders for y<sup>e</sup> point among you, alledge nothing of that nature. This New Settlement has rather been nursed like a child by y<sup>e</sup> old. The Council, President, Judges, Assembly, Delegates in Congress, & y<sup>e</sup> Army have all hitherto been supported out of the Treasury into which you have yet put nothing, & some even refuse to do it. And why should such a Nursing attempt to desert y<sup>e</sup> parent before it can stand alone; & while, if it were a State must appear contemptible & without weight in the scale of Empire? This is surely ridiculous! In vain are y<sup>e</sup> first Colonies of America urged as a Precedent. They had no other refuge in their first settlement, but were constrained by hard necessity to begin their Government with a few families or be without laws. Yet they had y<sup>e</sup> advantage of being without debt, which is not your case.

If any alledge great inconvenience in being connected with y<sup>e</sup> other part of y<sup>e</sup> State, I answer y<sup>t</sup> y<sup>e</sup> difficulty is not greater than in some other States, & far from being insuperable. The usual business of each county can be transacted in itself without difficulty; & if trial of causes in y<sup>e</sup> Supream Court can be had without much expence by y<sup>e</sup> Circuits of y<sup>e</sup> Judges; while y<sup>e</sup> attendance of members of Assembly is defrayed by y<sup>e</sup> State in general. Should y<sup>e</sup> distance from y<sup>e</sup> present Seat of Government be thought a grievance, petitioning for removal to a place more central could not be blamed, & no doubt would be granted as soon as y<sup>e</sup> arguments for such a removal should appear to your Representatives weightier than those against it. The same measure might be taken for having a land office established among you, y<sup>e</sup> want of which many complain of.

All these things considered, I think it no wonder y<sup>e</sup> Congress (as I am told,) treated a late application for a New State with disregard & I doubt not ever will while matters continue as they are. And if you should without y<sup>e</sup> consent of Congress erect yourselves into a State, & by faction & violence dismember y<sup>e</sup> old, you would certainly incur y<sup>e</sup> Displeasure & bring y<sup>e</sup> force, not only of Pennsylvania, but of all y<sup>e</sup> States upon you, since they are bound to assist & defend each other in y<sup>e</sup> possession of their rights. I tremble to think y<sup>e</sup> before we are well emerged from a war with foreigners we might be called to stain our hands in each others blood! There are many who considering these things think & even say, y<sup>t</sup> y<sup>e</sup> motion for a New State must & does originate with ill-designing men, who desire to save their Estates at present, & make opportunities for advancing themselves to posts of honour & profit hereafter; but cover their designs with pretences of public good. And, say they, we know y<sup>t</sup> by such pretences, & by y<sup>e</sup> same class of men y<sup>e</sup> Settlement has been kept in confusion year after year to y<sup>e</sup> detriment of y<sup>e</sup> Publick & hurt of Individuals; & y<sup>t</sup> when one Scheme fails another is invented." Hence they alledge y<sup>e</sup> when y<sup>e</sup> motion for a New State has had its operation some other affair will be brought on y<sup>e</sup> carpet. If this be true, I may say, how long will you suffer yourselves to be imposed upon? However, I am of opinion that there are several Gentlemen who are far from any ill design, but thro' mistake or simplicity are led in. I wish them to consider & retreat before it be too late.

You are all professors of Christianity, It surely requires men to be honest, peaceable & submissive, attending to y<sup>e</sup> one thing needful. But y<sup>e</sup> measures pursued by some have a different effect. They gender animosities, contentions, & many evil works; & may end in confiscations, banishment, & blood. There are different Denominations of Professors among you; strict notice will be taken of all; & observations made on such of these as appear most refractory & ungovernable. I wish all may avoid confirming y<sup>e</sup> opinion of some Gentlemen at y<sup>e</sup> commencement of y<sup>e</sup> war. They argued against it, alledging y<sup>e</sup>, "if we were independent, our back Settlements especially thro' y<sup>e</sup> avarice & ambition of petty Statesmen would become a New Germany, a Seat of Contention & field of blood. Upon y<sup>e</sup> whole I would recommend to all what I design to do myself, viz., cheerfully to pay y<sup>e</sup> annual tax, which I doubt not y<sup>e</sup> Assembly will make as easy as circumstances will admit, & as soon as may be, to get their lands patented; which may now be done on perhaps y<sup>e</sup> easiest terms will ever be had. By this means you might in some years be pretty clear of y<sup>e</sup> debts mentioned; & might, if it should then be thought necessary, with a better face supplicate for a New State; which to attempt at present seems both foolish & unjust.

I have been labouring for y<sup>e</sup> good of this Settlement these thirteen years; & my constant wish for this, & y<sup>e</sup> I & my Children may be allowed to live with you in peace & in y<sup>e</sup> fear & love of God prompt me to be thus large on this subject. And I am sure my Character requires me to endeavour to prevent especially publick evils, & to promote Righteousness & Peace in y<sup>e</sup> land. In y<sup>e</sup> meantime I am, with all due respect, Sr,

yours Sincerely

JAMES FINLEY.

P. S. As I wish y<sup>e</sup> thoughts I have suggested may be duly considered by y<sup>e</sup> people, so it cannot be disagreeable to me y<sup>e</sup> you shew this letter to as many as you think fit.

PRES. DICKINSON TO DELEGATES IN CONGRESS, 1783.

In Council, Pa., Apl. 29th, '83.

Gentlemen,

Council wrote to you some time ago, desiring that you would endeavour to have the most effectual measures speedily adopted by Congress for making Peace with the Indian nations. Having lately received advices that about forty Inhabitants of this State have been killed and taken by them, & having good Reason to be assured, that these Hostilities will be continued along the Frontiers, we think it our Duty earnestly to repeat our Request.

Perhaps the United States might appear more respectable to those nations at a Treaty to be held with them after the Delivery of Niagara & Detroit tolls by the British; but, in the meantime, we hope such steps may be taken, as may be the means of saving many lives, and preventing great Calamities. We wish Congress would be pleased to consider, whether it might not have a good effect upon the Indians, to inform them by authority, that Peace has been made with Great Britain, the articles of which are now carrying into Execution; that the Back Country with all the Forts is thereby ceded to us; that they must now depend upon us for their Preservation and, that unless they immediately cease from their outrages, & remain quiet till we can hold a Treaty with them at Niagara or Detroit, we will instantly turn upon them our armies that have conquered the king of Great Britain, and now have us other Enemies to employ their Valour, and extirpate them from the Land where they were born and now live: But, that if they behave as they ought to do, they shall be treated not only justly; but friendly. Such Intelligence as this with the advance of a proper Reinforcement to Genl. Irvine at Pittsburg, & the Exertions of the Troops under his Command, might put a stop to the cruelties of the savages, or at least prevent their becoming more extensive.

I am Gentlemen

with great Esteem and Regard

RESOLVES IN CONGRESS, 1783.

In Congress, May 1st, 1783.

Resolved, That the Sec'y at War, take the most effectual measures to inform the several Indian Nations, on the frontiers of the United States, that Preliminary articles of peace have been agreed on and Hostilities have ceased with Great Britain, and to communicate to them that the forts within the United States and in possession of the British troops will speedily be evacuated, intimating also that the United States are disposed to enter into friendly treatys with the different tribes and to inform the hostile Indian nations, that unless they Immed<sup>t</sup> cease all hostilities, against the Citizens of these states and accept of these friendly proffers of peace, Congress will take the most decided measures to compel them thereto.

Ordered, That the Sec'y at Warr, transmit the proceedings of Congress herein with copys of President Dickinson & Gen' Irwine's letter to the Comm'r in Chief & the Comm'r for Indian affairs in the Northern departm<sup>t</sup>.

SEC'Y ARMSTRONG TO WM. MACLAY, 1783.

In Council, 2d May, 1783, Philada.

Sir,

The late Indian outrages upon our frontier, have induced Council to direct, that an immediate supply of amunition be forwarded for their defence. I have it therefore in command to express their wishes, that two boxes of Musquet Cartridge & 800 flints fit for rifles be forwarded from the Military stores under your direction to Capt. Robinson now at Wyoming.

Conveyance is supposed to be easy and frequent—the propriety of seizing the earliest, will suggest itself.

I am Sir, with the highest respect,

JOHN ARMSTRONG, Jr., Sec<sup>y</sup>.

Gen. Potter or Col. Hunter will take charge of it at Sunbury. The enclosed letter, which I beg you to forward with the ammunition, is to that purpose.

With this letter, you will receive two boxes of musket cartridges and two hundred rifle flints, which Council has thought proper to forward to your frontier. It is their intention, that it be sent from Sunbury by the first safe conveyance to Wyoming. The letter addressed to Cap<sup>t</sup> Robinson may go with it. Council think it unnecessary to suggest the slightest motive to interest your attention to this business.

I am, Sir,

With the highest esteem,

CAPT. THOMAS ROBINSON TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

Northumberland, May 8th, 1783.

Sir,

The Instructions of Council Dated may 5th, I Rec<sup>d</sup> this 4th June, [?] Inst, on my way from Wyoming to this town, the Ammunition Mentioned was then on its way to Wyoming. Hitherto, Every Measure has been Taken to preserve a friendly Intercourse Between the Soldiery & the Inhabitants, & I have the Pleasure to Inform your Excellencie that the Measures I Have Made Use of Has had the Desired Effect.

* See page 46.

With Respect to the Inhabitants, there are a great Many Wrangling Disputes Chiefly owing to a pelfering as well as Letegious Spirit which Seems very Natural to some of them.

In all such Cases they have Immediate recourse to us as there are no Civil Officer in the place, and many of them thought To avail themselves of the Opportunity, Imagining no Law was to take Hold of them; they Proceeded to take and Make use of their Neighbours Property at Pleasure And even to Disposess others.

Upon which I Immediately Interposed, Choosing such as I thought freeist of that Letigious Disposition & who best knew the affairs of the Place for Information, and have so Far Prevailed in that Respect as to preserve (by their own Accounts) a beter Regulation than has ever been Among them before.

But Notwithstanding their Seeming Compliance There is Still a refractory Spirit among them, though they Wish to keep up a good appearance—of these affairs I am well aware and am Very Careful to keep them at A proper Distance.

And Your Excellency may be assured that no Endavour Shall be wanting on my part to keep Good order Among them Till Civil Authority takes place, and I have no Doubt of proceeding therein. From Some Encouragement they Have Received from the Assembly of York State, a party have been Chosen to View some Land Assigned them for a settlement; Which Party is now Returned, But I am not able to Learn the Intentions of the people on the Report of their Commissioners.

I am with Every Sentiment
of Esteem & Respect,

GEN. ST. CLAIR TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

Phil<sup>a</sup>, May 9th, 1783.

Gentlemen,

Colonel Porter has called upon me to certify to Council the Rank he was entitled to in the Pennsylvania Regiment of Artillery previous to the Reduction that took place on the first of January last. He had been a long time the eldest Captain of the Regiment rose to the Majority, and by the Resignations of Colonel Proctor and Lieut. Col. Forrest became entitled to the Rank of Lieut. Col.

Commandant, but from what Cause, I know not, the Commission did not Issue. On the first of January last, the Corps was reduced to four Companies to be commanded by two field Officers, a Lieutenant Colonel and Major. Colonel Porter was continued the Lieutenant Colonel, because the bringing him forward would have obliged him to retire from Service, to which he was averse—but there is no doubt he was clearly entitled to the Rank of Colonel Commandant.

I have the honor to be with

COMM'RS OF TAXES FOR PHILADELPHIA CO., TO PRESIDENT
DICKINSON, 1788.

To His Excellency, John Dickinson, Esq., President, and the Honorable, the Supreme Executive Council of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen,

When we sent out the Duplicates for the State Money tax, it did not appear to this Board that the holders of the Continental State Money had a right to expect an allowance of Interest due on that money in payment of their taxes, as the Law seemed to point out another mode by which the Interest was to be paid. The County Treasurer said he could not receive the money with such an allowance, for that the State Treasurer would not take it from him in that way; We therefore directed the Collectors to receive and pay it into the Treasury as the other State Money made payable by law, for this tax, and they have accordingly paid into the Treasury about 2400 Dollars, without abating the Interest. It seems a number of Gentlemen have refused to pay this tax in any other money than that in question, nor in this without an abatement of the Interest, which retards the collector of the tax, and has occasioned the State Treasurer's application to the Attorney General, for his opinion on the subject, on the receipt of which he had agreed to receive into the Treasury the Continental State Money, abating the Interest, and the County Treasurer in like manner. Before we give any further orders to the Collectors on this business, shall be much obliged to the honorable Council for their advice and direction in the premises. We submit it whether some other consistent mode may not be adopted for discharging this Interest than for the Collectors allowing the same in receiving of taxes, which we apprehend would lay open to sundry abuses.

SECY. ARMSTRONG TO ROB. MORRIS, 1783.

Phil<sup>a</sup>, June 7th, 1783.

Sir,

In reply to your letter of yesterday, I have the pleasure to inform you that this Board have already gone into your wishes on the Subject of the collection and payment of taxes. A late pressing letter has been written to the different County Commissioners, and among other considerations more partial in their application, the necessities of the army—the justice of their claim and the foreign engagements of Congress have been powerfully Urged.

I am, Sir, &c., &c.,

PRES. DICKINSON TO SURVEYOR GEN., 1783.

(In Council, P<sup>a</sup>.)

Sir,

The Intelligence received by us of Hostilities committed on the Frontiers of this State by Indians, induced us to deferr giving You directions for surveying and laying out in Lots, the Tract of Land first described in the Law, entitled "An Act for the Sale of certain Lands, &c., passed on the twelfth Day of last March, until we had taken some previous Steps for Facilitating the Execution of that Measure, and had Reason to hope that Circumstances were so far matured as to be more favourable to the Design of the Legislature.

* See Col. Rec., Vol. XIII., p. 594.

We now would have you to proceed immediately in that Business, conforming Yourself therein to the said Act.

We apprehend that you should begin with the surveys of the two Tracts, each of three thousand acres reserved for the use of the State. You will then go on to survey the rest of the Land, & to lay out & number the Lots, so that the Lots being contiguous one to another, the Plot of them may form an accurate Draught or Map of the Country.

In this Map we desire you to insert the Courses of the Several Waters, and their general Depth with all Possible exactness, and to note the Places of mines, if any, Proper Situations for Towns Mill seats & any other remarkable Advantages.

We also earnestly wish that the particular Quality of each Lot may be ascertained in the Draught or in a Schedule annexed to it, & such a precise Description be given as may be practicable.

It will be a Matter of great Consequence to have the Courses Distance, & Boundaries of each lot determined with the utmost precision, for encouraging the Sales & for presenting future Dispute; & We should be glad that you may avail yourself of Natural Boundaries as much as may be consistently with the Description of the Lot, & a proper Form of the Lots, & that the Water may be divided as the nature of the ground will admit to the several Lots where such natural Boundaries do not occur, Boundaries should be distinctly & thoroughly marked.

We confide much in your Integrity & Ability for the performance of this Work so important to the State; and as we are assured that you will employ no person under you, but such as are in every Respect worthy of so high a Trust, it will be needless to say more on that subject, but this that we expect the surveys of every Lot to be made with as much Care & nicety as can be practiced, and that every person employed be bound not to give to any person or persons whatever, any advice or Information concerning the Quality or advantage of any Lot or Lots, except the Return to be made to Council as is herein before mentioned.

If any Indians converse with you on this Business, you may assume them that those Lands are within the Boundary of Pennsylvania, and though the king of Great Britain has ceded and finally relinquished them, and we have full power to maintain our title by force of arms. Yet we sincerely intend to treat them, as our ancestors treated their Forefathers, and to deal friendly with them, if they will suffer us to do so.

We shall write to General Irvine to afford you all the assistance & protection in his power. We think his advice may also be very useful.

I am, Sir, Your obedient
and-very humble servant,

JOHN DICKINSON.

STREET COMMISS'RS. TO COUNCIL, 1783.

His Excellency, John Dickinson, Esq<sup>r</sup>, and the honorable the Supremé Executive Council of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Gentlemen,

The Street Commissioners are about regulating Fifth Street, between Chestnut & Walnut Streets, in order to carry off the Water, make the Street a more convenient Passage, and that it may appear decent to the many Strangers & others who pass that way to the State House, &c.

Altho' it is not in the Commissioners power to pave this Street at present, and therefore cannot legally call on those who own Estates fronting on the street, to pave the Gutters & Footways yet we beg leave to mention to the Honorable Council that if this is done before the east side of the State House square, the Passage would be much more convenient, and perhaps much more reputable to the State.

PRES. DICKINSON TO DELEGATES IN CONGRESS, 1783.

Gentlemen:

We observe in a Resolution of Congress of the 26th of last Month, that Furloughs are to be granted to non-commissioned Officers & privates enlisted to serve during the War.

We earnestly desire that you may prevail with Congress to have this Resolution executed in such a Manner, that a sufficient garrison may still be maintained by the United States at Fort Pitt. We are informed by the Secretary at War, that some of the Maryland Line, if not of the Pennsylvania Line also, are enlisted to serve for three Years.

We also wish you to represent to Congress, that the Troops of this State are expected to arrive in a few Weeks from South Carolina, & in a sickly Condition; and We hope that proper provisions will be made for their Dismission in as comfortable Circumstances as the situation of Affairs will admit.

GOV. HARRISON, OF VA., TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

In Council, June 12th 1783.

Sir,

A Number of the Inhabitants of that Tract of Country which falls by the temporary Line between the two States, within the Bounds of Pennsylvania, complain that the Conditions upon which it was acceded to on either Side have been departed from, and Measures adopted by your State which deprive them of those rights they held, and subject them to Censure for their Conduct while in Office, and in performance of the Duties they owed to this Government.

The Titles to Lands acquired under this State, which were stipulated to be confirm'd to the Proprietors if they should fall into that, are stated to be laid aside, and they put on the same footing with those originally within the Bounds of Pennsylvania, by which they are subjected either to the loss of the Land, or to the payment of an additional Sum of Money for a Confirmation of their rights, a Condition in either alternative contrary to the express engagements of the two States.

They further complain that the Officers of Militia who obey'd the Orders of the Executive of this State in repelling the Enemy and defending the frontier previous to the temporary Boundary Line, are subjected to Suits before the Courts, whose decisions have been against them, by which means Punishments are affix'd to Actions which are not criminal, and the late Citizens of this State harrass'd and oppress'd with Expence for performing the Services which they owed to their Country.

This is the Subject of the Memorial of these Citizens, who mingle, also, Suspensions that these Measures have been adopted, and they subjected to Injury, more from a Spirit of resentment and displeasure to them from their Attachment to this State, than from any other Cause.

Nothing further of the proceedings of your State upon this Subject than what I have from these Memorialists, which I am inclin'd to pay the more Attention to from the Consideration of the Character of the Gentlemen who sign it. It is with pain I have heard their Complaints, being convinced it hath been the Intention of your Government to comply with its engagements and do them Justice. But as Citizens who claim rights under this Government, they are entitled to Attention; and I therefore give you the Contents of their Memorial. I doubt not if personal resentment hath mingled itself in the proceedings of your State, it hath taken Place more in the execution than in the Object of the Laws, more in the personal resentment and party Spirit of those to whom this Duty is committed, than in a design of the Legislature or Executive to do them Injury. At the same time, therefore, that I desire the favor of your Excellency to communicate to me what hath been done on this Subject, I doubt not but you will take such Measures, either with the Legislature if the Evil originates there, or the Officers of Government in that quarter, if they have transcended their Duty, as will remove the Cause of Complaint which aggrieves these people.

The difficulties under which these States have for some Time since greatly labored, are nearly at an End. Those internal arrangements which more immediately demand the attention of each respective State upon the close of the War, will soon be accomplished, and we shall, I doubt not, find it equally convenient to either State to run and establish a regular & final Boundary between them, an Event not among the most inconsiderable of the Blessings of Peace.

I have the Honor to be, with Sentiments of perfect Esteem and respect,

your Excellency's most obedient
and most Hum. Servant,

BENJ. HARRISON.

His Excellency John Dickinson.

PAS. DICKINSON TO THOMAS SMITH, 1783.

June 14, 1783.

Sir,

In Compliance with your Request by Letter on the 24th of last Month, Council will now give their Opinion on the Questions proposed.

As to the first, the General Assembly having, by an Act for the Settlement of public Accounts, passed the Day before the Law mentioned by you, vested "full Powers in a Commissioner, for liquidating & selling in specie Value, all Certificates given for supplies by public Officers to Individuals, and other Claims against the United States of America by Individuals for supplies furnished to the army, the Transportation thereof & contingent Expences thereon within this State." We apprehend that the Certificates alluded to, would be thus liquidated & settled by the said Commissioner before they are presented to you for payment of a year's Interest.

As to the second—We think that the persons claiming payment of Interest under the Act, should give the necessary proof of these Facts—for it's that the Certificates were originally issued from the Loan Office of this State to persons who then were or since become Citizens of this State, or were given or granted for Articles furnished, of service done and performed by persons who then were Citizens of this State—secondly, that the persons claiming are now "actually resident within the same."

By "reasonable proof," may reasonably be understood such proof as in your Judgement is satisfactory Evidence of Truth. You will call for every Voucher & Document that can assist you to make a Determination, & which can be obtained. If Doubts remain, the Claimant must produce, if he can, sufficient Testimony to remove them, or fail in his Demand.

As to the third—It seems to us that the Interest on the Certificates therein referred to, should be computed according to the Depreciation.

I am, sir, with much respect,

Your obedient and very humble servant,

JOHN DICKINSON.

SAMUEL HODGDON TO COUNCIL, 1783.

Philadelphia, 18th June, 1783.

Gentlemen,

Soon after the reduction of York, Congress Resolved—that two Pieces of Ordnance, Six Pounders properly inscribed, should be presented to Count de Grass; two pieces were accordingly left here for that purpose, but through mistake in March last they were delivered the State of Penna. in lieu of two received from them at the commencement of the War. A favourable opportunity now presents for sending them to France, and as others cannot be had timely, I am directed by the Secretary at War to request your honorable board would give an Order for the return of those mentioned upon an assurance of their being replaced as soon as two others can be brought on from the Army; the Carriages belonging to the pieces are not wanted, as we have those on board that are more suitable. Should be much obliged by an early answer.

Indorsed,

On Tuesday, the 24th of June, I rec'd a note from the President of Congress between 3 & 4 o'Clock—that note adjourned the Congress to meet at Princeton on the Thursday following.

Tuesday night we kept guard at the Bank on Intelligence rec'd that it was to be attacked by the soldiers. Genl. Irvine & myself up all night; Genl. Ewing indisposed.

On Wedn'y Evening the soldiers paraded before my House—were addressed in obedience to orders, put themselves under the command of their officers, & retired peaceably to their Quarters in the Barracks.

On Thursday, at 12 o'Clock, the soldiers from Lancaster submitted to Command, & that Evening began their March to Lancaster under their officers.

PRES. DICKINSON TO PRES. OF CONGRESS, 1783.

Sir,

The Minister of France, who has been a witness of the last transactions of this Day, has obligingly offered to convey to Congress my account of their happy conclusion. He is now waiting to receive it in my House, and that Circumstance with the great Fatigues I have lately undergone, having been up all the last night, will, I hope, apologize to Congress for this short & imperfect Dispatch.

This Day, about twelve o'Clock, Council received from the Committee of officers appointed by the Soldiers in the Barracks, their requests, attended with a Petition of pardon from Council for their misbehaviour.

As their proposals contained no submission to Congress, Council unanimously informed those of the Committee who attended, that we should not take their proposals into consideration, unless they should first make a full and satisfactory submission to Congress, and we directed the attending members of their Committee to communicate this unalterable Resolution of Council to them.

This was immediately done, and at the same moment Orders were issued by Council for a Guard of five hundred men to be immediately assembled, and for the Militia of the City and Neighbourhood to hold themselves in readiness for action on the shortest notice, having received intelligence that an attack upon us was intended this afternoon.

The negotiation for the desired submission was continued, and with the prudent and highly commendable management of Colonel Humpton so well conducted that six of the leading Serjeants among the Soldiers first attended me, submitted and impeached two officers, a Mr. Carberry, deranged, and a Mr. Sullivan. Colonel Humpton and a number of Citizens then repaired to the Barracks, and this afternoon, just at Dark, all the Soldiers, except some of those lately from Lancaster, appeared without their arms before my House.

I then address them, reminded them of their unprecedented and heinous faults—approved the Evidence given of their dutiful disposition—insisted on their instantly putting themselves under the command of their officers, and yielding to them a proper obedience—that as a stronger proof of the Disposition mentioned, they should at the end of twenty-four Hours use their arms to reduce the Soldiers who lately came from Lancaster to obedience, unless in that time they should of themselves return to obedience and put themselves on their march for that Town under the command of such of their Officers as should be in this City, in which service the Militia should co-operate with them.

The Soldiers being dismissed were ordered to retire to their quarters in the Barracks under the Command of their Officers, & they instantly obeyed. I am informed by Officers in whom I am persuaded I may confide, that the Mutiny is suppress, except among some of the Lancaster Soldiers.

I told the others, that in Consequence of their good Behaviour I should recommend them to Congress for pardon—and I hope that they will act in such a manner as to obtain a Restoration to the favor of Congress.—I shall give orders for the apprehending of the two Officers.

I am Sir, &c., &c.,

PRES. DICKINSON TO PRES. OF CONGRESS, 1788

Sir,

Yesterday Evening the Soldiers from Lancaster began their March for that Place, under the Command of their Officers. Those in the Barracks behave very quietly, & are desirous of being dismissed.

Colonel Humpton informs me that Letters were sent by the principal authors of the late Disturbance, to excite General Armand's Legion and Colonel Moylan's Regiment, to join in the Mutiny. The present Disposition of those Troops I know not; But I expect to receive immediate advice of any movement of Importance among them, which I shall communicate to Congress.

I am Sir, your very h'ble servt.,

JOHN DICKINSON,

Philadelphia, July 27th, 1788.

Mr. Thomson, who does the Honor of charging himself with the Letter, will deliver to Congress a Copy of the last proposals of the soldiers to Council, & of the Act of Council thereon.

LIEUT. COL. A. S. DEPEYSTER TO MAJOR DOUGLAS, 1788.

Detroit, June 29th, 1783.

Sir,

Your letter addressed to Mr. Elliot has been brought in here open by an Indian, & delivered to me. I therefore dispatch Mr. Elliott into the Indian country to meet you & conduct you to this place. I desire therefore for your own safety that you may not enter into any negotiations with the Indians till your arrival here, where a Gen'l Council with the Chiefs of the several Nations is at present called, therefore any deviation from the measures already taken may be detrimental to the whole.

I am, Sir your most obed. Servt.,

A. S. DEPEYSTER,

Lieut. Col., Commanding Detroit.

SEC'Y ARMSTRONG TO THE SHERIFFS, 1783.

Philadelphia, July 30th, 1783.

Sir,

I have the directions of Council to desire you forthwith to take effectual measures for apprehending and securing a certain ——— Nagel, late Serjeant of the third Pennsylvania Regiment, who, it is said, is gone from hence to the County of Berks. He is charged with having excited the late disturbances among the Soldiery in this City. Council depend much on your exertions in this Business, and request you to conduct it with as much secrecy as possible; should he be so fortunate as to secure him, you will immediately inform Council thereof, when they will take further order respecting him.

I am, Sir, your obedient &amp; very humble servt.,

JOHN ARMSTRONG, Jr.; Sec'y.

To the Sheriff of the County of Berks.

CONFERENCE WITH INDIANS, 1783.

A Council held with the Chiefs & Warriors of the Six Nations & their Confederates at the Council Fire kindled at the Onondago Settlement. Iosioha, July 2d, 1783.

Present.

Lieut. Coll. Butler.

Lieutenants,	}	Bowen,
		Dockstader,
		Jacob Servois.

Mr. Wilkinson, Sec'y.

Mr. N. Stephens, Interpreter.

Abeel, a Seneca Chief, spoke as follows:

Brothers, Two of our young men (Oneidas,) went from their Village without the advice of any of our Chiefs, to Canawarohare (a Village settled by some Oneidas who have acted in favor of the Americans during this war) as a visit to their relations & acquaintances. Shortly after their arrival 40 of the Americans came to the same Village & informed they were on their way to view the 6 Nation Indian's Country & to build a House at Onondago for Gen. Schuyler. Next morning the Chiefs came and saluted the two young men in the usual manner, after which they expressed their sorrow that the Chiefs of the Six Nations did not attend a Council with Gen. Schuyler last spring, agreeable to his request. They then reported Gen. Schuyler's speech in Council as follows:

Brothers, "I am directed by Congress to call you together & inform you that Peace is at last agreed on between the Kings of Great Britain, France, Spain and the Americans. The great spirit above has helped & given us success, & with the assistance of France have conquered the King of England. We are now Masters of this Island & can dispose of the lands as we think proper or most convenient to ourselves. That the King of England can never hereafter make the least claim to any part of it. At the commencement of this war many of our People left us, some went to Niagara & others to different places where the King's troops lay; these people have forfeited every part of their lands & property to us for so doing, which must be a convincing proof that we are the conquerors. At that time I requested the Six Nations to lay still & not interfere in this war; but no attention was paid to my advice, they therefore are now in the same situation with those people who left us, their lands forfeited in the same manner. As we are the Conquerors we claim the lands & property of all the white people as well as the Indians who have left & fought against us. We enquired of the King what he intended to do for the Indians, as we expected that he would have been very particular about them. He being the person who should have considered their situation; but the King answered, What can I do? Nothing! You have conquered me therefore do with them what you please."

"However, it is not yet so bad with the Indians, as they can move across the Lakes, those parts still belong to the King. I desire you (the Oneidas) to acquaint the Chiefs, &c., of the six Nations with what I have now said, and that they have no assistance to expect from either the King or Congress in future. All the upper Posts are now our property, and I expect to go in a short time to speak to the six Nation Indians, & should they not meet & give me full satisfaction between this place & Fort Stanwix on my way up I shall then prepare myself as a Warrior, proceed thro' their Country to humble their pride, & make them my prisoners, &c. I shall look upon the Oneidas & Cayagas in a more favorable light than the other Nations, as two of the Cayagas have been with me during the war. The Six Nations must not by any means whatever, be stop't by Col<sup>l</sup> Butler, & should he at any time fall into our hands, he undoubtedly will be hanged."

When this speech was delivered to Brig<sup>a</sup> Gen<sup>l</sup> M<sup>c</sup>Lean, he contradicted it flatly & declared to the Six Nations, that it was false & fabricated by some designing bad people—That he could assure them, such a speech never had been made by Gen<sup>l</sup> Schuyler, & that he never authorized any other person to make it for him; and he (Brigadier Gen<sup>l</sup> M<sup>c</sup>Lean) could assure the Six Nations, that he did not believe the United States had any intention of driving the Indians out of their Country, that being a measure contrary to their own interest, & that they were not to believe such idle stories, but shut their eyes against such designing bad people; To listen only to what he would tell them, & he should always tell them the truth.

Sec<sup>ry</sup> Office, Pa.

Sir,

By order of Council, I enclose a Copy of a letter lately received from the Governor of Virginia; as the trustees of the peace of Pennsylvania, & the rights of its Citizens, Council feel themselves obliged to attend to every complaint which may be offered against those who are entrusted with the execution of Her laws, however improper the character of complaint may be. It is the object therefore of this letter to enquire into the grounds of the charges exhibited by Mr. Harrisson, & to request your report upon the Subject as soon as possible.

SECR<sup>y</sup>. ARMSTRONG TO JOHN LUKENS, S. G., 1788.

In Council, July 2<sup>d</sup>, 1783.

Sir,

In consequence of some late information that combinations have been formed in this City, & elsewhere to engross large tracts of the best part of that land which has been assigned by law for the redemption of the depreciation certificates and plans have been laid to conceal the relative value of the lots, &c. to be laid out by you, &c., &c. I have the directions of Council to express at once their orders & desire that in the execution of your business all abuse of trust may be guarded against with the utmost care & assiduity, & that the late instructions of Council upon this subject be strictly adher'd to. I need not suggest how much the hopes, wishes & intentions of government would be defeated by a successful combination of this kind.

There is a second point upon which Council have their apprehensions. Their information on this head is derived from the same source. It is this, that some arts will certainly be tried to lead the people whom you may employ in laying out this Country—to break in upon that tract, which has been set apart for the accommodation of the Troops. Should this be done, much uneasiness to the State & great injury to the Soldiery will follow—to prevent both it becomes an object of much concern to Council, & a very important part of your business that the boundary as pointed out by law—should be defined with the utmost Care & precision.

With much respect, Your

Most Obedt Hum. Servant,

JNO. ARMSTRONG, jr., Jr.,

Secretary.

PRES. DICKINSON TO BRIG. GEN. IRVINE, 1783

In Council, July 3<sup>d</sup>, 1783.

Sir,

We are obliged to you for the communication in your Letter of the 3<sup>d</sup> last; and have given such Instructions to the Surveyor General, as we hope, will be of use, in preventing the Mischief apprehended,

We wish to do every thing we can for the Benefit of the State, & for rendering Justice to the Officers & Soldiers; and, therefore should certainly appoint some Military gentlemen to act in Conjunction with the surveyor, if we had the power.

The Measure would in all probability be advantageous; and we should be pleased if your prudence would avail itself of your situation, to secure the Pennsylvania Line against the Schemes of those projectors, who prefer their own gain to more generous Consideration.

We should also be glad if you would procure due Care to be taken of the two Tracts appropriated to the State, and prevent the Timber from being destroyed.

DAVID SPROAT TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

New York, July 5th, 1783.

Sir,

Since my appointment to be Commissary of Prisoners your Excellency may easily be informed, that I have at all times contributed as much as it has been in my power to relieve their distress and make confinement as comfortable to them as possible.

No fund being appropriated to furnish them with clothing, bedding, &c., which they stood very much in need of; every Fall of the year, after making a requisition to the American commissary to supply them, I set a Subscription on foot to raise money for that purpose and never failed in procuring the sum wanted, untill last year Circumstances joined to prevent it. As no public charge was ever intended to be made, no particular account was ever kept of the individuals to whom the different articles were issued, some of the prisoners got more and others less according as their wants required, without regard to the Country or State they came from.

In the Month of January last, after the prisoners had been chiefly supplied with their winter Clothing & bedding, a Shallop arrived here from Philadelphia with about 180 Bls. of Flour and some potatoes, addressed to a Mr Robins of this place, with instructions to him to apply the proceeds in purchasing necessaries for the prisoners belonging, as he said to that State only. I expected that he wou'd have gone hand in hand with me in the business, however he has never paid me any part of that money which amounted to at least £800 the profits on which was sufficient to supply the whole of the Pennsylvania prisoners here at that time, but he objected to the greatest part of them, in particular to the whole of those taken in the S<sup>c</sup> Carolina who must have perished had I not supplied them, and they were chiefly belonging to your State, a circumstance which perhaps Mr Robins' constituents did not know when they gave him those orders.

Inclosed I send a Copy of the account by Mr Francis Gurney who has seen the vouchers and will explain the matter more fully to your Excellency who's known Character leaves no doubt with me, that you will be pleased to take such steps for my reimbursement, of the part you think equitable to pay, for the honor of the State over which you preside. With every sentiment of esteem and most perfect regard,

I have the honor to be,

Your Excellency's most obedient,
humble Servant,

DAVID SPROAT.

Princeton, July 7, 1783.

We have the honor to Acknowledge the receipt of your Excellency's letter of the 5th, and to transmitt herewith, the papers you require.

The paragraph you are pleased to particularize in the Report of the Committee appears to want precision, & to be Capable, of a construction, which we really believe was not Intended. We will move such an amendment as will better Express the fact, & what we conceive to be the Intention of the Committee; & we have not the Smallest doubt but Congress will agree it. If there are any other papers, that Council may think necessary, they will please to Signify their pleasure to us, & we shall think it our duty to procure them, & to Communicate every material transaction that Occurs during our attendance here.

COL. RICH. BUTLER TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

Lancaster, july 9th, 1783.

Sir,

I have rec<sup>d</sup> a letter of the 3<sup>d</sup> Inst., from Major General Howe. directing returns of the troops here, those furlough<sup>d</sup> provisions & since the mutiny with orders to re-call those who were concerned in the troubles & to take back their furloughs; This I apprehend will be difficult, they being Scatter<sup>d</sup> into so many different parts of the country but as it is an order from a Superior, howeyer impolitic it may be, I shall endeavour to execute it.

I have had Sergeant Nagle bro't from Reading by three of the Active mutineers, who I sent for him, two others of the principles & one Abettor, are in this town gaol in Irons, another capital fellow. one Smith, who assumes the title of a Serjeant, a british deserter, is still about the city. I think him a very proper object for punishment and refer to your Excellencys opinion the propriety of advertising him, inclos<sup>d</sup> is his description & the deposition against Serj<sup>t</sup> Nagle. I have wrote Gen<sup>l</sup> S<sup>t</sup> Clair respecting a tryal.

I have felt a little uneasy at the Congressional reflections on the State, hope when they cool they will think better of the State of Penns<sup>a</sup>.

Niagara, 16th July, 1783.

Sir,

After having already so fully communicated to you my instructions from the Sec<sup>y</sup> at War. The resolve of Congress whereon they are founded—my wishes in obedience to these instructions & my earnest desire of having an opportunity of communicating them to the Chiefs of the Indian Nations, a repetition of any part thereof would now be as useless as improper; but that my character may be defended from the imputation of irresolution, negligence or want of alacrity in the execution of my duty, I take the liberty to request that you would favor me in writing with your reasons for declining to suffer me to assemble the Chiefs, and to make known to them the message I am charged with by the United States: And from the personal civilities I have already received, as well as from my opinion of your character, I flatter myself you will readily grant me this request.

I am, with all possible respect

Sir, Your most Obed. Servant,

EPHRAIM DOUGLASS.

GEN. MCLEAN TO MAJOR DOUGLASS, 1783.

Niagara, 16th July 1783.

Sir,

I am favored with your letter of this date, in answer to which, I am to inform you that it is my wish, & ought to be that of every honest man to promote friendship, cordiality and reconciliation between the subjects of great Britain and the citizens of the United States and that I shall for my part always follow that rule—You Sir, have been so obliging as to deliver me a copy of your Instructions together with the resolve of Congress, upon which they are founded & I should have been happy to have had it in my power to comply with your wishes but circumstanced as I am in a subaltern station it was out of my power, until I had received the orders of the Commander in chief. My sentiments on that head, I had the honour to communicate to General Lincoln Secretary at War to the United States, by a letter dated 16th of May, last. An additional reason that weighed greatly with me, and rendered it impossible for me to admit the publication of your instructions, was, that part of them were conceived in terms that I judged to be unnecessary, if not improper, and must have been a reflection on any British Officer that would give his consent to their being published. I apprehend Congress to be unacquainted with the situation in which I stand with respect to Indians, there are 8,000 of them victualled here daily; these, in fact, are a part of this Garrison, as to provision & cloathing—and the impression that the communicating your instructions to them; would (in my opinion) bring on disputes that might be disagreeable to the service & the troops under my command, & for which I should be justly blamed, till I had received the sanction of the Commander in Chief. The pacific disposition of the United States to the Indian Nations, I communicated to them, when I received Gen'l Lincoln's letter, & I shall repeat it by the Superintendent immediately—you are now acquainted with the pacific disposition of the Indians & I can assure you, there is nothing they wish for with greater anxiety, than peace and friendship with the United States. They have for some time past been greatly alarmed at the several severe messages said to be sent them from Albany, but I have endeavored to quiet their apprehensions on that score. I cannot conclude without declaring, that in my humble opinion Congress could not have employed any Man better qualified than yourself for carrying on a negotiation with the Indian Nations & I greatly lament for the reasons I have mentioned; that it is out of my power to act otherwise than I have done, until I have the authority of my superiors, which I shall transmit by a flag of Truce to the State of New York, the moment I receive them.

I have the honor to be &amp;c.

EXTRACTS FROM A LETTER, 1783.

Pittsburgh, July 18th, 1783.

Sir,

I take the earliest opportunity of informing you & Council of some designing People in this Quarter, in raising disturbances amongst the Ignorant People, viz. * * * * *

I am informed that they have Reported, that there is a Remonstrance laid before the Assembly of Virginia, to have an appeal to Congress in regard to the boundary lately agreed on Between this State and that of Virginia, & to have commissioners reappointed to Run a Line agreeable to the Meanders of the Delaware, that the Line is not finally settled & that by taking the Line in the manner mentioned it would be much in favour of the State of Virginia & the People who would wish to live out of the State, by spreading these Reports it creates an uneasiness amongst those People who would be fond to take hold of any thing that would offer to Screen themselves from the Law of this State, Council well knows that these People have always been diasaffected to this Government, some effectual steps ought to be taken to fix the boundary finally, otherwise, we shall always be troubled with these kind of People, if you should think that the hint I have given will be off service, you'll excuse me for troubling you with this Letter, & I shall be happy in having it in my power to serve the State. * * * * *

GEORGE BRYAN TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

22d July, 1783.

Sir,

I attended carefully to the enquiry which your excellency was pleased to reccommend to me yesterday. Upon going to the Coroner's house, which is nigh to mine, I learned from Mrs. Rush, that he had held an inquisition on the body of Molineaux, lately killed in a violent manner.

This morning Mr. Rush himself was with me. He represents the affair as follows; that about ten in the Evening, two persons were passing thro Cedar Street near the wharf, when one of them heard a cry, near by "I am stabbed;" that he imagined that it was the voice of his companion, & interfering, layed hold of a man, two others running off at same time clad in short cloathes like seamen; that his Companion asked him "what are you about?" To which the other said, "I thought you were stabbed" "No, was the reply, I am safe," Upon which the prisoner was let go. The saylors as they seemed to be, went down street towards the wharf. Molineaux never spoke afterwards, but died in 5 or 6 minutes.

The Coroner further tells me, that he introduced the Evidences to the Chief Justice, lest he might be blamed for the darkness of this homicide, which perhaps will never be explained.

Shall I presume to hint to your Excellency, that in such cases rewards have sometimes brought forth witnesses. In this case, it might shew a laudable exertion in the Executive power to protect foreigners of whatever nation; for I presume the deceased was a British Subject, besides the deed is in its nature highly menacing. But this Idea, I submit to your Excellency's better judgment, hoping you will excuse my mentioning it.

I am

may it please your Excellency your Excellencies,

most obed't hum Servt,

GEO. BRYAN.

P. S. I should have done myself the honour of waiting on you in person this morning, had I not taken medicine for my cold.

ELIAS BOUDINOT TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

Princeton, 26 July, 1783.

Dear Sir,

I have the honor of inclosing your Excellency the copy of a private letter I lately received from a Member of Congress, while in your City. I inclose it for your information, as I think * * * being the confidential friend of Carberry & Sullivan, may be likely to know more of their Schemes than any other person.

I have the honor to be,

with great respect,

your Excellency's

Obedt &amp; very humb. Servt,

ELIAS BOUDINOT.

Directed,—His Excellency John Dickinson, Esq., Presid. &c., of Pennsylvania.

Elias Boudinot.

Philadelphia, 17 July, 1783.

Sir,

I dined yesterday at Bristol in company with a Mr. * * * of Chester; who informed me that it was to his house Carberry and Sullivan came when they fled from the City, Carberry being an old acquaintance of his. That they made him acquainted with their situation, and told him they put their lives in his hands, and that he must shelter them till they could make their escape. That he informed them of a British Ship, outward bound then lying in the River, and, at their desire, went on board and applied for a passage for them. That the Captain informed him that the Births were taken up, and he could not receive them unless the passengers consented. That no objections being made, the two men left his house & went on board about 12 o'clock in the night of the same day they came down. He informed me they came on Horse back, and brought a black boy with them to take the horses back.

* * * gives Carberry a very good name, but says Sullivan talked in a strange way—that he took him to be in liquor—that he had a pair of loaded pistols with him and swore he never would be taken alive—that if it was attempted he would shoot somebody with one of the pistols and with the other blow his own brains out.

This is the best account I have heard of the escape of these men, and I communicate it to your Excellency, rather with a desire of satisfying you, as to the manner of it, than from an expectation that such information will be of use to the Public. * * * who assisted them, does not seem conscious of having done wrong. How far he is culpable by the laws of the State, I cannot undertake to say.

I am, &amp;c.,

COM. OF TAXES OF BRICKS CO. TO PRES. DAWKINSON, 1783.

Bricks-County, July 31st, 1783.

Sir,

This acknowledges the Receipt of a Letter from Mr. Secretary, dated the 24th Instant, together with the Duplicate of another of the 20th of May last, respecting the arrearages of Taxes in this County, particularly those of the Glass and effective Supplies. In answer thereto we would wish to assure the Honorable Council, that we have not been inattentive to their Notices on this Subject; knowing also the Demands of the Law therein, as well as the public Necessities, we have constantly endeavoured to fulfil our Duty; And though our Exertions have not had the desired Effect in its fullest Extent, we yet trust, & have good Reason to believe, that, generally through the County our Success has been equal to the Abilities of the People. The War left them poor and since its Conclusion they have not had Time nor wherewith to enrich themselves. In this Sense we humbly conceive its Effects do still operate. Notwithstanding these Considerations we have urged them hard; the Collectors have been notified often, threatened and summoned to answer for Delinquency—their Plea constantly is an absolute scarcity of Money; in so much that when they distrain for Tax, they cannot sell, especially where the Goods belong to the Persons who used to pay freely when they could; and in Case of Sale, that the Purchasers themselves are often unable to make immediate Payment, though Owners of considerable Estates. Knowing, or at least believing from our own Observations and Experience, that these Pleas were just, we have indeed thought it hard and impolitic to execute the Rigours of the Law upon the Collectors; and though some of them may have possibly abused the Lenity shown them, either by Remissness, or an appropriation of the public Monies to their own Purposes, we do not know it, & hope there are but few such.

Having given your Excellency and Council the Causes which retard the Collection of the Taxes, in this County, which proceed from the Scarcity of money; we beg leave to mention another very disagreeable one, and that is a Difficulty of procuring Collectors, owing principally to the Insults and Abuses of a Band of Robbers, who infest the Middle and upper Parts of the County, and who have robbed us of large Sums, which by the Way makes our arrears much greater than otherwise they would appear. Men think an Appointment of this kind hard in those Parts, as it exposes their Persons and Properties to certain Danger, against which they have it not in their Power to guard. They consider the Latter, in some Sort as doubly at Stake—liable to be carried off or destroyed by the Hand of Violence in Part, and to make good out of what shall remain, the Loss of any public Money of which at the same Time they may be deprived. These with other obvious Considerations, arising from the Poverty of the People, induce many to choose a Fine rather than the Office. New Appointments are made, but Time lost.

But not to trouble your Excellency and Council too much, we would just represent further, that from the Information of our County Treasurer, he has paid into the State Treasury, what he thinks our full Quotas of the Class Taxes and Supplies for the Year 1781, taking into the Account the Sums lost by Robbery as aforesaid, and those paid by him to Pensioners within the County. With Respect to the Supplies for 1782, we must acknowledge the County largely in Arrear, having yet paid on Account thereof, but about £8024, and of the Supplies for 1788, nothing is yet collected. Nevertheless Justice to ourselves induces us to repeat that as Commissioners, we have not been wanting in our Exertions to obtain speedy Collections, and Respect to the Supreme Executive of the State, superadded to every other just Consideration, directs us to assure the Honorable Council that these Exertions shall be continued.

For the further Information and Order of Council therein, there will be delivered herewith, the examination of sundry Persons respecting some late Robberies.

We are Sir, with the greatest

Respect, your Excellency's,

humble Servants,

JACOB SMYSER TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

Yorktown, August 5th, 1783.

Sir,

A Letter from Council dated May the 20th, very lately came to our hands, which urged us to sue a Number of Collectors, but am made sensible of the Distresses of our Inhabitants.

Upwards of two hundred Head of Cattle have perished last Spring in this County, the Crops failed and the Inhabitants distressed to no little purpose.

The Letter of July the 24th seems very feeling and threatening, and if closely pursued ruinous to our County, few Individuals could Escape the Goal, money has no Circulation with our Inhabitants, as it can have in other more Populous Places.

We have taken every Necessary Step to Discharge the Supplies in Arrear, and find it very distressing, and still not Satisfactory to our Expectations. The Mildew and hail hath destroyed many fields of Grain in this County this Year, which is still more threatening to us; and Collectors have already brought Goods to town, upward of twenty miles, on which they have distrained for the discharge of the Taxes, and met with little encouragement of the Sale.

Our Treasurer intends going to Philadelphia in a very short time, who will give a very Satisfactory Acc<sup>t</sup>.

I am with Respect Sir, Your Excellency's most Obedient & Hble, Serv<sup>t</sup>,

JACOB SMYSER.

7th Aug<sup>t</sup>, 1783, Secretary's Office.

Sir,

Enclosed is an extract from a second letter lately received from the Governor of Virginia, upon the subject of our laws & their Execution in that tract of Country, which has been ceded to us by the agreement of the 31st of August, 1779. It came accompanied by a resolution of their last Assembly—a copy of which is also enclosed. It is the desire of Council that you will communicate these papers to the Magistracy of your County & report to me with all possible dispatch, the particular circumstances which attended the cases of John Campbell, Col. &c., &c.

Sir,

Inclosed is an Extract of a second Letter lately received from the Governor of Virginia, upon the subject of our Laws & their Execution, in that disputed Tract of Country which has been relinquished to us by the agreement of the 31st of August 1779. It came accompanied by a Resolution of their Assembly, a copy of which, together with a copy of the Ratification of the agreement aforesaid by our Assembly, on the 23<sup>d</sup> of Sept<sup>r</sup>, 1780, is inclosed. It is the Direction of Council, that you will immediately communicate all these Papers to the whole Magistracy of your County, informing them, that it is the firm & unanimous Resolution of Council, as they are convinced it is of our Gen<sup>l</sup> Assembly, to adhere inviolably to the Stipulations contained in the agreement between the two States, that they expect the Magistracy and all well disposed persons who regard the Honor or peace of the State will also punctually observe the said Stipulations, & strictly require the same attention to them from others.

Council are of opinion, that no persons holding Civil or Military offices under the State of Virginia, should be in any manner molested for regular acts done by them in either of those capacities in pursuance of the Laws of that State prior to the agreement before mentioned.

You will please to report to Me with all possible Dispatch the particular Circumstances attending the cases of John Campbell, Lieut. Coll. Coxe, & others alluded to in the inclosed Resolution.

and otherwise pressed the Collectors of the different Townships to their duty and have sued several of them. We are convinced of the necessity of raising the public taxes and beg leave to assure your Excellency that it is neither inattention in us or want of reflection on the important subject that makes an apology for our Conduct necessary. With us the arguments derived from the effects of the War doth not altogether cease to operate altho of late labour hath its price. The Farmer (who hath been frequently called from his Family to Military Service and unable to obtain Labourers to cultivate his Farm) cannot consistant with his labour make money of his present Crop before he hath put in his Seed. We believe the People in our County in General have a disposition to pay the Taxes as far as in their power could they be indulged with time to raise it out of their produce notwithstanding the difficulty they labor under for want of circulating Cash—Collectors have Distrained and Could not sell any property for want of Buyers, some persons indeed who have demands on the Public think it very hard to pay taxes while large sums are due them. We Humbly submit these remarks to your Excellency's Consideration and Hope for indulgence from the Honorable Council, untill the people have time to carry what they can spare of their produce to Market and in the mean time we will not fail to use our Influence in raising the taxes of our County.

THOS. SCOTT TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

Washington County, August 15th, 1783.

May it please your Excellency :

I have received Councils Sundry letters inclosing copys of papers lately received from the Governor of Virginia*, and in obedience to the orders of Council, beg leave thereupon to report :

* See page 79, also Col. Rec., Vol. XIII., p. 672.

That I know of no departure from the Compact between the two States, and believe there has been none on the part of the Court of this County.

That I know of no measure adopted by this state, or any of its officers, whereby the rights of the late Citizens of Virginia are in any degree Infringed upon; were those rights which they are said to have held, and whereof, they are said now to be deprived, explicitly mentioned, perhaps I would be able to give some satisfaction.

That I conceive the infringement on landed property stated in the memorial, could not possibly happen without act of the Legislature; if the case of M<sup>r</sup> Campbell be meant by this suggestion, I know nothing of it further than that he hath been prisoner with the Indians for some years past, and may have missed of Ingrossing large quantities of land at a low price, by Commissioner Certificates; some other of the Inhabitants of Washington County have likewise missed of that opportunity, by means as little Criminal, and I could wish to see the whole relieved, and put on an equal footing.

The case of Col<sup>l</sup> Cox is shortly thus, prosecutions were Instituted against him for assaults and batteries in using compulsory measures to draw forth the Militia of Washington County, By Virtue of orders issued by Col<sup>l</sup> Penticost in Character of Lieutenant of Youghagania county, for the Service of Gen<sup>l</sup> Clarks expedition down the Ohio in 1781. Which orders, as well the people who were thus compelled to service, as the Generality of the people of the county could not conceive to have proceeded from the authority of Virginia; not only because of the previous agreement of the Several Legislatures, but from the orders Given by that state on that occasion, to the Lieutenant of Monangohola county: Viz. that he should confine his authority to the South side of Dixon's & Measons Line Extended, although the Greater part of that county lay North of that line; on this Ground as well as on full conviction of the Legal extention of the Jurisdiction of this State, the people very Generally disobeyed those orders, and these prosecutions were commenced.

This being the true State of this Gen<sup>l</sup> Case, and although his conduct on the occasion was exceedingly disrespectful to the court, He coming at the head of a party in a Tumultuous & contemptuous Manner, continuing about the Streets in that manner until evening, and the same night an attempt was made upon the house in which the court was held, and part of it Thrown down; yet so far was personal resentment and party Spirit from mingling with the proceedings of the Court, that a disposition to soften the prosecutions was observable in most of the officers, and Col<sup>l</sup> Cox was actually acquitted. How this Can be termed a Judgement against him for a Considerable sum, &c., I cannot understand. It is true that on account of his behaviour already mentioned, I charge him Clarks fees. There was Indictments against one other Gen<sup>l</sup> who was also acquitted and discharged with out fees; and there is a Suit depending against two others for things of the same nature, done at the same time; But there never was a decision of Court against any Virginia officer, as such, for any cause whatever.

I Have the Honor to be,

Your Excellenc'y

Very Humble Servant,

THOS. SCOTT,

Prot<sup>y</sup> of Washington County.

COMMIS'RS OF TAXES OF LANCASTER, CO. TO COUNCIL, 1783.

Lancaster, August 16th, 1783.

Gentlemen,

We received your Letters of the 24th July last, setting forth the necessity of collecting the several Taxes the Demands we are perswaded are pressingly great, and previous to your Letter we have done every thing in our power (excepting putting the Law in force,) to have the out standing Taxes collected, But there is a difficulty arising in collecting that we are at a loss how to advise in—Some People have the money by them and those for the most part have never give themselves much concern about the Time of payment. Others have it not and has appropriated a great part of their Time in serving the public and have little or nothing left but public Certificates or unsettled accounts, and appear but just beginning the World anew. This latter Class Humanity would advise forbearance, and how to discriminate is difficult and perhaps dangerous, If People could be so good natured as to lend Money to those that wanted, The Taxes might soon be paid. But those who can spare Money do not like to risk it especially to those who have been most active in the service of their Country.

However we still hope that as a Remarkable Providence has carried us through a greater Difficulty than this, we are in the greatest hopes that ere long we will be able to comply with what is required of us.

We are Gentlemen

with much respect

your obedient and very humble Servants,

SAM. BOYD,

WILLIAM SMITH.

COPY OF REPORT OF EPHRAIM DOUGLASS TO SECY. AT WAR, 1783.

Princeton, 18th August, 1783.

Sir,

In obedience to the instructions you honored me with on the 5th of May last, I have used every endeavour in my power to execute in the fullest manner your orders, and give effect to your wishes; and though I have not had all the success I at first hoped, I flatter myself the following report will not only shew that I have attempted all in my power, but that essential good consequences may justly be hoped from my endeavours to obey your Commands.

On the 7th of June, I left Fort Pitt and travelling about two hundred miles by the old trading path, arrived on the 16th at the Delaware & Huron settlements on the Sandusky River, but before I reached the Villages I fell in with two young Delawars who had known me formerly, appeared rejoiced to see me, and conducted me to the principal Town of that Tribe. Captain Pipe who is the principal man of the Nation, received me with every demonstration of joy, welcomed me in the most friendly manner and treated me with greater Civility than is usual with them in time of profound Peace. In a speech of gratulation which he delivered on my arrival, he felicitated me and my Companions on our safety through a long & dangerous wilderness, and himself, on seeing his brethren of the United States once more enter his door in a peaceable and friendly manner; but told me, as his Nation was not the principal one, nor had voluntarily engaged in the War, it would be proper for me first to communicate my business to the Hurons and Shauneze, and afterwards to the Delawares. That he had announced my arrival to the Hurons, and expected such of them as were at home would very shortly be over to see and welcome me. This soon happened as he had expected, but as none of their Chiefs were present, I declined speaking publicly to them, knowing that I could receive no authentic answer, and unwilling to expend unnecessarily the Wampum I had prepared for this occasion. I informed them for their satisfaction of the peace with England, and told them that the United States were disposed to be in friendship with the Indians also—desired them to send for their head men, particularly for the Half King who was gone to Detroit; to send also to the Shauneze and such of the Six Nations and Delawares as live on the Miami River, and that when these were all present, I would deliver to them publicly the particulars of the business I was charged with.

They all readily agreed to this proposal, and returned to their homes apparently very well satisfied: but the Hurons nevertheless failed sending to Detroit, partly thro' the want of authority in the old men present, and partly through the assurances of the Wife of the half King who was confident her Husband would be home in two Days, and therefore a journey which would require six or seven was altogether unnecessary.

The Pipe sent away for those on the Miami agreeable to his promise, and learning that Mr. Elliot, one of the agents in the Indian Department resided with the Shawneze, and must necessarily be acquainted with my coming, I wrote to him by the Pipe's Express, requesting him to concur with our Messenger in communicating to the Shawneze, that I was charged with a Message from the United States and desired them to attend as soon as possible—I also gave him an invitation to be present if he could make it convenient. Though I promised to myself very little from this Letter, I knew it could do no possible harm—and though I did not hope he would give himself any trouble to serve me, I thought the possibility that the compliment of it might prevent his opposition worth the trouble of writing it.

On the evening of the 18th, a runner arrived from the Miami with intelligence that Mr. Elliot had received dispatches from Detroit announcing the arrival of Sir John Johnson at that place—that in Consequence, the Chiefs and Warriors were desired to repair thither in a few Days, where a Council would be held with them. They were also directed to take with them the War or Tomahawk Belts, which had been delivered to them by the King to strike the Americans with. This was an intimation which had been long expected but never till now received; for though they had been repeatedly forbid to continue at War against the Americans the Tomahawk had still remained in their hands, which is a deviation from the ancient Customs of the Indians, and therefore the more astonishing to them.

I perceived that this invitation would necessarily draw off a number of the principal men, but determined to wait the return of our Messenger before I would take any further resolution, and in this suspense I continued till the evening of the 22d, when he returned with speeches from the Chiefs in that Quarter, imparting that they had made every preparation for coming agreeable to our requests to hear what I had to say to them, but just when they were ready to mount their Horses, they were stopped by the arrival of ten men who preceded a body of sixty other Southern Indians coming upon business from the Nations North and East of the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers. That in consequence of their coming they would be obliged to delay their visit to us for a few Days, but would not fail to come so soon as they heard the business of these people, could not however determine how soon.

The intervention of this unexpected delay, the uncertainty where it would tend—the anxiety of the Sandusky Indians to obey the summons from Detroit, the absence of the Half King who was now no longer expected till after the Treaty there, and the certainty of receiving no answer when he was not in Council, induces me to yield to the importunity of the Pipe, and attend to his representations. He pressed me to accompany him to Detroit, assuring me that it would be useless to wait the coming of the Indians from the Miami, that they would spend their time in useless Counseling there till the Treaty at Detroit would come on, and that if I even could assemble them I could obtain nothing from the Interview—That if the Half King was present he would not undertake to give me an answer without consulting the Chiefs of the Huron Tribe at Detroit, and that these would determine another without first asking the advice of their Father the Commandant.

Finding that I had little to hope from continuing at Sandusky, and likely to effect as little by visiting the Miami if my Horses had even been able to have performed the Journey I determined to proceed to Detroit by the nearest route, though I began to be doubtful I should not succeed in my wishes there; determined however to leave nothing unattempted which promised even a probability of success.—I concurred with the Pipe in a message to the Miami Indians, desiring that rather than wait to hear the dispatches of these Southern Indians, they should advise them to continue their Journey to Detroit where they would certainly meet the Six Nations, to whom their business must be ultimately delivered, as the Deputation in consequence of which they had performed so long and difficult a journey, had originally proceeded from them.—We desired them to send us an answer in three days what Resolution they would take and when we should meet them where the roads unite, that we might go together to Detroit.

We waited till the 28th in hopes of receiving an answer but none came, tho we had several Messages, some intimating that they could not come over to us, and desiring the Hurons & Delawares to attend at the Shawnee Towns—other accounts said the Chiefs of that Nation were gone to Detroit.

We now made every preparation for our departure, but fearing I might not again have so good an opportunity, I made use of this to give the Pipe every information respecting my business, and to explain to him the Preliminary Articles of peace, which I found had not only never been communicated to them by authority, but that the accidental information they had occasionally received had been in some respects contradicted by the Officers of the Crown; particularly that part which related to the evacuation of the posts on the Lakes.

I left Sandusky on the 30th accompanied by the Pipe and two other Indians in addition to my former Companions, and travelled onwards to Detroit till the afternoon of the 1st of July when we were met by Mr Elliot and three other persons from that place, whom the Commandant had dispatched for the purpose of conducting us thither.

The Indians who had left the Towns after my arrival, had given the intelligence at Detroit, and the Letter I had written to Mr Elliot had also been carried there by some of those from the Miami. In consequence of this Col. Depeyster had sent Mr Elliot to me with a Letter. No. 1.*

I was now nearly half way from Sandusky to Detroit, and could neither take or alter a resolution in consequence of this Letter, but continued my journey with my new Companions—till the 4th when I arrived at Detroit, where I was received with much politeness and treated with great Civility by the Commandant, to whom I delivered your Letter, shewed your instructions and pressed for an opportunity of communicating them to the Indians as soon as might be. He professed the strongest desire of bringing about a reconciliation between the United States and the several Indian Nations,—declared that he would willingly promote it all in his power; but that until he was authorized by his Superiors in Command, he could not consent that any thing should be said to the Indians relative to the boundary of the United States; for though he knew from the King's Proclamation that the war with America was at an end, he had had no official information to justify his supposing the States extended to this place, and therefore could not consent to the Indians being told so; especially as he had uniformly declared to them, that he did not know these Posts were to be evacuated by the English. He had no objection, he said, to my communicating the friendly offers of the United States,—and would cheerfully make known to them the substance of your Letter to him.

In the morning of the 5th, I received an intimation from Colonel Depeyster, through Captain McKee, that it was his wish I would go on to Niagara, so soon as I had recovered from the fatigue of my journey. In consequence of this I waited on him in the afternoon, and pressed with greater warmth than yesterday, the necessity of my speaking to the Indians and receiving an answer from them. I pressed him to suffer me to proceed on my business without his interference, and offered him my word that I would say nothing to them respecting the limits of the States, but confine myself to the offer of Peace, or choice of War, and the Invitation to Treaty. He would not retract his resolution without further orders from the Commander in Chief, and I was obliged to submit however unwillingly: But must do him the justice to acknowledge that he made every offer of civility and service, except that which he considered inconsistent with his Duty.

On the 6th I attended the Council which Colonel Depeyster held with the Indians, to which he had yesterday invited me. After delivering his business of calling them together, he published to them your Letter and pressed them to continue in the strictest amity with the Subjects of the United States,—represented to them the folly of continuing hostilities, and assured them that he could by no means give them any future assistance against the people of America.

At this meeting were the Chiefs of Eleven Indian Nations, comprehending all the Tribes as far South as the Wabash. They were Chipewas, Otawas, Wyandots or Hurons, Shawnese, Delawares,

* The papers referred to by Nos. have not been found.

Kickaboos, Owashtances, Miamis, Pectawetancies and Pienkias with a part of the Senecas; most of whom gave evident marks of their Satisfaction at seeing a subject of the United States in that Country. They carried their civilities so far that my lodging was all day surrounded with crowds of them when at home, and the Streets lined with them to attend my going abroad; that they might have an opportunity of seeing and saluting me, which they did not fail to do in their best manner, with every demonstration of joy.

On the morning of the 7th I took my leave of Colonel De Peyster, after having received more civilities from him than the limits of this report will suffer me to enumerate; but not 'till I had the honor of writing to you by my Guide, whom I directed to return to Fort Pitt so soon as the Pipe should be ready to return to Sanduskey on whom I depended for his safe conduct thither, and to provide one to accompany him to Fort Pitt.

I arrived at Niagara on the 11th, was introduced to General Maclean who was prepared for my coming, delivered him Col. De Payster's Letter and was received with every mark of attention but he declined entering upon any business this Day.

In the morning I waited again on the General at his request. He asked for my Instructions which I produced, and afterwards, at his request, the Resolve of Congress alluded to. He expressed an earnest desire that the Indians should live in peace with the United States, declared that he had most effectually put a stop to all hostilities, and had already given you this Information,—that he would be answerable for their future good conduct provided they were not molested by us—regretted that he had not at present such information from below as would justify his concurring with me, or even permitting me to call the Indians together—that he had every reason to expect Sir John Johnson very soon, who he supposed would bring such instructions as would remove every difficulty,—that however he considered the purport of my message anticipated by the pains which had been taken to dispose the Indians to peace, which appeared to be the grand object of Congress.

In case Sir John did not arrive in two or three days as he expected he proposed to me the alternative of continuing downward to the Commander in Chief or of furnishing him with Copies of my Instructions and the Resolve of Congress which he would transmit to him for his orders thereon. He lamented that mischievous people among us took too much pains to alarm the minds of the Indians in this quarter, by inventing and propagating speeches, which the Indians were taught to believe came from persons in power among the Americans. In proof of this he produced the proceedings of a Council lately held with the Indians, which contains an alarming speech said to have been sent to them by General Schuyler. At my request he gave me a Copy of it with his own remarks at the bottom No 2.

In consequence of this speech and his assurances to the Indians, the six nations had sent to that part of the Oneida Tribe which had remained in the interest of the States, forbidding them to bring any future messages, but such as were written or otherwise visible in Belts or Strings. That they would be glad to hear in this manner whatever the United States had to say to them.

Colonel Butler the Superintendent at the post was sent for and corroborated every thing that the General said of the peaceable disposition of the Indians, unless they were compelled to a contrary conduct by the Americans settling on their Lands which both asserted the Six Nations would never quietly submit to. They recommended the measure of Congress sending some person to give them assurances respecting their Lands, if it was their intention to leave them to the natives, and the General offered to promote it with all his Interest, to be answerable for the safety of the Commissioners and also engage for the Indians good behaviour and willingness to meet the Commissioners of Congress at any place after receiving such assurance.

Captain Brant came from the Mohawk Village to see me and was introduced by the General, in whose presence we had a conversation on the subject of the Indian's Lands—Brant insisted that they would make a point of having them secured before they would enter into any farther or other Treaty. In the evening I had a private conference with him at his own request in which I explained to him in the most circumstantial manner every thing relating to my business with the Indians and had a good deal of friendly argument with him on the subject, too long to insert here.

On the evening of the 18th, I received a note from the General requesting a Copy of my Instructions &c., to send to the Commander in Chief to facilitate business, No. 3. I sent him word that he should be obeyed, and early in the morning began to execute my promise, but before I had finished copying them, I received a verbal message that he wished to see me at his quarters. I finished the Copies and waited on him with them.

He informed me that he had sent for me to show me the Copy of a Letter he was writing to Colonel De Peyster. It contained instructions to that Gentleman in consequence of my representations of the murders committed by the Western Indians in the course of the last spring, and since by his account, they had been positively forbid to be guilty of any such outrage. He pressed Colonel Depeyster very earnestly to examine minutely into this affair,—to forbid the Indians in the most positive manner to be guilty of such future misconduct,—to order them to deliver up immediately such prisoners as they had captured through the spring into the hands of himself or his officers,—and further to tell them that if they did not desist from these practices the British Troops would join the Americans to punish them.

He afterward read me the Copy of a Letter which he had written you in answer to yours by Mr. Bull. Not doubting that this Letter is in your possession, I only mention it as it was the introduction to an address to me containing the same sentiments, which ended in an intimation that I might return home as soon as I thought proper, that whenever I pleased he would furnish me with a Boat & men: to carry me to Oswego, would afford me every other assistance in his power and write to Major Ross the Commandant at that place to give me every assistance I should require.

I soon concluded that this invitation to leave the place arose from the importunity of the Indians to hear publicly the message which my coming had promised them, and his refusing permission to Captain Brant to take me on a visit to the Mohawk Castle convinced me of the justice of this conclusion,

I employed such arguments as I expected would be most likely to prevail on him to permit me to speak to the Chiefs publicly before my departure, and answered (as I thought) all his objections, one of which was to that part of my instructions which said the King had been compelled to make peace, which he said would convey to the Indians the Idea of his being conquered, and might induce them to an insolence of behaviour that would become disagreeable to him and perhaps injurious to the service. To remove every exception on this head I offered to suppress the word compelled but he avoided giving me any direct answer to this proposal,—insisted much on the pacific disposition of the Indians, again pledged himself for their behaviour; assured me of their desire to cultivate the friendship of the Americans, and declared that he was authorized by the Chiefs to tell me so. He then informed me that previous to my arrival the Chiefs had applied to him to write to his Excellency General Washington on their behalf with offers of friendship, and regretted that he had not such orders as would justify him in doing it, especially before the Superintendent General had made the proper communications to the Indians on the part of the Crown.

Frustrated in every attempt to obtain a public audience of the Indians and receive their answer to your message. I wrote to General Maclean on the 16th for his refusal in writing (No. 4) which he immediately gave me (No. 5) and on the same day I set off for Oswego, after having experienced from General Maclean every species of polite attention, except that which duty as well as inclination bid me most wish for and every civility from his Officers, and from the Officers in general at all the Posts I had occasion to visit.

Sensible how difficult it is to say just enough on any subject, I am afraid I have protracted this report to too great a length and yet I suppressed so many remarks and conversations which were interesting at the time, that I am also afraid I have not been sufficiently explicit. I have confined myself to bare recital, without any commentary of my own, to avoid the imputation of obtruding opinion where it might be considered my duty to relate facts existing abstractedly. But I will hope your forgiveness for saying that the assiduity of the British Commanders to restrain the Indians from hostilities still wanted the visit which by your command I have made them, to satisfy the Indians that they had nothing to fear from the enmity of the States. They are now convinced from my risking such a journey through their Country and from the communications I have made to them individually on my way, not only of our friendly Sentiments toward them, but also of our confidence in theirs, which must in some degree beget a similar confidence in them. And though I bring no public answer from the Chiefs, owing to the motives of duty or policy, which opposed it. I think myself sufficiently authorized from the many opportunities I had of learning their Sentiments, both from themselves and the Whites who are in their confidence, to assert that I know them to be heartily tired of the war and sincerely disposed to Peace.

I have the honor to be,

with the highest respect Sir,

Your very humble and most obedient servant,

EPHRAIM DOUGLASS.

The Honble. Major General Lincoln, Secretary at War.

RESOLUTION OF CONGRESS, 1783.

By The United States in Congress Assembled,

August 21st, 1783.

Whereas it is stipulated in the 7th article of the preliminaries agreed upon the 30th Day of November, 1782, between the Plenipotentiaries of his Britanic Majesty & of the United States, "that the King of Great Britain shall order and cause all Archives, records, Deeds and papers belonging to any of the said States or their Citizens which in the course of the War may have fallen into the hands of his Officers to be forthwith restored and delivered to the proper States and persons to whom they belong."

Resolved, That the Commander in Chief be directed to make application to his Britanic Majesty's Generals commanding at New York and Quebec for the immediate delivery to persons authorized to receive them, of all Archives, records, Deeds and papers belonging to any of the United States or to any of their Citizens which may have fallen into the hands of any of his Britannia Majesty's Officers during the course of the War.

MEMORIAL OF MAJOR MICHAEL RYAN, 1783.

May it please your Excellency,

In January 1776, I received recruiting orders from Col. Wayne having had the appointment of Lieu't in Cap't Lacys company and Adjutant to the Reg't, The recruits I had raised I marched to Chester delivered them to the Commanding officer who ordered them to be billeted on the Inhabitants, as we were not then furnished with Tents or Camp equipage. My duty as Adjutant engrossed my whole time and attention, consequently the Capt. 1st Lieu't and Ensign commanded and regulated the Company; notwithstanding this I was served last Thursday at Chester with a Ca. Sa., oblig'd to pay £40 specie for the Soldiers Board or go to Goal. My situation was peculiar, on business of consequence from Alex<sup>a</sup> (where I now reside) to this City, one day's delay would have injured me capitally, I therefore gave my note for that sum payable in one Month. I hope your Excellency will take this affair into consideration and not let me suffer unjustly as I can assure your Excellency that all the Money I received for 4 years service would not am't to that sum in specie altho' I was a slave to the Army from the commencement of the War till I resigned, having served as Adjutant, Brigade Major, Inspector of a Brigade, and Division &c.

Roston, August 25th, 1783.

Sir,

Yours of July 24th, 1783, inclosing a duplicate of your Letter of May 20th, has been received—permit us to assure you that we received the Representations of Council on the Subject of the collection of taxes in this County with every mark of Respect, and paid every attention to them, that is due to that honorable Body.—No Exertions on our parts have been wanting; But the Arguments derived from the Effects of War, which you are pleased to say have hitherto been urged with great plausibility, do not yet cease to operate. We sincerely rejoice at the prospect we now have of soon enjoying the Blessings of peace, & we should be ungrateful indeed, if we did not cheerfully contribute all in our power to reward the brave & deserving Men who have contributed Eight years military Services to the Defence of their Country; but Money has not yet began to circulate at this distance from the Capital, & it is yet too early for the Inhabitants to have received any Profit from their late Harvest. It is Inability alone, & not a backwardness of Disposition that has prevented the payment of all we are in arrear. It is in vain to expose the Goods of the Inhabitants for Sale, for there are none to be purchasers. We know the Demand Government must at this Juncture have for Money, & we are anxious that the honor of Council & the State should be supported. Please to assure Council, we will exert ourselves to the utmost to have their Wishes & Commands comply'd with, & we remain Sir,

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF ASSEMBLY—GOV. HARRISON'S
LETTERS, 1788.

Thursday, August 28, 1788.

The report of the committee, read August 27 instant, on the subject of Governor Harrison's letters, was read the second time, and adopted as follows, viz.

Your committee to whom was referred the consideration of Governor Harrison's letters of the 12th of June, and 23d of July last, wherein it appears that complaint hath been made to the executive of Virginia by a number of the inhabitants of that tract of country which falls (by the extension of the temporary line betwixt the two States) within the bounds of this state, that the conditions upon which said line was acceded to, have been departed from, by this State, and measures adopted which deprive them of those rights which they held under Virginia, and fully confirmed in the Agreement entered into by both States previous to the running the aforesaid temporary line, also that prosecutions were commenced, and judgment awarded against the Officers of the Militia for obeying the orders of that State, previous to the running said line, whereby the late citizens of that state are harassed and oppressed with expence for performing the service which they owed to their country; duly considering the substance of the foregoing complaints, together with the report of the prothonotary of Washington county, who was directed by the Executive of this State, to enquire fully into the aforesaid premises.—Beg leave to report, that the foregoing complaints are groundless, with respect to any infringements having been made on the title of any lands acquired under the State of Virginia, and that any suits that were instituted against Lieutenant Colonel Cox and others, were owing to their imprudent conduct in executing orders, that were issued by that State subsequent to the agreement entered into by this & the State of Virginia, notwithstanding in the trial of the said suit, the said Colonel Cox was acquitted (with) paying the Clerks fees only.

Your committee further considering that part of Governor Harrisons letter, wherein he proposes running the boundary line between this and the State of Virginia, as agreed upon by the Commissioners at Baltimore in the year 1779, and taking into view the unhappy situation of the good citizens of this State settled in Washington county &c., and the evil consequences that may attend delay in matters of such importance, beg leave to offer the following resolution.

Resolved, that the Supreme Executive Council be (directed) to correspond with the Executive of Virginia, upon the subject of fixing the mode and the most convenient time for establishing finally the boundary line betwixt that, and this State, and that they be authorized immediately to appoint Commissioners on the part of this State, who, in conjunction with those to be appointed by the State of Virginia, shall run the said line, this House being sincerely disposed finally to ascertain the boundary between the two States as speedily as possible.

Received your Circular Letter of the 24th of July Last yesterday, and begs leave to inform your Honour that we have done all in our Power to raise the Supplies of our County for the last Year—but the Notion of Virginia affected the People of one Township so much as to cause them to pursue the Assessor with arms and Fire after him so that we could not obtain the Property of that Township, for which Reason we could not proceed to Quota the County. The time for this year was far elapsed before the Supply Law came to hand; immediately after we proceeded to our duties, and is likely to meet with bad Success, many of the Assessors not making any Returns, which puts back Business, and expects that matters will be much as they were last Year. Beggs Your directions how to proceed if they should—Hostilities has ceased on Our Frontier since the Spring, but the Inhabitants dare not Venture, as yet, to their Places, near one Half of the County being Evacuated, and it will

PRES. DICKINSON TO JOHN WEITZEL, 1783.

Sir,

It is the sense of Council that a stock of eight weeks' provision for the Complete Companies of 60 privates each, be immediately laid in at Wyoming for the subsistence of that Garrison. To this purpose, Council have written to Captains Robinson & Shrawder—with directions to consult you upon the subject;—inquiring into the quantity you may now have on hand, & whether you will engage to contract for the supply of the rest. They have the orders of this board, to confirm the contract, & their assurances that money shall not be wanting to discharge it. To this preference Council conceive you to be entitled, & from your general Acquaintance wth the business, & the fidelity wth w<sup>h</sup> you have fulfilled your late engagements. You will see the necessity of deciding at once, as the Instructions of Council direct that Captains Robinson & Shrawder shall commit it to some other person, should it be inconvenient for you to perform it immediately.

Indorsed,—1783, September 5th.

INSTRUCTIONS TO MESSRS. ROBINSON AND SHRAWDER, 1783.

In Council,

Philadelphia, September 5th, 1783.

Gentlemen :

In consequence of a Conference with a committee of the General Assembly, it is judged proper that you should be reminded in a particular manner constantly to employ the utmost vigilance and alertness for the security of the Fort at Wyoming, and for maintaining the post where you are now stationed.

It is expected that you will be in perfect preparation at every moment to resist any hostile attempt, whether openly or insidiously made. Among other attentions, it will be indispensably necessary for this purpose, that great care should be taken not to suffer the Soldiers, on any pretence whatever, to absent themselves from the Garrison, either in an indefensible situation, or beyond the reach of your immediate recall.

It is thought absolutely necessary by Council, that a supply of two Months' provisions for both companies, calculating upon the compleat establishment of sixty privates to each company, be immediately conveyed into the Fort; so that the Garrison may not in any manner depend upon provisions from without during that period.

That a single moment may not be lost—the important charge of procuring this supply is principally committed to you—for tho', to guard against the expence of a double purchase, it may be highly necessary to consult Mr Weitzle, and learn from him what stock of provisions he has now on hand, and what additional quantity he may engage to procure,—yet it is intirely the sense of Council, that should he discover the least indifference in accepting the business, or delay in the execution of it, you will yourselves proceed to compleat his purchases, should they be deficient, and contract for their transportations. Money shall not be wanting to fulfill these engagements.

It is also our desire, that as long as it may be necessary to keep up the Garrison, after the expiration of the two Months provided for by this order, it shall at no future time be left without a supply of one Months' provision in stock. This you will regard as a standing order.

With the most entire reliance upon your fidelity, prudence, and activity—I am, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient servant,

JOHN DICKINSON.*

P. S.—On the receipt of this, you will immediately transmit a return of the present efficient force of the Companies under your command, with a state of your ammunition and arms.

The inclosed letter to be sealed and forwarded to Mr Weitzle.

PRES. DICKINSON TO GENL. CARLETON, 1783.

Sir,

Perfectly convinced, that a Regard for Justice has Place in such a Character as you hold, I am induced to make a Request in Behalf of this State, which, I hope, will meet with your entire approbation, & of course be attended with the desired success.

Several parts of this State have been lately infested by a sett of Robbers, & particularly by some of them within these last five months who have committed many enormous crimes, & in a very cruel manner. Information has been received, that some of these offenders are now in New York. Their names are mentioned in the inclosed proclamations & Certificates* Indictments & Outlawry.

It is my Duty, to endeavour that the laws should be vindicated, & protection afforded to the good People of Pennsylvania, by a merited punishment of such atrocious & dangerous Criminals. Since they have at present avoided it by flight, I am happy, that you it is who must determine whether that sign of guilt shall serve them instead of Innocence.

Permit me then, earnestly to desire, that you will be pleased to give proper orders for securing those of the offenders who are within your lines, & for the Delivery of them to the person who will have the Honor of presenting this Letter, in such manner that they may be safely brought to this City.

I am with Sentiments of very sincere Respect,

Sir, your Excellency's most obedient

and very humble Servant,

JOHN DICKINSON.

Directed,

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CAPTAIN ELIJAH WEED, 1783.

To you Sir, Council have committed the delivery of the letters inclosed. That to Governor Livingston is expressive of our wishes that the State of New Jersey may render such assistances to you in the farther execution of this business, as he may think necessary. The letter to General Carleton is accompanied by such proclamations and certificates of indiotment and outlawry under the Seal of the State as will determine the justice of our request, and we flatter ourselves the acquiescence of the General.

If these hopes be well founded, He will issue an order for the apprehension of the several persons mentioned in the inclosed list, and probably commit some part of the management to you. It will therefore be proper before you leave this City to possess yourself of as correct a description of the Men as possible and it may not be amiss upon your arrival at New York to attach yourself to some one acquainted with their persons and places of abode.

We need scarcely suggest that next to the most inviolable secrecy the conduct of this business will require the utmost dispatch.

I am Sir,

Your most obedient humble Servant,

JOHN DICKINSON.

PRES. DICKINSON TO GOV. LIVINGSTON, 1783.

In Council, September 5th, 1783.

Sir,

I have this Day written to General Carleton, to request the Delivery of some very atrocious & dangerous offenders against the Laws of this State, who according to Information received are now in New York. Mr Weede who will have the Honor of Delivering this Letter, is charged with the Dispatches for the General, & is to receive the Criminals if delivered.

As it may be absolutely necessary, in order to conduct them safely to this City, that some assistance should be given by your State on this occasion, I shall, and I am persuaded this Commonwealth will strongly feel the obligation, if you, Sir, will be so good as to give the proper orders for this Purpose.

It may also be as necessary, that the General should be informed of your Intentions, so that the Measures he may be disposed to take may coincide with them, & leave no opportunity to the offenders of escaping.

Any expences incurred in Consequence of your Orders will be cheerfully & gratefully defrayed by this State.

I am with the greatest Esteem,

Sir, your Excellency's

most ob<sup>t</sup> & most Hble Ser<sup>t</sup>,

JOHN DICKINSON.

COMMISSIONERS OF PHILADELPHIA TO COUNCIL—OLD JAIL, 1783.

To His Excellency John Dickinson Esq., President, and the Honorable the Supreme Executive Council of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen,

We see by a paragraph in Councils Message to the House of Assembly, that a preference seems to be given to the appropriation of the Ground on which the old Gaol and work House stands &c., for an Exchange, and by a resolve of the Honorable House of Assembly, that a committee is appointed to confer with your Honorable Board, on that business; We hope it is not meant that the appropriation should be made without a sufficient compensation to this City and County; the Estate in question will neat at least six hundred Pounds per annum, exclusive of the Materials now on the premises, which we suppose will sell for one thousand Pounds. altho' we have some doubt as to the propriety of the Executive Council for the state at large having the disposal of the property belonging to a particular County, except in extraordinary cases, yet in the present instance had Council sufficient leisure from the other and in general more important concerns of the State, we could have no doubt, but this business would be effected fully, to the satisfaction of the City and County of Philadelphia, in accomplishing of which this Board will be happy to afford every assistance in their power.

RESOLUTION OF CONGRESS—INDIAN AFFAIRS, 1783.

The United States in Congress Assembled September 20th, 1783.

Congress took into consideration the report of a Committee consisting of Mr. Duane, Mr. Peters, Mr. Carroll, Mr. Hawkins and Mr. A. Lee, to whom were referred instructions to the Delegates of Pennsylvania, and the same being read as follows :

"That the legislature of Pennsylvania be informed in answer to the request of the Delegates of that State in consequence of Instructions from the said legislature of the 13th Instant.

That Congress have no objection to a conference being held on behalf of the State of Pennsylvania with the Indians on their borders, respecting a purchase to be made by & at the expense of the said

State, of lands within the limits thereof; provided no engagements relative to peace or War with the said Indians be entered into by the said State, the power of holding treaties on this subject being vested by the Confederation solely in the United States in Congress Assembled, and also provided that due notice of such meeting be given to the Executives of Virginia & New York who shall have it in their option to send Commissioners to the said conference."

A motion was made by Mr. Gerry seconded by Mr. Ellery that the farther consideration of the report be postponed until Thursday next, and on the question for postponing, the yeas & nays being required by Mr. Gerry.

JOHN WEITZEL TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

Sunbury, Sept 23<sup>d</sup>, 1783.

May it please your Excellency :

Your favor of the 5th Inst<sup>a</sup> did not come to my hands till the 17th, at which time I had no provision on hand; however, I set to the business immediately, and shall have about half the quantity ready in the Course of Four or Five days. The rest I will complete in a few days after.—I thank the Honourable Council for the preference they were pleased to give me, and they may rest assured that no pains shall be wanting to complete the business, which I conceive I shall be able to do as soon as any other person whatsoever.

I am, with great respect,
your Excellency's most Obedient
and very humble Servant,

Works, or build for yourselves on some convenient place; but you will on no Account whatever quit the place without orders from the Executive Council of Pennsylvania or their Agent so to do—Whose directions you will hereafter Obey in all matters relative to said Post & tract of land. In case of lawless Violence, or persons attempting to settle by force, or presuming to destroy any thing on the premises, you will apply to Michael Hoofnagle, Esquire, or some Other justice by the peace for Westmorsland County.

For your Care and trouble in performing in the several matters herein required, you may put in Grain & labor any quantity of ground not exceeding one hundred acres, and keep or raise stock to the number of fifty head of horned Cattle & Eight Horses. You will govern yourselves by these instructions until the pleasure of the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Council is signified to you—and you will give up peaceable possession to them or their Order whenever they think proper.

We severally engage to conform to the foregoing instructions to us by General Irvine.

MESS. DOUGHERTY AND ESPY TO PRES. DICKINSON—THE DOANS, 1783.

Sir,

We beg leave to inform your Excellency that on the twenty fifth Day of this Instant September a certain Joseph Doan (the elder) was brought to the Gaol of this County by one Joseph Willson of Maryland and that on last Saturday Mahlon Doan Son to the sd. Joseph was brought by John Sallamon Miller of this County in like manner to prison.

We are greatly uneasy on account of these prisoners, because we apprehend from the many threatnings thrown out in the lower Counties there may be an attempt made on the prison here to take them out and therefore pray to be directed as soon as possible, what's best to be done.

We are Sir,

INSTRUCTIONS FROM BRIG. GENERAL IRVINE TO JAMES BOGGS, 1783.

Fort Pitt, Sept'r 30th, 1783.

You are to take Charge of the Tract of Land opposite Fort Pitt reserved for the use of the State of Pennsylvania, and not suffer any waste or Destruction to be done of Timber, or Cut or Carried off the Premises Except what is herein mentioned. You will on no account allow Roads to be made Through The Tract, or landing Places other than the old one formerly used by the Indian Traders, & lately by the garrison—you will Cautiously avoid giving offence to the Commandant at this Post, and if any trespasses are Committed or violence used you will lodge Regular Complaint to Michael Hoofnagle Esq., or some other Justice of the Peace for Westmoreland County.

You are for your Trouble & Care, allowed to Clear Land & Raise Crops so as not to Exceed one Hundred acres, & you may keep stock, not to Exceed Twenty Horned Cattle & Six Horses, you are not to Permit any buildings whatsoever to be Erected, Except for the use & Convenience of your own Families, you may however allow the Troops of this Garrison to Cut & Carry off fire wood, if the Commanding officer finds it Expedient to take from them, but you must Keep & Render an acc<sup>t</sup> to Council of the Quantity so taken—you will also hereafter govern yourself by such orders or Instructions as you may Receive From His Excellency the President of the state—and you will Render Peaceable Possession when Required by Him, or the Lawfull Agent of the Honorable the Council: or take such Lease as they shall think Proper.

I engage to act conformably to the above instructions from General Irvine.

JAMES BOGGS.

Witness, DAVID DUNCAN.

N. B.—Untill the Tract is surveyed it is considered to extend two Miles down the Ohio River & two miles up the Alleghany & two miles back.*

RESOLUTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF CONNECTICUT,

At a General Assembly of the Governor and Company of the State of Connecticut, holden at New Haven on the second Thursday of Octobr[9], 1788.

Whereas this State has the undoubted and exclusive Right of Jurisdiction & Pre-emption to all the Lands lying West of the Western limits of the State of Pennsylvania, & East of the Mississippi River, and extending throughout from the Latitude 41° to Latitude 42° 2' north, by virtue of the Charter granted by King Charles the second to the late Colony now State of Connecticut, bearing date the 23<sup>d</sup> day of April, A. D., 1632, Which Claim and Title to make known for the information of all, to the End that they may conform themselves thereto.

Resolved, That His Excellency the Governor be desired to issue his Proclamation, declaring and asserting the Right of this State to all the Lands within the Limits aforesaid & strictly forbidding all Persons to enter or settle thereon, without special Licence & Authority first obtained from the General Assembly of this State.

This Assembly being informed, since the Trial had in December last between this State and the State of Pennsylvania of some Evidence material to said Cause, then concealed and suppressed from the knowledge of this State or its agents, and that there is a probability of ascertaining other facts on which to ground a revision of said Cause.

Resolved, that Eliphalet Dyer, William Sam<sup>l</sup> Johnson, & Jesse Root, Esquires, heretofore appointed, be & they are hereby continued Agents for this State in the matter aforesaid & that they pursue their Enquiries after Evidence & make report to this or some future Assembly.

At a General Assembly of the Governor and Company of the State of Connecticut, holden at New Haven on the second Thursday of October, A. D., 1788.

On the Report of a Committee respecting the Inhabitants settled under the Claim of this State West of Delaware River, accepted and approved.

Whereas a large number of Inhabitants West of Delaware River, and within the Charter limits of this State, settled there under the Claim and Jurisdiction of the said State having first, with the approbation of the General Assembly thereof, purchased the native right of soil & for many years past have been incorporated, and in the exercise of Government under the Laws of this State. And whereas by a late decree of Commissioners appointed for settling a dispute relative to Jurisdiction between this State and the State of Pennsylvania, the tract of Land possessed by the s<sup>d</sup> settlers is unexpectedly declared to be within the Jurisdiction of the Latter: since which the said settlers as it is represented, notwithstanding their having acquired the native & possessing right as aforesaid, and corroborated their title by vast Labor & expence in reducing the said Lands from a wilderness state, and stood as a Barrier to Pennsylvania and other interior settlements, thro' a long distressing war, in which most of their males, capable of labor or defence have been slain, Circumstances which entitled them to expect as well from the Justice as clemency of that great and opulent State the fullest Protection for their Persons, & to be forever quiet in their Possessions; and for which they lost no time in applying to its legislature by humble Petitions; yet notwithstanding to their great astonishment and distress, they find themselves left to the mercy of men, who claiming under the Proprietary Title of that State, are prosecuting against them suits of Ejectment, and in some Cases entering into their Possessions & Labors by Force, Whereupon Resolved by this Assembly, That it will in their opinion, be expedient for the said settlers, as the only Remedy left them, to apply to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Congress of the United States, for a Court to be instituted to try their right of soil and possession, pursuant to the 9th of the Articles of Confederation. That it will be the Duty of this State to countenance and patronize them in such application; and that the Delegates of the State, that shall be in Congress, be directed to give them all necessary aid therein—And that His Excellency the Governor be desired to address a full State of their Claims & sufferings to Congress, and solicit the Protection of the Hon<sup>l</sup> Body, in their Behalf, untill a final adjudication of the s<sup>d</sup> Cause shall be had.

MEMORIAL OF EPHRAIM DOUGLASS, 1783.

To the Honorable the Supreme Executive Council of the Common Wealth of Pennsylvania.

The Memorial of Ephraim Douglass humbly sheweth,

That having to his principles made an early sacrifice of his interest, he entered into, and continued in the service of his country till the loss of health conspiring with other misfortunes obliged him to retire at a time when his return to civil life offered him no prospect of a return to his former pursuits in it. That he has since earned a precarious subsistence by the accidental services he has been occasionally employed to perform; but being now altogether without business and strongly desirous of obtaining some permanent independent employment he looks up to your Honorable Body for the accomplishment of that desire with all the confidence which a knowledge of your justice and readiness in rewarding your faithful servants can inspire.

That your Memorialist having heard of a new county being created from a part of Westmoreland, begs leave humbly to offer himself a candidate for the office of Prothonotary in the County of Fayette and prays your acceptance of his services.

Your Memorialist as in duty bound will ever pray.

letters and papers* relative to Indian affairs, report that they have attentively considered the several papers referred to them & have conferred thereon with the Commander in Chief that their report will be confined to Indian affairs in the Northern & Middle departments, as they are defined by the Acts of Congress of the 12th of July, 1775, and to the settlement of the Western Country; the subjects being in the opinion of the committee inseparably connected, and the committee not being possessed of materials which enable them to extend their views to the southern district, that it is represented, and the committee believe with truth, that although the hostile Tribes of Indians in the Northern & Middle departments seriously disposed to a pacification, yet they are not in a temper to relinquish their territorial claims without further struggles. That if an Indian war should be re-kindled, repeated victories might produce the retreat of the Indians, but could not prevent them from regaining possession of some part of the distant and extensive territories, which appertain to the United States, that while such temporary expulsions could only be effected at a great charge, they could not be improved to the smallest advantage, but by maintaining numerous garrisons and an extensive peace establishment; That even if all the Northern & Western Tribes of Indians Inhabiting the territories of the United States, could be totally expelled, the policy of reducing them to such an extremity is deemed to be questionable, for in such an event, it is obvious that they would find a welcome reception from the British Government in Canada which by so great an accession of strength would become formidable in case of any future rupture, & in peace by keeping alive the resentment of the Indians for loss of their country, would secure to its own subjects the entire benefit of the Fur-Trade.

That although motives of policy as well as clemency ought to incline Congress to listen to the prayers of the hostile Indians for peace yet in the opinion of the committee it is just & necessary that * These are enumerated in a printed sheet and a portion of the foregoing, the introductory paragraph being as follows, to wit: The committee, consisting of Mr. Duane, Mr. Peters, Mr. Carroll, Mr. Hawkins and Mr. Lee, to whom were referred a report on Indian affairs, read in Congress on the 21st of April last; a letter from General Schuyler, one of the commissioners of Indian affairs for the northern district dated the 11th of August last, with messages to and from certain hostile Indians on the subject of peace; a letter dated the same day, from Ebenezer Allen, employed to assist Mr. Bull, a messenger sent by the board of war by order of Congress, to announce the cessation of hostilities to the Indians in the western country; a report from the board of war, dated the 19th of August, accompanying a narrative of Ephraim Douglass, another messenger to the Indian tribes with sundry enclosures; a letter from the commander in chief, with instructions accompanying the same; extract of a letter to the commander in chief from General Haldiman, commanding for his Britannic majesty in Canada, dated the 17th of August; a letter from the commander in chief, dated the 26th of August, and its enclosures, and a letter from brigadier general Irwine, dated the 3d of September instant.

Lines of property should be ascertained and established between the United States and them, which will be convenient to the respective tribes & commensurate to the public wants, because the faith of the United States stands pledged to grant portions of the uncultivated lands as a bounty to their army, & in reward of their courage and fidelity: & the public finances do not admit of any considerable expenditure to extinguish the Indian Claims upon such lands: because it is become necessary by the increase of domestic population & emigrations from abroad, to make Speedy provision for extending the settlement of the territories of the United States; & because the public Creditors have been led to believe, & have a right to expect that those territories will be speedily improved into a fund towards the security & payment of the national debt; nor in the Opinion of the Committee can the Indians themselves have any reasonable objection against the establishment recommended. They were as some of them acknowledge, aggressors in the war, without even a pretence of provocation, they violated the convention neutrality made with Congress in Albany, 1775, & in return for proffered protection and liberal supplies; & to the utter ruin and impoverishment of thousands of Families they wantonly desolated our villages and settlements, and destroyed our Citizens. To stop the progress of their outrages, the war, at a vast expence to the United States, was carried into their own country, which they abandoned, weaving then the right of conquest, and the various precedants which might be quoted in similar instances, a bare recollection of the facts is sufficient to manifest the obligation they are under to make atonement for the enormities which they have perpetrated, & a reasonable compensation for the expences which the United States have incurred by their wanton barbarity, & they possess no other means to do this act of justice than by a compliance with the proposed boundaries; the committee are of opinion that in the negotiation which they recommend; care ought to be taken neither to yield nor require too much, to accommodate the Indians as far as the public good will admit, and if they should appear dissatisfied at the lines, which may be found necessary to establish rather to give them some compensation for their Claims, than to hazard a war, which will be much more expensive; but it is supposed, that when they shall be informed of the estimates of the damages which our Citizens have sustained by their irruptions, & of the expenses which the United States have incurred to check their career, it will have a tendency to suppress any extravagant demands." Whereupon,

Resolved, that a convention be held with the Indians residing in the Northern and Middle departments, who have taken up arms against the United States, for the purpose of receiving them into the favour & protection of the United States and of establish boundary lines of property for separating & dividing the settlements of the Citizens from the Indian Villages and hunting grounds; & hereby extinguishing as far as possible all occasion for future Animosities, disquiet & contention ; that first, & as a preliminary, it shall be required that all the prisoners of whatever age or sex among these Indians shall be delivered up.

Secondly, that the Indians be informed that after a contest of eight years for the Sovereignty of this Country. Great Britain has relinquished to the United States all claim to the Country within the limits described by the second article of the provisional treaty between the United States & the King of Great Britain on the thirteenth day of November, in the year 1782, that is to say, from the north-west angle of Nova Scotia, &c.

Thirdly, that as the Indians notwithstanding a solemn treaty of neutrality with Congress at the commencement of the war, notwithstanding all the advice and admonition given them during its prosecution could not be restrained from acts of hostility & wanton devastation, but were determined to join their arms to those of Great Britain, & to share their fortunes, so consequently with a less generous people than Americans, they might be compelled to retire beyond the Lakes, but as we prefer clemency to rigor, as we persuade ourselves that their Eyes are open to their error & that they have found by fatal experience that their true interest & safety depend upon our friendship ; as the country is large enough to contain & support us all, & as we are disposed to be kind to them, to supply their wants and partake of their trade ; we from these considerations & from motives of compassion draw a veil over what is passed, and will establish a boundary line between them and us, beyond which we will restrain our Citizens from hunting and settling & within which the Indians shall not come, but for the purposes of trading, treating or other business equally unexceptionable. Fourthly, that the following lines shall be proposed to be mutually agreed upon & established between the United States and the several tribes of Indians who shall be effected thereby ; Beginning at the mouth of the great Miami River, which empties into the Ohio, thence along the said River Miamis to its confluence with the Mad River, thence by a direct line to the Miamis Fort at the Village of that name on the other Miamis River, which empties into Lake Erie, thence along the last mentioned river to Lake Erie, comprehending all the lands between the above mentioned lines, & the State of Pennsylvania on the East, Lake Erie on the North, and the river Ohio on the South-East. Fifthly, that the commissioners for the Northern & middle departments, or such other persons as may be appointed by Congress, unite together in holding one convention with the Indians inhabiting the districts aforesaid & their Allies & dependants for the purposes aforesaid & only yield to separate conventions in case of inevitable necessity. Sixthly, and whereas the Oneidas and Tuscarora tribes have adhered to the cause of America and joined her arms in the course of the late war, & Congress had frequently assured them of peculiar marks of favour & friendship, the said commissioners are therefore instructed to re-assure the said tribes of the friendship of the United States, that they may rely that the lands which they claim as their inheritance will be reserved for their sole use and benefit until they may think it for their own advantage to dispose of the same. Seventhly, that the said commissioners be, and they are hereby instructed to obtain a particular account of the French Inhabitants at Detroit, Illinois and other Villages within the territories of the United States, & that they give assurances in the name of the United States, to those Inhabitants who shall profess their allegiance to the United States that they shall be protected in the full enjoyments of their liberty, & their just & lawfull property. Eightly, that the said Commissioners be, & they are hereby instructed not to admit into a treaty with the said Indians or suffer to be in any manner connected with it any article stipulation or condition whatsoever making or conforming or tending to make or confirm to any individual or individuals any Grant or Grants of land whether real or pretended within the bounds of the United States as before described.

Ninthly, that the said Commissioners be, & they are hereby also instructed to obtain Information of the numbers & place of residence of the Citizens of the United States, who have seated themselves on the North-west side of the Ohio; to signify to them the displeasure of Congress, that they have taken this step with which the public Interest and repose are so intimately connected without permission or authority, and to discourage to the utmost of their power, all intrusions into any of the territories of the United States, within their respective departments.

And, whereas the trade with the Indians ought to be regulated & security be given by the trader for the punctual observance of such regulations, so that violence, fraud and injustice towards the Indians may be guarded against & prevented, & the honor of the federal government & the public tranquility thereby promoted. Resolved, that a committee be appointed, with instructions to prepare and report an Ordinance for regulating the Indian Trade, with a clause therein, Strictly prohibiting all Civil & Military Officers, particularly all Commissioners & Agents for Indian affairs, from trading with the Indians or purchasing or being directly or indirectly concerned in purchasing lands from the Indians, except only by the express licence & authority of the United States, in Congress Assembled.

The Members chosen Mr. Clarke, Mr. Carroll & Mr. Montgomery. Resolved, that the preceding measures of Congress relative to Indian affairs, shall not be construed to affect the territorial claims of any of the States, or their legislative rights within their respective limits.

The committee in their report observe further that they do not Offer the measures which they have suggested as a sufficient security against the increase of feeble, disorderly & dispersed settlements in those remote & wide-extended territories; against the depravity of manners, which they have a tendency to produce; the endless perplexities in which they must involve the administration of the affairs of the United States, or against the calamities of frequent and destructive wars with the Indians, which reciprocal animosities unrestrained by the interposition of legal authority must naturally excite, & that in their opinion, nothing can avert those complicated & impending mischiefs, or secure to the United States the just and important advantages which they ought to derive from those territories; but the speedy establishment of Government & the regular administration of justice in such district thereof, as shall be judged most convenient for immediate Settlement & Cultivation.

Whereupon Resolved, that it will be wise and necessary as soon as circumstances shall permit, to erect a district of the western territory into a district Government as well for doing justice to the Army of the United States, who are entitled to lands as a bounty or in reward of their services, as for the accommodation of such as may incline to become purchasers and inhabitants, & in the interim that a Committee be appointed to report a plan consistent with the principles of the Confederation for connecting with the Union by a temporary Government. The purchasers & inhabitants of the said district untill their number & circumstances shall entitle them to form a permanent constitution for themselves & as Citizens of a free sovereign & independent State to be admitted to a representation in the Union provided always that such constitution shall not be incompatible with the republican principles, which are the basis of the constitutions of the respective States in the Union.—
The Members Chosen,

Mr. Duane, Mr. Madison & Mr. S. Huntington.

The United States in Congress Assembled

Thursday, October 30th, 1783.

Whereas it appears that the application of the legislature of Pennsylvania relative to a treaty of the purchase of the Indian Claim to lands within the jurisdiction of that State, proceeded from a respectful attachment to the federal Government, & a desire to guard against prejudices, which might arise from the interference of their own particular views with the authority of the United States; that the public interest might have been deeply affected by negotiation for such purchase, independent of & unconnected with the General treaty, to be holden on behalf of the United States.

Resolved, that the commissioners for holding the convention with the Indians under the act of the fifteenth day of October, instant, give notice to the Supreme executive of the State of Pennsylvania of the time & place of holding such treaty to the end that the persons to be appointed by that State for purchasing lands within the limits thereof, at the expence of the said state, may attend for the Sole purpose of making such purchase at the time & place appointed for holding the said treaty, & the Commissioners on the part of the United States, are instructed to give every assistance in their power to the commissioners who may be appointed on the part of Pennsylvania towards promoting the interest of that State as far as the same may consist with the General interest of the Union.

GABRIEL COX TO MICHAEL HUFFNAGLE, 1783.

Sir,

I am not so much of a Lawyer as to be able perfectly to comprehend the drift or meaning of the several Questions you were pleased to put to me, in your favour without date, but if I was to give my opinion, would declare they seem rather calculated to perplex rather than investigate the matter. I heartily and sincerely wish the Executive Council to be truly informed of every thing relative to the persecutions, or what might be now properly called persecutions against me in this County for executing my duty as an officer of Virginia & shall be very ready to answer them or any person disinterested, every Question that can lead to information on the subject, you or any person can by recurring to the Clerks offices of Washington County have, if you choose to be at the expence, Copies of all the records there, my costs already have been so considerable, I wish to have no more.

If you choose to report this answer of mine to the Executive Council of Penn. by whose orders you say you act you will be pleased to communicate it entire, and hope they will be pleased to accept of it as Sufficient apology for my not being more particular at this time and am,

Sir, your most Obedt. Hble. Servt.

DELEGATES IN CONGRESS TO ASSEMBLY, 1783.

Princeton, Sept. 25th, 1783.

Sir,

We have the Honor to transmit the Proceedings of Congress on the Subject of the Instructions of the Honble. House relative to the proposed Purchase of the Indians inhabiting or claiming Part of the Territory of Pennsylvania. By those Proceeding the House will perceive the obstacles to a Compliance with their Wishes. The Committee on Indian Affairs have made a Report which is now before Congress & this Day is appointed for its Discussion. The Principals of that Report militate against the Ideas of the House with Respect to the proposed Purchase. It is intended to insist as Part of the Forms of Peace that the Savages shall without Compensation abandon Part of their Country to the United States who claim it by Conquest & as a Retribution for the Expence & Damages incurred by the hostile & cruel Conduct of the Savages contrary to the Advice & Injunctions of the United States. A Boundary Line is proposed to be established between the Indians & the Citizens of these States & it was believed that if any particular State made a Purchase it would obstruct the general Measures, as the Indians would not agree to the Dereliction of any Part of their Country as a Compensation for the Expences & Ravages occasioned by the War when they find that tho' the general Council refuse it they can obtain Money for it from the Individual States. Whether these Principles be just or the Policy adviseable we do not pretend to determine. We held it our Duty to state the Impediment preventing Congress from agreeing to the Propositions of the States & leave the Honble. House to determine as they in their Wisdom shall think proper.

We have the Honor to be,

with the greatest Respect your very obedt. Servants,

JOHN MONTGOMERY,
RICHARD PETERS.

Directed, On public Service,

Honble. F. A. Muhlenberg Speaker of the Honble House of Assembly of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia.

PROCEEDINGS OF ASSEMBLY ON INTERNAL COMMERCE, 1788.

State of Pennsylvania, In General Assembly,

Monday, September 15, 1788, A. M.,

The report of the committee appointed to hold conferences with the city merchants, read September 10, was read the second time, and adopted as follows, viz;

That they have had sundry conferences with a committee of the merchants of Philadelphia touching the inland commerce of this State, that they are sorry to find the same subjected to so many obstructions owing to the ruinous condition of the public roads throughout this state—no object however strikes your committee in so forcible a manner, as that of conducting the streams of commerce from the river Susquehanna to the port of Philadelphia; This your committee are fully satisfied, can be done in no other mode, so easy as by improving the navigation of the Schuylkill up to Reading, and making durable and lasting roads from thence to such part or parts of the Susquehanna as offer the most easy communication with the fertile lands westward thereof—A town or towns laid out and encouraged by government, in such situation or situations on the east side of the said river, would, in the opinion of your committee, be attended with capital advantages to the trade of Philadelphia, as every inhabitant of such town or towns would in some degree be a factor for the Philadelphia market.

Your Committee therefore offer the following resolutions to the honorable House.

First,—To view the different roads leading from Susquehanna to Reading and Philadelphia, and point out the most practicable mode of improving and repairing the same, and to consider of the most probable way of opening a communication between the rivers Susquehanna and Schuylkill—to form estimates of the expences to carry the above designs into execution and to report their proceedings with all possible expedition to the next House of Assembly.

Second,—To receive the proposals of such person or persons as may offer lands to the public for the purpose of building a town or towns on the east bank of the Susquehanna.

Third,—To examine the navigation of the Susquehanna to the sources of the same, and ascertain as near as conveniently may be, where the northern boundary of this state will fall, particularly whether any part of lake Erie is within the state of Pennsylvania, taking particular notes of the nature and geography of the county as to the practicability of roads, water carriage, air, soil, natural productions, &c.

On motion,

Resolved, that the same Commissioners view the river Delaware, and report to the next Assembly, the most probable mode of removing every obstruction, and improving the navigation thereof, with an estimate of the expence.

Ordered, that this house will on Saturday next proceed to elect six Commissioners for the purposes contained in the foregoing resolutions.

Saturday, September 20, 1783, A. M.,

Agreeable to the order for the day, the House proceeded to elect six Commissioners for the purposes expressed in the resolutions adopted September 15, and the ballots being taken, it appeared, that David Rittenhouse, Thomas Hutchins, and Nathan Sellers, Esquires, were duly elected for performing the duties mentioned in the first and second of the aforesaid resolutions—and that William Maclay, James Wilkinson and William Montgomery, Esquires, were also duly elected for the performing the duties mentioned in the third and in the last of those resolutions.

On motion,

Ordered, that Mr. Delaney, Mr. G. Gray and Mr. Slough be a committee to report instructions to the Commissioners above named, conformable to the resolutions adopted September 15.

Friday, September 26, 1783, A. M.

The report of the committee, appointed to report instructions to the Commissioners nominated to view the different roads leading from Susquehanna to Reading and Philadelphia, and to consider of the most probable mode of opening a communication between the rivers Susquehanna and Schuylkill, and of improving the navigation of the river Delaware; read September 23, was read the second time and adopted as follows, (viz.)

Gentlemen,

The intentions of the Assembly to promote the welfare and happiness of the State, are so fully explained in the resolutions pointing out your duty, that it would be needless and unnecessary to be more particular, it remains therefore only to inform you, it is the earnest desire of the House, that you proceed with all possible expedition on the business of your appointment, and that every necessary expence attending the prosecution of your duty, will be paid out of the treasury of the State on orders drawn by the president in Council, to whom you are to apply, and report to them an estimate of such Instruments and other necessities as you may want. Inclosed you have a copy of the resolutions, to which you will give particular attention.

On motion,

Resolved, that the Commissioners appointed to view the obstructions to the navigation of the river Delaware, be, and the same are hereby appointed Commissioners in behalf of this State in conjunction with Commissioners on behalf of the State of New Jersey, to ascertain and determine what Islands in the river Delaware above the falls of Trenton belong to each state, agreeable to the Law in that case made and provided, passed September, 20 instant.

Extract from the minutes,

PETER Z. LLOYD,

Clerk of the General Assembly.

SIR GUY CARLETON TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1788.

New York, 27th September, 1788.

Sir,

I have delayed answering your Excellency's letter of the 5th Instant* untill now, in hopes that some of the offenders named in the Proclamations and certificates you enclosed, might have been found and apprehended here. But although diligent enquiry has been made, it has hitherto been without success.

Should any of those fugitives from Justice be discovered here while I remain, they shall be apprehended and I will inform your Excellency thereof.

I am Sir, your Excellency's most obedient and most humble servant

GUY CARLETON.

Directed, To His Excellency John Dickinson, Esq.

COUNCIL TO CAPT. P. SHRAWDER, 1788.

In Council,

Philadelphia, September 27th, 1788.

Sir,

Council direct, that an accurate return of all public stores at Wyoming, may be immediately made for their information. I have also to inform you that in a late Election by this Board you were appointed to the command of one of the two companies to be raised for the farther defence of this Commonwealth. The recruiting of this Corps is specially committed to the Commanding Officer Major James Moore of the Pennsylvania Line whose orders you will hereafter obey. Council conceive it necessary that you should continue at the post and proceed to act in that line of diligence and industry which has already so well deserved their approbation. Many reasons make it prudent, if not necessary, that this appointment should be concealed from the Garrison. Among others it is to be feared that if they were acquainted with it they might relax in their obedience. You will be pleased to make immediate report whether Mr. Weitzel has closed with the proposals of Council, and what quantity of provisions you have on hand.

I am

with much respect

your most obedient

and very humble servant,

JOHN ARMSTRONG, jr., Sec'y.

Directed, On public Service,

To Captain Philip Schrawder, of the Rangers, at Wyoming.

PRES. DICKINSON, TO MAJ. J. MOORE.

In Council, October 18th, 1783.

Sir,

Council fully confiding in your Integrity, Ability & Industry, commits to you the important charge, the Fort and Post at Wyoming, and wishes you & the other officers now in Town, to repair to that place as soon as possible with the Men that are enlisted.

We do not doubt but the utmost care will be taken that the Troops behave themselves regularly, & that not the least injury be done to any of the Citizens of the State. Upon your arrival there, you will endeavour to complete the Companies by enlisting such of the soldiers in the Garrison as may be approved of agreeably to the Instructions we have given, & who have no improper Connection in the neighbourhood. If a sufficient number of such Men cannot be procured in the Garrison, we would desire, that an officer may be sent down to this City to make up the Complement.

As you go by Harris's Ferry you will take with you such of the Military stores at that place as may be necessary.

Peculiar Circumstances strongly point out the propriety of desiring you in a very particular Manner constantly to employ the utmost Vigilance & Alertness for the security of the Fort, & the Maintenance of the Station.

It is expected (as in the Instructions to Captains, R. & S.)*

It is our desire that as long as it may be necessary to keep up the garrison, it shall at no time be left without a supply of one Month's provisions in stock for the compleat Establishment of the two companies; and that for this purpose you will correspond with John Weitzel Esquire.

We should be glad to have a return of all the military stores, and early, frequent & exact Intelligence of your proceedings & of every circumstance that may concern the Interest of the State.

With the most entire Reliance upon your Fidelity Prudence and Activity,

I am Sir, your

most obdt. & hble. servt.,

JOHN DICKINSON.

P. S.—On your arrival at Wyoming you will please to muster and inspect the troops now there, making exact returns to us, You will then express to the Officers & Soldiers, the grateful sense we entertain of their services and discharge them.

Directed,

To Major James Moore.

THE PETITION OF THE INHABITANTS OF YORK TOWN, 1783.

To His Excellency, John Dickinson, Esquire, President, and the Honourable Executive Council of the Common-Wealth of Pennsylvania, now sitting at Philadelphia, October, 1783.

Most humbly Shew,

That a Number of Troops (commonly called Armand's Legion,) have been Quartered among Your Petitioners about ten Months ago; and that many of said Troops are very mischievous and troublesome to Your Petitioners, but they contrive it so Crafty that it is a hard matter to discover the Fact, and have them brought to Justice, and which they conceive would be equally dangerous.

And that Your Petitioners have been very Subtily deceived at first, being only required to keep them for a few Days, but have been here ever since, and no likelihood of being yet removed.

And that many of Your Petitioners might have had the Benefit of Letting some Apartments of their Dwelling, was it not, that some of said Troops were Quartered therein.

And that Your Petitioners presume to be highly injured in their Property and deprived of their Liberty, (which they conceive to be equally intitled to enjoy the same, as other faithful Citizens of this Common-Wealth,) if the said Troops are not immediately removed from this Place.

And that Your Petitioners would be willing to bear the Burthen with patience, were it General throughout this Common-Wealth.

Your Petitioners therefore most earnestly solicit Your Excellency and the Honourable Council, to lend an Ear to their Excessive Burthen some Grievances, and Order that the said Troops may be Quartered in Barracks, which your Petitioners presume would be more convenient and agreeable to the Troops, and less Injurious to Individuals, and would Relieve Your Petitioners of a very heavy and disagreeable Burthen, in which they most humbly Pray Redress.

And Your Petitioners as in duty bound, &c., will pray.

A PROCLAMATION FOR THANKSGIVING BY CONGRESS, 1783.

By The United States in Congress Assembled.

Whereas it hath pleased the Supreme Ruler of all human Events to dispose the hearts of the late belligerent power to put a period to the Effusion of human blood, by proclaiming a Cessation of all hostilities by sea & land, and these United States are not only happily rescued from the dangers & calamities to which they have been so long Exposed, but their freedom sovereignty & Independence ultimately acknowledged: And, Whereas in the progress of a contest on which the most essential rights of human nature depended, the interposition of divine providence in our favor hath been Most abundantly & most graciously manifested, and the Citizens of these United States have every reason for praise & gratitude to the God of their salvation. Impressed therefore with an exalted sense of the blessings by which we are surrounded, & of our entire dependence on that Almighty being, from whose Goodness and bounty they are derived, The United States in Congress Assembled, do recommend it to the several States to set a part the second Thursday in December next, as a day of public thanksgiving, that all the people may then assemble to celebrate with grateful hearts and united voices the praises of their supreme & all bountiful Benefactor, for his numberless favours & mercies—That he hath been pleased to Conduct us in safety through all the perils & vicissitudes of the war; that he hath given us unanimity and resolution to adhere to our just rights; that he hath raised up a powerful ally to assist us in supporting them, & hath so far crowned our United Efforts with success, that in the course of the present year, hostilities have ceased and we are left in the undisputed possession of our liberties and Independence, and of the fruits of our own lands, and in the free participation of the Treasures of the Sea; that he hath prospered the labour of our husbandmen with plentiful harvests; and above all, that he hath been pleased to continue to us the light of the blessed Gospel & secured to us in the fullest extent, the rights of conscience in faith and Worship; And while our hearts overflow with gratitude, and our lips set forth the praises of our Great Creator, that we also offer up fervent supplications, that it may please him to pardon all our offences, to give wisdom and unanimity to our public Councils, to Cement all our Citizens in the bonds of affection and to inspire them with an Earnest regard for the National honor and interest, to enable them to improve the days of prosperity by every good work and to be lovers of peace & tranquility; that he may be pleased to bless us in our husbandry, our commerce and navigation; to smile upon our seminaries & means of Education, to cause pure religion & virtue to flourish, to give peace to all nations and to fill the world with his Glory.

Done by the United States in Congress Assembled—Witness his Excellency, Elias Boudinot, our President, this Eighteenth Day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and Eighty-three, and of the Sovereignty and Independence of the United States of America, the Eighth.

CAPT. JA. CHRYSTIE TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

Easton, October 22d, 1783.

Sir

I have arrived here this morning at 9 o'Clock, the Detachment in good order, only two of the soldiers which I shall take the liberty to discharge as unfit for service, The one has fits & the other is in such a situation from his own faults that he will be on the Doctor's list during the term of his enlistment.

Your Excellency will see the reason for the waggons being allowed for six days. The two first days owing to the badness of the weather we got no further than Flower Town about twelve miles from Phila. & he is allowed two days to return. I expect to have everything ready to march this evening & will set out to morrow morning.

I have the honor to be,

your Excellency's most obedient Servant,
JA. CHRYSTIE, Capt.

COMMISSIONERS OF WASHINGTON CO., TO PRES. DICKINSON,
1783.Washington County, Oct<sup>r</sup> 25, 1783.

Sir,

By order of Council we receiv'd a letter the 20th of September, bearing Date the 24th of July, informing that the Executive of this State are astonished at the Inattention with which their Representation on that subject have been Received.

Permit us to say that every thing in our power has been adopted to further your Honors wish; our County Tax has been laid and will soon be adjusted. And before this time might been completed, but for the lateness of receiving the tax Bill, which was near the latter end of June, and then so few, that they in no wise answered the Demand of the County; so that Business was done with the greatest Difficulty, but is nearly surmounted. Altho' we are certain every twentieth person cannot comply with the laws Requirement.

Sir, we Remain your Honors

REPORT AND RESOLUTION OF CONGRESS, 1783.

By the United States in Congress assembled.

November 1, 1783.

The committee consisting of Mr. Carroll, Mr. Duane and Mr. S. Huntington, to whom was referred a motion of Mr. Wilson, to devise means for procuring a full representation in Congress having reported,

"That whether from the peculiar circumstances some of the states have been under during the war, or that the states in general were not sufficiently impressed with the importance of keeping up a constant representation in Congress, the committee cannot find on examining the journals, notwithstanding the repeated earnest recommendations for that purpose, that all the states have been represented at the same time: it appears that frequently there have not been more than nine states, and too generally not more than a competent representation for the lesser objects of the confederation. As the articles of confederation are silent upon this subject, any further than by fixing the number of delegates for each state, and by declaring how many shall constitute a representation, the committee presume such silence was in consequence of a firm reliance that the states could not be inattentive to a duty not only essential to the interests of each state, but likewise to a principle on which the federal government itself rests.

The articles of confederation requiring, for certain purposes, the agreement of nine states, and as it has seldom happened more than that number have attended, the committee conceive, that not only the injury the public and individuals have suffered thereby, have been occasioned in many instances by the absence of the delegates of some of the states, but likewise that the spirit of the articles of confederation have been defeated, by making an unanimity necessary, whereas nine only out of thirteen are required. And the committee are farther of opinion, that unless the states pursue effectual measures for keeping up a constant representation another material object of the confederation will be frustrated. The delays unavoidable for want of a full representation, will they conceive, oblige Congress to remain sitting the whole year, whereas by the articles of confederation it appears, that it was expected part of the business of the United States, would be transacted by a committee of the states.

The committee therefore are of opinion, that it should be earnestly recommended to the respective states, to take the most effectual measures to maintain at all times while Congress are sitting, a full representation, that the delay of business, which has proved so injurious to the public, and grievous to individuals, may no longer be a subject of complaint.

Resolved, That Congress agree to the said report.

CHAS. THOMSON, Sec'y.

M. HUFFNAGLE TO PRESIDENT OF COUNCIL, 1788.

By Colonel Hays, I Received the Instructions from Council for the preserv. tion of the Timber upon the reserved tract opposite to Pittsburg & have accordingly Notified the People of the same. At the same time Mr. Boggs produced to me an agreement made with him by General Irwin, a Copy of which I have inclosed, & Council will be judges of the propriety or impropriety of the same in the mean time he is to remain on the Land until you shall give me further instructions on that Subject.

I am much obliged to Council for the appointment they have sent me, at the same time, I could wish to have an associate. I can assure you it requires a great deal of attention & care to bring these People into Order, & it would require one constantly to be present here.

they intend to return here on Saturday & I think they will be able to give Council a true State of the situation of this Country.

MEMORIAL AGAINST THEATRES IN PHILADELPHIA, 1783.

To the President and Executive Council of Pennsylvania.

The Memorial and Remonstrance of the Subscribers, Inhabitants of the City of Philadelphia, sheweth—

That, understanding with equal apprehensions and regret, a design is in agitation and preparations are making to open a Theatre in the Suburbs of this City for the exhibitions of Stage plays or other pernicious amusements of the like kind, we conceive it our duty to represent to you some general observations on the occasion in which the Virtue & Morals of the People are immediately interested.

Previously remarking as a real subject of peculiar thankfulness that it hath pleased the Sovereign Ruler of all human events to dispose the hearts of the powers lately "at War to put a stop to the effusion of human blood" by the restoration of peace whereby the people of this City and of the Continent in general are happily relieved from the dangers & Calamities to which they were so long exposed, and the interposition of divine Providence hath been remarkably conspicuous for our preservation in times of great extremity, a serious recollection whereof ought to impress every Mind

"with-humble gratitude to that Almighty Being from whose bounty & goodness all our blessings are derived," but an attempt to introduce those scenes of Vanity, licentiousness and dissipation, is an instance of great inconsideration and depravity in those who are concerned in promoting them, as it is also a contemptuous violation of the Laws.

The nature and tendency of those exhibitions unhappily introducing a variety of intemperance, dissoluteness and debauchery, must necessarily affect every pious judicious mind with real concern and excite a tender compassion towards unwary Youth, whose Minds becoming vitiated by a taste of delusive pleasures grow indisposed to the regular laudable & virtuous satisfaction of domestic and social life, and are often gradually drawn into infidelity & corrupt principles, of which experience hath given abundant proof in those places, where such ensnaring amusements are allowed and encouraged.

We also take the liberty to remonstrate on this subject as it affects the respect and honour of magistracy, which Office is always rendered more difficult & perplexed by a greater variety of disorder & irregularity, and its power and authority must be weakened by a growing corruption of manners among the people; these diversions manifestly tending to such consequences, we request you would consider them in these points of view.

And as the good order and subordination in Civil Society as well as the exercise of the divine and social Virtues proceed from an attachment to the doctrine & precepts of the Christian Religion—can a design so evidently repugnant thereto, and experimentally mischievous in practice deserve the least encouragement?—and should it not be discountenanced and suppressed in the most effectual manner? agreeable to the provision made by the Law in which the disapprobation of such irreligious & impolitic amusements is declared by the Legislature.

A consideration of the vicious impressions which a taste for these diversions must stamp on the Youth & others, the prejudice that must accrue to Industry & frugality thereby—the increase of disorders weakening the authority of magistrates—and above all the open and visible detriment to true Religion—We hope and desire may prevail with you so effectually to interpose your authority and power as to put an entire stop to the undertaking, however plausibly disguised to elude the penalties of the Law.

MESSRS. DE BRUSSINE & GARRISON.—CHEVAUX-DE-FRISE, 1783.

We would desire to know previously, whether it is to be understood that the Chevaux De Frise are intirely to be removed.

Or if it will suffice to take them down as far as the Ballast. Untill that is known it is difficult to fix the Sum.

But in the latter Case, to take them down as far as the Ballast only, will suffice. In that Case We require the Sum of Four Thousand Pounds, to defray all Expences, and run all risques, agreeable to our proposition.

In Case the above Sum is considered too large, We propose another, less expensive—namely. We will take Twelve Hundred pounds, which shall be first paid after the Experiment is made and approved of. As the whole may be done for £2000, including the £1200 above. Seeing every article that is wanted to the operation is supposed to belong to the publick, and need not first be purchased.

We will agree to either of the proposals.*

No. 2.

The Second proposition is to be understood in this manner. We require the Sum of £1200 to be paid us after the Experiment with One Chevaux De Frise is made & approved of.

We will not charge ourselves with the whole operation then. The whole may afterwards be done with facility & Economy.

Our Experiment it is expected will not cost more than 25 Guineas, and will be made in half a Day.

DE BRUSSINE.

* See Col. Rec., Vol. XIII., p. 745.

No. 8.

By our first proposition we required the sum of £4000 payable as expressed in the same.

By the second we required £1200 payable after the Experiment with One Chevaux de Frize was made and approved of according to which we are confident the whole Expence would not be above £2000.

The difference between the first & 2nd proposal is considerable, for this reason. The first is in proportion to the Expence risque and Trouble, which would be considerable having all to purchase ourselves.

By the 2d we have no Expence, risque, & but little Trouble as the Experiment would soon be made, and then continued as Council might direct which with a proper economy, we are confident will not cost above £2000. Including the £1200 we required,

For the above reasons we cannot deviate from the first proposals of £4000.

But to satisfy Council of our confidence & Integrity, as we are convinced, That it is the only Infalible plan that can be adopted, & the least Expensive, We will engage to make the Experiment for 20 Guineas, and to conclude if Council think proper and give us in writing we will divulge our plan, If they disapprove it, it is void, If they approve it the Money shall nevertheless not be paid till after the Experiment is made and approved of. And one of the 2 persons will agree to continue the operations till it is finished which the other cannot do so conveniently perhaps on account of his situation.

N. GARRISON.

In Council, November 10th, 1783.

Sir,

I have not been able to answer your Excellency's favor enclosing the resolutions of your assembly respecting the boundary line between the the two States, for want of the determination of the Commissioners appointed on behalf of this State, who all live at a distance from me. I have at last obtained their promise to undertake the work, and to enter into a correspondence with your Commissioners, and with them to fix on the time and places of meeting. The gentlemen appointed are the Reverend Mr. James Madison, the Reverend Mr. Robert Andrews, the honourable John Page, and Mr. Thomas Lewis. Your excellency will please to notify their appointment to your Commissioners, and give them similar instructions.

PROCLAMATION OF GOVERNOR OF CONNECTICUT, 1783.

By His Excellency Jonathan Trumbull, Esq<sup>r</sup>, Gov<sup>r</sup> and Commander in Chief in and over the State of Connecticut.

Whereas, the Legislature of this State, by their Resolution passed at their sessions holden at New Haven, on the second Thursday of October last,* have declared that this State has the undoubted and exclusive Right of Jurisdiction & preemption to all the Lands West of the State of Pennsylvania & east of the River Mississippi, & extending throughout from y<sup>e</sup> Latitude 41° to Latitude 42° 2' north, by virtue of the Charter granted by King Charles the 2<sup>d</sup> to the late Colony, now State of Connecticut, bearing date the 23<sup>d</sup> day of April, Anno Domini, 1662, which Claim and right they are determined to assert & maintain.

I do therefore at the desire & Request of the s<sup>d</sup> Legislature, hereby publish, proclaim and make known, this their Resolution, assertion & declaration, to all people whomsoever it may concern—And I do also, by this my Proclamation, strictly forbid, all persons whatever from entering upon, or settling within the Territories so claimed & asserted, without especial License & Authority therefor first obtain'd from the General Assembly of this State—as they would wish to avoid the pains, penalties & forfeitures to which they may in such Case expect to be exposed.

Given under my hand and Seal, at Lebanon in the State of Connecticut, this 15th day of Nov<sup>r</sup>, A. D., 1783.

Gov. JON. TRUMBULL OF CONN. TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

Lebanon, 15th November, 1783.

Sir,

The enclosed acts of the Legislature of this State, passed in their Sessions holden at New Haven in Octr. last, which I have the Honor to transmit to your Excellency, will shew the disposition of this State towards their friends & Brethren who are settled on the Territory of the Susquehanna, so long disputed between this State & that of Pennsylvania; whose sufferings & Condition under your State, since the Decree of the late Board of Commissioners, for determining the said disputed claim, appear, if truly represented to us, to be very singular & extraordinary, and have tended to excite the Commiseration of their friends, as well as to produce a determination in the Legislature to give them all the aid & Support in their power.

Mr. Sherman, who does me the favor of conveying this to your Excellency; and who is going on to Congress, with whom he is instructed to give to these unhappy People, all the aid in his power, being fully possessed of the Subject, as well as of the views & Determinations of the General Assembly of this State respecting the same will, if you please, confer with you fully on the matter; and prevents the Trouble of a particular Detail from me.

I beg leave therefore, to refer your Excellency to Mr. Sherman for any further Information which you may be disposed to receive relative to this subject.

With much Respect & Esteem

I have the Honor to be

Sir, Your Excellency's

most obedient and humble servant,

Sir,

I have the Honor to transmit to your Excellency several Acts and Resolutions of the General Assembly of this State together with my Proclamation in Consequence thereof, respecting their Claim to the Western Lands, comprized under the Charter of this State, granted by King Charles the second, as well those comprehended under the Susquehanna purchase as those still further West, as far as the River Mississippi.

The Decision in the Case of the disputed Territory between this State and that of Pennsylvania, was not only very unexpected to the Legislature of this State, but from some Circumstances appears to them very singular indeed, and such as calls for their further prosecution, and in which they hope to produce such Documents, as shall obtain the further interposition of Congress. But singular and unexpected as the decision has been, the subsequent sufferings & Condition of the People who have been settled under the Claim & purchase of Connecticut, whose circumstances entitled them to the Commisuration & patronage, rather than the Rigor of the State of Pennsylvania, appears, if truly represented, to have been still more extraordinary, and have excited the Pity of their friends in this State, as well as the determination of the Legislature to afford them all the aid, support and protection in their Power. The Delegates from this State, who will attend in Congress this Winter, having been present in our General Assembly when the inclosed Resolutions were passed, and therefore fully possessed of the Subject; and as they are directed to agitate the Matter in Congress, it is unnecessary for me to enter into the detail; leaving the subject therefore to their management and submitting it to the wise & judicious determination of Congress.

I have the Honor to be, &c.,

RESOLUTION OF ASSEMBLY—PUBLIC REJOICINGS, 1783.

State of Pennsylvania, In General Assembly,

Tuesday, December 2, 1783.—A. M.

The report of the committee read November 29, relative to the preparations to be made for public demonstrations of joy; was read the second time, and adopted as follows, (viz. :)

The committee appointed to confer with Council concerning the public demonstrations of joy, it may now be proper to authorize in this State upon the definitive treaty of peace between the United States and Great Britain, beg leave to report as the joint opinion of the board and your committee.

That a triumphal Arch be erected at the upper end of High or Market street, between Sixth and Seventh streets, to be embellished with illuminated paintings and suitable inscriptions; and that some fire works be prepared for the occasion.

That such an exhibition in point of elegance as well as in regard to the convenience and safety of the spectators will prove most generally acceptable; it being intended there should be no other illuminations in the city. That these preparations may be completed in three or four weeks, and will require by the most exact computation they could at present make, at five or at most six hundred pounds. And therefore,

Resolved, that a sum not exceeding six hundred pounds, be, and is hereby appropriated for the purpose of enabling the Supreme Executive Council to make public demonstrations of joy upon the definitive treaty of peace between the United States and Great Britain.

PRES. DICKINSON TO GEN. WASHINGTON.—CONGRATULATORY, 1783.

In Council, December 9th, 1783.

Sir,

Your Return in Safety and Health to this City, from which you first set out commissioned to defend the Liberties of your Country, and after so successful a performance of that High Trust, affords us the most sincere Joy.

We heartily congratulate you on the late honorable Peace, by which the Freedom, Sovereignty, & Independence of the United States are fully acknowledged, their Territorial Rights sustained, & the Calamities of War terminated.

When we contemplate your Conduct in every period of the eventful Contest, and the various proofs you have exhibited of your Love for your Fellow Citizens, our Minds are filled with sentiments, which, we are convinced you would rather deserve, than have expressed—if they could be expressed.

* See Col. Rec., Vol. XIII., p. 704.

They are Sentiments, sir, representing you in such a Light to us, that, ardently wishing you every Happiness of this Life, we feel ourselves equally moved by Duty & Affection to beseech the Best and Greatest of Beings in his good time to bestow upon you all the Felicities of that to come.

When I thus communicate the sense of Council, I rejoice in the opportunity of testifying with how perfect an Esteem

I am, Sir,

GENERAL WASHINGTON'S REPLY TO COUNCIL, 1783.

To His Excellency, the President, and the Honorable the Supreme Executive Council of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen,

I am duly affected by the welcome reception I have met with on my return to this City, and accept with unusual pleasure your obliging congratulation.

But I feel myself particularly indebted to you, Gentlemen, for that delicate sensibility, which hath spared my feelings, and by suppressing your sentiments of my conduct, placed it in but too fair a point of light.

It is from a heart overflowing with gratitude for your past assistance and present politeness, that I reciprocate all your benevolent wishes.

While my farewell blessing thus attends you, permit me to give this last public testimony of the great respect and esteem with which

I have the honor to be,

Gentlemen,

your most obedient

humble servant,

PRES. DICKINSON TO DELEGATES IN CONGRESS, 1783.

In Council, December 16, 1783.

Gentlemen,

Tho' his Excellency General Washington proposes in a short time to retire, yet his illustrious actions & Virtues render his Character, so splendid and venerable that it is highly probable, the admiration

* See Col. Rec., Vol. XIII, p. 765.

& Esteem of the world may make his Life in a very considerable Degree public, as numbers will be desirous of seeing the great & good Man who has so eminently contributed to the Happiness of a Nation. His very services to his Country may therefore subject him to improper Expences, unless he permits her Gratitude to interpose.

We are perfectly acquainted with the Disinterestedness & Generosity of his soul. He thinks himself amply rewarded for all his Labors & Cares by the Love and prosperity of his Fellow Citizens; it is true, no Rewards they can bestow can be equal to his merits. But they ought not to suffer those Merits to be burthensome to Him. We are convinced, the People of Pennsylvania would regret such a consequence.

We are aware of the Delicacy with which this subject must be treated; But relying upon the Good sense of Congress, We wish it may engage their early attention.

We also earnestly desire that Congress may as soon as possible deliberate on the Measures to be adopted for remedying the Mischiefs that may arise from the late British Commercial arrangements.

Another Point of vast Importance, we are anxious to have speedily & finally concluded: and that is the Cession of the Western Lands & the Disposition of them for the Common Benefit of the United States.

We apprehend very unhappy Effects from any Delay attending the adjustment of that Business.

It is the peculiar Interest of this State to have all the Steps taken as soon as possible for the proposed Treaty with the Indians.

On these Heads, & on every other, of which it may be for the Benefit of this Commonwealth to be advised, we should be glad to receive regular & full Intelligence.

I am with great Esteem,

Gentlemen, your most obedient servt.

Secretary's Office, Philadelphia, December 21st, 1783.

Gentlemen,

I have the directions of Council to communicate the following order, Viz: that the different Agents of confiscated property be called upon to make an immediate & correct report of all the estates confiscated in their respective Counties:—specifying such as have been sold & the other proceedings which have been taken upon them.

I am Gentlemen,

PRES. DICKINSON TO DELEGATES IN CONGRESS, 1783.

Gentlemen,

As the Peace Establishment will probably be very small, we should be glad, that Measures might speedily be adopted for having Care taken of the artillery, arms, & ammunition belonging to the United States.

It appears to us, that no better mode can be devised, than to have them divided in just proportions among the several States. If that shall be the Determination of Congress, we doubt not, but you will require an account of those articles that have been deposited in any particular States.

General Washington in his Circular Letter, recommended, that the same arms should be established throughout the States. We should be glad, if Congress would be pleased to take that Point into Consideration.

These subjects seem to be enforced by the first Circumstances we have mentioned.

We wish soon to receive authentic Intelligence of the Definitive Treaty, and of the Ratification when made.

I am with great Esteem Gentlemen, your most obedt. h'ble serv't,

JOHN DICKINSON.

The Honorable, The Delegates of Pennsylvania.

DELEGATES IN CONGRESS TO COUNCIL, 1783.

Gentlemen,

We have the Honor to acknowledge the Receipt of your instructions dated the 16th* December, 1783, to which we shall pay particular attention. The first part of the instructions which relates to his Excellency General Washington, "whose illustrious actions and Virtues render his Character so splendid & venerable" will engage our earliest notice; but we wish to know whether it is the Desire of Your Excellency and the Honorable Council, that the Delegates of Pennsylvania should propose in Congress, that an allowance be made to The General, & what that allowance should be. Whether the Grant of a Sum of Money as a compensation for the great personal Sacrifices he has made to the Public or whether an annual sum to indemnify him for Expences which may arise in future from the particular Situation he must be in. Whatever your Excellency & Honors may direct on this Head shall be most punctually complied with.

Congress consisting of only Seven States, cannot take up at this time any of the important Subjects which are contained in your Instructions; so soon as Nine States appear, we will press for the Discussion of them, and give you every material information relating to them:

The inclosed paper, No. 1, is a transcript of the Journal of Congress, commencing the 13th, and ending the 27th of December.

No. 2, is a copy of a Report from the Superintendent of Finance, on an Extract from the Votes of the Assembly of Pennsylvania relative to the mode fixed by the House for the settlement of Public Accounts. The Report is in the Hands of a Committee.

No. 3, is a copy of an act passed in the last session of the Assembly of Maryland in Consequence of the Restrictions lately imposed on the American Commerce by Great Britain. Virginia has passed an Act similar to the Maryland Act.

Congress have received many Letters from their Ministers in Europe, but as they consist principally of steps taken by our Ministers in their Negotiations for Peace, & of conversations of a secret Nature, which they have had with the Ministers of some European Courts, we are not at Liberty to copy them for your Inspection.

We do not recollect any thing of Importance before Congress at this time except what we have inclosed. Colonel Franks has been employed by us to copy the papers sent herewith, if we are to pursue the plan of sending to you Copies of all papers which we may believe necessary for your inspection, we shall be obliged to engage him or some other person to do that Business. But as we have no Authority to promise an allowance for this service, we request Your Excellency and Honors to give us an Instruction on this Subject.

We are with the highest Respect,
& Esteem, Your Excellency's & Councils Obedient humble Servts.,

DELEGATES IN CONGRESS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

Annapolis, 30 December, 1783.

Sir,

A Question of great Importance has been debated in Congress; and will probably be renewed in a Day or two. It is Whether Seven States in Congress assembled are competent to a Ratification of the Definitive Treaty.

On this Point we request a positive Instruction from Council.

It may be proper to inform your Excellency that the Gentlemen who made & seconded the motion for a Ratification by Seven States, alleged "That Congress consisting of Nine States, viz.: Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia & N<sup>c</sup> Carolina, did on the 29th of October last, at Princeton authorise and instruct their Ministers at Paris, to make the Preliminary Articles a Definitive Treaty of Peace. That Nine States having declared what Articles should constitute the Definitive Treaty; and the Treaty being framed according to their Declaration & Instructions, It may now be ratified by Seven States. That there is no Probability that Nine States will assemble in time to ratify. That admitting the Question to be doubtful it would be the Excess of bad policy to risque a Renewal of the War, by delaying the Ratification of it. That the last article of the Treaty declares it shall be ratified and exchanged in Six Months, or sooner if possible. That only sixty Days now remain for the Ratification & Exchange; which last must be made in Paris or London.

These are the principal Arguments, which have been advanced by the Gentlemen who press for an immediate Ratification.

We need not inform your Excellency how necessary the Instructions of Councils on this Question are to us. We shall endeavour to delay the Determination of Congress untill we receive an answer to this Letter & are with the highest Respect.

Your Excellency & Councils

most obedient h<sup>ble</sup> Servants,

THOMAS MIFFLIN,

CAD. MORRIS,

EDW. HAND.

COUNCIL TO JOSEPH REED, 1777.-

Philad. 23d July, 1777.†

Sir,

I had the honour of your Letter of the 23rd of June, last from Burlington.

This I communicated to the President & Council without delay. They have been for two weeks past in expectation of receiving your determination concerning the office of Chief Justice, to which they had appointed you; and being at length become anxious for it they order me to remind you on the subject.

It appears extraordinary to the Council, that the Speaker of Assembly & Gentlemen of distinction should intimate to you, that delay in your answer would be acceptable. When the House was last sitting, and especially about the time of recess, many of the members at different times pressed the propriety & need of filling the Supreme Bench of Judicature, upon the members of Council separately. They spoke in the name of their Constituents. The Council feel the want of it weekly. Criminals confined for Capital Charges press for Trial or bailment, in many of the Counties, the inferior Courts of Common pleas cannot well proceed without the upper Court, with wch. they are systematically connected; nor can the benefit of habeas Corpus be properly enjoyed. Besides the damage done to the administration by the present decrepid condition of the body politic is extensive & mischievous. The wishes of good † Mr. Reed attended in Council on the same day and declined the office giving his reasons in writing. See Col. Rec., Vol. XL, p. 242, and Archives Vol. V. p. 879.

Citizens therefore, the public utility, the ardent desire of Council to gratify the one & promote the other, join in asking your acceptance of the important office to which you are called, without delay.

I am Sir,

your most obedient,

and very humble Servt.

REMONSTRANCE OF ISRAEL PEMBERTON, &c., 1777.

To the President & Council of Pensilvania.

The Remonstrance of Israel Pemberton John Hunt and Samuel Pleasants.

Sheweth,

That Lewis Nicola is about to deprive us of our Liberty by an order from you, of which the following is a Copy viz.

"In Council Sepr. 3, 1777."

"Ordered, That Colonel Nicola, Town major, do take a proper guard & sieze Israel Pemberton, John Hunt & Samuel Pleasants & Conduct them to the Freemason's Lodge & there confine them under proper guard 'till farther orders."

"Extracts from the minutes.

T. MATLACK, Secy."

That We are advised & from our own knowledge of our Rights & Privileges are assured that your issuing that order is arbitrary, unjust, & illegal & we therefore believe it is our duty in clear and express terms to remonstrate against it.

The order appears to be arbitrary, as you have assum'd an authority not grounded in Law or Reason to deprive us, who are peaceable men & have never bore arms, of our Liberty by a military force, when you might have directed a Legal Course of Proceeding; unjust as we have not attempted nor are charged with any act inconsistent with the Character we have steadily maintained of good Citizens solicitous to promote the real interest & welfare of our Country & that it is illegal is evident from the perusal & Consideration of the Constitution of the Government from which you derive all your authority & Power.

We therefore claim our undoubted rights as Freemen having a just sense of the inestimable value of Religious & Civil Liberty to be heard before we are confined in the manner directed by the said order & we have the more urgent reason for insisting on this our Right as several of our Fellow Citizens have been some Days & now are confined by your order & no opportunity is given them to be heard & we are informed that it is your purpose to send them & us to a distant part of the Country, even beyond the limits of the Jurisdiction you claim & where the recourse we are justly & legally entitled to, of being heard & of clearing ourselves from any Charge or suspicion you may entertain respecting us will be impracticable.

We fervently desire you may be so wise as to attend to the Dictate of Truth & Justice in your own minds & observe the precept of our Lord Jesus Christ whom you profess to believe in "all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you Do ye even so to them Mattw. 7 : 12," & then we have no doubt you will Comply with this just Claim we make, which will be duly acknowledged by your Real Friends & well wishers,

GEN. JAMES POTTER TO PRES. REED, 1779.

Penns Valley, May 3d, 1779.†

Dear Sir,

I have Just Received your Kind favour of the fourteenth of April you recommend the posting of Troops at Muncey—there has allway been a number of Hartleys Regt. posted at Muncey since they came to this Country that please, Jenkinnes, Wioming, and Sunbury are the posts they have occupeyed. I would be fond to carrey on a Cortispondance with Genl. Hand but it will be attended with Disiequalty. I am much obledged to your for you good services and harty enclination you express too serve us on the frunteers and for your care in sending me the papers. You are pleased to inform me of your Endeavours to get the Militia in good order. I am sorry my situation is such that I can be of little use to my Country at present being almost separated from the Rest of the World, it is a pity the indulgence shone too the Torreys has not had a better effect on them, but indulgence is frequently abused Except where there is some Generosety or Sperrit and that we must not look for in a Torrey as the Revarae of that was the very cause of there being Torreys.

Our County has been severly scourged these days past by the Indians, by the best accounts I can receive we have had killed and taken Prisoners about forty persons, the pertioquillers I expect you will Receive before this comes to hand, the Militia of Col. Buchanans Battalion of Cumberland County were ordered to march to fort Roberdeau they Refused to march aleding it was unreasonable to order them out and to have no guards on there own frunteers, but at the same time Declared there willingness to guard the frunteers oposite to themselves, on my conferring with Col. Stewart, one of the of the company to this Valley and the other half to standing stone Valley in Bedford County, those that were for this place came hear on the twenty-ninth of April, and the day before Col. Hunter sent to this Valley one officer and fifteen men, of those that were raised in the County by superscriptions, and yesterday unexpected came Captn. Cerbey with his Troop of Light Hors that was ordered by the Board of war in Feby. last to this place. Col. Hartly for what Reason I know not, got the Board to Countermand these Orders, on Capt<sup>m</sup> Cerbeys arivel hear, I sent the Cumberland militia to Standing Stone Valley in Bedford County, thus we Got supplied with men after I had the pleasure of keeping Garrison with my family alone for six weeks in one of the frunteer Garrisons of the County, and not a man stationed on any part of the frunteers of the two Countys from Muncey westward, untill the twenty-eight of April. I must confess I think the Militia of Col. Buchanan's Batt. was not to Bleame for Refusing to march too fort Roberdeau when there was no Guards on their own frunteers but a few Inhabitanee shut up in forts, and every day likley to evequate them, and altho' I have always been for Obedience to Orders, the Lieutenant's Orders to that Company Considring there sircumstances were too Hard to be compleyed with. Our people on the frunteers of this County shoves a mutch Better spirrit and makes a better stand than I expected. I trust in God, through his Blessing, the ensuing Campain will grant Reliefe.

COL. BRODHEAD TO PRES. REED, 1779.

Pittburgh, May 22nd, 1779.*

Dear Sir,

The Enemy has done little or no Damage for upwards of a fortnight past, except taking two lads prisoners in Salt lick Valley.

My son has frequently wrote me that you assured him he was to retain his rank in the army, which was my wish; but having wrote his Excellency to permit him to visit me; I received the following answer. It has been the misfortune of many Officers in captivity to have been overlooked by their States, who had the power of all Regimental appointments, which seem to have been the case with Mr. Brodhead. Had he been appointed in the line after so long sub-lieutenants of that County, he allowed them to march one-half an absence from you, I should not have refused him the opportunity of paying you a visit; but as he has not, there cannot be a possibility of objection on my part.

I freely confess that I have not met any thing of late, that has so much hurt my feelings, as the neglect shown to the brave officers, who, by the want of Judgment in some, unfortunately fell in to the hands of the Enemy. And I wish the president may not be injurious to the Service.

Had any improper Conduct on their part been manifested, it would have justified a coolness, but I trust that was not the case, and have always understood that the number of the Enemy, was so much superior to theirs, that it would have been imprudent to have contended longer than they did.

Give me leave to thank you in the name of my Regt, for the ample supplies, which, I am informed are on the road, for the officers & Men.

Inclosed are Copies of a Letter received from Major Vernon, & two Speeches from the Indians. I believe the Western Indians, except the Shawnese, are quiet, & that we shall soon give a good account of the Northerns. The scarcity of provisions at Fort Lawrens was owing to repeated false returns of the assist<sup>t</sup> Commy. there; but I hope a small supply which I had sent them by a new route, will reach that post before it is quite evacuated. When I shall receive more salt provisions to subsist the Garrisons at the different advanced posts, I know not, but every step has been taken to procure it, that appeared promising.

INSTRUCTIONS TO REV. JAMES FINLEY, 1783,

The General Assembly of this State by their Resolution of the 19th of last November empowered Council to select & appoint one or two proper persons to travel through & reside some time in the Counties of Westmoreland & Washington in order by necessary Information to bring over our deluded fellow Citizens to a proper sense of their Duty & resolved to defray the necessary Expenses. The resolution relates to the unjust & dangerous Designs of some persons in the Counties to separate from & erect a new and Independant State within the Charter Boundaries of this Commonwealth.

We taking this Business into our most serious Consideration unanimously agreed to appoint you to fulfill the Intentions of the Legislature, and are happy to find that you consent to accept the important Employment.

We apprehend it to be their sense, that you should not on this occasion appear with any public Character; and we doubt not but your Prudence will suggest to you the Reasons, upon which such a Caution is founded.

We place great Reliance in your wisdom & Integrity but judge it may be expedient especially as we understand it is desired by you, to express such sentiments as occur to us upon as the subject.

The act of Assembly, the Bill published for Consideration & our proclamation containing the late decree in our favor, all of them herewith delivered, may be used, without exciting any notion that you are employed by the state. In like manner may be urged the final acceptance of the Decree by Congress without the least Exception the submission of the Inhabitants settled under the Connecticut Claim & the acknowledgement of our Right by the State of Virginia.

From these Facts & from the undisputed Judgement of the United States the Right of Pennsylvania to all the Lands within her Charter Boundaries, & her Jurisdiction over them may & earnestly be insisted on as universally confest.

From hence arises a strong argument against the Injustice and Wickedness of an attempt to dismember a State by Faction, Sedition or violence, an offence of a deep Dye, & highly displeasing not only to all good men, but unquestionably so in the sight of our righteous Creator. The Contempt with which their late application to Congress has been treated by that Honorable Body, is a strong Evidence how wild & iniquitous such a project appears to be.

This offence is rendered the more heinous when it is remembered with what Carefulness & at what a great Expence Pennsylvania hath attended to the protection & Comfort of our Fellow Citizens on the Western frontier, so that she now labours under a heavy Debt incurred for their Defence, as also for freeing them from the Burthen of proprietary Demands. The People to be thus addressed must be-conscious how slight their Contributions have ever been to the public expenditures.

There is no Reason to doubt but that this brotherly affection & kindness on our part will be continued & encreased; and measures be devised for conveying to them all the Blessings of a regular Civil government, in the manner easiest & cheapest that can be possible for them. The usual Business of each County can be transacted within itself, without inconvenience and the Trial of Causes in the Supreme Court, a Resort so very useful, can be had without great trouble or Expence, by the Circuit of the Judges. Attendance of members in assembly is defrayed by the state.

The Benefits that must be derived to all the Citizens of Pennsylvania by her continuing to hold her just Charter extent, & by thus rendering her as respectable and powerful as can be, are many & very valuable, on the other Hand, the Dangers & mischiefs that must result from contracting her Bounds, & lessening her Respectability & Power, are vastly alarming. This observation will receive the more force, by reflecting, that we shall be neighbours to States of prodigious Extent and Influence. Attempts of this last kind must be foolish & criminal in Extreme; & never can succeed, unless the innocent & unwary suffer themselves to be cheated & imposed upon by a few bold, ambitious, artful, selfish, & wicked men. Such men there are in all societies, & their constant method of proceeding is to cover over Designs calculated to promote their own Interest by slimy Pretences of public good. Such men who want to make opportunities for promoting themselves to Posts of Honor & profit, must be watched & guarded against by their honest Fellow Citizens. Such men by talking about a new State mean new Offices to acquire Power and Wealth for themselves. These Men are so lost to all sense of shame & so void of every Principle of Justice, that they aim to distinguish the western frontiers of Pennsylvania by an infamy of Conduct, of which the world has not yet afforded an instance. When Parts of an Empire or State have separated from the rest, it has always been on account of some intolerable Tyranny practised against them. But the Inhabitants of our Western Frontiers have been so far from feeling such Tyranny, that they have constantly been cherished & protected with parental tenderness by the state. The most ingenious Innovators in that Country cannot mention a single Grievance caused by the State, If any Inconvenience arises from their settling on the Frontiers at a Distance from the other settlements, it was their own voluntary act—done under public authority—the Consent & protection of which public authority was an obligation upon them; and every such Inconvenience admits of a proper Remedy of which some Hint has already been given.

If arguments of this sort are not duly regarded, it may be added with the utmost Calmness and Firmness, that Pennsylvania knows her Rights, the world acknowledges them, and she is resolved at every Hazard to maintain them.

In the Course of the Measures she is pursuing a number of brave men whose Courage & Virtue have been proved in their Country's Cause, will become interested in the Lands which are designed for part of the new State, who will not suffer their dearly earned property to be torn from them by chimerical Pretenders to Patriotism.

I am Sir, with great Esteem and Regard,

Your obedient humble servant,

INSTRUCTIONS TO CAPT. SHRAWDER, 1783.

Feb. 28, 1783.

Gentlemen,

As the Continental Troops have lately been withdrawn from Wioming, it is by the General Assembly thought necessary for the protection of the settlement against the Savages, to replace the Guard immediately with the two Companies of Rangers commanded by you.

You will therefore each of you directly march with your respective Companies to that Post & take every proper Measure for maintaining the Post there, and for protecting the settlements. We have wrote to John Weitzel, Esquire, directing him to deliver the provisions contracted for, at Wioming, instead of delivering them at Fort Rice or at Captain Grays in Buffalo Valley as was at first intended. We would have you to give such assistance to Mr. Wietzel as may render this alteration agreeable to him. As we confide very much in your Prudence, we trust that your Conduct will enforce our wishes on a Point of great importance. It is our earnest Desire, that the Inhabitants settled at or near Wioming, should be in all Respects treated with kindness. This we know to be the Desire, also of the Legislature, it being the unanimous sense of both Branches, of the government, that all Differences should be equitably & finally adjusted.

We therefore expect that you will separately and together employ your best Exertions to prevent any injury being done to the Inhabitants before mentioned, & even any Quarrels being entered into with them by the officers or soldiers under your Command ; and that you may convince them by your Care & attention to them, that they are regarded as Fellow-Citizens, whose Welfare & Happiness you sincerely and affectionately desire to promote.

I am, &c.

RESOLUTION OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY, 1788.

State of Pennsylvania, In General Assembly,

Friday March 21, 1783—A. M.

The committee appointed February 17, on the letter from his Excellency the President of this State, made report, which was read, and on motion and by special order the same was read the second time: whereupon

Resolved, That the President of the Supreme Executive Council be authorised to draw on the Treasurer of the State for the sum of Two hundred pounds to be applied towards the payment of the necessary repairs made and to be made to the government mansion house.

WM. PARKER TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

Washington County, April 5th, 1783.

Sir,

The expectation of Peace gave the Inhabitants of the Western Frontiers hopes of being eased of the calamities of war, at least for some time; but it is our great mortification the savages have began anew their depredations. They took one Mrs. Walker Prisoner on the 27th ult., on Buffalo Creek, but she happily made her escape. This woman says that two parties of Indians are gone against the Inhabitants. Two days after there were two men taken prisoners at Weeling—the day following, a man was wounded on Short Creek. The 1st of April they took the Wison Boice and Family consisting of eight persons, and a Man was killed the day following, near Washington County, Court house. Same time two Indian Rafts were seen on the Ohio, between Weeling and Grave Creek. In short the Inhabitants are in the utmost consternation especially on the Frontiers, and unless timely relieved, their case must be truly deplorable.

The Commandant of Fort Pitt, (Col. Bayard,) has generously supplied us with amunition, and is ready to give every assistance in his power.

DORSEY PENTECOST TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

Washington County, May 4th, 1783.

Sir,

I have no doubt but that General Irwine has informed Your Excellency and Council of the Early inroads of the Savages this Spring, and with what uncommon Inhumanity they marked their horrid murders, as also the great success they met with owing to the unexpectedness of the stroke. I think in one week they killed and captured seventeen persons, two of which (vizt., a Woman and a Boy) have since made their Escape. The people were so intirely easy under the Expectation of a General Peace that those Butchers of mankind met with no kind of Obstruction in their progress, for it is said, and I believe with truth, that they continued about the frontiers of this County for several days without a single scout persuing them.

However they have at Length left the Country of their own accord, and I have the Pleasure of Informing your Excellency that I have not heard of any disturbance from them for several weeks past. I am inclined to think that those who were amongst us was a hunting party that had been out all winter, and knew nothing of the Late publick Transactions, or else they are an ungovernable Bandity who came out to rob & plunder, and intend to remove out of our way, for it's Certain the different Tribes doth not Intend to Prosecute the War, or the stroke would have been more general. How true my conjectures are, and how they may Correspond with the sentiments of those who Pretend to understand more about Indian Politicks I wont pretend to say.

I hear that Last Thursday a party of upwards of sixty men went from Wheeling to take possession and form a settlement on the Indian side of Ohio, at the mouth of the Muskingom, I believe the report is a fact.

I Expected to see your Excellency some Time in June, but the Indian rupture this Spring has heretofore Prevented me from doing a Job of surveying which I came home to attend. I have two Surveyors now out, and, if they met with no accident, will return in about Six or Eight Weeks. Soon after that happens I shall set out for Philadelphia.

I will thank your Excellency for the news, and to offer my respects to the Gentlemen of your Honorable Board, and permit me to assure your Excellency that I am with sincere Esteem

THOMAS SMITH TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

Philada., May 24th, 1783.

Sir,

By an act of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, passed the 21st of March last, entitled "An act for providing the Quota of federal supplies for the year 1783, & for the relief of the Citizens of this State who have become Creditors of the United States of America by Loans of Money or other Modes of furnishing public supplies." Provision is made for issuing certain Notes which are to be put into my hands for the purpose of paying one year's Interest on certain Loan Office & other Certificates therein described, under certain limitations & restrictions, of which your Excellency & the Council are constituted the Judges. The public Creditors are anxious to avail themselves of the relief intended by this Law, & I would gladly discharge my duty in administering it in such manner as will give as little trouble to your Excellency & the Council as the nature and circumstances of the business will admit. In order to which I beg leave to solicit your instructions on some points on which the determination of your Excellency & the Council seem to be requisite; & by which instructions I may be enabled to avoid giving you the Trouble of frequent references of particular Cases.

The act directs that one year's Interest shall be paid on "all such Certificates of money loaned to the United States or other Certificates of Debts due from the United States liquidated, ascertained & Certified according to the directions of the United States in Congress assembled," other than for pay of Officers, &c., with a proviso, among other things, that such Certificates were originally issued "in the name & for the use of any Person or Persons who at the time of such issuing who or were, or since have been a Citizen or Citizens of this State, & actually resident within the same," & if any difficulty shall arise respecting the right of the Claimant to the benefit of this act, it shall be incumbent on him to produce the proof necessary to establish it; & if such proof be not sufficient to satisfy the Loan Officer, the same shall be referred to the President & Council whose determination & order thereon shall be conclusive. On this Clause of the Act it seems to be requisite that general rules should be established & made known that the applicants may come properly prepared in the first instance to support their just claims, & avoid the trouble, disappointment, & Vexation which would probably happen in numerous instances for want of such information.

1st. As to the Certificates other than the Loan Office Certificates, what marks of authenticity they should bear, by whom they should be signed, & in what manner attested, to intitle the bearer to receive the Int.

2dly. Supposing this description ascertained, so as to put these Certificates on a footing with Loan Office Certificates, then, as to both, what proof will be necessary, & in what mode must it be ascertained that they originally were issued to such persons, & in such manner as the Act requires to intitle them to draw Interest.

By a resolution of Congress of the 10th Sep<sup>r</sup>, 1777, it is declared that Interest at the rate of 6 % Ct. % ann<sup>m</sup> should be paid on all monies which had been loaned, or sh<sup>d</sup> be loaned before the first of March, 1778, & that the Interest sh<sup>d</sup> be paid annually in Bills of Exchange at the rate of Five Livres tournois for every Dollar so due for Interest. By a subsequent Act of Congress of the 28th June, 1780, establishing a scale of depreciation for Loan Office Certificates, the principal of such as are dated after the 1st Sep<sup>r</sup>, 1777, & before the 1st March, 1778, is subject to a certain depreciation: "Provided nevertheless that the same Interest & mode of payment on Certificates taken out before the 1st March, 1778, shall be continued as at present, untill the principal, ascertained as aforesaid, shall be ready to be discharged." The Act of Assembly in contemplation, refers to the Act of Congress as to the value in specie of the Loan Office Certificates, & as no Interest has been paid on those bearing date between the first of Sep<sup>r</sup>, 1777, & the 1st March, 1778, otherwise than in Bills of Exchange. I request instructions whether I am now to pay the full Interest on such Certificates as usual, without computing any depreciation or not.

I am informed by the Treasurer that the Notes are ready for delivery, but as it will require time on my part to sign & prepare them for payment, I request the Warrant of your Excellency to the Treasurer to deliver me One hundred thousand Dollars, that I may be enabled as early as possible to pay the Interest due to such of the public Creditors as shall produce proper Vouches, there being many on whose Certificates no doubt can arise, whose necessities render them impatient to receive such relief as this payment may afford them.

I have the honor to be with great respect, your Excellency's

RESOLUTION OF HOUSE OF DELEGATES TO VIRGINIA, 1788.

Friday, June 27th, 1788.

Mr. Maun Page reported from the Committee of Propositions and Grievancies that the Committee had according to order had under their consideration the Memorial of John Campbell to them referred and had agreed to a report and came to several resolutions thereupon, which he read in his place and afterwards delivered in at the Clerks Table when the same were again twice read, amended and agreed to by the House as followeth :

"It appears to your Committee by a resolution passed by the Assembly on the twenty-third of June, 1780, that the agreement made on the 81st day of August, 1779, between James Madison and Robert Andrews, Commissioners for the Commonwealth of Virginia, and George Bryan, John Ewing and David Writtenhouse Commissioners for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, be ratified and finally confirmed to wit. : that the line commonly called Masons and Dixons line be extended due West five Degrees of longitude to be computed from the River Delaware for the Southern Boundary of Pennsylvania, and that a Meridian drawn from the Western extremity thereof, to the Northern limits of the said States respectively be the Western Boundary of Pennsylvania for ever On condition that the private property & rights of all persons acquired under, founded-on, or required by the laws of either County Previous to the date hereof, be saved and confirmed to them, altho' they should be found to fall within the other, and that in the Decision of disputes thereupon, preference shall be given to the elder or prior right which ever of the said States, the same shall have been acquired under such persons paying to that State within whose boundary their lands shall be included, the same purchase or consideration money which would have been due from them to the States under which they claimed, the right and where any such purchase or consideration money hath since the declaration of American Independence been received by either state for lands which according to the before recited agreement shall fall within the territory of the other, the same shall be reciprocally refunded and repaid."

It also appears that the said John Campbell hath lately returned from a captivity of three years, and that from his confinement he was unable to secure his title to lands taken up under the laws of and supposed to lie in this State, but are said to be within the Territory ceded to the State of Pennsylvania, by which means there is Danger of his title, to the said lands not being confirmed without the payment of a large sum of money, as that State it is suggested makes no distinction between the settlers on the lands within their Chartered limits, & those ceded by this State, That the Militia Officers labour under Difficulties from the apprehension of suits being commenced against them by the Individuals who were called into Militia service under the laws of this State; that a Judgment hath already been obtained against Lt Col<sup>e</sup> Cox, for a considerable sum on that account, and that suits are now depending against two others for the same Cause.

Resolved, that it is the opinion of this Committee that the Governor ought to be desired to write to the Executive of the State of Pennsylvania, reminding them of the terms of the Cession, as contained in the said Resolution, of the twenty-third of June, 1780, and requesting that the Legislative, Executive, and Judiciary Departments of that state will in all their proceedings conform to the spirit and intention thereof:

Resolved, that it is the opinion of this Committee that the Executive ought to appoint a Surveyor or Surveyors in conjunction with others to be appointed by the State of Pennsylvania, to run the boundary lines as agreed to by the Commissioners from each state at Baltimore, in the year 1779, to be binding on this state in case the State of Pennsylvania shall conform to the Conditions of the said Cession

RICHARD HENRY LEE TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1780.

Richmond in Virginia, June the 30th, 1780.

Sir,

Your favor of April the 15th did not reach me until about twelve days ago, at this place, where I have been attending the general assembly for two months past.

I should e'er this have paid my respects to you, had I not waited to see the progress of the business concerning the unhappy territorial dispute between our states. I have now the happiness to inform you that our Legislature hath consented to confirm the agreement of the commissioners, interposing a few conditions relating chiefly to quieting the possessions of the inhabitants, which I think your state will find no difficulty in agreeing to. The instrument of confirmation will, I suppose, be sent to you shortly. I must here observe, that the act of our assembly on which the commissioners for adjusting land claims exercised jurisdiction in the disputed territory, I am well informed, was not the effect of design—in a general system, it was, thro' inattention, omitted to except the country in dispute. It cannot surely be wondered at that the Assembly took some time to consider about confirming a measure of magnitude, by no means made final by the consent of the commissioner. I am not, sir, unacquainted with the jealousy that you mention has been entertained against this state, nor am I uninformed that it is without just foundation and it is surely the business of every good citizen of the United States to compose and extirpate a principle so malign, and which may produce such fatal consequences to our union. Virginia is not without its faults, but where is the State or the Man that is so? I hope, however, that our sister commonwealth of Pennsylvania will be satisfied that the purest principles of amity and union govern us.

This assembly had once rejected the finance plan of Congress of the 18th of March, but the question has been since revived, and a bill ordered in for its adoption. The bill is now on its passage, and we hope will be finally consented to.

Our latest accounts from the southward inform us, that Lord Cornwallis, with 3,000 men, was posted at Camden in South Carolina, with outposts above and below him, having 600 men at one and, and 400 at the other—that he is collecting magazines of provisions and calling on the country people of whom he had taken paroles to come in, [to] swear allegiance to the King of Great Britain, and bear arms against their country. Baron Kalb and Gen. Caswell, when joined by 2,500 of our Militia, now on their March to North Carolina, will have a body of between seven and eight thousand men—at present the operations there are greatly retarded by the want of provisions, but we expect to remove this difficulty by the power of a law just passed for collecting the surplus provisions of every family, grain, salt, rum, &c., &c.

The Bay of Chesapeake has at this time 3 frigates and six or seven privateers in it—they came in pursuing a fleet of Merchantmen from Baltimore and this State, that had collected for defence and were going out—it would seem that the enemy had been advertised of the sailing of this fleet.

The generous exertions of your State at the present great crisis, does honor to the commonwealth and its councils—I wish the example may inspire, as it ought, the rest of this sleeping union.

I beg my respectful compliments may be presented to the Ladies of your family, and that you will be assured I am, with much esteem and regard, Sir, your most obedient and

very humble servant,

RICHARD HENRY LEE.

P. S.—I have said that our Legislature hath consented, &c.; the Senate have passed our instrument of confirmation with a small amendment that will create no difference between the houses.

THOMAS SMITH TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

In the Letter* which I had the honor to receive from your Excellency in answer to my application for instructions in executing the duties required of me by Act of Assembly respecting the payment of Interest on Loan Office Certificates, your Excellency was pleased to say, respecting Certificates bearing date the 1st Sep<sup>r</sup>, 1777, & the 1st March, 1778, that it seemed to the Council that the Interest on such Certificates should be computed according to the depreciation, in consequence of which I have tendered that mode of computation, to such holders of those certificates as have applied for the payment of Interest on them; but they are not willing to acquiesce in it. Some seem disposed to wait patiently till the matter shall be more fully decided on; but others are differently inclined, and are rather peremptory in their demands of the full Interest—Clamours are likely to arise, And as I wish to save your Excellency & the Council the trouble of numerous applications on this point from individuals—I take the liberty of requesting more particular instructions concerning it.

MONS. MARBOIS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

Philadelphia, the 19th July, 1783.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform your Excellency that yesterday between three and four o'clock a vessel arrived in this harbour having French flag. She were ordered by the Commander of the King's Ship now in this River (the Pintade) to come and give information according to our naval laws: the Captain having not Complied with the Order given, a French Midshipman went on board, was very insolently answer'd and threatened to be thrown over board; he withdrew & it was not untill this morning that I was informed the Vessel is an English who took the advantage of French colours to be admitted here for fear she would not be received under English she has still the French flag & asserts, no body will be able to oblige him to strike it. I desire your Excellency will be so obliging as to order what you & Council shall think fit in such a case for this breach of public faith and the imposition upon the State of Pennsylvania. For our part we request also the English Captain be obliged to go on board the Pintade, there to beg pardon for the insult offered to the French officers under a false flag & that he be obliged according to the Laws of Nation, immediately to strike the French flag he had deceptiously hoisted. I desire you will be so obliging as to let me know what measures will be adopted in the case, that I may give proper information to Mr. Prevot de la Croix, the Captain of the King's Ship.

I am with respect

most humble &amp;

obedient Servant,

MARBOIS.

GOV. HARRISON, OF VIRG'A, TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

Virginia Council Chamber,

July 28d, 1783.

Sir,

Your favour of the 8d Instant, came to hand by the last post. I never had a doubt of the rectitude of the Pennsylvania Government or suspected their Intentions of infringing the agreement entered into by the two States, notwithstanding which the people who have been given up to you may be aggrieved by your Magistrates and subordinate Officers, particular Instances of which have been pointed out where Officers of Militia have been prosecuted in your Courts and severe Damages given against them for acting in conformity to the Laws of this State and in obedience to the orders of Government, and I make no doubt but your Excellency will on enquiry find the facts to be so. You will excuse me for not agreeing with you that the application here was improper, the complainants have been given up by this State on certain Conditions, if those Conditions are not performed to whom are the Sufferers to apply for redress but to those who gave them up, it being altogether a public concern and not an Individual one, however it is now unnecessary for me to enter farther into the subject as your Excellency will see by the enclosed that the Assembly have taken up the subject and I beg the favor of you to lay their Resolution before your Assembly.

As the happy period, for which the running the astronomical Line between the two States was postponed is now arrived, and it is highly necessary there should be a final end put to this Business that the minds of the people may be quieted and every man know with certainty to which State he belongs. I hope you can have no objection to the appointment of Commissioners on your part to do the work as soon as it can be done with propriety, when you favor me with your Determination I will take care to have them appointed on our part and to see that they be provided with every thing necessary for completing the Business.

I have the Honor to be with perfect esteem and respect

Obedient Humble Servant,

BENJ. HARRISON.

THOS. MCKEAN, C. J., TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1783.

Sir,

Doctor William Moland the son of John Moland Esquire deceased was attainted of treason in virtue of a Proclamation of the Supreme Executive Council, dated in June, 1778. He surrendered himself in August following, and by the Advice of the then Council, I admitted him to Bail on the 4th September, 1778, with a view to a pardon, which has not yet issued, owing (I believe) to his case having been forgotten, and to his own inattention to it.

His case was represented to stand thus; he went into Philadelphia without the permission or knowledge of Government in the Spring of 1778, when in possession of the British Army, and immediately took a passage for Antigua or St Christophers from whence he returned in the August following. For this conduct he alleged, that he was reduced in his circumstances, and had a brother in the West Indies from whom he had some expectations of assistance, and therefore undertook the voyage. He had before this taken the oath of allegiance to the State, and acted in the Militia &c., on the side of his country, and has done so ever since, tho' he appears to be rather an imprudent young man, and perhaps cared little about the event of contest.

These are all the circumstances I now recollect, relating to this affair: he has begged of me to mention them to your Excellency and the Council, hoping that upon due consideration of all circumstances, he may now obtain a pardon.

I know of no weighty objections to his wishes being gratified and, from the length of time since the transaction, and the other public occurrences, I am induced to recommend him to the mercy & pardon of Government.

RESOLUTION OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY, 1783.

State of Pennsylvania In General Assembly

Thursday September 1783, A. M.

The report of the committee, read yesterday, was read the second time, and adopted as follows, viz.

The committee to whom the memorial of the inhabitants of the county of Bucks, on the subject of the death of the late Major Kennedy, was referred, beg leave to report. That in consideration of the gallantry and good conduct of the said Major Kennedy in a successful attempt upon a party of robbers, felons and burglars, in which he received a mortal wound, and the misfortune, which a wife and tender offspring must naturally experience in his death, they beg leave to submit the following resolution.

Resolved, unanimously, that the Supreme Executive Council be required to pay by draught on the treasury of this State, into the hands of the Executors or administrators of the before mentioned Major Kennedy the sum of three hundred pounds, to be divided in six equal shares for the use of his widow and five children.

Extracts from the minutes,

DR. HUTCHINSON TO PRES. DICKINSON—HOSPITAL, 1783.

Dr. Hutchinson begs leave to inform his Excellency the President and Council that the Hospital on State Island is now in a situation to accommodate the sick comfortably, the rooms are fitted up and bunks are made, the Steward & matron are careful and attentive, but bedding is much wanted and the sick suffer on that account, the expence for two or three bolts of oznabrigs would be but trifling, and the matron would make them up into bed covers herself provided they were purchased; 16 sick are now at the Hospital & Dr. Hutchinson has ordered 11 more down this morning.

RESOLUTIONS OF ASSEMBLY, 1783.

State of Pennsylvania, In General Assembly,

Monday, September 22, 1783, A.M.

The report of the committee on the memorial of the officers of the Pennsylvania line, was read the second time, and adopted, and is as follows, (viz. :)

The committee from whom the Message from the Supreme Executive Council, dated September 9, 1783,* together with the memorial of the Officers of the Pennsylvania line, were referred, beg leave to report:

That having duly considered the Message and Memorial they offer the following resolutions to the House.

1st. That it is equally the interest of the State, and the Officers, to accept the proposed commutation in lieu of half pay—this House does accordingly adopt the ordinance of Congress as follows:

“By the United States in Congress assembled,

“March 23, 1783.

“On the report of a committee to whom was referred a motion of Mr. Dyer, together with the memorial of the officers of the Army, and the report of the committee thereon, Congress came to the following resolutions:

“Whereas the officers of the several lines under the immediate command of his Excellency General Washington, did by their late memorial transmitted by their committee, represent to Congress, that the half pay granted by sundry resolutions, was regarded in an unfavorable light by the citizens of some of these states, who would prefer a compensation for a limited term of years, or by a sum in gross to an establishment for life, and did, on that account, solicit a commutation of their half pay for an equivalent in one of the two modes above mentioned, in order to remove all subject of dissatisfaction from the minds of their fellow subjects.

“And whereas, Congress are desirous, as well of gratifying the reasonable expectations of the officers of the Army, as of removing all objections which may exist in any part of the United States, to the principles of the half pay establishment, for which the faith of the United States hath been pledged, persuaded that those objections can only arise from the nature of the compensation, not from any indisposition to compensate those whose services, sacrifices and sufferings have so just a title to the approbation and rewards of their country.

“Therefore Resolved, That such officers as are now in the service and shall continue therein to the end of the war shall be entitled to receive the amount of five years full pay in money, or securi"ties on interest at six <sup>10</sup>/<sub>100</sub> cent. per annum, as Congress shall find

 "most convenient, instead of the half pay promised for life by the "resolution of the twenty day of October, 1780; the said securities
 "to be such as shall be given to other creditors of the United States,
 "provided it be at the option of the lines of the respective States,
 "and not of officers individually in the lines, to accept or refuse the "same, and provided also, that their election shall be signified to "Congress through the Commander in chief, from the lines under "his immediate command, within two months, and through the "commanding officer of the Southern Army, of those under his com"mand, within six months from the date of this resolution.

"That the same commutations shall extend to the corps not be"longing to the lines of particular states, and who are entitled to "half pay for life, as aforesaid; the acceptance or refusal to be "determined by corps and to be signified in the same manner, and "within the same time as above mentioned. That all officers be"longing to the hospital department; who are entitled to half pay
 "by the resolution of the seventeenth day of January, 1781, may
 "collectively agree to accept or refuse the aforesaid commutation,
 "signifying the same through the Commander in chief within six "months from this time. That such officers as have retired at "different periods, entitled to half pay for life, may collectively in "each state of which they are inhabitants, accept or refuse the "same; their acceptance or refusal to be signified by agents, au"thorized for that purpose, within six months from this period;
 "that with respect to such retiring officers, the commutation if ac"cepted by them, shall be in lieu of whatever may be now due to "them since the time of their retiring from service, as well as of "what might hereafter become due; and that so soon as their ac"ceptance shall be signified, the Superintendant of finance be, and "he is hereby, directed to take measures for the settlement of their "accounts accordingly, and to issue to them certificates bearing "interest at six per cent. That all officers entitled to half pay for "life, not included in the preceding resolutions may also collec"tively agree to accept or refuse the aforesaid commutation signify"ing the same within six months from this time.

2. Resolved, that it be recommended, most earnestly to the succeeding Assembly to provide adequate funds, for the purpose of insuring the commutation as above set forth.

3. That one half the sum in the hands of the naval officer, or that may come into his hands, being now actually due, under the Acts of Assembly for raising an import passed the 23<sup>d</sup> of day December, 1780, and the "Act for guarding and defending the navigation
 "in the bay and river Delaware, and for other purposes therein
 "mentioned," passed the Ninth day of April, 1782, and the "Act
 "for raising an impost on goods, wares or merchandize, imported "or brought into this state by land," passed the 22<sup>d</sup> day of November, 1782, and the "Act for raising and collecting of money on the

"specified articles therein mentioned, for the support of government, and for other purposes therein mentioned," passed the 20th day of March last, be, and the same is hereby appropriated for the use of the officers, deranged on the first day of January last, and now to be deranged in proportion to their pay and rank; they to be accountable, and that the Supreme Executive Council, be hereby empowered to make the necessary arrangements, and draw on the naval officer for the sum above appropriated.

Your committee further observe that such parts of the memorial, as respect certificates for pay are already provided for by bills before the House; and that part which requests the House to assume all their debts, and to allow interest on commutation to the deranged officers, are of such a nature as to take up too much time in this present sitting, and therefore recommend it to the notice of the succeeding House.

Aast. Clerk, of the General Assembly.

Directed,

For the honorable the Supreme Executive Council.

DORSEY PENTECOST TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1788.

Philadelphia, October 6th, 1788.

Sir,

For several years previous to the Settlement of the Territorial dispute between this State and Virginia, and at the time that Washington County was laid out by this State, I enjoyed the Office of Clerk of the Court for Yohogania County in Virginia, which office included that of Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas, Clerk of the Quarter Sessions, and Clerk of the Orphans' Court, with other Offices, by the Constitution of this State, made Seperate and Independent Offices. The County of Yohogania is almost entirely taken into this State by the Settlement, and line run between the two States.

Those offices that I enjoyed under the other Government were Wrested from me, and Given to Thomas Scott, Esquire, a person who then was not nor yet is an Inhabitant of the County, but a Gentleman well Qualified for that office.

How consistent this Treatment to me was with the Solemn agreement between the two States, I leave your Honorable Board to determine, which says, "That the private property and rights of all persons acquired under, founded on, or recognized by the Laws of either Country, previous to the date (of that agreement) Shall be " saved and confirmed unto them, although they should be found to " fall within the other.

The perticular Situation of affairs at that time made it prudent as well as Necessary for me to Submit to the Injury done me without a murmur.

But as there is now a new County laid out by the name of Fayette, in which Mr. Scott resides, and who Certainly is the most Capable person in that County to fill that Office, Justice can be done with ease and propriety. I therefore humbly hope your Honorable Board will be pleas'd to appoint Mr. Scott Prothonotary, with the usual Offices annexed, in the County of Fayette. And that your Honorable Board will be pleas'd to do me Justice in restoring of me to the Offices in your gift, which I held in the County of Washington previous to Mr. Scott's appointment, and which I discharged for a Series of years with unimpeached Integrity.

I beg leave to inform your Excellency and Council that this mode of proceeding will not only give Satisfaction to the Public, but be perfectly consistent with the wish of Mr. Scott, as far as this business relates to him, I have his declared acquiescence.

Knowing the Justice as well as Humanity of the Gentlemen Composing your Honble Board, and Conscious of the uprightness of my own Heart, and the rectitude of my Intentions, and Viewing, I hope, with an Impartial Eye the Circumstances attending this business, I look up to your Honorable Board for redress in this particular.

I shall not say one word respecting the Gentlemen Candidates for the Offices of Fayette, although unanswerable reasons could be assigned of the Impropriety of appointing either of them to the offices aforesaid.

Having had the honor of Serving as a member of your Honorable Board for almost two years, I can but feel the greatest anxiety of now retiring from amongst you, which I would not do under any Consideration, did not the time of my Election Expire in a few days, and which I must anticipate by a voluntary resignation, and which this Letter serves to announce. Indeed a personal Declaration would be very painful, for be assured that I have the most perfect Esteem for your Excellency and the Gentlemen composing your Honorable Board, and here permit me to Express my hearty and Sincere wishes that your Excellency may have a Happy administration, and that you and your associates may live in perfect Harmony, while you continue together in your Country's Service.

I have the Honor to be with perfect Esteem and Sincere regard,

Your Excellencies most Devoted

and Very Humble Servant,

DORSEY PENTECOST.

THOMAS MIFFLIN TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1788.

Annapolis, Decem. 23rd, 1788.

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that this day at twelve o'clock His Excellency General Washington had a public audience of Congress, resigned his Commission and took his leave of all the employments of public life. The General's address & the answer of Congress I enclose for the satisfaction of your Excellency & the Honorable Council. The Delegates of Pennsylvania will write to your Excellency by the next post & give you a detail of the business which has been acted upon in Congress since their arrival here.

I have the honor to be,
with the highest respect,
your Excellency's & Council's obed. Servt.

J. MOORE TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1788.

Sir,

By Mr. Shepard I do myself the pleasure to write your Excellency, and as he has for some time Past, been an inhabitant of this Place, and Possessed of a great share of the Confidence of Connecticut claimants, we will be able to give your Excellency just information of their Proceedings and intentions.

He is charged with the Petition I Hinted to you, was in hands for the Honble Assembly, it is signed by a few of the claimants, who disapprove of the measures laterly adopted by many of the People here. They are anxious to have the Benefits of former Resolves of the Honble House extended to them. How far they have complied with the intentions of the Assembly, (altho at a late Hour) their Petition will evince.

The committee of Assembly appointed to Enquire into the Unconstitutional Proceedings of the judicial officers of this Place are arrived; and will Proceed to business this day. I trust their conduct will appear very different from what it has been Represented.

How far the Military force may be Necessary to support the authority of the state in this Place, Mr. Shepard will be able to inform you.

I have the honor to be,
your Excellency's most obedient & very Hble. servt.,

RESOLUTION OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY, 1784.

In General Assembly,

Monday, January 5, 1784.

The papers transmitted with the foregoing message, were also read, and on motion, and by special order the said message and papers were read the second time.*

Ordered, that they be referred to Mr. Delany, Mr. Long, Mr. Hubley, Mr. McPherson and Mr. Carothers to report thereon: and that they be instructed to confer with Council thereon if they deem it necessary.

PRES. DICKINSON TO DELEGATES IN CONGRESS, 1784.

In Council,

January 7th, 1784.

Gentlemen,

We have received your two letters of the 30th of last Month,† and are sorry such a Difficulty as you mentioned concerning the Ratification of the Definitive treaty should have arisen. We hope it will be removed in a few days, by the attendance of several Members of Congress. If it should not be removed in time, we are clearly of opinion, that on all the Circumstances of the case, the Ratification ought to be agreed to, by seven States.

* See Col. Rec. Vol. XIV. p. 11.

† See p. 155, 156.

With Respect to the General's future situation, our meaning only is, that he should not be permitted to suffer by the eminent services he had rendered to his Country. "A Grant of a sum of Money," we apprehend, he would not accept; perhaps he may reject the offer of "an annual sum to indemnify him for expenses, which may arise from the particular situation he must be in." This is our Idea; and after such previous Consultations as your Prudence will suggest, we should be glad, if the proposition in some general Form might be brought into the Consideration of Congress. The Mode must be left to their politeness, & the substance to their generosity to determine. There appears to us no Impropriety, in the general's table being kept up during his Life, as Commander in Chief.

We will lay before The General Assembly your observation, respecting the expense of copying public papers.

I am, Gent.,

Your Most obt. servt.,

JOHN DICKINSON.

Directed,

The Honorable the Delegates of Pennsylvania.

SAMUEL CALDWELL TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1788.

Philada., Jany., 1784.

Sir,

I would beg leave to remind your Excellency and through your favour to solicit the attention of the Supreme Executive Council to a matter that seems to require their interposition in order to obtain Justice, which tho' often demanded could not be procured from your Predecessors in office.

The affair is in short this. On the 21st June 1780, I bought at a public auction held by the Commissioners for the sale of Confiscated Estates in the County of Philadelphia, a Tract of Land on Hog Island* as being late the property of Joseph Galloway, and having punctually paid them the purchase money agreeable to the terms of sale. I apply'd for a Deed, but in obtaining this, I met with unexpected delays & difficulties which perhaps it may be unnecessary to trouble you with a recital of, I will only inform your Excellency & the Honorable Council, that I did not obtain a Deed till' the 9th day of May 1782 and that tho' this Deed did not grant me all the property I purchased & paid for, yet I was then content to receive it, rather than suffer a longer delay & be engaged in a dispute or litigation for a just right, in full expectation however, that I should receive immediate possession of the premises, & that a just compensation would be made me, for the Injury I sustained by the delay, which it cannot be alledged was occasioned by any failure on my part.

* Col. Rec. Vol. XIV., p. 414.

The Deed being at length obtained and also an order from the Supreme Executive Council issued to the Commissioners & the Sheriff of the County to give me possession,—I attended them for that purpose, but as we were not suffered to land upon the Island, the order was not executed and I am still deprived of my Right.

At the time I made this purchase I was entirely ignorant of any Claim or Incumbrance being on the Premises, and the Commissioner declared it to be sold in Fee Simple & clear of any. I made frequent applications to the Supreme Executive Council during the Presidency of Mr. Moore, but without Effect tho' he often gave me to understand that Justice should be done and as all I ever wished or now solicit is Justice, I have no doubt, your Excellency & the Honorable Council will take this matter into consideration & grant Redress.

The Records of Council will no doubt furnish you with more information on this Subject, but if my attendance should be thought necessary I will immediately attend upon notice.

I am with great Respect, your Excellency's most Obed. Servt.

SAM. CALDWELL.

MICHAEL HUFFNAGLE TO MAJOR ARMSTRONG, 1784.

January 8th, 1784.

Dr. Sir,

I mentioned to you some time ago about the reserved Tract opposite Pittsburg & lately wrote you concerning the appointment of agents for confiscated Estates for this County.

I now take the Liberty to mention to Council that at last October Term, three Indictments were Brought against three persons for Keeping Tippling House in Beasons Town, upon which Process issued to bring them to answer to the Indictments, when the Sheriff went to take them, they were advised by Mr. Thomas Scott their attorney to resist the Sheriff & not to appear, the reasons he gave for his doing so was, that the New County was fixed by Assembly in September, that the Courts of Westmoreland had no jurisdiction there after that date. Now I shall be obliged to you for the opinion of Council what steps should have been taken; the Courts in Fayette could not take place by Law untill the twenty third day of December following & we had no notice of the County untill some time after October Court. If this Court could not have the Jurisdiction those People must have lived in a state of confusion for they could not have any Jurisdiction untill the day I mentioned Before, although Mr. Scott about three weeks Before, got some of the Majestates to meet, opened a Court, appointed their judge & issued Writs ret'ble. the day appointed by Law for opening the Court, if proceedings of this kind should be countenanced the state will loose her fines, & anarchy & confusion must take place, you will please to write me as soon as possible.

J. MOORE TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Sir,

The Committee directed by the Hon'ble Assembly to enquire into the Charges Set forth in a petition from the inhabitants of Wyoming, have gone thro' the investigation, and have this morning left this place. How far the testimony adduced in support of the charges may appear to criminate the Civil and Military officers, in taking decisive Measures to diffuse & support the laws, we must leave the Hon'ble House to judge; but when they duly Consider the Testimony on Our part, evidently tending to discover that a dangerous insurrection was intended, I trust their Conduct will merit some applause.

As I am not charged with even the shadow of an offence, (the measures complained of being done Previous to my arrival,) I conceive myself the more at liberty to appear in their Behalf.

By what I can learn from the Committee that was here, it appears to be the intention of the House to dismiss the Troops at this place; it is observed by those who wish the dissolution of the Corps, "that the expence is great, and that there is no Necessity for keeping it up, as the People claiming under Connecticut disclaim a conduct inconsistent with the true interests of the State."—The expence in keeping up the corps for a few months, must be small, the men being already raised, clothed, and Provisions, agreeably to Contract, laid in for some months to Come—and should it be the intention of the Hon'able the Assembly to invest the Proprietors under Penn<sup>a</sup> with the lands they have long since purchased; I must beg leave to Represent the Immediate Necessity of Troops being kept here to support the civil Jurisdiction, untill the Owners Can be put in Possession of their property—and to prevent Insurrections and Quarrels, which are much to be dreaded in the Spring, about who shall Cultivate the land.

Since the decision of the Commissioners at Trenton, and since the Garrison has been here, all the Pennsylvania landholders have been looking forward to the Happy Period that now offers of Giving them Quiet Possession of that Property which has, with equal injustice, been taken and kept from them this many years;—they wish to avail themselves of the support of this Garrison, untill they get Possession and Grow numerous—should it be deemed too expensive to support the present number of officers and men allotted for this Garrison, let it be reduced to a Capt., 2 Subs., and 75 men, that will be a force, if not sufficient to suppress Insurrections, (should they be attempted,) it will, at least, be sufficient to support the Garrison untill succor can be Had; It will also Give the Highest Confidence to the Pennsylvania Land holders, who will generally take Measures for Obtaining Possession of their Property in the spring, (While they Otherways Would Not,) and remove the Great object of Controversy, and Put the land under such Cultivation as would add much to the advantage of the State.

To facilitate the Improvement of this Country, and to alleviate the sufferings of Hundreds already born down with the oppression of those people, Might it Not be proper to recommend a Law making it Justifiable in the sheriff of the county where an ample Title is produced, to put the Owner in Possession of his land without the slow and Expensive Process of the laws now in force, which many Good Citizens, from being so long debared the use of their lands, are Unable to support. A Measure of this Kind would most amply settle all disputes early in the Spring, when the Troops might be dismissed, and the country [put] under such Improvement and Cultivation as would enable the Possessors to bear a Proportion of the Public debts.

Alexander Patterson, Esq<sup>r</sup>, made me acquainted with a Petition presented to your Excellency and Council, by Abel Yarrington, respecting a House he formerly possessed in this Garrison, altho' he was Ordered to remove to a house Provided and put in repair by the Troops for his Reception before I arrived at this place. I must acknowledge it Met with my Warmest approbation—and I trust it will appear consistent with the Verbal instructions, not only delivered to me by Council, but those which Capt. Shrawder had previously received—those officers who directed his Removal, has made Esq<sup>r</sup> Patterson fully acquainted with their Reasons—I must beg leave to refer you to his Report.

Inclosed your Excellency will find a Monthly Return of the Corps, the muster & Payrolls, and the Inspection Return for the Month of December I shall have finished and forwarded as early as possible.

The situation of the sick has obliged me to apply to a Physician; the Inclosed list of Medicines, he says, is necessary and Immediately wanted.

PRES. OF CONGRESS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Sir,

This day nine States being represented in Congress, Viz<sup>t</sup>, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina, together with one member from New Hampshire and one member from New Jersey, The Treaty of Peace was ratified by the Unanimous Vote of the members present.*

* See Col. Rec., Vol. XIV., p. 11-19.

This being done, Congress, by an unanimous Vote, ordered a Proclamation to be issued, enjoining the strict and faithful observance thereof; and issued an earnest recommendation to the several States in the very words of the 5th Article—The Secretary is directed to forward authenticated Copies of those Acts as soon as possible to the Executives of the several States.

As Mr. Morris proposes to sett off for Philadelphia on Friday, he will give your Excellency the fullest Information on the several Points which have been agitated in Congress since they met here.

I am with the greatest Respect your Excellency's obed. hle. servant,

RESOLUTION OF CONGRESS, 1784.

To the Claimants of the private right of Soil within the territory westward of the Delaware, heretofore in controversy between the States of Connecticut and Pennsylvania, and adjudged by the sentence of a Court constituted and appointed agreeably to the ninth of the Articles of Confederation and perpetual union, to be within the jurisdiction of the State of Pennsylvania; it is hereby made known,

That sundry Individuals claiming private right of Soil under the State of Connecticut, within the said territory, have made application to Congress, stating that they have been disturbed in their said right of Soil by others claiming under the State of Pennsylvania, and praying for the institution of a Court for determining the said private right of Soil, in pursuance of the ninth article of Confederation; and that the fourth Monday* in June next, is assigned for the appearance of the parties by their Lawful agents before Congress, or a Committee of the States, wheresoever they shall be then sitting to proceed in the premises as by the Confederation is directed.

By order of Congress.

RESOLUTIONS OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY, 1784.

State of Pennsylvania,

In General Assembly.

Thursday, January 29, 1784.

The committee to whom the Messages of the 19th and 21st instant,* were referred, made report in part, which was read, and on motion, and by special order, the same was read the second time, debated by paragraphs, and in part adopted, as follows, viz :

1st. That it appears the government of our sister State of Connecticut, has not been duly informed of the intentions and acts of this Commonwealth, respecting the settlers at Wyoming, whereupon

Resolved, That it be recommended to the President or Vice President in Council to furnish the Governor and Assembly of the State of Connecticut with the proceedings of the Council and Assembly of this Commonwealth, respecting the settlers at Wyoming since the judgment at Trenton.

Extract from the Minutes,

J. SHALLUS, Ass<sup>t</sup> Clerk

DEPOSITION MARTIN TIDD, 1784.

North<sup>e</sup> County, ss.

Personally appear'd before me the Subscriber one of the Justices of the peace for s<sup>d</sup> County, Martin Tidd and made oath as follows :

About the eighth instant when the Committee of the Assembly was at this place inquiring into the Charges set forth in a Petition from the people at Wyoming against the Proceedings of the Civil and Military officers, I heard Colo. Strowd, one of the Committee, tell Edward Spencer that all the people settling under Connecticut claims were fools for taking Leases from the Pennsylvania Landholders, as that was relinquishing their claims, that those that had not taken Leases should hold their possessions and not give it by any means. The Pennsylvania Landholders may try to alarm you with Ejectments but says he (Col. Strowd) they cannot bring any Ejectments against you or dispossess you on any terms untill you have a Continental Court call'd for the trial of the right of Soil, Edward Spencer said he was afraid they (meaning the Connecticut Claimants) would not obtain that Court. What, says Colonel Strowd do you think I don't know better who help'd to make & repeal the Laws of this State? Yes you will have a trial and no one can dispossess you untill that happens and says (Col. Strowd) that court cannot be call'd for this long time, you may therefore continue in possession of this Countay, as you can neither be injured or dispossessed. And farther the deponent saith not.*

* See Col. Rec., Vol. XIV., p. 11, 16.

J. MOORE TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Sir,

The Snow is so deep in this Country that our Communication with the City has been totally stop'd this sometime. Lieut. Armstrong is now willing to attempt the journey. Should he be able to perform it, he will deliver your Excellency this Letter with the several Inclosures, he is also charged with my accounts, which he will lay before Mr Nicholson for settlement: as Lieut. Armstrong goes to Philad<sup>a</sup> on Public Business, he wishes to know if he cannot obtain Pay for his expences.

In my accounts I have charged the State with 22 Commissions, on all the moneys I have Laid out, deducting moy Months Pay and Subsistence, which I trust your Excellency & Council will not disapprove; it is a small compensation for the trouble I have had; wood is now the only article of expence I shall be exposed to during the Winter,—the severity of the weather, will require 200 cord, that quantity is already out and sent up by the troops, but so remote from the Garrison, that I am obliged to allow four shillings a cord for cartage. Inclosed your Excellency will find a Coppy of Martin Tidds† deposition, respecting the oppinion and advice of Col<sup>e</sup> Strowd to those people, When here on the Committee,—this testimony is corroborated daily by Information from the Pen<sup>a</sup> Settlers. Since the Committee left this, those who had relinquished their Claims in favour of the Pen<sup>a</sup> Landholders, are now attempting to regain possession—others who had engaged to deliver Quiet Possession in the Spring have determined otherwise,—and from what I can learn, every Person who has the least Pretentions to lands in this Country under the Connecticut claim, are expected with all their Connections in the Spring. Many of the Pen<sup>a</sup> Settlers who has some time ago obtained Possession by consent, are now forbid cutting fire wood on their Land, these and many other Reasons which L<sup>t</sup> Armstrong will be able to Inform you, Point out the necessity of Continuing a Military force in this place; should the Garrison be Dismissed in the

SEC'Y ARMSTRONG TO ASSEMBLY, 1784.

Philadelphia, Feb'y 2, 1784.

Sir,

In complying with the Resolution of your Honorable House of the 29th Ult,* It becomes necessary that Council be furnished with the following papers, viz., The Report of the Commissioners sent to Wyoming "to effect a compromise with the settlers at that place & the owners of the Wyoming lands."

The Report of the Northampton members delegated "to enquire into the charges exhibited in a petition from a number of the Inhabitants of Wyoming," & the proceedings of the House upon it.

MEMORIAL OF TIMOTHY MATLACK, 1784.

To the Representatives of the Freemen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met.

The Memorial and remonstrance of Timothy Matlack of the city of Philadelphia, Sheweth,

That by the printed Journals of this Honorable house it appears that, on the 5th day of March last,† the house passed a vote of censure against him, on a report of a "Committee appointed to confer with the Comptroller General, on the subject of his letter dated December 3, 1782, and, also, to examine the laws respecting the duties of the Secretary of the Supreme Executive Council. A letter and report the contents of which have not been made known to your remonstrant, either by this honorable house, or by any committee of the house; neither has he ever received any notice whatever to appear and answer to any charge upon which that censure can possibly be founded; and thus a heavy and exceedingly grievous censure has been passed upon him for a supposed neglect, not only without due enquiry and an open fair trial by his peers, but even without any specific charge made against him, or even the shadow of a trial of any kind. A proceeding unheard of in any free country!

* See page 196.

Your remonstrant conceives it to be a fundamental and declared right of every citizen of Pennsylvania, upon every charge against him to be heard by himself and his council, to demand the cause and nature of his accusation, to be confronted with the witnesses, to call for evidence in his favour, and a speedy public trial by an impartial jury of his country, without the unanimous consent of which jury he cannot be found guilty. That he is entitled to all the rights of a Citizen, not only by the adventitious circumstances of birth and residence; but by an active, early, decisive and uniform opposition, thro' every danger and difficulty, to that system of tyranny which had been set up against the rights and liberties of the good people of America, and a full exertion of his utmost endeavours to obtain the independence of these United States, and the establishment of our free constitution. He engaged in this cause the next day after the news of the battle of Lexington, and he continued in office until the day next after the news of the preliminary articles of peace being signed.]

His services were always most freely offered in times of the greatest difficulties and dangers, when some others retired in despair; He has not only staked his life on the success of America, and repeatedly met the enemy in the field; but he has also, seen the blood of a brother and of a beloved son shed in her sacred cause; and he thinks that the man who has paid such a price for his civil rights, and will part with them but with the last drop of his own blood, and the last gasp of life, is not only "unworthy of public trust and confidence," but is utterly unworthy to breathe the vital air; and if there be a member of this honorable house who has paid an equal price for them, to his heart your remonstrant appeals for the justice of the sentiment.

These rights, purchased at this price by your remonstrant, he conceives has been violated by this honorable house, and it is a duty which he owes to the memory of his son, to himself, his family and country thus solemnly to remonstrate against the proceedings of the house.

Had this honorable house called on your remonstrant to answer to an explicit and specified charge at the bar of the house, he might well have questioned, and most certainly should have questioned their authority in the case, the 9th section of the constitution expressly confining it to impeachment only. Had he been legally called to answer at any bar, the charges against him would certainly have been specified; but the house have not either by themselves or their committee communicated to him the particular supposed fact on which the charge against him is founded, or the evidence on which it has been ascertained to them. His imagination can only furnish him with two, upon which he can conceive it is possible that such a charge can be pretended to be founded. One is, a report said to be propagated by the honorable Frederick A. Muhlenburg, Esqr., that he had paid into the hands of the Secretary money which was not credited in his accounts, If such a report has been propagated and acted upon, your remonstrant can only say, it is not true, and call, as he is legally entitled to do, for the evidence of the fact, and to be confronted with the witnesses. The other relates to monies paid to him by some of the Prothonotaries of counties—If this be the charge, he could have shewn, that, by law, it is expressly the duty of Prothonotaries to render to the committee appointed by General Assembly to settle the public accounts, an account of the monies received by them, and, therefore, that your remonstrant could not consider the money he received from them as making a part of the accounts he was bound by law, to keep and render; yet the accounts rendered by him into the Comptroller General's office on the 17th of March last, only twelve days after the said resolve, and within the time limited in the writ issued under the order of this house, does actually contain a faithful account of all monies received by him from those Prothonotaries. It appears by the Comptroller General's report, on those accounts, to the President and Council, that he had "compared them" with the monies "charged to him (the Sec'y,) by the Clerks and others, so far as "their several accounts have been rendered which correspond, except "some trivial differences arising from variation in calculating the "depreciation, &c., and where those accounts have not been rendered, "it appears from the state Treasurers accounts and other circumstances, very improbable that any of the monies paid by them are "therein omitted."

Your remonstrant cannot suppose, that so severe a censure could have been, by men "worthy of public trust and confidence," founded on such slight ground; he is therefore left at a loss even to guess on what just ground he has been so censured.

The fact, or facts, alluded to in the said vote remaining unknown, and the term defaulter, made use of therein, every one has been left at liberty to adopt whatever his imagination might suggest, and, in consequence, many strange and injurious falsehoods have been invented and spread abroad concerning your remonstrant. Among other stories it has been said, that your memorialist has traded on public moneys, and that he has made very large purchases of lands and other real estates, and these stories are supposed to have taken their rise with some member, or members, of this honorable house, whereby they may have gained a more ready belief, and greatly tend to prejudice the minds of his fellow citizens against your remonstrant, and may possibly even affect the questions of right to be determined respecting his claims. It is therefore his duty to declare, that altho' he believes when his accounts as Secretary are justly and equitably settled, there will be found a considerable ballance due to him, and that he had a right to have traded had he thought it advantageous to him so to do, yet, he has not during his continuance in office, been concerned in the exportation or importation, purchase or sale of merchandize of any kind, directly or indirectly, other than such articles as were intended for the sole use of his own family. And he declares, that he has not purchased and paid for during that time or since, any of the confiscated estates, or city lots sold by authority of the state, or any other real estate whatever to the amount of five pounds—And he calls on all the world to witness against, him if these declarations are not strictly true.

In the message from the President & Council of the 21st of March, accompanied with the Comptroller Generals report on the Secretary's accounts, they "presume the question of right may be determined in the manner proposed by the Secretary, which "appears to us, (say they,) to be reasonable." The Committee of the house speak in general terms of charges contained in the Secretary's accounts, which the Comptroller General "declares" (as they say) to be altogether inadmissible and give their opinion, that "the most eligible mode of bringing this business to a final settlement, is for the Comptroller General to prosecute the said Timothy Matlack, Esq'r, in the Supreme Court in order to try "the contested points by a jury;" but, there is not in any of the proceedings which have been made public an account of what those questions of right are. These questions if your remonstrant is rightly informed are three. First, upon a claim set up by the Comptroller General, in behalf of the state, to certain fees received by the Secretary, which the Comptroller General, is pleased to say "are not granted him by law, such as the fees of the keeper of the Great seal, &c., &c. The ground on which this claim on the part of the state is set up, your remonstrant is altogether a stranger to: He has performed the duties and he conceives is entitled to the fees declared by law to be a reasonable and adequate compensation for the service. Secondly, whether the state, or the parties are to pay for militia commissions. On this your remonstrant observes, that the rule in other like cases is, that where the office is lucrative the party pays for the commission, but where it is not lucrative it is charged to the public: Thus a Sheriff pays for his commission; but that of a Coroner may be charged to the county. Hence your remonstrant inferred, that a Commission to a militia officer ought not to be charged to the party. If he is mistaken in this inference, it is an error which operates in favour of the best friends of the revolution; whereas the contrary must operate against them. He conceives this question, in other words, to be, Whether or not the Whigs should at once perform the great, important & hazardous duties of militia during the war, and pray for the authority derived from the state to perform those duties; while those of a contrary character remain exempt from the personal service & at the same time avoid their part of the expence? Upon this question let a whig jury determine. And, thirdly, the question relates only to the time when the Secretary is bound to give up his former salary and his fees, and receive in lieu thereof the salary lately fixed. This question, to a certain time has been decided, by the Attorney General and the General Assembly, that the Secretary may take either the former or latter at his own choice, and the question at present relates to a few months only. Should your remonstrant think it proper to give up this point, in order to gain a more speedy decision on the other point, the good people of the state, when these accounts are settled will be enabled to judge, how far they are indebted to the Comptroller General for raising the question, by the sum which the state will have gained by it. If there is any other question on those accounts it is unknown to your remonstrant.

However reasonable and legally your remonstrant might have refused to submit to a trial of those questions of right, ordered in such terms in so unusual a manner he, for the sake of "a speedy & public trial," waved every objection thereto, and urged in the most earnest manner, and by every means in his power, to obtain a decision at the last Supream Court, and shall earnestly pray for it during the present sitting of that Court; but he being informed that this honorable house are about to close their Session, he conceives it to be his duty now to present this memorial & remonstrance, and, as it is not in the power of the house to do him that justice and afford him that redress to which he is justly entitled, he only prays that the same may be entered on the Journals of the house in order that he may hereafter make such further appeal as the nature of his case may appear to require.

JAMES WILSON AND WM. BRADFORD TO ASSEMBLY, 1784.

Philadelphia, Feb<sup>r</sup> 4, 1784.

Sir,

The Counsel retained to conduct the cause between the Commonwealth and Timothy Matlack, Esq<sup>r</sup>, amicably entered in the Supreme Court agreeably to the Resolution of the Honorable the General Assembly of Pennsylvania, beg leave to report, That they find it

† There is neither date nor signature to the foregoing paper in T. M's handwriting, though it alludes to transactions on p. 762 of Vol. IX., &c.

- impossible to carry the said Resolution into effect so as to do Justice to the Commonwealth.

The Justices of the Supreme Court very properly require that the Issue to be tried before them be formally joined and so framed that Judgment may be given on the verdict of the Jury. To effect this a Declaration and an Issueable plea became necessary. By the written paper which we have the Honor to inclose it will appear that it was mutually understood that the declaration should contain a general count for monies had and received by the Defendant to the use of Commonwealth and that Issue should be joined thereon; under which the controverted points should be determined and the balance ascertained.

We are sorry to add that the Defendant now refuses to join issue or to enter any plea unless we reduce the sum contained in the Declaration, which is not greater than what appears to have been received by the Defendant as Secretary of the Council & for which it has been conceived he ought to account.

As we are thus prevented from proceeding in the Line proposed we have no expectation that the Resolution of your Honorable House can be carried into effectual execution. And we are of opinion that the balance of the Defendants accounts can only be adjusted by the Comptroller General's proceeding to the Execution of the powers vest d in him or by an adversary suit being commenced against Mr Matlack for the sum supposed to be due.

We wait the advice and instruction of the Honorable House on this subject & have the Honor to be Sir,

Your most obedient,

& very Humble servant,

JAMES WILSON,
WM. BRADFORD, Jr.

The Honorable George Gray, Esq., Speaker, &c., Philadelphia.

PRES. DICKINSON TO DELEGATES IN CONGRESS, 1784.

In Council, February 16th, 1784.

Gentlemen,

We have received your several communications of & , and have a just sense of your attention to the trust reposed in you. Inclosed are some Resolves of the General Assembly of 14thth of this Month.

The attempts of Connecticut are very extraordinary, and are to be opposed with the most persevering vigilance. We wish you by all means to prevent any step being taken by Congress, that may in the smallest degree lead towards a revision of the cause determined by the Court at Trenton. That business is complicated with such a variety of consideration & circumstances, arising from a Multiplicity of sources, that it is incapable of being properly managed, without diligent & long continued study & application to it.

Mr. Wilson by his professional knowledge & laborious preparation for the late trial between this state & Connecticut, has acquired a thorough acquaintance with the whole transactions preceding your appointment. To you, gentlemen, the subsequent are well known. He is now nominated a delegate, & will join you as soon as possible. With the mutual information & assistance which you will give each other, we do not question, but the designs of our opponents will be properly encountered.

PRES. DICKINSON TO GOV. CLINTON, 1784.

In Council, February 16th, 1784.

Sir,

This Letter will be delivered to your Excellency by the Honorable Mr. Wilson, one of our Delegates and agent in the Controversy for the Territory of which the Jurisdiction & Preemption were in December, 1782, adjudged unanimously by the Court at Trenton to be the Right of this Commonwealth.

We flattered ourselves, that so truly respectable a Determination would have put an end to all Contests, & that the affair would have given us no further Trouble than to settle private Claims of soil upon equitable Terms, which this State was resolved to do. But with Regret we find that the Dispute is reviving in a Variety of forms; and it becomes our Duty to be prepared in the best manner we can, for opposing attempts that threaten the Honor, the Peace & the welfare of Pennsylvania.

We therefore beg leave to request & shall with just acknowledgements receive any assistance which your State can afford to Mr. Wilson by access to your Records & other Sources of Information.

Another point of Importance is suggested to us by a Consideration of our mutual Interest; and we shall freely mention it, because we repose a very high and particular Confidence in the Rectitude, Prudence & Liberality of the Councils, by which the Conduct of our Sister State of New York will be governed.

It is to be apprehended that if a spirit of Jealousy is suffered to arise between the two States, their Measures may be reciprocally injurious. Our Judgement & Inclination point out to us a system totally different. It is our earnest wish, and shall be our diligent Endeavours that they may ever cordially harmonize in their Commercial Regulations.

with real and very great esteem,

I have the Honor to be,

your Excellency's most obedient & Hble. Servt.

PRES. OF CONGRESS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Sir,

I think it a duty I owe to the office I am honored with, as well as to the Union, to inform your Excellency and thro' you the State over which you preside; that the great business of the United States is at a stand, for want of a Representation agreeable to the Articles of Confederation. The Journal transmitted by the Secretary to your Excellency and which contains the proceedings of Congress, and an account of the States and members present from the first monday of November last to this day, will convince your Excellency of the State of inactivity to which the affairs of the United States are reduced for want of a full Representation.

At this moment, there are many matters of the highest importance to the safety, honour and happiness of the United States which require immediate attention. Among these I need only mention the establishing a general peace with the Indians, and settling the western territory, the arranging our foreign affairs and taking measures for securing our frontiers, preserving our stores and magazines; making requisitions for the expences of the current year and for satisfying the public Creditors.

I have only to add, that by the sickness of some of the members attending at Annapolis, we have had seven States represented in Congress only three days since the Sixth Inst., as your Excellency will observe by the enclosed certificate of the Secretary and that the members present are dissatisfied with attending to no purpose, and are very impatient under their situation.

I am with the greatest Respect, your Excellency's most Obedient &amp; humble Servant.

PRES. DICKINSON TO MAJOR JAMES MOORE, 1784.

In Council, February 21st, 1784.

Sir,

Having conferred with Alexander Patterson & David Meade, Esquires & Captain Armstrong, concerning the Behaviour of the Settlers at Wioming not claiming under this State. We think it proper to observe, that a very vigilant attention must be had to the Conduct of that People, and every Measure taken to guard against any hostile Enterprizes.

At the same time, it is the Intention & Desire of Government

PRES. DICKINSON TO ALEXANDER PATTERSON, &c., 1784.

In Council, February 21st, 1784.

Gentlemen,

Having conferred with two of you concerning the Behaviour of the Settlers at Wioming not claiming under this State, We judge it proper to observe, that as it is the Duty of persons in such offices as you hold, to render justice to all persons without Distinction as far as your Authority extends, and to preserve the Peace, the peculiar Situation of affairs in your neighborhood requires a particular attention to the Conduct of those who are disaffected to Pennsylvania, and that the earliest Intelligence should be communicated to us of any proceeding that threatens Injury to the Commonwealth.

But, if the said Settlers behave peaceably and inoffensively, it is the Intention & Desire of Government, that they should be in all Respects treated with kindness, as persons whom we wish to become affectionate and faithful Citizens of Pennsylvania.

I am

with great Regard, gentlemen,

PRES. DICKINSON TO DELEGATES IN CONGRESS, 1784.

In Council, Feb. 24th, 1784.

Gentlemen,

We inclose a Resolution of the General Assembly, by which the good Faith, Humanity & Generosity of that Honorable Body appear in a very clear Light.

We are informed, that some of the persons therein provided for & who have relinquished all Right whatever under Connecticut, signed the Address to Congress for a Court to try the private Right of soil.

I am gent'n,

y<sup>r</sup> most Ob. Ser.,

JOHN DICKINSON.

P. S. We shall be obliged to you, if you will be so good as to send us the Journals of Congress for 1779, 1780, 1781, 1782, & 1783.

PRES. DICKINSON TO COMMITTEE OF MERCHANTS, 1784.

In Council, February 24th, 1784.

Gentlemen,

We have this Day received your Memorial of the 21st Instant;* and it is with great Satisfaction we can assure you, that the Interest of so respectable a Part of our Constituents as the Merchants of Philadelphia, with which those of the whole State are so intimately combined, engaged our early & diligent attention.

At the first Session of the General Assembly after intelligence of the provisional articles of Peace, we represented to that Honorable Body the propriety of clearing the Passage of the River by removing the Chevaux de Frize, and informed them, that we had directed proposals to be received. They approved the Measure, & in Consequence of their acts we have made some preparations which have been conducted by the Wardens of the Port, for effecting the Business.

We are perfectly sensible of the Importance & Difficulty of this undertaking. No proposals that have been made, are satisfactory. We wish to accomplish the work as soon as we can, and to be so well advised in our attempts, as not to put the State to an improper Expence. We shall therefore be exceedingly obliged to the Merchants of this City, if they will be pleased to mention to us the further preparations which they judge to be necessary, to recommend persons for making the proper Experiments, & to favour us with their Sentiments as to the Measures for the further Improvement of the Navigation of the Broad Bay.

With real & great Esteem

I have the Honor to be, gentlemen,
your most obedient hble Serv<sup>t</sup>,

JOHN DICKINSON.

SEC'Y ARMSTRONG TO MICHAEL HUFFNAGLE, 1784.

Secretary's Office, Feb'y 27th, 1784.

Sir,

The return of an election for Justices of the peace, held at Pittsburgh on the 13th day of August last, was this morning reconsidered in Council, & upon a review of the whole it was determined that another Election for an additional magistrate be held at that place as soon as possible. It is the wish of Council that you will be pleased to make the laws concerning Elections as public as you can—this may best be done by issuing a written notice appointing the day for such Election, & describing the qualifications necessary for the Voter, as well as the person voted for. This precaution will prevent much of the inconsistency which has hitherto marked this business, & enable Council to come to some safe decision.

I am Sir,

with much respect,
your most obed<sup>t</sup> servant,

J. ARMSTRONG, Sec'y.

SEC'Y ARMSTRONG TO HENRY WYNKOOP, 1784.

Surveyor's Office, 5th March, 1784.

Sir,

I have the directions of Council to inform you that there is no provision by Law for the purpose of filling up those vacancies in the magistracy, which have happened in consequence of the constitutional expiration of said office; application has been made to the House upon this subject, and some provisionary law, it is to be supposed, will be made, when some future return from the County of Bucks will be taken up and acted upon.

I am Sir, with the greatest respect,

your most obedient humble servant,

JOHN ARMSTRONG, jr., Sec'y.

MERCHANTS OF PHILADELPHIA TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Philadelphia, March 6, 1784.

Sir,

We have had the Honor to receive the Communication of Council on the Subject of our Memorial of the 21st of February,* and are happy to find it had so early engaged their particular Attention.

The Removal of the obstructions in the River is indeed an Object of great Importance to the Trade of this Port; for exclusive of frequent and heavy Losses by accidents which they occasion, the Delay they give to Vessels in their passage to and from the City, is in itself a heavy Tax on Navigable Concerns. We presume not, however, to offer any Plan for their Removal, nor any Opinion respecting the mode to be pursued in effecting the Business. Our view in addressing Council was merely to present the Subject to their Consideration as an object requiring early preparation no less than vigorous Exertion. But if Council shall deem our Assistance in any Degree necessary, we shall consider it as our Duty to give all the aid in our Power with the utmost alacrity.

From the precarious Circumstances of Trade during the War, and the alterations which have taken Place in our Police in Consequence of the Revolution, many useful Regulations heretofore established have fallen into disuse, or are become inadequate to our present Situation, whereby the Commerce of the State has suffered & is likely to suffer much Inconvenience & real Injury. These Circumstances were suggested, amongst others, in a memorial we had the Honor to present to the General Assembly early in the present Session. How far they may have engaged the Attention of the honorable House, we are not yet informed. But under the Laws now subsisting we apprehend it may be in the Power of the Council to remedy these Inconveniencies in some Particulars; such as the Inspection of Beef & Pork & of Staves and other Lumber, & the measurement of Salt & Grain. As these are Objects of considerable Importance, we cannot but hope they will obtain the favourable Attention of your hon<sup>ble</sup> Board, & that the best Regulations & arrangements which the existing Laws admit will be made concerning them.

We have the Honor to be, with great Respect

your Excellency's most Obedient

& most humble Servants,

PRES. DICKINSON TO GOV. OF CONNECTICUT, 1784.

In Council,

Philadelphia, March 6th, 1784.

Sir,

We have received your Excellency's Letters of the 15th of last November,* with three Acts of your Legislature of the second Thursday of October preceding,† which we laid before our General Assembly; and now, in Compliance with their Resolution, transmit Copies of proceedings respecting the Letters at Wioming. These, together with this Letter, we desire your Excellency will be pleased to communicate to the Legislature of the State of Connecticut, as soon as an Opportunity is offered. This Step of our Assembly proceeds from a Hope that your Government, upon being well informed of the said proceedings, will not persist in a Conduct so extraordinary as that lately adopted. Whether this Hope be well founded or not, we shall enjoy the Satisfaction of having affectionately endeavoured to remove the prejudices of a sister State, & to prevent the Evils that must result from such a Revival of the late Controversy.

The Acts above referred to, and your Excellency's Letter, contain two Charges against this State; first, of Suppression of Evidence, & secondly, of Cruelty towards the Settlers of Wioming—in Consequence whereof, it seems, your Government resolved to obtain if it be practicable, a Revision of the Cause lately decided, & to give the Settlers all the Aid and support in its power.‡

However severe these Charges are, they meet on our part with a Consciousness that they are not merited. As to the former, it is so indefinite that we cannot imagine to what Evidence it alludes. As to the latter, the inclosed Papers & some corresponding Circumstances will evince how much it was undeserved.

* See pp. 147, 148.

† See pp. 116, 117.

It has been the constant Determination of this Government to treat with Benevolence & Generosity the Settlers at Wioming, whose Cases were recommended by equitable Considerations; and we are persuaded that all who are described in the Resolutions of the second of last September, would have had their Possessions immediately confirmed to them, if it could be done without a Violation of the Rights of Property in a Multitude of Instances, those Lands having been heretofore granted by Pennsylvania to many Individuals who insisted on their Titles, and pleaded the Sanction of Laws.

This Difficulty opposed itself to the kind Intentions of Government. In order to remove it, Commissioners who were Members of the Legislature, were appointed to repair to Wioming. Their Report is at present mislaid; but it's place is well supplied. Proposals of Accommodation were made, but not concluded. Several Papers were addrest to the Commissioners by the Claimants on each side. That from the settlers at Wioming, dated 23<sup>d</sup> April,* 1783, and signed on Behalf of the rest by John Jenkins, put an End to all further Expectation of Compromises, & the Commissioners soon after returned Home.

In this Address, they answer what had been mentioned, of other Lands being granted to them by this State, if they would surrender after some time the Lands at Wioming to the owners under Pennsylvania, by asking these Questions: "Whether they would exchange & suffer us to enjoy our peaceable possessions here by way of Compromise," and then subjoin this Declaration—"We cannot, as we are Joint tenants with a much greater Body of Joint Proprietors than is here, without their joint Consent, give up our Claims to those Lands in Dispute."

Upon the Report of the Commissioners, our General Assembly formed their Resolutions of the second of September; and tho' their "Hopes of a friendly Compromise seemed then vanished," yet, still influenced by the same Equity that suggested the appointment of the Commissioners, & to encourage the Settlers to assent to Terms compatible with the legal Claim under Pennsylvania which had occasioned the before-mentioned Difficulty, they resolved, that "a reasonable Compensation in Lands within the Boundaries of this State, upon easy Terms, be made to the Families of those who have fallen fighting against the Savages, & to such others as actually did reside on the Lands at Wioming when the late Decree was given at Trenton."

The Good Faith & Liberality with which the present Assembly have adhered to this Engagement, will appear from the Resolutions of the 30th of last month, by which three hundred Acres of Land are granted clear of purchase Money, to each of the fifteen Settlers therein mentioned.

* See pp. 30-36.

Hence it is indisputable, that the "Settlers" described in the Acts of the Legislature of Connecticut of last October, and the Families of the "Males who had been slain," were really the objects of the "Clemency" of Pennsylvania before the passing of those Acts.

It is also evident from the recited Declaration of "the Settlers" at Wioming, that they are contending for other Claims than their own. Such Ideas have been successfully infused into their Minds, that their Contest extends to the Claims of "a much greater Body of Joint proprietors than is there."

Thus, by their own Acknowledgement, the Question does not relate to the persons expressly designated by your Legislature in these & several other words—"whose sufferings & Condition under "Pennsylvania" have excited the Commiseration of their Friends," but to the Claims that may be made by that "much greater Body of Joint proprietors."

To make an equitable Accommodation with the former is the earnest Desire & sincere Endeavour of this State; but, to surrender a valuable & important Territory to Claims inconsistent with Equity, she cannot consent.

It is too plain what the Consequences will be, when a considerable Body of Men who have fixed themselves in a State in Defiance of her Authority, making common Cause with "a much greater Body" residing in another State, tempting bold & needy Adventurers from every Quarter to join them, which we averr to be their practice, and meditating hostile Enterprizes against us, which we know to be their Design, are taught to expect from that other State (and a very respectable one) "all the aid and support in her power," see her making every Exertion to acquire for them the Jurisdiction over the Lands where they have fixed themselves.

We ardently wish that the Citizens of a State united to us by so many strong Ties, would be pleased to afford some further Consideration to the Arguments of the Advocates for these Measures, and with a serious and consciencious Attention to weigh how far such proceedings are reconcileable with the Maxims of Reason and Justice, the Laws of Nature and Nations, the true interests of the State, the uniform and solemn declarations of their own Ancestors repeated in their legislative and executive Acts of Government from Generation to Generation, without a dissenting Voice, the unanimous Determination of the most dignified Judges chosen by themselves, upon a Trial long prepared for and deliberately entered into, or, in brief, with the Principles upon which the Peace and Repose of Mankind are established.

Upon the late Decision, the Authority of this Commonwealth was confirmed; and the Laws in their usual Course, if appealed to, could punish, by redress, private wrong. Yet, our General Assembly, upon Complaints of the settlers, again sent up Commissioners, from their own body, to Wioming, to make proper Enquiries upon the spot; and we have given such Instructions to those in authority there, as we judge sufficient to prevent any pretence for a Repetition of Complaints.

If any violent actions have been committed by Individuals, they have proceeded from minds alarmed by apprehension of imminent Danger, or irritated by severe Injuries. We mean not to recriminate, but only to recall some past events into Remembrance; For, we are assured that the Citizens of your state will not impute any peculiar want of "mercy," to the People of this; when they reflect that the Emigrants from Connecticut seized by violence the Lands, which are now claimed, at a time too, when Pennsylvania was actually invaded by a formidable Enemy, "entered by Force into the Possessions & Labors" of Pennsylvanians, plundered them of all their property, & drove them out of that part of the Country—and when they reflect, also—that at the Commencement of these Disturbances, the Government of Pennsylvania in the most friendly and strenuous manner, cautioned Connecticut, by sending an Agent of Distinction and an official Letter, against countenancing the attempt as leading, to use the words of the Letter, into an endless scene of Trouble and Confusion," that might be very generally "prejudicial."

To conclude, let the whole series of transactions, relating to the Intrusion upon these Lands, be impartially considered, and we are perfectly convinced the People of this State will be regarded as much more trespassed against than trespassing. We shall not uselessly engage in the detail, nor in any Dispute upon the subject. Our sincere wishes are, that this unhappy affair may be closed in such a way as to cause as little Distress as possible to Individuals, and as little Detriment as possible to our Common Country.

With a truly great Esteem,

I have the Honor to be, Sir,

Your Excellencys most obedient hble. servt.,

JOHN DICKINSON.

His Excellency the Governor of Connecticut.

HON. JOHN MONTGOMERY TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1788.

Sir,

Annapolis, 7th March, 1784.

I have now before me your letter of———with the instructions of General Assembly to the Delegates, though I make no Doubt but the letter which his Excellency M<sup>r</sup> Mifflin has, as he just now informed me, written and forward<sup>d</sup> by Cap<sup>t</sup> Barney, will give satisfaction, yet the respect I have for the Council and General Assembly and the trust reposed in me will not admitt of my being silent. I must therefore beg leave to inform you, that the assignment of the last Monday in June next for the appearance of the parties is not to Consider whether a Court shall be appointed or not, but for the actual appointment of a Court to hear and Determine the private right of soil between those claiming by grants under different states in that tract of territory which was heretofore in Controversy between Pennsylv<sup>a</sup> and Connecticut and the jurisdiction of which was by the Court held at Trenton adjudged to belong to Pennsylv<sup>a</sup>.

I was not in Congress when the petition of Butler and others & the letter from the Governor of Connecticut were first read, nor did I arrive untill the Committee to whom they had been referred had made report and Congress was ready to come to a decision. Upon first hearing the business I did not like it and was disposed to give it all the opposition in my power especially as I perceived by a part of Governor Trumbull's letter that the State of Connecticut was not satisfied with the Judgement given and there was some expressions which seemed to intimate that they wanted it set aside and a new trial granted. But as the Delegates of that State disavowed such intention and moved for expunging that part of the report which referred to the exceptionable part of the letter and only insisted on the right of the petitioners, and as that right was founded on the articles of confederation, I acquiesced and left my colleagues who had heard the matter from the beginning to give the vote of the state, I was the easier induced to observe this Conduct as upon examining more attentively the articles of Confederation I was perswaded that the granting the prayer of the petitioners and ordering the appointment of this Court was a confirmation of the Judgment of the court at Trenton which decided the jurisdiction, for it appeared to me that the court to decide upon the private right of soil cou<sup>d</sup> not to be appointed nor have any right to sit or act unless it was taken for granted that the jurisdiction was previously and finally adjudged and Determined.

I am sensible the appointment of this court may be attended with inconveniences. But as it is founded on the articles of confederation and a constitutional law of the United States, they ought to be submitted to and I apprehend it would be very dangerous to liberty if those who have only the power of appointing a court shou<sup>d</sup> govern an arbitrary right of Judging whether the suitors were intitled to the benefit of the Court. This in my opinion only belongs to the court and I am persuaded the Council employed by the claimants under Pennsylvania will take care that none but such as have a clear right to be admitted to the benefit of the Court in question.

I am glad to hear Mr Wilson is appointed a Delegate and that he means to serve. There are many matters now coming before Congress which are of the greatest importance to the whole union as well as to every individual state. I therefore sincerely wish if he is not already set out on his journey that he would hasten here as soon as possible and I am the more desirous of this as I should be glad of his advice before we take any step conformable to the instruction given and to have his assistance if the Assembly shall continue to think such steps necessary.

Be pleased to assure the Council and assembly of my most zealous services and closest attention to the interest of the state to the utmost of my abilities.

I am with great respect your Excellency's obd<sup>t</sup> humb<sup>l</sup>e Servant.
 JOHN MONTGOMERY.

DR. HUTCHINSON TO GEN. IRWIN, 1784. * *

Doctor Hutchinsons compliments to Gen. Irwin and acquaints him that the Bearers of this Leonard Broom, Jonathan Triefel, William Nichols & Daniel Cross, are four of those unhappy men who were burnt so very severely, when the accident happened at the fire works in Market street; Dr Hutchinson applied to Gen<sup>l</sup> Irwin at the time, & Council were kind enough to engage to pay their expences in the Pennsylvania Hospital, in consequence of which Dr Hutchinson got one of the men who is not mentioned above admitted, but these four rather choose to remain in their own lodgings, they are now well but much distressed, all their cloaths were burnt, and they have been at expences ever since the accident. I apprehend that their remaining out of the Hospital can make no difference to Council, and that the same allowance might be made to them to enable them to pay for their board, as is made to pay for the person who is in the Hospital; Gen<sup>l</sup> Irwin however will himself be better able to judge on the occasion and if he thinks it can be done with propriety represent the matter to Council.

PRESIDENT DICKINSON TO MERCHANTS OF PHILADA., 1784.

Gentlemen,

The offices we hold are bestowed upon us for the public service, & in order to fulfil the obligations of such a trust we esteem it our indispensable Duty to obtain all the Information that may be useful to the State.

We therefore wish to avail ourselves of the Knowledge and Experience of your Body, not only with Respect to the Removal of the Chevaux de Frize, but for the further Improvement of the Navigation of the River & Bay, and in general for the promotion of the Commercial Interests of the Commonwealth, as far as our Exertions can contribute to the attainment of those very desirable objects. On the first subject we hope to be soon favoured with your sentiments, & upon the last as you may from time to time think proper.

The substance of the Memorial to the General Assembly which you have been pleased to mention, appeared to Us as important as to You; and not knowing of your intended application to the House, we, in our Message, at the Beginning of the present Session, strongly urged "the Necessity of a due Order and accurate Method being observed in preparing all our products in the best Manner for Exportation."

By a former message on the eighteenth of last August, we represented to the Legislature that "no proper provision was made for the measuring of Grain & Salt." We also established a temporary Regulation concerning those articles.

Any advantages which the Laws admit upon these points, we shall be very ready to make, and should be glad to know what the course of Business suggests to your observation as most advisable.

Q. Who are the Officers for inspecting Beef & Pork, Flower & Staves, &c.

With a very great & sincere Esteem,

I am, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient,

And most humble servant,

JOHN DICKINSON.*

The Merchants of Philadelphia.

HON. JOHN MONTGOMERY TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Annapolis, 15th March, 1784.

Sir,

I have the honor to send your Excellency the Journals of Congress for 1780 and 1781, and an order on Mr. Claypole for those of 1779 and 1782, which includes part of '83.

Only eight states represented in Congress; the Delegates of the Delaware State are Disqualified to serve, having been appointed 1st Feb'y, 1783, the year ending 1st Feb'y, 1784, and no appointment made in that State since. Mr. Beresford's time is up this day, and no acct. from South Carolina of a new appointment, so that we are prevented from proceeding on the important and pressing Business now before Congress.

I am, with great respect,

Your Excellency's most obd't,

Humble Servant,

JOHN MONTGOMERY.

Directed,

His Excellency, John Dickinson, Esquire, Pres't of the Sup. Ex. Council at Philadelphia.

MERCHANTS OF PHILADELPHIA TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Philadelphia, 19 March, 1784.

Sir,

The attention with which Council have been pleased to honor our application, demands our acknowledgments, and we should be wanting in the Respect we owe to the Executive Power of the State, and to the Duties of our appointment, if we should withhold any information which they may think proper to ask, and which we are competent to give.

The Removal of the Chevaux de frize is, in our Estimation, an Object of the first importance to the Navigation of the State, and ought, at all Events, to be attempted as soon as the Season will permit. We presume that in this, as in all public Undertakings, if persons of Ability would engage to perform the Service by Contract, for a specific Sum, that mode would be the most eligible; but if such Persons cannot be found, we would recommend that the Business be put under the Direction of the Wardens of the Port, with Instructions to employ the best means in their Power for accomplishing so necessary an End.

The message of Council at the opening of the present Session comprehended many of the objects which we wished to bring before our Representatives; and our memorial, it was imagined, would furnish additional Motives for taking them into immediate Consideration. It is to be lamented that neither the one nor the other has had the desired Effect; and that new Impositions on Trade should be adopted without any Reference to the Parties who are to be immediately affected by them, & without the smallest Attention to the Improvement of that Commerce upon which those Impositions are laid.

We have thought it our Duty by another Memorial, to solicit the Attention of the General Assembly to this Business, & we still flatter ourselves our applications may be regarded.

If the Prayer of our Petitions should be granted, the Superintendence of many of the Regulations will necessarily be in the Council. Should that happen & our Experience can be useful, every information in our power will be cheerfully given. In the mean time the officers who superintend the measurement of Salt & Grain, & the Inspection of Beef & Pork, being of their appointment, it may be in their power to put those Duties into the hands of Persons who will execute them with Reputation to the State.

We have the Honor to be With perfect Respect,

Your Excellencies most obedient, & very humble Servants,

CHA. PETTIT,
JOHN NIXON,
THOS. FITZSIMONS,
ISAAC HAZLEHURST,
J. M. NESBITT.*

His Excellency, The President of the Council.

PRES. DICKINSON TO DELEGATES IN CONGRESS, 1784.

Gentlemen,

Dr. Ewing, & David Rittenhouse, John Lukens & Thomas Hutchins, Esquires, are appointed Commissioners by Council for ascertaining the Boundary Line between Virginia and this State, in pursuance of the agreement made at Baltimore on the 31st of August, 1779.*

* See Vol. VIII., p. 352, &amp;c.,—also, Vol. IX.

For this purpose, two of the Commissioners of each State, propose to meet at the Eastern Extremity of Mason & Dixon's Line, & the rest of them at the Western Extremity thereof, the Beginning of next June.

As it is designed that the Meridian Line for the Western Boundary of this State should also be run if it can be safely done, We think it proper that Congress should be informed of these Intentions, which we desire you will please to communicate.

REPORT TO GENERAL ASSEMBLY, 1784.

State of Pennsylvania,

Thursday, March 25, 1784, A. M.

The committee appointed March 11, to confer with the Supreme Executive Council, respecting the proper time for withdrawing the troops stationed at Wyoming, made report, which was read and on motion and by special order, the same was read the second time and adopted as follows, (viz )

The committee directed to confer with Council respecting the proper time for removing the troops from Wyoming, report :

That they have performed that service, and find Council unanimously of opinion, that it would be highly improper to remove the troops before the first day of December next ; but notwithstanding the opinion of that honorable body, which seems to be founded upon no other reasons than those already mentioned, and fully debated by this House ; Your committee beg leave to offer the following resolution, (viz :)

TIMOTHY MATLACK TO SPEAKER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, 1784.

To the honorable George Gray, Esq<sup>r</sup>, Speaker of the General Assembly, March, 25, 1784.

Sir,

I have been furnished with a Copy of a letter of the 4th of last month from James Wilson and William Bradford, Esq<sup>r</sup>, to you in which they say that "the Counsel retained to conduct the cause "between the Commonwealth & Timothy Matlack Esq<sup>r</sup>, amicably "entered in the Supreme Court agreeably to the resolution of the "hon<sup>ble</sup> General Assembly of Pennsylvania beg leave to report, "that they find it impossible to carry the said resolution into effect "so as to do justice to the Commonwealth." As some measure of justice is due to me as well as to the Commonwealth, I hope it will not be deemed criminal on my part, if I have been so attentive to my own security as to guard against those measures which my counsel, as well as myself, considered as artfully planned to Surprise and ensnare me.

The letter of the counsel for the State, loads me with 'he odium of having prevented the resolution of the honorable house from being carried into effect, by evading the trial which I myself had sought. This charge is not founded in truth; on the other hand, I can furnish authentick vouchers for the truth of what I shall now State to you, and thro you to the honorable the General Assembly. This cause ought to have been tried long before this day; & I solicited very earnestly to have it brought to trial last April term in the Supreme Court, & again at September term; yet thro' no fault of mine, nor from want of diligence in my counsel, the cause was not entered on the Docket, until I was obliged to take a rule for examining Gen<sup>l</sup> Lacey in New Jersey a few days before the day appointed for the trial, which was the 27th of January, and altho I had taken pains with the assistance of my counsel, to have the jury struck more than two months before the day appointed for trial; yet the Venire facias was not taken out on the part of the Commonwealth and delivered to the Sheriff, until about two days preceding that appointed for the trial. No delay was affected on my part, and when the jury did not attend upon the short notice given to them; at my own earnest request and entreaty another day was appointed. That day arrived, to wit the 3d of Feb'y; a jury attended, and then arose the difficulty which I am now charged with creating.

Here it is necessary to look back to the beginning of this business; so far as respects the ordering of the matter to be tried between the Commonwealth and myself. When the Comptroller General and myself differed in opinion, upon certain charges I made of monies on account of my salary and fees belonging to my late office, I proposed to him that the question arising upon those charges should either be submitted to the opinion of the Judges of the Supreme Court as questions of law, or be referred for trial to a Jury in the Common Pleas or Supreme Court upon a feigned issue; both of which methods I stated with the assistance of counsel, as being consonant to the practice of the Court of Chancery in England. This fact you will find supported by the proposition I made signed with my name. The report made by the Comptroller General on my account, the 19th of March, 1788, admitted that the account of monies received by me is probably right, and contains no other objections to them, than certain articles of credit therein stated which are really questions of law. He adds, that my proposition to determine them either by stating the questions therein mentioned for the opinion of the Judges, or trying the contested points by a jury (which I had proposed to have tried on a feigned issue as I have already mentioned) appeared to be very reasonable, & prays to be instructed by the Honorable Council or Assembly, what may to their prudence & Superior Wisdom appear most eligible, and that, if necessary, counsel might be employed. On the 21st day of March last, the President in Council, by a Message to the Honorable the Assembly signified, that the Supreme Executive Council "presumed the questions of right might be determined in the manner proposed by the Secretary, which appeared to them to be reasonable." This Message on the same day was referred to a Committee.

On the 22<sup>d</sup> day of March the report of the Committee was made and adopted "that the Secretary had charged the State with a very considerable sum which the Comptroller General declares to be altogether inadmissible and prayed to be instructed by the Honorable the Council or Assembly &c," and it was thereupon resolved by the House "That the Comptroller General of this State, proceed to the trial of the contested points in the accounts of Timothy Matlack, Esq<sup>r</sup>, in the Supreme Court; and that he be authorized to employ Counsel for that purpose."

The objections made by the Comptroller General on certain points of law, as to my salary and fees, stated by him, formed these contes- ted points, and these contested points, particularly stated, were all which were directed by the House to be tried by a Jury in the Supream Court. From that time to the present I have been always ready to form the feigned issue, and my counsel inform me they have repeatedly proposed and urged it, at every court since March last. I expected that these contested points & these only would have been stated for the opinion of the jury under the direction of the Judges and I had a right to expect it, because the order of the House was confined to these. Did I prevent this and thereby render "it impossible to carry the resolution of the House into effect?" Far from it; but on the other hand the Counsel for the State declared, that the house had ordered what could not be done, that it was an absurdity in itself; that to swear a jury to try and give their verdict on a point of law was a thing which had never before been heard of. Whether this circumstance be the one which makes it "impossible to carry the resolution of the House into effect so as to do justice to the Commonwealth" I cannot determine; but the difficulty is not imputable to me; for my Counsel remonstrated that the Attorney General had no authority to proceed against me but conformably to the order of the House; that as to any absurdity in the mode prescribed, we have nothing to do with it, but to obey, & that the thing was not imputable to us, because I had offered to refer the contested points to the opinion of the Judges.

Thus far I was surely not to blame; for if, in the opinion of the Counsel for the State, it was absurd or impossible to carry the order of the House into effect, the fault lay not at my door—I went further: Wishing to remove every difficulty in the way of a speedy decision I again offered to state the contested points for the opinion of the Judges, who were best qualified to decide on questions of law. This was refused. I urged the forming a feigned issue and trying it by a Jury agreeably to my first proposition, which had been declared reasonable by the Comptroller General, by the Supreme Executive Council & by the Honorable the House of Assembly; agreeably to the established mode of trying contested points which arise in the Court of Chancery, & agreeably to our own practice in the Case of issues directed from the Registers Court to try the validity of wills. This proposition, if accepted, would have brought the "contested points" fairly before the court and jury for trial, without a possibility of Surprise or the least undue advantages to either party. It would also have had uninterrupted usage with a long and respectable train of precedents to authorise it. This however was rejected, and rejected by the very Gentlemen who have since told the House, that they find it impossible to carry the resolution of the House into effect.

What was to be done? The Court declared that an issue must be formed in some mode before the Cause could be tried. But the Counsel for the State would agree to no other mode of doing it than that of filing a declaration against me for money had and received by me for the use of the State. To this I submitted on condition that the contested points to be tried might be stated in writing.

After three or four attempts, in which the Counsel for the State receded from their own propositions as often as they were agreed to on my part, the points to be tried were agreed to & signed by my counsel. But when the jury was ready to be sworn, it appeared that no declaration was yet filed, & when I was perfectly willing & as I thought ready for the trial a new and very unexpected scene was disclosed. A declaration was drawn up at the table, in which I was charged, not with the sum specified in the Comptrollers report to be the sum received by me, but with having received ninety seven thousand Pounds; a sum far beyond the sum stated by the Comptroller General and beyond what I had any imagination that I was ever suspected of receiving. A new account was also exhibited by the Comptroller, upon very different principles & for a much larger sum than that contained in his report. One of the Counsel for the state also mentioned, that they had additional charges to make even beyond their new account; but what those additional charges were he refused to mention & I do not yet know. These matters were widely different from those which the house had ordered to be tried & which I came prepared to defend myself against. My accusation was in part new, & part of it yet concealed, ready to be brought forward at the very instant of trial, when material witnesses might be absent, records unsearched, papers and authentic documents out of my hands and not attainable, and my counsel totally uninstructed as to all the new matter. Against attacks of this nature innocence is not a sure protection; because time and preparation are often necessary to make innocence appear, especially where long accounts & complicated facts are in question. I refused to be thus entrapped; but lest the cause should not go on, I made another proposition; that the counsel employed against me should proceed in the very mode that they wished to do, if they would confine themselves to the account stated by the comptroller general in his report, which was the subject matter of the trial directed by the house of assembly. This proposition was also rejected. The court interposed & desired the counsel on both sides to converse together, & endeavor to fall upon some method of terminating the dispute. This was at length agreed to, 'tho with reluctance by the counsel for the State, and when the counsel on both sides withdrew together, I hoped that some mode for bringing the matter in controversy to a fair trial might have been fallen upon; but one of the counsel for the State began the conference by declaring that it was his fixed determination not to recede in the smallest degree from what they had before urged. This very singular mode of accommodating the dispute which was entirely different from what was recommended by the court, broke off the treaty, & it is evident, that it would have been vain & ridiculous in us to make any propositions, when we were assured that none of any kind, however reasonable, would be accepted.

The consequence was that the court dismissed the jury from further attendance & the resolution of the house was not carried into effect. Whether this was occasioned by me, or by those who charge me with it, the honorable house will be at no loss to determine.

I do hereby renew all the propositions which I have made and which are contained in this letter. It is beneath the dignity of government to wish to ensnare an innocent man, & I cannot persuade myself that the legislature really desire it. The questions to be tried are fairly stated in the Comptroller Generals report. I am willing to submit those questions to a court or a jury. I have no objections to the jury who were struck in the cause or to any other good men. As my case may possibly form a leading precedent in cases of the like nature, I would submit it to the wisdom of the honorable house, whether a feigned issue, in which all the points in contest are fairly stated in case of trial by jury & in which we are warranted by the example & practice of ages be not the most eligible mode.

I am with due respect,

Your most obedient servant,

T. MATLACK.

INSTRUCTIONS TO COMM'RS FOR RUNNING BOUNDARY LINE, 1784.

In Council, Philadelphia, March 26th, 1784.

Gentlemen,

With this letter you will receive a Certificate of the act of Council respecting your appointment duly authenticated.

We confide in your abilities and attention, that the very important business committed to your charge will be performed in the best manner.

Your first employment after the necessary astronomical observations, we presume will be the Extension of Mason's and Dixon's line, due West five degrees of Longitude. This extended line we desire to have marked by Stones properly prepared and fixed in the ground, at the distance of five miles from one another, every stone to be inscribed with its distance from the River Delaware. The South West Corner of the State should be marked with a large Stone, well fixed and by a considerable heap of smaller stones around it. The bearings & distance of near & remarkable objects around it should be taken & be mentioned in the Report of proceedings. The line from thence to the Northern Limit of the State should be marked as the Southern boundary is to be, computing the distance to be inscribed upon each Stone therein from the South West Corner.

We hope that such a peace will be established with the Indians before you arrive at the Ohio in running the Western boundary; that you may safely proceed in that Work to its northern Extremity. In that Case, we wish you to ascertain the North Western Corner of this State by astronomical observations in the Latitude of forty three degrees, and to mark that as the South West Corner is to be.

We have given Notice to Congress of your appointment as Commissioners to make these surveys; and if any should be appointed on their part, you will be pleased to act in conjunction with them.

As you Gentlemen in the Execution of this Commission, will travel over many parts of the Country, We cannot but ardently wish that you may embrace the opportunity of making every observation and obtaining all possible information concerning the situation and courses of Rivers, Streams, Hills and Mountains, that may be of the least use in assisting the public Councils, on the very interesting subjects of forming the most advantageous communications by roads and canals between the different parts of the State.

We have appointed Colonel Andrew Porter to attend you as Commissary under your direction. He is to purchase before you set out the articles of which a list is enclosed, except such as can be obtained from the public stores, procure provisions at the places of operation, hire necessary Labourers, and to render a just and true account of the Monies expended.

I am Gentlemen,

with great Esteem and Regard,

your obedient and very humble Servant,

JOHN DICKINSON.*

Sir,

In pursuance of the within act of the United States in Congress assembled, I had the honor of forwarding to your Excellency on the 26th, January last,† in the terms prescribed, a notification of the application made in Congress for the institution of a Court to determine the private right of soil between the Individuals claiming under different States in that tract of Country which by a late Federal Court has been adjudged to Pennsylvania and of the assignment of a day for the parties to appear before Congress or a Committee of the States, for instituting such Court agreeably to the articles of Confederation.

As I have not been favour'd with an answer, and it may become necessary to show that the notification has been duly received, I must request your Excellency to take the trouble of acknowledging the receipt of this or of my former Letter.

I have the honor to be,

COMMISSIONERS ON BOUNDARY LINE TO PRES. DICKINSON,

Sir,

We have considered the proposals made to us, by the Executive Council, and are unanimously of opinion that it will be inconsistent with the Business for us to have anything to do with providing Necessaries for ourselves, or with being dependent on the Humour of a Commissary so that unless it be part of his Duty to provide for us, we cannot undertake the Work. And when we reflect upon the accuracy necessary for the accomplishment of the Work; the constant attention to the observations both Night and Day, the frequent interruptions of our natural Rest, the daily Fatigue we must undergo, the Danger of losing our Health and above all the Regard we ought to have to our Characters with all the Gentlemen of Astronomical Knowledge in Europe, whose Eyes will be turned upon us, and who will expect from us all that Precision, that can be derived from the greatest astronomical Discoveries that have yet been made; We expect that the supreme Executive Council will enable us to meet the Commissioners from Virginia upon equal Terms: which, we have good Reason to believe, is for six Dollars per Day, and all their Expences paid by the State.

RESOLUTION OF ASSEMBLY, 1784.

State of Pennsylvania, In General Assembly.

Thursday, April 1, 1784, P. M.

A member presented to the chair a motion which was read, and on motion, and by special order, the same was read the second time, and adopted as follows, (viz:)

Whereas, the Barracks, public store House and Powder Magazine in the borough of Lancaster, are now vacant, and for want of a proper person to take care of them, are subject to destruction and spoil; therefore,

* See Col. Rec., Vol. XIV., p. 60.

Resolved, That the Supreme Executive Council be and they are hereby authorised to appoint a proper person, residing in the said borough of Lancaster, to take charge of the said Barracks, public store house and powder magazine, who shall be vested with power to rent the same to such person or persons as may apply for them or either of them, for the highest rent he may be offered for them or have in his power to obtain, out of which rent the person so appointed shall be paid the sum of six pounds per annum for his trouble, shall keep the said Barracks and store house in such repair as they now are, for which repairs he shall be allowed out of the remainder of the rent arising out of the buildings aforesaid; and that he render an account of his transactions in the premises to the Prothonotary of the county, who, after having approved thereof, shall transmit the same into the Comptroller General's office, and pay such balance as may remain after making the deduction of the sums above mentioned, to the Treasurer of this State.

PRES. OF CONGRESS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

(Circular.)

Sir,

The subject of this address claims the attention of your Excellency, on the principle of the most urgent necessity.

The state of our finances is such as to require the united efforts of Congress and of the several States, for obtaining immediately a supply of money to prevent the loss of public credit.

When the army was furloughed, they had the promise of three months pay; and as there was not money in the Treasury, the Superintendent of finance was under the necessity of issuing his notes to discharge this and other Demands. The notes becoming due, part of them were redeemed with money supplied by the several States; but this being inadequate, the Financier drew bills on Holland for the deficiency. A considerable proportion of these drafts have been paid by loans obtained there on the credit of the United States; But the letters from our Bankers to the Superin<sup>d</sup> of finance, inform that they had been under the necessity for the want of funds, to suffer so many of his Bills to be protested for non-acceptance, as with the damages on protest in case of non-payment, will amount to the sum of 636,000 dollars.

We expect the return of these bills, under a protest for non-payment; and should there not be money in the Treasury of the United States to discharge them, your Excellency may easily conceive the deplorable consequences.

Under such circumstances, Congress think it their duty to communicate the matter confidentially to the Supreme Executive of each State; and to request in the most pressing terms their influence and exertion to furnish with all possible dispatch on requisitions unsatisfied, their respective quotas of the sum mentioned, according to the apportionment herewith transmitted.

I shall only add, Sir, that Congress rely on your wisdom for accomplishing their views with as much dispatch as possible, and that the estimates and requisitions for the year will be soon transmitted to your Excellency.

I am with the greatest

Respect & Esteem,

your Excellency's obedient & humble serv<sup>t</sup>,

COMM'RS ON BOUNDARY LINE TO COUNCIL, 1784.

Gentlemen,

The Time of our Departure from Philadelphia drawing near, it is necessary that the Commissary should be employed in looking out for the articles that may be wanted. As the Council have signified to us that they would be glad to know who would be agreeable to us in this Expedition, we would inform them that it appears probable to us, that Coll. Porter, from his long Experience in the army, and his knowledge of the most Economical and ready Way of supplying a number of Men with Necessaries would answer the Expectations of the Council and of the Commissioners, as well as any Person they can think of at present. He has informed us that if the Council will appoint him, he will go with us, and he is acquainted with the Terms which you have proposed.

With Respect to the Provision to be made for the Commissioners, we have expressed our Sentiments fully in our last Letter to Council, and we have agreed to undertake the Business, and hope to accomplish the Work in such a manner as will give satisfaction to the State and answer the Expectations of Gentlemen of science in Europe, if the Council do not wish to have Men of greater abilities employed; in which Case we will cheerfully resign the Business into the Hands of any others that may appear to the honorable Council to be better qualified for the Work, or more eligible on the whole.

An anxious Desire to gratify the astronomical World in the performance of a Problem which has never yet been attempted in any Country, by a Precision and Accuracy that would do no Dishonour to our Characters, while it prevents the State of Pennsylvania from the Chance of Losing many hundred Thousands of Acres, secured to it by our agreement at Baltimore, has induced us to suffer our Names to be mentioned in the accomplishment of the Work. We assure you that the lucrative motives that might have Influence with us, in other Circumstances, have not sufficient Weight to engage us in so difficult a Work, that will separate us from our Families for half a year, and subject most of us to Fatigues to which we have not been accustomed. And we cannot persuade ourselves that the State of Pennsylvania will avail itself of this Desire, to subject us to the mortifying Circumstance of meeting with the Commissioners from Virginia upon any unequal Terms. However, we submit the whole affair to the consideration of the honourable Council, and if upon our Return from the work it should be found that the Commissioners from Virginia have been employed on the same Terms, we shall perfectly acquiesce; as we look for no more than an Equality with them.*

MATHIAS SLOUGH TO COUNCIL, 1784.

Lancaster, 8th April, 1784.

Sir,

You have no doubt been informed by the Clerk of Assembly of their Resolution respecting the Barracks and Public store houses in this Borough, and that No time may be lost in the appointment of a person to take Care of them, I Immediately on my arrival at home, made enquiry for a Proper person who would take upon him that charge for the Sum mentioned in the resolution; For this purpose I sent for the late assistant Barrack master, whose Name is John Schreiber, and who agrees to take it upon him at the Sum and in the manner directed by the Resolution of Assembly. If therefore Council will be pleased to appoint him I doubt not but he will answer

RESOLUTION OF CONGRESS, 1784.

April 19, 1784.

On the report of a committee consisting of Mr. Gerry, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Lee, to whom was referred a motion of Mr. Gerry.

Resolved, That the legislatures of the several states be informed that whilst they are respectively represented in Congress by two delegates only, such an unanimity for conducting the most important public concerns is necessary as can be rarely expected. That if each of the thirteen states should be represented by two members, five out of twenty-six, being only a fifth of the whole, may negative any measures requiring the voice of nine states. That of eleven states now on the floor of Congress, nine being represented by only two members from each, it is in the power of three out of twenty-five, making only one eighth of the whole to negative such a measure notwithstanding that by the articles of confederation, the dissent of five out of thirteen being more than one-third of the number, is necessary for such a negative. That in a representation of three members from each state, not less than ten of thirty-nine could so negative a matter requiring the voice of nine states. That from facts under the observation of Congress, they are clearly convinced that a representation of two members from the several states, is extremely injurious by producing delays, and for this reason is likewise much more expensive than a general representation of three members from each state. That therefore Congress conceive it to be indispensibly necessary and earnestly recommend that each state, at all times when Congress are sitting, be hereafter represented by three members at least; as the most injurious consequences may be expected from the want of such representation.

DAVID RITTENHOUSE TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Philadelphia, April 27th, 1784.

Sir,

The present exhausted State of the Treasury and the pressing occasions for money make it necessary for me to represent to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Council in the most earnest manner, the expediency of calling on the several revenue officers and urging payment; particularly the late and present Auctioneers, the Naval Officer and the Collector of Imposts, together with such other persons as the Council or the Comptroller Gen<sup>l</sup> may think likely to afford a Supply. How little authority the Treasurer has in these matters, is well known. I am besides much engaged in preparing Instruments for our western Expedition. Agreeably to Instructions of the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Council, I have by advertisement in several Newspapers, called on the purchasers of City Lots to make payment. I have not indeed published a List of names, as I was convinced the threat of so doing wou'd have more effect than the thing itself when done. I have likewise called personally on many of them; and now beg leave to inform Council of the little success I have had. Co<sup>l</sup> Humpton has nearly paid off his Ballance; James Loughhead has fully paid; Joseph Dean has Since paid £73 1; Davis & Patton have promised, but nothing more; George Bickham p<sup>t</sup> £65 15; Peter Stretch, £37 10; An<sup>r</sup> Cuthbert, £207 5; Tho<sup>s</sup> Leiper, £73 15; Dr Morgan, £148 4; John Dunlap, £309. What is further to be done in order to compel payment before the first of June, (when all the holders of the Bills will expect to have them exchanged,) I humbly submit to the wisdom of Council.

Permit me, Sir, likewise to inform Council that there seems to be almost a total stop to the Collecting of Taxes. In July next the Interest notes are to be paid by Act of Assembly, at which time the Act Supposes the Tax for 1783, will be brought in; of this Tax there is however, no more than 29,474 Dollars paid into the Treasury, one-half of which only goes to redeem the Notes, will it not be necessary for Council to urge the Several County Cmmis<sup>rs</sup> to do their Duty.

	Army debt,	338,186
		1,289,270
	Total,		3,812,539.23

The committee were apprised that the resolutions of Congress of April the 18th, 1783, had recommended to the several states the raising an annual revenue, for the purpose of discharging the principal and interest of the national debt, by the establishment of certain imposts, and providing supplementary funds for a given term of years, to be raised in such a way as they might judge most convenient: but it occurred to them, that those recommendations were still under suspense with several of the legislatures, some of them having as yet acceded to the impost only, and others decided neither on the impost nor supplementary funds: that however desirable a compliance therewith is, for the preservation of our faith, and establishment of a national credit, yet as time has already elapsed, and more must elapse before their final confirmation can be hoped, as, after it shall be obtained, time will also be requisite to advance the plan to the term of actual collection, good faith requires that in the mean while other measures should be resorted to for the purpose of discharging the growing interest.

In the statement of the interest due at the close of the year 1782, the committee have supposed its amount lessened by 1,200,000 dollars, required and appropriated by the resolutions of Congress of September the 4th and 10th, 1782, and appropriated to the sole purpose of paying the interest of the public debt. This requisition gave licence to the states to apply so much as should be necessary of their respective quotas of it, to the payment of interest due on certificates issued from the loan office of their own states, and other liquidated debts of the United States contracted therein. Hence they suppose it has happened, that the actual payments of these quotas have been uncommunicated to the office of finance for the United States. The committee are of opinion, that the states should be desired to communicate to the superintendant of finance, the payments they have made under this requisition, and where they have been incomplete, to hasten their completion, as the means still relied on by Congress for the discharge of that part of the interest of the public debt—And while on this subject, they beg leave to add, that from the representation to Congress by the minister of France, referred to this committee, they learn that in some of the states, a discrimination has taken place between the citizens of their own and subjects or citizens of other countries, which was not authorized by the said resolution: They are of opinion, that such states should be required to revise and reform their proceedings herein, and to extend the benefits both past and future of this provision equally and impartially to all persons within its description.

Your committee then came to consider in what way it would be best to call for the sums requisite for the services before stated: and they thought it their duty in the first place to enquire, whether no surpluses might remain on former requisitions of Congress, after the purposes were effected to which they were originally appropriated; under an assurance that it would be both the duty and sense of Congress to apply such surpluses, in every instance, towards lessening the next requisition on the states. They found in fact that such a surplus would remain on the requisition of October 30, 1781, for eight millions of dollars for the services of the ensuing year and that this surplus would be great from the following circumstances;— That requisition was estimated on supposition, that the continental army would be completed by the states, to its full establishment; and that clothing subsistence and other necessities for such an army, must of course be provided. The states were far short of producing such an army. Hence the calls for money were proportionally abridged. It was estimated too on the further supposition that we might be disappointed in the endeavours we were then exerting to borrow money both at home and abroad, and of course that the whole must be supplied by taxes. Loans however were obtained, and the surplus increased by this second cause. A third circumstance has further enlarged it. The payments on this requisition have been small and slow. Hence, instead of money, those who served and supplied the United States have received certificates only that money is due to them, and these debts have been transferred to the fund proposed to be raised by way of impost: so that tho' the debts exist, they are removed from this to another fund. To know then the amount of this surplus, the committee extended their enquiries to the sums actually received under this requisition, the purposes to which they have been applied, and the anticipations thereof still unsatisfied. They found that 1,486,511.71, only of the eight millions of dollars had been received at the treasury at the close of the year 1783; that these had been applied to the services of the years 1782 and 1783, and that for other services of the same years, debts were contracted to the amount of about one million of dollars more, which depend for their discharge on further receipts under this requisition; a statement of the expenditures of which sums should be made out and forwarded to the legislatures of the several states. Your committee then are of opinion that a surplus of 5,518,488.28 dollars will remain of this requisition, after answering all the demands which actually arose against it, which were not answered by other means, nor transferred to other funds; and that this surplus ought to [be] applied so far as it will go, to the common purposes of the United States, so as to prevent new requisitions on them till the old shall have been exhausted, and to shew to those who may have paid their whole quota of any requisition, that they will not be called on anew till all the other states shall in like manner have paid up their quotas.

Your committee found also that there was a requisition of Congress of October 16, 1782, for two millions of dollars for the services of the year 1783, on which some small payments had been tendered, but that the superintendant of finance had found it better to receive and credit them as part of the eight millions. They are accordingly comprehended in the sum before stated to have been paid in under that head.

Having thus stated the demands existing against the states, the committee would have performed but half their duty, had they passed over unnoticed their condition to pay them. Their abilities must be measured in weighing their burthens. Their creditors themselves will view them just relieved from the ravages of predatory armies, returning from an attendance on camps, to the culture of their fields—beginning to sow, but not yet having reaped—exhausted of necessaries and habitual comforts, and therefore needing new supplies out of the first proceeds of their labour. Forbearance then, to a certain degree, will suggest itself to them. Congress entrusted with the dispensation of justice between the public and its creditors will suppose both parties desirous that their mutual situations should be considered and accommodated. Your committee are of opinion that if the whole balances of the two requisitions of eight and of two millions, should be rigorously called into payment within the course of the present year, a compliance with such call would produce much distress; and that a proportion short of this should be fixed on, within the reach of the least as well as of the most able states. They propose therefore that the states be required to furnish within the course of the present year, such part of their deficiencies under the requisition of eight millions, as, with their payments to the close of the last year, will make up one-half of their original quota thereof. And that these payments be appropriated in conformity with the statement in the first part of this report, giving generally, where accommodation cannot be effected among the several objects, a preference according to the order in which they are arranged in the said statement.

But while this proportion of former deficiencies is of necessity called for, under the pressure of demands which will admit neither denial nor delay, and the punctual compliance of every state is expected, to enable the federal administration with certainty to satisfy these demands, it is earnestly and warmly recommended to the abler states, to go as far beyond this proportion in specie, as their happier situation will admit; under an assurance, that such further contributions will be applied towards discharging the public debt agreeably to the preceding statement, and will be placed to their credit in the next requisitions, with interest thereon from the time of payment: and also that before any further demand is made upon the states, under the requisition for two millions of dollars, or the requisition for eight millions of dollars, Congress will revise the quotas of the several states mentioned in the said requisitions respectively, and will make them agreeable to justice, upon the best information Congress may have when such demand is made. But as all our exertions will probably fall short of their full object, in that case it is believed that the public creditors seeing the load of interest accumulated during the war, greater than can be discharged in the first year of peace, will be contented for the present, to receive the earlier part of these arrears, and to rely for the residue on the efforts of the ensuing year.

Individual states have at times thought it hard that while, in their own opinion, they were in advance for the United States on accounts existing and unsettled between them, they should yet be called on to furnish actual contributions of money. The committee observe in answer to this, first, that almost every state thinks itself in advance; and secondly, that it has been the constant wish of Congress that these accounts should be settled, and the contributions of each be known and credited. They have accordingly taken measures, and will continue their endeavours to effect these settlements: And as a further encouragement to hasten this desirable work, the committee are of opinion Congress should declare, that so soon as these accounts shall be settled, and it shall appear in favour of what states balances arise, such states shall have credit for the same in the requisitions next ensuing.

But it will be necessary to remind the states that no materials have yet been furnished to enable Congress to adjust the ultimate ratio in which the expenditures of the late war shall be apportioned on the states. The confederation directs that this shall be regulated by the value of the lands in the several states with the buildings and improvements thereon. Experiments made however since the date of that instrument, for the purposes of ordinary taxation, had induced doubts as to the practicability of this rule of apportionment; yet Congress thought it their duty to give it fair trial, and recommended to the several states on the 17th February, 1783, to furnish an account of their lands, buildings and number of inhabitants, whereon they might proceed to estimate their respective quotas: but apprehending that the incompetence of the rule would immediately shew itself, and desirous that no time should be unnecessarily lost, they followed it with another recommendation of the 18th of April, 1783, to substitute in lieu of that article in the confederation another, which should make the number of inhabitants, under certain modifications, the measure of contribution for each state. Both these propositions are still under reference to the several legislatures; the latter accompanied by the earnest wishes, and preference of Congress, under full conviction that it will be found in event as equal, more satisfactory, and more easy of execution: the former only pressed if the other should be rejected. The committee are informed that the states of Connecticut, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and South-Carolina, have acceded to the alteration proposed; but have no evidence that the other states have as yet decided thereon. As it is necessary that the one or the other measure should be immediately resorted to, they are of opinion it should be recommended to the legislatures which have not yet decided between them, to come to decision at their next meeting.

In order to present to the eye a general view of the several existing requisitions, and of the payments made under them, the committee has subjoined them in the form of a table, wherein the 1st column enumerates the states; the 2d the apportionment of the 1,200,000 dollars; the 3d that of the 8 millions; the 4th that of the 2 millions; the 5th the sums paid by the several states in part of their respective quotas to the last day of the year 1783; and the 6th the sums now required to make up one-half of their respective quotas of the 8 millions, expressed in dollars, tenths and hundredths of dollars.

Resolved, That Congress agree to the said report.

APRIL 23, 1784.

Congress resumed the consideration of the report of the grand committee, appointed to report the arrearages of interest, &c., so far as respected facilities, and the paragraph being amended to read as follows—

It remained lastly to consider, whether no facilities might be given to the payment of these sums by the several states. The committee observed that of the purposes for which money is wanting, about three-fourths can be answered by nothing but money itself; but that the other fourth, consisting of interest on our domestic debt, may be effected by procuring a discount of the demand in the hands of the holders; an operation which will be shorter, and less impoverishing to the state. And however, in times of greater plenty, the accuracy of fiscal administration might require all transactions to be in actual money, at the treasury itself; yet till our constituents shall have some respite from their late difficulties, it behoves us to prefer their easement. The committee are therefore of opinion that the several legislatures may be admitted so to mode the collection of the sums now called for, that the three-fourths of any sum being paid in actual money, the other fourth may be discharged by procuring discounts of interest with our domestic creditors; always taking care that the collection of money shall proceed at least in threefold proportion with the operations of discount. And to ascertain the evidences of discount which shall be receivable in lieu of money, the holders of loan office certificates shall be at liberty to carry them to the office from which they issued; and the holders of certificates of other liquidated debts of the United States, to carry the same to the loan office of that State wherein the debt was contracted, and to have the interest due thereon settled and certified to the last day of the year 1782; for which interest the loan officer shall give a certificate in such form, and under such cautions and instructions, as the superintendant of finance shall transmit to him; which certificates of interest being parted with by the holder of the principal, shall be deemed evidence that he has received satisfaction for the same, and therefore shall be receivable from the bearer, within the same State, and from the State when obtained from the bearer, in lieu of money in the proportion before stated; which payment in certificates by the State into the public treasury, in the proportion that each State avails itself of the facilities, shall be considered as a discharge of so much of the interest due upon the domestic debt, so that the three-fourths or greater proportion, if any State should not avail itself of the facilities in the degree hereby admitted, paid in money at the same time shall be applied, according to the above statement, giving preference to the discharge of the expences of internal government, and the interest due upon the foreign debt. And where loan office certificates, issued after the first day of March, 1778, shall be presented to the loan officer, they shall be reduced to their specie value, according to the resolutions of Congress of June 28, 1780, that specie value expressed on some part of the certificate, and the interest thereon settled and certified as in other cases.

Resolved, That Congress agree to the same.

April 29, 1784.

Congress took into consideration the report of a grand committee, to whom was referred the report of a committee on the subject of western territory, and thereupon came to the following resolution—

Congress by their resolution of September 6, 1780, having thought it adviseable to press upon the States having claims to the Western country, a liberal surrender of a portion of their territorial claims, by that of the 10th of October, in the same year, having fixed conditions to which the union should be bound, on receiving such cessions. And having again proposed the same subject to those States in their address of April 18th, 1783, wherein, stating the national debt, and expressing their reliance for its discharge, on the prospect of vacant territory, in aid of other resources, they, for that purpose, as well as to obviate disagreeable controversies and confusions, included in the same recommendation, a renewal of those of September the 6th, and of October the 10th, 1780; which several recommendations have not yet been fully complied with:

Resolved, That the same subject be again presented to the attention of the said States, that they be urged to consider that the war being now brought to a happy termination by the personal services of our soldiers, the supplies of property by our citizens, and loans of money from them as well as from foreigners; these several creditors have a right to expect that funds shall be provided on which they may rely for indemnification; that Congress still consider vacant territory as an important resource: And that therefore the said States be earnestly pressed, by immediate and liberal cessions, to forward these necessary ends, and to promote the harmony of the union.

CHA. THOMSON, Sec'y.

28d Feb., 1784. Alphabetical list of all the persons attainted of High Treason, with a state of such as have been acquitted by the Supreme Court.

There were 10 proclamations of last Council, in 1781, for Wm. Rankin.

There was a John Taylor of Chester County, one of the within, (quere, which,) pardoned by Council, May 30th, 1782, provided he would take the Oath or affirmation of allegiance to the State, and give security, as specified, for his behaviour during the war.*

COUNCIL TO ARTHUR ST. CLAIR, &amp;c., 1784.

Circular.

Philadelphia, April 29th, 1784.

Sir,

Council, upon Considering the exhausted state of the Treasury, and that the public exigencies were such as to call for an immediate supply they have accordingly directed me to call upon you in the most pressing manner to expedite the payment of the money now in your

Indorsed,

1784, April 29th. To Arthur St Clair, James Mease & Alex Boyd—& Sharp Delany.

MESSRS. HILLEGAS AND FRANCIS TO COUNCIL, 1784.

To his Excellency the President and the Honorable the Executive Council of the State of Pennsylvania.

In Pursuance of your appointment, We have obtained from the Surveyor General a draft of the Ground in which the Barracks in the Northern Liberties are erected, and attended a Surveyor to run the lines and examine the buildings; But as yet we have not proceeded so far as to form the several sub-divisions of that Ground, so that it might be disposed of to the greatest advantage.

That it is at present the opinion of divers Inhabitants, as well as our own, That it would be most beneficial before the Ground is sub-divided, That all the buildings, except the large House in the middle of the west front, be disposed of in parcels of one or more Houses, obliging the purchasers to pull them down within a limited time, & remove the materials—for the following Reasons:—

1st—The Vacant Lots will probably sell much higher than they would were these small buildings to remain, and consequently be inhabited by persons most of whom would not make the best of Neighbours.

2<sup>d</sup>—The Roofs being put on about 26 years ago, and the Shingles, in a few years more, consequently will be rotten, if they are not so in some degree already, being on a very low pitch.

3<sup>d</sup>—The Bricks, at the present high price, will probably sell for as much as new may hereafter be bought for, with the expence of laying.

4th—That when those buildings are disposed of and torn down, the Ground may be sub-divided to much greater advantage, as the lines will be unshackled, and no regard need be paid to the present partitions of the Houses, all of which are lathed and plastered, except where the Chimneys are, and in a ruinous Condition, as well as the Floors, Window Cases, &c., &c.

The Consideration of all which we submit to your Excellency and the Honorable the Executive Council. And waiting for your further Orders,

We are, with the greatest esteem,

Your most Obedient Servants,

M<sup>r</sup> HILLEGAS, TENCH FRANCIS.

SEC'Y ARMSTRONG TO EPHRAIM DOUGLASS, 1784.

Philad<sup>a</sup>, April 30, 1784.

Sir,

I am directed by Council to inform you that they have received your Letter of the 10th Instant with the Inclosure, & observe with surprize that the Names of Arnold Porter as Inspector, & Lewis Deem & Charles Porter as Assistant Judges, are all of the same Handwriting. The Return also mentions the Vacancy being occasioned by dividing the Township of Manallin into three Townships; but it does not appear when or by what Authority the said Township was divided. Council therefore desire, that you would, as soon as possible, transmit to this Office a List of the several Townships or Districts for choosing a Justice of the Peace.

Council have also received a Return for Wharton Township, in Fayette County, mentioning a Vacancy, & signed with the Names of Thomas Ramsay, William McClellan & Moses Hall, all of which are of the same Handwriting also. Both these Returns are rejected. I send up by General Nevill six Copies of a late Law for Justices of the Peace.

I am, sir, with much respect,

Your most obedient

and very humble servant,

JOHN ARMSTRONG, jr., Sec<sup>y</sup>.

DORSEY PENTECOST TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Washington County, May 2<sup>d</sup>, 1784.

Sir,

This will be handed to your Excellency by Cap<sup>t</sup> Hughes & M<sup>r</sup> Morrison, Officers in late Ranging Washington Com'y. Your Excellency will please to remember that Cap<sup>t</sup> Hughes was before your Board to settle the Recruiting acc<sup>t</sup>, but, unfortunately, he had lost (or at least some of his Subalterns) some of their attestations, which they have not yet found, but hold Certificates from the Gentlemen who mustered the men, which I hope your Excellency will consider as sufficient.

There was an Order from your board directing that Cap<sup>t</sup> Stokely, of the Westmoreland Rangers, should settle the accounts of both Comp<sup>y</sup>; in Consequence of which, M<sup>r</sup> Morrison, then the commanding Officer of the Washington Rangers, sent his accounts with me when last at Philadelphia, to deliver to the Captain, who was Expected down in Obedience to y<sup>r</sup> Order; but he never appeared through the three months that I was in the City, and Consequently had to bring the accounts back unsettled. M<sup>r</sup> Morrison now Expects to settle them himself, and I hope your Excellency will please to give Directions accordingly—permit me here to Tell you, that M<sup>r</sup> Morrison is a Very Vigilant officer, and under the Character of an honest and upright man.

Your Excellency will also please to remember, that I informed the Board that your Orders for discharging the Company of this County did not arrive to M<sup>r</sup> Morrison, until one month after the date or time the Compy. should have been discharged ; but that on receiving the Orders they were immediately discharged ; that during this Time, the Company did duty, and provisions were Issued as usual,—your Excellency and Council, on this representation, agreed to pay to the Comp'y and Contractor for the superfluous Time of Service. I only mention this Circumstance to refresh your Excellency's memory, and by refering [to] your minutes I presume it will be found ; it is matter of fact which I hope your Excellency will recollect.

I have the hon<sup>r</sup> to be,
with perfect Esteem & respect,

JAMES JACKS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Sir,

I have observed that the new Commissions for the Magistrates, that Council have sent me in order to be recorded, differ very much from the old ones since the Revelation, the former specified a commission of the peace, Common pleas, and Orphans court, but the latter seems confined, some to the peace, and others to the common pleas.

There are some Gentlemen here, that are of opinion, that notwithstanding the old Commission of the peace, is Expired agreeable to the Constitution, that they remain still a Justice of the Common pleas, untill such times as Council superseeds them, and that by virtue of their old Commission altho' the seven years is past, have a right to take acknowledgements of Deeds and sit as Judges in the Court of Common pleas—it seems to me that Council are of a different opinion by their sending several new commissions of the Common pleas to those who were Justices before these seven years past, I would therefore request you would lay the matter before Council, so that they would be pleased to send me their opinion concerning the premises in order that I may act agreeable to their direction.

I am sir, with the greatest respect,

your Excellencys most

obedient humble servant.

CHRISTOPHER HAYS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Westmoreland County, 12th May, 1784.

Sir,

After my respectful compliments to your Excellency and Family, I would beg leave to observe something with regard to our Western Country. I am informed by good authority that Indians have killed two men about two weeks ago at or near Cross creek on the western extremity of this State. And at Kentuoke they have killed, this last Spring and Winter about eighteen Persons.

People seem to be uneasy that nothing appears to be doing with respect to a Treaty with the Savages!

The late appointment of Lieutenant of the County of Fayette seems to give the well affected to this Government some umbrage! and I think very justly! If those we have been contending with so long, and after having had so much trouble to support the Rights of Pennsylvania against a People yet enemies in their Hearts to the Government are to have their Lands Patented at ten shillings sterling for Hundred acres and those who have been good subjects and have suffered for their attachment to the Government to pay at the rate of ten Pounds and they to rule over us into the Bargain, is extraordinary indeed! Suppose no Person had contended for the rights of Pennsylvania in this quarter, and universal consent had been gained by Virginia, is it probable that you would have effected ample Justice to the State so readily? Seeing the manner faithful subjects of Pennsylvania are treated; would your Excellency wonder if they would be ready to join any party or new State faction that might offer? I am persuaded your Excellency must have had matters misrepresented; It cannot be your Excellency's wish to give the least offence to the good citizens of this Commonwealth. If men of Character and Circumstances; men who have borne the burthen thro' the War are to be displaced from office and no reasons given, no Complaint, no hearing to Justify themselves, If there are, few indeed, I may say few that have any Reputation to lose will Care to accept of any office under the Government.

My kind Compliments to General Ewing, General Irvine & Col. Wall.

Am Sir with the highest respect,

Your Excellency's most obedient

Humble servant,

CHRISTOPHER HAYS.

His Excellency John Dickinson, Esquire, President of the State Pennsylvania.

COMMISSIONERS FOR TREATING WITH INDIANS TO PRES.
DICKINSON, 1784.

Sir,

We beg leave to acknowledge the receipt of an official letter from your Excellency of the 29th of February last* informing us that the Supreme Executive Council "in pursuance of a Resolution of the General Assembly of the twenty-fifth of last September had appointed us) in conjunction with William Maclay, Esq,) commissioners to hold a Treaty with the Indians claiming the unpur-chased Territory within the acknowledged limits of this State for the purpose of purchasing the same."

* Col. Rec., XIV., p. 40.

Highly sensible of the honour conferred and the Trust reposed in us we should have embraced an earlier opportunity of returning our thanks to your Excellency and Council and of communicating with you upon the important business of our appointment, but circumstances occurred soon after the receipt of your letter which made it absolutely necessary for Mr Maclay to visit his Family with whom he still remains, similar circumstances presented themselves to Col<sup>l</sup> Atlee since which until very lately we could not with propriety address you on this subject.

Conformably to the Desire of Council as expressed in your Excellency's Letter, of our obtaining the fullest Information as soon as possible, of all the circumstances that will be connected with the execution of this trust, we beg leave first to observe, That the Indians to be treated with are the Six Nations, viz., the Mohawks, Oneidas, Tuscaroras, Onondagas, Cayugas, and Senecas, the Shawanees Indians and Delawares. With regard to the notices to be communicated to them and the persons by whom such notices shall be sent, we conceive there would be a great propriety, in these particulars, of acting in conjunction with the Continental commissioners.

We beg leave to suggest that Samuel Weiser (whose Father was much esteemed by the Six Nations and formerly their Interpreter at almost every Treaty for a series of years) is considered by us as a suitable person not only to serve the notices but to act as an Interpreter, being fully acquainted with their Language & Customs from a long residence in their Country and also possessed of their confidence in so high a Degree as even to be adopted among them.

In regard to the most suitable time & place of holding a Treaty you will permit us to observe we entertain an opinion that the power of fixing these will be exercised more properly by Congress through their Commissioners, but being informed that the continental commissioners have not formed a Board at New York through the non-attendance of several of the members and that General Butler is now on his way to Congress to make report of the arrangements necessary to be made previous to a treaty, we cannot therefore until his Return or untill we shall hear from him give an answer on this Head with any possible precision, unless it shall be the opinion of your Excellency and Council that we are authorized to negotiate a Bargain with the Indians for the unpurchased Lands within the State independent of the United States, in which case with Submission we conceive Tioga or Wyalloosing on the East Branch of Sasquehanna to be the most proper place to meet the Six Nations, at the same time we beg leave to remark that the Disposition of the Delawares at the Treaty of 1775 at Fort Pitt (and we are informed the same spirit still exists,) clearly evinces the necessity of having them present at any Bargain we shall make with the Six Nations, the Delawares at that Treaty having declared themselves independent of them, so that perhaps it may deem'd expedient to have another Council Fire kindled to the westward to accommodate the Delawares, Shawanese and such of the Western Tribes as may be in any wise interested.

The provisions necessary to be laid in for the Indians during the Treaty we conceive should be at the expence of the Continent provided we do not treat separately, and in respect to the form of the Treaty most proper to be adopted, we apprehend it eligible to pursue former precedents as near as possible many of which we are already possessed of, presents we presume are highly necessary a List of the articles together with an estimate of their prices we shall have the honour to lay before you hereafter.

We will just add that sundry contingent expences will arise in transacting this Business, such as hiring Expresses, sending Messengers into the Indian Countries, procuring Strings & Belts of Wampam &c. We therefore submit to the Consideration of Council the sum which shall be deemed absolutely necessary for these purposes.

After submitting another opinion whether a joint Commission should not be made out for us under the Seal signed by the president in Council we beg leave to subscribe ourselves,

Your Excellency's most obedient and very humble servants.

SAM. J. ATLEE,

FRANCIS JOHNSTON.

COUNCIL TO PROTHONOTARIES, 1784.

Secretary's Office, Philadelphia, May 27th, 1784.

Sir,

By direction of Council I inclose you some printed forms of Returns of Elections for Justices of the Peace, which you will send to the several districts in your County.

Council desire that no precept for holding a new Election in any district be issued until after a vacancy shall happen by the expiration of seven years from the date of the Commission, or otherwise as the law directs. You will therefore be pleased to give the necessary information on this head to the several districts.

Council also wish you to be particularly attentive in the distribution of the Laws and Minutes of the Gen. Assembly, as there are many complaints from different parts of the state of neglect in this business.

PROPOSALS FOR "LABELLING" THE CITY AND FOR A DIRECTORY, 1784.

To His Excellency the President And the Honourable the Executive Council for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

May it please your Excellency and Honours,

The inclosed Plan having been shewen to a number of respectable Gentlemen and Merchants in this City and meeting with their Approbation; it is now humbly submitted to your Excellency and Honours: respectfully hoping it will merit your Protection and Authority to carry it into execution.

* These lots were bounded by Second and Third Streets, in N. L., near Green St.

To the Public in General, and the Citizens of Philadelphia in particular,

When the projector of any Scheme which he wishes, or intends for public benefit or utility, makes it public, it ought to be clear, distinct & unembarrassed, and the end proposed immediately obvious; the necessity should strike every man at the first View; the following proposals, it is humbly hoped, being possessed of and filled with this striking quality, must be evident to every good Citizen, and well wisher to this flourishing & opulent City.

As uncertainty and perplexity are ever held bars in the way of Commerce, and impediments in Business; and as the present undirected, and confused situation of this great City is at this period, the proposers of the following plan, having maturely weigh'd, and digested their present scheme, but being unable on their own bottom to carry it into execution, on that full, extensive, and elegant plan, which it demands and with which it ought to be executed, and that, as no tax can be levied for the same, or any man obliged to pay his money without his consent, the proposers are under the necessity of applying to the public whose generosity, and protection, have ever been liberal on similar occasions.

The proposers therefore wish to open a Subscription for the regular labeling every Street, Lane, Court, Alley, and distinguishing every public Edifice, Building, Seminary & Meeting in the City, to be neatly and distinctly painted on boards, to be placed at a convenient, and proper height, in right angles, at each corner of every Street, Lane, Court, and Alley, and the houses to be regularly numbered on the several doors, beginning at the extremity of the City from North, to South, and from East, to West, proceeding numerically through the whole.

The proposers farther intend, with the concurrence and assistance of the Gentlemen, Merchants, Traders & others, to publish an annual and General Register, and Directory, alphabetically & numerically digested, of the Residence, Business, or Occupation of every house-keeper, agreeable to their numbers throughout the whole, which will be a sure guide, and easy Pocket Companion to all strangers, and not without its immediate use, even to the oldest residents, and which will intirely do away that uncertainty, and frequent perplexity which at present so generally subsists, and is so much the complaint of all foreigners, and in a great measure prevent the trouble of enquirers, and the labour of instruction, in making ignorant persons understand the long directions, and all strangers would at one View find out their friends, acquaintance, and adress, by applying to the Book, under the Title of the Philadelphia Annual and General Directory.

Should the above Sketch merit the attention of the Public, the proposers further intend opening a public office of Register and

Intelligence, in one of the most public streets of the City, where on any persons removing from one place to another, they may immediately apply, and have their residence register'd anew, and where one of the parties will constantly attend to give intelligence and information; and for the transacting all Business in the Register and Intelligence Office, on the same Plan, as in London, Dublin, &c.*

June 1st, 1784. Proposals for Labelling the City. Read in Council & rejected.

DEPOSITIONS RESPECTING ESCAPE OF C. J. DE LONGSCHAMP, 1784.

Pennsylvania, ss.

Before the Honorable the Vice President of the State of Pennsylvania personally appeared William de Luce, late Captain in the American service, and being duly sworn deposeth and saith, That on Thursday last, he attended at the Chambers of the honorable George Bryan, Esquire, in order to give bail for the appearance of Mr. De Longchamps in case it should be necessary, where he understood the matter was to be determined at three o'clock the same day at the State house. That afterwards Mr. De Longchamps went

* It is uncertain who was the author of the foregoing proposals as they bear neither name or date, being indorsed as "of June 1784, having been read in Council and rejected," though they are not noticed on the minutes. As two Directories were printed the next year, 1785, it is probable one of the Compilers was the author. These were Francis White and Capt. John Macpherson, both of whom were brokers, &c. They were the first Directories printed in Philadelphia, and were perhaps in opposition to each other—the plans differ.

"White's Philadelphia Directory" was an 8vo. pamphlet, containing 88 pages of about 45 names, arranged partially in alphabetical order, and contained also Miscellaneous matter, viz., lists of Public Offices, Ministers, Lawyers, Physicians, Stages and Packets, &c. Not having the advantage of numbers, the residents are said to live in such a street, between such and such streets.

"Macpherson's Directory for the City and Suburbs, extending to Prime St. southward, Maiden St. northward, and 10th St. westward," was a duodecimo pamphlet, containing 152 pages of about 40 names each. The editor took the pains to number the houses, even stables, and allowing for the spaces to be built up; his plan was, to follow "the course of the sun from whence the numbers commence," i. e. "the cross streets from Market beginning at the N. W. corner, and ending at the S. W. corner." The names are more perfectly arranged alphabetically than White's. There is one eccentricity about it, however; when he applied to a person who would not furnish the name (as was frequently the case) instead of the name he would set down opposite the number, the answer given, thus "what you please," "I shall not give it," "I won't tell you," &c. Both compilers expected to issue annually. It is probable that Macpherson made the above application to Council. It is believed no other Directory was published till 1791, (when the city was perhaps regularly numbered) by C. Biddle.

out with the sheriff, & went to his own house. this deponant joined Mr. Turner & Mr. McPherson and went up stairs of Mr. Longchamps house with them. That he saw the Sheriff in the room & immediately Mr. Longchamps came in, & the Sheriff asked him how Mrs. Longchamps did, and if he was ready to go to Goal with him : Mr. Longchamps said his wife was very sick, & asked the Sheriff for Leave to shift his cloathe that he might attend the trial in the afternoon properly. That the Sheriff gave him leave & desired him to make as much haste as possible that he might conduct him to Goal Immediately Mr. de Longchamp's went out & Mr. McPherson & Mr. Turner soon after followed him. This was about half an hour after twelve o'clock. That in a little time Mrs. De Longchamps came down & took up stairs a pitcher of water, and then came down again & took up stairs a piece of soap. That Mrs. De Longchamp came down a third time and sat in the room with the Sheriff & this deponant after some conversation about her health & her not being able to visit Mr. De Longchamp in Goal, the Sheriff took out his watch & desired Mrs. Longchamp's to go up & tell her husband that he could wait no longer—She went up & soon afterwards came down & said her husband was not up stairs—Immediately the Sheriff run up stairs & searched the house, & then went down stairs & desired people who were passing to help him to search the house & to discover Mr. de Longchamps. That the Sheriff made enquiries every where in the neighbourhood if any person had seen him (de Longchamps) go off. That the horse which was at the door when this deponant went in, was not there when the Sheriff came down after searching the house. That every part of the house was searched, & the Sheriff sent off for constables ; and when they came, the Sheriff went to get his horse, & this deponent went off also. That this deponent has never seen de Longchamps from the time he went out of the room where the sheriff was, as above related. That he knows nothing further of the manner of his escape. That he has never heard any person say where he is concealed—That he does not know the hand writing of either of the Letters now shown to him, addressed to Mr. Marbois, nor by whom they were sent ; nor has he ever heard who wrote or sent the said Letters or either of them—And further this deponant saith not.

Philad<sup>a</sup>, to him assigned &c., personally appeared George Turner, who being duly sworn & of full age doth depose & say—That about noon on last Thursday he was going to the Chamber of Mr. Justice Bryan, & in Vine street saw Mr. Wm McPherson who called to this deponent & informed him that the Argument respecting Mr. De Longchamps was adjourned; whereupon this deponent turned back and accompanied Mr. McPherson to the house of Mr. De Longchamps. That Mr. McPherson asked him to go up stairs, which he did, and there found the Sheriff in a room as he believes alone, that soon after de Longchamps came in & said that his Wife was sick, & on the bed. That some conversation then took place between the said de Longchamps and the Sheriff, the purpose of which this deponent understood to be, that Mr. de Longchamps wanted to put on clean cloaths—That the Sheriff told him he could wait, but desired him to lose no time. That De Longchamps then went out, & this deponent soon after went out also with Mr. McPherson—That this deponent did not discover any thing on the part of the Sheriff that discovered any intention of improperly favoring the prisoner de Longchamps. That this Deponent did not see de Longchamps after he left the room as aforesaid, nor does he know any thing further of the manner of his Escape.

The above deponent being further examined saith—That he now recollected that the Sheriff (Colonel Proctor) did in the Chev<sup>r</sup> de Longchamp's House and Presence, and before Major Macpherson, observe that some Report had passed concerning a supposed undue Indulgence extended by him, the Sheriff, to Longchamps, and that though mere Reports, it had rendered it extremely improper for him to extend any Indulgence at that time—alluding (as this Deponent believes) to a wish expressed by Mr. Longchamps, or some of his Friends, that he might be permitted to remain in his own House 'till the hour appointed for hearing Council on his Case, which was to have been argued the same Day, as this Deponent is informed.

G. TURNER.

Be it remembered that on the fifth Day of June, in the year of Lord one thousand seven hundred & eighty-four before me the Subscriber one of the Justices of the peace in & for the county of Philadelphia, personally appeared Wm. McPherson, who being of full age and duly sworn doth depose That on the third day of this month, this deponant attended at the Chambers of the Honorable George Bryan, Esq'r, before whom Mr. De Longchamps was brought by virtue of a habeas corpus, in Custody of the Sheriff of the County of Philadelphia—That after Mr. de Longchamps left the Chambers of the Judge, he went in Custody of the said Sheriff to his own house & this Deponant followed him. That this Deponant & Mr. George Turner went up stairs, where he found the Sheriff, and soon after Mr. de Longchamps came into the room, & said that Mrs. de Longchamps was ill—The sheriff asked him if he was ready to go to goal, Longchamps said he was in no hurry to return there, & expressed some surprise at the design of having the matter tried in public & he said it would be necessary to clean or dress himself—That thereupon the Sheriff said if he would go and do it he would wait and desired him to be as expeditious as possible—Whereupon de Longchamps went out & this deponant & Mr. Turner soon after followed him, went down stairs & did not see Longchamps afterwards. That this deponant remembers there was a horse bridled and saddled before the house de Longchamps or the next house at the time when the deponant went into the house of de Longchamps—That this deponant did not discover anything in the conduct of the Sheriff that seemed designed to favor the escape of the prisoner—That he knows nothing farther of the manner in which de Longchamps escaped.

W. MACPHERSON.

Sworn before me,
ISAAC HOWELL.

W. Macpherson recollects that the Sheriff did in the Chevalier De Longchamp's house and presence and before S. Turner observe that some Reports had passed concerning supposed undue indulgence which the Sheriff had extended to De Longchamp, and the men report it rendered it extremely improper for him to give any further indulgence.

MONSIEUR DE MARBOIS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Philadelphia, June 8th, 1784.

Sir,

In the absence of the Minister of the King I received and opened your Excellency's letter dated the 4th instant. It contains assurances that no collusion took place in the occasion of the Escape of Mr. Longchamps. For that point I don't hesitate to rest on the assertion of the Supreme Council, & I would ever readily acknowledge that nobody was privy to his evasion unless proofs were found to the contrary: but I am sure it has not escaped your observation that there was a very ill placed confidence, a most unwarrantable neglect on the side of the officers of the State, when they suffered a man guilty of so heinous a crime, so easily to run away from the hand of justice.

I received also, Sir, the proclamation you have been pleased to issue in the occasion. I had no doubt to find it as usual in Saturday's paper, Gazette, or at least, in the Pennsylvania Packet of this Day. Permit me to ask, Sir, if your intention is that it be published as other proclamations, have been in much less important cases; Dispatch in the publication of their proclamation through all the United States might have produced the apprehension of the offender, & I cannot but lament that his escape will involve the State in farther Difficulties, which we very sincerely desire to prevent.

With perfect respect,

JOHN HUBLEY TO PRES. DICKINSON.—COURT HOUSE
BURNED, 1784.

Lancaster, June 11th, 1784.

Honored Sir,

It is likely before now you have heard that the Court House in this place has been entirely consumed by Fire. I received this disagreeable account on my way to Lancaster from your City, and from any thing that I can collect here, I find that all is guess-work how this affair happened.

The House underwent some repairs this summer, and the Plasterers were at work ; a quantity of Lime was put up in the inside for that purpose, to secure it from the weather—some suppose the Lime set it on Fire—others suppose that a Clock-maker, who was conducting the weights of the Clock in a different channel from that they formerly run in, used some Fire and was negligent. The Clock-maker denies he used any Fire in his work—and, many conjectured that it was wickedly set Fire to by some unknown villain, so that the affair remains as yet in the dark. Happy it is for this place that the mischief has ended with the loss of the Court House only, as a strong south-west wind was blowing, and carried the Fire in great quantities over great part of the North-East part of the Town ; and tho' the Calvinist Meeting House, which stands at a considerable distance from the Court House, and several other buildings, took Fire, yet it was happily extinguished without much damage. I thought that this affair might be confusedly Reported in the City, therefore have given you such information as I could collect in the few hours I have arrived here.

I am, sir, with the utmost respect,

Your very hble. servant,

JOHN HUBLEY.

J'ai passé plusieurs années avec trop de satisfaction dans cette ville pour ne pas éprouver de vifs regrets au moment de m'en éloigner. Les intérêts des deux nations sont si étroitement unis que sans cesser d'être François j'ai pu me considérer comme Citoyen des treize États et séparé des miens pendant plus de cinq ans et dans des tems difficiles j'ai trouvé dans cette ville toutes les compensa-

Je prie votre Excellence de permettre qu'en prenant congé d'elle et du conseil je l'assure que je conserverai toute ma vie le souvenir de l'amitié dont j'ai reçu des marques tant de sa part que de celle des citoyens de cette ville. Je les prie de me la conserver et d'être persuadé que les sentimens qui m'attachent à ce pays ci ne finiront qu'avec ma vie.

CHRISTOPHER HAYES TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Westmoreland County, 14th June, 1784.

Dear Sir,

My best Compliments wait on your Excellency and Family. I take this opportunity to inform your Excellency that a considerable number of Inhabitants (formerly Virginians, and in opposition to the Laws and Government of this state,) have now turned out open Robbers, and so notorious that scarce two days pass that some outrage is not committed in one part or other of this Country, tho' Fayette and Washington Counties seem, at present, to be the principal seat of Depredation. Last Wednesday the Collector was robbed near Besins-Town, in Fayette County, of about twenty-two pounds, in Cash, his Warrant and Duplicate taken from him and his person grossly abused. Sundry other robberies have been committed lately in Washington and Fayette Counties, mostly on the Property of the most noted defenders of the Country during the late conflict.

Although the Indians have been very troublesome to the Inhabitants in the Kentucke neighbourhood this spring, we have had the happiness to live here in the most perfect peace and security as yet, and from the best intelligence lately had from Sandusky and Detroit, we have nothing to apprehend from that quarter, as the Northern Indians seem generally disposed for Peace, & anxious for a treaty. The disturbances at Kentucke are occasioned by the Cherokees.

I would beg the favour of your Excellency to send me the late acts of assembly by my son-in-law, Captn. Henderson, and the favour shall be gratefully acknowledged by

Sir, with the highest respect,

Your Excellency's most obedient

Humble Servant,

MEMORIAL FROM FAYETTE Co., 1784.

Fayette County, June 15, 1784.

To his Excellency John Dickinson, Esquire. President of ye Supreme Executive Council.

Honrd. Sr.,

The Inhabitants of Stewarts Crossings, beg leave to represent your Excellency.

That we were much surpris'd on being presented with ye Copy of a Letter by one of your worthy members, which was sent to your Excellency informing you, that a considerable number of ye Inhabitants (formerly Virginians) in opposition to the Laws and Government of this State, have now turned out open Robbers. We are happy that we have it in our power to present this to your Excellency by the hands of a Gentlemen, whom we hope will do us the Honour to state us impartially in our fair character, without respect of parties, as this Gentlemen is well acquainted with ye circumstances of ye whole matter in doing us the Honour of accompanying us in going in search of those Robbers, and suppressing such Beggars. We acknowledge we were brought up under ye Government of Virginia, and were ruled by that Government whilst the Territorial Disputes subsisted between the two States. But when they thought proper to adjust ye Boundaries, we were willing to submit to ye Laws of Pennsylvania, and hope your Excellency will find us as true Citizens as any belonging to ye State, as we have made it evident on every occasion. We have always been willing to risque our all in the glorious cause, we have been so long contending for, which we can make manifest by Sundry Gentlemen who are as fully acquainted with us, as the author of that Letter which was sent to your Excellency. And amongst others, Col. McClene who has suffer'd on fatigue, with those who seem at present, to be the objects of such malevolent ridicule without the least reason. We were happy in believing that all party matters were buried in oblivion, but are greatly concerned to find the contrary. Col. Hays has related in another Letter to your Excellency, that those who bore the Burden of ye War must now be ruled over, by those who are Enemies in their Hearts to ye State. We would appeal to ye knowledge and Candour of the several Officers who have commanded in this Department, whether the people thus stigmatized have been more backward in defence of our common rights than any of our neighbours. We must beg your Excellency's pardon, for making so free, from ye most intolerable character your Excellency had of us, but we shall refer you to that worthy Gentlemen Major Douglass, who is rather better acquainted with us than Col. Hayes. So makes held to subscribe ourselves your Excellency's most obedient and humble Servants.

TURNBULL MARMIE & Co., TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Philad., June 16th, 1784.

Sir,

We have this morning received from on Board the Brig Dauphin from Havre De Grass Twenty Kegs of Powder, which we sent as customary to the State Magazine. The same has been returned to us, by the Keeper, with a message that it could not be received on account of the Magazine being full. In consequence we made application to the wardens of the port, for their directions to take cognisance of the same. By their Letter which we take the Liberty of inclosing, We are recommended to lay the case before your Excellency, and beg leave to request your advice and direction necessary to be done with it, which shall be duly attended to by your Excellency's most obt. hum. Servts.

Gentlemen,

The Wardens of the Port having no Direction of the Powder Magazine have it not in their power to obviate your difficulty nor can they advise what can be done unless by application to the Supreme Executive Council who perhaps in the present exigence may point out a Temporary Relief.

The Powder Officer will no doubt either make or Join you in making the Application but it would be improper for the wardens to intermeddle in it, I am respectfully on behalf of the Board, Gentlemen, Yr. very Hble Servt.

PRES. DICKINSON TO CHEV. DE LA LUZERNE, 1784.

To his Excellency Chev<sup>r</sup> de Luzerne Minister Plenipoten<sup>r</sup> of his Most X<sup>t</sup> Majesty to the United States.

Sir,

The Executive Council of Pennsylv<sup>a</sup> cannot witness your preparations to embark for your Native Country without expressing the pain we feel at the prospect of your departure, & the high Sense we entertain of the Zeal, and Ability with which you have promoted the Union of France with the United States, during your residence among us.

We beg leave to assure you at the same time that the return of peace, and our General intercourse with the powers of Europe have not in the least lessened our Sense of our many obligations to the illustrious Monarch of France, nor our gratitude for the benefits we derived from the bravery and treasure of the French nation.

We are happy in this opportunity of acknowledging that your conduct towards the Supreme Executive power of the State has been uniformly marked with all that decency, and respect which characterise the Gentlemen of the nation to which you belong.

Accept of our best wishes for your Safe and Speedy Voyage, may you long possess the favour of your Sovereign, and the esteem of your Country Men, and enjoy in every stage of life the pleasures which arise from faithful contributions to the interests of humanity.*

FRANCIS JOHNSTON, R. G., TO V. P. EWING, 1784.

The Honorable James Ewing, Esq<sup>r</sup>, Vice President in Council.

Sir,

I beg leave to inform Council, that the late Law for opening the Land Office, among other things, makes it necessary for me to administer an oath to Applicants for Land, if deemed proper, in order to ascertain their Citizenship, so as to entitle them to present the Certificates enumerated in said Law in payment for Lands. Here I cannot help observing, that the Door which this Law opens to the unwary leading to perjury, ought to be shut, if possible, in order to effect which in some degree, I beg leave to suggest, that if your honorable Body would direct the Agents appointed to receive the Final Settlement Certificates of the Pennsylvania Line, to Countersign the same, it would fully supersede the necessity of administering an Oath, and indeed would more certainly prove the Citizenship of the original owner, than any other mode whatever : With regard to the ascertaining the Citizenship of the Assignee of such Certificate I presume no fixed rule can be established, I therefore shall be guided in this particular by such contingent circumstances as shall present themselves to me. The safety of these Certificates after deposited in my office as well as the Cash I shall receive, are also very essential matters, therefore take the liberty of Soliciting Council for an Iron Chest, or some other convenience in which I can secure them.

* See page 278. Also, see Col. Rec., Vol. XIII., p. 145.

I have the honor to be

Your Honors most obedient

The minister left this place in full persuasion that the address with which he had been honoured by the Council was an answer to his letter; otherwise he would never have left this place without expressing his Sense & gratitude of the flattering sentiments of the council in his behalf.

JOHN IRWIN TO JOHN ARMSTRONG, 1784.

Pittsburgh, July 15th, 1784.

Dear Sir,

I would not presume to trouble you in your public Capacity upon any other subject than that which relates to the business of Government & the welfare of our Community.

When these Objects becomes the subject, I am persuaded that any further appology is unnecessary with you. It may justly be reckoned a strange Circumstance, indeed, that since the beginning of our Revolution the Town & Township of Pittsburgh have been untill very lately, unfortunately deprived of the services of the Civil Magistracy—and I may say with propriety, that we yet remain almost intire Strangers to the advantages Commonly derived from that very essential part of Government. The Gentleman who now holds the Commission being our Prothonotary & a Professional Lawyer besides, it is reasonable to suppose that the duties of his office & the extent of his Practice will admit but a very small part of his time to be applied to the business of the Township—Consequently the inhabitants thereof are frequently subjected to many & very great inconveniencies. We have for several years past repeatedly attempted to remedy these Inconveniencies by calling for & obtaining such Elections as were Judged requisite, but from the baneful effects of Piques & jealousies, opperating strongly with disappointment & ambition, means were always found to defeat our attempts & deprive us of the Service of those Gentlemen who were the first objects of our repeated Choice. Our last Election, held in May, is the only one I believe that has escaped opposition & Censure amongst ourselves, & we have reason to believe that the Return thereof must now ly before the Honble Council for upwards of two months. As the Gentleman who stands highest in Votes upon that Return is perfectly agreeable to all the people, & we daily experience an increase of difficulties from the want of his additional service, I do therefore in behalf of the people beg leave to Intreat that as soon as any limitation is expired which the Law may prescribe for considering Cases of this nature, the Honble Executive Council will be pleased to forward a Commission agreeable to the Intention & Return of said Election. I likewise intreat of you, Sir, that you will be so obliging as to move this matter to Council, & promote as far as is consistant, what is needful upon the Occasion.

I am respectfully, & with regard,

Dear Sir, your Obed. Hble Serv<sup>t</sup>,

JOHN IRWIN.

Directed,

John Armstrong, Esquire, Secretary to the Honorable Executive Council, Philada.

Fav'd by Capt. Fowler.

CHIEF JUSTICE MCKEAN TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Philadelphia, July 16th, 1784.

Sir,

Enclosed your Exoellency will receive the Letter from the Honorable G. Duvall, Esquire, President of the Council of Maryland, that was referred to the Judges, together with the Copy of their Letter to Mr. Duvall, respecting Henry Carberry.

Governor Pace, in his Letter to the Judges, seems to think it will be necessary to obtain the authority of the Government of Delaware for the conducting Mr Carberry thro' that State; and that the Executive Power of Maryland can only extend to the limits of their own State: But I conceive, that, by a necessary construction of the 4th Article of the Confederation, which declares, that the person accused shall be delivered up and removed to the State having jurisdiction of his offence, the Executive Authority of Maryland are impowered to conduct the offender thro' Delaware to the State of Pennsylvania; for this power is impliedly conceded by the United States to the Individual States. It is true, by a literal construction of the second clause in the 4th Article, the offender is only to be removed to the State having jurisdiction of the offence, not to the Goal of the County in which the offence was committed; but we were of opinion, that the Officer who should bring Henry Carberry from Maryland, might not find it inconvenient to take him to Philadelphia, tho' it would be twenty miles within the State of Pennsylvania; and we alluded to the usage & practice between this State and New-Jersey, and also the Delaware State; having repeatedly sent Criminals to Newcastle and Burlington, and received them from those States in the Goal of Philadelphia.

I have the honor to be,
with very great regard,
Sir, Your Excellency's most obedient humble servant,
THO. M'KEAN.

His Excellency John Dickinson, Esquire.

No. 1.

In Council, Annapolis, 29 April, 1784.

Sir,

We take the earliest Opportunity of communicating to your Excellency, that Mr. Henry Carberry, a Citizen of this State, and late a Captain in the Pennsylvania line of the continental Troops, has been arrested, and charged before two of the Judges of the General Court, with having been a principal in a dangerous Insurrection in Philadelphia, in June last, and having beset the Stadt house with an armed force, and for which he is now in the Custody of the Laws of this State, the Judges before whom he was charged having recognized him for his Appearance before the General Court for the Western Shore, on the second Tuesday in May next.

We have the Honour to be

G. DUVALL, President.

Directed,—His Exc'y President of State of Penns<sup>a</sup>.

Indorsed,

Read in Council May 6th, 1784—and Ordered, That the same be referred to the Judges of the Supreme Court, and that they be requested to take measures for bringing Henry Carbery, into this State, and for prosecuting him for the Offence charged against him.

JAMES TRIMBLE,

for JOHN ARMSTRONG, jun.,
Secretary.

No. 2.

Philadelphia, May 8th, 1784.

Sir,

Your Letter of the 29th of April last, to his Excellency the President of this State, was received on the 6th Instant, & laid before the Council, who have been pleased to refer it to the Judges of the Supreme Court, and to request that measures may be taken by them for bringing Henry Carberry into this State, and for prosecuting him for the offence charged against him.

In consequence of this Act of Council, We would request that you would be pleased to order the aforesaid Henry Carberry to be sent to the goal of the city and county of Philadelphia, where the Keeper thereof will receive him ; or if he will enter into a recognizance before one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of this State, with two good sureties, himself in two thousand pounds, and each of them in one thousand pounds, for his Appearance, &c., at the next court of Oyer and Terminer and General Goal Delivery for the city & county of Philadelphia, it will answer the purpose intended. The request to send Henry Carberry here, is founded on the second clause of the 4th Article of the Confederation, and has been the constant usage between this State and the neighbouring States : The expence of his removal here, will be paid by this State, if he does not discharge it himself ; or comply with the alternative before proposed, which must be thought favorable to a person accused of so high a misdemeanor.

We have the honor to be,

Hon<sup>ble</sup> Sir,

Your most obedient, humble servants,

THO. M'KEAN,
JACOB RUSH.

The Honorable G. Duvall, Esquire, Presid<sup>t</sup> of the Council of Maryland.

Sir,

The above is a copy of the rough draught of the letter to the President of the Council of Maryland, at Annapolis, and differs in nothing material from the Letter sent. The diction may have been a little mended, in the transcribing it, tho' I think there were but few words altered or transposed.

I am, with the greatest esteem, Sir,

Your most obedient, humble servant,

THO. M'KEAN.

Philadelphia, July 16th, 1784.

Directed,

His Excellency John Dickinson, Esquire, President, &c., of Pennsylvania.

No. 3.

In Council, Annapolis, May 20th, 1784.

Gentlemen :

We have the Honor to acknowledge your's of the 7th Instant, informing us that our's of the 29th April, addressed to the President of your State, was received, and referred by the Council to you as Judges of the Supreme Court, to take measures to bring Mr. Carberry into your State for Prosecution and Trial, for the offences which he is charged to have there committed : in consequence of this Act of Council, you have addressed us, and requested that we should order Mr. Carbery to be sent to the Gaol of the City and County of Philadelphia.

As soon as we were made acquainted with Mr. Carbery's Affair,* we took measures to give your Executive power the earliest information of it, conceiving that by the Articles of Confederation, they only could nationally interfere, and demand him out of the Hands and Jurisdiction of this Government: the 4th Clause of the Confederation is plain and explicit, and we still think no Authority in your State competent to demand Mr. Carbery but the Executive.

It does not appear from your Letter that you were Commissioned and Authorized to demand Mr. Carbery: you address us in your judicial Capacity, and not as the Commissioners of your Executive: the Act of Council which you mention, seems to have had a different Object, and refers only to taking measures to bring Mr. Carberry to your State for Trial.

When your Executive shall think proper to exercise their Authority in the present Case, and make a Demand of Mr. Carbery, we shall immediately order him to be delivered up, and removed to your State. But we do not think we can be justified in the exercise of any Authority over him beyond the Limits of this State: he must be delivered by our Officers at the Limits and there received by your's. If he is to pass thro' Delaware, we conceive the Executive and Judicial Authority there should be made acquainted with the Affair, and their ministerial Officers ordered to receive him of our's, and conduct him to your Limits, where your Officer will take charge of him, and carry him to such Gaol in your State as you may think proper to direct.

Not having had the Honor of any communication from your Executive in Answer to our Address on this Subject, we can say nothing of their Intentions, and it does not become us to repeat the Information by another Letter, as the one we have already wrote has been received. We have the Honor to be,

with very great regard,

Your most obed., humble Servants,

JOHN PACA.

ALEX. McCLEAN TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Union Town, 16th July, 1784.

Sir,

A copy of a Letter said to have been addressed to your Excellency from some person in this county, containing reflections upon such of the Inhabitants as have formerly adhered to the Government of Virginia particularly aimed at the appointment of Colonel Robert * See page 74, and 292.

Beall to the Lieutenancy of this County has been handed to me amongst others.*

And I have also been applied to by some of the Gentlemen who think themselves injured by the remarks contained in that Letter, to certify to your Excellency whether they have deserved to be branded with a backwardness to join in whatever has been proposed for the common good or defence of this frontier during the War. In consequence of this their request, in justice to truth and to the Inhabitants of Stewards Crossings (who seem to be particularly pointed at,) I must inform your Excellency that so far from declining any personal or other assistance that has been deemed essential to the good of the country at large those very people thus stigmatized have ever been as uniformly free of their personal service and as liberal of their property on all occasions as any others within my Knowledge.

With those very people who are said to have had so little share in the burthen of the War, I have shared the fatigues of the most difficult Campaign that has been carried on in this country, and was a Witness to both their sufferings and fortitude. Many of them have been in the Continental service, and Colonel Beall in particular during a great part of the War.

I am with Sentiments of esteem, for your Excellency and the Supreme,
Executive Council of Pennsylvania,
your Excellency's most Obedient,
and very humble Servt.

CONFERENCE WITH MESSRS. LEE AND BUTLER, 1784:

Conference with Messrs. Lee & Butler on their Letter.

They represented The necessity of Dispatch in raising the Troops, & Perhaps a Guarantee of the Pay to the Soldiers may be necessary.

Answer of Col.—We have viewed this Business in the same Light.

—Expect the members of the Assembly will make a House next Monday—we shall lay the affair before them in such a manner as to show our opinion that not a moment of time is to be lost in the Execution of the Measure.

As to the 2d. Point—We cannot be positive, but we think it probable, that from the Circumstances of the Case, the Legislature may consider these states bound to make good the pay to the officers & Soldiers.*

SEC'Y ARMSTRONG TO THE MAGISTRACY AND SHERIFF OF NORTHUMBERLAND Co., 1784.

Philada., July 24th, 1784.

Gentlemen, .

We are sorry to learn that the disturbances in the neighbourhood of Wyoming have within these few days revived under so serious a form & that the two parties have proceeded to actual hostilities. In this situation it becomes the duty of Council to require you by every legal means in your power thoroughly to investigate the facts & to proceed with the utmost vigor, & impartiality, so that every Person committing an outrage upon the peace of the County, & the dignity of the State may be duly punished. The more effectually to countenance these proceedings Council have thought proper to direct the Lieutenant of Northampton County to hold a militia detachment in immediate readiness to proceed to your aid should any assistance of this kind be thought necessary.

I am, &c., with great regard, Gentlemen, your most obed. humble Servant,

JOHN ARMSTRONG, Jun., Secy.

Indorsed,—July 24th, 1784, Copy of a letter to the Magistracy and Sheriff of North'd Co., the original committed to Mr. Mead for conveyance, Entd.

* The foregoing appears to be a rough memorandum of the conference in President Dickinson's writing. As there is nothing on the minutes respecting it, it is all that appears on the nature of it.

SEC'Y ARMSTRONG TO THOMAS CRAIG, 1784.

Secretary's Office,

Philad'a, July 24th, 1784.

Dear Colonel,

The disturbances at Wyoming have taken so alarming a cast and seem to be immediately directed against the peace & dignity of the State—as to call for some very early & vigorous measures on the part of Government. Letters have accordingly been written to the Sheriff & Magistracy of Northumberland County, requiring them to institute an immediate enquiry into the facts & proceed to the execution of the laws with all possible energy. To give the greater force to these proceedings, Council have also thought proper to direct you to hold some part of your Militia in readiness to act at a moments warning, as from many circumstances they are lead to believe that the exertion of a military force will soon become necessary.

I am, my dear Col.,

yours, &amp;c., &amp;c.

JOHN ARMSTRONG, Jr., Sec'y.

Indorsed,

To Thomas Craig, Esq., Lieu't of Northampton Co.

SECY ARMSTRONG TO THOMAS CRAIG, ESQ., LIEUTENANT OF THE COUNTY OF NORTHAMPTON, 1784.

Secretary's Office, P<sup>a</sup>, July 29th, 1784.

Sir,

I beg leave to transmit the enclosed Resolutions of Council of this day*—They will sufficiently explain the Intentions of Government.

Captain Boyd & myself have already directed a supply of Ammunition to be forwarded to you. We shall exert ourselves to procure an immediate Conveyance for it.

The Resolutions which regard the County of Northumberland, are dispatched thither by Express, & we hope that an immediate co-operation may be brought about.

I have now to request, from personal as well as public motives, that you will make choice of such Officers as from your acquaintance with them, will best merit your nomination & the Confidence of the State.

Enclosed is the additional supplement to the Militia Law, under which you are to act.

We propose to set off to-morrow or next day, at farthest, & hope to find ourselves enabled to proceed without any great delay.

I am, dear Col.,

y<sup>r</sup> Ob. & very humble ser't,

JOHN ARMSTRONG, jr., Sec'y.

SEC'Y ARMSTRONG TO SHERIFF OF NORTHUMBERLAND CO., 1784.

To the Sheriff of Northumberland,
Philad., July 29, 1784.

By the enclosed Resolutions, you will find it the intentions of Government to proceed with the utmost energy against every person, without discrimination, who has outraged y<sup>e</sup> Tranquillity of the State, —By the 3<sup>d</sup> Resolution, you will observe the necessity of going hand in hand wth Captain Willson—& with him, awaiting the farther directions provided for by the 4th Resolution. The ground opposite the mouth of Nescopeck Creek, is assigned as the place of Rendezvous.

I am, &c., &c.,

JOHN ARMSTRONG, jr., Sec'y.

Some of y<sup>e</sup> writs to be executed are enclosed.

Endorsed,

SEC'Y ARMSTRONG TO WILLIAM WILSON, ESQ., LIEUT. OF COUNTY OF NORTHUMBERLAND, 1784.

Philad., July 29, 1784.

Sir,

Enclosed you have a copy of some resolutions of Council of this day.* They are of such a nature as to require your greatest possible industry & attention.

In addition to them, I have to tell you—that Council, from the confidence they have in your capacity & Attachment, wish you to engage for the supply of the Troops which may be called forth by your Order. The price they propose to give, is 10½ D. per Ration. The quantity to be procured must depend upon your own Calculations—for as this business will be subject to much Contingency, it is impossible for Council to hazard a single conjecture on that score.

I have also to communicate their wishes, that you will not only pay the greatest attention to the Character of the Officers nominated to the Command of the men, & by all means avoid such as have been distinguished by their predilections to either side of the Question—but that you will also come on with the troops yourself to the ground opposite to y<sup>e</sup> mouth of Nescopeck Creek, where we will endeavor to meet you with the Northampton Detachment. As it is impossible to calculate with much precision upon the movements of Militia—we cannot venture to name the day on which we shall be there, but the probability is, that we shall reach it before you, as it is our intention to move as expeditiously as possible. If so, we will communicate with you by letter, or otherwise, & direct to what other point you are to shape your movements.

The Sheriff of your County will receive the Orders of Council to co-operate with us, & under the countenance we shall afford, be prepared to execute the writs which have been issued by the Judicial authority.

You will remember, also, to bring with you whatever ammunition or other public stores that may be deposited at Sunbury; if you should have no powder, you will make a purchase of such quantity as will be necessary for your party, as it might be imprudent to come forward without it.

I have only to add, y<sup>t</sup> if you should be at the place of Rendezvous before us, you will take such steps as will best secure you against disasters of any kind.—All this command, however, you are to exercise with great address, & let it appear to be rather the effect of advice & persuasion, than the result of authority.

To Capt. Wilson.

THOMAS CRAIG TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Easton, July 22<sup>d</sup>, 1784.

Sir,

I inclose a return of the outstanding fines (except twenty five pounds some shillings that has been collected in the sixth Battalion and paid into the Treasury) in the first, third, fourth and sixth Battalions, for the fall 1783, and of the first, third, and sixth, for the Spring 1784, I have not been able to get a return for the Spring 1784 of the fourth, commanded by Colonel Kean, nor any of the second and fifth, commanded by Colonels Beahm and Stroud.

Doubtless your Excellency and the Honorable Council, will think me wanting in point of duty, for not having made this return fully by the first of this Instant, but flatter myself that when, you come to consider how difficult it is to collect them from the different parts of the County, the people they are to be got from, and that I am totally unassisted by preceeding examples, you will I hope make just allowance—for permit me to assure your Honorable Body, that I have done everything in my power, except that of putting the law in force, and that should have been done before this time, only that I waited for the abstracts of the outstanding fines, that have been delivered to the Comptroller General by my predecessors, in order to make the business of the collection more easy, and less expensive. I am told there was no orders issued for exercising in the Spring of 1783, and that the Militia did not assemble, consequently their will not be any returns made for that period.

I have the honor to be

PRES. DICKINSON TO MESSRS. BOYD & ARMSTRONG, 1784.

In Council, August 10, 1784.

Gentlemen,

We have received your Letter by Captain Schott, and are in Hopes, that when the Insurgents are convinced of the determined Resolution of the Government, to insist upon a due submission to the authority of the people of Penn<sup>a</sup>, they will desist from further violences.

As soon as they are in that Disposition, you will please to have the proper legal steps taken, that those who have disturbed the Peace, of whatever party they are, may be rendered answerable for their Conduct. It shall be our Endeavour, as it is our Duty, to impress this Principle, that it is extreme folly for men to expect, they shall promote their real Interests by a Contempt for the Laws of their Country.

The Fortifications at Wyoming we would have levelled and totally destroyed, & the Cannon, arms removed to Sunbury, & their safely deposited.

COMM'ES OF THE COUNTY OF PHILADELPHIA TO COUNCIL,

To His Excellency John Dickinson, Esq<sup>r</sup>, President, and the Honourable the Supreme Executive Council of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen,

The Commissioners having been applied to for some of the Iron work of the Old Goal, which induced us to examine the Laws respecting the Sale of the Old Goal, Work-house and house of Correction, find by an act passed the 26th day of February, 1778, page 483, that the Commissioners were impowered to make Sale of the Old Goal, &c. By a Supplement to the Act intituled "An Act for erecting a New Goal, Work-house and house of Correction, in the City of Philadelphia," passed 1775, page 523, wherein it is recited, that the Commissioners were impowered by the first mentioned act to sell the Old Goal &c. On a further examination of the Laws, find that by an act passed the 28th day of Feb'y, 1780, page 269, in the third Section, that the power of making Sale of the old Goal &c., is taken from the Commissioners, and vested in the Supreme Executive Council, which puts it out of the Commissioners power to give the applyers an answer. We beg the favour of Council to take it into consideration, and give us their directions.

MICHAEL RYAN TO COUNCIL, 1784.

To His Excellency the President and the Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Supreme Executive Council of Pennsylvania.

The Memorial of Michael Ryan,

Humbly Sheweth,

That your Memorialist being an Inhabitant of this State very early embarked in the Cause of America, and served with reputation in many Capacities, as he can elucidate from General Washington's approbation of his Conduct when he left the Army and other respectable Testimonials. That your Memorialist continued in the said service between three and four years and when he resigned it was owing to his being injured in his Rank from an accidental appointment which then took place. That as soon as your Memorialist left the Service of the United States he was immediately thereupon appointed Inspector General of the Militia of this State, and thus altogether remained in the Public Service as a Military Character the principal part of the Late War. That your Memorialist obtained Certificates for his depreciation of pay from the Auditors appointed under the act of assembly in that case made and provided which Certificates have been long since transferred and negotiated as Money Bona fide and justly due to him.

That a Capias ad respondendum has now issued against your Memorialist to recover back of him the am<sup>t</sup> and value of the said Certificate (being about £547) and your memorialist is now in the Custody of the Sheriff of this City and County. That your Memorialist conceives it very Cruel after disposing of a Certificate obtained in manner aforesaid to be called upon to refund the same.

Your Memorialist conceiving himself very much injured under these circumstances is advis'd to apply to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> House of Assembly for redress.

* See Col. Rec., Vol. XIV., p. 178.

He therefore in the meantime prays your Hon'ble Board will be Pleased to stay and Postpone the proceedings against him and make such order in the premises as to your Wisdom may seem meet.

Your Memorialist will ever pray, &c.,

PRES. DICKINSON TO LIBUT. COL. HARMER, 1784.

In Council,

August 14, 1784.

Sir,

Agreeable to our Communication of this Day; You will proceed immediately to enlist and embody three Companies of Infantry, Each consisting of seventy Men, and fifty Men as part of Artillery Company.

In performing this service, you will please to conform strictly to the following Rules:

First—To guard against Imposition, every Recruit, before his Attestation be signed, is to be carefully examined, least he should have a Rupture, fits, or some other Disease, which may render him incapable of performing the more active Duties of a soldier. All such, and also, all persons who have been in the British service at any time during the late War, and also, all persons who have been in the American service and have not been honorably discharged, are to be absolutely rejected, and those of the best Character, both as soldiers & Men, to be selected.

Secondly—When an unexceptionable Recruit shall be engaged, you are to take or send him to some justice of the Peace, who finding him to be sober, & having read to him the form of the inlistment, & attestation is to cause the recruit to sign the said inlistment, & then administer to him the oath herewith inclosed duplicate of which attestation and inlistment the justice shall witness. Of these one Copy is to be transmitted to this Board, the other you will retain in your own hands.

Thirdly—The inclosed form of inlistment & attestation is to be invariably observed.

Fourthly—As an Encouragement for the inlistment of such Recruit, you are authorized to offer on the part of the United States the Pay, subsistence & Rations heretofore allowed to the Troops of The United States, and one months pay after the Troops are embodied before their March.

Fifthly—Council expect a weekly Report of your progress in this Business till it be concluded.

I am, Sir,
your obedient & hble. Servt.,

JOHN DICKINSON.

Directed,

Lieutenant Colonel, Josiah Harmer.

Acknowledgement & Attestation.

I acknowledge myself to be fairly & truly inlisted in the Pennsylvania Troops commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Josiah Harmer for the space of one year, unless sooner discharged.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my Hand this Day of 1784.

Witness.

I do swear to be true & faithful to the United States of America, that I will faithfully serve them in the Troops commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Josiah Harmer for the space of one year from the Date of this attestation unless sooner discharged, and that I will be obedient to the orders of Congress and of the Committee of the State in the Recess of Congress; and to the officers who are or shall be set over me, according to the Rules & Regulations formed for the government of the late Army of the United States, or such Rules and Regulations, as Congress or a Committee of the State may form. So help Me.

MONS. DE MARBOIS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

(Translation.)

Philadelphia, 15 August, 1784.

Sir,

I cannot too much thank your Excellency for having furnished me with an opportunity to amend the mistake of the Copyist in the Letter, which I had the honour to write to you on the 8th of June last.* It is so palpable, and the Sense which it presents so contrary to the respect which I profess and Owe to the Supreme Council, that I am really grieved at not having sooner had an opportunity of transmitting to you the original of this Letter.

I have the honour to send you an exact Copy of it, and I beg you to consider the other as null as it is so in fact.

I eagerly embrace this opportunity of Requesting you Sir, to assure the Council of my unremitted attention to whatever may contribute to the maintenance of the Friendship and good Understanding between the two Nations, and of the satisfaction which I feel in meeting with the same dispositions in your Excellency and the Supreme Council.

ELECTION OF COMMISS'RS TO EXAMINE THE SUSQUEHANNA, 1784.

State of Pennsylvania,

Tuesday, August 17, 1784. A. M.

Agreeably to the order of the day, the House proceeded to the election of a Commissioner (in the room of William Montgomery, Esquire, who hath resigned) to examine the navigation of the Susquehanna to the sources of the same, and ascertain as near as conveniently may be where the northern boundary of this State will fall, particularly whether any part of Lake Erie is within the State of Pennsylvania, &c., conformably to a resolution of the late Assembly, passed the fifteenth day of September last, when the ballots being taken it appeared that Joseph Montgomery, Esquire, was duly elected.

PRES. DICKINSON TO ROBERT MORRIS, 1784.

In Council, August 19, 1784.

Sir,

Colonel Harmar has this morning reported to us, that you do not think yourself empowered to furnish the sums requisite for subsisting the Quota of Troops required from this Commonwealth by the Resolution of Congress of the third Day of June last, and that therefore he cannot proceed in enlisting the Men, tho' numbers have offered.

By the seventh of the said Resolutions it is directed, "That the Superintendant of the Finances of the United States take order for furnishing on the Warrant of the Secretary of the War Office, the sums requisite for carrying the foregoing Resolution into effect."

Conformably to the Letter and Spirit of this Resolution the General Assembly has by the Late Law founded on the beforementioned Act, ordered, "that the pay, Rations & subsistence of the officers & Men shall be the same as have been heretofore allowed, provided such pay, Rations, Subsistence & other Expenses of raising, supporting & maintaining the said Troops be furnished by the United States."

We are of opinion, that this State ought only to furnish and not to feed the Men; & we should be extremely sorry, that after such prompt & zealous Exertions on the part of Pennsylvania, for accomplishing the Intentions of Congress, the whole Plan should be now defeated by a Construction put upon their Expressions by any of their own officers.

Directed,

To the Hon. Robert Morris, Esq., Superintendant of Finances.

ROBERT MORRIS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Office of Finance, 19 August, 1784.

Sir,

I had just now the Honor to receive your Excellency's Letter dated in Council of this Day. I had the Pleasure of a Conversation with Col<sup>o</sup> Harmar this Morning: In the Course of it I expressed my opinion that as the United States had made a Call for Militia they could hardly have had it in Contemplation to pay any expences of raising Recruits or of supporting them until after they should be assembled in Readiness to obey Orders to be issued by Authority of Congress. I took Occasion also to observe that the States of Connecticut, New York and New Jersey being at a Distance from the Public Treasury could not apply for Money to defray the like Expences should they pursue the same Mode of furnishing their respective Quotas.

Since the Receipt of your Excellency's Letter, being apprehensive lest the Construction I had ventured to put upon the Expressions of Congress should be contrary to their Intentions, I had Recourse to the printed Journal and am rather confirmed in my former Idea. For I find that a motion was made to add the following Clause. "That where the Laws of any State will not admit of their Militia being called out on the terms prescribed in the foregoing Resolutions such State may be permitted to engage the Quota of Men

* Col. Rec. Vol. XIV., p. 182.

"assigned it, in such manner as the Legislature thereof shall direct." And I find that this Motion was set aside by the previous Question.

I shall not pretend to enquire whether the Act of your Legislature is or is not conformable to the Letter and Spirit of the seventh Resolution quoted in your Excellency's Letter. I have great Respect for the Wisdom of the honorable Assembly, I entertain a just Sense of the prompt and zealous Exertions made on the Part of Pennsylvania, and I should feel much Regret if the Plan were defeated. My Construction of the seventh Resolution is contained in the answer of this Date to a Letter of Yesterday from the Secretary in the War Office of both which I have the Honor to enclose Copies.

I have the Honor to be

Sir,

As it is necessary that the officers previous to receiving their commissions should have taken the Oath of allegiance to the State. I can certify to your Excellency & the Honorable Council that Captains Finney, Douglass, Ziegler & McCurdy, likewise Lieut<sup>s</sup> Herbert & Doyle, & the Surgeon McDowell have already taken it. The other officers I cannot certify to, but have not the least doubt, but the Oath has been taken by them.

Your Excellency and the Honorable Council may be assured that previous to my delivering them their commissions; I will be well convinced that every one shall have taken the Oath.

I have the honor to be, with the highest Esteem

& Respect, Your Excellency's & the Honble Councils most obt. Serv<sup>t</sup>,

REPORT & RESOLUTIONS OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY, 1784.

State of Pennsylvania. In General Assembly,

Wednesday, August 25, 1784.—A. M.

The report of the committee read August 23, was read the second time, and adopted as follows, (viz:)

The Committee to whom were referred the several papers relating to Indian affairs, with directions to confer with the Supreme Executive Council; beg leave to report as the joint opinion of that Board and your committee.

That weighty reasons have occurred in favour of the design for holding a conference with the Indians on the part of this State, and if under the present situation of Continental affairs, that measure can be conducted on sure ground and without too unlimited an expense, it ought to take place and be rendered as effectual as this House can make it, under whose auspices a foundation would be thus laid of essential and durable advantages to the public, by extending population, satisfying our officers and soldiers in regard to their donation lands and depreciation certificates, restoring that ancient friendly and profitable intercourse with the Indians and guarding against all occasions of war with them.

These are the objects to be attained, truly interesting and so well adapted to insure the attention of this House, that your committee offer the following resolutions.

1st. Resolved that the Supreme Executive Council be authorised and requested to prepare a present of Nine thousand dollars worth of such goods, merchandize and trinkets as are known to be very acceptable among the Indians, to be given them in case a purchase is concluded, but as part of the consideration of such a bargain; And that the said goods be carefully forwarded wherever the commissioners may direct, and the above sum, and any further supply, not exceeding one thousand pounds that Council may think necessary for the said Commissioners contingent expences shall be drawn by the President in Council from the State Treasurer; the said Commissioners to be accountable for such sum as they shall receive.

2dly. Resolved, it is the sense of this House that should the Continental Indian treaty be delayed, the Commissioners on the part of this State, shall notwithstanding proceed and call together the Indians who claimed the unpurchased territory within the limits of this State, particularly the Six Nations, Delawares and Shawanese for the purpose of finally purchasing the said territory agreeable to ancient usage.

3dly. Resolved, that the Supreme Executive Council be requested to furnish such further instructions to the Indian Commissioners as shall appear from time to time, conducive to the good purposes explained in the foregoing resolutions.

Extract from the Minutes.

PRES DICKINSON TO LT. COL. ARMSTRONG, 1784.

In Council, August 30, 1784.

Sir,

We have received your Letter of the 21th Instant† with the inclosures, & have this Day put them into the Hands of a Committee of the General Assembly.

That Committee is appointed for the purpose of bringing in a Bill to prevent any Interruption by suit of Certiorari or other writ, to legal proceedings for restoring forthwith to the persons who were violently dispossessed in May last the Lands & Tenements which they then occupied.

This Measure is adopted in Conformity to the sentiments of the Board & the Chief Justice, as well as of the Legislative Branch of government, and the Insurgents may be convinced by considering the circumstances existing at the Time when it was adopted, that nothing but a Regard for Equity has prompted it. If they repeat their violences, they will at length render themselves answerable to public Justice for so many offences, that they must expect a very different Treatment, which it is in the Power of this Commonwealth to inflict at the Instant when it is in her Inclination.

We therefore desire that you will order the men who are collected at Bowman's Creek, immediately to disperse; & to inform them and others what will be the Consequences to themselves if they continue to disturb the Peace of the State.

Captain Boyd proposes to set off for Wyeming in a Day or two, who will bring more particular Intelligence.

I am with a very great Esteem, Sir, your most obedt. and Hbble. Servt.

JOHN DICKINSON.

Lieutenant Colonel Armstrong.

PRES. DICKINSON TO GOV. PACA OF MARYLAND, 1784.

In Council, Philadelphia, August 30th, 1784.

Sir,

When we had the honor of receiving from the Council of your State the Letter of the twenty-ninth of April last, We referred the affair therein mentioned to the Judges of the Supreme Court*, not doubting, but it would be conducted according to the constant usage in similar Cases between this State and the States of New Jersey and Delaware.

The Chief Justice and Judge Rush have communicated to us the Objections that have arisen.

To expedite the Business, We have sent the Bearer Mr. Joseph Bullfinch, and request that Mr. Henry Carberry may be immediately delivered into his Custody at the limits of Maryland and of this State, in order that he may be brought into this County, and tried for the offence with which he has been charged.

I have the honor to be,

with great Esteem Sir,

Your most obedient humble Servant,

INSTRUCTIONS TO COMM'RS FOR TREATING WITH THE INDIANS, 1784.

In Council, Philada., August 31st, 1784.

Gentlemen,

As soon as you receive information of the time and place where the Continental Treaty shall be held with the Indians, you will consider it your duty to attend the same with ye utmost punctuality and for your better information on this subject it will be advisable to correspond with some of the Continental Commissioners.

We inclose a Copy of the Resolutions of the General Assembly of the 25th Instant† by which you will perceive the sense of the Legislature on the subject of your Commission.

You will chose the most favourable opportunity of signifying to the Indians your Intention of purchasing ye unpurchased Territory within ye Limits of Penna. & produce at the same time your Commission for that purpose, as there can be no doubt but the Continental Commissioners will readily yield you every possible aid in your negotiations on the part of this State, you will therefore be particularly careful on your side, to facilitate as far as you can, the important business which the United States have committed to them

In negotiating with the Indians you will regulate your conduct by the principles of Justice as well as the most exact Economy, obtaining credit for the Goods wh. you may deliver having the Deed of purchase duly executed to the Commonwealth, and fixing the balance yt shall remain due, which balance should be in goods rather than money, as such intercourse may be the means of reviving a Trade with the several Tribes interested; and in this respect, you may depend on the faith of Government for discharging any contracts which shall be made by you.

In all your deliberations with the Indians you will use your utmost endeavors to conciliate their affections and gain their confidence rather than irritate their tempers or provoke their resentments.

I am Gentlemen,
with very great Regard,
your obedient and humble servant,

INSTRUCTIONS TO THOMAS PROCTOR, SHERIFF, 1784.

In Council, September 1st, 1784.

Sir,

Inclosed is a Letter for the Governor of Maryland,* demanding Mr Henry Carberry to be immediately delivered to Mr Samuel Bull-finch, deputed by you for the Purpose of receiving and conveying him to the new Goal in this City, to be tried for the Offence with which he is charged.

* See page 326.

You will give Orders to Mr Bullfinch to obtain a Deputation from the Sheriff of Chester County, for conveying the Prisoner through that County, & to use the utmost Care & Diligence in bringing him up. We expect Mr Bullfinch will convey our Letter without Loss of Time to Gov<sup>r</sup> Paca.

I am, Sir,

Your most obed<sup>t</sup> serv<sup>t</sup>,

JOHN DICKINSON.

Thomas Porter, Esquire, Sheriff of the City & County of Philadelphia.

GOV. PACA, OF MD., TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Annapolis, 5th September, 1784.

Sir,

I have the Honor to acknowledge yours of the 30th August by Mr Bullfinch.*

The President of our Council wrote you on the 29th April, that Captain Carberry had been arrested and Recognized by our Judges to appear at our General Court to be held on the Second Tuesday in May: By our Laws, our Courts have Jurisdiction, and may try our Citizens for Treason committed in any of the States against this or any of the United States, and Carberry's Offence was conceived to be of a treasonable Nature: But Congress having recommended that he should be sent to your State, where the Offences were committed, and the Confederation making it a matter of Right that the Offender should be tried where the Offence was committed, if he should be demanded by the Governor or Executive Power, our Court did not proceed on the Affair, but held Mr Carberry in Custody, expecting him to be demanded according to the Confederation, on the above Notification from the President of the Arrest and Offence charged; the Court sat almost a Month, and no Demand being made, they took his Recognizance to appear at their next General Court, which will be held the second Tuesday in October next.

When I did myself the Honor of writing to your Judges, on the 20th May, our Court was then sitting, and Mr. Carberry was in Custody ready to be delivered up.

I have given the above Detail in order to account for not having Mr. Carbury on the spot to deliver up to your Officer, Mr. Bullfinch.

Mr. Carbury shall be immediately informed of your Demand, and I have every Reason to think he will voluntarily attend your Judges and surrender himself up. If he does not, our Judges, on his appearance at the next General Court, will deliver him up to the Ex-

JOHN REYNOLDS, JAILOR TO SHERIFF PROCTOR, 1784.

After thanking you for the favour done me, in Communicating the Contents of a Petition to his Excellency the President of the State, Sent to his Excellency by the most daring & Dangerous Villain, on earth one Liblong :

I must beg leave to state the facts as they truly are, & if the least doubt should arise, proof can be made to your satisfaction, & to the public;

This Liblong was committed by his Honor the Chief Justice, on the first Day of December, 1784 which follows in these words, forasmuch as Andrew Liblong of the City of Philadelphia, Mariner, has been brought before me, & Charged Upon Oath with assaulting, beating, & wounding, George McFreely of Carlisle in the County of Cumberland yeoman, & another person whose name is yet Unknown, so that their Lives is Greatly Despaired of; &c., &c.

This Liblong was tried & Convicted with some other of the same Gang, & fined £100 each to this Commonwealth, & Give Security for their Good Behaviour for one year to Come;

This Liblong on the night of the 17th of May last, broke the locks from his Room Door, and then proceeded to the next Room & Liberated all that was in that Room; by breaking the Lock off, & then Joyned both Gangs together making 23 Desperate Blood thirsty Villains in number, then Cutt & broke the fastenings of the yard Door, the Locks & other Fastenings so spoilt are now in my Hands to be seen if Called for; Sir you have already seen them; then the whole party proceeded to the yard, & eight of them with

Liblong with a Long knife in his Hand headed them & Effected their escape, I Engaged the Rest of them and subdued them to Confinement, & sent for you Sir to inform you of what had Happened;

On the 18th day of May I took such measures as I thought most Adviseable to Apprehend those that Escaped, I went to Mrs. Andersons in whose house two of the wives of two of the Prisoners Lived that Escaped, after some Conversations with the woman I found that Liblong was to be had, & I offered a Reward of ten pounds for Liblong. About Eleven o'Clock one of the women Comes to me and told me that Liblong had just Rode by her House in a Chair with a white Horse in it, & Liblong Dressed in Green Cloths, I then pursued & soon saw Liblong on foot walking down Walnut street, & then I Raised a hue & Cry after him in these words, stop Thief, Liblong kept a Great number of the Citizens off with a Long knife in one hand, & a Pistol in the other, & not one person approached so near as to take him. I myself took the most favourable opportunity & with a stick that some Gentlemen that stood by put in my Hand, I knocked him down & while he was down two of my own men Took him by the feet to keep him from Getting up, & Draged him a piece on his Back & then I discovered his watch Chain Draging on the Ground and I took it from him & have it now. After getting him to Gaol some person Brought his Shoes & Buckles in and gave them to me which I also have, his knee Buckles I had from himself to keep for him, as for any money I never saw, but this I know, he hired the Chair & Horse of Michael Shoemaker in Market Street, & Liblong had no money to pay for the Chair Hire but Mr. Shoemaker's son was going with him for the pay for the Chair & Horse when I Pursued him & took him, & Sir the Beating he Complains of was for threatening your Life & mine. Also you, yourself being personally present and you Remained there untill he was put in Irons & Secured, which is the Very Irons he Complains of, about 50 lb. or less;

On the night of the 13th of July about 12 o'Clock, I Discovered No. 4 broke which was the Room Liblong & 13 more was in, & about one half of the number in the Room, the other half was down at the foundation of the Gaol at work, & a Blanket over the hole to prevent my seeing the Light, Liblong Called out with a Loud Voice stand to it Boys, kill or be killed, & as Liblong Commanded I obeyed, I knocked down the first that aproached me, and then the next, & one of them prickt in the Arm with a small sword pled for mercy & he would Discover the Ringleaders, & said that Liblong was the man that proposed the Escape, & after they got out they were to knock at the front door & Get me up by telling me the prisoners were breaking out of the East wing, & by that means Liblong was to lay hold of me & Kill me; upon this news I gave Liblong a severe Beating and put him in a Room by himself about four weeks in the same Irons he has always born, & having him always in my mind I have waited upon him myself once every Day & permitted a woman that's Confined in the Jail whom he Calls his wife in his Letters to go to him with provisions every Day ;

Mr. Liblong seems to have a longing Desire to be Released from his Irons & be permitted to be upon the front of the Jail ; if that should take place you would need no Jail for there would be no prisoners to occupy it ;

Sir, I have here given you only a part of the Conduct & behaviour of Andrew Liblong, Relative to some particulars that he has wrote to his Excellency the president about ;—he also complains of my Inveteracy against him, because he is a Frenchman, there is Lewis Colonel and Charles Goodryon Convicted and fined for the same offence with Liblong & they are Frenchmen, why are they not so ill Treated, because they are orderly, Quiet, well behaved men, & Refused to be Concerned in breaking Jail with Liblong & his party, which is the noted Philips, Conrad and Williams, & the Doans, & sundry others, but Sir this party ought never to be at Liberty Day nor night they are so dangerous a gang, & there is hardly any such thing as keeping these wretches in Irons for they find means to cut them off every Day or two by the assistance of their friends, bringing saws, files, & other Instruments for their purposes, Baked up in pies & Loaves of Bread, witness these kind of transactions every day ;

Sir, I have paid to a Certain Elizth Anderson ten pounds for her Information of Liblong, & the full worth of Liblong's watch & Buckles shall be faithfully accounted for or Delivered, but for the present I Cannot give them up to my own Loss or for to answer Mr. Liblong's intentional Escape with his friends before mentioned, which is now Ready pland & waiting for the opportunity to put it in execution but it is the mainspring of the watch is wanted & not the watch.

And lastly—Sir, you well know my Care & attention for your Interest & my own safety in Conducting the business of your Jail, & beg that the Sheriff will be pleased to give me a Hearing on all such occasions, & if any further explanation should be wanted, I beg to be Called upon, for that purpose & believe me Sir nothing shall be wanting on my side in doing the Duties of my station for your interest & my own safety, & at the same time see that every thing is done that prudence & humanity Dictates for the Relief of the poor and Distressed here ;

I am Sir with all Due Respect

your most obedient & humble servant,

JOHN REYNOLDS, Gaoler.

In Council,

September 10th, 1784.

Gentlemen,

You will perceive by the Resolutions of the General Assembly of the 7th Instant, & our Act of yesterday, inclosed that you are appointed Commissioners, for executing a Trust of Great Importance. Relying on your Integrity, Prudence & Zeal for the public Interest. We shall only say, that we wish the Business may be soon completed. It may be of considerable use, if you could obtain a List of the names of those persons not claiming under Pennsylvania, who have settled at or near Wyoming since the Decree made at Trenton.

You will be pleased to observe that the Decree at Trenton was made on the thirtieth Day of December, 1782, & that there are several papers in the Hands of the Clerk of the General Assembly, which might facilitate your Enquiries. These Papers were laid before the House by Mess<sup>rs</sup> W<sup>m</sup> Montgomery, Moses McClean & Joseph Montgomery, the commissioners nominated in February, 1788.

Sir,

Upon ordering the troops, raised in this State, for the purpose of the Treaty with the Indians, to prepare for an immediate march to Pittsburg, we are informed that several of the officers are absent from their duty; Who they are will be represented to your Excellency by the Colonel commandant of those troops.

As the public service requires the immediate attendance of all the officers, and indeed, did require it from the moment of their appointment; We take the liberty of requesting your Excellency and the Council to appoint persons who are present, and who will immediately attend to their duty, in the place of those who shall be reported as absent. The attention your Excellency and the Council have hitherto given to the expediting this indispensable support to the Treaty, makes us rely upon a compliance with what we now request.

JOHN SCHREIBER TO SECY. ARMSTRONG, 1784.

Sir,

I wrote to you sometime since and informed you, respecting one of the Gable ends of the Barrack's here that has been thrown down by the fall of two stacks of chimneys of Doctor Frederick Kuhn's. I now understand that the Doctor means to remove the Bricks, not only of the Chimney's but also those that were thrown down in the Gable end and convert them to his own use.

Application having been made unto me to Lett the powder Magazine at this place, for the purpose of storing some powder the property of some of our Storekeepers, in consequence of which I have applied to William Henry, Esquire, for the Keys of the Magazine, who has several time refused to deliver them, untill the publick powder, (which was lately sold) was removed thereout.

I should be glad to have your directions on these cases,

REPORT ON THE STATE HOUSE, 1784.

State of Pennsylvania.

In General Assembly,

Wednesday, September 22, 1784.—A. M.

The report of the committee read September 9, was read the second time and adopted as follows, (viz:)

The committee appointed to examine the condition of the State-house, beg leave to report such repairs as appeared most immediately necessary with their estimate of the expence.

The turret roof requires new shingling, and a plain cornice continued round it to cast the rain clear of the walls.

The large outside cornice being in a dangerous condition should be repaired, and the whole of the said wood work painted, the expence including a scaffold of fifty-six feet high for the above purposes, is estimated by your committee at

£190 00 0

New shingling part of the main roof and repairing other parts, copper gutters in the vallies instead of the leaden ones that are broken, new gutters by the chimneys, repair of the balustrade on the roof, and the roof well painted are estimated at

126 00 0

To repair the ruinous battlements and prevent the damage occasioned by water running down between the Walls and Wainscot of the chimnies to the lower story, may cost

7 10 0

Painting the Cornice, doors and Windows with the Glaziers bill may amount to

79 00 0

The turret ceiling very dangerous, may be renewed for about

81 00 0

Copper spouts and a brick pavement of nine feet broad, on the East and West side of the steps to meet that of the Wings, taking up the present pebble-stone pavement and repairing the Mason work of the base of the building may cost

106 15 0

Other necessary repairs to the Stair-cases of the Wings and other parts of the buildings, not before enumerated.

30 5 0

Painting the Clock faces and gilding the hour lines.

22 10 0

To new cap the old part of the East wall inclosing the yard, and to paint the Southgates; and covering the whole of said walls.

91 5 0

Therefore

Resolved, that the Supreme Executive Council be authorized and requested to have such repairs made in and about the State-house as in the foregoing report are specified to be immediately necessary ; and for defraying the expence thereof; the President in Council shall draw on the State Treasurer for any sum not exceeding seven hundred pounds.

TO HON. JOHN BOYD, JOHN ARMSTRONG, JR., JAMES REED, JOHN OKELEY, 1784.

In Council, September 28th, 1784.

Gentlemen,

We have received your Letter of the 24th Instant, & are concerned, that such a spirit of violence prevails among the settlers.

As Captain Boyd & Coll. Armstrong have had opportunities of acquainting themselves with many Circumstances relating to the late Disturbances, it is our wish, that they may immediately repair to Philadelphia, that we may receive from them all necessary Information.

Messrs. Read & Okely are impowered to proceed in the Execution of the Commission; and we hope, that when the nature of it is fully made known to the deluded People who have been so troublesome, they will perceive, that it is dictated by a Desire, to treat them with Equity.

If such interruptions shall be given to the proceedings of these two Commissioners, that they cannot with safety discharge the trust delegated to them, their presence at Wioming will be useless for the Business is of such a kind, that it cannot be accomplished but in free Conference, with the settlers. An armed force would not promote it; and besides such a measure would not be agreeable to the sense of the Legislature. We rely upon the Prudence & firmness of the Commissioners, that they will make every possible effort before they relinquish an affair of so much importance.

I am.

P. S.—With Respect to Grain raised on disputed Lands it appears to us upon a Consideration of all Circumstances equitable, that it should be divided among the Claimants in an amicable manner so that their present necessities may be as much as possible relieved, & those that may reasonably be apprehended in the approaching winter, be prevented.

We should be glad to know in particular the names of those settlers who were expelled last spring, & of such of them as are now again repossessed of their Houses, Lots or Lands.

WRIT FOR ELECTION IN BUCKS Co., 1784.

Pennsylvania [Ss.] John Dickinson.

The President and The Supreme Executive Council of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

To Adam Hay one of the Constables of the District of the Townships of Easton and Forks in the County of Northampton, and Andrew Ledlie and Jacob Abel Assistants to the said Adam Hay at an election held in the said District on the sixteenth day of June last, upon a vacancy occasioned by the Expiration of the Commissions of John Arndt and Thomas Sillyman Esquires.

Whereas an Election was held in the District of the Townships of Easton and Forks in the County of Northampton, on the sixteenth day of June last, by virtue of a Precept of Robert Levern, Esquire, bearing date on the fourth day of the same month, and to you the said Constable directed, upon a vacancy occasioned by the Expiration of the Commissions of John Arndt and Thomas Sillyman, Esquires, late Justices of the Peace in and for the said County, and the Return of the said Precept hath been made, certified and delivered under your hands and Seals respectively, and under the hand and Seal of Peter Leip, Inspector of the said election; And Whereas the said Election hath been by us considered and declared void, We do by these Presents authorize and Command you the said Adam Hay, Andrew Ladlie and Jacob Abel to hold an Election upon the Twenty-seventh day of this month at eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon of that day, within the said district, by the Freeholders of the same, of four Justices of the Peace elect, to supply the vacancy occasioned by the Expiration of the Commissions of the said John Arndt and Thomas Sillyman, Esquires, and to certify and deliver the Return thereof, according to the Act entitled "An Act to remedy the defects of the several Acts of Assembly heretofore made for regulating the Elections of the Justices of the Peace throughout this State and to establish a permanent mode of holding such Elections and to authorize the Justices of the Peace of Philadelphia, to hold the Courts of Record of the said City;" And you the said Constable are hereby further required to affix a notice in Writing of the issuing and design of this Precept and of the time and Place, when and where such Election is to be holden, at six or more of the most public Places within the same District at least ten days before the Twenty-seventh day of this month.

Given in Council under the Hand of His Excellency John Dickinson, Esquire, President and the Seal of the State at Philadelphia, this Seventh day of September in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and eighty four.

Attest, James Trimble

for John Armstrong, jun'r, Sec'y.

In obedience to the within Precept we the Subscribers the Judge and one of the assistants within mentioned met with the other assistant Andrew Ladlie at the Court House in Easton on the Twenty Seventh day of September within mentioned, and at the Time therein appointed to hold an Election of Four Justices of the Peace for the District of Easton and Forks as we are therein authorised and commanded. That when we were about to open the said Election, the said Andrew Ledlie first hesitated & afterwards refused to attend the said Election, and went out of the Court House, so that the Subscribers after waiting in the Court House till after two o' the clock in the afternoon had it not in their power to open and carry on the said Election as within commanded. Witness our Hands the Twenty Eighth day of September in the year of our Lord one Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Four.

JACOB ABEL,
ADAM HAY.

ROBERT LEVERS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Easton, September the 28th, 1784.

Sir,

I had the Honor to receive from your Excellency in Council a Letter, enclosing a Precept for holding an Election in the district of Easton and Forks, the twenty seventh instant—Immediately I sent to Mr. Adam Hay, the Constable and Judge of the Election, read to him the Precept and the Letter, delivered the former to him, and requested he would make known the contents of the letter to Mr. Ledlie and Mr. Abel in particular—A day or two after, Mr. Abel called on me, and I produced to him, and to as many as desired to see the contents.

Yesterday being the twenty-seventh, the day fixed by the Supreme Executive Council for holding the Election, the Freeholders of the district met at the Court House, the place appointed in the advertisement, when some difficulties were started by the assistants; on perusing the Letter from your Excellency in Council, viz<sup>t</sup>, that no particular reason had been assigned by the Council for the determining the Election void, and that therefore they knew not upon what ground to go on, and how to conduct the Election—Mr. Ledlie said he could not consider the Letter in any other manner than as a private Letter to me—In answer to these objections, I could not forbear remarking, that the subject matter of the Letter plainly indicated it to be of a public nature; that the whole of the Letter plainly pointed out the Reasons for the Election having been declared void by Council, and that the Letter came directed to me, on public service, as Prothonotary of the County, and with it the Precept from the Supreme Executive Council for holding the Election, which precept was in their Possession, and of a very public nature: Mr. Peter Seip, the former Inspector, declined serving at this Election, as he was in his way, as I was told, to Philadelphia, and the Freeholders were about to chuse another inspector, when Mr. Ledlie declared he would not act as an assistant—On which I pointed out to Mr. Ledlie from the Law, and endeavored to convince him that the Election could not be held without him. It was then said, Col. Stephen Balliet, our Representative in Council, was in Easton, and the Freeholders requested that Gentlemen might be consulted. Accordingly, Mr. Ledlie waited on him, and Col. Balliet came into the Court House—And being requested by the assistants, that he would please to let them know for what Reasons the Election had been overset, Col. Balliet answered, that the Election had been declared void by Council, because the Poll had been opened after it had been closed—And added, that least, upon the Election ordered anew, any misunderstanding among the inhabitants might happen, Council had thought proper to give some instructions concerning the several objections that had been made against the Proceedings in the former Election, that the future Elections might be regularly held, and that the instructions were contained in that Letter sent to me by your Excellency in Council with the Precept. Upon this Information from Col. Balliet, the Judge of the Election, Mr. Adam Hay, and Mr. Jacob Abel, one of the assistants, agreed to open the Election directly; but Mr. Ledlie positively refused to attend the Election, and went out of the Court House to the great dissatisfaction and disappointment of the most of the Freeholders present who could not forbear, many of them, to declare their indignation against a man who would thus insult his countrymen, affront the Supreme Executive Power of the State, and despise and trample on the Laws of his Country—Nevertheless, they retained their anger within due bounds, and, like virtuous citizens, after patiently waiting till after two o'clock in the afternoon, proclaimed that they were ready and willing at all times to come forth again to assert their Rights, support the Freedom of Election and the Laws of their Country.

I judged it necessary to give your Excellency in Council this detail of the Proceedings, with as much expedition as possible, and do enclose the Precept delivered to me by Mr Adam Hay and Mr. Jacob Abel, with their Reasons for not holding the Election as they had been authorized and commanded.

There has no Precept, as yet, been issued for holding an Election of Justices of the Peace, for this District, on the vacancy occasioned by the expiration of the Commission which appointed Abraham Berlin, Esq<sup>r</sup>, & myself, Justices of the Peace—which ended the fifth day of August last; And the delay has been occasioned on this account—The Law, wherever there is a County Town in the district, authorizes the Freeholders in that district to elect Six Justices of the Peace. At the Election lately held, Four Persons were chosen, to supply the Places of Thomas Sillyman and John Arndt, Esquires, whose Times had expired. We were at a Loss to know how to act; for as there was a vacancy of Two other Magistrates also in the district, Mr. Berlin and myself, we apprehended if four Persons were chosen, it would be contrary to Law, and if only Two were chosen, there would be no choice left for the Supreme Executive Council. Upon consulting Col. Balliet yesterday, he advises the Election of Two only, in the stead of Mr. Berlin and myself, and that Council; on the Return of the Precept, may appoint One or more—So that it has since been determined upon to apply to a Magistrate for a Precept for the Election of Two Persons to be elected for the above Purpose—It being found extremely inconvenient having no Justice of the Peace in this district, and more especially in this Town.

I am, with very great Respect,
Sir, your Excellency's most obedient
and most humble Servant,

ROBERT LEVERS.

His Excellency John Dickinson, Esquire.

COMMISSIONERS FOR INDIAN TREATY TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.Fort Stanwix, Oct. 4th, 1784.

Sir,

We embrace the opportunity which is offered to us by the return of Monseieur Marbois, to inform your Excellency and the Honorable Council, of our safe arrival at this place after a tedious Journey. Sundry unexpected delays have retarded the Treaty, And the conferences were not opened till yesterday, when they were begun with four of the six Nations; the Business, in our Opinion, would not have commenced so soon had it not been at the instance of the Marquis De la Fayette, who wished to address the Indians, and was under the necessity of departing this day, or to-morrow. The Commissioners did not enter fully into the business of their appointment, they explain'd the purpose of the Treaty, introduced the Marquis De la Fayette & Monsieur De Marbois in Character of the Minister of France. The Marquis Addressed them, praised those who had adhered to us in the late War—blamed those who had been our Enemies with freedom; their Answer was pertinent, and breathed the spirit of peace. The Mohawks, in particular, declared their repentance for the Errors which they had committed. We were likewise introduced to them by the Continental Commissioners.—We have Intelligence that Ten Tribes of Indians are on their March for this place, great part of whom are expected to Morrow. When these Indians arrive, the Commissioners will proceed (we are fully satisfied) with all possible diligence.—Nothing has been done Officially in the Business of our appointment; but we beg leave to assure you, that we are not a moment inattentive to the Object of our Mission. We are happy in a perfect harmony with the Continental Commissioners, Altho' we have had many cross accidents and embarrassing circumstances from other Quarters. The delays which we have experienced, (& which we know have been unavoidable,) have indeed given us pain; But, we know that our only resource is patience, and we are determined to use it. We will not venture to give any certain Opinion as to the final Issue of our business, and can only say, that the disposition of the Indians now Assembled appears to be favorable.

We have the Honor to be,

GRAND INQUEST TO COUNCIL, 1784.

To the Honourable the Supreme Executive Council of the State of Pennsylvania.

The Grand Inquest for the City and County of Philadelphia, do represent,

That from the uncommon importation of Gunpowder lately into this City, and the inadequate size of the Publick Magazine to the purposes intended—The City is now exposed to very great and imminent danger.

That many hundred Quarter Casks of this dangerous commodity is now kept in various places within the City and suburbs, to the immediate danger of the lives and property of the good Citizens thereof.

Therefore, the Grand Inquest requests the Honourable Supreme Executive Council to take the alarming situation of the Inhabitants into their instant and serious consideration, (as the danger to be apprehended in case of Fire is truly alarming,) and adopt such measures for the safety & protection of the City, as to their Wisdom may seem meet.

Signed by Order of the Grand Inquest, this 29th September, 1784

WILLIAM RUSH, foreman.

PRES. DICKINSON TO MAGISTRATES, 1784.

(Circular.)

In Council, October 6, 1784.

Gentlemen,

In pursuance of the Act of which a Copy is enclosed, it becomes my duty immediately to direct that some two or more of the Justices of the Peace in & for the County of Northumberland, proceed forthwith in executing the Laws relating to forceable Entries & Detainers, in Order that the several persons, who in the Month of May last were violently dispossessed of their Messuages, Land & Tenements, at or near Wioming, which they then occupied, may be restored to the Possession of the same.

Confiding in your Zeal for Justice, Peace & good order, I desire that you will proceed accordingly.

With great Regard,

I am, Gentlemen,

your most obed<sup>t</sup> & hble. serv<sup>t</sup>,

COPY—PETITION OF AARON DOANE, 1784.

To His Excellency, John Dickenson, Esq<sup>r</sup>, Governor of the State of Pennsylvania & President of the Executive Council.

The humble Petition of Aaron Doane, a poor unhappy Man, now under Sentence of Death in the Goal of Philadelphia.
Most humbly Sheweth,

That your unfortunate Petitioner deeply Impressed with a full Sense of your merciful Generosity for the Extension of a few days Life, most humbly throws himself at thy Mercy Seat praying thy Compassion, Humanity, and Mercy.

Innocent of the Crime laid to his Charge, Outlawed & being absent from the State, which hinder'd his knowledge thereof, He is now Condemned to Suffer an Ignominious death, unheard or even Tried, to know if he was guilty of the Crime or not.

Oh thou Great Ruler, to whom the Laws have given the Power of being the Dispenser of Life and death—Seal not my Death—Have mercy on an innocent Man—Shed not my Blood unheard or Tried—If by the Outlawry I am to Suffer—Consider thou great Governor, my Innocence, my not being Tried, not being heard and the Power vested in thee, to Extend it to Objects of Mercy—Save then my Life oh gracious Judge—Let Mercy and Compassion preside in thy Breast over Rigorous Law—Let thy Government be Crowned by Lenity, Moderation, & Mercy, not Rigor or Resentment—Pardon thy Suppliant Petitioner, Extend thy mercy towards him—Give thy distressed Servant another Sentence—Bannish to other Territories thy unfortunate Suppliant—But Let not thy humane hand Seal my Death, Unheard or Untried, but Shew thy Mercy; and may the Almighty Dispenser of Life and Death, take thee in his Charge will be ever the prayer of the wretched unfortunate.

STEUBEN TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Nov. 3rd,

Sir,

Mr. Duponceau, who will have the honor to deliver your Excellency this, was with me four years as Captain & aid de Camp in which time I had continual proofs of his capacity & conduct, afterwards he served as assistant Secretary in the department of foreign affairs with the approbation & esteem of its head & of those who were joined with him.

He is now a Citizen of Pennsylvania, & offers his Service to the State as a notary &c., for which affair he possesses all the necessary qualifications. As I am particularly interested in the welfare of this young Gentlemen who came with me from Europe, I take the liberty to recommend him to your Excellencys protection & assistance, which will lay me under the greatest obligations, with the greatest respect,

I have the honor to be Sir,

your Excellency obedient Servant,

His Excy. Gov. Dickinson,

PETITION OF P. S. DU PONCEAU, 1784.

To His Excellency, John Dickinson, Esquire, President and the Honorable the Supreme Executive Council of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The Petition of Peter Stephen Du Ponceau, of the City of Philadelphia,

Humbly Sheweth,

That the office of Notary Public & Interpreter for the French & Spanish Languages having become vacant by the death of the late Paul Fooks, Esquire, the mutual intercourse between the Citizens of this State and foreigners has greatly suffered from the want of another persons being appointed in his place. That the number of foreigners who daily flock to this City to enjoy the benefits of an unrestrained commerce, having greatly increased since the peace, their ignorance of the language of this country lays them continually under very great difficulties, and that the appointment of a successor to Mr. Fooks, would greatly tend to the advantage of Commerce & facilitate an intercourse with foreigners in this state.

Your Petitioner takes the liberty to represent to your Excellency & the Honorable Council, that he has made the study of foreign languages, & particularly of the French, Spanish & Italian, the object of his particular attention. He is a Citizen of this commonwealth, & has served the United States from a very early period of the late war, first as a Captain in the continental army & aid de Camp to major General Steuben, and afterwards as under Secretary for foreign affairs. Upon the cessation of hostilities he has retired to private life. Not being favoured with the gift of Fortune, he wishes to support himself by an honest industry, & to enable himself at the same time to continue the study of the Law which is the immediate object of his pursuit. Your Petitioner therefore prays,

That the Honorable Council will be pleased to appoint & commission him to be a notary & Tabellion public for the English, French, Spanish & Italian languages, & Interpreter for the same, in the room of Paul Fooks, Esquire, deceased.

That they will be pleased to allow him to exercise the same powers of administering Oaths and affirmations &c, as are mentioned in the Commission granted by the Honble. Council to the said Paul Fooks, Esqr., & that they will invest him with the same offices, powers & authorities, with which the said Paul Fooks by the above mentioned commission was invested.

And your Petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray &c.,

PETER S. DU PONCEAU.

Philadelphia, 30th October, 1783.

Being well acquainted with Major Du Ponceau, and having had frequent opportunities of observing the Ease and Readiness with which he hath interpreted and translated different foreign Languages into English. We do certify that from the best Judgment which we are able to form, and from the great satisfaction which he hath given as well as from his good Character we believe him to be a well qualified and very proper Person for the office or Appointment in ye foregoing Petition prayed for.

ELECTION OF DELEGATES TO CONGRESS, 1784.

State of Pennsylvania In General Assembly

Tuesday November 16 1784, A. M.

Agreable to the order of the day the House proceeded to the election of Delegates to represent this State in the Congress of the United States for the ensuing year, and the ballots being taken it appeared that the Honorable Joseph Reed, Cadwalader Morris, William Montgomery, Joseph Gardner, and William Henry, of Lancaster, Esquires, were duly elected.

Wednesday, November 17, 1784, A. M.

A letter from Cadwalader Morris Esquire, elected a Delegate to represent this State in the Congress of the United States, was read, praying leave to resign the said appointment, and on motion, and by special order, the same was read the second time.

Ordered that his resignation be accepted.

Extract from the minutes,

MONS. MARBOIS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Philadelphia, 16th Novr, 1784.

Sir,

I had the honor of writing sundry Letters to your Excellency, requesting that you would be pleased, in conformity with the recommendations of Congress to procure to the subjects of His Majesty, the payment of the interest of the Loan Office certificates issued in this State. I beg you will be pleased to let me know what has been determined thereupon, that I may give information of it to his Majesty's subjects. You may easily conceive, Sir, how unfortunate it is for them, after having placed so much confidence in the thirteen United States to see that the interests of those Certificates have been paid to Americans, while the French have been excluded from those payments.

I also beg your Excellency to let me Know the motives which have rendered the recommendations of Congress ineffectual, that I may impart them to that Honourable Body.

I am with respect Sir,

your most obedient humble servant,

JUDGE HOPKINSON TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

To His Excellency the President and Honourable, The Supreme Executive Council of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen,

I beg leave to submit the enclosed Depositions to the Consideration of your Honourable Board; requesting your advice in the Business to which they refer. The Vessel in Question was attached under a writ of the Admiralty to answer a Tradesman for work done & materials found in building her at Marcus hook, by virtue of a late Law of this State for that Purpose. As soon as she was launched the attachment was laid, & the forcible rescue immediately follow'd, & the offenders escaped with the property into Delaware State. The vessel & the Parties I believe are yet in the Port of Wilmington, & I should hope that it will be thought necessary to take the most speedy measures for bringing the offender to answer for the Indignity they have thrown on a Court of Justice of this Commonwealth.

I have the Honour to be,
with great Respect Gentlemen,
your most obedient,
and most faithful humble servant.

MONS. MARBOIS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Philadelphia, the 17 November, 1784.

Sir,

In the beginning of last Summer a report spread in some parts of this Continent that there was suspicion of the plague being at Marseilles; altho' without any foundation this report has been the source of anxiety to Merchants. The Marshal de Castries who has been informed of it has done me the honour to write me such particulars as are most proper to remove their fears; he informs me that "all Trading vessels coming from the Levant are only admitted at the ports of Marseilles & Toulon, but particularly at the former, that the Lazarette of Marseilles has the most sure resources, in the most certain practice of the various methods used for the purification of Goods and the treatment of Persons." "Vessels, continues this Minister, directly fitted out from Marseilles, when there are no particular grounds of suspicion, may be received with perfect confidence and full credit may be given to the Bills of Health delivered by the Magistrates of this City whose Integrity is as well known as their vigilance and Capacity."

I thought it my duty, Sir, to communicate to your Excellency these accounts in order to dissipate now and henceforth all kind of uneasiness. You will find further particulars in the printed Paper which I have the honour to address to you, and the experience of all the Vessels which trade between Marseilles and the Ports of this Continent proves the truth of the facts which are therein advanced.

I am with respect Sir,

your Excellency's very humble, and very obedient Servant,

COMMISSIONERS FOR TREATING WITH THE INDIANS, 1784.

Sunbury, November 15th, 1784.

Sir,

We have the honor to inform you that after enduring very great fatigue we have happily effected our negotiations with the six confederated Tribes of Indians. The consideration agreed on by us to be paid them for the Land purchased, with such other particulars as you would wish to have communicated, Col. Johnston will lay before you.

In regard to the Tiadaughton Creek on the West Branch of Susquehanna mentioned in the Deed of 1768. We beg leave to inform you that the six nations publicly declared Pine creek to be the same as will appear by the inclosed paper. We are now in Company with the Continental Commissioners and mean to proceed with all the dispatch, the approaching season will admit to Cayahauga, the place fixed on by them for holding a Treaty with the Western Indians, where we trust we shall be as successful as at the former.

ANSWER OF THE SIX NATIONS TO COMMISSIONERS, 1784.

Brothers from Pennsylvania.

We have heard what you have said and are well pleased with the same. The Consideration we have fully agreed on which we are to receive for the Lands, and agreeable to your request have appointed Capt. Aaron Hill, Onegueandahonjo and Koneghariko of the Mohawk Tribe, Kayenthoghke, Thaghneghtanhare & Teyagonedaghtti of the Seneca, Ohendarighton, & Thoneiyode of the Cayuga, Sagoyakalongo & Otoghselonegh, Ojistalale, Oneyanha, Gagh-saweda, & Odaghseghte of the Oenida, & Onasaghweughte & Thalondawagon of the Tuscarora, as suitable persons to receive the Goods from you.

With regard to the Creek called Teadaghton mentioned in your Deed of 1768, we have already answered you and again repeat it, it is the same you call Pine creek, being the largest emptying into the West branch of the Susquehanna.

Agresable to your wish we have appointed Thaghneghlanhare to attend your Surveyor in running the Line between you and us.

We do hereby certify that the foregoing speech was this day made by Captain Aaron Hill, on the behalf of the Six Nations to the Pennsylvania Commissioners.

Witness our hand this Twenty third day of October, Anno Domini One thousand seven hundred and Eighty four.

SAM'L J. ATLEE TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Pequea, Lancaster County, Nov. 18th, 1784.

Sir,

I take the first opportunity to inform Council of my arrival last evening, at my own House, to take a few days rest and refreshment after the most fateaguing piece of Business I ever undertook.

I have the great pleasure of reporting that, that part of our mission that respected the Northern Tribes has been concluded to our utmost wish, and I trust will be fully satisfactory to the State. The Consequences we must leave.

Col. Johnston has begged a few days to see his Family, when we shall sett. off upon the remaining part of our Task, which I fear will be much more disagreeable than the former, by reason of the advanced Season of year, I mean our Western Duty. We hope, however shou'd we return safe to be able to report upon that Business with equal Satisfaction to ourselves and Constituents.

The Deed from the Six Nations for its greater security we thought proper Col. Johnston should take with him, but upon second consideration I thought best to have it with us, and have apprized him thereof. Shou'd Council be desirous of seeing it, he will have the pleasure of laying it before them for their purusal.

Untill my Arrival I heard little of the Contests subsisting respecting the late Elections, particularly of this County. My unfortunate absence upon public Business in October last prevented my declaring against an Election of Committees for this County, which had been present I think I should have done judging myself fully intitled to a seat in the Executive for three years from the preceeding Election; this I think I have full Authority for, from the 19th Section of the Frame of Government, which says, "for the present, (that is the year 1777,) the Supreme Executive Council shall consist of twelve persons chosen in the following manner, &c., and ever after the first choice in 1777, the successive Councillers shall be chosen for three years and no longer.

By this Clause, I think myself intitled for two years longer to a Seat in the Council. Nothing but the important publick Duty assigned me, would prevent my Attendance and demanding my seat, but trusting in the Wisdom and impartial Justice of Council and determining shortly to Proceed to the Westward must defer it, untill our return to make our final report.

Granting a right of Election for a Councillor the last October, (which I by no means do,) I think my pretensions strengthened (if possible,) by a great majority of my Constituents having declared for me which I trust will be found if the matter shall be thought worthy of cool and full investigation.

The Election of the District of Paxton returning about Eight hundred Votes, I understand has been held without the Judges, &c., being legally quallified, and that not more than one hundred and fifty or at most two hundred Voters present.

Complaints are likewise made against the Exorbitant members returned from the District of Lebanon, the Disproportion of the Voters present being nearly similar to that of Paxton.

Meer matter of Right and not of Choice has induced me thus fully to write to your Excellency and Council, for be assured, Sir, I find more real enjoyment and Satisfaction in one weeks residence with my Family and Friends, than I have experienced in all the nine or ten years Attendance upon the Duties of the Publick.

I have the Honor to be,

Sir, your Excellency's

MEMORIAL OF TIMOTHY MATLACK, 1784.

To The General Assembly of Representatives of the Freemen of Pennsylvania The Memorial & Petition of Timothy Matlack Respectfully sheweth,

That the Comptroller General on the 19th of March, 1783 reported to the President & Council a state of the money received and paid by your memorialist as Secretary reduced to specie value according to the scale of depreciation, stating in the report his opinion, that the Secretary had to account for certain fees received by him "such as the keeper of the great seal, &c.," giving his opinion, that the sum of divers fees charged to the state by the Secretary "is altogether inadmissible," stating that the Secretary "has also charged his salary, as fixed in October, 1778, to December, 1781, in contradiction (as he says) to the Act of Assembly by which it ends at the 22nd day of June, 1781, and praying "to be instructed "by the Honorable the Council or Assembly what to their prudence "and superior wisdom appear most eligible" as to the manner of determining the said points. That the said report was referred by His Excellency & Council to the Honourable House of Assembly which, thereupon, March 22nd, 1783, Resolved, That the Comptroller General of this "state proceed to the trial of the contested "points in the accounts of Timothy Matlack, Esq'r, Secretary of the "Supreme Executive Council by a jury in the Supreme Court." That your memorialist used his utmost endeavours to have the said points tried as early as possible; but, when he had flattered himself that the day had arrived on which they would have been determined, the Council for the state declared that the house had ordered what could not be done, that it was an absurdity, that to swear a jury to try and give a verdict on a point of law, was a thing which had never before been heard of; and hitherto your memorialist has not been able to obtain any decision on the said points.

* See Col. Rec., Vol. XIV., p. 276.

† See Archives, Vol. IX., p. 762.

That in consequence of this mode directed by the house your memorialist has been prevented from entering into business of any kind for near two years past; and that any further delays will utterly ruin him and his family. That the facts respecting his said accounts are agreed, no question whatever having arisen upon them at any time; neither has your memorialist at any time objected to any mode of deciding the points stated by the Comptroller General.

If a jury cannot be sworn to try them, which indeed your memorialist stands informed is an unusual thing, he is content to take the opinion of the Judges thereupon, and therefore prays that this honourable house will reconsider the said resolve of March 22, 1783 and order that the opinion of the judges may be taken on the points stated by the Comptroller General which are points of law only in which no fact whatever is mixed, and that he be directed to proceed, conformably thereto, and conformably to the equitable principle of reducing the paper money to specie value according to the scale of depreciation as it stands in his said report, to settle your memorialists accounts as speedily as possible.

And your memorialist as in duty bound will ever pray, &c.

THOMAS SCOTT TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Washington, 13th Dec<sup>r</sup>, 1784.

May it Please your Excellency,

Inclosed is a Return of an Election in the Township of Fallowfield for Justices of the Peace. The Warrant on which this Election was held is never come to my hand, nor is it possible to hold these People to strict form, notwithstanding I have give them every Instruction— However, I believe the Election was fair and open. I will only Remark, that sundry Elections have been held in this Township, and from various causes no Commission has ever been Issued.

I have the Honour to be

RESOLUTION OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY, 1784.

State of Pennsylvania.

In General Assembly,

Tuesday, December 14, 1784, A. M.

A Message from the President and the Supreme Executive Council, was presented to the chair and read, whereupon

Resolved, that this House will hold a conference with the Supreme Executive Council, on the subject proposed, in the Assembly Chamber, at eleven o'clock to-morrow morning.

Extract from the Minutes,*

Clerk of the Genl Assembly.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE MEMORIAL OF TIMOTHY MATLACK, 1784.

Your Committee, on the Case of Timothy Matlack, Esq., reported by Your Committee on the Report of the Committee of the Council of Censors, as adopted by the said Council, and to whom was also committed the Memorial & Petition of the said Timothy Matlack, beg Leave to recommend the following Resolution, Viz. :

Resolved, That the Case of Timothy Matlack, Esq<sup>r</sup>, late Secretary of the Supreme Executive Council, was not a subject proper for the interference of the Legislature, otherwise than by impeachment, if that Mode had appeared to be necessary.

Resolved, That the sentence of the General Assembly, passed by their Vote of March 5th, 1783, by which the said Timothy Matlack was declared "unworthy of public Trust and Confidence," was unconstitutional.

Resolved, That the said Vote of March 5th, 1783, condemning the said Timothy Matlack be rescinded and annulled.

Resolved, That the Resolution of the Gen<sup>l</sup> Assembly of March 22nd, 1783, founded on the Report of the Committee of the same date, directing the Comptroller General "to proceed to the Trial of "the contested Points in the Accounts of Timothy Matlack, Esq<sup>r</sup>, "Secretary of the Supreme Executive Council, by a Jury in the "Supreme Court, & that he be authorized to employ a Council for "that purpose," be also annulled and Rescinded, and that ~~it~~ be left with the Supreme Executive Council to take such Order upon the subject of their Message to the House referred to in the said Report of the Committee, as may be right and just, and to which they are fully competent.*

PRES. DICKINSON TO GOV. OF NEW JERSEY, 1784.

In Council, December 14th, 1784.

Sir,

By Resolution of the General Assembly of this State, We are authorized to appoint three or more Commissioners, to meet with such Commissioners as are, or shall be, appointed on the part of New Jersey, to settle, agree upon, & accurately to determine, which of the Islands, Islets, and insulated dry Land, mentioned in the Agreement between the two States, bearing Date on the twenty-sixth Day April, 1783, belong to each of the said States, according to the purport of that Agreement.

We intend in a short time to appoint Commissioners agreeably to the foregoing Resolutions, and now make this Communication, to your Excellency, in Hopes that New Jersey will immediately take proper Measures for finally executing the said Agreement in the Manner proposed.

I am, with great Esteem,

Sir, your most obedient hble servt.,

MONS. MARBOIS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Philadelphia, 16th Decr, 1784.

Sir,

A box containing Effects has arrived to my direction in the Port franc a Vessel coming from L'Orient. I have the honor to inclose as a proof the bill of lading with my receipt at the bottom of it. The Custom house Officers have refused to deliver the box under pretence of my not enjoying the franchises & exemptions from duties as Consul general. This practice being contrary to that which takes place with regard to all Consuls who do not trade, and likewise being in contradiction with the Exequatur which has been given to me by your Excellency & the Council of the State, I beg you will be pleased to acquaint me with the Intentions of Council upon this point, that a perfect reciprocity may be established in France with respect to the American Consuls & Vice Consuls which do not trade.

The Officers of the Customs might immediately have delivered that box to me as I am invested with the double character of Consul & Chargé des affaires of his majesty, but as they raise doubts about my franchises in the first of these capacities, I beg you will let me know the opinion of Council upon this difficulty, that I may impart it to my Court.

Sir,

I have received your polite communication respecting the Package of goods directed to me as Consul General. As the difficulty started yesterday about my exemptions from duties as a Consul is now before the Council, the respect I owe them does not permit me to receive that package previous to their determinations, & before I know whether they acknowledge or not my claim to an exemption of the duties as a Consul not in trade.

I am, Sir, with perfect regard,

In Council, December 18th, 1784.

Sir,

In consequence of your Letter of yesterday, we have taken order for the Delivery of the case therein mentioned.

We cannot perceive a propriety in our determining upon this occasion concerning the claimed franchises of the Consulate, as no agreement respecting them has yet been concluded between His most Christian Majesty & the United States, and in the present Instance the Character of Consul is merged in that of Chargé des affaires.

I am with Respect Sir,

PRES. DICKINSON TO DELEGATES IN CONGRESS, 1784.

In Council, December 20th, 1784.

Gentlemen,

We inclose a Letter to the President of Congress, with Copies of the late Law for adjusting Claims against the United States, & of Resolutions of the General Assembly of the 16th Instant on that subject. It is proper that you should be informed why these Resolutions were taken, after the Law had passed.

This Law appearing to all of us likely to be attended by very injurious Consequences, we desired a Conference with the Legislative Branch, which was held the 15th Instant. In that, we among other things, represented "that the Law directly contradicts the Mode agreed upon by the United States in their acts of the 20th of February, 1782 & the 3d of June, 1784—that those acts are now carrying into Execution in the other states as appears by a Letter produced from the Honorable Robert Morris, Esquire—that Pennsylvania had actually voted for that mode at both the times before mentioned, and had thereby contributed to give it the federal Force that is now executing it in the other States—that she has, by her legislative and executive acts, repeatedly approved the Exercise of this Power by Congress, and acknowledged its obligation—& that from these circumstances there appeared a striking Impropriety in such a Deviation from the national Plan—

That in proceeding upon this Plan such care has been taken to prevent partiality, that no person has been nominated to settle amounts in a State, in which he resides as a Citizen—that a line is well drawn for dividing with Justice between such contending Interests & that a Departure from this prudent Caution, & the consequent appointment of Citizens for Commissioners, who may be exposed to the various & powerful Influences of local Connections, is by no means advisable—

That if a Continental Commissioner misbehaves, or is incapable of transacting the Business of his Department in reasonable time, the proper Remedy is by application to Congress for the appointment of another, & if necessary, of more—

That for any state to break thro' the national Plan and assume the settlement of all accounts within itself, & to insist that it shall be binding upon the Union, would seem to impeach the Wisdom, Integrity, or authority of Congress—

That it is very probable, Congress will deny us Credit for accounts thus adjusted, as irregularly settled & hence may begin a Competition of powers, to be followed by many Evils—

That the Injunction in the Law, of Correspondence with the Commissioners “in order to prevent Confusion, and to gain necessary Information,” will be totally vain if those Commissioners refuse to give Effect to the Correspondence—that if this happens there will then be several Commissioners, unconnected, appointed by different authorities, and employed at a double Expence, in affairs of the same kind requiring in the Management of them the strictest uniformity of Regulation and the fullest Communication of Intelligence—& for want of these many Errors & Frauds are to be expected, as is manifest from the Law itself—

That the Law does not seem to ascertain with sufficient precision the persons or Demands, that are its objects—that all those whose Claims may be adjusted by the Commissioners of this state, will insist upon a particular Right for having them funded here, alledging, that their Reliance upon a Law of this Commonwealth of which at the time of its Enaction they were “Inhabitants,” prevented them having their accounts liquidated in such manner as to be admitted by the United States as just charges against them, so that they will not only lose their original Demands, but will have been put to much useless Trouble & Expence in attending the Commissioners of the state, unless the state will pay them—and their Demands to a very large amount, properly chargeable to the United States, and which would have been acknowledged & provided for by them, if they had been settled & certified by their Commissioner according to the national Plan, may by the Interference of this Law be fixed as a perpetual Debt on this state, without our ever being able to obtain any allowance for it from the United States."

We hope, that upon a Consideration of the Reasons that in our judgment have weight, you, Gentlemen, will agree with us in opinion that it is exceedingly important, that the additional Commissioners should be appointed by Congress, and any occasion for an appointment by us be thereby superseded.

We have only to add, that a variety of Circumstances in the strongest manner requires, that the Commissioners should be immediately appointed; and therefore we earnestly request, that you will be pleased to make every Exertion in your power for this purpose.

I am with great Respect, Gentlemen, your most obedient & very h'ble serv't.

JOHN DICKINSON.

Directed,

The Honorable, the Delegates of Pennsylvania.

PRES. DICKINSON TO PRES. OF CONGRESS, 1784.

In Council, December 20th, 1784.

Sir,

We have the Honor of enclosing Copies of a Law of this state lately passed & intitled "an act to carry into immediate Effect the Resolutions of the United States in Congress assembled for adjusting the Claims of Individuals of this Commonwealth against the said United States," and of Resolutions of the General Assembly of the 16th Instant upon the same subject.

Several Considerations arising from the particular Circumstances of this state, urge us to request, that Congress will be pleased as speedily as possible to appoint two or more Commissioners in addition to the one already appointed, for the purpose of settling & properly certifying the Claims of the Citizens of this State against the United States, which will supersede the necessity of an appointment by us.

I am with great Respect, Sir,

your Excellency's most obedient

and most humble servant,

JOHN DICKINSON.

PRES. DICKINSON TO MANAGERS OF STATE LOTTERY, 1784.

Secretary's Office, Dec'r 21st, 1784.

Sir,

Council this morning took your late application upon the subject of the State Lottery into consideration and have directed me to communicate as the Result of it, that they cannot approve the proposition of appointing a day for the commencement of the drawing.

They flatter themselves that the late encouragement given by the Ass'y will have their intended effect and are sure that the Managers will take all possible means to avail themselves of them.

ANDREW PORTER TO COUNCIL, 1784.

Gentlemen,

The Commissioners having adjourned from the business of running the boundary Line of this State until sometime in the month of May next—I have Ordered the light Wagon & one of the heavy Wagons with the Mathematical Instruments to this place, and expect they will arrive the Latter end of this, or the beginning of next Week—The other two Wagons & five Horses I left with an Inhabitant of Ten Mile Creek in Washington County, where the Horses will be Wintered on reasonable terms—I now wait to know the Orders of Council what I am to do with the remainder of the Horses & the Two Wagons when they arrive.—When my Books & Papers come to hand I shall make a further report with an accurate acc't of the expenditures, as soon as I can possibly attend to the drawing out of those acc'ts, but in the mean time must request, that Council will please to order a Draft in my favour for Two Hundred pounds to enable me to pay off the Wagoners; and a sum of money I borrowed and applied to Public use.

I am with every sentiment
of Respect & Esteem, Gentlemen,

JOINT REPORT OF COMM'RS ON BOUNDARY BETWEEN PENN'A
AND VIRG'A, 1784.

Agreeably to the Commission given by the State of Virginia to James Madison, Robert Andrews, John Page and Andrew Ellicott, & by the State of Pennsylvania to John Ewing, David Rittenhouse,† John Lukens & Thomas Hutchins, to determine by astronomical observations the Extent of five Degrees of Longitude west from the River Delaware in the Latitude of Mason's & Dixon's Line, & to run & mark the Boundaries which are common to both States, according to an agreement entered into by Commissioners from the said two States at Baltimore in 1779, & afterwards ratified by their respective assemblies; We, the underwritten Commissioners, together with the Gentlemen with whom we are joined in commission, have by corresponding astronomical observations, made near the Delaware & in the western Country, ascertained the extent of the said five Degrees of Longitude: and the underwritten Commissioners have continued Mason's & Dixon's Line to the Termination of the said five Degrees of Longitude, by which work the southern Boundary of Pennsylvania is completed. The continuation we have marked by opening vistas over the most remarkable Heights which lie in its course, & by planting on many of these Heights in the Parallel of Latitude, the true Boundary, Posts marked with the Letters P & V., each Letter facing the State of which it is the Initial. At the Extremity of this Line, which is the South West corner of the State of Pennsylvania, we have planted a squared unlettered white oak Post, around whose Base we have raised a Pile of stones. The Corner is in the last vista we cut, on the east side of an Hill, one hundred & thirty-four Chains & nine Links East of the meridian of the western observatory, & two Chains & fifty-four Links west of a deep narrow Valley through which the said last vista is cut. At the Distance of fifty-one Links & bearing from it North twenty-three degrees east stands a white oak marked on the south side with three notches; & bearing South twelve Degrees west & at the Distance of twenty-nine Links stands a black Oak marked on the North side with four Notches. The advanced season of the year & the Indemency of the weather have obliged us to suspend our operations; but we have agreed to meet again at the South west Corner of Pennsylvania on the sixteenth Day of next May, to complete the Object of our Commission. Given under our Hands & Seals, in the County of Washington in Pennsylvania this 18th Day of November, 1784.

'REPORT OF PENNA. COMMISSIONERS ON BOUNDARY WITH VIRGINIA, 1784.

To His Excellency John Dickinson, Esq<sup>r</sup>, President of the State, &
To the honorable the Supreme Executive Council of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The Commissioners appointed for ascertaining the Length of five Degrees of Longitude and for determining and fixing the Boundary Lines between this State and Virginia by astronomical Observations, beg Leave to Report,

That after procuring the necessary Instruments, according to the Directions of Council in the preceeding Spring, we sett off for our respective Places of observation about the Beginning of June, Mess<sup>rs</sup> Rittenhouse and Lukens to Wilmington, and Ewing and Hutchins to the South Western Corner of the State.

The observers at Wilmington compleated their Observatory, and furnished it with the necessary Instruments, so as to begin their astronomical Operations, in Conjunction with Mess<sup>rs</sup> Page and Andrews, Commissioners from Virginia, about the Beginning of July; where they continued observing the Eclipses of Jupiter's Satellites, till the 20th of September, that they might have a sufficient Number of them, both before and after his opposition to the Sun ; And altho' the Summer proved very unfavourable for astronomical purposes, they were fortunate enough to make, amongst them, near 60 Observations of these Eclipses, besides many other Observations of the other heavenly Bodies for the Regulation of their Clock and fixing their Meridian Line ; so that they were well ascertained of their Time to a single Second.

In the mean Time, the other Observers, setting out from Philadelphia, pursued their Rout, to the South Western Extremity of the State, where they arrived about the middle of July, having been greatly retarded by the Badness of the Roads through that mountainous Country. There they met with Mess<sup>rs</sup> Madison and Ellicott, the Commissioners from the State of Virginia, who had arrived about the same Time. With all possible Dispatch, they erected their Observatory on a very high Hill at the place where the Continuation of Mess<sup>rs</sup> Mason and Dixon's Line by Mess<sup>rs</sup> Nevelle and M'Olean Ended ; supposing that this place would prove to be near to the Western Extremity of five Degress of Longitude from the River Delaware. After erecting their Instruments, which had not sustained the least Damage, by the Carriage through so long a Journey, and the most unfavourable Roads, they began their astronomical Observations about the middle of July, and they continued them Night and Day till the 20th of September following. Although they were frequently interrupted and disappointed by an uncommon quantity of Rain and Foggy Weather, which seems peculiar to that hilly Country, yet by their Attention to the Business of their Mission, they made between 40 and 50 Observations of the eclipses of Jupiter's Satellites, many of which were correspondent with the Observations made by the other Astronomers at Wilmington ; besides innumerable Observations of the Sun and Stars for the Regulation of their Time Pieces and the marking of their Meridian with the greatest Precision.

In this part of their work, situated near 80 Miles beyond any of the Inhabitants, the Commissioners were greatly assisted by the Diligence and indefatigable activity of Coll. Porter, their Commissary, to whose Industry in providing every Thing necessary, and prudence in managing the Business of his Department with the utmost Oeconomy, the State is greatly indebted.

The astronomical Observation being compleated on the 20th of September, the Eastern astronomers set out to meet the other Commissioners in the West, in order to compare them together. Mess<sup>rs</sup> Rittenhouse and Andrews carried with them the Observations made at Wilmington, while Mess<sup>rs</sup> Lukens and Page returned home, not being able to endure the Fatigues of so long a Journey, nor the Subsequent labour of running and marking the Boundary Line. Mr. Madison continued with the Western Astronomers till the arrival of Mess<sup>rs</sup> Rittenhouse and Andrews, when the affairs of his Family and publick Station obliged him to relinquish the Business at this Stage, and return Home, after concurring with the other Commissioners as to the principles on which the matter was finally determined.

Upon Comparison of the Observations made at both Extremities of our Southern Boundary, your Commissioners have the pleasure of assuring you, that no Discouragements arising from the unfavourable State of the Weather, or the unavoidable Fatigues of constant application by Day and frequent Watchings by Night, have prevented them from embracing every opportunity, and making a sufficient Number of Astronomical Observations, to determine the Length of five Degrees of Longitude with greater Precision than could be attained by terrestrial Measures of a Degree of Latitude in different places of the Earth: and further, that they have completed their Observations with so much accuracy and certainty as to remove from their Minds every degree of doubt concerning their final determination of the South Western Corner of the State.

In the Result of the Calculations, they found that their observatories were distant from each other twenty minutes and one second and an eighth part of a Second of Time. But as the Observatory at Wilmington was fixed at 114 Chains, 13 Links West of the Intersection of the Boundary Line of this State with the River Delaware; and as 20 Minutes of Time are equivalent to five Degrees of Longitude, they made the necessary Correction for the said 114 Chains, 13 Links, and also for the said one Second and one eighth part of a second, which is equal to 19 Chains and 96 Links; and accordingly fixed and marked the South Western Corner of the State in the manner mentioned in the joint agreement and Report of the Commissioners of both States under their Hands and Seals, which we have the Honour of laying before the Council.*

After these calculations were made, the Commissioners proceeded with all convenient Dispatch to the place where Mason and Dixon formerly were Interrupted by the Indian Nation in running the southern Boundary of this State, in order to extend the said Boundary Westward to the length of five Degrees from the River Delaware. Being prevented by rainy weather for near a week from making any astronomical observations in order to ascertain the Direction of the Parallel of Latitude, which we were to extend we concluded, to save Time and Expence, that it would be eligible to take the last Direction of Mason and Dixon's Line, and to correct it, if necessary, when we should have an opportunity of a serene Sky. Upon extending the Line in this Manner 195 Chains from the place where they ended their work, we found by astronomical observations that we were 32 feet and 5 inches North of the true Parallel, and we accordingly made the necessary Correction here and marked a Tree with the Letters P. on the North side and V. on the South. From thence we assumed a new direction, which we again corrected in like manner at the distance of 575 Chains where we found our Line to be 73 feet and 6 inches North of the Parallel of Latitude. We made the offset accordingly and planted a large post in the true Parallel marked as above. From thence we found another direction by calculation, which beginning at the said post should at the Distance of eight Miles from it, intersect the said Parallel, making offsetts at convenient distances, and planting Posts in the true parallel. This direction being continued 83 Chains farther than the eight miles above mentioned, fell 23 Inches South of the Parallel, where we also planted a post in the true Boundary marked as before; and from thence to the South West Corner of the State we assumed a new Direction which being continued, fell two feet and eight inches South of the said Corner. This correction therefore being made, we planted a Squared White Oak Post in the said Point, and marked its bearing from Different Objects, as mentioned in our joint Report. Besides the Marking of the Boundary Line by the Posts and Stones above mentioned; your Commissioners took care to have a Visto of 20 or 30 feet wide cut over all the most remarkable Ridges which were in the Direction of the Parallel.

For a more particular description of this part of our work, we beg leave to refer to the annexed plan* and sketch of the Country through which the Line Passed. The season being now far advanced, we were obliged to desist from any farther Prosecution of the work, and agreed with the Virginia Commissioners to meet them at the South Western Corner of our State on the 16th of May next, to proceed in running and marking the Western Boundary of this State.

Agreeable to our Commission to report the Situation of the Country and the best means of preserving the Communication and Connection between the Eastern and Western Parts of the State, we beg Leave to observe that the natural obstructions to so desirable a purpose may be, in a great measure removed by a few easy Instances of attention, paid by the Legislature of this State to the Situation and exhausted condition of the Western Citizens. Their public Roads are numerous, extensive and in bad order; while the Citizens being few in number, scattered at a Distance from each other, and being harrassed and exhausted by an Indian War, are unable to repair their Roads, or to open them through more easy and convenient Passes over the Hills and Mountains. A few hundred pounds, not exceeding one thousand judiciously and frugally applied, would in our opinion make a tolerable good Waggon Road from York County to the Monongahela; and thereby facilitate the Exportation of Goods from this City to that Western Country, and secure their Trade with us; especially if the Ferry over the Susquehannah was made free to all the Citizens of the State. It appears probable to us, that otherwise the Exertions of Maryland and Virginia, to repair their Roads to that country, will frustrate the Expectations, which we are entitled to entertain of enjoying the advantages of the Trade with the Western Parts of our own State. We beg Leave farther to observe that the natural attachment of the Western Citizens to this State might be increased and fixed by an indulgence to their distressed Situation in the price of their Lands, and the Terms of payment, and particularly in the remission of the Interest due on the purchase Money, during the Time they have been obliged to evacuate their Possessions by the Savages, and fly to Forts for the security of their Lives and Families.

The Committee appointed "to enquire from what cause so large
"a Sum of public money due upon the impost laws appears to be outstanding, and report thereon," Report,

That they have made the enquiry to them committed and find from the information of the Collector of the imposts, and from the Books and Papers by him exhibited to your Committee, that there appeared to be due from sundry individuals on bonds, on the 1st Day of November last, about the Sum of Sixty thousand Pounds. That the said Collector hath, as well by advertisements published in the News-papers, as otherwise, used endeavours to collect the monies due on the said Bonds; that some of the said monies have been collected, since the said first day of November; and that the said Collector expressed strong expectations, founded on the assurances he had received from the obligors in the said Bonds, that the whole of the monies due as aforesaid would be paid in the course of one or two months.

Your Committee nevertheless deem it expedient that measures

* See Col. Rec., Vol. XIV., p. 288. Dr. Ewing resigned March 20, 1785. See ibid., p. 454, and this Vol. under that date, should be taken to expedite the collection of the said debts and more especially those which have been long due, and therefore your Committee offer the following Resolution, viz<sup>t</sup> :

Resolved, That the Supreme Executive Council be desired to take proper order for procuring the payment of the monies due on the said Bonds.

MESSAGE FROM THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, 1784.

A Message from the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, To His Excellency The President, and the Honorable the Supreme Executive Council.

Gentlemen,

With all due respect and Attention we the Representatives of the Freemen of the State of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, have taken into Consideration your message of the fourth instant,* and tho' public debates of this nature seldom produce real Conviction either in the minds of those with whom they originate or by whom they are conducted, we are of opinion that the Plan for providing for the payment of the public debts, against which the present address militates, is founded on such Principles of natural, and political Justice, that nothing farther will be necessary to evince its Merit, than to state some of those leading principles, and re-call to memory those Sentiments which in time of public danger operated on every feeling mind with truth and emergy; Nor can we suppose the security and ease resulting from peace have or can obliterate them. We trust we shall also rectify some mistakes into which Your Honorable Board have fallen in point of fact; We admit and We avow it in the face of the World that we esteem it a duty to pay the debts contracted on the faith of the public according to their just Value, and to the Amount ascertained by those officers who under public authority have stated and certified them; and that every thing which interferes with a such payment either in the creation of the funds from which it is to be made or by direct diminution of the debts so acknowledged, we consider unjust and impolitic and to which of course we cannot assent.

As the message generally and highly approves, the principles, on which the several Acts of the 12th March, 1783, "for the Sale of certain Lands therein mentioned," and 1st of April, 1784, intituled "An Act for opening the Land Office." We need only observe on this point, that it was ever our intention generally to adopt and carry them into Effect, and that the evils arising from long Credit, from which would probably result uncertain payment, and factious

*See Col. Rec., Vol. XIV., p. 271.

Combinations against the peace of the State, cannot arise, no such Credit being to be given by the Act passed this Session. It is proposed to sell the Lands at moderate prices, and immediately receive the Consideration which the Message admits as best calculated to extinguish the demands on the Commonwealth, and relieve the people in the article of Taxes. The Mischiefs of increasing public Credit, and of course, the dealing in public funds are not so well known to us as the message supposes. We know such funds exist in all free States, the most flourishing and best regulated; and presume that they are only dangerous from their abuse. We flatter ourselves, That on this occasion, with caution, and moderation they will not be liable to the dangers resulting from an improvident exercise of power either in the mode of administering such funds, or their disproportion to our Ability in supporting them. We consider these funds as providing the means of payment of a just debt, and that by vigorous exertions in reducing the debt as speedily and into as small a Compass as possible, we shall most effectually guard against the Consequences suggested of dealing in public funds; for the debt being lessened or discharged, the Opportunities for such Speculations will be diminished or done away.

If your Excellency and the Honorable Board suppose, that by making no other provision for the Relief of the public Creditors, than what will arise from the Sale of Lands, such Creditors driven by despair, and pinched by necessity will be compell'd to take Lands on any terms, or will sell their Certificates at any price to those who seek to speculate in Land, We are at a loss to reconcile it to those professions of tenderness expressed for Widows, Orphans and worthy Citizens yet retaining their Certificates. For when we recur to the provision made by former Legislatures for these respectable Claimants in the Acts of Assembly enumerated in the Message, we find them totally inapplicable to the End. The Act passed the 21st March, 1783, intitled "An Act for providing the Quota of federal Supplies," and its Supplement passed the 25th September following, only gave a temporary relief for payment of Interest for one year, and were declared to be for enabling them to pay their Taxes for the Supplies of the Current year, and as for the Act intitled "An Act to appropriate certain monies arising from the Excise with its Supplement of the 20th Sept., its Benefit was exclusively limited to the Officers and Soldiers of the Army. Those respectable Claimants therefore, certainly have never received that attention the message so explicitly declares, and other efforts, than those mentioned in the said Acts, are requisite for their Relief, or they must remain, not merely in the uncomfortable state so coldly described in the message, but in a state of great poverty and distress. The objection to the just and honorable payment of these debts because the folly of some, and necessity of others have thrown a part of them into other hands than the original holders, at a price below their apparent Value, seems to us as destructive of all future Credit as present Justice. Being in their nature negotiable, and originally made transferable, who will ever receive them hereafter if they are thus depreciated by public Authority? Let it also be remembered, that whatsoever price the present possessors may have paid for some of these Certificates, the public had a valuable Consideration, and that a great proportion of them yet remain in the hands of the original Possessors; and as no discrimination is proposed, and must be extremely difficult, what is to become of these respectable Claimants? are they to suffer because their interests are accidentally blended with those of others less so? It does not appear to us consonant to Justice or sound policy to depreciate honest debts because they vary in the degree of merit; for that any are unjust in themselves, none pretend.

To these original possessors none of the Observations in the message apply, which suppose such an Accumulation of value. They expected to receive their real value; they ask no more; and this they are intitled to:—to oblige them to take less must be confessedly unjust. But we feel no apprehensions of a few Persons being suddenly raised into great wealth, while others are proportionably depressed: Because we see every Species of public Certificates have been long current and the most unexceptionable funds provided in many Cases to support them, such for instance as the appropriation of the excise for the Benefit of the Army, and yet we see no such exorbitant wealth or depressed industry. To make common Conversation, (and that founded in supposition,) a ground of public measures from which injustice to the Widow, Orphan and worthy Citizen will follow, we cannot suppose the generous and benevolent temper of Pennsylvania will admit, and yet we can deduce no other Consequence from admitting that those who were about to buy Certificates were led by general Conversation to Contemplate the Lands of the State as the only fund for their redemption. We trust the public proceedings of this State will have a more stable and solid foundation.

That the Certificates will rise in value in consequence of a well grounded hope of just and honorable payment, we hope and expect, but that it will enhance the price beyond their original Value, we cannot believe, and their advance towards it will be fully compensated by recovering public Credit, renewing confidence in Government, and enabling us to establish a Loan Office from which the distant freeholders will be accommodated with money on easy Terms and at a reasonable interest. But how will this be attained if instead of applying the wisdom and energy of Government to restore public Credit,—we fall into every temptation to commit public injustice—whether the debts are just, is in our view, the first Consideration—this is not questioned, for they are admitted, not only to be just but meritorious. The next is, how shall they be discharged? we say, honestly, as a Source of future Confidence and supply equitably as conformably to natural Justice; and gratefully as a proper return to those who in times of public danger and difficulty lent their Property to effect the great Purposes of Liberty and Independence. In Confirmation of those sentiments, we shall recur to a message of your Excellency's and the Honourable Board of August 17th, 1783, as the most unexceptionable authority. There it is said, "The discharge of debts due by the State, or if that cannot be soon accomplished, at least the regular Payment of the Interest, should be provided for, and well secured by adequate funds; so that the best satisfaction which Circumstances will permit, may be given to the Creditors. Continual and sometimes very affecting applications are made to us: but while we perceive the obligations of Justice, and the Injuries and distresses attendant upon a non-compliance with them we are unable to afford Relief. It is essential to the public welfare that public Credit, upon which alone confidence can be founded, should be supported; and we earnestly wish, the General Assembly would take into their serious Consideration the ways and means for establishing a more regular and improved System of Revenue. We believe that the burthens of the good people of this state might be thus relieved; and we shall esteem ourselves very happy if we can furnish any useful Information upon this subject." Contemplating the resources of the State, we cannot with your Excellency and the honorable Board, consider the Circumstances of the Treasurers notes as proofs of our inability to support our Credit, because a Want of Punctuality in the redemption of all our public securities is equally to be lamented. Even the antient emissions of Paper money before the Revolution were not punctually redeemed, but certainly not from inability. It arises from the delay of the Collection of Taxes, which it is the duty of the executive part of Government to remedy.

We wish and hope to ease our Constituents under the public burthens; we partake of them ourselves, and therefore must be always interested to lessen them; but we see no cause to depreciate the ability of the State, as well as its Credit, when we reflect that in the year 1782, when we had neither rested from the ravages of the war, nor tasted the blessings of peace, a Tax of £420,000 was imposed, and tho' heavy it was not insupportable. In the year 1783, a farther Tax was laid for £225,000, without any aid from the sale of Lands. The present supply calls for a Tax of but £76,945 17 6 annually, which is the very sum recommended by Congress, and adopted by a late Assembly for twenty five years, and when the Purposes to which it is to be applied are duly considered, and that its duration will probably be terminated in a much shorter time than twenty five years, "the generous and benevolent temper of Pennsylvanians" will not permit it to be deemed grievous, nor unduly burthensome. We come now to the last objection against thus providing for the payment of the public debts; that it will interfere with federal measures; we wish your Excellency and the honorable Board instead of resting on a general declaration, had pointed out this interference. Besides the instance above mentioned the Journals of Congress abound in Resolves and Recommendations in which the utmost energy of language is exerted to induce us to pay these debts honorably and justly. We mean to show our respect for the Counsels of that honourable Body by our Compliance as well as by our professions. We have thereupon collected their sentiments as scattered thro' divers of their Proceedings.

In the celebrated Letter of the 13th September, 1779, after expressing with the most pathetic eloquence, the baseness and bad policy of failing to support the public faith, thus urge its inhumanity as well as injustice: That the Complaints of ruined widows and fatherless Children whose sole support rests in the public funds have already gone forth, and with the greatest Solemnity they bid us take care, that they rise no higher.

On the 18th April following they declare that the holders of loan office Certificates should sustain no loss by any depreciation of the Bills loan'd subsequent to their respective dates. On the 28th June following they declare that the Principal of all the Loans that have been made shall finally be discharged at the full current value of the bills when loan'd and the interest in the mean time paid on the same just principles.

On the 16th December, 1782, Congress declared, that it is essential to the justice and Preservation of public faith, that whenever a nation is obliged by the exigencies of public affairs to contract a debt proper funds should be established not only for paying the annual Value or Interests of the same, but for discharging the principal within a reasonable Period.

It then goes on to encourage the States to exertions of Payment by assuring them that whenever the produce of the Revenue shall exceed the Interest, it shall be applied to sinking the Principal. But unfortunately no fund has been found by Congress to pay even the interest or any part of it from that time to the present.

In 1783, another most animated address from Congress in the ninth Page of a Pamphlet called an address and Recommendation to the States, after enumerating the Classes of public Creditors, speaks of those who originally lent their money, those who have purchased Certificates, and whose Property has been otherwise advanced or assumed for public Service, and this is the language of that respectable Body, a just regard to whose Counsels the Honorable Board declare, and we concur in believing is essential to our Happiness "To discriminate the merits of these several descriptions of Creditors would be a task equally unnecessary and invidious, if the voice of humanity pleads more loudly in favor of some than of others, the voice of Policy no less than of Justice pleads in favor of all—A wise nation will never permit those who relieve the wants of their Country, or who rely most on its faith, its firmness and its resources, when either of them is distrusted, to suffer by the event." In the following Paragraph of the same address, which we earnestly recommend to the attention of your Excellency and the honorable Board, these Sentiments are further urged and enforced by Considerations of the most powerful nature such as in our opinion exclude every idea, that the measures of any particular State at this time of day for the relief of these sufferers can be disagreeable to Congress. The State of New Jersey has made a Provision similar to ours, except that it rests on Taxation only, while ours has the Lands as an auxiliary, and we have never heard their Conduct objected to as interfering with federal measures or weakening the union.

If from defects in the Confederation, or too limited views, some States hesitate or fail in Compliance as they have done from year to year, shall we bring poverty and Ruin on the Citizens of Pennsylvania whose Circumstances, the message admits, demand immediate attention? do not these debts make a part of the national debt, and if lessened now, will not our future burthen be less. Thus while we substantially comply with the Recommendations of Congress, we shall perform an act of duty, Justice and Humanity, in relieving our suffering fellow Citizens.

A Regard to the Constitution, and the confederation, and affection to the Common-wealth which seemed to require we should rectify many mistakes in fact from which erroneous Consequences have been deduced in the message, have call'd forth this Reply. We do not mean to wage a war of messages and addresses which, the experience of former times shows, irritate but never convince. The business of Legislation neither admits our employing our time or spending public money in disputes. If the Engagements of your Excellency and the Honorable Board leave you at leisure to attend to other Cases than those of the Council, we shall always be happy to receive your assistance, and advice in the approved and long practised mode of Conference, not only as the most Constitutional when there is only a single Branch of Legislature, but best adapted for reasoning and conviction Peace and Harmony.

Signed by order of the House.

COPY OF A LETTER, JOHN ADAMS, 1784.

Auteuil, near Paris, Nov. 3d, 1784.

Sir,

Dr. Franklin has lately communicated to Mr. Jefferson and me, a letter he has received from the Comte de Vergennes, and another from Mr. Grand, the first informs that Mr. Marbois had informed him, that upon his application to the superintendant of Finances, he had received an answer by Mr. Gouverneur Morris, that letters should be written both to Amsterdam and Paris, to provide for the payment of the interest of the ten million of livres borrowed for the United States in Holland, by the King, and reminds the American Minister that other interest is due, and the first payment of the capital will become due next year. Mr. Grands letter informs, that he is already about fifty thousand livres in advance for loan office certificates, Salaries, &c. ; These letters the Dr. will no doubt transmit to Congress and as they relate to matters within his Department ; I might have been excused from mentioning them ; if the mention of Amsterdam had not made it probable, that Mr. Morris had it in contemplation to draw upon our Bankers there for money to discharge this interest ; and I cannot excuse myself from observing that if such draughts should be made, I am apprehensive they will be protested.

France is at present in so much danger of being forced to take part in a War, in the low Countries, that I am not surprized at the Comte de Vergennes' attention to matters of revenue and that I cannot see any hope that Doctor Franklin will be able to obtain any relief from this Court.

It will be remembered that there is a debt of near a million and an half sterling to France, and another debt of more than half a million sterling in Holland, whose interests are constantly accruing. There are also salaries to Ministers ; and there is another call for money, which is very pressing. The Commerce of the Mediterranean is of great importance to the United States, and to every one of them, and this commerce cannot be enjoyed without treaties with the Barbary Powers. It will be not only in vain, but dangerous and detrimental to open negotiations with these powers without money for the customary presents. How are all these demands for money to be satisfied ? If Cash, Bills, or produce can be sent to Europe for the purpose, it will be happy for us. But I suppose that no man believes it possible, and therefore we must not only forgo great future advantages, but violate contracts already made, and faith already pledged, and thereby totally ruin our credit, if not expose the property of our Merchants to be seized abroad, or we must borrow more money in Europe. Now there is no part of Europe in which we can expect to borrow, unless it be in Holland, and there we may rely upon it all our hopes will fail us, if effectual measures are not taken to fund our foreign debt, if adequate funds were established for discharging the interest we may hope for further Credit ; without them our circumstances are truly desperate. It is not for me to enter into the question, how this is to be done so far distant, and so long absent, it would be impossible for me to form a Judgment, if the subject were within my province which it is not.

The ability of our people for this and much greater things cannot be doubted by any Man who knows any thing of their affairs, and it is a pity that any questions about the made should retard this most necessary provision for the existence of our Credit abroad.

I have this moment a letter from our bankers at Amsterdam, dated the 28th of Oct. in which they inform me that they have not received the ratification of my last Loan, perhaps it did not arrive till after the recess of Congress. I must earnestly request that Congress would dispatch it as early as possible after their meeting, because the delay of it may excite an alarm, and dash all our hopes at once. The half million sterling which we have obtained in Holland has been all transmitted to America in Dollars by the way of Havannah, or paid in redeeming Bills of Exchange, sold in America for very advantageous premiums; none of it has been laid out in goods, and therefore every other consideration calls upon us to be punctual as well as our honor, which alone, ought to be sufficient.

(Signed,)

JOHN ADAMS.

EXTRACT OF A LETTER FROM THE HONBLE JOHN ADAMS, BENJAMIN FRANKLIN & THOMAS JEFFERSON, 1784.

Extract of a Letter from the Honble John Adams, Benjamin Franklin & Thomas Jefferson, dated at Paris, 11th November, 1784.

"A Letter received from the Count de Vergennes, & another from Mons'r Grand to Doctor Franklin, of which No. 21 & 22 are Copies, give us reason to apprehend an uneasiness in this Court lest we should fail not only in the punctual payment of the interest on their particular Loans, but should permit the payment on the Dutch Loan, which this Court guaranteed, to fall in the first instance upon them. This circumstance under the present probability of a war in Europe might be really inconvenient to them and give unfavorable ideas of the sense we entertain of their past favours. Congress will know whether measures have been taken to make timely payments here, and they can best judge of what exertions the States are capable for reducing their foreign debt, even faster than their stipulations require. A hearty disposition in the people goes far towards making them equal to whatever it is their duty and interest to do; and we cannot help supposing that if our countrymen would boldly look that part of their foreign debt in the face, which they have a right to discharge, if they would view it and view themselves, they would find they could master it, perhaps with a single effort; of this we can assure them that nothing would produce such a revolution in the opinion entertained in Europe of their powers, of their justice & of the tone of their government. If a reputation for equity and gratitude, if a demonstration of our resources and of our resolution, if the subjection of the riches of Europe to our wishes on any future emergency may be bought at half a Guinea a head cannot our countrymen be roused to make the purchase? Add to this that it would command for us a respect which might save us in the end, millions of money, and torrents of blood. Congress we hope will pardon us these reflections. We are on a field where every circumstance tends to produce them. Our instructions as to a gratification and indemnification to John Baptist Pequet has not yet been complied with; Mr. Grand's Letter will assign the reason.

The honor of our own country as well as our own feelings will not permit us to pass unnoticed, that we are now depending for daily subsistence on the bounty of a subject of this Kingdom; A bounty which he tells us in his Letter, "qu'il sera forcé mettre des bornes," (he will be forced to set bonds.) We trust that Congress will be so good as to order us effectual and instantaneous relief from this Situation.

COL. JOSIAH HARMAR TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Camp near Fort Pitt, on the Indian Shore, the Western side of the Alleghany river, December 5th, 1784.

Sir,

I have the honor to inform your Excellency & the Honourable Council of the arrival of the first Detachment of Pennsylvania Troops, composed of Captain Douglass's company of artillery, & Captain Finney's company of Infantry at this place on the 18th, October last.

The second Detachment composed of Captain Zeiglers's & Captain McCurdy's companies of Infantry arrived here on the 29th of the same month.

We have remained in this position till this day, in hourly expectation of the Commissioners; they are just arrived, and upon a Consultation, considering the advanced Season of the year, the difficulty of supplies, Expence of Transportation, &c., to Cayahoga; they have resolved to hold the Treaty at Fort McIntosh, thirty miles distant from Fort Pitt, down the Ohio river.

In Consequence of their resolve, the Troops marched this morning from this Encampment for Fort McIntosh, the Tents baggage &c., are to go by water. Mr. Alexander Lowrey messenger to the Commissioners was dispatched this day to Cayahoga, with an Invitation to the Indians to assemble at Fort McIntosh.

The Fort is in very bad order, & will require considerable repairs before the Troops can have comfortable winter quarters.

Inclosed, your Excellency & the Honourable Council, will be pleased to receive a return of the Pennsylvania Troops, likewise a List of all Deserters with their descriptions since the corps was raised. Lieut. Herbert, I have ordered suspended in his command & have written this day to the Secretary in the War Office for orders in his case, as a General Court Martial cannot be convened for his Trial.

The List of Deserters is indeed very considerable owing to the extreme hurry in raising the corps; I apprehend the chief part of these Villains must be lurking about the City of Philadelphia, as most all of them had attachments there. I have suggested to the Secretary in the War office, that perhaps it might be advisable to advertize & offer pardon to them, provided they delivered themselves up in a limited time; your Excellency will please to observe that my Total at present is only 231 including Non-Comd. offrs. & music consequently 29 are wanting to complete; my sole dependance is, upon apprehending the deserters, in order to have my full complement of men.

I have the honor to be,

WM. ATTLEE TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

Lancaster, ye 3rd January, 1785.

Sir,

I was yesterday honoured with your Letter of the 17th of last month, mentioning that the original minute of my appointment as Deputy Commissary Genl. of Musters for Lancaster County cannot be found and requesting that a Copy of it may be transmitted to you.

At the time of my resignation of that appointment I handed the original to Council with whom it remained, & as I did not keep a Copy of it, cannot have the honour of complying with the wish of Council by transmitting it. Upon examining the Copies of muster Rolls in my possession, the earliest date I find is the 12th of August 1776, when I mustered some of the first Company's of ye Militia who marched to Jersey from this County (tho' we had Guards on duty over the Prisoners of War taken at St. John &c., for a considerable time beyond that)—it was sometime after that when I received the regular appointment as Depy. Comy. Genl. of muster for Lancaster County, the date of which I cannot ascertain, & it was I think, in February 1778 that I resigned the appointment to his Excellency President Wharton & the Honble. Council then at Lancaster from a persuasion that there was an impropriety in my holding that appointment under the State, after taking the oaths as one of the Justices of the supreme Court.

I should gladly have complied with the commands of Council was it in my power.

with sentiments of respect,

COL. JOSEPH HARMAR TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

Fort McIntosh, January 15th, 1785.

Sir,

I had the honor of addressing your Excellency and the Honorable Council on the 5th ult*, inclosing a return of the Pennsylvania Troops in the service of the United States, dated the 1st December last.*

* See page, 390.

Inclosed your Excellency will be pleased to receive another Monthly return of the Troops, dated the 1st inst.

The whole corps have been on constant fatigue since their arrival here, in repairing the fort, and fitting up rooms, Stores, &c.; for accommodating the Continental and State Commissioners; which has injured the clothing much.

A few days since, the Treaty commenced, and I believe will be satisfactorily concluded against the latter end of this month; altho' the Chiefs of the Wyondot's, Chippaway's Delaware's & Otaway's, which are the Nations that are assembled here,) in a speech they delivered at the Council fire yesterday, held out an Idea to the Continental Commissioners, that they still looked upon the Lands which the United States held by the Treaty with Great Britain, as their own; but the Commissioners have answered them in a high tone; the Purport of which was, that as they had adhered during the war to the King of Great Britain, they were considered by us as a conquered people, and had therefore nothing to expect from the United States, but must depend altogether upon their Lenity and Generosity. This spirited answer it is supposed will have the Desired Effect.

The State Commissioners I believe will not have the least difficulty in transacting their business, which lays with the Wyondot & Delaware Nations.

INDIAN COMM'RS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

Fort McIntosh, Jan'y 16, 1785.

Sir,

Opportunities to Philadelphia very seldom offer, and indeed the present is an uncertain one, we therefore hope this will apologize for our communications not being more frequent.

We now have the honor of informing your Excellency that our business wears a very promising aspect. The Wiandotte and the several Tribes of the Delaware Nation with whom alone we are to negotiate, (for the Shawanese have no claim,) have agreed to our proposals, and as soon as peace shall be established, which we doubt not, the Continental Commissioners will effect: in a few days, we shall have our Deed executed in due legal form for the unpurchased Lands within the acknowledged limits of Pennsylvania.*

Desirous of returning to Philadelphia to make a final Report of our proceedings to your Excellency and the Honorable Council, we shall use all possible diligence in bringing our negotiations to a close. We have the Honor to be,

THOS. MCKEAN TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

Philadelphia, January 17th, 1785.

Sir,

A certain Abraham Bare & son of John Bare, a worthy citizen of Lancaster county, about the month of January, 1778, being then a very young man, was seduced by a traitor to assist him in conveying several Hessian prisoners of war from Lancaster to this City, and for reward delivering them up to General Sir William Howe. As soon as this traffick was discovered, Judge Atlee issued his warrant to apprehend them, but they fled, and took refuge with the British army. However a short time previous to their evacuation of the city, Bare left them, was attainted of treason by a proclamation of the Supreme Executive Council, and his estate was sold by the Agents for forfeited estates; since this he has lurked in secret places in the back counties, in constant dread of the hand of justice.

Judge Atlee has lately informed me that he is fully satisfied, this man has become a sincere penitent. In consideration of which, he joins with me in recommending him as an object worthy of the humanity and mercy of Your Excellency and the Council, and in interceding for a pardon for his person, "that he may live and not die."

We have received your Letter of the 14th, & are very much obliged to you for the Intelligence conveyed in it, & for the attention you have had to the Interest of your Native Land.

We have desired Mr. Henry fully to communicate to you, the Information we have given him upon the subject; and we hope they are such as will afford you great satisfaction, and convince you that Pennsylvania has been more offended against than offending in this troublesome Business. ## PRES. DICKINSON TO PRES. OF CONGRESS, 1785.

In Council, January 18th, 1785.

Sir,

On the 20th of last Month, we had the honor of addressing a Letter to you enclosing copies of a Law of this State, entitled "An Act to carry into immediate Effect the Resolutions of the United States in Congress assembled for adjusting the claims of individuals of this Commonwealth against the said United States," & of Resolutions of the General Assembly upon the same subject.

We requested an early determination of Congress upon the Business; and while we trust that Congress will do justice to the respectful deference for them, which induces us earnestly to wish that they may appoint the additional Commissioners, we also confide that they will consider the situation in which we are placed by delaying the execution of a Law, & will therefore think our Conduct very proper in repeating our Request.

We were informed last Saturday, that application has been made to Congress on behalf of Claimers of Lands within this State,—the Jurisdiction over which was lately claimed by the State of Connecticut, for a Court to be appointed to try their private Right of soil.

The Recess of the General Assembly at this time who cannot meet till the first of next month, and several other circumstances will put it out of our power to have this matter brought before Congress in a proper manner sooner than about the middle of February. We therefore hope that no Measures will be adopted in this important affair, untill this Commonwealth is prepared to offer her Representations to Congress upon it.

PRES. DICKINSON TO DELEGATES IN CONGRESS, 1785.

In Council, January 18th, 1785.

Gentlemen,

On the 20th of last month* we wrote to you concerning the late Act & Resolution of Assembly for adjusting claims of Individuals against the United States, earnestly requesting your exertions, to obtain an appointment of the additional Commissioners by Congress, as the Assembly is soon to meet, & the pressure of affairs calls for a speedy Decision of the Business, we now think it our Duty to repeat our Request, assuring you, that the Decision cannot be delayed without very disagreeable consequences.

We now inclose several papers relating to the Claims and Conduct of the persons pretending Right to the Lands at & near to Wyoming, & the proceedings of this State thereon, being informed that application has been made to Congress for a Court to be appointed under the ninth article of the Confederation, to try the private Right of soil.

The late Assembly was of opinion, that those persons were not entitled to such a Court; and therefore it seems proper, that the appointment in this case should be contested. Two Gentlemen of the Law Messrs. Wilson & Bradford were employed as agents among other things, to dispute that point. They repaired to Annapolis, & appeared there on the 28th of last June, according to the preceding Resolutions of Congress; but no person was there to Act on Behalf of Connecticut or the Claimants. It is impossible in any very short time to send those gentlemen to New York properly prepared. Respect for the General Assembly dictates that their Sentiments on this very important Business should be known and regarded; and we are persuaded, that this State cannot fully offer Representations even against the appointment of the Court untill about the Middle of next month.

We rely on your prudence to make the best use of the intelligence now communicated to you. The first point, is to prevent any step being taken by Congress in the matter, untill the sentiments of the Legislative branch can be known. If this delay cannot be obtained, we desire you to give us the earliest notice of the Day fixed by Congress for appointing a Court, that we may prevail upon Messrs. Wilson & Bradford, if it be possible for them to attend.

Duty to ourselves requires us to shew and candour will induce even the State of Connecticut to acknowledge, that tho' several violent and outrageous acts have been committed by individuals of this State; yet that such acts were not more opposed to Justice and humanity than to the spirit and meaning of the Authority and Laws of this Commonwealth.

The inclosed paper will shew the uniform Lenity of this Government and in many instances their extreme anxiety to bring the Connecticut Claimants into an affectionate confidence upon its dispositions and its laws.

It is much to be regretted that these endeavours have been so uniformly treated with insolence and neglect by the People, they were intended to relieve and attach, and that we should have it in our power to oppose so many facts authenticated in the most solemn manner, to their feeble unsupported professions of Loyalty and obedience.

A late outrage mentioned in the deposition inclosed from which it appears that they have plundered Men, Women and Children, indiscriminately and obliged near 600 people to fly from their homes and seek a precarious subsistence in the Neighbouring Counties, is so alarming and unaccountable in its nature as to induce a belief in this Board that the system of Lenity which they have hitherto pursued, is no longer calculated to promote either the honor or happiness of Pennsylvania.

I am, Gentlemen, with great Regard,

Yours obedient and very humble servant,

JOHN DICKINSON.*

PRES. DICKINSON TO JAMES WILSON, 1785.

In Council, January 20th, 1785.

Sir,

As you have been appointed one of the agents for managing the Dispute concerning the private Right of soil to the Lands on the * See list of documents, &c., sent. Col. Rec., Vol. XIV, pp. 818-821.

Susquehannah, the Jurisdiction over which was lately in Controversy between this State & the State of Connecticut, we think it proper to inform you, that application has been made to Congress since their adjournment to New York, for the appointment of a Court under the ninth article of the confederation, to try the said Right.

Understanding that you propose to be at New York in the course of the next week, We desire, that you will employ all the Means in your Power, to prevent any step being taken in the Business, untill the general assembly meet on the first of next month, and they can be consulted upon it.

The Delegates of this State will give you all the Intelligences on the subject, which we have communicated to them; but it will require considerable time to collect Documents, & have them Copied, in order to be fully prepared to make proper Representations in Behalf of this Commonwealth.

The late assembly were clearly of opinion, that the Claimants were not entitled to such a Court as has been mentioned, & we apprehend, no appointment ought to be made, nor any Decision given upon the Question of Right, till the sense of the present assembly can be known, & they can be heard, if they judge it advisable to controvert the propriety of an appointment.

As several Communications have been made by us to you, some time ago upon this affair, we do not doubt but you will make the best use of them & of those you may receive from the Delegates for maintaining the Honor & Interests of the State.

I am with great Respect,

Sir, your most obe'dt H'ble Serv<sup>t</sup>,

JOHN DICKINSON.

MANAGERS OF THE STATE LOTTERY TO COUNCIL, 1785.

To the Honorable the Supreme Executive Council, The Managers of the State Lottery,

Most respectfully represent,

That they have taken all possible means to avail themselves of the late encouragement given by the Assembly for promoting the sale of tickets in the said Lottery; all which hitherto have, and as the managers believe, will prove abortive, unless a day is fixed when the drawing shall absolutely commence.

That they are induced to be of this opinion by the repeated applications made for information on that subject, and the almost daily declarations of numbers who incline to become adventurers, that they will not purchase tickets until it shall be known when the drawing will begin.

The managers therefore beg leave to propose to the Honorable Council, that Monday, the second day of May next, be fixed for the commencement of the drawing of the first class.

HON. JOHN JAY SEC'Y OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS TO PRES.
DICKINSON, 1785.

(Circular.)

Office for foreign Affairs,

New York, Jan'y 29th, 1785.

Sir,

I have the Honour of transmitting to your Excell'y official Extracts from the Journals of Congress of the sixteenth day of May, and of twenty-first day of Decr last. The first certifies my appointment to be "Secretary of the United States of America for the Department of foreign Affairs" and the second my having accepted that Place and taken the oath of Office. The latter happened only two days before the adjournment of Congress from Trenton to meet at this Place on the 11th Instant.

The Removal of the office from there here, and the time necessarily employed in preparing accommodations for it, and putting things in order for Business, delayed its being opened before yesterday, and will account for my not having sooner requested the Honor of your Correspondence.

Permit me to observe, Sir, that it is part of my duty "to correspond with the Governors or Presidents of all or any of the United States, affording them such information from his Department as may be useful to their States or to the United States, stating Complaints that may have been urged against the Government of any of the said States or the Subjects thereof by the Subjects of foreign Powers, so that justice may be done agreeably to the Laws of such State or the charge proved to be groundless, and the Honor of the Government vindicated."

It will be unnecessary to remark to your Excell'y the influence of our domestic affairs on our foreign, their intimate connexion with each other, and how necessary it is that they who are concerned in conducting the latter should be accurately informed of the State of the former.

These Considerations lead me to request the favor of your Excellency to afford me from time to time such Intelligence on this Head as you may deem important, and particularly that you would be so obliging as to send me a copy of the Laws of your State now in force, and also copies of such as may from time to time be passed. Cases may happen in which a reference to these Laws will be indispensable, and for that and other Reasons I am anxious that the Office for foreign affairs should have a compleat Collection of them. Whatever Expence may be occasioned by it, shall be immediately paid out of the monies provided for the contingent Expences of the Office

Your Excellency may rely on my punctuality in communicating to you whatever Intelligence my Department may afford that may be useful for you to know.

DAVID MEAD TO COUNCIL, 1785.

Wioming, February 6th, 1785.

Gentlemen :

I lament that I have occasion to address you on the affair of this unhappy part of the State. I have delayed writing until all hopes of establishing any kind of order is vanished—it is true that irregularities have been committed by many of the Pennsylvanians against the Connecticut Claimants, but great Care has been taken that the Offenders are generally prosecuted with severity, and the Courts of Justice are yet open—And unwearied pains have been taken to convince those Claimants of the determined Honor and Justice of the State to afford them every restitution in the reach of the Law—But all to no purpose—who have descended to commit almost every kind of disorder, and bid defiance to Government, so that the exercise of the Civil authority is altogether impracticable ; they have app<sup>d</sup> two or three Committees to transact different kinds of business for the promotion of their designs ; they have formed their Militia, appointed Field and other Officers in contempt of the state—many inoffensive families are now under orders immediately to move away, or their effects to be made a Reprisal of. Therefore, as a Citizen and Servant of Government, I am obliged to claim your protection and support, and am, in the mean time, Gentlemen,

New York, Febr<sup>y</sup> 7th, 1785.

Sir,

The Wioning dispute rests at present, and we hope will do so for some time—we have seen Mr Wilson and rec<sup>d</sup> by him some additional papers to those brought on by Mr Hervy, relating to that unhappy dispute.

The Report of a Committee upon your Exc<sup>'s</sup> letter, with y<sup>e</sup> inclosures, relative to the appointment of additional Comm<sup>'s</sup> for settling & adjusting the acc<sup>'s</sup> of the Citizens of Penn<sup>a</sup> against the United States, remains undetermined until a report is brought in to prevent frauds supposed to be practised by some persons having unsettled acc<sup>'s</sup>, and stated to Congress by Mr. Denning, Comm<sup>'r</sup> in this state, which we hope will be made to morrow.

The first report, as brought in, and which we have reason to believe will pass, comes up fully to the Idea of the Legislature as expressed in the act, and we hope they will see the propriety of a further suspension of the operation of that Law rather than suffer the state to be reproached with an unfoederal measure, especially as the objects of it can suffer very little by a delay of a week or 10 days, and perhaps not half that time.

Fort McIntosh, February 8th, 1785.

Sir,

I had the honor of addressing your Excellency & the Honorable Council on the 15th ult., inclosing a return of the Pennsylvania troops in the Service of the United States, dated the 1st ult.*

Inclosed, your Excellency will be pleased to receive another monthly return of the Troops, dated the 1st instant. ^

The honorable the State Commissioners, Colonel Atlee & Colonel Johnston, by this time, I imagine, must have arrived at Philadelphia, by whom your Exc<sup>y</sup> & the Honorable Council will hear of the Satisfactory Conclusion of the Treaty with the Indians at this post.

This Garrison is at length, by hard fatigue of the troops, put in tolerable order. I beg Leave to observe to your Excellency & the Honorable Council, that unless some person is directed to remain here, that immediately upon my marching from hence, it will be demolished by the Emigrators to Kentucky.

Previous to our arrival, they had destroyed the gates, drawn all the Nails from the roofs, taken off all the boards, & plundered it of every Article.

I would therefore recommend (for the benefit of the State) to your Excellency & the Honorable Council, to adopt some mode for its preservation, otherwise immediately upon our leaving it, it will again go to ruin.

Sir,

I beg leave to remind you of the subjects we conversed upon last night, the appointment of Delegates and the Determination of the Assembly respecting the Disposal of the old Prison, workhouse & Lot

It is the wish of Council, that the House would revise the act passed in 1705 for bailing of Prisoners & as the allowance for prisoners therein mentioned still continues, & from the increased Price of Bread is certainly insufficient.

The sheriff of Montgomery county has represented, that there is Paragraph of a Letter to an eminent Dutch Merchant in London.

Philadelphia, September 29.

"At length one of the secret articles transpires settled by Mr. Adams in behalf of the thirteen free and independent States of America and the seven United States of Holland viz. : In case of a rupture between the seven United States and other Powers the States of America agree to furnish ten Regiments each Regiment consisting of one Colonel, one Lieutenant colonel, one Major, one Captain, two Lieutenants, two Ensigns, three Sergeants, three Corporals, two Drums and ninety privates, to be transported to the Dutch West India islands or their settlements on the Spanish Main, or to Holland if required ; and in case of an attack upon any of the thirteen United States of America, the Dutch have agreed to furnish them with ten ships of the Line: the rank and conditions of payment I could not particularly get at. This information you may rely on, as it came last night from Mr Van B——l, the Dutch resident here. Should there be an immediate occasion, the Grand Monarch of Germany will find ten thousand of those daring spirits wafted to the Eastern Continent, who had presumption enough to oppose the disgraceful and arbitrary measures adopted by the Government in which you now reside (which lost them this Country.) There are Dutch and other Ships in this harbour, sufficient to receive that number of troops in six weeks,"

RESOLUTION OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY.—BOUNDARY, &amp;c, 1785.

State of Pennsylvania In General Assembly, 1785.

Friday February 18, 1785. A. M.

The report of the committee appointed to confer with the Commissioners &c., read February 16, was read the second time and adopted as following (viz.)

The committee appointed on the eleventh instant to confer with the Commissioners elected in pursuance of the third resolution of the General Assembly, adopted the fifteenth day of September 1783, to examine the navigation of the Susquehanna, and to ascertain as near as conveniently may be where the northern boundary of this State will fall &c., beg leave to report.

That the ascertaining of the Northern boundary of this State is rendered the more immediately necessary by the late purchase of territory from the Indians, and the design of opening the Land Office for the Sale of lands bordering on the said boundary especially as your committee are well informed that the six nations of Indians have appointed one of their Chiefs to attend the Commissioners on the part of this State in running and marking the said boundary line as early as the season will admit.

That on considering the objects of the said resolution of the fifteenth day of September 1783, your committee are highly sensible of their importance to the true interests of this State, and as they may be effected by the same Commissioners without any considerable additional expence, your committee are of opinion that they ought also to be carried into execution.

That your committee have conferred with two of the said Commissioners, and find that they are nearly prepared and propose to set out on the business about the first of April, but as greater accuracy seems now to be requisite in ascertaining the northern boundary, than was formerly in contemplation, a further supply of mathematical instruments may be necessary.

Your committee therefore offer the following resolutions.

Resolved, That the Commissioners appointed in pursuance of the said third resolution of the General Assembly of this State, adopted on the fifteenth of September 1783, be directed to proceed as early as may be to execute the objects of their appointment so far as may be done without proceeding up the Susquehanna beyond the limits of this State, being careful to mark the northern boundary line thereof in such manner as that the same may be readily known and understood by the Surveyors and settlers, also by the Indians who may approach the same.

Resolved, that the Supreme Executive Council be and they are hereby authorized and desired to cause to be paid out of the Treasury of this State to the said Commissioners such sum of money as to the said Council shall appear proper in addition to what the said Commissioners have heretofore received, for the purpose of purchasing instruments, provisions and other necessities for the said service and also such sum and sums as the said Commissioners or any of them shall respectively require on account of their pay, not exceeding fifty pounds to each of the said Commissioners.

Resolved, That the President and Supreme Executive Council of this State be desired to inclose the foregoing resolutions to the Governor of the State of New York and to request that Commissioners on the part of that State may be appointed to run and mark a temporary line between the States of Pennsylvania and New York, in conjunction with the Commissioners of this State; and that the Commissioners of this State be directed to meet at the north-east corner of this State, or Station point as heretofore settled, on the first day of April next.

DORSEY PENTECOST TO PRES. DICKINSON,—BOUNDARY, 1785.

Philadelphia, Feby. 19th, 1785.

Sir,

On applying to the Register of the Land Office under claims to Lands derived from the State of Virginia, I find many obstructions in carrying them through the different offices of this State, which I beg leave briefly to state to your Honorable Board.

*See page, 412.

18*

First,—The County Surveyor alleges that it is impossible for him to execute the different Surveys agreeable to the Instructions received from the Property Board, as it subjects him to tedious Litigations on many Surveys, too burdensome for him, and in a Great measure involves his reputation in the determinations thereof.

Secondly,—On my producing to the Register Sundry receipts for Composition money paid to the Virg. Commissioners, appointed to settle the claims to unpatented Lands and grant Certificates, and orders of Surveys.—I was told that they could not be admitted in his Office, untill proof was made that the Gentleman who signed them was Bonifida Clerk to the said Board of Commissioners. He farther observed he was under difficulty to determine the authenticity of the Orders issued by the Commissioners, as he is not furnished with a Copy of their Commission, or appointment. He also mentioned other difficulties for want of some of the Virginia Laws.

Upon the whole I find myself (and others) greatly imbaras'd in procuring permanent Titles for our property, for which in the first instance we risked the lives of ourselves and Families, and in the next paid our money to the State of Virginia,

One other mischievous evil is daily growing, Involving us in deeper difficulties, and subjecting us to tedious and expensive Law Suits. I mean the Warrants constantly Issuing for Lands actually under Virginia Titles. And the Surveyors can find no difficulty in the Execution of them, because there is nothing to obstruct them, but the bare Ipse-dixit of the Person claiming under Virginia, for I take it for granted that producing a Certificate from the Commissioners can have no weight under the Idea, conveyed from the above state of this matter.

Your Excellency and Council being in my opinion the only power adequate to this very interesting Subject, and the willingness you have ever demonstrated to do Justice has induced me to adress you for remedy and if Possible to put us on a speedy Equitable, and certain footing to obtain Patants for those Lands that has cost us so dear.

I know this is a Business that requires some attention and Investigation, and consequently must give you trouble, and perhaps cannot at this stage of the bussiness be put on a footing altogether devoted of difficulty and Imbarassment, but permit me to observe that the longer it is delayed the greater those Imbarasments will be.

When your Excellency and Council reflects how sensibly I am (with hundreds of others) affected with a delay of this Bussiness, you will I hope pardone the liberty I have taken in this adress, especially when I assure your Excellency that nothing but the most pressing necessity, necessity and appearance of certain ruin could have produced an application of this kind, you will excuse me for entertaining Ideas not favourable of some who to our misfortune have influenced this business.

If Council should be at a loss for information on this subject, I beg leave to recommend an Enquiry at Colos. Ritchee and Cannon now in this City, and Gentlemen on whose veracity the utmost Confidence may be placed.

It is unnecessary as well as improper for me in this place to pretend a State different circumstances attendant on this business as your Honourable Board can be fully informed from Gentlemen Dispassionate and disinterested.

I have the Honor to be,
with perfect Esteem your Excellencies, most obed. very Hmb Servt.

MINISTER OF HOLLAND TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

Translation.

Sir,

I have read with surprize in Humphrey's & Oswald's paper the paragraph,* of which a Copy is here inclosed. Altho' the Contents of it appear only to be ridiculous & contemptible, yet the Liberty which is there taken to use the name of a foreign Minister, in order to give a sanction to the malicious inventions of some restless, meddling individuals, appears to me of such a nature, that I cannot think of passing it over in silence. I think myself obliged, Sir, to make representations to you on the subject, & to submit it to the consideration & Judgment of your Excellency, whether Equity and good policy do not require, that such an unwarrantable act be duly punished, and that government should take proper measures to shew how highly such an attempt provokes their indignation, that the author of this falshood may be exposed to public contempt, & the falsity of the account he gives, may be known every where.

As I make no doubt but your Excellency will easily find out the proper means of attaining this end; I put all my confidence in your best Judgment, while I have the honor to be with much Esteem & consideration,

DAVID REDICK TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

Philadelphia, 24th Feb'y, 1785.

Honorable Gentlemen,

I have lately received instructions from the Surveyor Gen'l to Survey in the County of Washington, on Virg. Titles, the difficulties which I find in complying with those instructions appears to me so great as to render a compliance impracticable. A very short experience has convinced me, that to attend on the taking depositions, &c., considering the difficulty of getting witnesses together, before a justice or Majistrate, as well from their being often wide scattered, as from the Majistrate often residing far from the place of Action, makes it in my humble opinion an almost insurmountable part of my duty; not only so, but if it could be even conveniently done, it will greatly involve me in mischief, in as much as the unfortunate Claimants, will often be disposed to gather as much trash as may lay fals Signs of guilt on me; this will happen the more certainly in as much as many people are by no means capable of knowing, when my duty has been faithfully performed, and I should think it hard to be brought frequently to Philadelphia to Account for my Conduct, on the complaint of an individual when many cases might be such as to make it very difficult to me, to know how to act; and still much more difficult to convince government as to my reasons for so doing; when length of time & multiplicity of business might not leave a single mark of the transaction on my mind.

Another difficulty, of Executing Surveys, at the time mentioned in the public notice to be given agreeable to these instructions, the changes of seasons, as well as other unavoidable intervening accidents will often prevent its being punctually complied with; and it is Easy to see that one single accident of this sort, will naturally confuse after business; this observation alone I hope will convince your Honorable Board, that my business cannot at all be carried on regularly, which alone gives life & spring to business, unless the whole surveying of a Township or the like could be done together as it were, which cannot be, as few of the inhabitants of the same district will be prepared at the same time with that of some of their neighbours.

Another thing Honorable gentlemen would be of especial use to the inhabitants of Washington County that is, to know what kind of Virg<sup>a</sup> Titles are deemed legal and valid, for many of the people if they only knew their claim to be ill founded, would immediately apply to the office of this State Else time may put it out of their power on the same favorable Term as are held out at present to secure their lands. Honorable Gentlemen I hope to meet with your indulgence for troubling your Board with so tedious a letter, if you will believe that a real regard to the good of public business, & my own future fame are Reasons which has prompted me.

SEC'Y ARMSTRONG TO SMITH &amp; KELLY, 1785.

Secretary's Office, 28th Feb., 1785.

Sir,

Under the directions of Council, I wrote you some time since, (on the 8d of Sept. 1784,) informing you, that it was the opinion of Council that your appointment as a Justice of the peace for Mountjoy township, was void in itself, being founded upon an election held contrary to law, & directing you to resign your commission without further delay.

It is however with some degree of astonishment that they have seen this notice of their wishes treated with so disrespectful a silence, and with still more surprize have they heard, that in direct opposition to them, you have continued to exercise the duties of an appointment thus illegally obtained. It is the object of this letter therefore to require you within ten days from the date hereof, or as early thereafter as possible to transmit your resignation of the appointm<sup>t</sup> aff<sup>d</sup> to this office, and thus spare Council the necessity of issuing a public supersedeas.

Gov. CLINTON, OF N. Y., TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

New York, 11th March, 1785.

Sir,

Previous to my receipt of your Excellency's Letter of the 19th February,* inclosing Resolutions of your General Assembly, a Bill had originated in our Legislature for running and marking the jurisdiction Line between this State and Pennsylvania, which has since passed into a Law, and I have now the Honor to inclose you a Copy of it.

Your Excellency will perceive that instead of a temporary Line between the two States, which appears to be the object of your Assembly, our Law provides for the establishment of a permanent Line; and I flatter myself, that upon a reconsideration of the matter, your Legislature will concur in the Idea. I presume it will be admitted if a temporary Line only was to run, it should be done with accuracy to prevent the obvious inconveniencies which the Borderers would be subject to as the Settlements advance on either side; and the consequent broils which the two States might be involved in by an incorrect Line in the first Instance, and in this Case there can be but little additional expence incurred in rendering it perfect and permanent.

By the Act, you will observe, it is left with our Council to appoint Commissioners for this Service on the part of this State, which shall be done, and their Names transmitted to your Excellency, and every other necessary Arrangement made on our part for carrying the business into effect, so soon as I shall be informed of the Concurrence of your State.†

David Rittenhouse, or such other Person as might be Appointed on the part of Pennsylvania, to fix the beginning of the Forty-third Degree of North Latitude, on the Mohawk or Western Branch of Delaware, and to proceed Westward as far as the Season would permit, along the Beginning of the said Degree, which is the Boundary between this State and the State of Pennsylvania.

And whereas, the Honorable John Penn, Esquire, late Governor of the late Province, now Commonwealth, of Pennsylvania, did, on the Twenty-fourth day of October, in the Year aforesaid, Nominate and Appoint the said David Rittenhouse to proceed on the like Service, in Conjunction with the said Samuel Holland, or such other Person as should be Appointed on the part of the then Province, now State, of New York.

And whereas, the said Samuel Holland and David Rittenhouse, did, in pursuance of their said respective Appointments, proceed on the said Business, and made a Return thereof, under their Hands, bearing Date at Philadelphia, the fourteenth day of December, in the same Year, by which Return it appears that the said Commissioners Ascertained and fixed the Beginning of the Forty-third Degree of North Latitude, on the Mohawk or Western Branch of Delaware, and there, in a small Island, planted a Stone, with the Letters { NEW-YORK, } 1774,

VAR.  $4^{\circ} 20'$ , thence due West on the West side of Delaware River, then Collected a Heap of Stones at High Water Mark; and in the said West Line, four Perches distant, planted another Stone with the Letters { PENNSYLVANIA, } 1774,

on the Top, LAT.  $42^{\circ}$  VAR.  $4^{\circ} 20'$ , and thence due West Eighteen Perches marked an Ash Tree; and that the Rigour of the Season prevented them from proceeding further, as by the Report of the said Commissioners filed, with a Map annexed thereto, and filed of Record in the Secretaries Office of this State, will more fully Appear.

And whereas, it is necessary that said Line should be run out—Marked and Ascertained,

Therefore be it enacted by the People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority of the same, That the Surveyor General of this State be, and he is hereby, Appointed and Authorized on the part of this State, to meet such Person or Persons, who, in like Manner may be Appointed and Authorized on the Part of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, at such Time or Times, Place or Places, as shall be agreed upon and determined by the Persons Administering the Governments of this State for the time being, and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, then and there to run out, mark and Ascertain the said Line of Jurisdiction between this State and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, beginning at the Place so fixed and Ascertained by the said Commissioners as above mentioned, on the Mohawk or Western Branch of Delaware, at the beginning of the Forty-third Degree of North Latitude, and from thence to proceed Westward along the beginning of the said Forty-third Degree of North Latitude as far as this State and the said Commonwealth of Pennsylvania border on each other.

And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Surveyor General of this State be, and he is hereby, Authorized and empowered to employ a Surveyor or Surveyors, Chainbearers, and such and so many other Persons as may be found Necessary to perform the Executive part in running, marking, and Ascertaining the said Line in conjunction with such Person or Persons as may be Appointed on the part of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for that purpose; And such Line so Agreed upon, Approved of and Consented to by the said Surveyor General of this State and such Person or Persons as shall be Appointed by, and on the part of, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, being reported to the Persons Administering the Government of this State and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, for the Time being, and Ratified and Confirmed by the Legislature of this State and the Legislature of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, shall at all Times hereafter, be the Line of Jurisdiction between this State and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Surveyor General be, and he is hereby, Authorized from time to time to draw upon the Treasurer of this State for such Sums of Money as he shall Judge Necessary for defraying the Expenses of running out, marking and Ascertaining the said Jurisdiction Line on the part of this State, not exceeding in the whole, the Sum of One Thousand Pounds, for which he is to be accountable.*

CIRCULAR OF CONGRESS ON CLAIMS, 1785.

(Circular.)

Secretary's Office, March 18th, 1785.

Sir,

Congress being impressed with the Necessity of limiting a time for all persons having unliquidated Claims against the United States to bring in such Claims, as well for the purpose of ascertaining with the utmost expedition the amount of the National debt, as to prevent or detect the attempts that are making to defraud the public, have passed the resolution which I have the honor to enclose.

As it is of importance to the inhabitants of your State, who have just Claims against the United States, to be informed of this as speedily as possible, I trust your Excellency will excuse the liberty I take in addressing this resolution to you and requesting that you will be pleased to give the Necessary Orders for making it known to all concerned, by causing it to be printed and dispersed through the different Counties and districts of your State, or in such other way as you shall judge best.

With great respect,

I have the honor to be

Your Excellency's most Obedient and most humble Serv<sup>t</sup>,

His Excellency The President of Pennsylvania.

OFFICERS OF PENNS'A RECOMMENDING WM. IRVINE AS LAND AGENT, 1785.

Philadelphia, March 21st, 1785.

Sir,

We the Subscribers, a Committee chosen by the officers of the late Pennsy<sup>a</sup> line, beg leave to inform the Supreme Executive Council, that there is now before the Honorable House of Assembly, a Bill for directing the mode of distributing the Donation lands† granted to the late officers & Soldiers of said line, in which the appointment of an Agent to see justice done to the State, as well as to the Individuals, is left in your honorable Board.

We therefore pray that Council will be pleased to appoint William Irvine, Esqr.,† to that office, if the Bill passes in its present State, as he is a Gentleman well acquainted with the land appropriated for that purpose, and who is, we humbly conceive, worthy your Confidence, as well as that of your most humble Servants,

JAMES MILLIGAN, C. T., TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

Comptroller's Office,

March 24th, 1785.

Sir,

In pursuance of the Resolutions of Congress of the 23d February last, empowering me to nominate the Commissioners therein mentioned, I do myself the honor to nominate John Story, Esquire as an additional Commissioner for Settling the Accounts between the State of Pennsylvania and the United States and for Liquidating and settling the claims of the Citizens of that State against the United States, &c., according to the meaning and intention of the Act of Congress of the 20th of February, 1782.

I think it necessary to observe to your Excellency that this Gentleman is a native of the State of Massachusetts, and was for some years employed in public Accounts in the Office of Major General Green, when Quarter Master General. He is recommended to me as a man of Strict integrity, Industry and knowledge of Accounts. I hope he may be acceptable, and that his Conduct may be such as to deserve the approbation of all honest men, and correspond with the Character I have received.

I have the honor to be with great respect, Sir,

your Excellency's most

Obedient Hum. Servant,*

To the Honorable the Supreme Executive Council.
Gentlemen,

The expences incur'd by paving and Graveling at the front of the State House, Obliged me to expend the money drawn for other repairs of the buildings and involved me in debts for part of the bricks, hauling and labour, also for sundry materials for the repairs—those balances the persons are desirous of having paid.

Therefore request the Hon'ble Council will please to order the

Honble Sir,

When I last had the Honour of waiting on your Excellency in Company with 'Mr. Hutchins; I informed you that it would not be necessary for both Mr. Rittenhouse and myself to be employed in running the western boundary of the State in conjunction with the Virginia Commissioners in the ensuing summer. I mentioned farther y<sup>t</sup> my connection with the university, & my own church would require my continuance in Philadelphia, and that therefore I should no longer be considered as holding the Commission with which the Council had been pleased to honour me in the preceding year. Lest this might have escaped your memory in the Multiplicity of public Business, I have taken the Liberty of requesting Y<sup>r</sup> Excellency to give this information to Council, and am, Sir,

MICHAEL HUFFNAGLE TO GEN'L ARMSTRONG, 1785.

Dear Sir,

I received yours a few days ago, with Mr. Brown's papers inclosed, and shall do every thing in my power to get Subscribers.

I wish you to mention to His Excellency, the President and Council that having obtained Judgment against Conrad Winemiller at the Suit of the Common Wealth on four Bonds due to Ross & Thompson; I gave him notice of the same upon which he called on me, as the Bonds were given for Lands sold to him; I requested to see his Bill of sale, & found by it, that the Lands he purchased were Located in the Name of John Dunn & Robert Mitchell; & by my return to Council you will find that 150 acres were sold to Abdel M. Clure, being part of the Lands Located in the Name of John Dunn. I give this notice that no Deed may issue for the same.

I also wish you to mention that a great number of people are settling on the Lands, over the Allegany River, within the Bounds of this State; as soon as I heard of it, I immediately issued a Warrant directed to the Sheriff to apprehend such as he could get, & in case of resistance, to call on the Commandant at this post, who promised me to give such assistance as the Sheriff might stand in need of; as the Assembly is now sitting, something ought to be done immediately, otherwise in a short time the Lands will be settled, notwithstanding all I can do, or order to be done.

I have made inquiry agreeable to order of Council, respecting the Claim of Major Craig, & find that the Commanding Officer then, had orders from General Gage to demolish the Works and sell the Ruins of the Garrison, which he did, & that Ross & Thompson became the purchasers. I imagine that the best Testimony that can be had will be General St. Clair & General Hand. I think that

* See page 149.

General St. Clair mentioned to me that they were sold by the consent of Mr. Penn, & General Hand was the person who sold them, but Q<sup>r</sup>, whether the Crown had not a right to demolish any of their works & sell the Ruins at that time in any part of her American plantation; this I leave to better Judges. I wish you also to inform me by the first opportunity, whether debts due to the Commonwealth by Confiscation will come under the same Law as debts Between private persons before January, seventy-seven, as all the debts due to Ross, are before that period.

I wish Mr. Trimble, by the first opportunity, to send me the laws of the two last sittings of Assembly.

I have the Honor to be

Your very H<sup>ble</sup> Serv<sup>t</sup>,

MICH. HUFFNAGLE.

MONS. DE MARBOIS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

A Philadelphie le 4 Avril 1785.

Monsieur,

Je suis sur le point de me rendre à New York pour résider près du Congrès. Je proposerai à cette assemblée les mesures à prendre pour que le service du Consulat de Philadelphie ne soit pas interrompu par mon absence, et j'aurai l'honneur d'informer Votre Excellence de ce qui aura été arrêté.

Permettez qu'en prenant congé de vous, Monsieur, et du Conseil Suprême Exécutif de Pensylvanie, j'exprime ma reconnaissance de l'appui que j'en ai reçu dans l'exercice de mes fonctions consulaires. Je m'empresse aussi à reconnoître les avantages qui en ont résulté pour le Commerce entre le Royaume et l'Etat de Pensylvanie et pour le maintien de l'ordre parmi les Navigateurs français; l'attachement dont vous faites profession aux principes de notre alliance et les preuves fréquentes que vous m'en avez données ne me permettent pas de douter que Votre Excellence ne fasse tout ce qui sera en son pouvoir pour consolider l'union des deux Nations en continuant à accorder sa protection à un commerce réciproquement utile.

Je suis avec respect, of London and the Arch-Bishop of Cantarbury, unless he would take the Oaths of Allegiance, &c.*

Meeting soon afterwards the Danish Minister, I had the Curiosity to inquire of him, whether Ordination might be had in Denmark. He answered me that he knew not, but would soon inform himself. I heard no more of it untill to Day, when the Secretary of his Embassy Mr. De Rosenkrantz, made me a Visit, and delivered me the Papers, Copies of which are enclosed.

Thus it seems that what I meant as current Conversation only, has been made the Subject of Deliberation of the Government of Denmark, and their Faculty of Theology, which makes it necessary for me to transmit it to Congress. I am happy to find the Decision so liberal.

To COMMISSIONERS ON BOUNDARY, 1785.

Instructions.

In Council, April 9th, 1785.

Gentlemen,

Council taking into Consideration the Resolution of the General Assembly of the 28th of August, 1783, and the Report of the Commissioners for determining the Boundary between this Commonwealth & the State of Virginia, of the 18th of November last, and that our southern Boundary is now ascertained, have thereupon appointed you Commissioners to run and mark the boundary of this Commonwealth, from the southern Corner thereof to the North-west corner of the same, as you will perceive by our Act herewith delivered and duly authenticated.

Depending upon your Diligence, Integrity & knowledge, we expect that this important work will be accomplished in the ensuing season, with Fidelity, & all the exactness to be derived from astronomical observations. You will act in conjunction with the Commissioners on the part of the State of Virginia, as far as they may choose to proceed with you. The line of boundary we desire to have marked by a Vista and by stones properly prepared & fixed in the Ground, at the distance of five miles, one from another, every stone to be inscribed with the distance from the south-west corner.

The north-west corner of the State is to be ascertained by astronomical observations, & must be so marked as to be rendered as distinguishable as may be by all the Means you can devise.

If any Commissioners on the Behalf of the United States appear, to join with you in ascertaining the Boundary, You will be pleased cheerfully to co-operate with them.

We ardently wish, that you, Gentlemen, may in the execution of this Commission and in your Return, seize the opportunity, for making every observation, and obtaining all possible Information, concerning the situation and course of Rivers & Streams; Hills and Mountains, that may be of the least use in assisting the public Councils on the very interesting subject of forming the most advantageous Communications by Roads & Canals between the different parts of the Country.

We have appointed Mr. Stephen Porter to attend you as Commissary under your direction. He is to purchase before you set out, the articles of which a list is inclosed, except such as can be obtained from the public stores, procure provisions at the places of Operation, hire necessary Labourers, & render a just and true account of the Monies expended.

I am with much Esteem,

Gentlemen, your most obdt.

and very Humble Servant,

Directed,

JOHN DICKINSON.

Dr. John Ewing and Thomas Hutchins, Esquire.

In Council, April, 1785.

Gentlemen,

In pursuance of a Law entitled "An Act to authorize &c.," we have appointed you Commissioners on the part of this Commonwealth, as will appear from our Act herewith delivered, & duly authenticated.

The Act of which a copy is inclosed so fully points out the duty to be performed by you, that we have but little to add for your further instructions.

The Line of Boundary we wish to have marked, (as in the foregoing instructions only Changing the words, "south-west corner," for the words, "North-east corner.")

Observation,—The Western Boundary is a Meridian Line and must be continued until the Commissioners are certain of being far enough North, perhaps quite to Lake Erie. The North-West Corner can only be determined by the Northern Commissioners, for it is the point where their Line will intersect the Meridian aforesaid, and they only will be provided with instruments for observing the Latitudes. It is not probable that the York Commissioners will suffer the North-east corner to be altered, & it is already sufficiently marked.

SEC'Y ARMSTRONG TO PROTHONOTARIES, 1785.

Sir,

By act of Assembly of the late Province, now State, of Pennsylvania, it is directed, "that the Constable of each Township or district in every County, shall, under a certain penalty, make return, on oath or affirmation, unto the Court of Q<sup>r</sup> Sessions, of the names & places of abode of all persons within the Township retaining or vending any Liquors liable to pay y<sup>e</sup> duties imposed by the Act above mentioned, & that the Collector of each County shall have recourse to the returns of the Constables so made."

This Act is every where enforced by those of a similar nature since made. It becomes, therefore, the Direction of Council, that the Collector of Fayette County be permitted to recur as often as he may think proper, to the Constables' returns in your Office, for y<sup>e</sup> necessary information.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

PRES. DICKINSON TO DELEGATES IN CONGRESS, 1785.

In Council, April 11, 1785.

Gentlemen :

D<sup>r</sup> John Ewing & Thomas Hutchins, Esquire, the Commissioners appointed to run and mark the Boundary of this Commonwealth from the South-west Corner to the North-west Corner thereof, will begin that Work at the first mentioned Place, on the 16th Day of next Month.

If Congress think proper to nominate any Commissioners on that Business, the Commissioners of this State will be ready to co-operate with them ; and We wish You would be pleased to communicate these Intentions immediately to Congress.

I have the Honor to be,

with great Esteem, Gentlemen, your most obed<sup>t</sup> ser<sup>t</sup>,

MONS. DE MARBOIS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

Philadelphia, April 12th, 1785.

Sir,

I beg leave to be introduced to your Excellency & the Council, to inform them of some facts relating to the fate of a French criminal but too justly condemned, leaving it afterwards to their humanity & clemency to enforce an act of justice, or to moderate its rigour. I shall attend at the hour which your Excellency will direct.

I am, with great respect, Sir,

COUNCIL TO COLLECTOR SHARP DELANY, 1785.

Secretary's office, 13th April, 1785.

Sir,

You will see by the enclosed copy of an order of Council of the 1st Instant, that the late proprietaries of this state have been called upon to appear before Council in person or by their respective agents to receive the sum of £15,000 sterling agreeably to act of the Gen. Assembly, of the 27th of Nov., 1779. I have therefore to inform you, that a requisition for a large sum of money, will soon and necessarily be made of you; and that it is the express order of Council, that the better to enable you to comply with such requisition, you will immediately proceed to an effectual & indiscriminate collection of all the Impost arrearages which may be due.

So long an absence from the university would materially affect its Interest, and it is doubtful to me, whether in y<sup>e</sup> present Situation, the Trustees would consent to my absence for a single month, even to give assistance in ascertaining the Direction of the meridian &

JOHN STORY TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

Philadelphia, May 3d, 1785.

Sir,

I had the honor of addressing your Excellency under the 14th ultimo requesting an advance of Cash to enable me to enter upon the Business of my office. In answer to which Council was pleased to inform me that it was not then convenient to make the advance, but if on application to Congress I could not obtain it, that Council would make the advance upon my Return to this City.

Agreeable to which Intimation I have made application to the Treasury Board for an advance, but could not obtain it. They informed me there was no cash in the Treasury. I did not apply to Congress as it would have detained me several days. They being determined not to take up any private application untill the Business before them is completed.

* See Col. Rec., Vol. XIV., p. 457.

My not succeeding at New York obliges me to renew my application to Council, and I am under the necessity of requesting that Council will be pleased to grant me five hundred Dollars. † See Col. Rec., Vol. XIV., p. 451, 452.

We find by a Report made to us this Morning by the Comptroller General,* that it will be necessary to have the Lots surveyed & laid off in the following numbers & quantities: that is to say, 177 lots of the first Description, each containing 500 acres; 88 of the second Description, each containing 300 acres; 186 of the third Description, each containing 250 acres; & 2119 of the fourth Description, each containing 200 acres.

You will be pleased to order your Deputies to take effectual care, that the Lands remote from the eastern and northern Boundaries of the State shall be first surveyed, & that this may be done in such Manner as may be best. We wish you to avail yourself of all the Information that can be obtained from Wm. Irvine, Esquire, the Agent appointed by us in pursuance of the aforesaid Act.

We rely upon your Prudence & Attention for giving all the Instructions to your Deputies when appointed & approved that may be requisite for carrying the act into execution.

In Council, May 6th, 1785.

Sir

As there are great numbers of Counterfeit Certificates in Circulation, we wish that the utmost Care may be used by you to guard against them, in performin<sup>g</sup> the Duties required of you by the "act for opening the Land office, for granting and disposing of the unappropriated Lands within this state."

It is therefore much to be desired, that you should immediately procure from the Continental offices such books or Transcripts as may prevent any Imposition, either by nullification of Names or sums.

Gentlemen,

I received the inclosed Letter from Gov'r Clinton* late last night; & as his proposal of a Correspondence between you & the Commissioners of the State of New York, appears very proper to be adopted, I think it necessary that the Communication should be made to you, before you set out on your journey to the westward.

I shall be obliged, if you will be pleased to return the inclosure to-day.

DAVID RITTENHOUSE TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

May 8th, 1785.

Sir,

I thank your Excellency for communicating Governor Clinton's Letter. I likewise received one last evening from Mr. De Witt, one of the Gentlemen appointed by the State of New York for ascertaining the Boundary Line. He proposes their meeting us at Philadelphia to concert measures for carrying the business into execution, and wishes to receive our propositions by the next Post, as he is going to set off soon for Albany. He says they must depend on us for the necessary Instruments. I believe there is no Instrument fit for the purpose in this part of America excepting the 6 feet Sector belonging to Mr. Penn. But I have been for some time employed in making one which will be much more portable than that of Mr. Penn, and, I doubt not, equally accurate. It might soon be finished if I was not obliged to go to the westward.

Whether the Northern Boundary may be deferred to another season Council alone can determine. I wish it might, as it seems scarcely possible to attend to both this Summer; if not I see nothing more eligible than the plan agreed on viz<sup>t</sup>, for me to return some time in June, But I wish to remind your Excellency how little my Constitution is adapted to so much fatigue.

I am, Sir, your Excell'ys,

Sec'y Office, Philadel'a, 10th May, 1785.

Sir,

Inclosed is a second copy of the late Resolutions of Congress for raising a new Regiment. I have also to repeat the requisition of Council that you would be as early in communicating to them, the names &c., of such of the officers as choose to continue under the present arrangement, as possible.

Captain Finney will inform you of another ordinance, providing for the discharge of the Troops now in service. The time and manner of carrying this into effect are committed to the Secretary of War—Council are however of opinion, that should no order of this kind reach you before the enlistment of the Troops expire, you will render a very important service to the State in keeping the men together untill the sense of the Legislature can be taken upon the you mode of raising their proportion of the new Corps. The Assembly will begin to sit some time in August. I have also to inform that under the very improper & unaccountable reduction which has been made in the pay of the officers—Council have thought it their duty to bring about if possible a reconsideration* of that part of the Ordinance & cannot but flatter themselves that such alteration will yet

Having received no answer to my letter of the 12th April last, covering the Acts of the 1st, 7th and 12th of that month, relative to the raising a body of troops for the purposes therein mentioned, I must beg the favour of your Excellency to communicate to me the steps taken by your State for raising the quota assigned, that I may be enabled to make report thereof.

Dr. Sir,

When the marking a temporary Line between this State and New York was talked of a small astronomical Quadrant was purchased for that purpose, it is very portable and would be useful on the western Line, not for the purpose of running the Line or fixing the N. W. Corner but for correcting the Geography of the Country, as it is public property and at present in my possession I would not hesitate to take it with me if I was assured that it will not be wanted by the Gentlemen who were going on the temporary Line. As Secretary of the United States for the war department I have to request that your Excellency will have the goodness to inform me of the measures which have been adopted by the State of Pennsylvania to raise the proportion of troops required by the act of Congress of the 12 of April last.

Sir,

I was honoured last evening with your Letter of the 26th ult*, inclosing me the late resolution of Congress respecting a new arrangement of the Corps.

Inclosed be pleased to receive a list of the Officers who are willing to continue upon the present establishment. If two Captains only are to be appointed, I would beg leave to recommend seniority.

Lieut Herbert has been suspended in his command the chief part of the time since the Corps was raised, and in my opinion is unworthy of command.

The reduction of the Pay of the Officers appears to be rather parsimonious. What the views of Congress may be, in abridging the pay, the Officers know not. If his Excellency the President & the Honorable the Council should think proper to continue me, I am willing to remain upon the present arrangement.

ROB. GALBRAITH TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

Pittsburg May 25th, 1785.

His Excellency John Dickinson Esquire,

May it please your Excellency the Indian, who is now confined in the Garrison at this place is anxious to be tried as speedily as may be, and receive the doom he so justly deserves. The Militia of Washington County, have made two attempts to break the Dungeon where he is confined, and Tommihawk him. Captn. Luckett who Commands the Garrison at this place, has but four Men, who are not sufficient to keep Centry over him, even supposing no attempts were made to rescue him. The Inhabitants therefore have been obliged to mount Guard for some nights past untill a few Men were sent by Colonel Harmar from McIntosh to our relief.

Last Saturday night the first attempt was made by near fifty men armed with Rifles and axes, who had about eleven o'clock at night forced their way into the Garrison, but through the vigilance of Capt, Luckett and his few men, the Justices and other Citizens, they were dispersed without any Damage being done. Next Monday morning between Daybreak and sunrise, another party, consisting of thirty or thereabouts, were discovered by Captn, Luckett and Colonel Butler within a few yards of the Garrison Gate, they had got between them and the Gate before they were discovered, and upon Captn. Luckett's ordering the Gate to be shut a number of them presented their Rifles cock'd to his Breast, when one of the Justices of the peace began to Read the Riot act, they presented their Guns at him in the like manner, in this situation the Inhabitants exerted themselves and disarmed them without any lives being lost.

A number of them ran off immediately, others were taken and disarmed, but refusing to give Bail, the Justices wrote their Commitment, but some how they made their escape from the under sheriff leaving behind them a number of Guns.

In this situation I earnestly request your Excellency to Commissionate two more Gentlemen of this place, to try the Indian without delay, and if your Excellency and the Honourable Council would think proper, to send his Death warrant at the same time by way of Dispatch, it would sooner ease the minds of the people. There can be no doubt of his conviction. I was one of the Inquest held upon the Body of John Smith, and heard all the evidence. Since Smith Died, another of the Men wounded, named Benjamin Jones has also Died the eight or ninth Day after he was stabbed, the other two it is thought will recover.

The Indian's name is Mamachtagwin, in English the Hurrican, the most violent and Bloody Catiff of the Delaware Tribe.

I have the honor to be,

with due respect and esteem,

your Excellency's most obed. humb. servt.

ROBERT GALBRAITH.

MICHAEL HUFFNAGLE TO JAMES IRVINE, 1785.

Dr. Sir,

Since I wrote you last concerning the Murder committed by the Indians, we have had several disturbances here by the Militia of Washington County. Last Saturday about eleven o'clock at Night a party of thirty Nine entered the Garrison & took possession of the Ordinance & demanded the Commanding officer Captain Luckett to deliver up the Prisoner to them. After some dispute & reasoning about the matter they went off in this party, whom that we Knew, Philp Ross, John Bill, Linett, Sellers, George Redman. A second party appeared again on Monday morning a little after sun rise & took the Commanding officer prisoner & were marching him off, when through the exertion of the Inhabitants & five or six Soldiers he was relieved & Seven of the party taken prisoners & disarmed three of whom to wit, Joseph McDermott, William Vaughan, & Isaac Justice entered into Recognizance for their appearance to answer when called on—one Kennedy, Williams, & two Longs, were committed to Custody of the Deputy Sheriff Mr. Sample, while he was preparing to take them off they made their escapes. Col. Harmar on my application has sent to this place Captain McGurdy with a party of Men as a Guard untill we shall hear from Council (if it can be) I would wish a special Commission to be sent for the trial of the prisoner at this place & a Blank Death Warrant. The above named Williams is an officer of Militia, in Washington County and it appears by Testimony that he in a regular manner warned out the last party on a tower of duty.

I also wish to mention for you to inform Council that since I wrote you last, Craig & Bayard have brought an Ejectment by Mr. Brackenridge against Captain Luckett for the garrison at this place he requested me to mention this that the Honble Council may take order thereon & if necessary to give instructions to the agents concerning the same, he says that he has no orders from Congress for leaving the post & untill he receives such order, he is determined to remain in possession, the Indians lately have committed several Murders & Robberies down the Ohio River, one of the Men that the Indian wounded on the Reserv'd tract opposite this place is since dead.

I have the Honor to be,

The Produce of the first Class is therefore Dolls. 4181  $\frac{1}{2}$

The strictest compliance with the Orders of Council as to the time of drawing this Class & the punctuality with which the Prizes have been paid seem to have given general satisfaction and we are of opinion that a short day being fixed for the drawing of the second Class will very much contribute to its success. We shall be ready to proceed by the 2d Day of August next if Council approve thereof.

COL. JOS. HARMAR TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

Fort McIntosh, June 1st, 1785.

Sir,

I have the honor to inclose to your Excellency & the honorable Council a monthly return of this date of the Pennsylvania troops in the service of the United States.

In consequence of the resolution of Congress of the 7th April last, I am daily expecting instructions from your Excellency & the honorable Council to discharge the men, and to reenlist for three years, such as are willing to serve—The reduction of the officers pay, in our humble opinion, is very parsimonious—The pay of the soldiers (provided regular monthly or weekly payments take place) is quite sufficient.

I have the honor to be

SEC'Y OF CONGRESS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

Office of Secretary of Congress,
June 9th, 1785.

Sir,

I have the honor of transmitting to your Excellency an act of the United States in Congress assembled for the relief of the officers, Soldiers and Seamen who have been disabled in the service of the United States during the late war.

As the condition of many of these unfortunate men who have a claim not merely on the humanity, but on the gratitude and justice of their Country, demands immediate attention, I have the firmest confidence that the state of Pennsylvania will take the earliest opportunity of making the provision recommended in the inclosed act.

Having received no answer to my letter of the 12th April last covering the acts of Congress of the 1st, 7th & 12th of that month relative to the raising a body of Troops for the purposes therein mentioned, I must continue my request that your Excellency would be pleased to communicate to me the steps taken by the state of Pennsylvania for raising the quota assigned, that I may be enabled to make report to Congress.

OPINION OF HON. GEO. BRYAN, 1785.

Philadelphia, 10th June, 1785.

Sir,

You were pleased to ask my opinion concerning the tryal of the Indian named Mamachtagwin, who is prisoner at Pittsburgh, charged with the murder of one, if not two, white men, whose names are not fully given; that is to say, how, where, & by what authority the Homicide should be inquired of and adjudged.

The letter you put in my hands from Robert Galbraith, Esquire,† is so very bare of circumstances, that it will be difficult to consider the case with the precision it ought.

Even the County where the fact was perpetrated, is not given : But if it be supposed that it happened within Westmoreland, another question arises, was it remote from inhabitants? For if it were, then the tryal should be in the County of Philadelphia; otherwise it must be in the proper County.

By what you dropt about this matter, I surmise that it passed on the north or northwest of the Ohio, not far from Pittsburgh; consequently not remote from inhabitants, as the Act of 1744, (see page

† See page 466.

200 of Ross & Galloway's compilement of the Acts of Assembly of the late Province,) loosely has it. And I am clear, that if there be any doubt on this head, the doubt should be decided in favour of tryal by the Vicinage, which is according to common law. I am of opinion, that the Indian, if he demands it, has a right to a party Jury, half foreigners. W<sup>m</sup> Penn, the founder, in 1683, established something of this nature, in respect to damages done by Indians; and I have in my memory some traces of a tryal formerly at Chester, of an Indian for rape, where six Indians were called in. The law, however, concerning mediatatem linguæ, does not require that the aliens be of the nation to which the accused belongs.

Your difficulty does not, however, arise upon the point stated & discussed already. It is rather upon the authority of the President & Council to issue a special Commission to persons who are not judges of the Supreme Court to hear & determine concerning this or other similar cases. The Justices of the Supreme Court, above two years ago, were questioned by the President & Council on this head, & I then gave my opinion, in the affirmative, with reasons for it.* To this I beg leave to refer. There need little be added now, unless that it appears by the Act of 1744, above recited, that the judges of the Supreme Court were not, at the passing of it, supposed to be the only justices of Oyer, Terminer & goal delivery, competent to try capital offences. The practice was not unknown before the Revolution, & a capital punishment was inflicted at Bedford, since the revolution, by virtue of a Commission of this nature.

Mr Galbraith's Idea of sending up the death warrant before trial, is extravagant. But by the common law, the Court which tries should pronounce judgment & award Execution thereof also; & the Act for the advancement of justice, section 6th, enables the judges to award & order Execution to be done.

The Reference to Council, & the Warrant from the honourable board for the actual execution, is but an usage introduced by a spirit of Clemency, & more suitable to the State of Pennsylvania formerly, when the Province consisted of three small Counties, than it is at present. It may be easily dispensed with by Council; nay the judges ought, upon proper cause, to disregard it. In England, a similar usage is confined to Middlesex, for in the other Counties, the judges direct the Executions, but on special occasions, respits till the Supreme Executive shall interpose, if it see proper.

The Act for setting off the County of Westmoreland, directs that the courts for said County be holden in the House of Rob<sup>t</sup> Hanna, which I suppose is at Hanna's Town.

This should be the place of judgment, if it be not altered by some later law.

It would be prudent to make the Commission (if Council see fit to issue one,) special to the very case, & to limit the power to the tryal of the Indian now in custody, by name, & the homicides already committed. The names, indeed, of the person or persons slain, should also be specified; but perhaps those are not transmitted.

The above is my present view of this Subject. What I have said is rather hurried, as you wished for an early answer. Perhaps the County Courts of pleas & sessions, are more expressly fixed to Hanna's house, than the Supreme & Oyer & Terminer, for capital matters.

I am, Sir,

Your most obed. serv<sup>t</sup>,

GEO. BRYAN.

PRES. DICKINSON TO DELEGATES IN CONGRESS, 1785.

In Council, June 27th, 1785.

Gentlemen,

Mr. Shields a Citizen of this State complains that the Spanish Frigate that sailed yesterday from this Port for New York has carried away his servant. Inclosed are a Letter to the Captain on the subject, his answer, Mr. Shields' Deposition, a Copy of the Indenture, & a Description of the servant.

We are the more surprized at this Conduct, as at the solicitation of Mr. Morales a few days ago, we released and gave up to him one of his sailors, who had been convicted of a heinous offence & sentenced to pay a large fine.

We request that you will be pleased to make instant & earnest application to the Minister of Spain, for redress of this injury; and we confide in his Character, that he will take Care that Justice be rendered.

HON. ARTHUR ST. CLAIR TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

Philad<sup>a</sup>, July 16th, 1785.

Sir,

Having heard that the Agents for forfeited Estates for the County of Westmoreland are about to sell the Buildings in Fort Pitt as the property of Alexander Ross, an attainted Traitor, permit me to inform you that no part of the Buildings which were left standing in that Fort at its evacuation by the British ever were Mr. Ross's Property. A Part of them belongs to me by Grant from General Gage and part to other People, and some buildings have been erected therein since it has been occupied by the United States. The Ruins, which consisted of the Materials of a very good House that was pulled down; the Revetment of Rampart and Parapet—a squared log Redoubt and a number of Piquets or Pallisades were purchased by Mr. Ross and the late Genl. Thomson, for I think the Sum of fifteen or eighteen Pounds, but during the Residence of the One and the Life of the Other, no Claim was set up to the Buildings that were on foot. The disposing of the Houses by the Agents may embarrass the Owners as well as the purchasers, and for my Part I am not inclined to sell mine at all. Should Council desire it I will wait upon them to give fuller Information, and in the mean time have to request that the Sale may be ordered to be postponed.

I have the Honor to be with the greatest Respect, Sir,

your most obedient humble servant,

COL. JOSIAH HARMAR TO SEC'Y ARMSTRONG, 1785.

Fort McIntosh, July 17th, 1785.

Sir,

I have been honor'd with your favor of the 10th May, enclosing me a duplicate copy of the Resolutions of Congress for raising a new Regiment—Likewise with another letter of the 10th June, informing me of the Requisition from the War Office respecting the number of Officers to be furnished from our State. I have also received a Letter from Mr. Trimble, enclosing me, by direction of Council, a copy of a Letter from the Assistant Secretary at War, of the 23d ult., & copy of the Answer of Council thereto, for my information.

By a Letter of the 23d June, from Major North, Inspector, he requests me to order the troops under my command to be mustered by such officer as I shall see fit to appoint, as the time has so elaps'd that it has been thought necessary by the present head of the War Department for him to postpone his Journey here. In consequence of which I have ordered the troops to prepare for muster on the 19th inst.

Council may rest assured that I shall use every exertion in my power to keep the men together until the sense of the legislature can be taken upon the mode of raising their proportion of the new corps. The mens times begin to expire on the 19th next month—nevertheless I hope to be able to retain them in service until the pleasure of the legislature is known, and until I receive instructions from Council for re-enlisting them.

Major North also writes me,

"That the pay-master upon appearing at New York with the abstracts for pay will receive in notes the amount due to each man to the time they are mustered, and upon a Certificate sign'd by me of the time in which each man's enlistment will expire, he supposes that a Sum on account sufficient to pay them to the time of their discharge would be granted."

The name of Notes, conveys to the Officers an Idea of discounts—Twenty or five & twenty  $\frac{2}{3}$  C<sup>t</sup> perhaps. If Council can consistently interfere, they flatter themselves that they will take their own Officers and troops under their immediate protection, and either secure to them the promised pay, or order these Notes to be negociated in such manner as they in their wisdom shall see fit, to guard against depreciation.

We learn with pleasure that Council are endeavoring to bring about a re-consideration of that part of the Ordinance of Congress respecting the reduction of the pay of the Officers. The disproportion is so great that the Stroke seems to be particularly Levelled at me. Fifty dollars  $\frac{2}{3}$  month will not support the Station. We would fain hope that an Alteration may yet take place.

CLAIMS OF MESSRS. PENN, AND OPINION OF JUDGES, 1785.

In compliance with the request of the President and Council of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, John Penn, (eldest son of Thomas Penn,) and John Penn, (eldest son of Richard Penn,) late Proprietors of Pennsylvania, have made, and now submit to their consideration, the following state of their respective claims and title to the Province of Pennsylvania, of which they were seisd on the 27th day of November, 1779, when the Act of Assembly was passed, entitled an Act for vesting the Estate of the late proprietaries in the Commonwealth.

First. John Penn (son of Thomas Penn,) states, that he, at the time of passing the above Act, had a right to, and was seised of, Three fourth parts of the Territory of Pennsylvania, as bounded and described in the Royal Grant, or Letters Patent, from King Charles the second to his grandfather, William Penn, the Founder and first Proprietor of Pennsylvania, to which he deduces his Title in the following manner :

William Penn, by his Will, devised one moiety thereof to his Son John Penn, in fee ; one other quarter, or fourth part, to his Son Thomas Penn, in fee ; and the remaining fourth part to his Son Richard Penn, in Fee.

John Penn, by his Will, devised his Moiety to his Brother Thomas Penn for life, Remainder to Trustees to preserve contingent remainders, &c. ; remainder to the first, second, third, fourth, and every other Son and Sons of the said Thomas Penn successively, according to their seniority & priority of Birth, and the Heirs male of the Body of each and every such Son and Sons, with divers remainders over particularly specified in his will, remainder, ultimately, to his own right Heirs.

Note.—John Penn, by his Will, makes his moiety chargeable with the raising and paying the sum of £8,000 sterling to the persons, and for the uses therein mentioned, which sum of £8,000 sterling has accordingly been long since raised and paid, and his moiety, of consequence, exonerated therefrom.

After the Death of Thomas Penn, his eldest Son John Penn, under the Will of his uncle, John Penn, had a Title to and was seised of one moiety of the Territory of Pennsylvania, as Tenant in Tail Male.

Thomas Penn being seised as aforesaid, under the Will of his Father, William Penn, of one quarter part of Pennsylvania, in Fee, in the the year 1751, married The right Hon'ble Lady Juliana Farmer ; but, before his marriage, he, by Deed dated the 15th of August, 1751, made between him, the said Thomas Penn, of the first part, The right hon'ble Thomas Earl, of Pomfret, of the second part, the said Lady Juliana Farmer, of the third part, and David Barclay & Thomas Hyam, of the fourth part, settles and conveys his said quarter part in manner following, to wit: To the said David Barclay and Thomas Hyam, with all quit rents and other rents thereof, In Trust to the use of the said Thomas Penn, his heirs and assigns, till the said intended marriage should be solemnized, and immediately afterwards to the use of the said Thomas Penn during his natural life, Remainder to the said Trustees to the use, intent and purpose, that the said Lady Juliana should, after the death of the said Thomas Penn, take, receive and enjoy out of the annual Rents of the said Province, the yearly sum of £300—400—or 500 sterling, (but not less than £300 sterling, at all events,) upon the Events and contingencies therein mentioned, according as they might happen, during her natural life, in Lieu of her Dower, by four even and quarterly pay-ments; remainder to the use of the first Son of the Body of the said Thomas Penn on the Body of the said Lady Juliana, to be begotten in Tail male; remainder to the use of the second, third, fourth, fifth, and every other Son & Sons of that marriage successively, according to seniority and priority of Birth in Tail male, with divers other remainders over in Tail, remainder, ultimately, to the right Heirs of the said Thomas Penn.

By a proviso in this Deed, a power is given to the Issue male, and male Descendants of the said Thomas Penn (the entail notwithstanding) to make and charge any provision, or encreased provision, for his and their respective widows, after his or their respective deceases, out of his fourth part in manner as there mentioned. And by another proviso in the said Deed, Thomas Penn reserves to himself a power to charge his said quarter part by will, with the sum of £3,000 sterling as a provision for his younger children.

Thomas Penn accordingly by his will charges his fourth part with the sum of £3,000 sterling, payable to his two younger Children, as a provision for them, and charges it with the payment of the further annual sum of £200 sterling to his wife Lady Juliana, who thereby became entitled to receive £500 sterling a year during her life. Since the death of Thomas Penn, his son John has discharged all the above incumbrances, out of an Estate and Legacies given him in England by his Father.

Thus John Penn, under the will of his uncle John Penn, became seized in Fee Tail male of one moiety of Pennsylvania, and, under the marriage Deed of settlement of his Father, Thomas Penn, to one other quarter part in Fee Tail male.

It may not be improper to remark and state here, once for all, That by Provisions for that express purpose made by John Penn, Thomas Penn & Richard Penn respectively in their wills, the person who shall be in possession of their several shares, under the said wills, though such person may be only Tenant for Life, or in Tail, shall have during such his possession a right to call in, collect, receive, and apply to his own use and Benefit, all arrears of quit rents, purchase money, &c., whatsoever, though they actually might have become due in the time of any of his ancestors, or other former possessor.

JOHN PENN, Jr.

John Penn, son of Richard Penn, states and deduces his Title to one fourth of Pennsylvania, as follows, to wit.

Richard Penn being seised in Fee of the said quarter part, under the will of his Father William Penn, by his will, dated the 21st of March 1750, charges the same with the sum of £300 sterling a year to be paid to his widow during her Life, by four equal quarterly payments, if she so long shall remain his widow, but if she marries, then, only with £100 a year to be paid her in lieu of Dower. He also charges his quarter part with £3,000 sterling, by way of provision for his younger children. His quarter part he by his will devised to his son John Penn for Life, remainder to Trustees to preserve contingent remainders, and after the Death of his son John, remainder to the first, second, third, fourth, fifth, and every other Son & sons of the said John Penn, according to their seniority & priority of Birth, and the Heirs male of the Body of each and every such son and sons; remainder to Richard Penn for Life, remainder to the first and every other son & sons of his Body (as in the case of his Brother John) and the Heirs male of the Body of each and every such son & sons, with divers other remainders over, remainder to the right heirs of him the Testator in Fee.

The said Richard Penn the Father, by a codicil to his said will, dated the 13th of July 1768, gives the whole £3,000 sterling, charged by the will on his fourth part, and intended as a provision for all his younger Children, to his son Richard Penn.

John Penn the son, after the Death of his Father, accordingly paid to his Brother the said sum of £3,000 sterling with the Interest due upon it.

The said John Penn paid likewise to his mother the £300 sterling a year, out of the Rents and profits of the fourth part of the Province, until the Time of passing the Act for vesting the Estate of the Proprietaries in the Commonwealth, and since that period, and the loss of his Estate, he has continued to pay his said mother the same yearly sum, out of the shattered remains of his private Fortune; it being the principal part of her subsistence.

JOHN PENN.

In compliance with an act of his Excellency the President and Supreme Executive Council, dated the 10th day of July last, the subscribers have read & considered the respective claims of John Penn, jun'r, and John Penn, Esquires, late Proprietaries of the former province of Pennsylvania, also the last Wills and Testaments, & codicils thereto, of the Honorable John, Thomas, and Richard Penn, Esquires, late deceased, together with an Indenture of four parts executed by the aforesaid Thomas Penn, on his marriage with the Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> Lady Juliana Farmor, authenticated duplicates whereof were delivered to us on Friday last; and thereupon we beg leave to report, (Judges Atlee & Rush being out of town) that the vouchers support the said Claims as stated. But we have made no Inquiry respecting the payments of the several sums charged upon the late province, to the Widows and younger children of the aforesaid Thomas & Richard Penn, and can therefore certify nothing on that head.

RESOLUTION OF CONGRESS, 1785.

By the United States in Congress assembled.

July 27, 1785.

Resolved, that the Secretary of Congress apply to the executives of the several states, for thirteen copies of the legislative acts thereof, since the first of September, 1774, inclusive: that one sett of the said acts be retained for the use of Congress, and that he deliver to the delegates of each state one sett (exclusive of its own acts) for the use of the legislature thereof. And the secretary is further directed to adopt a similar mode for procuring the acts which may hereafter be passed as aforesaid, to the end that every state being thus informed, may have the fullest confidence in the other states, and derive the advantages which may result from the joint wisdom of the whole.

Office of the Secretary of Congress,
July 28th, 1785.

Sir,

I have it in charge, as your Excellency will see by the enclosed resolve, to apply to the Executives of the several States for thirteen copies of the legislative Acts thereof, since the first of September, 1774, inclusive.

The purpose for which these copies are desired, and the end to be answered, are fully explained in the resolution: And as the object is, not merely to procure information to the federal Council, but to establish a mutual confidence and good understanding among the States, and that each may derive assistance in the great work of legislation, from the joint wisdom of the whole, I rely with confidence, that your Excellency will be pleased to order the thirteen

PRES. DICKINSON TO COMMISSIONERS ON BOUNDARY, 1785.

In Council, July 29th, 1785.

Gentlemen:

Several Considerations of great Moment, induce Us very earnestly to wish for the Accomplishment of the important Business entrusted to your Attention. We therefore embrace this Opportunity, by Captain Hutchins, of urging the prosecution of it with the utmost Diligence, & with all the Dispatch that is compatible with Accuracy in your Proceedings. We desire to be fully informed, & as frequently as possible, of your progress.

COMMISSIONERS FOR TREATING WITH INDIANS, 1785.

Sir,

I take the liberty of informing your Excellency and the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Council, that agreeable to the Treaty held at Fort Stanwix between the Six Nation Indians and your Commissioners, on the 23rd Oct. last It was agreed that in addition to the Goods then delivered to the said Nations, an Obligation should be given to them for the Amount of One thousand Dollars, in such Goods as would best suit them, to be delivered at or near Tioga, on the Susquehannah, on the first Day of October next.

A strict and punctual observance of every promise made to the Savage Nations being of great moment, and the Season approaching very fast when your Commissioners' Obligation will be due, induces

LT. COL. JOS. HARMAR TO PRES. DICKINSON 1785.

Fort McIntosh, August 1st, 1785.

Sir,

I have the honor to enclose to your Excellency & the honorable Council a monthly return of this date of the Pennsylvania Troops in the Service of the United States.

The troops have been mustered up to the 19th ult. and the rolls transmitted to Major North, Inspector. Enclosed, be pleased to receive an abstract of the muster.

Altho' I can receive no instructions for recruiting untill the honorable Legislature convenes, your Excellency & the honorable Council may rest assured that I shall use every exertion in my power to retain the troops in Service. Their time begins to expire on the 19th instant. I shall take upon me to form an Enlistment for securing such as are willing to serve for three years, until your Excellency's further pleasure is known.

The Ohio river at this Season is remarkably low, and usually continues so during this & the next month. It is now fordeable opposite the garrison—The Treaty to the Wabaah therefore cannot possibly be carried on before the month of October or November next.

I would not wish to be in too great a hurry in recruiting.—There are at least fifty men in the present Corps, who are not fit to be re-enlisted,—a little time would procure a Corps that will reflect honor to the State.

If about five & twenty rifles could be obtained, to occasionally arm that number of Infantry, I should think it advisable.

I have ordered Ensign Armstrong to receive your Excellency's instructions, and when he has recruited thirty stout, able-bodied men to rejoin the Corps.

I have the honor to be, with the highest esteem & respect,

SECRETARY OF CONGRESS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

Office of the Secretary of Congress,
August 4th, 1785.

Sir,

I have received the letter you did me the honor to write on the 1st.

In compliance with your desire, I now send you the Journals of Congress, for the years 1779, and from the 3d November, 1782, to Nov'r 1783. The Journal of the Committee of the States, which fills up the vacancy from the adjournment of Congress, June the 3<sup>d</sup>, 1784, to its meeting in Nov'r following; and the Journal of Congress from that period up to the 29th of last month inclusive.

PRES. DICKINSON TO WM. BRADFORD, JR., ATTORNEY GENERAL, 1785.

In Council, August 8th, 1785.

Sir,

Upon the Receipt of your Letter of the 20th of Last Month, directed to the Secretary to make out as accurate a list as he could form of the Commissioners in the several counties, ascertaining the Times at which they severally came into office. The list is now inclosed.*

You will perceive by the proceedings of General Assembly on the 16th of last December, that Negligence in collecting of Taxes has been general.

The particular charges against Commissioners for Breaches of duty, that most probably can be supported, are, for not proceeding against Collectors according to the several Laws; among other acts on this subject, we refer to those for supplies, passed on the 21st of June, 1781, the 27th of March, 1782, & the 21st March, 1783.

Sufficient testimony it is presumed will arise from public Documents & from the examination of those who have been or now are Treasurers of the respective counties.

You will be pleased to issue process from either Court, as you may judge most proper, and to give such Directions for Bail as will not be distressing.

I am, with great Respect, Sir,
your most obedient Servant,

JOHN DICKINSON.

Directed,

SECRETARY OF CONGRESS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

Office of Secretary of Congress,

August 9th, 1785.

Sir,

The design of the letter, I have now the honor to write to your Excellency, is to re-call your attention to an Act of the 23d of March, 1784, which you will find enclosed, together with two other Acts on the subject of keeping up a representation in Congress. By those Acts your Excellency will perceive it is the earnest desire of the United States, in Congress assembled, that the several States, should not only keep up a constant representation by three members at least, but that there should be a uniformity throughout the union, in the commencement of the year, for which the Delegates are appointed. WAR OFFICE TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

War Office, August 9th, 1785.

Sir,

I have the honour to transmit to your Excellency a resolution of Congress respecting the Corps under Lieutenant Colonel Harmar. The Legislatures of Connecticut and New York only have assembled since the requisition of Congress for Troops in April, and therefore there is a total deficiency of those to be furnished by Pennsylvania and Jersey. The whole number voted by Congress will be necessary to prevent incroachments on the public Lands and for the protection of the Commissioners of Indian Affairs. I am persuaded your Excellency and the Legislature of Pennsylvania will be impressed with the importance of taking the earliest measures to retain as many of the best Soldiers under Colonel Harmar as possible.

CHARLES PETTIT TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785

New York, 12th August, 1785.

Sir,

Mess<sup>rs</sup> Turnbull, Marmie & Co., having, by Memorial stated to Congress their Claims to the Land on which the Fortifications at Pittsburgh were erected, and prayed that the Possession thereof may be delivered to them, the Delegates from Pennsylvania took an early Occasion to mention the Desire of Council, communicated to them by your Excellency, that the Possession should be delivered to certain Commissioners of the State whenever Congress should think proper to remove the Garrison & Continental Stores from thence. Such Removal will probably take Place shortly, tho' no formal Resolution for that Purpose has yet been passed;—and as it is understood that Possession of that Post was taken on Behalf of the United States without any Treaty or Contract, it seems to be the Intention of Congress to relinquish it in the same Manner, in order to avoid meddling with the Claims of the State or of Individuals as to the Right of Possession; more especially as some have supposed that as it was formerly the Seat of a british Garrison, it became the Property of the U. S. by Conquest. To avoid Embarrassment on any of these Accounts, it will probably be abandoned, rather than delivered up as a Possession to any Claimant: I have therefore advised Mess<sup>rs</sup> Turnbull, Marmie & Co., to make their Application to your Excellency & the Council on the Subject, presuming that the State Commissioners will be directed to take the Possession, on its being relinquished by the United States.

I have the Honor to be, very respectfully,

Your Excellency's most obedient

&amp; most humble Servant,

CHAS. PETTIT.*

His Excellency The President of Pennsylvania.

PRES. DICKINSON TO SEC'Y AT WAR, 1785.

In Council, August 13th, 1785.

Sir,

We have this Day received your Letter of the ninthth instant, with the Resolution of Congress of the 20th of last Month.

That Resolution, transmitted to us by the Secretary of Congress, We forwarded several Days ago to Coll. Harmer. By a Letter from him this moment come to our Hands, We are "assured that every Exertion shall be used to keep the Men together, untill the sense of the Legislature can be taken."

By your Letter of the 25th of April, We perceive that one Captain & two Lieutenants of Artillery, & two Captains, two Lieutenants, & two Ensigns of Infantry, are assigned to this State.

This is the same arrangement that was for it meditated last year ; but upon our Representations was amended, & three Captains, three Lieutenants, & three Ensigns of Infantry were appointed by this Commonwealth, besides a Captain & two Lieutenants of Artillery.

The whole Regiment, consisting of ten Companies & 700 Men, & therefore each Company of 70 Men, three Companies and fifty men are required from Pennsylvania, & only Officers for three Companies are allotted to her. As the Officers now Commissioned would chuse to continue in the service, We cannot think of dismissing them, & therefore hope, that on further Consideration, as the Resolutions of Congress this year are similar to those of the last, the same Arrangements will now be made, that finally took Place last Year.

I have the Honor to be,

with the greatest Esteem, Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

JOHN DICKINSON.*

In Council, August 15th, 1785.

Gentlemen :

From some Information We have received this Day, it appears probable, that the United States will barely relinquish the Possession of Pittsburg.

We therefore think proper to direct, that on such Relinquishment, you immediately take Possession of the Place in the Name and behalf of this Commonwealth, & that you be prepared for that purpose.

It is our Meaning, that the Possession to be then taken by you, shall be without prejudice to the private Rights of property.

No. 1.

By the United in Congress assembled,

August 18th, 1785.

The Delegates for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts having laid before Congress a Letter of the 8th, from His Excellency the Governor of that State together with a Copy of Letters from Capt. Stanhope, Commander of the British Frigate Mercury, to His Excellency, James Bowdoin, Esq., Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and of His Excellency's answer to the two first of those Letters; the same were referred to the Secretary for foreign affairs, who reported thereon; The Letters and report are as follows.

No. 2.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Boston, August 8th, 1785.

Gentlemen,

Whatever concerns the Honor of one of the United States does in effect, in certain cases concern the Honor of all them.

This general observation applies to the conduct of Capt. Stanhope, Commander of His Britannic Majesty's Frigate, Mercury, who apprehending himself insulted applied to me by his Letter for redress; in which letter, he "recommends" to me to adopt such measures as may discover the Ringleaders of the party that "assassinated him." See Letter, No. 1.

On receiving it, the Council being adjourned to a distant Day, I sent for the only Gentleman of that Board in town, the Hon'ble Mr. Adams, with whom I consulted on the affair. In consequence of the consultation, I sent Capt. Stanhope an answer the same day. The answer points out to him the only way of redress, which our Laws and Constitution admit; and which I myself in a like case, if I took any, must have taken. See Letter, No. 2.

This answer, however, did not comport with Capt. Stanhope's high idea of himself, who seems to have thought that some special mode of process was due to a person of his importance.

In consequence of that idea, and after two days consideration of the matter he sent me a Letter, which you may probably think, may be justly called a very insolent one: in which, (but in his own mode of expression,) he declares I gave him a positive assurance of affording him and his officers protection, that my conduct contradicted that assurance and his expectations; that it does not satisfy him, nor does credit to myself; and that he never received a Letter so insulting to his senses; and that it was an evasion of his requisition; with a great deal more abuse both expressed and implied. See Letter, No. 3.

The only part of this declaration it concerns me to notice, is that, in which my conduct is said to have contradicted the assurance I had given him of protection. This occasions a recurrence to two conversations I had with him within a few days after his arrival here, from which time until the first instant, I had been, as I presumed, in the good graces of Mr. Stanhope.

In one of those conversations, which were principally relative to the recovery of a favorite servant, who he said had deserted from him about a year before; he mentioned that he had been informed he should probably meet with some insult before his departure; and said he should rely on my protection. I told him he might depend on every protection in my power to afford him; but that in this Country as in England, the Law is every man's protection, and that he would be as much entitled to it during his stay here, as any man in the Commonwealth; and in conformity to this idea, my Letter to him was written.

I have mentioned no more of the conversation than was needful to afford you some idea of the assurance he says I gave him of my protection. But in the course of it, I told him further, that he must know from his own observation, that in large sea port Towns, where there is a resort of all kinds of people and Characters, quarrels and disturbances frequently happened; and that the sea port Towns in England were remarkable for them: That he must be sensible the new regulations of Trade in England, which would finally operate to her own detriment, had disgusted the Americans in general and had induced them to take measures to counteract those regulations; and therefore it was natural to expect he would hear sentiments thrown out, which might not be agreeable to him. But that I had no apprehension any insult would be offered either to him or his officers.

These observations and many more I thought proper to make, which a man of any discernment, and of the least goodness of disposition might have applied to his own benefit; and to the exerting and promoting of good humour in the people, among whom he happened to be.

As he says my conduct contradicted his expectations, it is probable he expected a Proclamation should have been issued. This measure was thought of; but I did not think the occasion required it. His conduct for three days after the affront, to the time of his going with his ship down to Nantasket on the evening of the 3d instant, manifested that he was under no apprehension of any attack upon him, for during that time he and his officers went about the Town, and in the Country as usual, and with as much freedom as any person whatever.

Knowing that the whole of my conduct both public and private, had been such as merited at least a decency of Behaviour on his part, and sentiments very different from those expressed in his said Letter; I wrote him a short answer to it, which you will see in No. 4, to which he sent the reply contained in No. 5, justifying and repeating his insolence, and this finished the correspondence.

I have only to observe, that it is conceived, the honor and dignity of this Commonwealth, and through it the honor and dignity of the United States in general, are essentially wounded by the insolence of Capt. Stanhope towards the Chief Magistrate of the former; that unless it be properly resented every British officer of every British vessel however insignificant will when ever an opportunity shall offer, insult the government of every State in the Union, and that a tameness under insult must, in the estimation of all foreigners effectually destroy the natural Character, and importance of the United States.

If after reading the annexed Copy of Letters which passed between the said Stanhope and me, you should be of that opinion you will please to lay the same before the United States in Congress assembled, that they may take such measures concerning it, as their wisdom and a sense of their own honor shall dictate.

With the most perfect respect,

I have the Honor to be, Gentlemen,

Sir,

I am sorry to be obliged to represent to your Excellency the continued insults and disgraceful indignities offered by hundreds in this Town to me and my Officers, which hitherto we have winked at, as well as the most illiberal and indecent language, with which the newspapers have been filled, nor should I have troubled you now had I not have been persued, and my life as well as that of one of my Officers been endangered by the violent rage of a mob yesterday evening, without provocation of any sort, I trust it needless to recommend to your Excellency to adopt such measures as may discover the ringleaders of the party that assassinated me, and bring them to public justice, as well as protect us from further insult.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Boston, Aug. 1st, 1785.

Sir,

Your Letter of this date is now before me. It is a great misfortune that the subjects or Citizens of different Countries which have been at enmity, cannot easily recover that degree of good humour which should induce them to treat each other with proper decorum, when the governments to which they respectively belong have entered into a treaty of amity and sheathed the Sword. But you must have observed that disturbances arising from this source too frequently happen, especially in populous sea port Towns. If you have been insulted and your life has been endangered in manner as you have represented to me, I must inform you that our Laws afford you ample Satisfaction. Foreigners are entitled to the protection of the Law, as well as amenable to it, equally with any Citizen of the United States, while they continue within the jurisdiction of this Commonwealth. Any learned practitioner in the Law, if applied to, will direct you the mode of legal process in the obtaining a redress of injury if you have been injured; and the Judiciary Courts will cause due enquiry to be made touching riotous and unlawful assemblies and their misdemeanors; and inflict legal punishment on such as by Verdict of a Jury may be found guilty.

I have the Honor to be, Sir,

your most Obed<sup>t</sup> hum<sup>t</sup> Servant,

Sir,

When I had the Honor of applying to your Excellency to discountenance the disgraceful attacks made upon me and the Officers of his Britannic Majesty's Ship Mercury under my Command, and to afford us your protection, it was upon your positive assurance to that effect in their presence, I rested my hope. How much your Conduct contradicts both that, and my expectation is too obvious either to satisfy me, or even to do credit to yourself. For your Excellency must excuse me when I remark that I never received a letter so insulting to my senses, as your answer to my requisition of yesterday. I am, however, pleased in finding a much better disposition in the first Class of inhabitants, whose assistance I am happy to acknowledge, as the more acceptable after your apparent evasion from the substance of my Letter; and however well informed your Excellency may believe yourself, upon the laws and customs of Nations in similar cases, allow me to assure you there is not one, no not even the ally of these States that would not most severely reprobate either the want of energy in government or disinclination of the governor to correct such notorious insults to public Characters, in which light only we can desire to be received.

I am to acknowledge the honor of your Excellency's Letter this moment received, and have to assure you I shall most cheerfully submit to the worst consequences that can arise from our correspondence, which I do not conceive on my part to have been couched in terms of either insolence or abuse, which is more than I could venture to say of yours. HY. STANHOPE.

His Excellency, Governor Bowdoin, &c. &c.

The Secretary to the United States for the department of foreign affairs to whom was referred a Letter of the 8th instant from his Excellency the Governor of Massachusetts to the Delegates of that Commonwealth in Congress report.

That in his opinion the answer of the Governor to Capt. Stanhope's first Letter was perfectly proper, that the Captains reply was highly disrespectful, and being so, that such measures might have been adopted as the laws prescribe for asserting the dignity of government in such cases.

He is further of opinion that two things are essential to the respectability of government. (1.) That it should be always in the right, and (2) That it should never be opposed or ill treated with impunity. To these ends its own internal power, (in such cases as the present) is, or ought to be adequate, and therefore a recurrence to a foreign sovereign to resent and punish affronts to such government, committed under its eye, and within its jurisdiction, appears to your Secretary a departure from that self respect, which on such occasions should invariably be observed; except indeed where such indignities are offered by Ambassadors.

If these principles are well founded, then it will follow as a necessary consequence, that no complaint or application for redress should be made by Congress to his Britannic Majesty on the subject in question.

But as America and Britain are at peace, and in that sense friends, it is to be presumed that disrespect to the one from officers of the other, must be offensive to the sovereign of such officers; in as much as such conduct tends to irritate and alienate the good will of the other. Under this view of the matter your Secretary thinks it would be proper to transmit these papers to the minister of the United States at the Court of London, and to instruct him to communicate them to the British Minister and to assure him,

(1) That nothing but a desire to avoid encreasing the irritation which the late war may have produced in the two nations could have restrained the governor from resenting the indecent conduct of Capt. Stanhope in a severe and exemplary manner.

(2) To assure him that Congress are persuaded that such Behaviour must give no less displeasure to his Majesty than it does to them—and that as all Sovereigns must in a certain degree be affected by the conduct of their servants, Congress think that the justice due to His Majesty calls upon them to lay this information before him.

(3) That Congress flatter themselves that this instance of delicacy and moderation will be ascribed to its proper motives, and considered as evincive of a desire to prevent animosity and promote mutual good will.

Your Secretary also thinks it would be proper to transmit a copy of this report to the Governor of Massachusetts and to assure him that Congress consider the dignity of each of the States as inseparably connected with that of the Union; and therefore that it shall on every occasion experience their care and attention.

Resolved, That Congress agree to the said report.

Ordered, That a Copy of this report together with the foregoing Letters be transmitted to the Executives of the several states.

SEC'Y OF CONGRESS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

Office of Secretary of Congress,

August 29th, 1785.

Sir,~

On examining the files in this office I find that only five States namely Newhampshire, Massachusetts, New York, Maryland and Virginia have transmitted their Laws passed in pursuance of the recommendation of Congress of the 30th April, 1784. It is suggested that other States have complied with the recommendation, though their Laws have not been forwarded, I therefore take the liberty of enclosing the act and request the favour of your Excellency to inform me what your Legislature have done, and if they have complied, that you will be pleased to transmit me a Copy of their act that I may report the same to Congress.

With great respect

RESOLUTION OF CONGRESS,

By the United States in Congress assembled.

April 30th, 1784.

The trust reposed in Congress, renders it their duty to be attentive to the conduct of foreign nations, and to prevent or restrain as far may be, all such proceedings as might prove injurious to the United States. The situation of commerce at this time claims the attention of the several states, and few objects of greater importance can present themselves to their notice. The fortune of every citizen is interested in the success thereof; for it is the constant source of wealth and incentive to industry; and the value of our produce and our land must ever rise or fall in proportion to the prosperous or adverse state of trade.

Already has Great Britain adopted regulations destructive of our commerce with her West-India Islands. There was reason to expect that measures so unequal and so little calculated to promote mercantile intercourse, would not be persevered in by an enlightened nation.

* See Col. Rec., Vol. XIV., p. 529.

But these measures are growing into system. It would be the duty of Congress, as it is their wish, to meet the attempts of Great-Britain with similar restrictions on her commerce; but their powers on this head are not explicit, and the propositions made by the legislatures of the several states, render it necessary to take the general sense of the Union on this subject.

Unless the United States in Congress assembled shall be vested with powers competent to the protection of commerce, they can never command reciprocal advantages in trade; and without these, our foreign commerce must decline and eventually be annihilated. Hence it is necessary that the states should be explicit, and fix on some effectual mode by which foreign commerce not founded on principles of equality may be restrained.

That the United States may be enabled to secure such terms they have

Resolved, That it be and hereby is recommended to the legislatures of the several states, to vest the United States in Congress, assembled, for the term of fifteen years, with power to prohibit any goods, wares or merchandize from being imported into or exported from any of the states, in vessels belonging to or navigated by the subjects of any power with whom these states shall not have formed treaties of commerce.

Resolved, That it be and hereby is recommended to the legislatures of the several states, to vest the United States in Congress assembled, for the term of fifteen years, with the power of prohibiting the subjects of any foreign state, kingdom or empire, unless authorized by treaty, from importing into the United States, any goods, wares or merchandize, which are not the produce or manufacture of the dominions of the sovereign whose subjects they are.

Provided, That to all acts of the United States in Congress assembled, in pursuance of the above powers, the assent of nine states shall be necessary.

COL. JOSIAH HARMAR TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

Fort McIntosh, September 1st, 1785.

Sir,

I have the honor to enclose to your Excellency & the honorable Council, a monthly return of this date, of the Pennsylvania Troops in the service of the United States.

The time of one-half the men has expired, and notwithstanding, I have used every exertion in my power to retain them in service, until the honorable Legislature convened, such is their want of confidence in the public, respecting their pay, and their wish to go down the country, that I find it impossible to re-engage them here, according to my former expectations.

As Congress have been pleased to revise their resolutions, and to order that only one full company of Infantry shall attend the treaty, which is to be held at the mouth of the great Miami—I think it may be reduced to a certainty that I shall be able to re-enlist that number. Forty-Four are already engaged, and two Officers are at Fort Pitt on the recruiting service, who, when the men have had out their frolic, I trust will be successful.

Enclosed is the form of an Enlistment, which is copied from the old one, excepting the alteration of the resolve of Congress, and the substituting three years instead of one. No justice of the peace being at hand, I judged it would advance the public service by administering the Oath myself.

The bearer, Captain Ziegler, (a very deserving officer,) has orders to wait upon your Excellency & the honorable Council for recruiting instructions. After having re-engaged about Ninety or One hundred men in this quarter, I propose going to Philadelphia to complete the business. The men who have been discharged and are gone downwards, will soon be tired of work; and I am well convinced, there will be little difficulty in speedily recruiting the quota of troops required from our State.

GEN. WM. IRVINE TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

Carlisle, September 2d, 1785.

Sir,

Mr. Power, one of the deputy Surveyors of the donation land, called on me yesterday to inform me that he has compleated the number of Surveys allotted to him within his district, which lies above the mouth of French Creek, and takes in Oil Creek.

He says that he could not find land fit for cultivation near the Allegheny River, and adds, notwithstanding that he found a sufficient quantity of good land within his district; and that there is still a considerable overpluss left. His surveys are made on the Eastern branches of French Creek & west of Sugar Creek, (which you will be pleased to observe has been noticed in a particular manner in my description of that Country.) Mr. Power also adds that Mr. Henderson and Mr. Watt, are yet employed in surveying their districts, and that he believes they have proceeded in the same manner he did, respecting the distance of beginning from the River.

I presume this information may be useful particularly if any alteration should be thought necessary in the present plan, which has induced me to trouble your Excellency with it.

Colonel Johnson now sends them to you with an invoice, and we are exceedingly desirous that they may be at Tioga in time.

As you were a Commissioner on the part of this State, we wish you to avail yourself of the opportunity that will be afforded on this occasion, of reading the Treaty to the Indians as it is entered on the public Journals of the General Assembly, of explaining the Expressions relating to the Privilege of hunting on the Lands until they are improved, of demonstrating the absurdity of construing those Expressions so as to overthrow the strong words of Conveyance in their Deeds, and all Ideas of Faith & Justice in respect to a purchase for which they have received a valuable Consideration declared by them in the most solemn manner to be fully satisfactory and even generous—and of removing the Impressions made upon their Minds by false suggestions concerning the Intentions of this Commonwealth & the United States, or respecting the late Treaty with Great Britain, by which the whole Country, up to the Lakes is ceded to these States.

Gentlemen,

We inclose Copies of two Letters from the War Office & of one from us, respecting the proportion of officers & privates in the federal regiment to be furnished by this State and of the late act of assembly on that subject.

To the Confederation & to that Law we shall hold ourselves bound to adhere; & therefore we desire that you will immediately apply to Congress, & obtain their assent to the arrangement adopted, & executed last year, upon which Pennsylvania supplied 1 Lieutenant Colonel Commandant, 3 Captains, 3 Lieutenants, and 3 Ensigns of Infantry, and 1 Captain and 1 Lieutenant of Artillery.

Warden's Office, Sep<sup>r</sup> 8th, 1785.

Sir,

The Collector of Tonnage, with the approbation of the Wardens of the Port, is impelled by a Sense of Duty to represent to your Excellency & the Honble Council that for the more effectual & speedy Collection of the Duties of Tonnage to be levied on all Ships & Vessels coming into or going out of this Port, he conceives it absolutely necessary that such Instructions should be given to the Naval Officer as will prevent all Clearances of Vessels untill the Demands for additional Tonnage are secured. He begs leave to observe, that the Demand for additional Tonnage arises from the following Cause.

That few Registers of Ships or other Vessels exactly specify their Tonnage; indeed, so great has been the Deficiency in some Instances, that on Experiment it has been found that the true Tonnage exceeds by One Half or Two Thirds what is declared in the Register; thus, unless properly attended to, greatly lessening the public Revenue.

On Application to the Naval Officer for his Support & Assistance in the Premises, he pleads Want of Authority from the Laws of the State, at the same Time expressing his earnest Desire that such Directions may issue from your Honble Body as will be a sufficient Sanction for his Conduct in promoting the Collection of Revenue that may be justly due to the State.

MANAGERS OF STATE LOTTERY TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

May it please the Council,

The Managers of the State Lottery beg leave to inform your Honorable Board that they have made the necessary preparations, and are ready to proceed to the drawing of the second Class on Monday next, the 19th Instant, agreeably to the appointment of Council.

That having found from Experience while drawing the first Class that a considerable number of Tickets were sold in the intervals of the drawing, altho' manifestly to the prejudice of the purchasers, & considering that by mixing Blanks among the Prizes, to be drawn with them a greater equality of Chance would be kept up & more encouragement given to adventurers, the Managers have made a representation thereof to the Honorable the House of Assembly which is now before a Committee but not reported upon.

That but Seven hundred & ninety Tickets of the Second class have been sold in the city & the returns of a great number sent abroad are not yet made.

The Managers therefore think it their duty to lay those Circumstances of the Lottery before your Excellency & Honors & beg leave to submit to your Consideration the propriety of delaying the drawing for a few days untill the determination of the Assembly shall be known.

A sufficient number of Blanks are rolled up & ready to be put into the wheels, the drawing will not therefore be delayed for them.

Deduction,	- -	649,880.
Balance to be called for,		3,000,000.

Deduct for part of the Dutch loan applied towards a discharge of the last year's estimate, and which the sums required from the states last year will replace; and for loans now in the hands of the Dutch Commissioners, and hereby appropriated for the purposes of this estimate, 649,880 dollars, and there remains the balance of three millions of dollars, to be paid into the common treasury.

The committee find that, for reasons stated in the resolve of Congress, of the 27th of April, 1784, there yet remains a moiety of the requisition for eight millions of dollars, and the whole of the requisition for two millions of dollars, to be applied to the use of the United States, before any new requisition ought to be made—They are therefore of opinion, that the states be called upon to make actual payment of three quarters of the remaining moiety aforesaid, on or before the first day of May aforesaid.

The committee have not been able to obtain information how many States have complied with the resolution of February 17th, or that of April 18th, 1783, relative to a rule, for adjusting the quotas of the several states in federal requisitions.—They are therefore of opinion, that the several states which have not decided on that subject, be again solicited to come to a decision thereon, and to send forward the same, as a measure necessary to enable Congress to effect a settlement of accounts with the several states, and to apportion to each a just quota of the public expences; but in the mean time, as the public faith renders it the duty of Congress to continue their annual demand for money, the committee are of opinion, that in the apportionment thereof, the quotas of the several states should be adjusted agreeably to the best information which Congress may from time to time have obtained on the subject. Upon this principle they recommend to Congress, that in the present requisition for three millions of dollars, the quotas of the several states be as follows, viz. :

	Dollars.
New-Hampshire, - - - - -	105,416
Massachusetts, - - - - -	448,854
Rhode-Island and Providence Plantations, - - -	64,636
Connecticut, - - - - -	264,182
New-York, - - - - -	256,486
New-Jersey, - - - - -	166,716

Which sums, when paid, shall be passed to the credit of the states respectively, on the terms prescribed by the resolution of Congress of the sixth day of October, 1779, and together with the monies relied on to discharge the aforesaid deduction of 649,880 dollars, be applied in conformity with the several appropriations in the preceding part of this report, giving preference according to the order in which they are stated in the estimate.

As more than two-thirds of the sum called for is to be applied to the payment of interest on the domestic debt, the committee are of opinion, that the several legislatures may so model the collection of the sums called for, that one third of any sum being paid in actual money, the other two-thirds may be discharged by the interest due upon loan-office certificates and upon other certificates of the liquidated debts of the United States. And to ascertain the evidences of interest due upon loan office certificates, the holders thereof respectively, shall be at liberty to carry them to the office from which they issued, and the holders of other certificates of liquidated debts of the United States, to carry the same to the loan-office of that state wherein they are inhabitants, or if foreigners, to any loan-office within the United States, and to have the interest due thereon, settled and certified to the last day of the year 1784.

Provided that the commissioner of the continental loan-office in any state, shall not on any pretence whatever, settle, or issue any certificate or certificates, for the interest due on any continental loan-office-certificate or other certificate of liquidated debts aforesaid, unless as hereafter provided, until the state for which he is continental loan-officer shall have passed a legislative act, complying with this requisition; nor shall he issue any certificate, or take any other measure whereby the interest may be paid by the state in any mode not pointed out by this requisition; nor shall the commissioner of the continental loan-office in any state that shall have complied with this requisition, issue any certificate or take any other measure whereby a discrimination may be made by such state between the holders of loan-office certificates issued from his office, who are citizens of that state, and foreigners, or the citizens of any other state that shall have complied with this requisition: Excepting from this proviso, such state or states, as, by the books of the treasury shall appear to have paid their full quota of the requisition of the 30th October, 1781, for eight millions of dollars upon the former and present apportionment of the same, so far as to admit the commissioner of the continental loan-office in such state or states, to issue certificates for interest in the same manner as the commissioners in the states passing legislative acts, as aforesaid: Provided always, that any continental loan-officer shall issue certificates for interest as aforesaid, due on continental loan-office certificates issued from his office and belonging to foreigners, and also, to the citizens of such state as shall have passed a legislative act, complying with this requisition as aforesaid.

Provided nevertheless, that where any state hath made provision by law, for paying any part of the interest of the domestic debt of the United States contained in the estimate on which this requisition is founded, the continental loan-officer in such state, shall, without delay, ascertain the sum which shall have been so paid pursuant to such law, on or before the first day of January next, and shall make report thereof to the board of treasury, and also to the legislature of such state, who may deduct from their quota of this requisition, and be credited in part payment thereof, the sum so paid not exceeding two-thirds of such quota, every state being held to pay in specie one-third part of the said quota, previously to the admission of such credit. And if any state shall have so paid in discharge of interest as aforesaid, a sum exceeding two-thirds of its quota of this requisition such surplus shall be admitted as a charge against the United States in the settlement of the general account of such state; but if any interest after the first day of January, shall be paid by any state contrary to the true intent of this requisition, such payment shall not be admitted as a charge against the United States. And if any commissioner of a continental loan-office shall disobey, or neglect to carry into execution any resolution or order of Congress, or otherwise neglect his duty in the said office, the board of treasury shall suspend him from his office, and the emoluments thereof, and immediately report the reasons thereof to Congress; and the board of treasury are hereby empowered to appoint in the room of the commissioner of the continental loan-office so suspended, a citizen of the state in which the office is kept, who shall have all the powers and emoluments of a commissioner of the continental loan-office, until Congress shall finally determine respecting the suspension.

And every commissioner of the continental loan-office, previously to settling and issuing certificates as aforesaid, for the interest due on certificates of liquidated debts, other than loan-office certificates, shall administer an oath or affirmation, or require a certificate signed by one of the persons whom the state in which the commissioner resides shall, in the legislative act complying with this requisition appoint, that he has administered to the owner or possessor of every such certificate, an oath or affirmation, that the same is bona fide the property of the particular state in which the said commissioner resides, or of a citizen or citizens of the said state, or of some corporate body or charitable institution within the same, or of some person who is not a citizen of any of the United States; describing the certificate or certificates alluded to in every such oath or affirmation, in such manner as shall be necessary to identify the same, or as may be prescribed by the legislature of the said state.

And for preventing the depreciation of certificates to be issued as aforesaid, the legislature of each state is required to provide in the act complying with this requisition that if on the first day of January, 1787, the said state's quota of the said certificates so to be issued shall not be in the hands of the state treasurer or other proper officer, the deficiency shall be collected and paid into the continental treasury in specie, which, when so paid, is hereby appropriated to the redemption of such surplus certificates.

Provided nevertheless, that any State which shall have obtained a credit in the books of the treasury for the full compliance with the requisition of the 4th September, 1782, for one million two hundred thousand dollars, with the requisition of 27th April, 1784, for completing the payment of one-half of the requisition of 30th October, 1781, for eight million dollars, and also with this requisition, shall at any time after such compliances, be admitted to pay into the treasury of the United States any sum, or sums in the said certificates to be issued for interest as aforesaid, and have credit for the same, to be deducted out of the quota of such state in the next succeeding requisition; provided that such sum or sums do not exceed one-half the said quota.

That the board of treasury cause to be made a bank-paper, and thereon to be struck the form of certificates, to evidence the interest due as aforesaid, and transmit to the several loan-officers, a sufficient number of the same. That the said board furnish the several loan-officers, with such checks and instructions, as they, from time to time, shall judge necessary, to prevent counterfeited certificates of debts from obtaining a settlement of interest, and to detect counterfeited evidences of interest, and thereby to avoid receiving them in discharge of taxes; which certificates of interest being parted with by the holders of the principal, shall be deemed evidence that he has received satisfaction for the same, and therefore shall be receivable from the bearer in lieu of money in the proportion aforesaid, in any other State in the Union, as well as in the State in which they were issued. That the State receiving such certificates and paying the same into the public treasury, with a proportion of specie as aforesaid, shall have credit therefor; which payment shall be considered as a discharge of the interest due on the domestic debt, in the proportion that each State avails itself of the said certificates of interest. And where loan-office certificates issued after the first day of March, 1778, shall be presented to the loan-officer, they shall be reduced to their specie value, conformable to the resolutions of Congress of June 28th, 1780, and that specie value expressed on some part of the certificate, and the interest thereon settled and certified as in other cases.

As a motive for the cheerful payment of the sum now called for, as well as of the arrearages on that of April 27, 1784, the committee are of opinion that the States be reminded, that Congress have passed an ordinance for the survey and sale of the western territory of the United States, and that the proceeds thereof will be applied as a sinking fund to extinguish the domestic debt. Future requisitions for interest on the domestic debt, will therefore be reduced in proportion as this fund may be rendered productive.

RESOLVED, That Congress agree to the said report.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONGRESS—LOAN OFFICE, 1785.

By the United States in Congress assembled, September 30, 1785.

Resolved, that it shall be the duty of the commissioners of the continental loan-offices in the respective states, to receive and keep the monies arising from continental taxes in the different states, and to pay the interest due from the United States in the said states respectively; and that they hold all monies collected within the several states on account of the requisitions of Congress, subject only to the orders of Congress, or of the board of treasury.

That they shall, agreeable to such mode as may be prescribed by the comptroller, make weekly returns to the board of treasury of the money they may receive on account of the United States, and also of the certificates which they may issue for the payment of the interest on the public debt, in pursuance of the acts of Congress.

That they form accurate estimates as often as called upon by the board of treasury, of the interest falling due monthly within their respective states on loan office certificates and other liquidated securities of the United States; and that they keep accurate and distinct registers of the principal sums due as well on the liquidated as loan-office debt.

That in all their official transactions, they govern themselves by the acts and resolves of Congress, or the orders of the board of treasury, not repugnant thereto.

That they make no appropriation of monies by them received on account of the United States, except for the purpose of the payment of interest agreeably to the resolves of Congress, without the express order of the board of treasury, and that they submit to the comptroller, a state of their accounts quarterly, for examination and allowance.

That the said officers shall not directly or indirectly be concerned in trade; and that previously to entering on the duties of their office, they shall severally enter into bonds to the United States of America, with two or more sureties; the principals in a sum not exceeding fifty thousand dollars, nor less than ten thousand dollars, and one or more sureties in a like sum, as may from time to time be directed by the board of treasury, having regard to the magnitude of the trust reposed in the several offices.—Further, they shall severally take and subscribe the oath of fidelity to the United States, and also an oath for the due execution of their offices respectively; certificates of which, together with their several bonds, shall be transmitted to the board of treasury, who shall cause the same to be recorded in the comptroller's office.

That they shall henceforth be respectively allowed for all services and duties which are or may be annexed to their offices, by any acts or resolutions of Congress, or direction of the board of treasury, a sum not exceeding fifteen hundred, nor less than six hundred dollars per annum, exclusive of office rent, stationery, and other necessary charges, and the wages of such clerks as may be previously authorized by the board of treasury, who shall judge of the services aforesaid.

That in the payment of all monies, they shall take printed duplicate receipts, agreeable to such form as shall be transmitted to them by the comptroller; one of which shall be forwarded to the board of treasury, with their accounts, in support of the payments made by them respectively. That they shall also give duplicate receipts for all monies received by them, in order that the several states may direct one of them to be forwarded to the board of treasury, who, upon the receipt thereof, shall credit the state for the amount specified therein, and charge the same to the officer receiving it.

That it be recommended to the legislatures of the respective states, to direct their treasurers to transmit to the board of treasury, a monthly abstract of all monies paid on account of the several states to the commissioners of the continental loan-offices, distinguishing the dates and amounts of the respective payments, and the sums paid in actual money, from those in interest certificates.

That all the acts and resolves of Congress respecting the duties of the commissioners of the loan-office in the respective states, made previously to this date, be, and they are hereby repealed and declared to be void from and after the first day of January next, excepting the requisition of the 27th and 28th of April, 1784, the ordinance of the 20th of May, and the requisition of the 27th September, 1785.

That all appointments of commissioners of the continental loan-offices in future, shall be made by the United States in Congress assembled, any act or resolution to the contrary notwithstanding; provided that such commissioners as are now in office, where the number does not exceed one in each state, be and hereby are continued in office, subject to the acts and resolutions of Congress.

Resolved, that the resolution of the 3d day of October, 1776, so far as it relates to the responsibility of the states for the faithful discharge of the duty of the commissioners of the continental loan-office, be repealed and made void from and after the first day of January, 1786.

PRES. DICKINSON TO CHIEF JUSTICE AND OTHER JUDGES, 1785.

In Council, October 8th, 1785.

Gentlemen,

Regarding the offices we hold, as bestowed merely for the purpose of enabling us to contribute to the Happiness of the People and persuaded that you view those held by you in the same Light, we do not doubt, but you will cheerefully afford your Aid, in carrying into Execution any Measures that have a tendency to promote so desireable an End.

In going the Circuits you will frequently visit different parts of the State. While the Judicial Authority is employed in this solemn Progress for the Punishment of Evil doers, We should be glad, that besides the Terror of legal Penalties, all the Influence to be derived from your Characters, and the Dignity of your Stations, might be applied in disseminating the best Principles & setting forward the most effectual Regulations for the prevention of offences.

You Gentlemen, well know how vain are Laws without Manners. These cannot be expected, unless the strictest attention be paid to the Education of youth, and the Inculcation of a true Love and Fear of the Supreme Being.

Under other Forms of Government, the administration may be well conducted, if the Chief Magistrates only are good, But, in Republics where the People themselves are to govern their Virtue is essential to their Prosperity.

When the Individuals of a society are impressed with a just Regard for Industry, Frugality, Temperance, Morality and Piety, and of course with a proper Contempt for Habits & Dispositions opposed to these Qualities, they will rise to that simple, manly, dignified Character that amidst the Changes in human affairs most directly tends to ensure their own Felicity and the Honor of their Country. May infinite Mercy grant this to be the Choice and Condition of Pennsylvanians.

It is our next Wish that you would be pleased strongly to recommend in the several Counties, the Establishment of Schools, Attendance at places of public worship, Provisions for Ministers of the Gospel, and Observance of the Sabbath.

There are other Considerations of much Moment, which, as your sentiments will undoubtedly be received with great Respect, We desire also to have enforced. These are the Improvements of agriculture Roads and Streams, and proper Motives for exciting Attention to every Thing, that by producing local Benefits at first, may at Length operate in advancing the general Welfare.

I have the Honor to be,

Gentlemen, your most obedient Servant,

GOV. OF MARYLAND TO V. P. BIDDLE, 1785.

Annapolis, 2d November, 1785.

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your Excellency's letter of the 25th* of October last enclosing a Memorial of a number of Mariners of the Ship Pallas.

I should be happy to give the redress those unfortunate men seem justly entitled to, but the executive of the state are not invested with any judicial authority to administer justice, nor indeed with any ministerial powers to facilitate the means of redress. Our Courts of Justice and the Magisterial Department are the only Tribunals which our Government authorizes to redress the complaints of Foreigners or Natives.

If the representation of the Mariners be true actions will lie against Capt. O'Donnell on which they may obtain compleat justice.

With regard to the lad suggested to be stole by one Hamilton the proper step for immediate redress would be to apply for a Habeas Corpus to one of our Judges or Justices, and this I would have done on behalf of the Father but neither your Letter nor the memorial mentioned the name of the one or the other. This affair shall be immediately redressed when the names of the parties are communicated.

SEC'Y OF WAR TO PRES. FRANKLIN, 1785.

War Office, November 4th, 1785.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform your Excellency that Congress, considering the difficulty of marching troops to the frontiers during the winter months, have thought proper to suspend the further recruiting of the men required by the acts of April, last, until the 1st of March, 1786.

The raising and subsisting the recruits within the States until that time would have been expensive, without any adequate good consequences resulting from the measure.

I have written to Lieutenant Colonel Harmar and have requested him to convey this information to his officers.

I have the honour to be,

with much respect, Your Excellency's

Most obedient Servant,

H. KNOX.

RESOLUTION OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY, 1785.

State of Pennsylvania,

In General Assembly,

Monday, November 7, 1785, A. M.

A letter from his Excellency the President of the Supreme Executive Council respecting certain natives of India, now here,* which was read November 5th, was read the second time, whereupon

On motion of Mr. Fitzsimmons, seconded by Mr. Atlee, the House adopted the following, viz—

Whereas it appears by a letter from the President and the Supreme Executive Council, that there is now in this city a number of distressed persons, natives of China and India, who from their habits

PERS. OF COUNCIL TO ROAD COMMISSIONERS, 1785.

Gentlemen,

Philadelphia, Nov. 9th, 1785.

Under the enclosed law & appointment of council you or any two of you will meet on the 1st day of December next at Miller's spring in the county of Cumberland, & thence proceed, "to survey & lay out (or mark) a State highway in as direct & straight a manner as the circumstances of the country and situation of the ground will admit, to Pittsburg in the county of Westmoreland which Highway shall throughout the whole length of the same (except in the town of Bedford) be of the breadth of 60 feet," & from time to time transmit a report of your proceedings with a draft of your road as far as you have carried it, to this Board, particularly noting "the more rugged & least habitable parts of the Country" thro' which you proceed, by announcing the name of the Township or such other distinction, as will best enable Council to comply with the wishes of the House in directing the future labor & expence of Government upon it.

In executing this trust, it will be necessary to employ a Surveyor Chain carrier & other assistants. Council rely upon your getting these on the best possible terms for the State, & that more will not be engaged than will be necessary to the accuracy & dispatch with which it is expected you will perform this business.

Directed,

James Smith, John Boggs, & Francis Selters, Esquires. Commissioners for laying out a road from Millersburg to Pittsburg.

LEVI HOLLINGSWORTH TO SEC'Y ARMSTRONG, 1785.

Philadelphia, Nov. 9th, 1785.

Sir,

In obedience to the request of Council communicated to me in your note of yesterday, I have examined the state of the East India seamen now with me. There are thirty-one of them in Philadelphia greatest part of them lodged in a house of mine where I placed them from motives of humanity, and have advanced to their necessities to the amount of forty shillings in cash and provisions. One of them being sick is removed to the Pennsylvania Hospital.

They report themselves destitute of money and not clothed for the present and approaching season wanting shoes, stockings, Jackets and Trowsers; some of them have outside coats or Frocks of woollen-cloth, but their under cloths are only of Cotton and many without any other covering but a Calico kind of frock, they have no bedding or covering of that kind, nor wood to dress their victuals with, the rooms they are in at present are inconvenient to them having but one fire-place and no outlet or yard, and of too much value to me to be long occupied by so large a family and without the prospect of a compensation equal to the rent they were set for at the time I took these unhappy people in. Since I was with Council on their behalf I waited on Capt. Truxton to satisfy myself as to the terms he would carry them to India for, he says Forty Guineas <sup>per</sup> man is his lowest price. As Capt. Green in Robert Morris's employ is soon to sail for that Country, I think it probable he might be prevailed upon to take them for a lower freight. Hoping the Honourable Council will take their unhappy situation into immediate consideration.

I am with great regard,

Your most obedient servant,

LEVI HOLLINGSWORTH.*

JAMES PEARSON TO COUNCIL,—STATE HOUSE, 1785.

To the Honorable the Supreme Executive Council of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen,

Those repairs of the State house, that are already done with the preparations for finishing other parts of the work amount to near Twelve hundred pounds. In these accounts are included the Cost of the screen, Venetian Blinds, and sundry other work done in the Council Chamber, also the alterations and improvements in the Office of the Comptroller General and Master of the Rolls, which are not included in the Estimates (amounting to £1250) reported to the Honble. House of Assembly.

The money I have received by order of your Honble. Board on acct. for repairing the State house is nine hundred and ninety pounds. Therefore request of the Honble Council, that they will order me the additional sum of Two hundred pounds to pay the debts already contracted and make such repairs as remain unfinished.

and oblige,

your hble. Servant,

JAMES PEARSON.*

LAND OFFICE TO PRES. FRANKLIN, 1785.

His Excellency Benjamin Franklin, Esq'r, President in Council.
Sir,

The instructions which we have heretofore received from Council respecting the Sale of the Depreciation Lands, are silent with regard to the most eligible mode to be adopted—we therefore beg leave to submit to Council whether we should sell these Lands by the acre or by the Tract; in all probability the Commonwealth wou'd derive advantages from selling them by the acre, this however we submit to your direction.

The City Auctioneer has suggested to us, that it appears to him his province to sell these Lands, agreeably to the laws under which he acts, whether this shall be the case or we must employ Cryers and other necessary persons to negotiate this business we also beg leave to submit to your Hon'ble Body—In case we shou'd be authorized to employ proper persons, 'tis likely the expences incurred will not be less than if conducted thro' the channel of the auctioneer.

With regard to the mode of completing the purchasers Titles, the Law is likewise silent, we therefore submit to the consideration of Council whether it wou'd be proper to issue a warrant directing a return of Survey to be made of each particular Tract previous to the granting of a Patent.

We shall be extremely happy either to receive the instructions of

SEC'Y OF CONGRESS TO PRES. OF COUNCIL, 1785.

Office of Secretary of Congress,

Sir,

I am sorry to inform your Excellency that, notwithstanding it seems to be the intention of the Confederation that all the States should punctually assemble in Congress on the first Monday in November, there are yet but five states represented namely, Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Maryland and South Carolina, and one member attending from Georgia.

The late packets from Europe have, I understand, brought dispatches which demand the immediate and attentive consideration of Congress, I beg leave to transmit to your Excellency a Copy of a letter which I have just received from the Secretary for foreign affairs and hope you will be pleased to urge the delegates for your state to come forward as speedily as possible.

SEC'Y OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS TO PRES. OF COUNCIL, 1785.

Copy.
Office for foreign affairs,
18th Nov'r, 1785.

Dear Sir,

The season when the Legislatures usually meet to do business is at hand. It is highly probable that Congress will find it expedient to call their attention to certain objects of general concern, and particularly to some which the present state of our foreign affairs present. The late advices I have received from Europe demand the attentive consideration of Congress, and in my opinion will give occasion to recommendations to the States, and other measures which should not be delayed. Considering the time unavoidably consumed by deliberative bodies in maturing their acts, it is to be regretted that a sufficient number of States to proceed to every kind of business within the powers of Congress are not now represented. Communications to the States for the purpose of accelerating their representation in Congress fall more properly within your department than mine. I therefore think it my duty to give you these hints, that your letters to the States on that subject may impress them more strongly with the necessity of their providing for their being speedily, fully, and constantly represented in Congress.

I am &c.,

(signed,). JOHN JAY.

RESOLUTION OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY, 1785.

State of Pennsylvania in General Assembly, Friday, November 18, 1785, A. M.

The report of the committee read yesterday, respecting the Inland Navigation of this State, was read the second time and adopted as follows, viz :

The committee upon the Inland Navigation report :

That in their opinion a revision of any of the Acts for Improving the navigation of the river Susquehanna as a measure to influence the concurrence of the State of Maryland with the States of Delaware and Pennsylvania, in opening a navigable communication between the two bays of Chesapeak and Delaware will be premature until that State shall discover itself indisposed thereto, which as far as they stand informed will not probably be the case, the committee rather propose that a negociation be entered into with the States of Maryland and Delaware upon the ground of reciprocal advantages to be derived, to all the States concerned, from a communication between the said two Bays as well as from an effectual improvement of the navigation of the river Susquehanna and its streams.

The Committee, in consequence submit the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Supreme Executive Council be authorised and requested, and they are hereby authorised and requested to enter into a negotiation with the States of Maryland and Delaware upon the ground and for the purposes above mentioned.

PRES. FRANKLIN TO GOV. OF MARYLAND, 1785.

In Council, 25th November, 1785.

Sir,

I have the honor to inform your Excellency that the Legislature of this Commonwealth has in its present session discovered every disposition to adhere to the same generous policy, which in March last, dictated the Law entitled "An Act to execute the Act of Assembly, declaring the river Susquehanna and other streams therein, named public highways, and for improving the navigation of the same, within the limits of this State."

Commissioners under this law have been appointed and though the work be not actually entered upon, yet no other causes of delay now present themselves excepting such as arise from a disposition in Pennsylvania to promote the purposes by extending the utility of every practicable scheme of inland navigation. It is under this influence that the General Assembly has authorized us to enter into a negotiation with the State, over which your Excellency presides, for the purpose of opening "a navigable communication between the Bays of Chesepeak and Delaware, and for an effectual improvement of the river Susquehanna, and its streams."

Your Excellency will observe that this proposition as far as it applies to Maryland & Pennsylvania is made to rest in all its parts upon the fair and equal ground of reciprocal advantage. Of the three States concern'd that of Delaware will perhaps derive the most immediate advantage from the first part of the plan; but we cannot but flatter ourselves y<sup>t</sup> your Legislature like ours, will see that in promoting the immediate interest of an intervening State, she does not ultimately forego her own.

Your Excellency will be pleased to bring this subject before your Gen. Assembly as early as possible, and in such manner, as will be most likely to recommend it to their serious attention.

I am, Sir, with the utmost respect, your Excellency's most obedient hble. Servt.,
BENJAMIN FRANKLIN.*

PRES. FRANKLIN TO THE GOVERNOR OF DELAWARE, 1785.

Sir,

I have the honor to inform your Excellency that under a late act of the Legislature of this Commonwealth, we are authorized to enter into a negociation with the States of Delaware and Maryland, for the purpose of "opening a navigable communication between the Bays "of Chesepeak & Delaware," and for "effectually improving the "navigation of the river Susquehanna and its streams."

The State over which your Excellency presides is so immediately interested in this measure, that we cannot but hope that this proposition will meet your most ready and warm approbation & support, & from the wise & liberal policy which y<sup>e</sup> State of Maryland has lately discovered on a similar occasion, we have every reason to believe that she will not be backward in adopting a measure so directly calculated to promote the interest of all the States concerned in it.

The ground upon which it is proposed to conduct this negociation is that of equal and Reciprocal advantages. Assured as we are that it is the only permanent basis of political Contract. Your Ex<sup>y</sup> will be pleased to lay this proposition before your Legislature as early as possible, and in such manner as may be most likely to procure a favourable reception.

I have the honor to be,
with the highest regard,

RESOLUTIONS OF CONGRESS.—CONSUL GEN'L OF G. B., 1785.

The United States in Congress Assembled.

December 2d, 1785,

The Secretary of the United States for the Department of Foreign Affairs, to whom was referred the Letter of 24th November, to His Excellency the President, with Mr. J. Temple's Commission having reported

"That John Temple, Esquire, has presented to the United States in Congress assembled, a Commission in due form, bearing date the fifth day of February, last, from His Britannic Majesty, constituting and appointing him the Consul General of his said Majesty in these States. That there is as yet no Commercial Treaty or convention subsisting between his Britannic Majesty and the United States, whereby either have a perfect right to establish Consuls in the dominions of the other, but that amicable negotiations for that and other reciprocal privileges are now depending. That although the issue of those negotiations is, as yet, uncertain, it will nevertheless be proper for the United States on this and every other occasion to observe as great a degree of liberality as may consist with a due regard to their National Honor and Welfare." therefore

Resolved that the said John Temple, Esquire, be and he hereby is received and recognised, as Consul General of His Britanic Majesty throughout the United States, and that his Commission be registered in the Secretary's Office,

Resolved, That all the privileges preeminences & authority which the Laws of Nations and of the Land give to a Consul General received by the United States from any nation with whom they have no Commercial Treaty or Convention are due to the said John Temple and shall be enjoyed by him.

Ordered That certified copies of the above resolutions be transmitted to the Executives of the different States for their information.

LEVI HOLLINGSWORTH TO PRES. AND COUNCIL, 1785.

To His Excellency, Benjamin Franklin, Esquire, and the Supreme Executive Council of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen,

From the continued application of the East India seamen for every necessary of life, which I have so far administered to them much to the inconvenience of my private business, I am obliged to pray the Honourable Council to appoint some person to the Guardianship or care of them, as well to provide Houses or rooms, as to supply them with their further wants, the house they now occupy of mine being too small for the accommodation of so many persons having but one fire-place, and also too valuable to me to be occupied without a gratuity, and from the situation by no means suited for the purpose of barracks to persons, unacquainted with wood-fires and the risk resulting from inattention to them, which is the case of these people. I am therefore to hope and beg the Honourable Council either to have them Lodged in the Publick alms-house or Elsewhere, or to Clothe me with authority to remove them back to New Castle county, where they unfortunately came on board a vessell of mine which brought them to Philadelphia thro' motives of Charity. They, poor creatures, are now in great want of other rooms to shelter them, which is not in my power to provide, and I humbly conceive the overseers of the Poormight provide for them at less expence and they be better accomodated under their patronage, than that of mine. In conformity to the directions of your board I have cloathed them with new westcoats, outside coats, trowsers, shoes and stockings & provided them with Beef, Flour & Firewood. And tho' my own feelings are much affected by their situation, yet my private business is too extensive to devote that time to them that their necessities require.

I am with great regard,
Your most obedient &
Very Humble Servant,

Sir,

The time being now elapsed which was specified in the Instructions of Council for payment of the purchase money and fees which have accrued on the lands sold in Daniel Leets District, and sundry purchasers not having complied with the terms therein mentioned, I beg leave therefore to submit to Council the steps necessary to be pursued on this occasion.

Indeed, I have reason to believe that some of the purchasers do not mean to comply at all, with the terms of sale, if so, perhaps it would not be amiss for your Hon'ble Body to use compulsory measures; as any future Sale (if purchasers should be indulged in relinquishing their purchases) wou'd be productive of Expence alone without any emolument to the State.

JAMES PEARSON—STATE HOUSE, 1785.

To the honorable the Supream Executive Council of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen,

Having considered your advertisement in the Pennsylvania packet and revised the estimate laid before the Committee of the Hon'ble Assembly, do now offer to perform all the repairs mentioned in the said advertisements for Eighty three pounds, and am assured no person can afford to do said work for a less price or more expeditiously, especially as I have the shingles ready for the very purpose, (having procured and drest them a considerable time since by the advice of some gentlemen of the Committee of the late Assembly, and a part of the old roof cleared off (by mistake) ready to go to work.

I am with respect,

Gentlemen, y<sup>r</sup> h<sup>b</sup>le Serv<sup>t</sup>,

JAMES PEARSON.

LEVI HOLLINGSWORTH TO PRESIDENT AND COUNCIL, 1785.

To the President and Supreme Executive Council of the State of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen,

In conformity to your directions, I have supplied the Lascars and Chinese with the Sundry articles necessary to their subsistance, amounting in the whole to £     as <sup>9</sup>/<sub>10</sub> Bill and shop notes inclosed which I must beg the Council to grant an order for the payment of. I left the House-rent to the discretion of Council, the sum I had let it for at the time they were put in, was Thirty pounds <sup>9</sup>/<sub>10</sub> annum. I am also to observe that their great consumption of provisions must arise from want of oeconomy, they having consumed near two pounds <sup>9</sup>/<sub>10</sub> day. The Lascars being removed to the Alliance Frigate, a distance from my business, it will no longer be convenient to me to provide for them, at the same time, must beg to suggest to Council the necessity of some person having a care to their future management.

Mr. Randle (a gentleman going to India from New York) giving me assurance that he would in a few days take the three Chinees with him, I have permitted them to remain with me, they having latterly differed with the Lascars, and their quarrels arising to considerable heights, I thought it best to sepearate them.

I am with great regard

the Councils most Obedient

Humble Servant,

LEVI HOLLINGSWORTH.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONGRESS,—WYOMING, 1784.

By the United States in Congress, assembled,
Friday, Jany. 28d, 1784.

On the report of a committee consisting of Mr. Jefferson, Mr. Lee & Mr. Williamson to whom was referred a petition of Zebulon Butler & others claiming under the State of Connecticut private right of soil within the territory westward of the Delaware formerly in controversy between the said state & that of Pennsylvania and lately determined by a Court constituted and appointed agreeably to the Ninth of the articles of confederation and perpetual union to be within the jurisdiction of the said state of Pennsylvania complaining that they are disturbed in their right by others claiming under the said state of Pennsylvania and praying that a Court may be instituted under the ninth article of the confederation for determining the said right.

Resolved, That a court be instituted according to the said ninth article of the confederation for determining the private right of soil within the said territory so far as the same is by the said article submitted to the determination of such a court.

That the fourth Monday in June next be assigned for the appearance of the parties by their lawful agents before Congress or the committee of the States wherever they shall be then sitting.

That notice of the assignment of the said day be given to the parties in the following form.*

Resolved, that the said notice be transmitted by the Secretary to the executives of the States of Connecticut and Pennsylvania with a request that they take proper measures for having the same served on the parties interested under their State respectively,

CHA. THOMSON, Secy.

PRES. DICKINSON TO VICE-PRESIDENT, 1784.

Sir,

Inclosed are some Memorandums respecting articles, on which Duties may be proper, & also some Notes concerning the admiralty Jurisdiction.

I shall be very glad if Council will be pleased to make such additions or alterations as they judge expedient, & then, that you will be so good as to transmit the Paper to Mr. Delany.

I beg leave to submit to Council the inclosed answer to Mr. de Crevaceur's letter.†

* See form of notice, on page 194.

† See page, 195.

A Letter is now sent, inclosing Mr. Scott's account, which please to have delivered to the Speaker.

I should have prepared the Message on John Campbell's Memorial, but find it necessary to have the Entries he refers to. If you could without too much Trouble convey him notice to call upon Me this Day or to-morrow between 11 & 2 o'clock, I should like to converse with him on his Business, & should be glad that you & some of the Council might be present.

I am, with the greatest Esteem, Sir,

REPORT, &C., OF COMMITTEE OF GEN'L ASSEMBLY,—WYOMING.*

Friday, January 30th, 1784, A.M.

The Report of the Committee read yesterday, on the petition of divers Inhabitants of Wyoming, was read the second time as follows, viz.

The Committee to whom was referred the Petition of Samuel Shepherd and others, Inhabitants of Wyoming beg leave to offer the following Report.

That they find upon careful examination that the following of the said petitioners viz., Simon Spalding, Sam'l Shepherd, Joseph Hageman, Nathaniel Davenport, Conrad Lyons, Daniel Whitney, Joseph Elliott, Solomon Perkins, the Heirs of Christopher Cartwright jointly, Stephen Fuller, Asell Burnham, Preserved Cooley, William Stark, Isaac Baldwin & Lawrence Myers are within the Description of persons entitled to a reasonable Compensation in Lands within the Boundaries of this State agreeable to a Resolve of the Honorable Assembly of this State of the second of September last, your Committee therefore offer the following Resolution.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Land Office be hereby authorized & required, to deliver to each of the above named persons, viz. Simon Spalding, Samuel Shepherd, Joseph Hageman, Nathaniel Davenport, Conrad Lyons, Daniel Whitney, Joseph Elliott, Solomon Perkins, the Heirs of Christopher Cartwright, jointly, Stephen Fuller, Asell Burnham, Preserved Cooley, William Stark, Isaac Baldwin and Lawrence Myers. Certificates under the Seal of his office importing that each of them are entitled to three hundred Acres of Land to be Located anywhere within the purchased &

REPORT OF COMMITTEE TO GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Tuesday, Sept. 2d, 1783.

The Committee to whom were referr'd Captain Shrawder's Letter and the report of the Commissioners sent to Wioming to effect a compromise with the settlers at that place, and the Owners of the Wioming Lands, beg leave to report,

That they have examined the several papers committed to them with care & attention, and are fully satisfied of the laudable Zeal and industry used by your Commissioners to effect the purposes of their Mission, and likewise with the generous offers made by the Pennsylvania Land holders to the settlers at Wioming. Your Committee are, however, sorry to find that the endeavours of your Commissioners and the offers of the proprietors of Lands at Wyoming have been rendered abortive by the interference of the State of Connecticut and the Susquehanna Company, so that our hopes of a friendly compromise seem now vanished. Your committee submit the following resolutions to the Honorable House.

Resolved, that a Committee be appointed to prepare and bring in a Bill for repealing the Law of this State entitled "An Act to prevent and stay suits from being brought against the inhabitants of Wioming during the time therein mentioned, passed March 13th, last, and for confirming the Township of Wyoming into three Distinct Townships, as laid out and divided by your Commissioners on the 22d day of April last past.

Resolved, That as well to discover the moderation and Equitable disposition of this House, as in consideration of the sufferings of the Settlers at Wioming from the Common Enemy, a reasonable compensation in Lands within the Boundaries of this State upon easy Terms be made to the families of those who have fallen fighting against the Savages, and to such others as did actually reside on the Lands at Wyoming when the late Decree was given at Trenton.

Resolved, That no such settler be intitled to the benefits of this Resolution unless upon demand made he gives up possession to the Claimant or Claimants under Pennsylvania or upon any Suit of Trespass and Ejectment being commenced by such Claimant or Claimants He shall become Defendant in such Suit and Confess Judgment to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in Ejectment.

Ordered, That Mr. Whitehall, Mr. Latimer, and Mr. Macalay, be a Committee to bring in a Bill agreeable to the first of the foregoing resolutions.

EPHRAIM DOUGLASS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Union Town, 2nd February, 1784.

Sir,

The recollection of the personal obligations for which I feel myself indebted to your Excellency's beneficence, would alone be sufficient to inspire me with the desire of giving every testimony of grateful recognition; and when to that is added the obligation of public duty, I will confidently hope your pardon for this trouble, even if my communication should appear unimportant.

The Courts were opened for this County on the 23d of December last; the gathering of people was pretty numerous, and I was not alone in fearing that we should have had frequent proofs of that turbulence of spirit with which they have been so generally, and perhaps too justly stigmatized, but I now take great satisfaction in doing them the justice to say that they behaved to a man with good order and decency; our grand jury was really respectable, equal at least to many I have seen in Courts of long standing. Little business was done, other than dividing the County into Townships, a Return of which is under cover.* And here I must beg the indulgence of your Excellency and Council, if, from the novelty of the business and the want of a precedent, I have been deficient in form.

The instructions of Council respecting the opposition to assessment in Manallin Township, I laid before the Justices as directed, but they have not yet come to any resolution thereon; some of them I find, are of opinion that the reviving it at this distant time might be attended with more vexatious consequences than the suffering it to be forgotten will probably produce. For this reason, and in consideration of their since peaceable demeanor, I should incline to agree with them that for the present, until the authority of the Court becomes by degrees and habitude of obedience, more firmly established in the general acquiescence of all descriptions of people within the County, and a Goal and other objects of popular terror be erected to impress on their minds an idea of the punishment annexed to a breach of the laws, lenient measures might produce as good effects as the most rigorous ones that justice could adopt, were not the wisdom and directions of Council opposed to this opinion. To these reasons for declining the prosecution of the offenders, if their identity could be made appear, which I think very doubtful, might be added others that I am distressed to be obliged to take notice of; the Tax not having been assessed till after the division of the County, the authority of the Commissioners of Westmoreland then became justly questionable, and the total want of Commissioners in this County to levy a Tax of any kind, either for the State, or to answer the exigencies of the County, and the consequent inability of the Trustees to perform the duties assigned them by the Legislature, may all be subjects of consideration in this case. For, from an unhappy misconception of the law for dividing Westmoreland, this County has not an Officer of any kind, except such as were created or continued by the Act, or appointed by Council. Denied a separate election of a member in Council and representative in Assembly till the general election of the present year, they unfortunately concluded that this inability extended to all the other elective officers of the County, and in consequence of this belief, voted for them in conjunction with Westmoreland. The remedy of this evil I fear is not easily pointed out; but if there be a possible one it is to be found in the wisdom of Council, to which I beg leave, as I shall in all other difficulties, to make my humble appeal.

The Trustees have appointed next Monday to meet on, and begin the partition line between this County and Westmoreland, on this condition, which Colonel Maclean, who is to be executive person, has generously agreed to—to pay the expence at some future time when it shall be in their power to call upon the County Commissioners for the money. And necessity has suggested to us the expedient of building a temporary Goal by subscription, which is now on foot.

Not knowing the necessity of an application to Council for Tavern Licences before I left the City, I am now obliged to trouble them with a request that they will favor me with some by the first convenient opportunity.

Suffer me now, worthy Sir, to step for a moment from the line of my duty. The honor which Council have heretofore done me by questioning me on the subject of Indian Affairs, will, I hope, acquit me of the charge of presumption, if, from an opinion of their confidence in my information, I venture to intermeddle without their commands, and give them such information as have come to my knowledge from the accounts of others since I left the Canadian Country.

Early in the fall, Sir John Johnson assembled the different western tribes at Sandusky, and having prepared them with presents, distributed with lavish profusion, addressed them in a Speech to this purport:

That the King, his and their common father, had made peace with the Americans, and had given them the country they possessed on this continent; but that the report of his having given them any part of the Indians' lands was false, and fabricated by the Americans for the purpose of provoking the Indians against their father,—that they should therefore shut their ears against it. So far the contrary was true, that the great river Ohio was to be the line between the Indians in this quarter and the Americans; over which the latter ought not to pass and return in safety. That, however, as the war between Britain and America was now at an end, and as the Indians had engaged in it from their attachment to the crown, and not from any quarrel of their own, he would, as was usual at the end of a war, take the Tomahawk out of their hand; though he would not remove it out of sight or far from them, but lay it down carefully by their side, that they might have it convenient to use in defence of their rights and property if they were invaded or molested by the Americans.

I shall not presume to trouble your Excellency with any remarks on the probable tendency of an intimation so manifestly correspondent with the sentiments, wishes and interest of these savage tribes, already alarmed with the frequent attempts which have been made to encroach upon them; but beg leave to have the honor of declaring, that I am, with all imaginable respect, your Excellency's

very humble and

most obedient Servant,

EPHRAIM DOUGLASS.

His Excellency, John Dickinson, Esquire.

February 6th, in continuance.

Want of an earlier conveyance, gives me the opportunity of enclosing to Council the return of an election held here this day for Justices of the peace for this town and township; and I trust the importance of the choice of officers to the county will excuse me to that honorable body for offering my remarks on this occasion.

Colonel Maclean, though not the first on the return, needs no character from me,—he has the honor to be known to Council. James Finley is a man of a good understanding, good character, and well situate to accommodate that part of the township most remote from the town. Henry Boeson is the proprietor of the town; a man of much modesty, good sense and great benevolence of heart, and one whose liberality of property for public uses justly entitles him to particular attention from the county, however far it may be a consideration with Council. Jonathan Rowland is also a good man, with a good share of understanding, and a better English education than either of the two last mentioned; but unfortunately of a profession rather too much opposed to the suppression of vice and immorality; he keeps a tavern in the town. John Gaddis is a man whom I do not personally know; one who has at a former election in the then township of Manallin, been returned to Council, but never commissioned, from what reason I know not; his popularity is with those who have been most conspicuous for their opposition to the laws of this Commonwealth. Moses Sutton is remarkable for nothing but aspiring obscurity, and great facility at chanting a psalm or stammering a prayer.

Duty thus far directs me to give Council an impartial description of the men who are to be the future officers of this County, but both duty and respect forbid my saying more, or presuming to express a wish of my own; for I have no predilection for one, or personal prejudice against either of them.

I have the honor to be, most respectfully,

your Excellency's,

very humble and

most obedient servant,

EPHRAIM DOUGLASS.

PROCEEDINGS OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY—WYOMING, 1784.*

8 Dec., 1783.

A petition and remonstrance from divers inhabitants of Wyoming was read, complaining of certain illegal proceedings had against them by Alexander Patterson, Esquire, and others.

Ordered to lie on the table.

9th Dec., '83.

The petition of divers inhabitants of Wyoming, read yesterday, was read the second time; whereupon

This Com. report on the 19th March.

Resolved, That the members of the county of Northampton, or a majority of them, be a committee to enquire into the charges contained in a petition from a number of the inhabitants of Wyoming, in the county of Northumberland, and report to this House at their next meeting, and that the said petition, and other papers accompanying it, be put into their hands.

March 31st, 1784.

The report of the committee, read March 19, on the petition of divers inhabitants of Wyoming, was read the second time as follows, viz.

The committee to whom was referred the report of the committee on the charges contained in the petition from divers inhabitants of Wyoming, the letter from Alexander Patterson, Esquire, and two petitions from the inhabitants of Wyoming, beg leave to report—

That after examining the different depositions accompanying the report of the committee on the charges contained in the petition from the inhabitants of Wyoming, they do not find that the same contain any matter of complaint, but such as, if true, the laws of this State are fully sufficient to redress, and that therefore an application to this House was unnecessary and improper, a greater part of the irregularities alledged against Alexander Patterson, Esquire, appear to have been done by people in his name, but no order or warrant appears to have been given by him for any such acts.

* See pages 551-2, 574, 5.

31st March, 1784.

Your committee therefore offer the following resolution to the House :

Resolved, That the petition from divers inhabitants of Wyoming, presented to this House on the 8th day of December last, be dismissed, and that the parties be referred to common law for redress of any injuries they may have sustained.

It was about this point of time y<sup>t</sup> Council were informed of the overflowing of the Susquehannah, by w<sup>h</sup> the Connecticut Claimants suffered much—what their (Council's) disposition was will appear by the following message.

A Message from the President and the Supreme Executive Council to the General Assembly.

Gentlemen,

The late inundation having reduced many of the inhabitants at Wyoming to great distress, we should be glad if your honorable House would be pleased to make some immediate provision for their relief.

JOHN DICKINSON.

Council Chamber, Philadelphia, March 31, 1784.

Ordered to lie on the table.

21 Jan'y, p. 84.

A petition from Samuel Shepherd, and others, inhabitants of Wyoming, was read, stating their distressed situation, and praying that a tract of land may be allotted them on reasonable terms in any of the unappropriated territory of this State, in lieu of that which hath been adjudged to belong to the State of Pennsylvania by the decree of the Court lately holden at Trenton.

28 Jan'y, page 94.

The petition of divers inhabitants of Wyoming, read January 21, was read the second time.

Ordered, That it be referred to Mr. Rush, Mr. M'Glean, Mr. Watts, Mr. R. Brown and Mr. Maclay, to report thereon.

29 Jan'y, p. 103.

The committee appointed January 28, on the petition of divers inhabitants of Wyoming, made report, which was read for the first time, and

Ordered to lie on the table.*

* See the action in reference to this, on page 551.

29th Jan'y, 1784.

The committee, to whom the messages of the 19th and 21st instant were referred, made report in part, which was read, and on motion, and by special order, the same was read the second time, debated by paragraphs, and in part adopted, as follows, viz.

1st. That it appears the government of our sister State of Connecticut have not duly informed themselves of the resolutions and acts of this commonwealth respecting the settlers at Wyoming; whereupon

Resolved, That it be recommended to the President or Vice-President in Council, to furnish the Governor and Assembly of the State of Connecticut with the proceedings of the Council and Assembly of this commonwealth respecting the settlers at Wyoming, since the judgment at Trenton.

2d. On the petition, remonstrance and address of Zebulon Butler, and others, to the Honorable the Congress of the United States, assembled and sitting at Princeton, in the State of New Jersey, dated November 11, 1783, your committee would observe, that it contains representations different from what appears on the files of this House from some of the subscribers, and other matters, neither founded in fact, supported by justice, or by the spirit of the confederation, on which your committee offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the absolute right of pre-emption of the soil and lands at Wyoming, claimed by Zebulon Butler, and others, as well as the right of jurisdiction, is vested in this commonwealth, and that a committee be appointed to draft instructions to our Delegates in Congress on those heads, setting forth also, in the said instructions, the humane proceedings and conduct of the State in protecting, and resolving to grant lands to the actual settlers on the lands aforesaid, at the time judgment was given respecting the claims of Connecticut.

Ordered, That Mr. Parr, Mr. Woods and Mr. Maclay, be a committee, for the purposes contained in the foregoing resolution.

RESOLUTIONS OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY, 1784.

The further report of the committee appointed on the messages of January 19 and 22 last, was in part read the second time; whereupon,

Resolved, 1st, That the Delegates of this State be instructed to apply immediately to Congress for an explanation of their act of the 23d of last month, it appearing to be uncertain, whether the fourth Monday in June next is fixed for the purpose of appointing Commissioners, or Judges, to constitute a court for hearing and determining the matter in question, or for the purpose of deciding how far the same is, by the ninth article of the confederation, submitted to the determination of such court.

2d. That if Congress, by the said act, meant the appointment of Commissioners, or Judges, next June, then the said Delegates move for a reconsideration of the said act, and represent to Congress, that the Agents for the State of Connecticut did, upon the late trial at Trenton, suggest to the court there, that "the tenants in possession of the lands in controversy, and particularly the companies of Delaware and Susquehanna, were improving and holding large tracts of land, under title from the State of Connecticut;" and that by the said article of confederation, a court is to be established for the trial of the private right of soil only, where it is claimed under different grants of two or more States, or so that Zebulon Butler and the other claimants cannot be entitled to such a court, unless they come within the description aforesaid, which it is apprehended they do not; that if Congress should consent to establish courts at the instance of persons not first proving themselves to be included in the description aforesaid, the citizens of this State may be harrassed by a multitude of pretended claims, at the suit of adventurers or invaders of the State, and in the present instance at the suit of persons, who have settled in defiance of the resolution of Congress of the 23d December, 1775.

3d. That if Congress shall resolve that the matter in question is by the said article of the confederation submitted to the determination of such a court, then the said Delegates insist that Zebulon Butler, and the other claimants, be required immediately to exhibit to Congress, schedules, particularising their claims.

And in debating the following paragraph, viz.

4th. That two Agents be appointed by the Supreme Executive Council, for managing, under their direction, the controversy concerning claims of private right of soil in the territory heretofore in dispute between this State and Connecticut, the jurisdiction and pre-emption of which the Court of Commissioners at Trenton, on the 30th day of December, 1782, did judge of right to belong to this state,—

RESOLUTION OF THE 19TH CONGRESS, 1784.

By the United States in Congress Assembled,

March 19th, 1784:

On the report of a Committee to whom were referred the fourth and fifth of the instructions of the 15th of October, 1783, to the Commissioners for negotiating with the Indians, Resolved, That the said fourth and fifth articles of the instructions of the 15th of October, 1783, to the Commissioners for negotiating with the Indians be and they are hereby repealed, and in lieu thereof the following be substituted.

4thly, That a Meridian line passing through the lowest point of

RESOLUTION OF CONGRESS, 1784.

By the United States in Congress assembled.

March 23, 1784.

: On the report of the committee of qualifications, consisting of Mr. Sherman, Mr. Jefferson, Mr. Beatty, Mr. Chase and Mr. Williamson,—

Whereas by the fifth of the articles of confederation and perpetual union of the United States, it is agreed, "That for the more convenient management of the general interest of the United States, delegates shall be annually appointed in such manner as the legislature of each state shall direct, to meet in Congress on the first Monday in November, in every year, with a power reserved to each state, to recal its delegates, or any of them, at any time within the year, and to send others in their stead, for the remainder of the year."

Resolved, That the several states be requested annually to appoint their delegates to serve in Congress for one year, to commence on the first Monday in November next ensuing the time of their appointment; and when vacancies shall happen, by the removal or resignation of any of the said delegates within the year, such states be requested to appoint others in their stead, to serve only for the remainder of the year; and to furnish their delegates so appointed with commissions, or other credentials, under the seal of the state, particularly specifying the time for which they are appointed.

OHA. THOMSON, Sec'y.

GRIFFITH OWEN TO COUNCIL—STATE HOUSE CLOCK, 1784.

Gentlemen,

Mr. Trimble inform'd me that you had concluded that my employment should cease in taking care of the Clock, the reasons were that she had stopt sundry times & had not kept the true time—the reasons why she stopt I shall point out—the first time she was stopt two days while I was cleaning of her, the second time the frost broke the arbour that swings the hammer, the third time was occasion'd by the breaking of the old lines & the new ones being considerably thicker took me some time in freeing them. The severity of the weather I believe stopt her once & it was the occasion of her going irregular the sudden changes of the weather is all the way that it can be accounted for, those accidents happening in the most severe part, & I being obliged to work in the Clock room delay'd me longer than I should have been had it been otherwise; the Clock is now in good order & keeps good time, & is I think effectually guarded against the like accidents for the future. If you will be pleased to continue me to take care of her & she should not perform to yours and the publicks satisfaction I will give up my charge at any time without demanding any thing for my future trouble.

With the most perfect respect

I remain Gentlemen your most humble Servent,

GRIFFITH OWEN*.

DELEGATES IN CONGRESS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Annapolis, 2d April, 1784.

Sir,

There being no doubt that Congress by their resolution of the 23d of January last meant that Commissioners or Judges should be appointed in June next, to hear and determine the claim of the Connecticut Settlers at Wyoming to the private right of Soil; it only remains for us to move for a re-consideration of that act; in compliance with the resolutions of the Honorable the General Assembly of the 14th of February last.† In order that at the same time we do this we may be able to shew in the clearest light, the humane and generous intentions of that Honorable Body towards those People. We request your Excellency may be pleased to trans-

Inclosed we have the honor to transmit a copy of alterations made in the instructions of Congress to the Commissioners for negotiating with the Indians.

We think it necessary to make your Excell'y acquainted that Mr. Montgomery has this day left us, so that should sickness or accident prevent either of us from attending in Congress the State would be unrepresented.

EPHRAIM DOUGLASS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Hannastown, 10th April, 1784.

Sir,

By Mr. Wood one of the Gentlemen attornies who attend our back courts and who is going immediately to Carlisle, I do myself the honor to enclose to Council the Return of an election held for Justices of the Peace in the Township of Lamerne, and have obtained his promise to forward it to your Excellency by the first safe conveyance.

From the Return of the Townships and Justices of the Peace I had the honor to make to Council in February last they will perceive that several of the Townships are destitute at present of such officer, and from the knowledge Council have of the duties of the Commissions of the few we have, I think it unnecessary to suggest the reasons for Commissioning the new elected ones before June Court to enable us to hold our Sessions and Orphans court.

As I have nothing of material consequence to communicate, I shall only beg the further indulgence of your Excellency and Council for adding that I have the honor to rest most respectfully, your very humble,

 and devoted Servant,

RESOLUTIONS OF CONGRESS, 1784.

By the United States in Congress assembled,
 April 26, 1784.

A Motion was made by Mr. Howell, seconded by Mr. Gerry,
 That the President be and he hereby is authorized and directed to adjourn Congress on the third day of June next, to meet on the thirtieth of October next at Trenton, for the dispatch of public business, and that a Committee of the States shall be appointed to sit in the recess of Congress.

A Motion was made by Mr. McHenry, seconded by Mr. Spaight, to postpone the consideration of the foregoing motion in order to take into consideration the report of a Committee consisting of Mr.
 Jefferson, Mr. Osgood, and Mr. Sherman, to whom was referred a report on the powers with which a Committee of the States should be vested during the recess of Congress, and a motion on the same subject, which report is as follows:

That the Committee of the States which shall be appointed pursuant to the 9th Article of Confederation and perpetual union, to sit in the recess of Congress for transacting the business of the United States, shall possess all the powers which may be exercised by seven States in Congress assembled, except those of sending ambassadors, ministers, envoys, residents or consuls—establishing rules for deciding what captures by land or water shall be legal, and in what manner prizes taken by land or naval forces in the service of the United States shall be divided or appropriated—establishing courts for the receiving and determining finally appeals in all cases of capture; constituting Courts for deciding disputes and differences arising between two or more States; fixing the standard of weights and measures for the United States; changing the rate of postage on the papers passing through the post offices established by Congress, and of repealing or contravening any Ordinance passed by Congress.

That nine members shall be requisite to proceed to business.

That no question except for adjourning from day to day shall be determined without the concurrence of seven votes.

That the President of Congress, if a member of the said Com mittee, and if not a member, or if absent at any time, then a chairman to be chosen by themselves shall preside, the President or Chairman retaining a right to vote.

That the Secretary and other officers of Congress shall attend on the said Committee.

That they shall keep an accurate journal of their proceedings to be laid before Congress, and that in these Journals shall be entered the yeas and nays of the members when any one of them shall have desired it before the question be put.

On the question to postpone for the purpose above-mentioned, the yeas and nays being required by Mr. McHenry—

New Hampshire,.....	Mr. Foster, no. Mr. Blanchard, no.—no.
Massachussetts,.....	Mr. Gerry, no. Mr. Partridge, no.—no.
Rhode Island,.....	Mr. Ellery, no. Mr. Howell, no.—no.
Connecticut,.....	Mr. Sherman, no. Mr. Wadsworth, no.—no.
New York,.....	Mr. De Witt, no. Mr. Paine, no.—no.
New Jersey,.....	Mr. Beatty, no. Mr. Dick, no.—no.
Pennsylvania,.....	Mr. Mifflin, no. Mr. Montgomery, no. Mr. Hand, no.—no.
Maryland,.....	Mr. McHenry, ay. Mr. Stone, ay. Mr. Chase, ay.—ay.

North Carolina,.....	Mr. Williamson, ay. Mr. Spaight, ay.—ay.
South Carolina,.....	Mr. Read, Mr. Beresford, ay.—ay.

So it passed in the negative.

A Motion was then made by Mr. Williamson, seconded by Mr. McHenry, to amend the motion of Mr. Howell, by adding thereto, "provided a Committee of the States shall first have been appointed to sit in the recess of Congress, and the powers defined with which the said Committee shall be vested according to the 10th of the Articles of Confederation."

And on the question to agree to this amendment, the yeas and nays being required by Mr. Williamson,—

New Hampshire,	Mr. Foster, no. Mr. Blanchard, no.—no.
Massachusetts,	Mr. Gerry, no. Mr. Partridge, no.—no.
Rhode Island,	Mr. Ellery, no. Mr. Howell, no.—no.
Connecticut,	Mr. Sherman, no. Mr. Wadsworth, no.—no.
New York,	Mr. De Witt, no. Mr. Paine, no.—no.
New Jersey,	Mr. Beatty, no. Mr. Dick, no.—no.
Pennsylvania,	Mr. Mifflin, no. Mr. Montgomery, no. Mr. Hand, no.—no.

North Carolina,	Mr. Williamson, ay. Mr. Spaight, ay.—ay.
South Carolina,	Mr. Read, ay. Mr. Beresford, ay.—ay.

So it passed in the negative.

A Motion was then made by Mr. McHenry, seconded by Mr. Mercer, to postpone the further consideration of the motion under debate, in order to take up the following:—

That as soon as a proper place shall be reported by the Committee appointed to review & report a proper place for a federal town at or near George-town on the Patowmack, and the soil and jurisdiction obtained as well for the town on Patowmack as that on Delaware, Congress will forthwith proceed to erect such public buildings as may be necessary for their sessions at the expence of the United States out of the common treasury thereof. That the foundations of the said buildings shall be laid at the same time, and no sum of money appropriated for the one unless an equal sum be appropriated for the other.

And on the question to postpone for the purpose above-mentioned, the yeas and nays being required by Mr. McHenry,—

New Hampshire,	Mr. Foster, no. Mr. Blanchard, no.—no
----------------	--

Massachusetts,	Mr. Gerry, no. Mr. Partridge, no.—no.
Rhode Island,	Mr. Ellery, no. Mr. Howell, no.—no.
Connecticut,	Mr. Sherman, no. Mr. Wadsworth, no.—no.
New York,	Mr. De Witt, no. Mr. Paine, no.—no.
New Jersey,	Mr. Beatty, no. Mr. Dick, no.—no.
Pennsylvania,	Mr. Miffin, no. Mr. Montgomery, no. Mr. Hand, no.—no.
Maryland,	Mr McHenry, ay. Mr. Stone, ay. Mr. Chase, ay.—ay.

North Carolina,	Mr. Williamson, no. Mr. Spaight, no.—no.
South Carolina,	Mr. Read, ay. Mr. Beresford, no.—d'd.

So it passed in the negative.

A Motion was then made by Mr. Hardy, seconded by Mr. Read, to postpone the consideration of the motion under debate in order to take up the following:

Whereas the resolution of the 20th of October last, provides that Congress shall reside at Trenton and Annapolis alternately at equal periods of not less than six months or more than twelve, until the buildings on the banks of Patowmack and Delaware be ready for their reception. And whereas the Delegates from Rhode Island pursuant to instructions from that State, have moved a resolution that Congress adjourn to Newport in the State of Rhode Island, from which it is evidently the sense of that State that the resolution for two federal towns should not be carried into effect. And whereas it appears to be the sense of a Majority of the States in Congress assembled by a motion from the State of Connecticut forbidding the Committee appointed to view the ground at or near Georgetown to proceed in that business until the further order of Congress, and by a motion for allowing the States of Maryland and Virginia to advance pounds for the purpose of erecting public buildings at or near Georgetown, & for giving them credit for the same in the requisition for year, which last being negatived amounts to a virtual repeal of the aforesaid Act, and as it will be expedient to fix on a situation the most 'central to all parts of the Union for holding the sessions of Congress. Resolved, That Congress hold their sessions in Annapolis in the State of Maryland until they decide on some place for their permanent residence, and the necessary buildings be erected for their accomodation.

On this motion, the previous question was moved by the State of Pennsylvania, seconded by the State of Rhode Island; and on the question to agree to the previous question, the yeas and nays being required by Mr. Hardy—

New Hampshire,	Mr. Foster,	ay	} ay
	Mr. Blanchard,	ay
Massachusetts,	Mr. Gerry,	ay	} ay
	Mr. Partridge,	ay
Rhode Island,	Mr. Ellery,	ay	} ay

North Carolina,	Mr. Williamson,	no	} d'd
	Mr. Spaight,	ay
South Carolina,	Mr. Bead,	no	} d'd
	Mr. Berresford,	ay

So it was Resolved, in the affirmative, and the motion was set aside.

On the question to agree to the original motion, the yeas and nays being required by Mr. Stone—

New Hampshire,	Mr. Foster,	ay	} ay
	Mr. Blanchard,	ay

So it was

Resolved, That the President be and he hereby is, authorized and directed to adjourn Congress on the third day of June next, to meet on the thirtieth day of October next, at Trenton, for the dispatch of public business, and that a Committee of the States shall be appointed to sit in the recess of Congress.

WARDENS OF PHILADELPHIA TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Wardens office, 26th April, 1784.

Sir,

The Board of Wardens beg leave to communicate to your Excellency for the Information of yourself and the honorable supreme Executive Council that upon enquiry they find there is no money in the State Treasury subject to their disposal, and that the whole amount of the Tonnage duty since the appointment of the present officer does not exceed one hundred and fifty pounds a sum very inadequate to the objects committed to their care.

The principal objects that require immediate attention are as follows, vizt, 1st, Finishing the repairs of the light House.

2nd, providing an additional number of Buoys together with their moorings and having them placed in proper places both in the Bay and River.

3rd, providing Beacons and having them placed on the most dangerous Shoals in the Bay and on Cape May.

4th, Repairing the Piers at Reedy and Mud Islands.

5th, Purchasing a vessel for the purpose of carrying oyl and Materials to the Light House, Ballast for filling, & Logs, &c., for the repairs of the Piers, taking down Buoys, &c., and for other uses of the wardens in surveying and examining into the State & Condition of the navigation.

These services being of great importance to the Trade, the wardens trust that your Excellency and the Honorable Council will readily see the necessity of strengthening their hands by granting them a supply of money from the sum reserved for these purposes by the Legislature out of the monies raised by the late Impost Laws and subject to your disposal in order that they may be enabled to execute them in the most expeditious, effectual & frugal manner Possible.

ALEXANDER PATTERSON TO PRES. DICKINSON—WYOMING, 1784.

Sir,

When any Part of the state in which your Excellency reside becomes Imbarressed and Involved in Difficulty, I conceive it the duty of a good Citizen to give the earliest Information to Government from what source such troubles flow; from this principle I beg leave to state a few facts relative to the situation and Police of this Country as it now stands.

The settlements upon the River have suffered much by an Inundation of Ice, which has swept away Greatest part of the grain and stock of all kinds, so that the Inhabitants are Generally very poor.

Upon my arrival at this Place the fiftenth Inst. I found the People for the most part Disposed to give up their Pretentions to the Lands Claimed under Connecticut. Having a Pretty General Agency from the Land holders of Pennsylvania, I have availed myself of this Period, and have Possessed in behalf of my Constituents the Chief part of all the Lands occupied by the above Claimants, Numbers of them are going up the River to settle, in this I give every Incouragement in my power, and Take care to fill up their Vacaney with well Disposed Pennsylvanians, I think it is right to Dispose of the others in such a manner as will be most Conducive to the Peace of the state, by granting them Leases and settling them remote from each other, yet notwithstanding this situation of affairs, I am not out of apprehension of Trouble and Danger arising from the ring-leaders of the old offenders who still stand out and are countenanced and Incouraged by their friends, down the River. They are waiting untill the troops are discharged when they expect to have recourse to their former factious practices; in the mean time there is no doubt but that they will Endeavour to spread every Vileanous report that Malice can Suggest, to Endeavour to prepossess the minds of the Publick against our Proceedings; experience has taught us that they are but too apt to succeed in those cases, but I hope their Base designs will appear so Conspicuous to all public Body's and the People in General, that they will no longer become Dupes to their Artifice.

My Coadjutors with myself have no new Claim to a Citizenship in this state, I therefore Humbly hope (that if any Dangerous or Sedicious Commotion should arise in this Country so Remote from the seat of Government) that it may not be Construed a Want of Zeal or Love for the Commonwealth, if we should through dire Necessity be obliged to do some things not strictly consonant with the Letter of the Law, I call Heaven to witness that nothing shall Induce me to do one single Act but what I conceive will tend to the good of the state, and the Happiness of its faithful Citizens, and it shall be my study to have all my actions to harmonize with its Peace and safety, as to Merit the aprobation of Government. if the Troops were to be settled with and Discharged here it would answer a Valuable Purpose, as a good many of them would incline to stay at this place.

I have the Honour to Subscribe myself,
Your Excellency's most Obedient &
Verry Humble Servant.

Annapolis, 30th April, 1784.

Sir,

We have received your Excell<sup>y</sup> letter of the 14th Inst., covering sundry resolutions of the Honorable the Gen'l Assembly relative to the Wyoming Settlers, which have been laid before Congress, at the same time we, in compliance with the Instructions of the Honble the Gen'l Assembly, moved for, & obtained a reconsideration of the resolution of Congress of the 23d Jan'y last,* directing the institution of a court to determine the private right of soil within the Territory formerly in dispute between the states of Pennsylv<sup>a</sup> & Connecticut, the Committee to whom our motions were referred have not yet reported.

The Inclosed proceedings will make your Excell<sup>y</sup> & Council acquainted with the determinations of Congress, on an adjournment,† a temporary form of Government, for the Western Territory, and requisitions on the States, we think it proper to inform Council that Capt<sup>r</sup> Carbury,‡ who was Supposed, & confessed himself to be a principal instigator of the late tumultuous behaviour of a part of the Pennsylvania line, has been within these few days apprehended by the desire of Congress, he is now in the hands of the Civil Authorities of this State, subject to be delivered to that of Pennsylvania if demanded.

April 28th, 1784.

The Committee to whom it was referred to take order upon the report of a Committee of the 28d day of April, instant, on the motion of Mr. Read of the 16th day of March last.

Report, That in virtue of the said order of the United States in Congress assembled, your Committee took measures, and have caused Henry Carberry, late a Captain in the Pennsylvania Line of Continental Troops in the said report mentioned, to be arrested and brought before the honorable Robert Goldsborough, one of the Judges of the General Court of the State of Maryland, for examination and to be proceeded against according to law and justice. Your Committee have caused to be laid before the said Judge, all such proofs and evidences of the nature and circumstances of the crime charged against the said Henry Carberry as were on the files or in the possession of Congress, and your committee informed the said Judge, that it was the sense of the United States in Congress Assembled, that the said Henry Carberry, who is a fugitive from justice ought to be tried according to the Laws of Pennsylvania, in which State the offence charged against him was committed, and to the Laws of which State he is amenable. Your Committee recommend that the Executive of the State of Maryland be requested to take proper measures for the delivery of the body of the said Henry Garbery to the Executive of the State of Pennsylvania, or their order that he may be dealt with according to Law.

Resolved, That Congress agree to the said Report.

Berks County, ss.

The 28th day of June, 1788, before me Daniel Levan, Esq'r, Prothonotary of the County of Berks', in the State of Pennsylvania, came Benjamin Spyker, junior, and being sworn, saith, that about ten o'clock in the forenoon this day, Mr. Nicholas Brosius called upon him, this deponent to walk across the street to the house of the said Brosius, and he would hear some thing; that the deponent went accordingly, and found a certain Serjeant Nagle at the porch of the said Brosius, who amongst many other reproaches against the States, for intending to defraud the soldiery, also made the following expressions, that he had received four letters when at Lancaster, which were not signed by any, but requesting the soldiers to come to Philad'a if they wanted a settlement, which letters he believed, or was sure, were wrote by officers, that one hundred and twenty odd Men marched accordingly from Lancaster for the City; that they were deserted by some, and that one hundred privates, himself, and a Corporal came to the City; that a Lieutenant who also was crossed Schuylkill, the said Lieutenant came and met them, and begged they would unfix their Bayonets, and march into the City without beat of drum; that they obeyed untill they came to the City, that, then the said Nagle ordered the Lieutenant to quit the command, and that they knew for what they came, and that the said Nagle gave the command to fix Bayonets, and brace the Drums, and marched into the City, with fixed Bayonets and Musick, and that the soldiers from the Barracks came to meet them in the same manner, and that they were applauded by the Citizens, for looking after their just demands. That when they came to the Barracks they formed a Garrison having field pieces and ammunition of every kind, in plenty Grape and other shot; that, then the said Nagle with another Serjeant, were deputed to his Excellency the Governor, (meaning the President,) with an Instrument of writing by the Garrison agreed upon, and had orders, strict orders, not to return without having the same signed by His Excellency; that accordingly, the said Nagle and the other Serjeant waited on the President in the morning, who knew their names already, and ordered a bottle of wine to be brought for them; that they drank the Wine, and that His Excellency the President ordered another bottle of Wine to be brought for them, that then they, (meaning himself and the other serjeant,) told the Governor that they did not come to get groggy, but were come to obtain their just rights and desired him to sign the paper which they brought, and gave him an half an hours time, that after that time was expired, they gave him five minutes more, and that he said Nagle ordered the other Serjeant to go and fetch the Garrison, and that Nagle would guard the Governor; that His Excellency the President then desired that he might go up-stairs to sign the same, which, then the Sergeant refused, but would have it signed in their presence, and that His Excellency the President sent up-stairs for his ink and pen, and in a most trembling manner signed the same, (shewing with his hands how the President should have shook.) Upon being asked by the deponent the purport of the paper they made His Excellency sign, said Nagle answered it was an engagement that in three days he should give them a final answer how they meant to settle with the soldiery, and that the same made Congress fly that night to Princetown. And further that said Nagle said after they had formed a Circle in the Barrack yard, a certain wooden legged Morris, a Brother to the Honble Robert Morris, Esquire, came amongst them to make a speech, whom they soon turned off, (telling very opprobrious language that he made use of,) and that in the presence of His Excellency the President, the Honble the Major General Sinclair, was going to speak to him, the said Nagle, that he soon turned him off, telling him he had no business there with them, and said had he spoke any more, I should have told him something, and on being asked by this deponent, what would you have said to him, said Nagle answered, I would have told him, I never was fourteen months under arrest, for cowardice and misbehaviour, and that he said Nagle ordered off Colonel Humpton; also, that the Militia Light Horse were afraid to come nigh them, and that they went and tore down all advertisements or Proclamations against them from every Tavern and Corner having taken down an whole arm full.

PORT WARDENS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Wardens' Office, Philada., May 26th, 1784.

Gentlemen,

The Board of Wardens of the Port of Philada. beg leave to represent, that injuries frequently happen to the navigation of the Bay & River Delaware, by evil disposed people removing the Buoys placed for the direction and safety of Vessels, and by taking out for Ballast the Fillings of the Piers, whereby considerable expence is incurr'd, and the good intentions of the Legislature frustrated, which is not in the power of the Wardens to detect or prevent, otherwise, than by offering a reward for apprehending and convicting such offenders; and as the board apprehend they are not authorized to promise such public Reward, they take the liberty to recommend the premises to the consideration of your Excellency & the honorab! Council, being well persuaded that such a measure would have a salutary effect.*

EPHRAIM DOUGLASS TO SEN. ARMSTRONG, 1784.

Union Town, 29th May, 1784.

Sir,

In obedience to the instructions of the 30th of April, from your office, I now transmit you a list of the several townships or districts for chusing Justices of the Peace for this County.

* See Col. Rec. Vol. XIV., p. 122.

By the accession of Jacob's-creek to this County, there are two townships added to the return I had the honor to transmit to Council on the 2d February last,* and as I therein discriminated those townships which had, from those which had not, Justices of the Peace, I will only now further remark that both of these additional townships are destitute of such officer.

I should sooner have announced to Council the names of these townships, but that before they were annexed to this county they made but one district, which was divided at our last sessions; and this division being disagreeable to some of the principal inhabitants, (though the district was said to be near fifty miles in length) I expected that at our next sessions the Justices might probably reconsider the matter, wherefore I thought it might be best to postpone the return so long; but as all the townships which existed previous to the late law for electing Justices of the Peace are established districts for that purpose, I conceive it will not now be in the power of the Justices to gratify those who complained of this division.

There is so seldom a direct conveyance of a letter from this place to Philadelphia, that I expect every communication I can make will be anticipated by some other person having more frequent opportunities; but lest my silence might be attributed to inattention, I will give you a sketch of the affairs of this Country, and leave you to judge of the propriety of laying it before the Honorable the Council.

The County Commissioners are so much counteracted by the rabble of this country, that it appears hardly probable the Taxes will ever be collected on the present mode. In the township of Manalhan in particular, which includes this place agreeable to its limits in the Duplicate, the terror of undertaking the duty of Collector, has determined several to refuse it under the high penalty annexed. Two only have accepted it, and these have both been robbed by some ruffians unknown, and in the night, of their Duplicates. The inhabitants of the other townships have not gone such lengths, but complain so much of the hardship and the want of money that I fear very little is to be hoped from them.

On the other hand, the banditti from Bucks-county, or some others equally bad, or, more probably both, have established themselves in some part of this country not certainly known, but thought to be in the deserted part of Washington county, whence they make frequent incursions into the settlements under cover of the night, terrify the inhabitants, sometimes beat them unmercifully, and always rob them of such of their property as they think proper, and then retire to their lurking places. What seems to confirm the belief of its being the Doanes or their companions, is drawn from the circumstances attending the detection and confinement of one of the gang in Washington county some time ago. After this wretch had been rescued from the Sheriff's guard there, he, with other of his companions came to the house of the person who was the principal in taking him, robbed him of his horse and other property, and cautioned him against meddling with any of them thereafter; and this also, added to the frequency of their robberies in that county, favours the belief of their residence there. This county, however, and even this town has suffered by them, though they came in the character of thieves, and not of robbers here. And yet nothing has been attempted hitherto to punish or bring them to justice; partly, perhaps because there are not yet a sufficient number provoked by their losses, but principally from the improbability of succeeding in the attempt. For, though they cannot be pointed out with certainty or prosecuted with success, there must be too many in this country who give them support and assistance, and who would readily notify them of any preparation making against them; and from the representation of their number, which is said to have been twenty-eight at the forcing of the goal in Washington, nothing can be undertaken against them without such preparation as must make it very generally known. To these reasons, perhaps a third may be safely added which will have its weight with many, especially those who consider themselves most exposed—the fear of drawing upon themselves and their families the resentment of these justly dreaded ruffians.

With great respect, I am, Sir,

Your very humble and

Obedient servant,

EPHRAIM DOUGLASS.

COMMISSIONERS OF WASHINGTON Co. TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Washington County, June 28th, 1784.

Sir,

This County as well as that of Fayette has for some time past been greatly Infested by a troop of Robbers from the lower parts of the state, namely Doanes and others who by frequent Burglaries and Robberies under the Countenance and protection of Divers Evil disposed persons amongst ourselves, have reduced us to the necessity of calling out parties of Militia and making general search for the said Burglars and their accomplices; whereupon the said Burglars, with numbers of Horses, Negroes and other Valuable property of which they had Robbed the Inhabitants (in the most Daring and Insolent manner) set off for Detroit, our party pursued above one hundred miles from this place before they overtook them. However we have now got of the said party lodged in the Goal of this County, the following persons, viz. Abraham Doane, one who calls himself Thomas Richason and two women who profess themselves wives to some of the party, the remainder having escaped our most vigilant pursuit, altho' we have Recovered the greatest part of the property. We have also Divers others in Confinement and under Recognizance as accomplices, and Expect yet to make further Discoveries, but our Goal being Very Insufficient, and this same Abraham Doane having been Rescued from it once before by an armed party (of which you have had Information) we are obliged to keep a strong guard constantly over them, and not having seen a supplement to the act for apprehending those Villians (which we are Informed Exists) are at a loss what to Do with them, therefore prays the Direction of Council in the premises.

Wardens' Office, June 24th, 1784.

Sir,

For the satisfaction of your Excellency & the Honorable Supreme Executive Council, the Board of Wardens beg leave to refer to the inclosed State of their Expenditures, so far as they have disbursed on public service since their appointment, by which you will see, that nearly the whole of the sum you were pleased to grant them the 5th May last is already expended.

The Wardens flatter themselves that their disbursements will be found to be made with proper Oeconomy, and to answer the design of the Legislature in improving the navigation of the Bay & River Delaware; but they would beg leave farther to observe, that the service is not yet Performed, the above sum being expended Chiefly in preparation for the services meant to be done, which were specified in a rough estimate they had the Honor to lay before you, and that there are Bills not yet brought in, to a considerable amount, which must be paid immediately. To complete the business, they estimate the further sum of at least Fifteen hundred pounds will be immediately requisite which they Respectfully pray may be granted them as soon as may be.

EPHRAIM DOUGLASS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Union Town, 11th July, 1784.

Sir,

In obedience to the commands of your honorable Board of the 5th of June last I take this first opportunity of informing Council that there has yet been no sheriff for the County of Fayette separate from that of Westmoreland, the Sheriff of that County continuing to do the duty of that office in this as before the division and no bond has been taken for his performance of it in this county distinct from the other.

Taking it for certain Council have been informed of the capture of some of the robbers who have lately persued the same practices here for which they fled hither, I will not trouble them with the particulars of that transaction. Every thing in our power has been done to discover their connections in this quarter, without any certainty of having succeeded; several have been apprehended on suspicion and three from a greater concurrence of circumstances, have by the advice of the Attorney for the state, been recognized to the next court of oyer and terminer for the county. The others have been released without security.

I can make no other communications of importance enough to merit the attention of Council, unless what relates to the Taxes of this county, some small sums have been collected in some of the townships,—one of the collectors has been robbed of what he had gathered by the same banditti, it is thought, who committed the other robberies in this county,—some attempts have been made to raise the money by the sale of goods taken by the collectors for the taxes, but no one would bid for them. Thus the laws are eluded without being openly opposed.

With the utmost respect for every member of your honorable body, I have the honor to be your Excellency's

most humble and devoted servant,

WARDENS OF PHILADELPHIA TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Wardens' Office, Philadelphia, July 13th, 1784.

Sir,

The Wardens of the Port of Philadelphia beg leave to inform your Excellency and the Honorable Supreme Executive Council, that they have succeeded in placing a Beacon on the shoal called the Cross Ledge in the Bay of Delaware, and are happy in a firm belief that it will be found to be a very material improvement to the navigation.

The Wardens hope to be excused for the Liberty they find themselves under of again requesting the attention of Council to their application of the 22d June last,* for a supply of cash to enable them to continue their plan of improvement.

They also beg leave to inform Council that the Sloop Delaware is now in port and shall be ready to attend whenever Council may be pleased to signify their pleasure. If, however, Council should not have occasion for her before Ten or Twelve days, it will afford the Wardens an opportunity of employing her in carrying down a load of Ballast to the Beacon, and some oil for the Light House, which will soon be wanted.

The Wardens' accounts for the three past months being nearly prepared, will be laid before the Comptroler Gen'l immediately, by which their expenditures will be seen, and they have no doubt will be found to be made with proper oeconomy, and agreeable to the design of their appointment.

RESOLUTION OF CONGRESS, 1784.

By the Committee of the States.

July 27, 1784.

The Committee to whom was referred the report of a committee of Congress upon their order of the 17th of June 1783, "That a Committee be appointed to consider what farther measures may be necessary to compel persons who have received public monies to account" Report; That upon inspecting the Journals of Congress they find, that Congress did on the 27th February 1782 resolve, "That it be recommended to the several legislatures of these United States, to make provision by law for the speedy and effectual recovery from individuals, of debts due and effects belonging to the United States." That on searching the files in the office of the Secretary of Congress, your Committee do not find that any of the legislatures of the respective states have made the provision recommended to them to be made by the said resolution of Congress; and as it is the opinion of your Committee, that the interest of the United States hath already suffered greatly for want of such provision & doth require that it should be made by the several legislatures without loss of time; Therefore,

Resolved, That it be most earnestly recommended to such of the legislatures of these United States, as may not have yet complied with the said recommendation of Congress, to enact laws in compliance therewith, as soon as may be, and for empowering such person or persons as already are or hereafter shall be appointed by the United States in Congress Assembled for that purpose, in their name and in their behalf, to commence and to prosecute to final decree, judgement & execution any action or actions, bill, suit or plaint either in law or equity which may be proper and necessary not only for the recovery from individuals of debts due and effects belonging to the United States; but to recover, secure or maintain any rights, properties or interests to the said United States appertaining or for any injury or damages whatsoever which they have sustained or may sustain therein. And that it be further recommended to the legislatures of the several states to frame any act or acts which they may pass in pursuance of the foregoing recommendation in such manner as may produce a speedy & effectual decision of all such bills, actions, suits or plaints as may be commenced, sued or prosecuted for the purposes aforesaid.

PRES. DICKINSON TO MESSRS. BOYD AND ARMSTRONG, 1784.

In Council, July 29th, 1784.

Gentlemen,

You are so well acquainted with the intentions of Council in appointing you Commissioners, that it is unnecessary to say much to you upon the subject. You will use the utmost diligence to fur ward the embodying and equipping of the Militia, so that they may march with all possible expedition. We doubt not, but you will effectually guard, that in their movements the Troops are not exposed to any surprisal; and that the Militia of the Counties of Northampton and Northumberland may support each other. You will act in such manner as to convince the Insurgents that while we are determined to have Justice rendered to all persons without distinction, we are also resolved to preserve peace and good order within the Commonwealth.

If this end cannot be attained without employing force, you will give such orders as shall appear to you most advisable, for executing the laws of the State, and impressing a just Respect for them.*

HON. EDW'D HAND TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Annapolis, 30th July, 1784.

Sir,

I this morning in a hurry informed your Excellency that an exchange of The Ratification of the definitive treaty between the U. S. & G. Britain had taken place the 12th of May last at Paris—I should have said Passy, I beg pardon for the mistake,

& am with much respect your Excell'y most obed't

& very humble serv't,

OFFICERS OF PENNSYLVANIA LINE TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Sir,

Philadelphia, July 30th, 1784.

The officers of the line of this State have so repeatedly addressed the Council & Legislature, and have experienced so much attention to their remonstrances, and their distresses have been so often relieved, that it is with diffidence we again resume a subject which cannot but be troublesome to you, and we assure you it is painful to us.

We have reason to think it has been a prevailing opinion that the Troops of this State have received greater advances from the State than those of any other. The contrary will appear from the inclosed papers, to which we beg leave to refer you.

To the Virtue of the men in this State, in labouring to support the Confederation by their attention to Continental measures alone, * See their appointment as Commissioners, Vol. XIV., p. 168. The foregoing appear to be their instructions, but are not recorded.

do we attribute their quota of Troops being left so much in arrears. We are as deeply impressed as perhaps any set of men, with the propriety and necessity of still supporting the Federal Union, but we hope, now that the danger is at last removed to a greater distance than when the War existed, particular attention from the several States to the distresses of their own Citizens will not be attended with bad consequences. Sound policy as well as Justice points out the propriety of all public servants being treated impartially. We apprehend this cannot be done in the present situation of the affairs of the United States, in any other mode than by the several States adopting ways & means to bring their own Citizens on a level with their sister States, in money matters—on this head we shall only add that we consider the officers and soldiers of this State far behind the public Creditors of this or any other State.

The Act of Assembly for appropriating a Tract of land for the Troops, we conceive requires sundry amendments, which will doubtless occur to you if you will be pleased to turn to it.

We have every reason to believe your Excellency & Council are disposed to give your influence to reasonable & just measures, and shall not therefore trouble you with any further detail, nor presume to point out a mode, but request you will be pleased to take such steps as you shall judge most expedient.

We have the honor to be your Excellency's most obedient servants,

A<sup>r</sup> S<sup>r</sup> CLAIR,
ANT<sup>y</sup> WAYNE,
W<sup>m</sup> IRVINE,

No. 2. DEPOSITION OF PHILIP JENKINS, 1786.

Fayette County Ss.

The Examination of Philip Jenkins, Collector of Springhill Township, County afores'd, Taken upon Oath before me a justice of the peace in and for s<sup>c</sup> County the seventh Day of June, A. D. 1784, who saith that in the Night Between the 2d and 3d Day of this Instant Between 9 & 10 o'clock of the same, there suddenly Rush'd in at the Door of my Dwelling house three men each one having in one hand a Pistol in the other a Club, and as quick as the step'd on the floor Each one Cock'd his pistol (and all the family together was sitting before them and also some others that had come to accompany us sitting up with a sick Child then in the Cradle,) then they said, Every one sit still the first that moves is a Dead person, then turning their faces right to me said where is the man of the House with that they step'd towards me and said here is the Rascal and Deliver up your Duplicate and papers, with that gave me a stroke on the head and I said pray give me time and got up to go into the Room to get the papers and two of them followed me and I gave them the Duplicate and warrant, now said they Deliver your Cash, then said I my Cash or what I have Collected is so trifling it is not worth your while to Robb me, you Damn Rascal said they

Dont stand to prate, and with that did most violently Beat me with their Clubs on my head, then I pull'd out what I had in my Pocket and said Dont abuse me in such a manner there is the money, then they said give us more, I said I had none, with that the held their Cock'd Pistoles to my Breast and swore saying they would Blow me thro', while the Pistoles was at my Breast, I said, Gentlemen Do not I beg of you take all my money for if you want to stop the tax lifting your haveing the papers is sufficient and Do not be so Cruel, then they grew furious and again Beat me and said give us your pistol I said I own'd none upon which one of them said to the other, I seen him have one, then I said, it was none of mine and that it was Col. Gaddis's, upon which they said Gaddis was a Clever fellow he Deliver'd up like a man but I was a Damn'd Rascal, I Deny'd what I had and then made me show them the pistol, then they swore they would search all the House but they wou'd have all the money and accordingly one of them set about it with a Candle in one hand and his pistol and Club under his arm while the other two men kept guard and when this Searcher for the tax found the money it made him merry, see here, said he taking up a handful of Crowns what a heap and the Damn'd Rascal Deny'd it, thus he went on and searched Every place in the House till he found all the money both publick and Private that was in the house and then all three stood before me and Demanded of me if Ever I would have any more to Do with tax gathering, I said I Did not think I should, you Damn son of a bitch, says they, if you do go Collecting any more and Distressing for the tax you will be a Dead man and we will burn all you have, God Damn you, says they, we have great mind now to smash you to the Earth and lift up their Clubs, but only one beat me and he not on my head but on my side, saying, the first man that is concern'd with tax gathering is or shall Be a Dead man, they also Robb'd me of a pocket Bottle, my Razor and some soap, one of them was a man about six foot or more Large Eyes inclining to clear, large nose and mouth and Remarkable long neck, having on a hunting shirt, yellowish under jacket having his middle tied with a spotted handkerchief Red and white woollen overalls, and the other was a middle siz'd man with Trowsers and hunting shirt on, the other was something less, had on a trowsers and hunting shirt, they all had their faces streak'd with Black two of them Could speak Dutch, one had they Dutch Dialect on his tongue, But I knew them not, nor had no suspicion who they were by their voice or features, the sum of money that was public property that I was Robb'd of was twenty one pounds, fifteen shilling and seven pence, my money was about forty shillings.

PHILIP JENKINS. :

The above Wrote by the Deponent & swore to before me.

MESSRS BOWEN AND BEATTY TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Philada., Augt. 18th, 1784.

Sir,

We are sorry to inform your Excellency in Council that we have been mistaken in calculating the necessary time for issuing the final settlement Certificates in the City. The number of original proprietors applying here greatly exceed our expectations the many incorporations that have taken place in the Line render the search for individual accounts in the different Regts. and at different periods tedious & puzzling, but much more so when powers of attorney and transfers are produced whiches I don recite either, of these we have registered more than eight hundred and more are daily coming in. We have endeavoured to put off Issuing to the purchasers 'till the original proprietors who continue to crowd on us decrease in number and we are incessantly importuned & sometimes threaten'd by Speculators, some of whose demands on us would take several days to settle.

For these reasons we beg Council to give sanction to the following times & places of issue instead of those we have advertized, and we will spare no pains to give timely & general notice of the alteration.

In Philada. to Sept. 9th.

at Easton from Sept. 13th to the 19th.

at Reading from Sept. 22d to Octo. 3d.

at Lebanon from Octo. 5th to the 13th.

at Lancaster from Octo. 15th to the 24th.

at York town from Octo. 26th to Nov. 7th.

at Carlisle from Nov. 10th to the 25th.

We have consulted some Gentlemen who are of opinion that it is not necessary for us to attend at Fort Pitt and as the season will be far advanced we beg Council to dispence with our attendance there.

We have the honor to be,

your Excellency's most obt. Hbble. Servts.

DELEGATES IN CONGRESS.—REMOVAL OF PAPERS, &c., 1784.

Whereas the honorable the Delegates from the States of New Hampshire, Massachusetts & New Jersey, did on Wednesday, the Eleventh day of the present month of August, leave the City of Annapolis, and set out for their respective homes, whereby the Committee of the States hath been reduced to a number insufficient to do any manner of business.

And whereas the continuance to meet from day to day of the remaining members, without the power to do any public act, will be unnecessary, and as they do not conceive there is the smallest hope that a sufficient number of Delegates can again be assembled at Annapolis to enable the Committee of the States to proceed to business before the time appointed for the meeting of Congress, pursuant to their adjournment, and it is proper that the public papers & records should be removed as speedily as may be to Philadelphia, till offices can be prepared for their reception at Trenton. The undersigned Delegates have recommended to the Secretary of Congress to take order for the immediate removal and safe arrangement and disposition of the Papers & records of Congress.

The Undersigned Delegates have also advised the Chairman forthwith to write to the Supreme Executive of the several States unrepresented in the Committee of the States, informing them of the actual situation of the Committee, & of the present disposition of the papers & records of Congress, that they may respectively send forward a delegate to the City of Philada., or to Trenton, if the papers & records of Congress shall have been previously lodged in that place, in order that a Committee of the States may be assembled and be enabled as early as possible to proceed to business.

GOV. HARRISON, OF VA., TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Virginia in Council, August 21, 1784.

Sir,

I could never procure a copy of the Entries made with the Surveyor of Yohogania County for the Lands which have fallen into your State, till late last night, which puts it out of my power to forward them to your Excellency by this post, as it is necessary to reserve a Copy of them for fear of accidents in the conveyance. I will certainly do myself the honor to transmit them by the next post if no private opportunity should offer sooner.

I have the honor to be with sentiments of the most perfect esteem,

MESSRS. BOWEN AND BEATTY TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Philada., Aug. 26th, 1784.

Sir,

We still continue so greatly hurried in business that we must intreat the indulgence of Council to defer giving in our answer to the Memorial of Messrs. Bradford & Power till to-morrow.

This favor of one day more will add to the many obligations already bestowed on,

Sir, your Excellencies & the Councils

His Excellency The President in Council.

GOV. HARRISON OF VA. TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Virginia, Council Chamber, August 28, 1784.

Sir,

I have the honor to enclose you a Copy of the Entries made with the Commissioners appointed by an Act of the Assembly of this State in May, 1779, for the purpose of settling the titles of claimers to unpatented Lands under the present and former government, previous to the Establishment of the Commonwealth's Land Office, and also the Entries made with the Surveyors of the Counties of Yohogania, Monongalia & Ohio.

Your Excellency will find by searching into the Entries that in some instances the claimants have made their Entries both with the Commissioners and Surveyors, yet as this was only intended to make sure of their Lands, I hope it will be attended with no bad consequences to them.

I am informed by a Certificate of Mr. Johnston's at the foot of his return, that he hath but just received the books and papers of the unhappy Colo. Crawford,* and that they are in such confusion that he cannot at present make a return of the Entries made with him. As this Gentleman is a good officer, I make no doubt but he will forward the List as soon as he can make it out, in which case it shall be my care to transmit it to your Excellency.

Various complaints have reached me of injustice done the several Claimants by your Commissioners or Surveyors, but I place such implicit confidence in the justice of your Excellency and your Assembly, that I shall pay no attention to them till they come better authenticated than they have hitherto done.

I am with sentiments of the most perfect regard and esteem,

Your Excellency's most obedient and most humble servant,

Directed,

BENJ'N HARRISON.

Philadelphia, Sept. 3d, 1784.

Sir,

We have just received the Resolution and order of Council, dated Sept. 2d, 1784,* and are sorry to be obliged to declare ourselves on this occasion Free Citizens of Pennsylvania, and not public officers.

We have shut up our office, and are ready to deposit the remaining certificates in our hands wherever the Supreme Executive Council shall direct, agreeable to the Resolution of Congress.

We therefore pray your Excellency and Council to order some of your officers to receive the same, as we shall proceed no farther in this business.

leaving Council any alternative, and as Thursday next has been appointed to begin our tour thro' the State, we beg leave respectfully to offer to your Excellency & Council the following proposal :

Be pleased to remove the idea of our being unconditional servants of Speculators, by expunging from your Resolve of the 2d Inst.,* the words, "by the Agents," and either rescind the Order, or suspend its operations till we have done the business of those who elected us, and until the remaining Certificates come into the hands of a Public Officer; which we humbly conceive may be effected, (if Council chuse not to rescind) by substituting the word hereafter in place of the word "forthwith."

Should Council in their Wisdom think proper to adopt this mode, the speculators will have their pretended doubts of losing their purchases removed, and we shall be happy in serving those whose business we undertook to transact, which we shall immediately resume. But if we are so unfortunate as not to have our proposal approved by Council, we must persist in our Resignation, tho' it will take us as long to deposit, as it did to bring, the business thus far forward.

We have the honor to be,

Your Excellency's & Council's
very Humble servants,

E. BEATTY.

MESSRS. BOWEN AND BEATTY TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Philadelphia, Sept. 9th, 1784.

Sir,

In the great struggle of contending sentiments with which our minds have been oppress'd, ever since we received the unexpected resolution & order of Council of the second Instant, the interest of our Brethern predominates.

We therefore beg leave to consider the silence of Council on the subject of our Address of the third, as a tacit refusal of the deposit we offer'd; and we leave to time and the wisdom of your honorable Board the consideration of the proposal we had the honor of delivering to Council on Tuesday last.

For these reasons, we shall (unless you forbid us) open our office again at 3 o'clock this afternoon, and will set out upon our tour next Saturday morning—provided Council do not think proper to signify their acceptance of the deposit before that time.

Mean while, with all due submission to the constitutional authority of the supreme executive power, we beg leave to reserve to our

WARDENS OF PHILADELPHIA TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Wardens' Office, Philadelphia, Sept. 4th, 1784.

Sir,

The board beg leave to inform your Excellency and the honorable the Supreme Executive Council, That the contractors for removing the Chevaux de Frise, having, as they apprehend, nearly finished the Business, the Wardens have ordered the State Sloop and her crew, together with a skilfull pilot, a diver, and a sufficient number of hands to go down immediately in order effectually to sweep and carefully examine the state of the River, least some obstruction may remain as yet undiscovered that will endanger the safety of vessels in passing or repassing. As the examination is directed to be made with the utmost care and attention, possibly it may perhaps not be finished before the end of the week, till which time the contractors cannot remove their apparatus or discharge their hands.

The Wardens are of opinion that the navigation cannot be rendered complete while the five Chevaux de Frise laid down in the draught between the two Bars in the eastern channel of the River remain, and as they may be removed now at less expence than at any future period, they respectfully submit this to the consideration of your Excellency and the Honorable Council.

Warden's Office, Septem<sup>r</sup> 21st, 1784.

Sir,

Since we did ourselves the honor of addressing your Excellency & the Honorable Council on the subject of the removal of the Chevaux de Frize to the Eastward of the Bar, the Pilots employed in sweeping the Channel have returned, and from their report we find that a shoal is forming between the lower end of the Bar & Hog Island, which confirms us the more in our opinion of the necessity of their being removed, and induces us to request your Excellency will be pleased to lay this matter before Council, as we conceive it to be an object well worthy of their immediate attention.

BOARD OF WARDENS OF PHILADELPHIA TO COUNCIL, 1784.

To His Excellency, John Dickinson, Esqr., & the Supreme Executive Council of the State of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen,

By Information of the Board of Wardens of the Port of Philadelphia, we are informed the honourable Council have thought of removing the Chevaux de Frizes in the Eastern Channel or Swash back of Red Bank Bar, & have required to know on what Terms we would engage to execute that Business. We therefore Propose to Council to execute the work on the Terms of our former Contract, as well for those yet to be removed as the work already executed above the Number contracted for. This we judge but reasonable, as the Expences we have been at in many Instances exceed our first Calculations, and a continuation on the same Terms for an additional Number will in some Measure compensate for the Service which tho' heavy to the undertakers, will be light to the Public. The Season is now so far advanced as to render the water cold and unhealthy to work in, & the days so shortened as to bring two of the low water Slack Tides, (at which Time material parts of the work can only be done) in the Night, whereby near half of the Time is lost, and many of our Men have lately got sick, with two of our principal officers. For these Reasons we are of opinion that the * See pp. 849, 850.

Business cannot be done with safety to the undertakers for less than the proportionate sum of the Contract of April last, which is one hundred and twenty two pounds 8 11  $\frac{3}{4}$  Chevaux de Frise.

We beg leave to observe to Council that soon after our Contract Mr. Thomas Conarroe & others, in Conversation, talked of the Facility with which the Chevaux de Frises could be removed, & that they would have undertaken the work for less Money, &c. On hearing of these Stories, we called upon several of those Pretenders to give them an opportunity of showing their Ingenuity, & if possible engaging them in the work, none of whom would contract but Mr. Conarroe, who after much Expence & several weeks Trial, gave the Matter up without raising a single Frame or the Power of doing it. These Things are offered to the honourable Council, as we believe no other Method but those taken by our A. Donaldson would have succeeded.

The Removing the Frames in the Swash will be attended with a particular difficulty arising from the Shoalness of the water in which they lay. The Frames being 30 feet wide, the Water, it is apprehended, will not admit of canting them to discharge the Ballast, and there being no increase of depth within the Swash, they must be floated with the Ballast in to the Main Channel before they can be got to shore or their Ballast discharged.

We are with great Regard

Sir,

I take the Liberty of addressing your Excellency and Council upon a subject in which I think myself agrieved, and which Mr. Rittenhouse informs me is not in his power to remedy without your approbation. I am indebted to the State a balance for the purchase of two City Lots, on which I have Interest to pay—I have Interest notes of Mr. Rittenhouse's in my hands this fourteen months, for which I have not been able to receive the money, therefore shall think it hard to pay the one and not be allowed the other, (if not inconsistent) beg your Excellency and Council to give orders to Mr. Rittenhouse to receive those notes in payment agreeable to the time they were issued by Mr. Smith, Loan Officer.

HON. GEO. BRYAN TO HON. JAMES IRWIN, 1784.

Chester, 20th October, 1784.

Dear Sir,

Upon conversing with Mr. McKean and Mr. Burd concerning the case of Doan, under attainder, by outlawry, for Robbery, they have reminded me of David Dawson, of West-Calm, in Chester County, hanged upon attainder of Treason in a case of like nature, tho' not so clear as to the proceedings. For this last case was under a proclamation of Council to come in & stand tryal in 45 days; Doane's is at Common Law, the mode of demanding only being under an old Act of Assembly.

Dawson suffered, if I remember rightly, in the fall of 1780. The keeper of the new prison says this was the first capital execution after he entered upon his present duties. He will deliver this.

I am, Dear Sir, Your most obed. Serv't,

GEO. BRYAN.

David Dawson, of Chester County, was executed on the Commons of this City, at the usual Place of Execution, on the 25th Day of November, 1780. I attended his Execution on that Day.

GEN. JAMES WILKINSON TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Sir

I shall offer no apology for this address; it must doubtless be unexpected, but the occasion will, I flatter myself, excuse it. Being about to take a long leave of the State of Pennsylvania, I conceive it my duty to abdicate the Offices of Brigadier & Adjutant General, which I hold in Her militia; I am sorry I cannot observe the ceremony of inclosing the Commissions, as they are not at present within my reach:—And the motive of my Application is the Interest I take in the welfare of that meritorious, respectable part of Society, the late Military of America; I am prompted by principle & sympathy to promote their prosperity on every proper occasion, by every consistent means in my Power.†

On the present return of the Election for Fayette County, Major John Harden stands second for the Sheriff's Office; permit me briefly to state to your Excellency this man's merit, without detracting from that of his Competitor.—Mr. Harden served in the alert of the Army under the Generals (then Colonels) Morgan & Butler, in the Northern Campaign, 1777. His Rank was that of a Lieutenant, and I can, as the Adjutant General of the Army under General Gates, assert that he was exposed to more danger, encountered greater Fatigue, and performed more real service than any other Officer of his Station ; with Parties never exceeding 20 Men, he in the Course of the Campaign made upwards of 60 Prisoners, and at a Personal Recounter in the rear of the Enemy's position, he killed a Mohawk express, & brought in the dispatches which he was conveying from Gen'l Burgoyne to the Commanding Officer at Ticonderoga, with the loss only (indeed) of a Lock of Hair which the Indian's Fire carried away. It is sufficient for me, Sir, to testify his merits, the Justice which characterizes your administration will do the rest.

RESOLUTIONS OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY—NEW JERSEY, 1784.

State of Pennsylvania, In General Assembly,

Friday, December 10, 1784, A. M.

The motion read December 8, respecting the appointment of Commissioners on the part of this State, to meet with such Commissioners as are or shall be appointed on the part of New Jersey, to settle, agree upon, and accurately to describe, which of the Islands, Islets and insulated Dry lands within the river Delaware, belong to each of the said States, respectively, was read the second time, and adopted as follows, viz. :

Whereas, Commissioners duly appointed on the part of the State of New Jersey, and Commissioners duly appointed on the part of the State of Pennsylvania, for the purpose of settling the jurisdiction of the river Delaware and Islands within the same, did make and execute two instruments of an Agreement for the purposes aforesaid, one for each State, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of April, 1788 ; which agreement hath since been ratified and confirmed by Acts of the Legislatures of the said States respectively.*

And whereas, in the said Agreement it is among other things set forth and declared, " That all Islands, Islets, and dry lands within " the bed and between the shores of the said river, and between " the Station point or north west corner of New Jersey, northerly, " and the falls of Trenton, southerly, shall, as to jurisdiction, be " hereafter considered as parts and parcels of the State to which " such insulated dry land did lie nearest at the time of making and " executing the said agreement,"—

And whereas, it is requisite that the said Islands, Islets and Dry lands lying within the boundaries aforesaid, should be more particularly described, and such as belong to each of the said States respectively more clearly ascertained, therefore,

Resolved, that the Supreme Executive Council of this State be authorized and empowered, and they are hereby authorized, empowered and desired to appoint three or more Commissioners on the part of this State, to meet with such Commissioners as are or shall be appointed on the part of New Jersey, to settle, agree upon, and accurately to describe which of the said Islands, Islets and insulated dry lands belong and appertain to each of the said States respectively, according to the purport, true intent and meaning of the aforesaid agreement.

Resolved, that the Commissioners on the part of this State be instructed so to form their report of the description and situation of such of the said Islands and insulated dry lands as shall be found to belong to this State, as that they may be properly annexed to the respective counties and townships to which they lie most contiguous.

Resolved, that each of the said Commissioners be allowed twenty shillings for every day they shall respectively be employed as aforesaid, and that this House will make provision for the same, and for defraying the necessary contingent expenses of the said service.

LETTERS, &amp;c., RELATING TO WYOMING.*

PETITION OF Z. BUTLER, &amp;c., TO CONGRESS, 1784.

Wyoming, May 1st, 1784.

To the Hon'ble the Conti'l Congress now sitting at Annapolis in Maryland.

Gentlemen,

When we reflect upon the notice taken of us in granting us a trial for the right of soil claimed under the State of Connecticut on the one part and under the State of Pensyl'a on the other part, we Can't but feel our hearts glow with gratitude and high esteem for your Hon'ble and august body knowing from experience that you have a high esteem and veneration for Justice and that it is your intention it should take place between State and Individules and also observe that the fourth monday in June next is assigned for the apperance of the parties by their Lawfel agents before Congress, or a Committee of the States wherever they shall be then sitting to proceed in the premises as by the Confederation is Directed which has given us a greatful sense of the duty we ow to that respectable Body Esteeming that Board to be the last resort and appeal for Justies and the Experience of which imboldens us once more to lay our Distressed situation before your Hon'rs, and we would in the first place beg leave to suggest that the Claimants under Pensyl'a say there is no act of Congress for a trail for the right of soil or even to constitute a Court or to Quiet us who claim under Connecticut in our possessions and therefore pay no regard to the said Resolve.

We would also crave leave to say that in the fall of the last year and soon after the Justies who were apointed and Commissioned and set over us without our Choise or knowledge had come to this place, we by our peaceable Demeanor and ready submission to government duly submitted to every requisition whether Civil or Military yet the most tyranical and arbitrary proceedings were introduced by the said authority to add to our distress, that numbers of Families were forcibly turned out their houses and possessions without the least regard to age or sex, widdows or Fatherless Children, in sickness and Distress many of the Inhabatants had their grain and other Effects forced from them, others taken in numbers by a Military force Drove to the fort by the Soldiers with fixed Bayonets and accompanied by the Justices Esq'rs Petterson and Seely, when the said inhabatants by order of the said authority were forced into a Guard house in the fort where they were confined in a Dismal prison unfit for Human creatures to lay down in, some confined six and others nine days when they were turned out without any crime being laid to their Charge that while in Confinement they received the greatest abuse and insults from the Justies officers & soldiers and in the mean time their famileys turned out of doors & their property forced from them & never returned, others were taken by orders of the authority under the pretence of some crime though none were alledged against them and Confined in the said gaurd house from thence sent to Sunbury to be Committed and laid under large bonds and permitted to return home taken a second time by said authority for the same pretended crime and confined in the said Gaurd house when offers were made them by the Justices if they would take leasses they shou'd be released from their Bonds and Confine- ment some were actually forced to take a lease to gain their Liberty and all this barbarous treatment inflicted upon the inhabatants of this settlement without Law or ever the colour of Law or Justice and in order to obtain some redress and rispit from their tyranical proceedings we petitioned the Hon'ble assembly of this State for and in hopes of some mitigation of our intolerable sufferings and insupportable insults which the inhabitants were continuly receiving from the authority afs'd as well as from the Pennsy'a Land Claimers and the assembly of this State by a Resolve passed the ninth day of Dec'r last, appointed Messrs the members of Northanton County a Committee to Enquire into the facts as stated in our Petition who met about the 29th of the same month at Cap't John P. H. Schott inkeeper in this place and to the immortal Hon'r of that Committee we Can with justice and their Enquiry was made with the strictest Justice and impartiality but alas to our great surprise and mortification after keeping an agent at the assembly near three months, the Petition was shuffled from Committee to Committee, and finally postponed to the next session and nothing done for our relief and after the Resolve of Congress our agent Petitioned the assembly of this State to be Quited in our possessions until the trail of the right of soil should be determined but alas all to no purpose our prayers and intreaties were rejected and Contemed and we are now left to the tender mercies of the wanton and avericious wills of the land Claimants whos tender mercies are cruelty in the abstract, and we would farther observe that the Civil and millitary authority who are set over us here lay Claim to large interests in this place in lands under the Pennsyl'a claim and those of the civil authority were the most vendictive enimies, and the lands claimants still say that the whole was determined by the Decree at Trenton and are at this present time introducing a Banditti of men together with the Soldiers who have no right or claim to any land here under any State to take our lands and possessions by force and the s'd Banditti and Soldiery are now wantonly without either law or right, pulling down our fences Laying our fields and grain open to the wide world, fencing across our highways, securing our wells of water from our houses, inclosing our gardens and home Lotts for their own use, so that we are deprived the priviledge of passing in our Publick highways, the priviledge of taking water from our wells, improving our gardens and home Lotts and other Lands is also Denied us, and that upon our Perril many of our inhabatants that have attempted to improve in our gard'gs have been drove out by a Band of Soldiers armed with Clubs, and we are not only threatened of being beat and abused with Clubs, but are offen threatened to be shot and put to immedatè Death, many of our houses, Lotts, Wells and gardens Lying near the garrison and under cover of their Cannon by which means we are Continually receiving the greatest abuses and insults from some of the Justices as well as from the officers and soldiers; the said Soldiers are Continually walking the streets, and through Every part of our Settlement that is in any way near the Garrison, as well by night as by day, some armed with Guns and Bayonets, and others with Clubs, insulting and assaulting whomsoever they please; some of the inhabatants have been met in the street by this Banditti, and beat with Clubs untill their lives were Despaired of. Others have been taken and carried into the fort, and there beat with Clubbs by the officers and Soldiers in a most Cruel manner and then dismissed. One of the inhabatants of a respectable Character a few days since made application to one of the justices for a warrant against Alex<sup>r</sup> Petterson, Esq., in order to get a redress in law for assault and Battrey made upon him by the said Petterson. The Justice to whom application was made, Living near the Garrison, a party of soldiers, armed with Clubbs and other weapons, were immediately sent in pursuit of this Inhabatant. Their pursuit continued for two days, waylaying his house, field and the highways, &c., and on the night of the 30th of Ap'l, a party of armed soldiers waylaying the house, took him by force, and carried him near the Garrison, when they beat him severely with clubbs, this man made imediate application for redress to one of the Justices, but was refered to the Commanding officer to whom he also made the same application, but any redress could be obtained some of the Justices, together with the officers and soldiers and others of their Banditti of men are threatening to pull down our houses, and turn our distressed feimly out of Doors. The inhabatants who have lost their houses and all their Effects by the late inundation of the waters, are forbid cutting a stick of timber to make a shelter for their feimelys, or even to repair their houses that were wracked in pieces by the water and Ice. Some have been taken before the Justices by a warrant and laid under large Bonds for Outting timber on their own possissions for the purpose of Building, others are laid under bonds for cutting a stick of fire wood. We are also forbid to Draw our seins in the river for fish which will add greatly to our Distresses, having lost most of our provisions by the inundation of water, and to add to all our distresses, the soldiers are Continually Plundering the inhabitants, taking from them the Little provisions they had left them, Killing our Cattle, Sheep and Swine which escaped the flood. Repeated application has been made by the inhabitants to the authority here, in hopes to obtain redress for the abuses and insults which we are Daily receiving, but can get no redress, and by their unconstitutional, unjust and unlawfull proceedings had against us which together with the surprizing inundation of water & Ice hath spread Distruction and Devastation through our settlements, having a great part of our houses, Cattle, grain and other Effects hurried down the impetuous torrent & lost for ever. Yet notwithstanding all this, these Barbarous men and still oppressing the afflicted in the gate. Our blood and treasure has been Expended in our Countrys cause we have stepped forth & fought for the golden tree of Liberty which as a Countray we have obtained. We have Suffered Every Danger this side of Death, many of our nearest and tendered Connections have Bled & fallen : it fills our hearts with grief when we take a serious view of our unhappy situation that we who have stood forth in our Countrys cause must now Continue under the Iron rod of Tyronney and oppression, and by those who should have been first to step forth for our protection and safe guard and now while others are Injoying the inconceivable Blessings of peace and plenty, and set under their own fig tree and have none to make them afraid, but are singing a Quietum to all their trouble we are under the gawling yoke of Dispotism and the cruel malicious and Tyrannical proceedings had against us and which we are Continually receiving from the Civil and Millitary authority as well as from the Soldiers and merciless and mercenary Land Claimants have Drove us almost to Disperation and unless we can have some speedy relief we are inevitably ruined, we must fly from this place with our Distressed feimlys, leaving our all behind us, our children crying for bread, and we shall have none to give them, and we would farther observe that while this was writting and but a few minutes since a number of the inhabitants have been Drove from their labours by the Soldiers, and beat with clubs from house to house in a most cruel manner, therefore with all due regard for that Hon'ble body of which Congress are composed, do with Deference and Humility lay these our distressed situation before your Hon'ble Body, praying your Hon'rs Seriously to take our unhappy Cercomstance into your wise and Equitable Consideration and weigh the Justies of our Complaints and grant us relief or metigation, and that we may be Quieted in our possessions untill we can have a fair and impartial trail for the right of soil as by the Confederation is directed or in some other way grant relief as your Hon'r in your great wisdom shall judge just and Equitable, and we as in duty Bound shall ever pray.

* These being found since the papers for that year were printed, it is deemed best to place them together.

ALEXANDER PATTERSON TO JUDGES OF SUPREME COURT—
WYOMING, 1784.

Wyoming, May 80th, 1784.

Gentlemen,

Whereas your duty to the state, and attention to the Rights and Privileges of its Citizens Demands your attention in this County at a period when great part thereof is in Inevitable trouble, it will no Doubt be Necessary for the peace and Safety of the Commonwealth for your Honours to make every Enquiry from what source such Troubles flow the origin, rise and Progress thereof have hitherto been so Conspicuous as to want no Illustration.

It now only remains that your Honours do obtain the proper Information and Causes which have produced the Present Commotions and that Prudent and wise measures be adopted to stop the Impending Calamity's that Threaten this Large tract of Country, you will no Doubt hear that great Outrages have been Committed by the Pennsylvanians against the Connecticut Claimants in Violation of Law and good Government, But I trust it will be made appear that the measures taken Though not strictly Consonant with the Letter of the Law was the result of absolute Necessity, and Dictated solely by the Principles of self Preservation, for Certain it is that no human Policy could govern or Reconcile both party's to Remain peaceably in this Country, the Rancorous Disposition of the contending party's but too well Evince the Catastrophe that must have happened had not the measures been adopted that have been taken by the Pennsylvanians, there was no medium to save the Effusion of much Blood. The Pennsylvanians had come into this Country in great Numbers, found that the Lands they had so long since bought and suffered for was Generally Clear of houses or fences, they therefore fell to work to Improve and in a Peaceable manner Endeavoured to Repossess themselves of their Property, which was wrested from them many years ago by Lawless Banditti, the malecontents betook themselves to their ancient Resources (that of arms) and Threatened the Pennsylvanians in a Daring and Outrageous manner, all hopes of peace being vanished, it was adjudged the most Prudent step to seize a favourable moment and Disarm the most violent of the Intruders, upon which Notice was given them, to move off their Effects & Familys, the season being so far advanced that there was no danger of their Cattle suffering by the way, this and every other precaution was taken to prevent the Idea of Cruelty, Though in simelar cases the Pennsylvanians had never Recd. any thing like simelar Treatment, on the Contrary they have been Robed & murdered and suffered every species of Cruelty by those Troublers of the state and their Quiet, who now would wish to have Government believe that they are Inoffensive Citizens and strict Conformists to the Laws of this state which they have held in the greatest Contempt for upwards of fifteen years, but had they an alternative they would Trample it as usual. Your Honours will please to view the Difference between the Party's the one having Troubled the Happiness of the State for such a series of years, and Committing every outrage that malice could suggest ag't. its faithful Inhabitants. The other supporting the Dignity of the State and Rights of the People, having at all times Evinced their Zeal for its Wellfare. The Pennsylvanians who have been active in the late movements are aware of the situation in which they are Placed, having a strong Party in Northumberland against them, who have taken part with those restless people, and had it not been for their Interposition, actuated I fear by bad Principles, there would have been no trouble in settling this Country with the Rightful owners, and it is more than Probable (that their views of Popularity being now at an End by Loosing their Darling object the votes of those Exiles at Elections) that they will use Every Endeavours to stimulate your Honours with Government to measures that will Perhaps Terminate in our ruin, but hope you will be aware of those Incediaries whose wish is to Irritate instead of salving the sore. If the views of the New settlers of this country have in any wise been mistaken they will be very unhappy, for I am well Convinced that there are no People on Earth who have a greater veneration for the Weal of this Commonwealth of which they deem it their Greatest Honour to be Citizens. Business of such a Complicated Nature could never have been effected with more caution, there is no Blood spilt and it will not be the blame of the Present Inhabitants if there ever is upon the occasion, as few or Perhaps none of the Inhabitants from hence may be Down at Sunbury and Numerous Complaints will Exhibited. I am solicited to make this Representation of facts which I Pledge myself Deviates nothing there from, in order that your Honours may be aware of the Cunning of Designing men, the matter is Rested Intirely with you, that from a perfect knowledge and Dependance on your abilities such measures will be taken by Government as will tend to the Tranquility of its People, the Present settlers beg that no harsh step may be taken, and that the Sheriff and some of the Justices in his vicinity may not Drive to Extrems, and cause mutual Disentions to arise among a People whose strength and Welfare Depend on Unanimity. I know that it will be said that I have given my sanction to the measures adopted it would be uncandid to say they had it not.

I have done nothing officially, having some time since Resigned my commission of the Peace,* But having some Consequence among the People I have frequently given them permits and Papers that have Generally answered the Purposes Intended (viz.) the accommodations of Persons apparently in Distress. You will Please to observe that the Pennsylvanians Conceive that the Determination of the Congressionall Court at Trenton Touching the jurisdiction and Preemption of this Country was final and Decisive and that further Pretentions to Tryal upon the Subject was in too great a Degree Tampering with their Patience and Property, and are Determined to Defend it against any Pretensions or People Claiming under the State of Connecticut should they be so unjust as to Persevere in so Iniquitous a measure.

Capt. Armstrong does me the Honour to Deliver this to whom I refer for its authenticity and further Particulars.

I have the Honor to be,

with the Highest Esteem,

and Regard Gentlemen your most obedt.

ALEXANDER PATTERSON TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Wyoming, 12th July, 1784.

Sir,

Whereas I have for some fifteen years past been Interested in the affairs of Wyoming; and more particularly so since the late Com-motions became serious, I therefore humbly hope that it will not be Deemed Impertinent if I assume the freedom to state some facts relative to the situation of this Country as it now stands,—

* See Col. Rec., Vol. XIV., p. 117.

What Happened before Col. Moore left this place, he has undoubtedly faithfully represented to your Excellency and Council, since which we have been continually surrounded by a Body of armed men, who say that they are under the Direction of the sheriff of this County, there has not one day passed that they have not Committed some outrage upon the peaceable and Industrious Inhabitants, by Beating, Robing and Plundering them of their property. They have stolen Thirty one Horses out of the settlement, besides a Number of Cattle & sheep; This day they took Mr Shoemaker one of our Justices who had just returned from Sanbury and Enter'd into recognizance, Beat him in a Cruel and Barbarous manner, we have born with every Species of Insult. Their Horrid Threats to murder me and several Gentlemen at this place, has Induced me to keep a Guard of Near fifty men ever since Col. Moore left this place for the safety of our lives, we have carefully avoided all acts of Hostilities, and thereby I hope Evinc'd to the world our good Intentions, God knows that we wish to get Clear of those Runegadoes without Bloodshed but I fear it is not Possible, they will commit some Crueltys that will Eventually bring on Bloodshed, there is nothing more they wish than to act the Part of the savage, they have Blacked their faces, and abused our People with Townshacks they have had recourse to the Law, but find its Operations too slow to answer their purpose they are Determined to repossess themselves tho' at the risk of Life, they have Daped the state in their Pretence of applying to the Laws, they never Intended the least good to the state, they ought to be exploded from a Citizenship, their actions has always shewn it.

Your Excellency will Easily Perceive that this Business has cost me a large sum of money and if effected will doubtless cost something Considerable, we have Various Reports of a Body of men coming from Connecticut, it will Doubtless be Necessary for this State to Interpose, I have besides the support of the Guards, alluded to supported the familys of our People who hold Possession, with Bread to a Considerable amount.

Permit me to give it as my opinion that Government ought to Interpose in our behalf, and give an Immediate support to our Possessions the malcontents having done Flagrant offences sufficient to warrant such interposition for the safety of the Commonwealth.

I have the Honour to be with the Greatest Esteem

your Excellency's Most obedient &

very Humble Serv't,

ALEX. PATTERSON.*

A small support now, may save the state a world of Trouble and expence.

JOHN FRANKLIN TO OFFICERS OF THE GARRISON, 1784.

Wyoming, July 27th, 1784.

Gentlemen,

In the name and behalf of the Inhabitants of this place, who held their Lands under the Connecticut Claim, and were lately, without Law, or even the Colour of Law, drove off from their Possessions and Property in a hostile and unconstitutional manner—we, therefore, in the name of those injur'd and innoc'd Inhabitants, demand an immediate Surrender of your Garrison into our hands, together with our Possessions and Property, which if Compli'd with, you shall be treated with Humanity and Commiseration; otherwise the Consequences will prove fatal and bloody to every person found in the Garrison. We give you two Hours for a decisive answer, and will receive the same at Mr. Bailey's.

county of Northumberland, & State of Pennsylvania, appeared personally before the Honorable Thomas M'Kean, Esquire, Doctor of Laws Chief Justice of the Supreme court of the State aforesaid, &c., and made oath on the holy Evangelists of Almighty God, that on Tuesday, the twentieth day of the present month of July, this Deponent and divers other Inhabitants of the afs<sup>d</sup> Shawanese township, were informed that divers persons from Connecticut and Vermont were coming to Wioming armed, and under the command of a certain Major Joel Abbot, and that a certain John Franklin was also coming there with another party of armed men; that he, this Deponent, and between twenty and thirty of his neighbours, assembled together in this township afs<sup>d</sup>, armed with their muskets & bayonets, and staid in a Body until about three o'clock, when they concluded the Connecticut & Vermont Party were not coming, and they thereupon set out for Fort Dickinson, and having marched about half a mile beyond the flat lands, commonly called the Shawanese Flats, and were got into a wood, very thick with brush, they were fired upon by a party of men, who lay in ambush, and three of them were wounded, two mortally, and one slightly—that some of the Party with this deponent returned the fire, and then they all retreated back across the river Susquehanna and up to the Fort, where they all, or at least the greater part, remained until Thursday, when this deponent's wife sent his son, about twelve years of age, with a horse, for him to ride home; but he left his horse at the Fort, and returned home by water in a canoe, and at the river's side he found his wife and family, also Ezekiel Scouenhoven's, Joseph Montanie's, James Grimes's, Peter Taylor's, Preserved Cooley's, John Cartwright's, Nicholas Brink's families, and some others, standing there, women and children, under the guard of John Swift, Giles Slocum, Walterman Baldwyn, Satterly, John Inman, and some others, armed with rifles and guns, who had driven them from their habitations, without suffering them to bring any thing with them, except the Clothes they wore, and a few bed clothes for two or three of them—that this deponent then spoke to John Swift, and the others, and told them they had had recourse to the Law, and did they now mean to act arbitrarily and by force, he thought they had been contented; but they severally replied, that they expected no satisfaction from the Law, and were therefore resolved to take their own satisfaction; that they meant to kill every man they saw carrying arms; they then asked the deponent whether he intended to take his wife and family into the Fort, to which he answered that he did not, but to take them out into the country down to Delaware—they then told him they meant to take the Fort, and to show no quarter to those whom they should find in it, men, women, or children—that this deponent thereupon went with his family to Justice Seeley's, about four or five miles from that place, where they remained all night, and the next morning proceeded with his family, cattle, and a little provisions, together with a blanket and coverlid, to the house of Mr.

Tinbury, near Delaware river, in the county of Northampton, where he left them, when he set out for Philadelphia, which was yesterday morning. This deponent further saith that the before named Walterman Baldwyn told him he wondered that he and his Party did not fight them when they shot at him & them in the woods on Tuesday, and wounded the three men, for, said he, there were but seventeen of us, and you were the stronger party in numbers. And further this deponent saith not.

DEPOSITION OF COL. JOHN ARMSTRONG, 1784.

State of Pennsylvania, ss :

Be it remembered, that Captain John Armstrong of the State of Pennsylvania, appeared personally before the Honorable Thomas McKean, Esquire, Doctor of Laws, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the State aforesaid, &c., and being sworn on the holy Evangelists of Almighty God, deposeseth and saith, that on the twelfth day of this present month, July, as he was travelling from Tioga to Sunbury, he was obliged by indisposition of health to stop at Wioming, where he found the inhabitants in great commotion, a camp being formed by a number of people, who, he understood, had arrived there from the State of Connecticut and other parts, at a place called Forty-Fort; that he was there told that the said Party had committed various acts of outrage on the inhabitants of that neighborhood, such as insulting and beating them, stealing their horses & cattle, &c. That this deponent having recovered a little, he went to Forty-Fort by water, and on his landing, he was met by certain Giles Slocum, Waltermann Baldwyn, William Smith, John Inman, Edward Inman, Richard Inman, Ishmael Bennet, senior, John Jenkins, Phineas Stevens, Daniel Pierce, and others, in all about thirty or forty, armed with rifles, muskets, &c., and after his being among them sometime, he found by their general conversation, that they were determined to drive off all the people, who had possessed themselves of lands under titles from the Government of Pennsylvania, in that country, and that they only waited for reinforcements to enable them to execute this purpose. That he apprehends, from the conversation he then had with them, that their party at that time consisted of about sixty men. This deponent further saith, that he returned afterwards to his quarters contiguous to the late Garrison, and remained there a few days, when the party from Connecticut, &c., fired upon the Fort, where some of the settlers under Pennsylvania, whose lives had been threatened, were assembled for safety. That on Thursday last, the twenty-second day of this present month, a number of men, women and children, flew into the Fort for protection, who reported that they were expelled their houses by an armed force, plundered of every species of property, and that their lives were threatened by the settlers under the State of Connecticut and a party lately from Vermont. That on the twenty third of this month, a large party appeared embodied near Fort Dickinson, and soon after fired upon the inhabitants, who had fled there for safety.

This deponent further saith, that reflecting on the unhappy situation of the women and children, who lived near to the Fort, in being exposed to the fire of both parties, he begged of a widow that had two sons with the aforesaid party, to desire that they would cease firing, until she and some more in a similar situation could be removed to a place of safety, which she accordingly did, and thereupon they sent her word that there should be no firing for two hours, when he went to assist a certain Mrs. Spaulding, a lone woman, to remove her family and property, but he had scarce left the gate of the Fort, when he was fired upon by the aforesaid Connecticut party. That they continued to fire upon the inhabitants, wounded a boy of about twelve years old, an old man above sixty-five years of age, and shot at a very young boy riding on a horse, and wounded the horse; and that Hostilities had not ceased on Sunday morning, the twenty-fifth instant, when he left the place. And further this deponent saith not.

Easton, 2d August, 1784.

Sir,

In our haste to accomplish some part of the preparatory business which we have taken upon ourselves, we have only time to inform your Excellency & Council that we got to this place early on yesterday, & that we purpose to leave it early on to-morrow.

There has a late Acct. been received from Wyoming, which left them in almost the same situation as those we saw in Philada. A 2d summons has been sent to Patterson, offering Money to Him & his followers, if they surrender, & threatening them all with the sword if they do not. Some Women & one Child have been wounded within a few days.

We propose to write you again in a day or two--when we shall be better able to determine the temper as well as preparation of the Troops with whom we are to act, & of whom, our Accounts (at this moment) are not the most promising.

We have the honor to be, Sir,

JUSTICES OF NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY TO COUNCIL,* 1784.

Wioming, Augt. 6th, 1784.

Gentlemen,

In obedience to the Instructions of Council of 24th July, we Repaired to this Place and found the Two Parties in actual Hostilities, and yesterday made a Demand of the Connec't Party a Surrender of their arms and submission to the Laws of this State, which they Complied with, reference being had to the Inclosed papers.

We also made a Demand of the same nature of the Party in the Garrison, but have Received no direct but evasive answers—at same time expressing fear of their lives, in reply to which they were promised Protection agreeable to Law in every respect but still hold the Garrison and have not Dispersed.

We Believe that a Due execution of the Laws will be the most effectual measure to Quiet the Country, as to the Pretended Claim or Title of the Connec't Party we have nothing to fear,—and are Convinced that had it not been through the cruel and Irregular Conduct of our Own People the peace might have been established long since and as well the Honor and Dignity of Government supported.

We are Gentlemen with the greatest Respect,

MESS. BOYD AND ARMSTRONG TO PRES. DICKINSON—WYOMING, 1784.

7th Aug't, 1784.

Sir,

Till do day we have had no easy mode of communicating with your Excellency, nor was our intelligence such as would have * Not directed but inferred from its contents.

authoris'd the trouble and expence of employing an Express. We are this morning however so fortunate as to meet with Captain Shotz, by whom we must beg leave to state, in a very hasty way the proceedings which have already been taken & those we have it in contemplation yet to take.

Upon our arrival at Easton, we found neither the temper nor preparation of the militia such, as we had expected to find them. The first (to which no service would be very acceptable,) had been particularly set against this by the agency of some fellows who with influence enough to mislead the people, have had wickedness enough to misrepresent the object & intentions of Government. We everywhere met the following objections, "that it was the quarrel of a sett of Land jobbers, that the whole Country was not worth the life of a single man, or the labor of the many who were now called out to quiet it, & that they were drawn forth not merely to support the laws but to extirpate the whole race of Connecticut claimants, &c., &c. Idle and absurd as these objections were, & much as Col. Craig & others had exerted themselves to obviate them, yet such was their effect upon the minds of the people that not more than one third of the number warn'd appear'd at the place of Rendezvous & among these but very few declared themselves to be perfectly willing to go farther. Disagreeable as we felt this want of disposition it was not however more unpromising than their almost total want of preparation. Out of 70 men who came from the 6th Northampton Batt'n, there were but 40 who had brought their arms—accoutrements, kettles, &c., &c., there were none.

This must have necessarily produced a delay had it not arisen from another source. Col. Craig having in the first instance counted upon a more exact compliance with his orders than they afterwards met, had made a very extensive arrangement of three detachments which were to move by different routes, very widely apart & entirely out of reach of each other. This supposed that each would be equal if not superior to the whole force of the insurgents which your Excell'y will find generally stated at 250 or 300 men. We need therefore enter into the reasoning which induced us to alter this plan & instead of committing ourselves by detail to bring the whole force to some advanced point from which we might operate as contingency would direct—This plan which entirely commands the entrance of the swamp was thought the most proper for this purpose, & we have accordingly drawn them hither.

In this situation an account of the half finished negociation of the Northumld. Magistrates has found us, we could wish it had been more compleat, but from some private evidence which we shall soon be at liberty to communicate, we are led to apprehend that the principles upon which it has been conducted were neither very fair to individuals nor honorable to the State & cannot therefore be either very lasting or satisfactory. Some part of this opinion we have formed upon the magistrates own letter to your Excell'y which we took the liberty to open, and which we again enclose. We propose therefore to proceed immediately & Endeavor to execute the farther intentions of Council. - We shall move the troops at sun set & hope to get thro' the swamp at day break to-morrow.

We are, Sir,

with the highest respect

your Excellency's & Council's most obed't Humble servants,

JOHN ARMSTRONG.
JNO. BOYD.

His Excell'y, Pres. Dickinson.

The late affair at Locust Hill was one of the most impudent and unprovoked attacks that has yet been made, & shall become an early object of our enquiries. The circumstances were as follows,

Col. Moore agreeably to a plan which we had concerted in Philad'a, had collected about 20 Volunteers with whom he had taken possession of a little height about midway in the swamp, merely to command the avenue by which we proposed to march, the Coll. had lain there some hours believing himself to be perfectly secure (as they were still in Northampton Co.,) when without any provocation on his part or previous notice on theirs, he was fired upon by the Insurgents, driven into a little hut & there obliged to sustain a two hours attack of great violence, in which three of his men were wounded & one kill'd. The assailants then withdrew into the swamp and the Col. retired hither.

This little rencounter would have been much more equal had not Moore himself been ill of a fever & His party so much dispersed.*

by Waterman Baldwin, & enquired if there was not McDonnell & a party of men at Locust Hill—I could not tell them. They then went away. On Friday at midnight, came Gideon Church and a young man by name of Jenkins, who said they were going off to New England, They then went off, & came back on Saturday morning about an hour after sunrise; and about half an hour afterwards one Vanorman came in; Church and Jenkins in conversation mentioned that they had found out by Vanorman that twenty five men were at Locust Hill, They then went away. On Saturday about midnight came Gideon Church and Waterman Baldwin and several others whom from the Darkness I did not know, who said they were going to meet McDonnell's party, even if they went to Locust Hill for him, They said that they had forty men with them. I asked them if they did not think McDonnell was reinforced with some more men. They answered, God Damn him, they did not care, they would fight him where they could meet him. They staid but a few minutes & went off. At Sunday noon Lord Butler, Gideon Church, Prince Alden, & one Harris came to my house & got Dinner, & went off. I asked where the rest of the Party were; some one answered that they were gone back to Wyoming. About three o'Clock on Monday, came Lord Butler & another, who got their Dinner, & ordered something to be got for thirty seven men, who were coming in & whom they said, were almost starved. About 5 o'Clock, the thirty seven men came, & got their Victuals. John Swift commanded the party, among whom were, Lord Butler, a man called Major Abbot, Waterman Baldwin, John Fuller, William McClure, Gideon Church, Thomas Heath, young Ishmael Bennet, Doctor Minor who was wounded thro' the Leg, Prince Alden, one White, one Sullivan, Abm. Pike, Bill Sloakum, John Platner, one Barbel. When Butler first came he mentioned that they had a skirmish at Locust Hill and had killed a number of the people there; he said he believed that they would not again attempt coming thro' the swamp. After the whole party came up there was a great deal of Conversation about their affair at Locust Hill, the general Tenor of it was of the number of men they had killed & the number of shot they had put thro' the House at Locust Hill. They staid about two hours & then went away. I asked Lord Butler, why he had not taken McDonnell's men prisoners. He said, Damn them we did not want prisoners, but we wanted to shew them that we would not let them come thro' the swamp. Lord Butler seemed to have the next command to Swift. The Deponent on a number of names being read over to him recollects that the following persons besides those above named were also at his house with the Party on the Return from Locust Hill, Two men by the name of Jenkins, one Gore, Danl. Sullivan, Leonard Cole, Reuben Cook, one Halstead, Edward Inman, one Harris, Stoddart, Spencer, Wm. Smith, one Corey, & Moses Sils. The Deponent is a Tavern keeper & had put some names down in his Books. He has a personal knowledge of them all.

DEPOSITION OF CHARLES MANROW—WYOMING, 1784.

Northumberland county, ss.

On the eleventh day of August in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, Before me Henry Shoemaker, Esquire, one of the Justices of the Peace in and for the said County, Voluntarily came Charles Manrow, aged Thirty-five years, and upon his solemn oath according to Law did say that on the twenty-second day of July last about one hundred of the New England party among whom were John Franklin, Giles Sloakam, John Holloberg, John Ryon, one Burnham and Abraham Westbrook came to the house of this deponent living Stoke Township near Nanticoke in said County all with arms—That John Franklin when he came up to this deponents house spoke to him and ordered him to march, upon which the deponent replied it was just night and that he could not get his creatures so that he could get away. Giles Sloakam immediately says, march away with your family up to the Fort, the deponent still desired to stay till morning & go down the River, But Giles Sloakam insisted that if he did not go that night and should remain there till morning he would make a corpse of him—And afterwards went away towards the Fort. That this deponent not thinking himself safe to stay in his house left it, and his family in it, and returned to his family about a week after—that John Ryon's after the new England Party had been before the Fort some days and a cessation of arms had been agreed on, seeing this deponent in the Town, demanded of him what he meant by staying on the ground & threatened that if he did not go away quickly this deponent would wish he had. That John Holloberg and Edward Enman after the attack at Locust Ridge told this deponent at his own house, viz., Holloberg told him that a Party of fifty of their men had been in the great Swamp to attack the Penamites coming in to Wyoming, Enman said that they had been to Locust Ridge for the same purpose, and had attacked them at the House there—Enman further said, that it was his opinion they had killed seven or eight, and how many they had wounded he could not tell, and seemed to rejoice greatly at the Success. And farther this deponent saith not.

DEPOSITION OF JAMES LANDON—WYOMING, 1784.

Northumberland County, ss.

On the eleventh day of August in the year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty-Four, Before me, Henry Shoemaker, Esquire, one of the Justices of the Peace, in and for the said County Voluntarily came James Landon, aged Thirty-Four years and made oath on the Holy Evangelists as follows, viz., that John Franklin and John Jenkins several times lately, with Joel Phelps had ordered this deponent to move out of the House he lived in since last spring in Shawonese Township in the said County, for that they would suffer no one to live in that country who would not join them. That Elijah Phelps and one Budd about three weeks ago came to this deponents house and took away his Rifle Gun, threatening that if he did not let them have it they would take ten times the value of it, also his Powder Horn & about half a pound of Powder and ten or twelve Bullets—and said they intended to disarm the Penamites. That about an hour after he this deponent went to John Franklin's and told him about his Gun being taken from him, with Franklin there was one Richard Inman who said to this deponent, if you will join us, you shall have your Gun. That Franklin told him he should not have his Gun, neither did he ever get it again—and said he must either go and join them in the Fort, or get out into the Country; for he should not stay there—and added that by the eternal God, if we have to storm the Garrison, we will sacrifice every man we find therein, that had taken up arms against us—That during the time the Fort was besieged, as this deponent was sitting at his own door making a pair of moccasins he heard a Gun fired, looking up, he saw William Smith & William Sloakam who had just shot down an Ox said to belong to one Hewin, and after the Ox was killed & dressed they left it in the care of Mr Windship to salt. That whilst this deponent was at a certain time at Windships, one Burnham came there and told, that he, and the man who was then with him had been placed as centries at Shawomeas to lay in ambush for the Pennsylvanians, that his orders were to fire upon the Pennsylvanians as soon as they came up and stand their Ground—that if these two Centries heard their Party fire, they were then to leave their Post and go to their assistance, that if it had not been for a dog who discovered the New England Party, they would have cut off the Pennsylvanians to a man—That whilst the Fort was besieged he this deponent heard Caleb Forsythe say that if the Pennsylvanians were so stubborn & would not deliver up the Fort, they would be put to the Sword and they did not know whether they would spare women and children—And that he had heard Waterman Baldwin say, that if they could not hold the Lands at Wyoming by Law, they would by force of arms.

DEPOSITION OF JOHN KING—WYOMING, 1784.

Northumberland County, ss.

On the eleventh day of August in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty-Four, voluntarily came before me Henry Shoemaker, Esquire, one of the Justices of the Peace in and for the said County, John King, and made oath on the Holy Evangelists as follows, viz., that on Friday last, the Sixth Instant, William Jacques came to the House of this deponent with John Swift, William Sloakam and Elisha Saterley and gave him notice that he should move out of his House and be gone off the Premises and leave the Place in two days or that they would burn the House down about him, or words to that effect, and then gave a great shout and rode off. That on this eleventh day of August, this deponent with Abraham Goodwin were riding along the road from this deponents house and coming to Wyoming, being on the road, a man, whose name this deponent has since been informed is Timothy Underwood was standing by a house where one Woodworth lives, he was armed and there were there two others unarmed, whom this deponent did not know—That Underwood had a Rifle with him belonging to Abraham Goodwin, upon Goodwin's calling to Underwood to bring to him the Rifle he had, which Goodwin said was his, Underwood made no answer, but put the Rifle to his Shoulder & presented it at Goodwin & this deponent—Upon which they put themselves on the defence, And Underwood perceiving it, went behind the house and ran off. And further this deponent saith not

DEPOSITION OF HENRY BIRNEY—WYOMING, 1784.

Northumberland County, as :

On the Eleventh day of August, in the Year of our Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Four, Before me, Henry Shoemaker, Esquire, one of the Justices of the Peace in and for the said County, Voluntarily came Henry Burney, aged Forty Four Years, and made oath on the Holy Evangelists, as follows, viz. :—that about the beginning of July last, he, this deponent living in Shawonese Township, in said County, saw John Swift, Elisha Saterley, William Jaquez, and a number of other persons, and at different other times, pass along the Road near where this deponent lives, with arms in their hands, to and fro, to what they called Head Quarters, about a mile distant from his house; that this Deponent had frequent conversation with Swift & Saterley & one Joel Phelps, who had ordered him often to go out of his house, and threatened that if he did not go away and move into the Fort, they would abuse him, by beating him and so forth,—insomuch that he was afraid of his life. That on the twentieth of July last, after the ambuscade at Shawonese, he, this deponent, saw one Burnham, who with others had gone out to lay in wait for some persons that had gone that day from the fort to Shawonese; that Burnham was speaking to Windship & his Family; that he overheard Burnham say, that he & his Party would have cut all the Pennsylvanians off that were on their Return to the Fort from Shawonese, if it had not been for a dog, that Burnham said he saw on the Road; one man, Brink, killed, & that several others were killed. That this Deponent says, Daniel Pierce and others frequently told him, that they intended to storm the fort where the Pennsylvanians were, if they did not deliver it up in a few days, and that the Pennsylvanians in the Fort must abide by the consequences if they were stormed therein—and that Daniel Pierce, Elisha Saterley, and others, swore that they were determined to clear the Ground at Wyoming and the other Settlements in the vicinity of the Pennsylvanians, for they would not suffer any of them to remain thereon. That the day after Major McDaniel & the Party were attacked at Locust Ridge, Elisha Saterley & this Deponent met together, and Saterley asked him, what do you think of the Pennamites now—That they were not able to fight them at all ; for, by G—d, we have killed forty of them yesterday. And further this Deponent saith not.

Some time after he was taken John Swift joined the party. The Deponent heard Swift, Inman, & Corey threaten that they would be the death of every Pennamite on the Ground. They particularly mentioned Captn. Ball, Henry Shoemaker, Esqr., Alexander Patterson, Esqr., whom they threatened not only to murder, but to roast into the bargain. Below Nantikoke falls near forty well armed men who had been out on different parties, came together. John Swift, who is a Deputy of Sheriff Antis, and John Franklin had the Command of the men. One Myers, another Deputy of Sheriff Antis, was also there and joined in threatening with the others. Meyers seemed exceeding intimate & friendly with the Connecticut men, but abused the Deponent & two other prisoners very much. Swift, Inman & Corey beat the Deponent with their iron Ramrods, then knock'd him down with their Guns, mashed his foot, broke one of his thumbs and two of his Ribs. The Deponent demanded their authority for using him in the manner they did, but they could show none. They carried him to Sunbury Gaol, but he was soon released. A man who is a stranger to the Deponent was his security. After the Deponent returned home one Burnam came to the Deponent's house & threatened if the Deponent did not instantly remove his family he would kill him & burn his house. The Deponent was forced to remove, & came up to the Fort as the only place of Safety, where he has remained ever since. The party of Connecticut People have robbed him of every thing he had in the world, and destroyed his garden & crop in the Ground.

Before me the subscriber, one of the Justices in and for the County of Northumberland, personally appeared Catharine Simms, aged thirty years, who being duly sworn on the holy Evangelists of Almighty God, doth depose and say that in the forenoon of the twenty-third of July last, the deponent saw a number of the Connecticut settlers coming from the Woods southward of the house in which the deponent lived in Wyoming; as they directed their course towards the house, the deponent fastened the door. When they came up they ordered her to open the door & let them in; she refused, and then they attempted to force the door open, but failing in that, they burst open & broke a Window at which one entered & opened the door inside & let the rest in. William Sloakum burst open the Window. When the party came in they turned her out, & ordered her to go into the Fort, which she said she would not do, as she had rather stay in her own house. They then went to the Window and began to fire upon the Fort; they fired several guns upon the fort before one shot was returned. William Sloakum and William Ross were the only two of the party that Deponent knew. After firing pretty briskly for about half an hour they went off, leaving the Deponent and her children in her house. The next morning Giles Sloakum and Phineas Pearce came to the Deponent's about Breakfast time, and asked for Deponent's Husband. She informed them that he was not at home. Giles Sloakum looked about the house, and observed to the Deponent that she had removed some of her Effects; she answered no, that she had taken her Bed & slept with her children in the Cellar, as she was afraid to stay up stairs. Giles Sloakum and Phineas Pearce, who had both fire-arms, went into the Garden and crept through the potatoes up to the head of the Garden toward the fort, and laid down under the fence. While Sloakum & Pearce lay in the Garden, Phineas Stephens and two others came to the door and seeing the Deponent's two Cows at the door, Stephens ordered the other two that were with him to take off the Cows. The Deponent entreated them at least to leave her one Cow, but they would not. The deponent took hold of the Rope of one of the Cows, but Stephens struck her away, & ordered her to remove with her children, for if he caught her in the house again it would be worse for her; the deponent was forced to remove. While she was trying to get a few of her things out of the house, Nathan Carey, Richard Inman, one Hebbert, one Gore, Wm. Ross, Nathan Walker & many others came up to the house. A short time after she removed into the fort. A smart firing begun soon after. The Deponent before she went to the fort, went to John Franklin who commands the Connecticut party to endeavour to get her Cows. He gave her no satisfaction. Every thing the Deponent left in her house was plundered, and her garden destroyed. Further the Deponent saith not.

Lois King being duly sworn, doth depose and say, that her husband's house, in which she lived, is just above Forty fort. Sometime in the middle of July, Phineas Stephens, Edward Inman, Elisha Satterlay & Ishmael Bennet, jr., came to her house & threatened to set fire to it, with many other threats to throw her into the River. Being afraid of her Life if she staid, the Deponent came down to the Town of Wyoming to ask advice what she should do. When she went back to her house, she found the Roof tore off, and the house plundered; Benjamin Jenkins, Gideon Church, William Jacques were in her house when she returned from the fort. The deponent when she went back collected what few things she could find, & came down about half a mile below her home to the house of the Widow Harris. When she came to the Widow Harris's she saw Gideon Church, who had came on before her, and Waterman Baldwin. When she had passed a little distance from Harris's house, Waterman Baldwin shot at her; the Ball missed her, but went thro' the thigh of her Dog that was walking close by her side. She knows Baldwin fired at her, for she turned round instantly & saw him with his Gun in his hand & the smoke of the Powder over his head.

On the Twelfth day of August, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty-Four, Before me, Henry Shoemaker, Esquire, One of the Justices of the Peace in & for the said County, Voluntarily Came Thomas Brink and made oath on the Holy Evangelists as follows, vizt, that about Two weeks ago he, this Deponent, was at the house of Lucy Harvey, at the Lower End of Shawnese Flats, in Company with Jonathan Marsh, where also was one Benjamin Harvey; and Harvey speaking of the Laws of Connecticut Government and of the Laws of Pennsylvania, and comparing them with one another, he got up in a Rage and damn'd the Laws of Pennsylvania and them that made them—And that four or Five days ago a certain Reuben Cook, in this deponent's House, at Shawnese, told him that the Houses standing near the Hill, on the Shawnese Flats, must be pulled down, for they should not stand there, and in particular James Benscoter's House, for neither he or his Family should stay there. And this deponent further says, that sometime last Week towards the latter End, the High Sheriff of the said County, Henry Antes, Esq<sup>r</sup>, passing by this deponent's House stopped there to feed his Horse, having three other Persons in Company with him; this deponent, desirous to know how matters were like to go on, asked Mr. Antes, the Sheriff, a few Questions, who informed this deponent that he had ordered the New England People to take their Arms, and go to their Possessions, for that People were not to stand still and be killed, and to take care of their Grain and Grass; that there was to be no more turning out of houses by either Party, but matters were to be decided at Law—That the Sheriff said the People here, and the deponent apprehended that by the People he meant those in the Fort, had a wrong apprehension of the militia that were coming up to their assistance, for that they, the Militia, were coming up to put the Law in force; that Two Justices had been left at Wyoming, and another would be sent immediately, and that would make a Quorum—And further this deponent saith not.

JOHN ARMSTRONG TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Wyoming, 24th August, 1784.

Sir,

The enlos'd letters from Colonels Willson & Kern, contain some intelligence very closely connected with the peace & happiness of this unfortunate Country; & which, if I may hazard an Opinion, will deserve the immediate attention of Government—I have therefore dispatched them to your Excellency by Express.

The whole of the Militia has been dismiss'd some days since, & your Excellency's orders concerning the works, arms, &c., executed.

* So indorsed.

These events, you will readily conceive, have left the Pennsylvania claimants in a very disagreeable situation—& joined to the conduct of the Sheriff, will Induce, I'm afraid, to a very general desertion of the Country, or what is perhaps more to be dreaded—an immediate appeal to arms. I would only farther observe to your Excellency that the hands which have been already loosed by the Sheriff are among the most dangerous of the whole number, & that I have every reason to believe they will be joined to those of Swift & Abbot before this letter can reach Philada.

Enclosed is also a list of those persons who have attach'd themselves to the fortunes of those two desperate Villains,—& are now collected at Bowman's Creek.

I am with the highest respect,

your Excellency's most obedient

& very humble servant,

JOHN ARMSTRONG, Jr.*

Directed,

Sir,

I have to inform you of my arrival at this place with the Prisoners under my command, yesterday morning Josiah Pill and George Banister made their escape, the remainder I delivered to Sheriff Antes, called the roll and saw them put in Prison, the Sheriff said the Prisoners were now under his care. A few minutes after I saw many of the Prisoners at Liberty—and, this morning went to the goal, found Eleven of the number I delivered absent—Inclosed you have their Names. You have much to fear from those men, as I presume they are gone to Wyoming. I march to morrow for Northampton—beg leave to subscribe myself

WILLIAM WILSON TO COL. ARMSTRONG, 1784.

Sunbury, 25th August, 1784.

Sir,

The Prisoners arrived here yesterday, and after they were delivered into the Sheriff's Custody, he gave them Permission to go at large, which alarmed the Inhabitants exceedingly. One of the Magistrates last Evening ordered them to be closely confined, & ten of them are missing this Morning.

There is a Number of the Prisoners now at the Sh'ffs House, & I have the greatest reason to imagine that he has paroled some of them.

In Consequence of an application from the most respectable People here, I have ordered a Serjeant's Guard to be mounted at the Goal. This step I hope will meet with your approbation, as the present condition of the Goal is such that renders a Measure of that Nature indispensably necessary.

I have been extremely ill since my arrival here, with a fever, which prevented me from attending to the Conduct of the Sh'ff, & has effectually rendered me unfit for any Business.

The Bearer is a young fellow of the Name of Harris, who has agreed to deliver this Letter to you—I was under the Necessity of contracting with him for five Dollars. I would esteem it as a very particular favor if you will hand him that sum.

ACT OF ASSEMBLY, WYOMING, 1784.

An ACT for the more speedy restoring the possession of certain messuages, lands and tenements, in Northumberland county, to the persons who lately held the same.

SECT. I. Whereas several persons at or near Wyoming, in the county of Northumberland, were in the month of May last, violently dispossessed of the Messuages, lands and tenements which they then occupied, and which are still detained from them by force; and the peculiar circumstances of these cases require, that the possession of the premises so forcibly entered and detained, should be without delay restored to the persons who occupied them as aforesaid.

SECT. II. Be it therefore enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the Representatives of the Freemen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the President and the Supreme Executive Council to direct the Justices of the Peace, in and for the county of Northumberland to proceed forthwith in executing the laws relating to forcible entries and detainers; and that their proceedings therein, or the writ of restitution thereupon, or the effect thereof, in the cases before mentioned, shall not be in any manner whatever superceded, impeded or delayed by Writ of Certiorari, or other Writ issued by the Supreme Court, or any Judge thereof, or by any other Court whatever.

SECT. III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid,

That this act shall continue in force until the end of the next Session of the General Assembly, and no longer.

Signed by order of the House,

GEORGE GRAY,
Speaker.

Enacted into a Law at Philadelphia, on Wednesday the fifteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four.

PETER Z. LLOYD,
Clerk of the General Assembly.*

JOHN ARMSTRONG TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Easton, 14th September, 1784.

Sir,

Before your Excellency's last letter reached Wyoming, I had taken some measures for disposing such part of the Insurgents as remained in arms about the mouth of Tunkhannock creek, & tho' my intentions were far from being fulfilled, yet I have every reason to believe that a discovery of them has not been without its effect, as they have since removed themselves much higher up the river. Col. Moore will have the honor to inform your Excellency of the steps which were taken to bring about this purpose.

The fears which I expressed in a former letter to Council, (and which had grown entirely out of the Sheriff's conduct at Sunbury) have been in some degree justified by the conduct of the people then released. They have in some instances taken up their arms and retired into the neighbouring hills—in others, they have threatened the civil officers & refused to submit to the laws. But in no instance has any real violence been committed, excepting one—the offender in that case was brought to immediate justice. In this situation I left the settlement on Saturday last, & proposed to have returned immediately to Philada., but meeting Captain Boyd at this place, I have at least suspended my intentions for a day or two, & shall await the operation of some medicines which I have taken for the restoration of my health—when I shall be able to determine whether I can return to Wyoming or whether I am to prosecute my first intention of going on to the City.

I have the honor to be,

With the highest possible respect,

Your Excellency's & Council's

Most obedient humb. servt.,

JOHN ARMSTRONG, Jr.

I have forwarded some depositions upon the affair of Locust ridge† to the Chief Justice.

DEPOSITION OF JAMES REED—WYOMING, 1784.

Before me, John Seely, Esquire, one of the Justices for the peace in & for the County of Northumberland, appeared James Reed, Esqr., and being duly sworn, doth depose and say, that on Monday, the 20th Instant, when returning from the Fort to Mr. John Hollenbach's, & at some distance behind Major Boyd & John Oakley, Esqr., his attentions were call'd immediately to them by a Voice which commanded some one to pull off his hat,—that he then discovered two men (who appeared to the Deponent to have stopped the gentlemen above-mentioned) in arms;—one of whom, holding a stick over Major Boyd, said—"You were one of the Commissioners who pulled off your hats to us when we laid down our arms; now I order you to pull off your hat to me." Upon which he struck Major Boyd with his stick; the stroke seemed to be given with great violence. This was repeated, the deponent believes, three times, with much threatening language, among which was this expression—"Come into the woods along with me,"—to which Major Boyd replied, "I shall not go with you; if you have any business with me, come to my Quarters." The Assailant then ask'd, "how long do you intend to stay here?" Major Boyd's answer was, "as long as my business calls me." By this time the Deponent had approach'd pretty near to them, when the two men in arms moved off along the road—& further this deponent saith not.

DEPOSITION OF JOHN OKELY—WYOMING, 1784.

Before me, John Seely, Esq'r, one of the Justices of the peace in and for the County of Northumberland, appear'd Mr. John Okeley, and duly affirming according to Law, doth say, that on Monday, the 20th Inst., in Company with Major Boyd & Col. Reed (the latter being some distance behind) Returning from the fort to Mr. John Hollenback's, they were met by two armed men that came rushing out of a house on the opposite side of the street; the foremost, as the Deponent was informed, was Waltermann Baldwin, bid Major Boyd & the Deponent stand; said, you are Major Boyd, an't you, one of the Commissioners that Pull'd off your hat to us when we laid down our arms. Major Boyd said he was; says Baldwin, pull off your hat for me now,—upon which he struck Major Boyd with a stick three or four times with great Violence, and Much Threatning Language, telling Major Boyd to come into the woods with him, which Major Boyd refus'd, saying, if he had any Business with him he should come to his Quarters, (the Deponent Desired the assailant to Desist, & not abuse an unarm'd Gentleman, upon which he turn'd to the Deponent, & with a Threat bid him hold his tongue or)—the assailant asked Major Boyd how long he Intended to stay there; Major Boyd's answer was, as long as my Business calls me, and then the two armed men walked off—farther the Deponent saith not.

DEPOSITION OF JOSEPH KING, 1784.

Before me, Henry Shoemaker, Esquire, one of the Justices of the Peace in and for the County of Northumberland, appeared Joseph King, of the Township of Shawana, who being duly sworn, doth depose & say, that on Sunday, the 19th Instant, while he & another man, with his wife, sat in his own house, he was fired upon from without by some persons then unseen; that going to the door to enquire into the cause of it, he was instantly surrounded by about a dozen of armed men, who began to beat this deponent with great violence; that breaking from them, he retired within the door of his house, and with the assistance of his wife endeavoured to keep the assailants out—that they shut & latch'd the door for this purpose, when the assailants broke it open & began again to beat this deponent with the butts of their guns, & otherwise much abuse him and his wife—that they then extorted a promise from him under pain of death, that he would not make any information against them, and that they then withdrew. This deponent further saith, that some of the persons thus assailing him he knew, viz. : John Swift, Elisha Sattalee, Waltermann Baldwin, Phede Budd, & Phineas Stevens—that the others he did not know,—& that he now remains under the utmost terror of his life.

DEPOSITION OF WILLIAM LANTARMAN, 1784.

Appeared before me, John Seely, Esqr., one of the Justices in & for the County of Northumberland, William Lanterman, & being duly sworn doth depose & say, that on Monday, the 20th Instant, being in his father's corn field in the Township of Stoke, he there met Waterman Baldwin, who asked him where his father was—& told him that if he caught him taking any corn out of that field, he (Waterman Baldwin) would scalp him. This deponent then told him that he had come to get some corn, & added "you will not shoot me, will you?" upon which he replied that he would—The Deponent then told him that such conduct was contrary to law—when Baldwin answered that there was no law here—he had tried it long enough, & that Swift & he & thirty others had come down to take the corn by force & keep it. That he was armed with a rifle gun & two pistols. The deponent then left the field, & farther saith not.

QUESTION TO THE MAGISTRACY, 1784.

22d September, 1784.

Question to the Magistracy.

Whether from the evidence before them it was their opinion that we could proceed in the execution of the trust committed to us, with security to our persons? & what security, if any, they could give us?

ANSWER OF JUSTICES OF WYOMING, 1784.

Gentlemen,

We have considered the Question which you were pleased to put to us yesterday with all the attention of which we are capable, and now offer it as our joint opinion that you cannot proceed to the Execution of the Trust committed to you, with security to your persons or to the dignity of the State which is so Inseparably connected with it.

We have also contemplated every means in our power to give you the protection you wish for, and can find it only in the interposition of an armed force.

We are therefore induced to propose to your own consideration the Propriety of applying to this alternative, while we cannot in Justice to what we believe to be the sentiments of a very respectable part of this Community, but declare that a force Verry adequate to your protection can be Immediately obtain'd.

As Mr. Mead intimated that it would be inconvenient for him to meet us this Afternoon, we have thought proper to come to this separate report, that you may be early enabled to proceed to some resolutions upon it.

We are however happy to add that Mr. Meads sentiments upon this subject have exactly corresponded with ours.

ANSWER OF DAVID MEAD, 1784.

Agreeable to your request, I must inform, that at present from circumstances, I am induced to believe that you cannot Travil through the different settlements of this place with bodily saifty.

COMMISSIONERS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Wyoming, 24th September, 1784.

Sir,

The papers enclosed will explain to your Excellency and Council the interruptions we have met in executing the trust reposed in us. The spirit of violence which presented itself upon our arrival at this place & the daring outrage upon the person of Major Boyd, which immediately followed, were so alarming in themselves and connected with so many exaggerating circumstances as to produce the inclosed application to the Magistracy (mark'd No 7) their reply (No 8)* while it confirmed our apprehensions of farther violence left us however a good deal embarrass'd, & has made this communication immediately necessary. Your Excellency will observe that while they give us assurances that "a force adequate to our protection may be immediately obtained" they leave it to "our own determination whether an application to this alternative be necessary or expedient. Upon this point we have some doubts; which have grown out of a belief that a step of this kind in us would induce to hostilities & precipitate this unfortunate country again into blood shed. We therefore commit ourselves in this instance to the wisdom of council & hope from that for such a decision as will best promote the intentions of Government & the interest of the public.

As we feel ourselves oblig'd to offer matters of opinion as well as fact to your Honorable board we cannot suppress our apprehensions that the grain now on the ground will begin some immediate violence. It has already been the subject of dispute, and we have been press'd by some of the Connecticut claimants, to an immediate decision upon it, as the great point upon which the peace of this country depended. We have been told that unless this decision was in their favor, an appeal to arms would be the consequence. We are here lead to one observation which cannot but make Council as unhappy as the cause of it has made us, viz., that the lenity of government so explicitly shown by their late laws & resolutions in favor of this description of people, do not seem to have yet had all the effect upon their disposition, which was to have been expected from it, while on the other hand we cannot but declare our happiness in finding the Pennsylvania claimants, in every instance, which has fallen under our observations, accommodating themselves to the acknowledged principles of order and good government.

We are sir, with the highest respect your Excellency's most obedient & very humble Servants,†

The Deponent replied he did not think they would,—to which Baldwin answered, that tho' they (the party) should not, he would fire upon them, for it was his determination not to be taken alive,—that if it had not rained that morning, they would have pulled Lanterman's corn—had Twenty or Thirty men for that purpose, & as many others to support them. The Deponent advised him not, & recommended a submission to the laws—To which he said, "We will be damn'd if we submit to the laws of this State or any other, but live independant—the Corn we will have, & the ground too—then you will see the Vermonters turn out—this Country has always been in dispute, the strongest party has ever kept it, & we will now keep it." The Deponent further saith, that Baldwin & Stevens added—We would not have flogg'd Boyd, had he not been a damn'd Rascal—that what he had received was but a beginning—that wherever they met him they would beat him, & let him know that before he left this Country—that as for Col. Armstrong, if ever they catch'd him, they might leave the life in him but that would be all. They added, that they had not a far-thing of interest here, but that they had been hired at the rate of three half joes a man by the Connecticut claimants to fight here,—& that in addition to this, they were to divide the lands among those that did fight—that if it were not for 10 or 12 persons among them, the Pennsylvanians might live in peace and without any disturbance, & have the Country to themselves, and that they now were here by the advice and persuasion of Franklin, Johnstone, Peirce and others, and that otherwise they should have left this long ago—and farther this Deponent saith not.

ADVERTISEMENT OF COMMISSIONERS OF WYOMING, 1784.

Whereas the Hon'ble the Supreme Executive Council have by their resolution of the 9th Instant, appointed us, the subscribers to carry into effect a resolution of the General Assembly taken on the 7th of the same Month for the following purposes, viz.,

"1st, To obtain the most exact knowledge they can get of the names of the Widows & Children of such persons as were lately settled at or near Wyoming, and have fallen fighting against the Savages."

"2dly, Of all such others as did actually reside on the Lands at or near Wyoming when the late Decree was given at Trenton, 30th Dec'r, 1782."

"3dly, Of the Widows & Children of such of them as have since died."

"4thly, Of the quantity of Land possessed by each of the persons before described at the time of his Death, or of the said Decree respectively."

"5thly, Of the Improvements on each of the said parcels of Land."

"6thly, Of the nature of the Claim on which the possessions of each parcel as aforesaid was founded."

"7thly, Of the Evidences in support of such Claim."

"8thly, Of what parts of such Lands are claimed under Pennsylvania, &c."

"9thly, By whom."

We do therefore give this public notice to all concerned that on
VOL. X.—29

Monday next we will begin to receive all such Information upon the preceeding Subjects (excepting the 5th article,) as may be laid before us, and for this purpose we have thought it proper to direct that the Inhabitants of the Township of Stoke will attend on Monday, Tuesday & Wednesday next, and the Inhabitants of Shawana Township on Thursday, Friday & Saturday following at the House of John Hollenback in the Township of Stoke.

INHABITANTS OF WYOMING TO COMMISS'ES READ AND OKELY, 1784.

Wyoming, Sept. 25th, 1784.

Gentlemen,

We can't but observe the good Intention of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania in behalf of the Connecticut Claimants, in the late Resolve of that Honorable House; which reflects much Honor upon them, and will terminate much in Favor of the Connecticut Claimants: And also the Resolve of the General Assembly, authorising the President, and Council to appoint Commissioners, to repair to Wyoming, in order to ascertain the Names of those brave men who fought, bled and expir'd in the glorious Cause of liberty and Property.

And what Quantity of Lands they occupied, and posses'd; and also, the Names of the Widdows and Fatherless Children; that the General Assembly might be in a Capacity to make a just Discrimination, and extend their Humanity and Commiseration to those Persons who had been the greatest Sufferers, by the Depridations of the Savages: And also the names of those who liv'd here at the Decree at Trenton, the Quantity of Lands they possessed at that Time, their Title, &c.—The above Resolves we can't but take the greatest Notice of, and assure you Gentlemen, that our Hearts glow with Gratitude, and high Esteem for that Honourable House; yet at the same Time let us tell you, that we are sorry to say, that we have just Reason to suspect that two of the Commissioners, are so prejudiced against the Connecticut Claimants that its impossible for them to do Justice, and therefore very unfit persons to act in that Capacity.

The Gentlemen whom we refer to are Lt. Colo. John Armstrong and John Boyd, Esq'r, who have once deceived us by forfiting their word and Honour; especially Colo. John Armstrong; and now appears to be replete with Prejudice, and we may say Malice against us: for when the civil Question was asked Esq'r Boyd, is Colo.

Armstrong one of the Commissioners, the said Colo. spoke & said yes I am, and I will make you know it too.

Now Gentlemen, we leave you to judge, whether a man, who is capable of giving such an answer to Gentlemen, and at the same Time show'd such Prejudice is fit for a Commissioner. We have reason to believe that no justice can come from Men, who have such Prepossessions, and Prejudices, against us, as those Gentlemen appear to have; together with the Ill Treatment, the Connecticut Claimants have already received from the above mentioned Gentlemen.

Therefore, we the Subscribers do most solemnly and in the name of every thing that is sacred and dear to us as Christians throw in our Protestations against John Boyd, Esq'r, and Lt. Colo. John Armstrong, acting in the Capacity of Commissioners, especially the latter.

JOHN FRANKLIN, &c., TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

His Excellency the President, and the Supreme Executive Council of the Common Wealth of the State of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen,

We are truly sorry that the good Intentions of the Hon'ble the General Assembly of this State in a late Resolve, Relative to the Reinvestment of the People call'd the Connecticut Claimants, is in all Probability like to prove ineffectual, and to no purpose, and also that the Gentlemen Commissioners who were sent here to investigate matters, and Reconcile the unhappy Animosities which subsisted between the New England and Pennsylvanian Parties, were conducted in the manner they were; And we likewise lament that your Hon'ble Body were so unfortunate as to appoint John Boyd Esqr. and Lt. Colo. John Armstrong Commissioners, who have antecedent to this appointment been here and used the People call'd the Connecticut Claimants, in the most shameful and abusive manner possible, they Punished the Innocent and let the guilty go with Impunity; Partiality marked their Vestiges and crown'd their proceedings; every Impartial Spectator Exclaimed against their Cruel and unjust Treatment towards the New England settlers, even those who were so unhappy as to accompany those two Gentlemen to the Banks of Susquehannah. And the world even upon a bare relation of their conduct stand Agash'd, and Thunderstruck.— But Gentlemen we would not wish to dwell long upon this first irregular step of their Proceedings, which they Call a Conquest, and boast of their Generalship that they have out General'd the Yankeys, &c., but to come to facts more recent which happened at the time of their acting in the Hon'ble sphere of Commissioners at this Place. The Second Day after the arrival of the Commissioners they Desired some of our People to meet them at Mr. John Holoback's Innkeeper; accordingly a number of the People (call'd the Connecticut Claimants,) waited upon them to know their Intentions, and the business and Import of their Mission; and when we met these Gentlemen, we knew not who or how many of them were Commissioners, and the Question was asked Esqr. Boyd whether Colo. Armstrong was one of the Commissioners, the said Colo. never waited for Esqr. Boyd to give the Solution to the Question ask'd, but spoke in a very haughty and Insulting manner and said, yes I am, and I will make you know it too; The Commissioners likewise informed us that their Business was entirely with the Connecticut Claimants, And that they had none with Patterson or any of his adherents; yet notwithstanding appeared to do all their Business for several Days with that Enemy of all good; which so Exaperated the Connecticut People (so call'd) that they desired a Remonstrance might be drew against John Boyd Esq'r, and Colo. John Armstrong, acting in the Capacity of Commissioners; for they were persuaded that no justice could Possibly be administered by men who were apparently replete with Prepossessions and Prejudices against those with whom they Pretended to have to treat with; accordingly a Remonstrance was drew up against those two Commissioners, and signed by upwards of Eighty Respectable men in the Settlement, but the Gentlemen Commissioners had absconded before we had time to Convey the same to James Read, and John Oakly, Esqrs., to whom the Remonstrance was directed.

Tho' antecedent to their Departure, Patterson and Colo. Armstrong as it is believed, made a false alarm and had a party of their own men in the night of the 28th Inst. to attack the Garrison, and several of the Neighbouring houses in a most violent manner, firing into the Rooms of the houses where People were lying in bed, and alarmed the whole Settlement, and then most Feloniously said the Yankeys attempted to take the Fort by storm, and that they had done all that mischief to the Inhabitants, which so Intimidated the Commissioners that they look'd upon it Dangerous for them to tarry any longer in the Settlement.

This Insurrection of their own Party was done to frustrate the good Intention of Government, and excite the Connecticut People to repair to arms in Defence of their lives and Property. This together with the insults and abuses that the Connecticut party are Daily receiving by being confined in the Garrison by Patterson and his party, without Law or Justice, and knowing the Garrison to be a harbour and place of Rendezvous for those Tories worse than Savages who have sacrificed hundreds of our Inhabitants during the late unhappy war, and now frequently repairing to the Garrison from Niagara, and elsewhere, and there Protected and harbour'd by that most ungodly Patterson and his party; so Exasperated some of the Connecticut party that in the night of the 27th inst., a small number of about fifteen only of those who had been drove to almost Desperation, and falsely accused of making the alarm the night before; attack'd the Fort in good Earnest not out of any Design against Government or the Laws of this State, but in support of the same, and in order to relieve one of the Connecticut party who had the Day before been Confined in a guard house in the Garrison, by Patterson and his Officers without the Colour of Law, when the attack was made they told the People in the Garrison next time to make a false alarm and then to lay it to the Yankees—having Previous to the attack made a Demand of the Prisoners as well as of a number of Rifles and other fire arms which had been forcible taken from them by Patterson and his Party and still Detain'd or otherwise a surrender of the Garrison.

If they had Ransack'd the Regions of Darkness and Consulted all the Infernal Powers of Hell, they could not fram'd a greater falsehood than the laying the first alarm to the Connecticut party; but Patterson and his associates are so fastid and Prolific in the lying way that they would Deceive the very Elect if it were Possible, and overturn and subvert the Foundation of Government.

We do most solemnly and in the Name of the Great Jehovah, who is the searcher of hearts, say, that the Connecticut Party (as we are called,) had no hand in the first alarm and knew nothing of the affair, Directly or Indirectly, and that we stand ready to prove our Innocency, and show to the Impartial World the abuses, and Insults we have received from Patterson and those call'd the Pennsylvanian Party, the Injustice, Rapine, Plunder and murder, together with every species of Cruelty, &c.

The report is that the Commissioners said their mission was to find out the objects of Charity, and then make them Liberal Donations.

It is Protection and the Benefits of Law we have been long asking for. The Restoration of our Property and our just Rights, is what we have been Pleading for. It is our most invaluable Priviledges we are Contending for, and not for Charitable Donations.

Our Petitions, Remonstrances, and addresses have been Repeated to your Hon'ble Body, and the House of Assembly, untill our Patience is worn out, and no Relief is granted us. We have ask'd for Justice and we Declare to God who knows our hearts, that Justice is all we wish for. Our Prayers and Intreaties appear finally to be Rejected and Contemn'd—And we have Reason to believe that there is no good Designed for us from this State.

Wishing your Hon'ble Body to be under the Guidance and Benediction of Almighty God, we say Amen.

JOHN FRANKLIN,
EBENEZER JOHNSON,
PHINEHAS PIERCE.

Wyoming, Oct. 5th, 1784.

DEPOSITION OF CAPT. SHOEMAKER, &c., 1784.

Before me, John Seely, Esq., one of the Justices of the Peace in & for the County of Northumberland, appeared Henry Shoemaker, Esqr., and being duly sworn doth Depose & say, that about 2 O'Clock in the Morning on Tuesday, the 28th Inst., came to the house where the fort was, a Number of People known by the Name of the Connecticut Claimants, & after giving a Number of Indian Yells, they, the s'd Enemyes, began a Very heavy fire on the house with Rifles and Musquetry. (the Deponent & the Other Gentlemen were in bed) Mr. Samuel Read, as he was Rising in his bed, Received a Mortal wound through the Back & in the guts. Mr. Andrew Henderson, striving to gain another house, was wounded in five Different places, one of which is in the Breast, suppos'd to be Mortal. The Enemy,

During the fire, made several attempts to fire the Dwelling house & burn up (alive) all that was in it; they Continued firing about two hours, Broke open the Publick Store house, carried off some Arms and a Quantity of Ammunition; farther the Deponent saith not.

HENRY SHOEMAKER.

ALEX. PATTERSON TO COL. JOHN ARMSTRONG, 1784.

Wyoming, Sept'r 28th, 1784.

Sir,

Eleven hours after you Left this place We were Surrounded by the Connecticut Band. They kept up a hot and Incessant fire for the Space of Two hours; you know that our House is not proof against Shot; poor Lieuts Reed & Henderson are boath Mortally Wounded. Mr. Reed is Shot from the Back and into the Guts; Henderson is Shot in five places, one of which is in his Breast; that is the Dangerous one. Capt. Shoemaker and Henderson attempted to gain the Blockhouse; poor Henderson fell at the Door; Capt. Shoemaker Gained the Blockhouse to whose Exertions we owe our Lives who remain. The Enemy put a burning Toarch to our House, which struck me with the utmost Horror. I stript myself naked and went out at the window and Pushed the fire off with my Gun. Soon after, Capt. Shoemaker, as we Suppose, Killed or Mortally wounded one of the Villians; we heard his Groans. This morning Discovered Much Blood and found his Rifle.—From the Time you left us we had only Time to remove the Arms and ammunition into Shrawder's Room, where they are safe. The Justices, with myself, purpose calling in the Country and will Endeavor to Make a stand untill we hear from Government, which I pray God may be soon.

There is no Doubt but that Johnson, Franklin and Perce were among the Murderers.

Oh! for Pitty's sake stimulate Government to Grant us Immediate and Effectual relief; it is not Possible to Describe my Mortification for my Two Brave, Gentlemanly Bosom friends. I have no more Time. Adieu.

I am, Sir, with Much Esteem,
Your Most Obedt. Serv't,

ALEX'R PATTERSON.

The Inclosed Depositions you will herewith receive.

COMMISSIONERS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Philad'a, 1st October, 1784.

Sir,

We beg leave to take up the report of our proceedings under the late appointment of Council, where our letter of the 25th left it.

The disposition to violence discovered by the Connecticut Claimants, while it gives us room to apprehend an immediate outrage of the public peace, could not entirely suspend our endeavors to execute the intentions of Government; & tho' we regretted that want of confidence which the resolutions of the Assembly supposed, & which, at first view, we considered as inseperable from the service we were instructed to perform,—yet we could not feel ourselves justified in omitting anything which but tended to remove such ill-founded prejudice & reconcile the minds of this deluded people to the admission of a service so evidently calculated to promote their exclusive interest. To effect this desirable purpose, the first step which presented itself to us as necessary or proper, was the promulgation of the objects for which we came—this was made in a manner which of all others we flattered ourselves would most contribute to a cheerful reception of it: It was put into the hands of one of their very confidential men, who engaged to second it with all his professional as well as personal influence—This was the Reverend ——— Johnston.

With these dispositions, and in this manner, did we enter upon the discharge of our trust, when a very serious interruption was given to our farther proceedings. About 12 O'Clock at night, on Sunday the 26th Instant, a party of the Connecticut Claimants, whose number is yet undetermined, attempted to break open the store-house in which the public & other Arms were deposited. It is probable that their Original design upon this occasion went no farther, and that if they had been able to succeed in the robbery, no other excess would have immediately followed,—but having been early discovered from a neighbouring house (the Quarters of Col.

Armstrong) & meeting with some opposition from thence, they soon turned their arms thither & exchanged several shot with that Gentleman & three or four others who were with him. Retiring, however, from this resistance, they carried their attack to the house of Mr. John Hollebach, where the remaining part of Us lodged, & after discharging several guns upon it (from the effects of which Messieurs Boyd & Oakley very narrowly escap'd) they then withdrew into the bushes & disappeared. We now saw an end to our business with the utmost regret, & that it was improper for us to remain longer in a Country where every moment threatened us with the dangers of assassination. Under the influence of this Opinion, we called upon the Magistrates & some other principal Pennsylvania Claimants, & left with them a paper of acknowledgements for the support which they had in every instance discovered an inclination to give us—of advice,—to keep themselves in as defensible a state as possible, & of assurance that as we believed the late attack upon us to be introductory to farther mischief, we would exert every nerve in our power to bring Government into some decisive measures for their relief. Under these assurances we left them about 8 O'Clock, on Monday the 27th Instant. The events which have since happened, & which have been brought forward by Express, are truly lamentable, & serve to confirm the opinions we have already express'd of the intended violence of the Connecticut Claimants, & the distress & suffering which we are afraid the better subjects of the State are fated to undergo. Captain Patterson's letter of the 28th & the deposition of Capt. Shoemaker of the same date, are submitted as a part of this report.

We beg leave to close this representation by offering to Council the result of our enquiries into the character of the people called Connecticut Claimants. With very few exceptions, they appear to be a Banditti, who, having fled from the Operation of other laws, are very unwilling to submit to the restraint of ours, & who are without any well-founded pretensions to either property or reputation

We are, Sir, with all possible respect,

Your Excellency's & Council's

Most Obedient hum. servants,

JNO. BOYD,

JOHN ARMSTRONG, jun.,

JAMES READ,

J. OKELY.

His Excellency President Dickinson.

GEN'L J. ARMSTRONG TO JOHN SEELY, 1784.

Sir,

I have no other objection in wishing you to come to an interview with John Franklin, but that you may have an opportunity of learning from himself why so many of the Connecticut claimants have thus wantonly run into an armed opposition to the laws of the state? Why they have committed so many depredations upon the peaceable and unoffending; & whether they yet continue even to profess an allegiance to this Commonwealth? If to the last question he should answer in the affirmative, you will then explain what that allegiance requires, and what it forbids? The necessity there is for immediately laying down his arms and submitting himself and his followers to the operation of justice and the penalty should he neglect or refuse to comply.

I am, Sir, your
most obed't servt.,

J. ARMSTRONG,
jun'r Sec'y.

Draw from him an acknowledgement that he has seen the proclamation,* and knows the penalty incurred by abetting, comforting and associating with the Culprits mentioned therein.

It may be well enough to repeat that he has already heard what you know to have been the intention of Government in sending the Letter.

Mr. Seely came to an interview with John Franklin and reports: that he y<sup>e</sup> said Franklin made y<sup>e</sup> following answers to the preceding questions. To the 1st he replied "for his own safety." To the 2d he made no other answer but that "it was against his inclination y<sup>e</sup> any outrage upon person's property should be committed." And to y<sup>e</sup> last he answered in the affirmative.

When Mr. Seely asked how he could reconcile to these professions—his carrying arms and fitting himself in opposition to the laws, he replied, "y<sup>e</sup> his own defence made it necessary." Mr. Seely then declared his conduct to be contrary to the law & pointed out the necessity of their immediately dispersing, to y<sup>e</sup> he made no other reply as to himself, but that if he should, he was apprehensive of abuse, adding "what would then become of the people mentioned in the Proclamation for whom rewards were offered?"

In the course of conversation Franklin acknowledged that he had sent a state of facts to the Government of Connecticut, and the Sasquehanna Comy. and expected support from them.

The conversation between Mr. Franklin and myself as narrated above in the hand writing of General Armstrong is as literally true as I can remember.

Sir,

We understand that you are obstinate and treat the Yankees very ill; therefore this is to warn you in the name of the Connecticut Claimants to depart and leave the house of Mr. Richard Hollsted, in 12 hours in peace or expect trouble. LT. FRANCIS MURRAY TO BRIGADIER GEN. ARMSTRONG, 1784.

Bishop's Tavern,

October 10th, 1784. 9 O'Clock, P. M.

Sir,

I am sorry to be under the disagreeable necessity of informing you that I have in the first instance failed in being able to furnish you with men agreeable to my orders of the 1st instant, Received of the Supreme Executive Council. I issued orders to Col. John Keller, Commanding the 1st Battalion of Bucks County Militia, to have four Companies of his Battalion paraded at Bishops Tavern, Viz.: Capt. Skinners, Friecees, Bishops and Kechlines, (they being the companies of said Battalion nearest to said Bishops,) at nine o'clock this morning with their arms accoutrement and ready to march from said place on a tour of Duty, intending when the men ordered here, if there was more men than the exigency required to take as many more out of the classes that stood next for duty as would answer the purpose except there appeared to be a sufficient number willing to turn out as volunteers, which Latter I had some expecta-ties of. But when the companies arrived, I found it dangerous for any man to say he was willing to turn out either in his own company or as a Volunteer, that any man that did so was in danger of being beat by the others. I then gave orders to the different captains before mentioned, to call forth and parade as many men as I then named to them out of the fifth and sixth classes of their companies as amounted to the number wanted. The captains obeyed the orders so far as they were able, called for the persons by name but was not able to parade one man.

Finding it was impossible to get men to-day and numbers of them complaining that the time was too short, and having some reason to believe that some of them would turn out if allowed a little time to prepare, I gave a further order to the captains aforesaid to have the men that were now called upon paraded on Thursday next, at nine o'clock in the morning, ready to march on a Tour of Duty from the parade. I was chiefly induced to adopt this second order, as I knew I would not be able out of the number called to get as many men at an earlier period as would be worth a marching, and as I found I would be under the necessity of calling on the Colonel for a supply of men from the other four companies, any further attempts to get men out of these four companies already called, I looked upon to be useless. I have now issued orders to Colonel Skeller, directing him to draw forth the sixth class out of the remaining companies of his Battalion and have them paraded at the same time and place that I have directed the others before mentioned, to parade ready to march from said place on a Tour of duty. You may depend, sir, I shall use every exertion in my power to march the men on Thursday next; but at the same time I am sorry to be under the necessity of informing you from what I have already Experienced, that I have but small expectation of effecting it, chiefly owing to wrong ideas, that the more leading part of the people have formed of the expedition. For further particulars, I refer you to the Bearer, Captain Friece.

I am, with the greatest respect and Esteem your obedientt humble Servt.,

MEMORIAL OF JOHN FRANKLIN, &amp;c., TO ASSEMBLY OF CONNECTICUT, 1784.

To the Honourable General Assembly now sitting at New Haven.

The Memorial of John Franklin, Ebeneser Johnston and Phineas Pierce all of Wyoming in behalf of themselves, and other Inhabitants, Settlers and Claimers of the Lands situate on the Waters of the River Susquehanna under Confidence in the Title of the State of Connecticut,—humbly sheweth

That the Memorialists before the commencement of the late War purchased of the aborigines, Owners and Claimers of the aforesaid Territory of Country the Lands lying and being in the forty first Degree of Northern Latitude, and situate upon the Waters of the said River Susquehanna for great and valuable considerations which purchase has since been duly confirmed by this Honbl. Assembly.

That by the Countenance, and approbation of this State your memorialists (braving every danger) settled themselves upon the Lands aforesaid, improved and cultivated the same, erected Houses Mills, and other necessary Buildings for their accommodation and Convenience, and were incorporated as a distinct County under this State, which privileges, they enjoyed for several years, during which Time their numbers increased to five Thousand souls and the Militia to Eleven Hundred men capable of bearing Arms.

That in the beginning of the late War the Memorialists were fully in the Measures of this, and the other States, and furnished nearly three full Companies of Men for the Army of the United States.

That in the year 1778 their Country was invaded by the Savages, aided by a party of Tories in the pay, and service of the King of Great Britain, and in a set Battle with them two Hundred and three of their best Warriors fell in the Field and were sacrificed by an exulting Foe, their Country plundered their Houses burnt and the Country laid waste, the whole of the Inhabitants then remaining obliged to flee for safety to the adjoining settlements.

That soon after your Memorialists at their only Endeavours and expence, reinstated themselves in the aforesaid Country and drove the Savages therefrom.

That for about the space of four years after your Memorialists were compelled to confine themselves within narrow Limits, and were constantly under arms for their safety, and defence, during which Time little more could be done in cultivating the Lands than sufficient to sustain themselves.

That many attacks were made upon them by the Savages in which a large proportion of their Friends and neighbours were slain and captivated. That nearly two thirds of the male Inhabitants capable of bearing arms at the Commencement of the present War have fallen by the Hands of the Enemy, whose Widows and Fatherless Children were left in the Country.

That after the Decree at Trentown your Memorialists were made to believe that the Jurisdiction of their Country was in the State of Pennsylvania, and applied to the Legislature of said State for the benefits of Civil Government under that Jurisdiction, and for the obliteration of all former supposed offences together with a Confirmation of the Title to their Lands.

That the Memorialists have from Time to Time been flattered with assurances from the Legislature, and Executive authority of Pennsylvania, that their Persons and properties should be secured to them, yet officers Civil and military have been sent among them of the most desperate Characters; That they have been oppressed with vexatious suits commenced against them by the opposing Claimers and their Creatures, and no legal Justice ever has been, or could be obtained against any of their oppressors.

That an armed Force has been kept up in the Country, and Garrisoned in the midst of their Settlements, who have from Time to Time in the most wanton, and unjustifiable manner, abused, imprisoned, beat, wounded, and Insulted the memorialists, at other Times have robbed the Inhabitants of their property, and on the 14th day of May last put one Alexander Patterson a Justice of Peace and one Major Moore commanding the Troops stationed at Wyoming by order of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, by artifices disarmed the Inhabitants, and then Collected them together, men, Women, and Children without destination, and drove them out of the Country three days Journey into the Wilderness, destitute of Provisions, having previously denied them the privilege of collecting and carrying with them any considerable part of their personal property. That representations were immediately made to the Executive authority of the State of Pennsylvania, and soon after to the Legislature thereof, and no Relief hath been given to them.

That soon after your memorialists having made the best provision in their power for the support of their Families, returned to Wyoming with design to secure their Grain then nearly ripened, That the said Moore and Patterson gave orders to their Party to Fire upon, kill, and destroy your memorialists when ever they could be found, That five of their youth have been Cruelly slain by them, others taken, and imprisoned, loaded with Shackles of Iron, Eleven of which are still in the Common Goal at Easton in the County of Northampton, and are to be tryed this Week for their Lives, for no other Reason than defending themselves against the barbarous Conduct of their avowed and implacable Enemies.

That your memorialists have been seduced, betrayed and ruined by the spurious pretences held out to them as from Government, which they are now fully ascertained off.

That no Faithfulness, Honor, Justice, or ordinary Civility is expectable by them, those that are disposed to assist us being overawed by the apparent Influence of our adversaries with Government are afraid to grant us any Relief.

And your memorialists beg leave farther to observe that they humbly conceive, the Decree at Trenton was unduly obtained by Imposition, and ought to be reviewed and reconsidered by the Honorable Congress as unfounded and wrong.

That your memorialists are now reduced to about 2,000 souls (notwithstanding the usual Increase expectable in a new Country) the principal part of which are Women, and Children now scattered in the Woods with only Hutts of Bark and Thatch to cover them from the Inclemency of the approaching Winter, and their Enemies in full possession of their Houses, Farms, Crops and other property and they starving with Hunger and Cold and have no where to look for protection [but] to their parent State, and may they not be permitted to say the State of Connecticut have been deprived of the Jurisdiction of the aforesaid Country in so injurious a manner and your memorialists so maltreated, that their Honor, Interest; and future respectability as a sovereign State, is highly concerned, and demands speedy and ample satisfaction.

Wherefore, we humbly pray your Honors to take our distressed Case into your wise, and benign Consideration and extend to us your aid, Countenance, and patronage in seeking restitution and establishment of our Just Rights and properties against our adversaries, who have exercised towards us every species of Fraud, Seduction and Cruelty, and the memorialists as in duty bound will ever pray.

RESOLUTION OF ASSEMBLY OF COUNCIL ON FOREGOING MEMORIAL, 1784.

At a Generally Assembly of the State of Connecticut in America holden at New Haven in said State on the second Thursday of October Anno Dom, 1784

Upon the Memorial of John Franklin, Ebenezer Johnson and Phineas Pierce all of Wyoming in behalf of themselves and others Inhabitants, Settlers and Claimers of a large tract of Country situate upon the Waters of the River Susquehannah within the Charter Limits of this State.

Shewing to this Assembly that by the Countenance and approbation of the late Colony now State of Connecticut they having the strongest Reason to believe the Territory aforesaid was within the Jurisdiction of said State, purchased the same of the aborigines; native Proprietors of the Country aforesaid for a great and valuable consideration, and obtained from them a Deed of bargain, and Sale, executed, and completed according to the usual and established Customs of Conveyance used by said Natives of all the Lands situate within the forty second degree of Northern Latitude, from Ten miles East, of the Easterly branch of said River Susquehanna West one hundred and twenty Miles, and thereby acquired a just, and equitable Title to said Lands, and for many years have been incorporated, and in the full exercise of Government under the Laws of the said State of Connecticut untill the publication of the Decree of the Court of Commissioners held at Trenton in the Month of November 1782 when the State of Connecticut was unexpectedly deprived of their Jurisdiction over the Territory aforesaid. That thereupon the memorialists by their humble petition made application to the State of Pennsylvania to be owned, and acknowledged as Citizens of that State to have the Title to their Houses, Lands &c., confirmed to them and to enjoy the Protection of the Laws and Government of said State; That they were repeatedly flattered with expectations favourable and benign but are at last totally disappointed in their just Expectation and are now fully convinced the apparent favourable disposition of Government towards them has been improved by their opponants to the contrary Purpose, and turned wholly to their disadvantage whereby they have been deprived of their Houses, Lands and other property even their necessary Food, that they have been twice disarmed, and are now driven with their helpless Families into the Wilderness in this Inclement season, without Cover, Cloathing or Sustenance, and now address themselves to the Justice and humanity of this State imploring for Heavens sake Their Protection, assistance and aid as pr memorial on file.

Resolved, by this assembly that it is expedient for the memorialists to persue their application to the Congress of the United States for a tryal of their Right of soil and Possession agreeable to the 9th of the articles of Confederation and that this State will Countenance and patronize them in such application, and tryal in order to obtain for them that Justice this State apprehends the memorialists are intitled to, and the Delegates from this State in Congress are directed to give them all necessary assistance in the premises and his Excellency the Governor is requested to adress the Congress of the United States on the subject of their situation and sufferings and also address a full state of their Claims &c., to the State of Pennsylvania remonstrating against the Barbarities and Cruelties exercised towards the memorialists and requesting a Redress of their Grievances, and a Restoration of their Rights, Properties and possessions under the protection of the Laws and Government of said State of Pennsylvania.

BRIGADIER GEN. ARMSTRONG TO INHABITANTS OF WYOMING, 1784.

Whereas the S. Executive Council of this Commonwealth have by their resolution of the 1st day of October last, directed that a body of Militia be immediately called into service and moved with the utmost expedition to the townships of Shawana and Stoke, in the County of Northumberland, for the purpose of "protecting the more peaceable inhabitants of the said townships, against the violence of the Banditti now infesting those settlements, and for the better support of the civil authority there:" and whereas, by the resolution of the same date, the direction of these troops is committed to me; this is therefore to require that all the inhabitants of the aforesaid districts well affected to the Government of this Commonwealth, do immediately repair to this place & by so doing give evidence of their allegiance and submission to the laws; that they also renounce all connection with the Culprits, whose names are mentioned in the Proclamation annexed, and that they not only deny them all comfort and protection, but that they exert themselves in apprehending and bringing to justice all and every of the above mentioned Culprits, their associates and abettors: and whereas, it is "and ever has been the object of government to extend mercy as well as to render justice to all its subjects; this is also to assure such as may have been deluded into a hasty and mistaken opposition to its laws, and who under the influence of this delusion, have left their places of usual abode, and assembled themselves in arms for the very unlawful purpose of defending a description of men, who have rendered themselves obnoxious to the severest punishment; that if they will immediately return to their allegiance and their industry, Every possible representation in their favor shall be made to government, and that no effort in my power shall be wanting to procure forgiveness. Such however, as, lost to their own interest, shall, in neglect of this warning continue to give their support to the insurgeants and oppose in arms the progress of the Laws, and those who are sent hither to establish & preserve them, must look for that punishment only which it is ever in the power of the State to inflict, should it become either her duty or inclination.

BRIG. GEN'L ARMSTRONG TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Wyoming, 25th October, 1784.

Sir,

The enclosed Letter from L'Col. Murray* will inform your Excell<sup>y</sup> and Council of the very shameful delinquency of the Bucks County Militia. Those of Berks, tho' more obedient, were late in coming, and brought it down to the 14th Inst., before I could take a single step from the place of rendezvous. I then found myself at the head only of forty men; with these however, I got into march, and arrived at this place on Sunday following, without any other injury or interruption than such as arose from the difficulty of the route by which we mov'd.

I must now beg leave to state some of the circumstances which followed the assault of the 28th of September,—the situation in which I found the country; and the more important facts which have since happened.

The first event was immediately succeeded by the expulsion of such of the Pa. Claimants as were settled on the west side of the river; some of whom quitting the country entirely fell down the river as low as Checkshing, whither they have been since pursued and stript of the little which in the first instance they were permitted to carry with them. The others found a more secure refuge in the remains of what was the Fort. No. 2 is a copy of a circular letter with which the Pa. Claimants were respectively served about this time.

During these transactions the Magistrates, (Messrs. Seely, Mead, and Shoemaker) were not idle and did every [thing] in their power to call forth a spirit of exertion among the neighbouring people, but such was their distrust of themselves and each other, that few if any could be assembled,—they wrote also to the Lieut. of the county, entreating the immediate interposition of such armed force, as he could afford them; but Volunteers could not be found, and in the present unorganized state of the Militia, no order of his could reach them.

Witnesses of this immediate inefficiency of Government, and becoming stronger in the assurance of a growing superiority; The insurgeants began now to extend their outrages to this side of the river, and obliged the greater part of its inhabitants to such a division of the grain as gratified at once their licentiousness and their wants; what the latter spared the former in many instances destroyed and nothing was to be seen upon my arrival but insolence and rapacity: wretchedness and submission.

Small as my party was, it produced a temporary change in the conduct of both. The insurgeants were obliged to circumscribe their limits and the Pennsylvania Claimants enabled to gather in some part of their scattered harvest. It is however, to be regretted that its influence upon both has been less permanent than I could wish, for the moment that my force was found to be unequal to offensive operations, that moment I was attacked by the one, and in a great degree deserted by the other. In a little rencounter which took place a day or two ago, and which was brought on by an attempt to cover the labors of some poor people, who had been much and early distressed in this late disturbance. The insurgents sustained some loss, and were driven into a cluster of Log Houses, which my leading platoon, (mistaking their orders,) attempted to storm, but with out effect. In this affair I had two men slightly wounded. I need scarcely observe to your Excellency, that four logg houses, so constructed as to flank each other become a very formidable post, and set all attempts of near musquetry at defiance. I had no cannon, and the only alternative left me a close investment, became impracticable from a want of numbers. I was obliged therefore to relinquish the position I had taken, and with it, the happy prospect of exterminating this Banditti at once. Their whole force was stated at this point of time at 70 men. Among my informers on this subject is Mathew Terrel, whose deposition (No. 3) is enclos'd, & who with some others of a more timid or peaceable disposition have come and thrown themselves upon me for protection. This I have extended to all such without exception, and have only to regret that there are so few of them. This however cannot be either new or surprizing to Your Excellency, after the frequent evidence which the people called Connecticut Claimants have given of intended violence, & can only beget a farther assurance in government, that they have long since, ceased to deserve any thing of it, but its resentment. Whatever reluctance I may feel in becoming the minister of these, I cannot but offer it as my most serious opinion that they should be soon & vigorously exerted. The detachment now here, compleated to its original number with 100 additional troops would be very sufficient for this purpose; a less number would be much exposed to disaster if not to defeat.

I am with the highest respect, your Excellency's and Council's most obdt. Hble. Servt.,

DEPOSITION.

Before me John Seely, Esq., one of the Justices of the peace, in and for the county of Northumberland, came Mathew Tyrrell, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say that in the afternoon of Sunday, the 16th instant, being at the house of the Widow Harris, in company with Elisha Duke and John Kenedy, there came up Phineas Stevens and Gideon Church, who enquired whether he the deponent and those with him had heard of the arrival of the Militia; asking also, whether they intended to join them, & swearing that all such as did not, should be burnt out; and that they would hold the country or loose their lives; that under these threatnings, the deponent joined them on the morning following, where he found them collected at one Brookaways to the number of forty. At one Galors the deponent understood that there was another party of them, & that the above seemed to be their general language & temper. He further says, that he remained with them till Tuesday morning, when feigning sickness, he left them. Their leaders were John Franklin, Elisha Satterlee and Phen<sup>s</sup> Stevens.

BRIG. GEN. JOHN ARMSTRONG TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Sir,

I must beg leave to refer your Excellency to Capt. Armstrong for a relation of some facts which have taken place here to-day. They seem to be a consequence of a reinforcement brought down the river by Swift. The treatment of the Lackawany people has been excessively cruel. Since my packet of yesterday was made up, I have heard that there are a few men upon their march from Bucks. Should they join me my whole Number will not exceed 50; & to suppose that half of these are to be depended upon in a moment of trial, would be a great stretch of Credulity.

DEPOSITION OF ABIGAIL JAMESON, 1784.

Pennsylvania, ss.

On the twenty-ninth day of October, anno domini one thousand seven hundred & eighty-four, before me, George Bryan, one of the Justices of the Supreme Court at Easton, in the County of Northampton, personally came Abigail Jamaison, of the Township of Stoke, in the County of Northumberland, Widow, who being duly sworn on the holy Gospels, deposeth & saith, that on the thirteenth day of May last past, this deponent was turned out of her house in Stoke aforesaid, & driven thence to New Jersey by divers persons armed with Guns & other Weapons; that in the month of June last this deponent returned again to her dwelling house in Stoke aforesaid, & there found Agnes Jamaison, mother-in-law of this deponent, inhabiting the said house; that this deponent continued at Stoke aforesaid, & together with said Agnes lived & dwelt in said house; that in the month of August last this deponent went to New Jersey, & after some stay there with her children, returned towards Stoke aforesaid, last Sunday week, having with her this deponent's daughter Hannah, of the age of two years or thereabouts, & passing by Bear Creek, twenty miles on this side of Stoke aforesaid, this deponent was stopped by Henry Shoemaker, Esquire, who said that this deponent could not get through, and that Jacob Oline led this deponent two miles back towards Colonel Stroud's; that after night, this deponent being left alone, proceeded again towards her house aforesaid at Stoke, & arrived there safely; that this deponent upon returning to her habitation at Stoke as aforesaid, found her Mother-in-law possessed of her house there, & that this deponent took possession of said house & dwelled there in peace, untill Wednesday the twentieth day of this present month of October, when going towards the fort to carry food for Robert Jamaison, then prisoner there, this deponent was stopped by Alexander Patterson, Esquire, & taken back to her own house, being five miles distant; that on the way the said Patterson & his men stopped at the Widdow Abigail Holliswood's & turned her out of possession of her dwelling. That about an hour after, the said Alexander Patterson & his party, about ten in all, came near to this deponent's dwelling, Patterson stopping at about twenty rods therefrom; that about ten men came up to this deponent's house & forcibly turned this deponent, the said Agnes Jamaison, Rosanna Jamaison, & the said Hannah Jamaison out of the same, & threw out at the same time this deponent's household & other goods; that one of the men who thus ousted this deponent as aforesaid, shut the doors & nailed them up; that the said Alexander Patterson, who acted as the director of the said party of men coming to the said House, threatened this deponent that her said house would be demolished over her head in case she went into it & lived there again, & ordered this deponent to look for other quarters; that the said Agnes Jamaison was at the time, when the said forcible dispossession was made, very sick & a-bed, & by the terror of the riotous proceedings aforesaid, was driven into an hysteric fit, & that the said Agnes, in this distressed condition, was carried out of the said house, & placed in the dwelling house of John Cressy, whose abode was near to this deponent's; that this deponent the next day after the deposition aforesaid, complained thereof to General Armstrong, who denied that the same had been done by his orders, or that his men had done it, but did not interfere or do anything to relieve this deponent.

PETITION OF PRISONERS AT EASTON, 1784.

The Honorable the Supreme Executive Council of the Commonwealth of the State of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen :

Suffer us, your humble Petitioners, to lay before your Honorable Body our distress'd Situation ; on the account of our Confinement, in this sultry Season of the Year, about thirty of us, confin'd in two small Rooms, in Irons, and nothing to live upon but one pound of Bread a Day, which has impair'd our health to that degree, that we are able just to walk our Room at present, but one week more such cruel Treatment will most certainly reduce us to the shades of Death and land us in the world of Spirits : This, Gentlemen, is no Chimera but God's Truth ; for our animal Spirits, together with our flesh, are almost exhausted by the Severities which we undergo in our Imprisonment, and no one to administer any Consolation to us. If we have done any thing worthy of Bonds, Imprisonment or Death, we refuse neither ; but to be confined here in this dismal place and not suffer'd to have the fresh air, which God has made free for all his Creation ; and not only deprived of this great and inconceivable blessing, but denied the necessaries of life, as tho' it was the determination of those who put us here, to destroy us by a lingering Death, and make that as gashly and formidable as possible ; we cannot possibly think but that we have stood up for the Honor and Dignity of this State in what we have done, and that the Aligation laid to our Charge originated in malice and revenge ; and we are not alone in our Judgment ; therefore we, your humble and injured Petitioners, would most humbly pray that your honorable Body would exert yourselves to do us Justice, and consequently emancipate us from this intolerable and, as we think, unjust Confinement, or we must soon be beyond your help or any finite Beings ; and if your Honorable Body can see fit in your wisdom and Goodness to grant our humble prayer, we will, as in Duty bound, ever pray, &c.

DEPOSITION,—JOSEPH KING, 1784.

Before me John Seely, Esqr., one of the Justices of the peace in and for the County of Northumberland came Joseph King, & being Duly sworn doth depose and say, that on Wednesday the third Instant, being at his Labour in Shawina Township with four others Thrashing Buckwheat, they were surrounded by a Number of Armed men and made prisoners, (Benjamin Badlock & Elisha Satterly commanded the party of Robbers,) they marched the said deponent with the others up to their place of Rendezvous & on the road abused the said deponent verry much by jabbing their guns in his sides, when they arrived near their quarters, they tied a Rope Round the Deponents neck and beat & abused the said Deponents without Mercy. John Franklin commander of s'd Body of Robbers, made the Deponent promise to Quit the country and never lift arms again, which if he did and they could lay their hands on him they would take his life, and upon those promises they let him go, the Deponent says that he is not yet able to lift a pail of Water on Account of the Bruises he received of the said Robbers, farther the deponent sayeth not.

JOHN SEELY TO GEN'L ARMSTRONG, 1784.

Sir,

Yesterday I had a conference with the three persons mentioned to you, this day at 11 o'clock I rec'd their ans'r they have agreed that upon sufficient assurances from under your hand & seal that all processes for their former transactions being stopt, and that they may have free Liberty of passing through the country unmolested, they will lay down their arms and never take them up again in opposition to the State of Pennsylvania, they Likewise say they must have one hundred Guineas to purchase themselves cloaths, &c.

Your Proposition of an act of Government to stop all suits ag't them, I have promised should be done. The Guineas I have not yet engaged them, but think it will save great Expence to the state to let them have them.

Also agreed that all Hostilities shall cease & no more Distresses made on the Inhabitants untill they have a meeting with you, which they request may be as soon as possible, and desire the same may be kept a profound secret from both parties, which if known may occasion them to take up arms again, I mean untill the matter is properly settled between you & them, they also say they will occasion the whole party to Disperse.

BRIG. GEN. ARMSTRONG TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1784.

Sir,

I had some time since the honor of stating to your Excellency & Council the situation in which I found the insurrection at Wyoming and some of the more important facts which had taken place upon my arrival.

Among the most early measures which I took to convince this deluded people of their mistaken conduct was the paper enclos'd (mark'd No. 1,*) which I forgot to transmit by Capt. Armstrong, the others, which are of the same nature have been attended by the same effect, none but replies of insolence were made to either.

Unable to attempt anything offensive I therefore took a resolution to come hither & consult the Judges of the Supreme Court upon the farther measures which in this situation ought to be taken. It was their opinion that a line of meer defensive conduct on the part of the State held out a promise of sooner bringing about the objects of Government than one of a more active nature. This, however reluctantly I was obliged to observe from the first moment I enter'd the Country, and am not sanguine in expecting any better consequence than we have already seen & felt, from an adherence to it.

* See page 676.

Every measure which supposes that farther Unity will produce better conduct will be found unavailing, but untill Government be so well assured of this truth as I ever have been, the milder expedients of forgiving & forgetting may be pursued.

Col. Johnstone who has been at Wyoming since I left it, will explain the appearances which presented themselves to him, they were such, as begat but few hopes of being able by gentle methods to extinguish a flame, which has extended itself to a whole people composed as they are of vagrants & desperadoes.

I shall remain here for a few days, untill I find myself better able to encounter the roughness of the roads & the season, & shall then sett out for Philad'a, after directing such a disposition of the few troops which desertion has left me, as will best promote the objects for which they were sent.

E. DOUGLASS TO SEC'Y ARMSTRONG, 1785.

Union Town, 27th January, 1785.

Sir,

Unwilling to send you this certificate of election in a blank, and desirous of saying something on the subject, I have sat with my head leaning on my hand these ten minutes to consider what that something should be, and after all have considered that whatever I could say upon it would amount to nothing, for I have not knowledge of Gentlemen foremost on it to justify my giving a character of him.

I have already been deceived into a misrepresentation to Council on a former one, for which I most penitentially beg forgiveness, protesting at the same time my innocency in it, for the Constable who made the return, and several others of the township of Manal-lin assured me it would be petitioned against, but I find they have not done it, nor are they attempting it. I can offer nothing more on that subject, unless it be that the township is in great want of a Justice. I have given their characters faithfully as I received them from the general voice of the inhabitants hereabout. Council in their wisdom will do the rest.

I have the honor to be with high esteem Sir,

Your most humble and obedient servant,

DELEGATES IN CONGRESS TO SPEAKER OF ASSEMBLY, 1785.

New York, Feb'y 11th, 1785.

Sir,

The appointment of Commissioners to carry into effect the ordinance of Congress for the Purpose of erecting federal buildings upon the banks of the Delaware has taken near four days of this week, and has this day been effected; Genl. Schuyler, Phil. Dickinson and Robt. Morris are the commissioners. Some States have not been hearty in the measure. Maryland has been principally active in delay—from what motives we are not at liberty to do more than conjecture. Perhaps the precipitate retreat of Congress last summer from their Capitol has its influence, or they rather wished the banks of the Potomack had been fixed for the permanent federal residence, which would have placed the Capital of the United States nearer them. But whatever reasons operated with them it is very evident that Congress have lost that influence at home and respectability abroad which are essentially necessary to conduct with advantage the concerns of a great nation, and which can never be regained while they are once or twice a year moving from place to place. Princeton, Annapolis and Trenton have been visited in order, & in the very hour of expectation each have experienced disappointment. New York is now the temporary residence untill a permanent one is provided, and if this should fail Perhaps this City in turn will feel her share of chagrin by another removal. In short, sir, there appears no end to removals but in the erection of a permanent federal House in which each State will have an interest and in some degree find themselves at home.

We gave a cheerful assent to the ordinance at Trenton, convinced of the advantage and necessity of the measure, and believing that it would meet the approbation of our constituents, who have generally stood first in executing every thing that appeared calculated to promote the honor and happiness of the federal government.

The Place proposed in the ordinance, whether on this or that side the Delaware is very favorable to Pennsylvania. Much of the money expended there will finally enter in our State—this deserves attention. The offer made by New Jersey of thirty thousand pounds and territorial Jurisdiction gave rise to an enquiry which we have frequently heard, what will Pennsylv. do? To this we cannot answer, but as the Legislature are now sitting, we state these things to you in order that they may have it in their power to favor us with their instructions upon this point as soon as convenient.

Wednesday next is appointed for discussing the report of a committee respecting the appointment of additional commissioners of accts., and we have reason to hope it will fully answer the intention of the house. A compleat Copy of the Laws and resolutions of the legislature since the Revolution are very necessary for us, therefore we request that we may be furnished with them as early as convenient.

We have heard nothing of the Wyoming Business since we last wrote you.

We have Honor to be Sir,

Your very h'ble Servts.,

In Sept. 1783, my husband James Boggs Recd instructions from Brigadear Genl. Irwin with his permission for to settle & Improve on the Reserved Tract, of Land oposite to Fort Pitt, as will appear by a Copy of his instructions sent by Mr. Galbreath the Bearer of this who has some knowledge of this matter. My husband with his small family went to work accordingly on the same Tract built him a house & Cleared about eight or Ten acres of Land, my husband is since dead, & Col William Butler having obtained an act of Assembly in his favour for a ferry on the Alleganey River & a Lot of ground assigned him at the mouth of a Run emptying in on the west side of the River, has in Consequence of that Taken possession of a part of the Lands Cleared by my husband & I presume more than the Lot mentioned & that on the back part of my house, he has lately Told me that I must turn out of the house in the Spring this I think would be rather hard as I am now Left a widow & not provided with any other home at the present. Should your Excellency direct I will then Chearfully Comply or should Col. Butler get this Lot Laid of to him on the ground mentioned in the Law, my Littel house & small field would then be by no means in his ways, all I wish is that I may be allowed to set where I am untill Counsels pleasure to Remove me, or should the ground where I Live be sold or to be Leased by the State that I may be allowed the preference.

PETITION OF INHABITANTS OF WYOMING, 1785.

To the Honble the Representatives of the Freemen of the Commonwealth of the State of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met.

Gentlemen,

We your humble petitioners would take the earliest opportunity to lay before your Honble House the deplorable situation in which we have been enveloped since the decree of Trenton, which chang'd the jurisdiction in favor of Pennsylvania, from that Date we have been Deny'd the due administration of the Laws of Pennsylvania, or in other words Common Justice, which the greatest criminals are intitled to, according to all Statute and Common Laws of all Christianized people. Altho' we have made incessant application to the Legislative Body of this state for justice to be administered without any discrimination of persons: yet to no purpose, altho' fair promises were made; and we had finally concluded there was no justice in revengion for us, either from the Legislative or Executive Bodies of this State. But being creditably informed that the present Assembly were composed of such persons who feared God, and regarded man, and consequently had a promptitude to do justice to all their fellow-creatures; this served as a stimulus to us to make one prayer more to the Honble Assembly for justice to be administered without partiality. Believing that your Honble Body will do all in your power to redress our grievances, and put us upon the same footing with the common Citizens of this state, which is all we ask. And farther permit us to say that all the disorders, irregularities and unjustifiable proceedings taken against us, were committed under such aggravated circumstances, as no christianized people ever experienced before from the most barbarous savages to begin with the first rise of Pennsylvania Government in this settlement, (Viz. :) the Election of those Magistrates, who were to act in that sphere in this part of the County of Northumberland, is as follows, they were chosen by people from different counties of this state, together with people from the state of the New Jerseys and elsewhere, and those that were elected were principally inhabitants of the County of Northampton,—and all this was done without our consent or knowledge; and we who had the sole right of choosing our Magistrates, were denied the privilege which were justly intitled to. Which Election we know to be unconstitutional and in the face and eyes of all law, both Statute and Common. Yet altho' the sd Election was in itself wrong and illegal, was established by an act of the then Assembly directing the Executive Body of the state to Commission the sd. Magistrates. Who soon after they were Commissioned repaired to Wyoming where they sought the ruin of the N. England settlers, and spread devastation wherever they went or acted; and in order that these ill-minded and unconstitutional Magistrates should be enabled to carry their unjustifiable plans into execution against us, an armed force of soldiars, was raised by this state, and stationed at Wyoming, in open violation of the articles of the confederation of the United States of America, (as is observed by the Honble the Council of Censors.) And after these Magistrates in conjunction with the Military authority had made many inroads on justice and humanity, We as a Body entered to the Assembly our Protestation & abhorrance against the sd Election of the Magistrates, also against such a line of conduct as these Magistrates, (Viz. Patterson and Seely) were guilty of, and we might with propriety mention one more upon which the assembly appointed a committee to repair to Wyoming to investigate and ascertain the truth of those allegations of ours which were laid to the charge of those Magistrates. And upon Tryal found the allegations were fully and amply supported by creditable and indisputable evidences and made report accordingly to the assembly, at which time we had an agent at the Assembly to urge the necessity of something to be immediately done in our favor. The report of the committee was re-committed, and from that referr'd to a second committee. And finally after our agent had indefatigably labored with the Assembly for near three months with great expence of money; returned with the disagreeable news, that the assembly would do nothing for us; but still suffered those illegal and ill-minded magistrates, who had been the occasion of all the tumults and disorders, which were committed at this place, to go with impunity, And we may say that to help compleat our ruin; Henry Shoemaker was about this time commissioned by Council, to act in conjunction with these other magistrates. And this neglect of the G. Assembly has proved the destruction of this settlement, and cost this state thousands of pounds, which had better been taken and given to the poor; In this manner we have been treated by the authority of this state untill we were drove to a state of desperation, and supposed that there was no justice in reversion for us in the State of Pennsylvania, because a deaf ear was turned to all our prayers and entreaties, and great credit given to all the false misrepresentations of our avow'd, and implacable enemies, and all those depositions, that were taken at Wyoming by the committee, & carried to the assembly, were not even suffered to be read in the G. Assembly, and consequently truth withheld from the state, which was at that time of the utmost concern that these allegations, should come to the knowledge of Pennsylvania, but alas they were concealed and the truth kept from the good inhabitants, who had a right to the same. The concealment of which appeared to us to, originate from disaffection towards the N. England settlers; upon which it appeared to us in Vain to trouble the Assembly or sue for Justice after so many denials. We have ever since the decree of Trenton been intirely denyed the Benefits of Citizens and Freeholders, and have been treated as Aliens and Strangers to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; and how the present assembly look upon us, and what measures for our future protection and safety, they mean to take, we cannot say. And therefore think we shall be justified in the eyes of the impartial world to lye in a Dormant Situation untill the Present Assembly shall in their wisdom see fit to let us know in what point of light that Honble House look upon us. whither they will give us the priviledge which all Freemen, by the laws of all Christianized people are intitled to, (Vis. :) Citizenship and Freeholdership, that is the power of choosing our own officers Civil and Military, for we have felt the dire effect of submitting to other Counties and States choosing authority to rule us, for we are confident that some of those that were Elected and others that elected them neither feared God, nor regarded Man, Therefore we think that we cannot in justice to ourselves, ever submit to such an illegal step again; and we are assured we shall be.

justified in opposing any such unconstitutional proceedings; in vindication of the rights of mankind, and that inherent right which the God of nature has bestowed upon men at large. In this resolution we think we are not opposing the laws of this State: but in vindication of the same and that your Honble House will justify us in our Determination—for it is not our intention to oppose the laws of this State, but corroborate them; tho' our enemies have and will carry false reports to your Honble House, which have no existence but in their distempered Brain; and Maliciously and Wickedly report that we will not submit to the Laws of this State. Again we have been often trappan'd by our passive obediences and non-resistance, and confiding in some of the first men in office in the State to mention one instance of Lt. Col. John Armstrong and John Boyd, Esqs., who by forfeiting their word and Honors and every thing that is near to Gentlemen, made us Prisoners, abus'd us, with more than savage treatment, and robed us of upwards of one hundred rifles and valuable fire arms, and many other effects, even to our smallest Pen-knives; and we may say with propriety that we have been Rob'd of upwards of two hundred Rifles and valuable fire arms by officers of Government since the first of last May, which have never been returned to this day. And altho' we have often Petitioned the former Assembly for Justice in all the cases wherein we were injured and abused, but could obtain no redress, and we have undergone such a series of injustice, plunder, rapine and murder, from those who pretended to do us justice, that we are reduced to the shades of death. And if we can obtain any assistance from your Honble House in a line of justice, We shall ever acknowledge the same with thankfulness and a true sence of Gratitude. And untill your honors shall condescend to draw a line for our future conduct it is impossible for us to know what course to steer. We are at present destitute of any Civil authority in this place. Esq. Mead has refused to grant any precept these six weeks past. Therefore the sooner we can have the privilege of electing our own Officers, Civil and Military, agreeable to the constitution of this state, the sooner happiness, peace and good order will be restored to this settlement. We would also beg leave to point out to your honors some proposals made to us by some of the Magistrates of this county about eight weeks since, to enable us to elect our own Magistrates. And first it was proposed to have a number of us to purchase a tract of wild Land on the mountains (under the proprietors Olaim,) and that Col. W. Montgomery should survey the same, which Land we should divide amongst a larger number and thereby become Freeholders, and entitled to elect our Magistrates. Which proposal we rejected for we were not willing to give our money, for that which we esteemed our own, nor buy those Priviledges that we were so justly entitled to. Secondly, Esq. Mead proposed to call all the Inhabitants together of both parties, without any regard to Freeholders, (as is directed by the constitution,) and he would lead us to a choice of Magistrates, and make report to

Council, and know whether that Honble Body would approve the choice or not; this proposal we also rejected and dismis'd, as we looked upon it to be unconstitutional, and that our enemies and those that had no right upon an equal footing in the Election, with those of us who have the sole right. Therefore for these reasons we apply to your honors for a line to be drawn that we may know what course to steer.

And in the intermediate space, while we have no authority in this place, we have thought most advisable to form ourselves in some order for our mutual defence and safety, and to act as near the Laws of this State as possible, until we shall have a constitutional Establishment of the same. And we most heartily pray for your Honors exertions to establish peace and good order in this distracted and infatuated place; for we think that the political salvation of this settlement depends upon your assiduity, and exertions in this respect as well as the Happiness and safety of this State, which we insist on, we have always strove for since the decree at Trenton, and have endeavoured to demean ourselves in such an equitable line of conduct, that we are justly entitled to all the immunities of Free-Citizens and Freeholders, which if allowed our prayer is in a great measure answered. And we will pray that the benedictions of Almighty God may rest upon your Honorable Body, and that your Honors may have wisdom as the angels of God, to direct you at all times, and that you may consult such measures and carry them in execution, as shall terminate in the advancement of Messiah's Kingdom, and consequently in the Weal and prosperity of this state. And that your honors may be enabled at all times to consult the happiness of this state in such a manner that your names may be sacred in the annals of history, and generations yet unborn, when they come on the stage of action may call you blessed is the sincere prayer of your humble Petitioners. And we as in duty bound will ever pray.

PETITION OF MESSRS. DUNCAN AND FINLEY OF PITTSBURG, 1785.

To his Exoellency John Dickinson, Esquire, President, and the Honourable Council of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in Council assembled :

The Petition of David Duncan and John Finley, of the Town of Pittsburgh,

Humbly sheweth,

That your petitioners having been informed that Fort McIntosh is to be evacuated in the Spring, and they having engaged in business in the Indian Trade, would willingly undertake the care of the Garrison and Buildings at that place. That unless some person or persons are appointed to take care of the Garrison, it will be in danger of being destroyed by the Indians, or the burning of the Woods.

Your Petitioners therefore humbly pray your Honors would be pleased License them to Trade in the business aforesaid, at the place aforesaid, for such Time as your honours shall think proper during good behaviour, and your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will pray, &c.

MINUTES OF A MEETING AT SURVEYOR GENERAL'S, 1785.

At a Meeting at the Surveyor General's, 7th M<sup>o</sup>ch, 1785,

Present,

His Excellency Jn<sup>o</sup>. Dickinson, Esq<sup>r</sup>, President,
The hon<sup>ble</sup> Jn<sup>o</sup> Nevill, Esq<sup>r</sup>,
The Secretary, M<sup>r</sup>. Kennedy.

Resolved, that for preventing delays upon applications to Deputy Surveyors by Persons claiming Lands in the Counties of Westmoreland, Washington and Fayette, by virtue of Rights acquired under, founded on, or recognized by the Laws of Virginia, the Surveyor Gen<sup>l</sup> forthwith furnish his Deputies with necessary Transcripts of the Papers communicated by the Government of Virginia to the Supreme Executive Council, and by them put into his Hands—that he enjoin them to pay immediate attention to all applications appeared to be supported by Rights obtained as aforesaid before the 23<sup>d</sup> of June, 1780, that in Returns of all Surveys made on such applications they certify whether the particular description, mentioned in such entries correspond with the Lands shewn by the Applicants—That where such Deputies cannot conveniently attend the taking depositions in disputed Cases, they earnestly require both the Parties to be present when they shall be taken, in order to avoid the Trouble & Expence they must otherwise unavoidably incur,—and that to give facility and dispatch in settling the claims aforesaid, it be recommended to the Surveyor Gen<sup>l</sup> to lessen the Districts and appoint a greater number of Deputies—and that in his choice of them he take all possible care to guard against the appointment of any person influenced by Prejudices upon the subject of such Claims.

DELEGATES IN CONGRESS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

New York, March 9th, 1785.

Sir,

We have been honored with your Excellency's favor of* date, inclosing the Memorial of the Merchants and Traders of the City of Philada., expressing their apprehensions of further depredations on their trade by the Barbary Corsairs, if speedy and effectual measures are not taken to prevent them, which has been laid before Congress—and we are happy to inform you, Sir, & thro' you the Merchants of Philada., that Congress have not been inattentive to this very important concern, to which we believe they are well disposed to give every relief in their power. Our ministers abroad have long since been authorized to negotiate with the States of Barbary* (in common with others) treaties of amity & commerce, which we have reason to know have only been rendered ineffectual heretofore (with the Barbary States) for want of a sum of money, which custom has made absolutely necessary to purchase them.

* Feby. 17. See page 410.

Congress have lately appropriated for this purpose a sum of money not exceeding eighty thousand dollars, subject to the draughts of our ministers. A Gentleman well recommended for his integrity and personal knowledge of that country, will be charged with fresh dispatches to Europe in a short time, respecting this business, who may probably be employed to carry into effect the wishes of Congress at the Court of the Emperor of Morocco.

Altho' we ardently wish as much as possible to satisfy the anxiety of the merchants upon this subject, yet we request that no extracts may be taken or published, as the matter is yet sub judice, and any premature publication may have a tendency to delay, if not prevent, the proposed negotiations, and draw the unwary merchants into a snare, by mistaking the intention for the fact. There is little reason to doubt but that Great Britain will use all her influence to prevent any such treaties being made. As soon as Congress have taken their final determinations upon this subject, we will have the honor of communicating them as far as our injunctions of secrecy will admit.

Mr. Marbois, in the name of the King, his master, has made a demand of Longchamps; this has been under consideration for several days as the order of the day, and has been postponed; when this great national question may be discussed is uncertain, but there appears no disposition to hurry.

No moves have been made by the Connecticut Gentlemen upon the Wyoming business, and we remain in the dark what the wish of the State is in that affair. If any determinations of the house take place, we will be much obliged by your Excell'ys communication upon that subject. Gen'l Knox is appointed Secretary at War. The treasury is not yet formed—no official acc'ts from Jarvis or Osgood whether they will serve or no. We are,

With great respect, Sir,

Your Excell'ys

most obt. & Very

h'ble Serv'ts,

JOSEPH GARDNER,
WILLIAM HENRY.

RESOLUTION OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY.—DUTIES, 1785.

State of Pennsylvania, In General Assembly.

Friday April 8th, 1785, A. M.

A Member presented to the Chair a motion which was read, and the same being considered, was adopted as follows, viz.

Whereas it appears by the Report of a Committee of this House, that large sums of money remain due to the State, on Bonds taken by the Collector of the Customs, which by the tenor and condition of the said Bonds respectively became due and payable at various periods now past.

* See page 412.

And Whereas it is requisite and necessary that such arrearages should be speedily paid and collected in order to answer the several demands charged upon the same.

Resolved, That the Supreme Executive Council be and they are hereby desired to order the said Collector to use his utmost diligence to obtain payment of all the said arrearages, and if any of the said arrearages now due, shall remain unpaid on the first day of June next, that the said Collector be directed forthwith to put the Bonds on which such monies shall be so due into the hands of the Attorney General to be prosecuted upon, without delay or respect of persons.

CHAS. VANCOUVER TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

Sir,

I take the liberty of troubling you with the Conditions of a work now in great forwardness, and intended for speedy publication. Should it meet with your approbation the favour of your encouragement and patronage will be gratefully acknowledged by him who is with the greatest respect Sir, your much obliged

obedient Servant,

His Excellency John Dickinson, Esqr.

WM. BRADFORD, JR. TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

Third Street, April 25th, 1785.

Sir,

I beg leave to inform your Excellency and the Council that the trial of the Ejectment brought by the Children of Andrew Allen for the recovery of a tract of Land commonly called the big spring tract, will come on at Reading, on the 24th of next month. In this cause the Commonwealth is the real defendant; the Land in controversy hav'g been seized as the property of Andrew Allen, who stands attainted by act of Assambly, & sold by Agents for forfeited Estates. Accordingly the Council undertook the defence and retained Mr. Reed with me to conduct it. His absence from the State prevented an early trial, and his death has deprived the state of his services

As the plaintiffs have retained very eminent Counsel on their part, I would submit to your Excellency and the Council the propriety of supplying the place of Mr. Reed with some other Gentleman of the Law. The value of the Land in controversy is very considerable & the cause involves in it questions of importance.

On the trial of this Cause the testimony of Mr. Trimble on the part of the State will be necessary to the defence. I must request that Council will dispense with his absence a few days on that occasion.

I would also take the Liberty of reminding your Excellency of my application for information respecting the charges against Amos Williams who was apprehended under a proclamation issued by Council. It will be necessary to proceed against him in the ordinary Course of Justice at the next Court of Oyer & Terminer, or he will be intitled to his discharge.

I beg your Excell'y & the Council will be pleased to favor me with a draught upon the Treasurer for £100 on account of my salary as Attorney General, being less than is due to me on that account.

I must also request to be favored with any papers in the possession of Council, respecting the misconduct of the Judges of the Lancaster Election, which may be of service in the prosecution which I have been directed by the State to commence against them. I shall leave Philadelphia on that business about the 5th of next month.

I have the honor to be,
with sentiments of the most perfect respect your Excell'y
most Obed't Serv't,

SHARP DELANY TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

Custom House, 7th June, 1785

Sir,

I beg you may inform The Honourable the Supreme Executive Council, That in obedience to Their order of the 13th of April last application was personally made and notices as inclosed delivered to each person indebted for duties.*

That the resolutions of the House as transferred by order of the 13th May, I had inserted in the different news papers.

That considerable sums have been paid in, yet many persons are in arrear, a list of whom, The Clerks are now drawing for the inspection of Council.

Many promises to pay in a few days, complaining they cannot receive their interest as the Continental Loan Officer is not yet supplied with Cash sufficient and the great scarcity of money is made the General Excuse.

I request the farther directions of the Honourable Council.

And am Sir, with Respect,

your obedient humble Servant,

SHARP DELANY, Cofr.

Directed,

Genl. Armstrong, Secretary of The Honble. The Supreme Executive Council.

DELEGATES IN CONGRESS TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1785.

New York, 17th Aug. 1785.

Sir,

We have the Honor to transmit to your Excellency the Report of the Secretary for foreign Affairs on the subject of the Complaint of Mr. Thomas Shields which your Excellency was pleased to transmit to us.

Previously to our laying this Complaint before Congress, we took occasion to communicate the same to Mr. Gardoqui in a private way. He assured us of his Desire to be Instrumental in correcting the abuse complained of, but that he could not interfere in the Business, unless it should come to him officially. We therefore conceived it to be our Duty to lay the Papers before Congress, who were pleased to refer them to the Secretary for foreign affairs to take order;

We have the Honor to be,
with great Respect, your Excellency,
most obedient & most humble Servants,

DAVID JACKSON,
CHA. PETTIT.

Directed,

His Excellency John Dickinson Esquire, President of the State of Pennsylvania.

RESOLUTION OF CONGRESS—WYOMING, 1785.

By the United States, in Congress assembled :

September 21, 1785.

Whereas, the petition of Zebulon Butler and others claiming private right of soil under the State of Connecticut and within the Jurisdiction of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, doth not describe with sufficient certainty the tract of Land claimed by the said Zebulon Butler and others, nor particularly name the private adverse claims under grants from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,

Resolved, That the Resolutions of Congress of the 23d day of January, 1784, relative to the claim of Zebulon Butler and others, be and are hereby repealed.

CHA. THOMSON, Sec'y.

PETITION OF AARON DOANE, 1785.

To His Excellency the President & the Hon'ble the Supreme Executive Council of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania :

The Petition of Aaron Doane, a languishing Prisoner in the Jail of the City & County of Philadelphia,

Most humbly sheweth,

That your Petitioner unfortunately fell under the Suspicion of this Hon'ble Board as being an Accomplice in the Robbery of the Treasurer of Bucks County in the year 1781, or thereabouts, for which supposed Crime he was called on by a Proclamation of this Honorable Board to surrender himself a Prisoner & undergo his Trial for the same. That not being welladvised he neglected so to do whereby he became outlaw'd or attainted & with several others was afterwards apprehended & brought before the Hon'ble the Supreme Court & asked what he had to say why Judgment of Death should not pass upon upon him; that having unadvisedly suffered his Time prescribed to expire without a surrender of his Person, his Innocence of the Fact stood him in no stead & not being able to deny that he was the Person proscribed under his Name Judgment of Death was accordingly passed on him & he has remained now in Jail under a heavy Load of Irons upwards of fifteen months. Your Petitioner most solemnly declares his Innocence of the said Fact & his utter Ignorance of the Time, manner & Persons who committed the said Robbery except from Information he has had since his Confinement, and for the Truth of this Declaration he appeals to the Confession of Robert Johnson Steel one of the Persons who actually was Guilty & has been pardoned, who declared before his Honor the Chief Justice & is now ready to repeat it before this Hon'ble Board that your Petitioner was not party nor privy to the said Robbery.

Your Petitioner therefore most humbly prays that this Hon'ble Board will be pleas'd to take his Case into their Consideration & extend their Clemency to him, inasmuch as so long & grievous an Imprisonment may justly be deemed a sufficient attonement for his Negligence or Contempt of the Laws of his Country for which he most heartily begs Pardon.

And your Petitioner will ever pray, &c.,

AARON DOANE.*

PETITION IN FAVOR OF AARON DOANE, 1785.

To His Excellency, the President & Honourable Council of the State of Pennsylvania.

Honored Gentlemen,

Having lately received Information that a Certain Aaron Doane is under sentence confined in the Goal of Philadelphia, on suspicion of being in Connection with those who robb'd the Treasury in Bucks County in the year 1781, We the undersigned do hereby solemnly declare that the said Aaron Doane was with us for six weeks before the robbery was Committed under Confinement in the Custody of Mr. John Ridgeway in New York & he is really Inocent of the Charge alledg'd against him on that head, but to say anything farther of him we cannot pretend as we have no knowledge of him or his proceedings untill that he was with us Confined, but if he his not set at Liberty before this comes to hand we hope your honours will

PETITION RESPECTING A ROAD IN N. L., 1773.

To the Honourable Richard Penn, Esquire, Lieutenant Governor, &c., and the Council of the Province of Pennsylvania.

The Petition of divers Inhabitants of the City and County of Philadelphia

Respectfully sheweth,

That in pursuance of an Order of the Governor and Council a Road hath been lately laid out from the Southernmost line of Land belonging to the Estate of William Masters, Esq., Deceased, to the Germantown Road; that the same is well made and will soon be opened for the Use of the Public.

That the old Public Road, laid out upwards of Sixty years ago, from Fourth Street to the place where the said new Road begins, is very much out of Repair, and that the Supervisors of the Highway (as your Petitioners are informed) would have repaired it, if the Fences had been placed agreeable to the Courses of the said Road, but some of them stand very Irregular, as appears by a Draught hereunto annexed,* in which the dotted lines represent the Courses of the Road and the black lines the Fences as they now stand.

That the said Old Road cannot be properly repaired until the Fences are made agreeable to the Courses thereof, and as the Owners of Land bounded by the said Road may differ in sentiments respecting the said Courses, Your Petitioners Pray the Board will be pleased to appoint Men to review the said Road and ascertain the Courses thereof. And that the Supervisors of the Highway for the Northern Liberties may be ordered to alter the Fences in such manner as the said men, so to be appointed, shall direct. Or that the Board will be pleased to take such other Measures as to them shall seem meet, for securing to the Public the free and full use of the said Road, Sixty feet wide, as it was originally laid out.

* The plan here referred to is attached to this document, but cannot well be introduced.

COL. HUBLEY TO PRES. REED, 1779.

Fort Sullivan, on Tioga branch,
August 24th, 1779.

Sir,

The present opportunity offering, I could not omit writing to your Excellency in behalf of my officers respecting their Commissions.†

The arrangement was transmitted to your Excellency by Gen<sup>l</sup> Sullivan some time since. As it was mutually agreed to by the Gentlemen of the Regiment, I make no doubt it has met with your Excellency's & the Hon. Body over which you preside, approbation. Doctor Rogers, the bearer hereof, will return to us immediately again; I beg you will please to forward the Commissions by him, which will be most particularly acknowledged by the Gentlemen.

Since my last (from this place) nothing material happened, excepting the arrival of Genl. Clinton from Otsago, situate on the Head waters of Susquehannah, w<sup>h</sup> about 1400 effective men. Since the forming the junction, the Army received orders to hold themselves in readiness for a march on to-morrow morning—to be provided with 30 days's provisions. The want of this Article, together with the want of cloathing, &c., I presume is the cause of our making so short an Excursion (30 days) thro' the Indian Country. Its judged, as very few of the Savages are seen near this place, they are gathering in some part of their Country, and may probably give us some opposition.

Since our arrival here we have erected a Fort, (Fort Sullivan.) A garrison of 250 men will be left during our excursion thro' the Seneca Country.

For further news, I beg leave to refer your Excellency to the Doctor, who will be able to give you a very particular account of the situation of affairs in this quarter.

My officers and men, who were wounded in the action of the 13th, at Chemung, are all likely to do well.*

I am, with the greatest respect,

Your Excellency's most obdt serv't,

AD'M HUBLEY, Lt. Col. Com't

REV. JAMES SPROAT TO COUNCIL, 1780.

To the Hon'ble Executive Council of the State of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen,

By a resolve of Congress, November 26, 1779,—Cloathing was granted for officers in the medical staff, and being signed by the Director Genl., such cloathing should be delivered, either by the clothier gen'l or any sub-clothier in the State in which the officer to receive cloathing shall reside.

And whereas the sub-clothier of this State, cannot issue any cloathing without an order from your hon'ble Board, it is earnestly desired that your Hon'r would issue an order to the sub-clothier of this State, to deliver such cloathing as is specified by resolve of Congress, to me.

I do Certify, that the foregoing List of Officers, is the manner in which they are Arranged in the Six Regiments of Infantry, belonging to the State of Pennsylvania; together with their Rank and Dates of Commissions.

Given at Trenton, this 20th day of January, 1781.

ANTHONY WAYNE, B. G.

PLAN AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR RECRUITING THE PENNSYLVANIA LINE.

Philadelphia, January 22, 1781.

First, There are to be seven places of Regimental rendezvous, viz,

The regiment of artillery,	at Newtown,
The First regiment of infantry,	at Yorktown,
Second do.	at Yellow Springs,
Third do.	at Easton,
Fourth do.	at Carlisle,
Fifth do.	at Reading,
Sixth do.	at Lebanon.

Philadelphia not to be a regimental rendezvous for any regiment, but open to recruiting parties, under the direction of Colonel Nichols; and the recruiting at the regimental rendezvous to be under the direction of the commanding field officer present. A field officer of each regiment to reside at the regimental rendezvous, which is to be the quarters of the officers of the regiments, and in which the recruits are to collect; and from which parties are to march, as the regiment fills, to the division or brigade rendezvous, appointed by General Washington, or the commanding officer of the line. At which place another field officer is to attend, to receive the parties as they arrive.

Secondly, The bounty money to be deposited in the hands of some civil magistrate, or other person appointed by the President or Vice President in Council, at such places as they may direct, who is to make payment to every recruit brought or sent to him by any officer, and take his receipt therefor; his enlistment being first duly signed, and his attestation taken, according to the form hereinafter prescribed. And in order to avoid cause of future complaint, every recruit to sign a duplicate enlistment, receipt, and attestation; of which, one is to be forwarded to the President or Vice President in Council, the other to remain with the commanding officer of the regiment, to which such soldier shall belong.

Thirdly, For the sake of recruiting each of the Regiments with impartiality at Philadelphia, Col. Nichols to engage as many of the old soldiers as are willing to enlist, in the following manner, viz. They are to enlist in the Pennsylvania Line, and at the time of attestation, the recruit to choose the regiment in which he will serve, to some officer of which regiment, Colonel Nichols is to deliver him as soon as attested, and when the number of Recruits in any regiment amounts to twenty-five, they are to be marched out of town to the regimental rendezvous, and not to return again, but by special leave, on pain of being taken up and punished as deserters.

Fourthly, Those who are continued in the service, and those who shall now reinlist, shall be first settled with for their arrears and depreciation, for which purpose the auditors will attend the regimental or division rendezvous, as shall be most convenient, or as the same shall be directed by the President or Vice-President in Council.

Fifthly, The cloathing for the troops to be delivered in the following manner, viz. To those who have continued in the service, or who shall now reinlist at the regimental or division rendezvous, as the President or Vice-President in Council shall direct; the time of delivery, to be as speedy as possible, and not exceed the fifteenth of March.

In recruiting the said regiments, the officers are strictly to conform to the following instructions, and to be answerable out of their own pay, for any loss the public may sustain, by breach of any, or either of them.

Firstly, You are not to inlist, on any pretence, any deserters from the British army, or any soldier now belonging to any regiment, troop or company in the service of the United States.

Secondly, You are carefully to examine every recruit, before he receives his bounty money, to see that he has no rupture, lameness, or disorder, that may render him incapable of doing soldiers duty.

Thirdly, When such recruits shall have engaged, you are to take or send him to one of the Justices of the peace, hereinafter mentioned, who finding him to be sober, and having read to him the form of the inlistment, receipt and attestation, is to cause such recruit to sign the said inlistment, and receipt, and then to administer to him the oath hereinafter mentioned, which attestation, inlistment, and receipt, the justice shall witness, and also to cause duplicates to be signed, which he shall deliver to the officer before mentioned, and send the originals to the Supreme Executive Council, as before directed.

Fourthly, As an encouragement to such recruit immediately to inlist, he shall, over and above the pay and rations allowed by Congress, be entitled to a bounty of nine pounds state money:—one third thereof to be paid at the time of his attestation; one third within one month after, and the remainder on the first of May; to one suit of regimentals annually, three shirts, four pair of shoes, one hat, two pair of overalls, and 200 acres of land, at the expiration of the war.

Fifthly, (Forms of enlistments and receipts.)

Sixthly, The officer engaging any discharged soldier as a recruit, and the justice attesting him, to cause his discharge to be delivered up and destroyed, and no furlough to be allowed any soldier, until he arrives at the regimental rendezvous.

Seventhly, Every officer appointed to that service by the commanding officer of the regiment, engaging a recruit, and causing him to be duly attested before any one of the justices before mentioned, shall be entitled to two dollars specie or state money, as levy money. Recruits engaged in Philadelphia under Col. Nichols's direction, always excepted.

Eighthly, As commissaries are established at the several places of rendezvous, where the recruiting and attesting the men will be principally performed, there will be no allowance for subsistence money, but the officers and men provided with rations, as usual.

Ninthly, To prevent impositions, by recruits inlisting in different regiments—in case any recruit shall desert after being attested, advertisements describing such recruit to be immediately sent to the several places of rendezvous, and put up in the most public places of the county, offering the reward allowed by the Act of Assembly, viz., Twenty shillings in specie, to be paid by Colonel Nichols, at Philadelphia, or either of the above justices elsewhere, and the law to be put in force against all those harbouring them, by which such offender is liable to a fine of five pounds specie for every offence, to be recovered before any justice of the peace.

GOV. LIVINGSTON, OF NEW JERSEY, TO V. P. MOORE, 1782.

Trenton, 27 April, 1782.

Sir,

Since I had the honour of writing to your Excellency yesterday† concerning Capt. White, I have received a Return of the Prisoners taken by Capt. Hyler, among whom Robert White is one & returned as Captain of the Cutter, & I have authentic proof that he is the very man whom you want. But unfortunately, all those Prisoners were immediately sent on by Capt. Hyler to the Commissary of Prisoners at Elizabethtown, and (the Enemy having greatly the advantage of us in the number of marine Prisoners) immediately sent to New York for exchange.

I have the honour to be,

with great respect and attachment,
your Excellency's most obedient,
& very humble Servant

WIL. LIVINGSTON.

MEMORIAL OF THE JEWISH CONGREGATION OF PHILADELPHIA, 1782.

We the President and Representatives of the Jewish Congregation in this city, humbly beg leave to approach his Excellency the President his Honour the Vice President and the Honourable the Executive Council of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The congregation of Mikve Israel (Israelites) in this city, having erected a place of publick worship which they intend to consecrate to the service of Almighty God to morrow afternoon and,

As they have ever profess'd themselves liege subjects to the Sovereignty of the United States of America, and have always acted agreeable thereto, they Humbly Crave the Protection and Countenance of the Chief Magistrates in this State to give Sanction to their design, and will deem themselves highly Honoured by their Presence in the Synagogue whenever they judge proper to favour them.

The doors will be open'd at 3 o'clock and the service will continue 'till seven.

The uncertainty of the day of consecration was the sole cause of having delayed this matter 'till now, but earnestly hope it will not be thought too late.

With Prayers to the God of Israel for the safety of the United States in General and this commonwealth in particular we are,

Gentlemen, most Respectfully, and Most devotedly,

In behalf of the congregation,

JONAS PHILLIPS, President,

MICHAEL GRATZ,

SOL. MARACHE,

SOLM. MYERS COHEN,

SIMON NATHAN.

Philadelphia, 12th September, 1782.*

In dorse,

1782, September 12th, from the President & others representing the Congregation of Jews in the City, their address to the President and Council, read in Council and order'd to be filed.†

* The building, alluded to in the foregoing, was no doubt the first synagogue erected in this city—on Cherry street between Third and Fourth—and which in 1824, gave place to the present more spacious and elegant house of worship. There are now five synagogues in this city.

REPORT OF SEC'Y TO CONGRESS ON REVENUE SYSTEM, 1786.

By the United States in Congress assembled.

January 2, 1786.

Ordered,

That the Secretary of Congress report the number of States which have complied in whole or in part with the revenue system of April 18, 1783 ;—the recommendation of Congress of the same date, for an alteration of the 8th of the articles of confederation ; and the act of the 30th of April, 1784, recommending the vesting of certain commercial powers in Congress.

Office of Secretary of Congress, Jan. 4, 1786.

In obedience to the orders of Congress, the Secretary of Congress report,

That the revenue system of the 18th April, 1783, consists of two parts.

First, a recommendation to the states to invest the United States in Congress assembled, with a power to levy for the use of the United States, certain duties upon goods imported into the said states, from any foreign port, island or plantation, to be applied to the discharge of the interest and principal of the debts contracted on the faith of the United States, agreeable to the resolution of 16th December, 1782, and not to be continued for a longer term than twenty-five years. The collectors of the duty to be appointed by the states respectively, but when appointed, to be amenable to, and removable by the United States in Congress assembled alone. And in case any state shall not make such appointment within one month after notice given for that purpose, the appointment may be made by the United States in Congress assembled.

With this part of the act, the following States have complied.

New-Hampshire,	by act of 1st and 2d January,	1784.
Massachusetts,	by do.	30th October, 1783.
Connecticut,	by do.	May, 1784.
New-Jersey,	by do.	11th June, 1783.
Pennsylvania,	by do.	23d September, 1783.
Virginia,	by do.	October, 1783. ch. 31.
North-Carolina,	by do.	June, 1784.
North-Carolina,	by do.	21st March, 1784.

Rhode-Island, in the session of their legislature, in the spring of 1785, passed an act for levying the duties pointed out by Congress, but have therein enacted, that the collectors shall be appointed by and amenable to their general assembly ; and that, of the money arising from the duties, a certain sum, viz. : 8000 dollars, shall be appropriated in their treasury, for the payment of the interest of that states proportion of the foreign debt of the United States, and paid to the order of Congress; and that the surplus of the duties, and the amount of other taxes ordered by the said act, shall be appropriated to the payment of the interest of the internal debt of the United States due within that state. This act to take effect when the other States in the union agree to the said impost to the acceptance of Congress, and have provided other adequate funds for completing their quota of 1,500,000 dollars, according to the requisition of Congress, of the 18th of April, 1783; but with this proviso, and upon this express condition—"that no duties shall be collected upon articles imported into any state, upon which the said duties have been paid in any other state; and that no duty shall be imposed by any one state upon the citizens of another state, either upon imported articles having paid the duties as aforesaid, or upon any articles of the growth, produce or manufacture of the United States.

The state of Maryland, in June, 1782, pursuant to acts of Congress of the 3d and 7th of February, 1781, passed "An act to authorise the United States in Congress assembled, to impose and levy a duty of five per cent. on imported foreign goods, and on all prizes and prize goods, for the payment of the debts contracted by Congress during the war:"—And in the November session, 1784, their legislature passed a supplement to the aforementioned act, whereby it should take effect as soon as twelve states, including that state, vested Congress with similar powers; but it does not appear that they have passed an act pursuant to the recommendation of Congress of the 18th of April, 1783.

Delaware, it is said, has passed an act conformable to the recommendation above mentioned; but no official information thereof has yet been transmitted to this office or to the board of treasury.

The second part of the revenue system of the 18th of April, 1783, consists of a recommendation to the several states to establish, for a term limited to twenty-five years, and to appropriate to the discharge of the interest and principal of the debts contracted on the faith of the United States for supporting the war, substantial and effectual revenues, of such nature as they may judge most convenient, for supplying their respective proportions of 1,500,000 dollars, annually, exclusive of the aforementioned duties.

With this part of the act, the following states have complied.

New-Jersey,	by their act of 20th December,	1783.
Pennsylvania,	by do.	September, 1783.
North Carolina,	by do.	June, 1784.

Rhode-Island, in the act above mentioned, has enacted, that a tax of one Spanish silver milled dollar upon every hundred acres of land within that state, upon every male poll in the state of twenty-one years of age, and upon every horse or mare of two years old and upwards, shall be annually laid, levied and collected, and that the amount thereof shall be appropriated to the payment of the interest of the internal debt of the United States, due within that state, with the proviso and on the express condition above set forth.

The act of the 18th of April, 1783, also recommends to the states an alteration in the 8th of the articles of confederation and perpetual union, for ascertaining with more convenience and certainty, the proportions to be supplied by the states respectively to the common treasury, and the several states are advised to authorise their respective delegates to subscribe and ratify the same, as part of the said instrument of union in the words therein mentioned.

With this part of the act the following states have complied.

Massachusetts,	by	their act of the 2d July,	1785.
Connecticut,	by	do.	May, 1783.
New-York,	by	do.	April, 1785.
New-Jersey,	by	do.	June, 1783.
Pennsylvania,	by	do.	Aug., 1783.
Maryland,	by	do.	Nov., 1784.
Virginia,	by	do.	May, 1784.
North-Carolina,	by	do.	June, 1784.

By the act of the 30th of April, 1784, it is recommended to the legislatures of the several states, to vest the United States in Congress assembled, for the term of fifteen years, with the power—

1. To prohibit any goods, wares or merchandise from being imported into or exported from any of the states, in vessels belonging to or navigated by the subjects of any power with whom these states shall not have formed treaties of commerce.

2. To prohibit the subjects of any foreign state, kingdom or empire, unless authorised by treaty, from importing into the United States any goods, wares or merchandises which are not the produce or manufacture of the dominions of the sovereign whose subject they are.

In Pursuance of this act,

New-Hampshire has invested Congress, for fifteen years, with full power to regulate the trade of the United States, as they may judge best calculated to promote the weal and prosperity thereof, the fees, profits and emoluments arising from their regulations, to be appropriated to the sole use of discharging public debts. See act 22d June, 1785.

Massachusetts has passed a law in the terms of the recommendation, 1st July, 1784.

Rhode-Island has empowered their delegates to agree to and ratify any article empowering the United States in Congress assembled, to regulate, restrain, or prohibit the importation of all foreign goods in any but American vessels. See act passed in February session, 1785; and by an additional act, passed October, 1785, the delegates are empowered to agree to any article by which the United States in Congress assembled, shall be solely empowered to regulate the trade and commerce of the respective states, and citizens thereof with each other, and to regulate, restrain, or prohibit the importation of all foreign goods in American vessels for twenty-five years.

Connecticut has passed an act in the terms of the recommendation, May, 1785.

New York	the same,	4th April,	1785.
Pennsylvania	the same,	15th December,	1784.
Maryland	the same,	November,	1784.
Virginia	the same,	8d May,	1784.
North-Carolina	the same,	2d June,	1784.

Sir,

Your Excellency will receive herewith inclosed, a certified Copy of an Act of Congress of 6th Inst., recognising the Sieur de la Forest as Vice Consul of his most Christian Majesty in the United States.

I have the honor to be with great Respect your Excellency's
Most obedient & very h'ble serv't

Directed,

His Excellency, The President of Pennsylvania.

JOHN JAY.

APPOINTMENT OF SIEUR DE LA FOREST AS FRENCH VICE CONSUL, 1786.

By the United States in Congress Assembled,
January 6th, 1786.

On a Report of the Secretary to the United States of America for the Department of foreign Affairs to whom was referred his Letter of the 29th December inclosing a Letter of the 19th of that Month from the Chargé des Affairs of France with a Brevet of the 22d day of June, 1785, appointing the Sieur de la Forest Vice Consul of France for the United States.

Whereas, the Sieur de la Forest has presented to Congress a Brevet from his most Christian Majesty bearing date the 22d Day of June, 1785, appointing him Vice Consul General in the United States.

Resolved, That the Sieur de la Forest be and he hereby is received and recognized as the Vice Consul General of his Most Christian Majesty in the United States, and that the said Brevet be registered in the Secretary's office.

Resolved, That all the Privileges, Preeminences and Authority belonging to the said Character and Quality are due to the said Sieur de la Forest, and shall be enjoyed by him.

Ordered, That a certified Copy of the above Resolutions be transmitted by the Secretary to the United States of America for the Department of foreign Affairs, to the Sieur de la Forest, and also to the Executive of each of the States for their Information.

Directed,

His Excellency, The Governor of Pennsylvania.

DAVID RITTENHOUSE TO V. P. BIDDLE, 1786.

January 18th, 1786.

Sir,

At the request of Capt. Stephen Porter I take the liberty of mentioning to you that before his appointment as Commissary on the Western Boundary he more than once complained of the very low pay allowed to his predecessor in that Business, and I believe Capt. Hutchins gave him some assurance that application wou'd be made to Council in his behalf. But not expecting to go to the westward I did not interest myself at that time in the matter. If Council shall think proper to increase his pay to 15s. <sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> Day he will be perfectly satisfied. I have only to add that as Commissary he gave entire satisfaction, I believe to all of us. And in this I was agreeably disappointed as from the mildness of his manner I had not formed the highest opinion of his abilities for such a difficult undertaking. But by his indefatigable industry and care he convinced me that a man may succeed very well in the most arduous undertaking without noise or bustle.

I am, Hon'ble Sir, with great esteem your very humble servant,

DAV. RITTENHOUSE.*

The Hon'ble Charles Biddle, Esquire, Vice President.

SEC'Y ARMSTRONG TO COMMRs. ON SALE OF BARRACK
LOTS, 1786.

Sec'rys Office, Philada. January 19th, 1786.

Sir,

Inclosed is an Order of Council which I have their directions to transmit to you, as agent for the sale of Barrack lots &c., &c.

It is however their intention to extend some farther indulgence to the delinquents whom it immediately concerns. You will therefore offer them the alternative of discharging the sums due by them respectively in Twenty days from the date thereof.—If this be not complied with, you will then proceed to the execution of the order enclosed without discrimination or delay.

I am sir, with much Respect,
your obedient and very humble Servant,

J. A. Jr., Secy.

Tenoh Francis, Esq.,

In Council, Philada. January 19th, 1786.

Gentlemen,

As some of the purchasers of the late Barrack lots in the Northern Liberties of This City have refused or neglected to make payment therefor agreeably to an act passed on the 1st day of April 1784, Entitled an act to empower The Supreme Executive Council to sell the Barracks in the Northern Liberties of the City of Philad. you are hereby directed to proceed against such delinquents in manner prescribed by the 2d Section of the Law aforesaid.

* See Col. Rec., Vol. XIV., p. 623. Pay not raised.

I am Gentlemen with much respect,
you obedient and very humb. Servant,

J. A. Secy.*

Mr. Hillegas & Tench Francis, Esquires, Commissioners for selling Barrick Lots.

RESOLUTION OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES OF VIRGINIA, 1786.

In the House of Delegates, Virginia, January 21st, 1786.

Resolved, That Edmund Randolph, James Madison, Walter Jones, Saint George Tucker, Meriwether Smith, David Ross, William Ronald and George Mason, esquires, be appointed Commissioners, who or any three of whom, shall meet such Commissioners as may be appointed by the other States in the Union, at a time and place to be agreed on to take into Consideration the Trade of the United States, to examine the relative situations and Trade of the said States to consider how far a uniform system in their Commercial regulations may be necessary to their common interest and their permanent harmony and to report to the several States such an act relative to this great object as when unanimously ratified by them will enable the United States in Congress assembled effectually to provide for the same. That the said Commissioners shall immediately transmit to the several States Copies of the preceeding resolution with a circular Letter requesting their Concurrence therein and proposing a time and place for the meeting aforesaid.

Teste,

JOHN BECKLEY, C. H. D.

Agreed to by the Senate,

H. BROOKS, C. J.

A Copy Teste,

JOHN BECKLEY, C. H. D.

Indorsed,

Read March 7, 1786, & referred to Mr. R. Morris, Mr. Fitzsimmons & Mr. Clymer to report thereon.

SEC'Y OF LAND OFFICE TO COUNCIL. 1786.

To the Supreme Executive Council of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

As I have frequent applications made to me for Islands in the Rivers in the old purchases in this State, but as the Laws seem rather obscure whether they belong to the late Proprietaries or the State, and if to the State whether they are to be disposed of in the same manner as other vacant Lands; shall be much obliged to Council for directions in this Case, and am

your most obedient humble Servant,

DAVID KENNEDY Sec'y Ld. Off.

C. J. McKEAN TO PRES. FRANKLIN, 1786.

Philadelphia, January 24th, 1786.

Sir,

I received the Letter of the 20th instant from Mr. Secretary Armstrong, in which the opinion of the Judges of the Supreme Court is requested respecting a claim of Messieurs Penns to interest upon £15,000 sterling, offered to them on the tenth day of May last, and communicated the same to Judges Bryan and Rush.* We conceive, it would be proper to hear Messieurs Penns & the Attorney General on this question, previous to our giving an opinion, as some circumstances may have occurred in this business, of which we are not apprized, and our opinion may probably be conclusive in the matter. If Council will be pleased to notify all concerned, and they are willing to submit to our opinion, we will meet as soon as we are informed in this particular, and give our judgment in the case.

In the mean time, we can see no reason, why Messrs. Penns may not receive the principal sum, and thereby prevent increasing interest.

I have the honor to be,

with very great regard, Sir,

your Excellency's

most obedient Servant,

THO. McKEAN.

Directed,

His Excellency, Benjamin Franklin, Esquire, President, &c., of Pennsylvania.

JAMES DICKINSON TO JOHN LUKENS, 1786.

Dear Sir,

Agreeable to Commission and Instructions for Surveying Donation Lands No. 9 District I proceeded on my Errand as far as Venango; but not without hearing on my way a very great uneasiness among the Indians at the procedure of the State in the Purchase of those Lands, whereupon I thought it Necessary to stop there a few Days & consult some Indians Chief on the Subject before I proceeded further where after with the advice of the Pittsburg Traders There, I sent for by a Runner Whole Face, The Corn Planter, & Long Hair, three Seneca Chiefs who were then out a Hunting, two Days March from Venango. Whole Face & Long hair came in, & the Corn Planter refused,—At their coming in by an Interpreter Elijah Matthews, I informed them my Errand, they returned for answer, they could not then give me an answer to my Proposal but would in a few Days; I waited on them 4 & then they gave me a Hearing, which was as follows Verbatim.—At Mr. Thomas Wilkey's store at Venango, Present Mr. Thomas Wilkey, Captain Jacob Springer & Elijah Matthews.—Indians, The Chiefs Whole Face & Long Hair with seven others—My Friend Mr. Whole Face,

I was sent here by the great Council of the State of Pennsylvania held at Philadelphia, to Measure some Lands a little to the Northward of this Place, which Land I am told the great Council had bought of our Brothers the Indians, whose sole Property they understood it to be—But on my way Here I was told the Indians were not well Pleased we should measure those Lands, I thought it therefore best to stop with you a few Days in Order to know what your uneasiness was if in my Power to remove any obstacle in the Way; being fully assured the great Council of the State would do every Thing on their side to keep alive Friendship, To maintain Peace, To Increase Friendship, To support a Union & to make Trade Flourish between their Brothers the Indians and themselves, as long as Time shall measure the rolling year, & uttermostly endeavour the Happiness of both Nations—Now my Brother and Brothers if there is any thing in the way of all these Things I have mentioned, I do wish & intreat you, to inform me frankly and if it can be in my power to serve in removing any such Thing as may obstruct our mutual Happiness, I shall always think myself happy of having it in my power so to do; or if you think some other Person more suitable to represent this Matter should be glad it was soon done & your objections to my Errand sent to the great Council at Philada.

To which Mr. Whole Face after consulting with the others gave the following answer,

Brother of the Big Knife,

Several Surveyors have been up here to Measure Lands the Last Summer and have gone Home. We knew not what was their meaning, as none of them told us, but went on without so much as informing their Intent. When they came to our hunting Fires, we used them well without any Question & when they wanted any of our assistance we gave it freely. Many of our young Warriors are dissatisfied with [their] Conduct, who are in the English Interest and also with the Reward we received for the Lands Thinking it inadequate for so large a Body; it not being one pair of Mokosons a piece; they therefore would advise me not to proceed on my Business and to inform the thirteen Fires it was their opinion I was not safe to proceed, though they present would pledge their Faith for my safety against all Indians at Venango & the Hunters to the Southward of that place; yet would not answer for it to the Northward, not even one Mile. That in the Spring as early as possible the six Nations would hold a great Council at Fort Pitt where & when they & all their Brethren hoped to make an endless Peace with their Brothers of the thirteen Fires & hoped till then I would put by every Thought of proceeding on my Errand as being very Dangerous; & then they hoped every obstruction would be removed & we should walk the Woods together as Brothers ought to do, in Love & Pleasure. And now my Brother tell your great Council of the thirteen Fires 'tis our Fault you do not go on, and not yours.

In the mean time remain yours to serve with the utermost affection.

JOHN LONGSCHAMPS TO COUNCIL, 1786.

Hon'ble Gentleman,

It gives me much pain to intrude upon you at a time when perhaps more important concerns engage your attention: however the singular favours your honorable Body has already conferred upon me, emboldens me once more to address you. The nature of the business is of so much consequence to me that I flatter myself it will in some measure apologize for this intrusion.

Having engaged my attention some time in pursuit of a plantation, & a discription of one being given me which, I think will answer my purpose; it will be necessary for me to explore it before I make the purchase, I shall esteem it a very particular favour if you will be so good as to grant me permission for three, or four, Days absence from town & the favour shall be with gratitude acknowledged By hono'ble Gentlemen,

SECY ARMSTRONG TO ATTORNEY GENERAL, 1786.

Secretary's Office, Philadelphia, February 20th, 1786.

Sir,

Council request the Attorney General's opinion on a dispute that has arisen between some of the Magistrates & Commissioners of the County of Montgomery.

It respects the fees for administering the Oath or affirmation of Allegiance to persons who came of age since the time limited for taking the same in the several Test laws.

Some Magistrates charged & received from persons taking the oath or affirm<sup>a</sup> before them under those Circumstances 1. 6, to 2. 6. Others adhering to the 3<sup>d</sup> Sect. of the Act obliging the Male white inhabitants of the State to give assurance of their Allegiance, &c., passed the 13th June, 1777, have transmitted their list of Names to the Recorder & exhibited their Accounts to the Comm<sup>rs</sup> who refuse payment, alledging doubts whether or not Justices were authorised to give Certificates to such persons, & granting their procedure to be strictly legal, whether in such cases the persons ought not to pay for themselves.

GOV. SMALLWOOD OF MD. TO PRESIDENT, 1786.

Annapolis, 21st February, 1786.

Sir,

I have the Honor of transmitting the enclosed Resolution of the General Assembly of Maryland appointing Commissioners for this State to meet Commissioners from the States of Pennsylvania and Delaware for the purposes therein expressed.

The great Importance of the Objects in view, and the general utility of promoting the Commerce and mutual convenience of the said States must be obvious, and I flatter myself will not only meet the approbation and concurrence, but merit the earliest attention of the Legislature of your State.

I have the Honor to be

RESOLUTION OF HOUSE OF DELEGATES OF MD., 1786.

By the House of Delegates, February 21st, 1786.

Resolved, that Samuel Chase, Samuel Hughes, Peregrine Letterbury, William Smith, Baltimore Town, and William Hemly, Esquires, be and they are hereby appointed Commissioners for this State to meet Commissioners from the States of Pennsylvania and Delaware for the purpose of considering and digesting the most proper measures for the improving the inland Navigation of the River Susquehanna and the waters communicating with it, and for effecting a navigable communication between the Bays of Chesapeake and Delaware, and also to confer on any other subject which may tend to promote the Commerce and mutual convenience of the said States. That any three or more of the said Commissioners have authority to act, and that their proceedings be reported to the next Session of the General Assembly for their examination and adoption, if approved. That the Governor be requested to transmit a Copy of the above Resolve to the Executives of the States of Pennsylvania and Delaware.

By order, WM. HARWOOD, CL. H. D.

By the Senate, 21st Feb'y, 1786.

Read and assented to.

SEC'Y OF CONGRESS TO PRES. FRANKLIN, 1786.

Office of Secretary of Congress,

February 28th, 1786.

Sir,

On the 9th day of June* last I had the honor of transmitting an Act passed by Congress the 17th of that month, recommending to the several States to make provision, in a manner pointed out in the Act, for officers, soldiers, or seamen who have been disabled in the service of the United States.

In the Laws transmitted to this office, I find that the Legislature of your State has passed an Act for this purpose. But as it is necessary that the United States in Congress assembled should be informed of the sum which this provision will yearly add to the expences of the Union, in order that they may include it in their annual requisition, I have to request that your Excellency would be pleased to order a return to be made to me of the number provided for & the amount of the annual allowance made to them, that I may make report thereof to Congress.

With the greatest respect,

I have the honor to be

your Excellency's most obedient

SEC. CARMARTHEN TO MR. ADAMS.

St. James, February 28, 1786.

Sir,

In answer to the Memorial you did me the honor to deliver to me on the 8th Decem., I have to observe to you, Sir, that it is his Majesty's fixed determination upon the present, as well as every other occasion, to act in perfect conformity to the strictest principles of Justice and good Faith.

The seventh article both of the provisional and of the definitive Treaties, between His Majesty and the United States, clearly stipulates the withdrawing, with all convenient speed, His Majesty's Armies, Garrisons & Fleets, from the said United States, and from every port, place & harbour within the same; and no doubt can possibly arise respecting either the Letter or Spirit of such an Engagement. The fourth article of the same Treaties as clearly stipulates that Creditors on either side shall meet with no lawful impediment to the recovery of the full value in sterling money of all bona fide debts heretofore contracted. The little attention paid to the fulfilling this engagement on the part of the subjects of the United States in general—and the direct breach of it in many Instances have already reduced many of the King's subjects to the utmost degree of difficulty and distress; nor have their applications for redress to those whose situations in America naturally pointed them out as Guardians of public Faith, been, as yet, successful in obtaining them that Justice to which on every principle of Law, as well as humanity, they were clearly and Indisputably entitled. The Engagements entered into by Treaty ought to be mutual, and equally binding on the respective contracting parties. It would therefore be the height of Folly as well as Injustice to suppose one party alone obliged to strict observance of the public Faith, while the other might remain free to deviate from it's own engagements as often as convenience might render such deviation necessary, though at the expence of it's own national Credit & Importance.

I flatter myself, however, Sir, that justice will speedily be done to British Creditors—and I can assure you, Sir, that whenever America shall manifest a real determination to fulfil her part of the Treaty, Great Britain will not hesitate to prove her sincerity to cooperate in whatever points depend upon her for carrying every article of it into real and compleat Effect.

The enclosed paper contains a state of the grievances complained of by Merchants and other British subjects having Estates, property & debts due to them in the several States of America.

I am, Sir,

Your most obed't servt.,

CARMARTHEN.

Abstract of the state of the grievances complained of by Merchants and other British subjects having Estates, property & Debts due to them in the several States of America.

We shall barely recite the Title & Date of the Acts of the different States, complained of and considered as Infractions of the Treaty.

MASSACHUSETTS BAY.

Act passed the 9th November, 1784, directing the Courts of Judicature to suspend rendering Judgment for any Interest that might have accrued between the 19 April, 1776, & 20 of January, 1783.

NEW YORK.

Act passed the 12 July, 1782, British creditors are precluded from the claim of Interest on all Debts contracted before the 1st of January, 1776 until after the 1st January, 1783, and Execution for the principal of those debts are forbidden to be levied until the Expiration of three years after the Evacuation of New York.*

Act passed 17 March, 1783, and confirmed by others in 1784 & 1785, called the Trespass Act. Vide the Acts.

PENNSYLVANIA.

This State has violated the 4th Article of the Definitive Treaty by passing a Law soon after the peace to restrain a recovery of the old Debts for a given period. The British Merchants were in consequence thereof, set at defiance, and few Instances exist of payment having been made for any debts contracted before the war. This Law was limited to September, 1784, but whether it has been further extended by any new act, or whether it expired at the time, the Committee are not certain. This Law operating with the Fears & prejudices of some of the Inhabitants has produced Effects of the most mischievous Consequences to the British Merchants, for not only an uniform opposition has been made against the payment of Interest, but the Lawyers dreading the resentment of some of the most violent among their Countrymen, have refused to engage in the recovery of these unpopular Demands. And the Committee are well assured that not one Action for the payment of an old British Debt has been prosecuted in this State.†

Virginia, Maryland, North Carolina, South Carolina & Georgia—

* This Act being previous to the Treaty cannot well be called an infraction of it. The preliminaries were not signed till Nov. 30, 1782.

† This Act not properly represented. It restrained in favor of the distressed debtors the recovery of all debts, as well domestic as English, till Sep., 1784. But the new Act then passed, though it continued the restraint respecting domestic debts, has a clause expressly excepting British debts, and leaving them open for recovery.

[These two notes are written with a pencil on the margin, and appear to be a commentary of the writer upon the text.]

the Acts made by these several States, contrary to the 4th Article of the Treaty of peace, are particularly mentioned & commented upon, but we have not time to copy the observations.

OPINION OF WM. BRADFORD, JR., ATT'Y GL., 1786.

Saturday Evening, March 4.

Sir,

The question respecting the Militia Appeal, upon which Council were pleased to request my opinion, ought to have received an earlier answer, but my attendance on Chester Court prevented my receiving their commands until this day.

Upon considering the case stated, it appears to me that whenever the militia class is called out, and any one neglects or refuses to march, the fine is immediately incurred, & becomes due to the Commonwealth. But it being reasonable that the party should have an opportunity of being heard, this fine is not to be levied "until five days after an appeal" is given. This appeal the Lieutenant or Sublieutenant was directed to hold "within ten and not less than five days" after the marching of the militia; and the Lieutenant is guilty of a misdemeanor if he neglects to hold it within that time. But as the words are merely directory and affirmative, and no negative words are added, I am inclined to think (upon the authority of several late cases) that the Lieutenant is not restricted to the time mentioned, & that an appeal may be legally held after the ten days are passed. In England the Statute directs the appointment of overseers to be made "in Easter week or within one month after;" yet an appointment made after the month was expired has been adjudged good, because there were no negative words, & because the parish ought not to suffer from the neglect of the Justices who have the appointment. Upon the same ground an assessment made by the Commissioners in Pennsylvania, after the time mentioned in the Act, has been held to be legal. In the case before us there seems to be no reason why the sickness, absence or neglect of a Lieutenant for ten days, should deprive the people of a hearing or the Commonwealth of the fines due from delinquents.

I have the honor to be, with the greatest respect,

Sir, Your Excellency's most obedient,

& very humble servant,

WM. BRADFORD, Jr.

His Excellency, The President in Council.

SEC'Y ARMSTRONG TO PROTHONOTARIES OF NORTHAMPTON, NORTHUMBERLAND, AND WYOMING COUNTIES, 1786.

Secretary's Office,

JOHN NICHOLSON TO V. P. BIDDLE, 1786.

Compt'r General's Office, March 13th, 1786.

Sir,

By an Act of Assembly passed 22d September, 1785, the Honble the Supreme Executive Council are authorized agreeable to Resolve of Congress of the 7th of June preceding, to employ the Invalids who are pensioners, as guards, &c.

I have long considered the papers of this office insecure, considering their importance to the State and the temptations to individuals to destroy them. But I am still more uneasy and anxious for its security since the Certificates received in the Land Office and by the late Act of the 1st of March Instant, have come in. Permit me to request that your Honble Board will be pleased to direct that a guard be posted here for the security of this and the other public offices in the State House, perhaps one Centinel in front and one at the back part of the House might be thought requisite, the better to secure from danger by night.

JOSEPH HAMILTON TO COL. JOHN FRANKLIN, 1786

City of Hudson, March 24th, 1786.

Dear Sir,

This I send to you with Mr. Thomas Gilbert, and three young men with him to settle in that Country, they are all Interested, I wish you would be kind enough to direct them to find my lands. I received your favour and a Bundle of Papers by Cap'n Strong, I immediately Transmitted them to Vermont where they were perused and then returned, and now they are gone on to Beach and perhaps to Hartford, I continually exert every Nerve in the Cause, I endeavour to rouse every Body and every thing & spare no cost that I can be at. There are a considerable number of men of abilities in the Country acting briskly in your favour, which consideration may doubtless serve to stimulate and encourage, but remember there is no consideration will act so strong in your favour as that of your absolute desparacy, this with a moderate degree of Policy will make it utterly impossible you should ever be Conquered unless human nature is wholly reversed, in the meantime every Implement of defence should be stored either at Tioga or betwixt that and Lake Otsago, as also the Books of Records which are at Windom. I have wrote about them affairs but you wrote that you fear to loose your half share men if a meeting don't provide for laying out &c. Good Sir I see no need of a meeting about the matter, you have all the Power in your hand that the Proprietors have, locate you Towns for them on the Company's cost with the rights you have in your Hands or they possess it would be well however for the sake of preserving good order that the Committee for laying do joyn with you herein, but lay them out in any figure or shape is judged best and necessary to accommodate the owners and is agreeable to the minds of the now ruling Committee may pitch single Farms if necessary where it makes no difficulty on the ground, But above all preserve good order and a proper subordination and harmony among yourselves, men thus Planted and desperate The angels from Heaven unless Divinely Commissioned could not disposses, moreover none of the old Located Towns that are Forfeited will stand in the way unless renewed by the Committee neither ought the Committee to renew unless upon Conditions of Immediate settlement and in such there can be no need of a renewal, in short for any of your People that are on the ground to possess any lands that are not absolutely and without dispute already converted to private property in the largest sense of the word I trust that no Proprietor that is out in the Country will ever be Cloathed with that Impudence as to desire he should be removed unless he have more land then comes to his share. The Country talk is a mere Joke and a farce and in my opinion has been the principal cause that the whole Country has not been settled beyond doubt long ago, even in case where there is no Jopardy in settling there can be no reason rendered why he that first goes should not have choise; this does no Injury to the rest of the Proprietors, the rest, of the lands are made proportionably more valuable for his settling and men very often misjudge at the first which is the best lands. my Friends go on, go on, but for God sake preserve rule and good order among yourselves but let no man be among you but who feels himself Interested, let him be pleased with his situation if possible this is the only true Policy. Thus Sir I have thrown out a few of my Fireside thoughts, I hope you will excuse me for they are sincere and what I am bold in and will ever endeavour to support, pray Sir, Present my best Compliments to Col Butler, & Mr. Johnson to your Supreme Committee in particular and Individually and to all my other acquaintances.

Pray God bless you all,

Your Friend & Brother in Tribulation
Hope and earnest Expectation,

JOS. HAMILTON,

Col John Franklin,
Motto Perseverance,

Supplement to the 24th of March.

Sir,

Your Paper negotiations are Political in several views; in the first place they Interest the Minds of different men in your favour and thus serves to Disarm, and secondly may procrastinate, however arguments will not do unless they are set home upon the Conscience by a view of a quick operating Phisic, This Phisic Doctor Smith, in his Letter Informs you, keep by you, if so and you administer well, you will be all good Doctors, (Hint) Burgoyne fell because he did not preserve a retreat to the Northward, you will observe that we have not as yet been disturbed on the slip of Land two miles wide on the North side of our Purchase, we have bought it of the natives & Pennsylvania do not claim it, no man has even a pretence to trouble us there and State Troops cannot be marched out of the State without breaking confederation these appears to me to be considerations very momentious in our present situation, Even Magazines and Warlike stores to defend against the Indians who it is said now threaten may lawfully be deposited there Cannon &c. N. B. you may depend on a visit from Head Doctor from the North (by the 15th) of the next of the Petitions with his apparatus Glisters Pipe and all. Capt. Strang is very buisy and will soon be there Mr. Beach is much wanted in those parts, in short I should not know how to do without his assistance it is best every one should be in a situation in which they can be most servicable we want resolution here as well as there and it will not do to Strike a man in the Streets in view of the Public without telling for what it is, for this we must constantly do in the Public Prints and every where else, otherwise we bring the resentment of the Public upon us.

GOV. SMALLWOOD, OF MARYLAND, TO PRES. DICKINSON, 1786.

Circular.

Maryland, Annapolis, 30 March, 1786.

Sir,

I have the honor of transmitting to your Excellency the enclosed Copy of An Act of the Legislature of this State, under the great Seal, passed in their last Session, extending the time limited for bringing in and settling Claims against this State by the Citizens thereof, and for limiting the time for bringing in and settling Claims against the said State by Citizens of the United States.

By particular direction of the General Assembly of this State, I have to request that you would be pleased to order the Substance of this Act to be published, or such part thereof as you may judge necessary for the information of the Citizens of your State.

The Duty on Salt in this State, is suspended after the 1st of April next, unless at that Time, or until there be a Duty laid on that Article in States of Virginia and Pennsylvania—this Contingency obliges me to request of your Excellency the earliest information on this Subject, that the views of the Legislature here may be carried into execution.

His Excellency The President of Pennsylvania.

STATEMENT OF MAJOR DAVID LENNOX, 1786.

I was taken Prisoner the 16th Nov., 1776, & Exchanged the 20th April, 1778, but was not released till the 15th May. I then joined the Army at Valley Forge, but found that I could not get the Rank to which I was entitled; however, having every wish to continue in the Service, I joined General Wayne's Family, & continued the whole Campaign. The Committee of Congress, consisting of General Read from this State, and Colonel Bannister from Virginia, together with the Commanding Officer of each Line, met at the White Plains in August, 1778, to ascertain the Rank of the Army. They, wishing to do me all the Justice in their power, fixed my Rank, Vizt, a Majority from the 7th June, 1777; but the situation of the Army did not admit of my getting the Command to which I was entitled—this is Certified by General Wayne, who was the then Commanding Officer of the Pennsy<sup>a</sup> Line. The Comptroller General has settled with me to the 20th April, 1778; but as I could not get my Command, I left the Army after the Campaign of 1778, & think it a hardship to be deprived of my Pay, &c., after that time. I refer to General Wayne's Certificate for the facts set forth.

DORSEY PENTECOST TO COUNCIL, 1786.

Washington County, 16th April, 1786.

Gentlemen.

About ten days ago a Mr. Graham, Excise officer for the three western Counties, was in the exercise of his office in this County, seized by a number of People and Treated in the following manner, viz. His Pistols which he carried before him taken, and broke to pieces in his Presence, his Commission and all his papers relating to his Office tore and thrown in the mud, and he forced, or made to stamp on them, and Imprecate curses on himself, the Commission and the Authority that gave it to him, they then cut off one half of his hair, cut the other half on one side of his Head, cut off the Cock of his Hat, and made him wear it in a form to render his Oue the most Conspicuous, this with many other marks of Ignominy they Impos'd on him & to which he was obliged to submit, and in the above plight they marched him amidst a Crowd from the frontiers of this County to Westmoreland County, caling at all the Still Houses in their way where they were Treated Gratis, and expos'd him to every Insult, and mockery that their Invention could contrive. They set him at Liberty at the entrance of Westmoreland but with Threats of utter Desolution should he dare to return to our County.

This Bandittie I am told denounces distruction, vengeance against all manner of People who dare to oppose, or even ganesay this their unparrelled behaviour, and that they will support every Person concerned against every opposition. I suppose they depend on their numbers for I am told the Combination is large.

I have thought it my duty as a good Citizen to give your Honorable Board information of this matchless and daring Insult offered to Government, and the necessity there is for a speedy and Exemplary punishing being inflicted on those atrocious offenders, for if this piece of conduct is lightly looked over no Civil officer will be safe in the Exercise of his duty, though some Gentlemen with whom I have conversed, think it would be best, and wish a mild prosecution, for my part I am of a different opinion, for it certainly is the most audacious and accomplished piece of outrageous, and unprovoked Insult that was ever offered to a Government and the Liberties of a free People, and what in my opinion greatly agravates their Guilt is, that it was not done in a Gust of Passion, but coolly, deliberately, and Prosecuted from day to day, and there appears such a desolute, and refractory spirit to prevade a Certain class of People here, particularly those concerned in the above Job, that demands the attention of Government, and the most severe punishment.

I am not able to give the names of all concerned, nor have I had an opportunity of making perticular enquiry but have received the foregoing information from different people on whom I can rely, neither do I think they have as many friends as they suppose, or would wish to make the public believe.

I have it not in my Power at this time to be as full and explicit as I could wish on this subject, as I have but Just time to hurry up this scrawl while the carrier is waiting.

I am Gentlemen,

W.H. SMITH AND OTHERS TO CORPORAL MONTGOMERY, 1786.

Sir,

My conscience, my oath to the State, binds me to inform, I wrote to Esqr. Shaw on the subject informing of a Design of forming a New State, which is to include Wioming, & also to include the Ginece & Territory of lands claimed by New York ; the Principal agents live in State of New York & Connecticut, I am become not only acquainted with those agents but their whole plan of proceedings by means of Letters which I have Intercepted. I have Neither Money or horse fit to ride, or I would have gone to Governor and Council myself, Colonel John Franklin & Captain Solloman Strong are principal actors, Strong lives in the State of New York, is now gone up to Wisock, where he pretends to have a Large share in a Town, which was laid out under Connecticut, Strong has told me and a number of others, that he went twice to Varmount before he could prevale with General Allen to come to Wioming, Strong said that he had Brought all in to fight General Devane who he Pretended was to come to Wioming with troops from Pennsylvania. Esqr. Shaw informed me that he expected to send fifty men here to Take if possible Allen & many others, which I described yesterday. Franklin and Allen left & set out to go to Connecticut in order to attend to a meeting of the Susquehanna Proprietors, Pray stop the intended force, if they are set out, send after them and call them back ; I wish that this matter may lie still, & my proceedings remain a Secret untill the minds of Governor & Council are made manifest to me, & the undersigners, who are the only Persons in the settlement acquainted with my discoveries, who are harty in the Cases, whenever we shall get orders from authority, we will Take & deliver to the authority at Sunsburey, the following persons, Ethan Allen, John Franklin, Soloman Strong, James Fin, John Jinkens, Christopher Holbert. Their Designs is if possable to purswade the people on the west Branch to joyn them. Franklin & Jinkens did engage James Fin, a Baptise Minister some time Back, to make a visit to the west branch and to preach about amongst the people there, and feale out their minds in regard to a New State. If Allen, Franklin & Strong were removed, the others would do but Little ; the longer the matter is delayed, the stronger they get, they have some ammunition stored, and some provision in store, a timely exertion would perhaps prevent a deal of trouble and blood-shead. Allin and Franklin and Strong have used many arguments & stratagims to seduce the People and prejudice them against Pennsylvania ; but to little purpose. I have put up many advertisements urging the people to attend to their Duty agreeable to their Ingagements. Allin and Franklin and Strong made it their business to go from district to district and pul down my papers, which were put up and repeatedly threatened my life, which I disregard. I expect Captain Shools & we will soon call the people together ; the people in General are determined to adhear to Pennsylvania. I have with unwearied labor & argument got the people to believe that Pennsylvania will do us Justice. If we were properly organized with authority we would Exert ourselves when the above men arive, if they should have force, & we think it not prudent to attempt taking them, we shall call on you for assistance.

P. S.—I send you Copies of the papers which I had put up in each District.

Sir, we the undersigners, are obedient humble Servts.,

DEPOSITION OF JOHN LEITH,—INDIAN ROBBERIES, 1786.

Pittsburg, May 16th, 1786.

The Information of Mr. John Leith Being this Inst. arrived from Muskingum, from his Camp, he says that he arrived at his Camp from this place on Saturday the thirteenth of this Month and on his arrival he found every thing to his Satisfaction, Only that by making Inquire he found, that there was two Delaware Indians had come there above a Quarter of an hour before him, who Informed him that there was a Certain William Dawson and a Charles McClain, who was In the Indian trading bussiness was Robbed of all there Goods & property that he had with them, that same Morning about Eleven O'clock, Likewise four of their working hands Killed. And the opinion of the above Mentioned Indians of Dawson & McClains Lives being Sav'd was as the had Being formly British Traders But at this time the have had their Goods from the United States, the same two Indians told Mr. Leith to Depart from that place as Quick as possible as he was in very Great danger of his Life, the Likewise was so frendly with him that the took upon themselves to Secure all his Goods & property that he had at his Camp & for himself to Escape Immediately as the were very sure, there would be a party of Cherokees & Mingo Indians, there that Night to Cutt them all of Likewise, the told him that there was another party gone to the Salt Licks If the had not already gott there and Cut the white people of that were there. Upon the hearing of this News he Immediately Departed from that place, unto here, Leaving all his property in the Care of the two Mentioned Indians & one more who was hired with him.

Sir,

A few days ago a Committee appointed at this place wrote to the President & Supreme Executive informing them of our situation & the disposition of the Indians from the different information we had received. I am very sorry that I must address you, to give the now information to Council again for which information, I inclose you the deposition of Mr. John Leith a Man employed by Mr. Duncan in the Indian Trade. I would also mention that although it is propable that the Delaware Indians & Wyandotes which to be friendly, yet something ought to be done as the People that are now doing the Mischief are part of the Mingoe Nation, & that Nation not calling them to an account shows that they must countenance them in it, or that they are afraid to say any thing to them. Mr. Duncan sets off to Morrow Morning to look after his property, at his return I will give you such information as I may receive.

WM. SHAW TO COUNCIL, 1786.

Col. Montgomery's, May 18th, 1786.

To His Excellency the President and the Supreme Executive Council of the State of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen,

At the request of Cap't John Paul Schott, agent for the settlers at Wyoming, I arrived at that place on the 9th of April last, for the purpose of taking recognizance of the People who were willing to comply with a law passed the 24th day of Dec'r last, where one hundred and seventy-eight of said settlers entered into recognizance on and before the 15th of April, agreeable to law; and afterwards a number took the oath allegiance to the State, and the inhabitants in general then appeared very desirous of being Citizens, untill unluckily on the 27th, Co'. Athen Allen came to Wyoming, who alarmed them by telling them he despised their treating with Pennsylv'a, that he had formed one new State, and with one hundred Green Mountain Boys, and two hundred Rifle men he could make that a new State in defiance of Pennsylvania; on the 10th Instant I received a letter from a settler there nearly to the same purport of one inclosed by Col. Wm. Montgomery, Esqr., which I shewed to a few, who advised I should again go up to Wyoming, which I did, and the 14th arrived there. I found a number that did not seem to be so familiar as formily, I also meet with a number who appeared to be much in favor of, and wished to comply with the Laws of the State, one of whom produced me the copy of a letter he had intercepted and taken, which he made oath before me was a true one, a copy of which I inclose. The man is a person who may be relied on but wished his name might not be made known lest some of the enemies of the state would take away his life for it, on the evening of the 14th the Sheriff of this County arrive at Wioming and on the three following days served several Writs, but most of them on whom they were served refused to give bail bonds, and on the 17th a num-her of them collected and ordered the Sheriff to leave the place in two hours, or they would abuse him. On the same evening we left the place.

The Schemes of the Proprietors of the Susquehanna Company is discovered by the inclosed Copy of a letter from Joseph Hamilton To John Franklin, Which perhaps might be good policy in government to endeavour to prevent by raising and sending some men there which would be a means of encouraging those that are friendly to the government and Laws of this State and a discouragement to those who are wavering, much will depend on the firmness of the soldiery and the disinterestedness of the Officers.

I am Gentlemen with Esteem your Obedient Humble Serv't,

WM. SHAW.

WM. MONTGOMERY TO COUNCIL, 1786.

Northbd., May 20th, 1786.

His Excellency the President & the Honorable the Supreme Executive Council, &c.

Since the inclosed letter of the 17th A meeting was had of the Justices, The Sheriff, The Lieutenant of the County & a Number of other Principal Gentlemen where upon consideration of the Intelligence from Wyoming they intirely concur in sentiment (respecting the danger) with the representation in my Letter & that of Wm. Shaw, Esq'r, and are clearly & decidedly of opinion that, no time, not a moment should be lost; That there is the greatest & most eminent danger of a dismemberment of the state; That the party under Ethan Allen, John Franklin & Solomon Strong increase daily; Their most limited pretensions extend to the whole of the 42d Degree of Latitude; That from the nature of their views they will be a combined force acting constantly and in concert, as their encroachments, like the feudal system of old, will furnish the reward of their adherents and followers: And no person in the State however remote from the present scene, if within the above limit, can hope to continue a Pennsylvanian without the most speedy, effectual, and vigorous exertion of Government in suppressing this dangerous insurrection. That as there appears still a Number of People at Wioming who talk in a favorable strain, whether they are sincere, God knows, But if there are any sincere friends there they should not be lost, their timely support might have a powerful tendency to divide the party and the more readily crush the scheme. It is also the opinion of all present that it is extremely proper to give you this timely information by a person of Intelligence, and for that purpose have unanimously appointed Genl. John Bull, Esq., to carry these Dispatches, to whom they beg leave to refer you for more minute and particular Information.

WM. MONTGOMERY TO C. J. MCKEAN, 1786.

North'hd, May 20th, 1786.

Honored Sir,

I do myself the honor of inclosing you a copy of an intercepted letter which placeth the designs of a Number of People at Wioming in a clear and decided point of view; there we are informed of some of the active persons in the scheme of a new and Independent state; of the best mode of carrying it on, and of the then expected arrival of Col. Ethan Allen from Vermont, since the writing of which Allen has arrived, talks freely of a new state, Reprobrates the Idea of submission to Pennsylvania; and he in conjunction with a Col. John Franklin of that place and a Captain Solomon Strong of New York State are gone about a week ago to meet the Susquehannah Company to consult what measures are next to be pursued—We find they have some ammunition & stores laid up so that upon the whole it appears to us beyond a doubt that a dismemberment of the State will take place unless immediate force prevent, for we find that no overtures can be made that will satisfy all parties there, The most limited claim of the Schemers is the whole of the 42d Degree of Latitude throughout Pennsylvania—Can she submit to this; she cannot; Surely our yeomenry will no longer say, it is a Land Jobing Quarrel. The Bill for striking them off as a separate County eventually seems to put that out of Question; it is no longer a private Quarrel, it is now become a serious Governmental concern, and I hope Pennsylvania will support as dignified a Character in this affair, and assert her supremacy as fully as she did her Independence in the late Revolution, it is wished here by a meeting of the most respectable Characters at this place that you might be informed of the state of things here as you will have an opportunity on the effort to communicate the information, and remove the scruple of Gentlemen about interesting themselves in the controversy, as supposing it rather a debate about private property than otherwise—Wm. McClay will hand you this, from whom you will hear every thing more particularly on this subject.

I remain with the greatest respect

In Council, Philada., May 27th, 1786.

Sir,

We have received your Letter of the 18th. Inst.* by Gen. Bull with the important Intelligence of the Steps taken by some restless Men to raise fresh Disturbance among the Settlers at Wyoming after the good Disposition you had so lately left those People in when you had been among them, taking their Recognizance & Oath of Allegiance. We still hope that the Pains you took in that serviceable Journey, will not be lost, but continue to have a good Effect in disappointing the Projects of those who aim at continuing a Discord that cannot possibly produce any Good. You may be assured that no imprudent use will be made of the Letter you communicated. It is to be regretted that when Measures were in Mediation by the Government to accommodate the Difference, fresh Occasion of Tumult should be afforded by the Sheriff's going up to serve Writs of Ejectment there, which might possibly by those Measures have been rendered unnecessary.
